CHELSEA HI DEFEATS DEXTER AS BASKET BALL SEASON OPENS

Local Teams Make Good Showing In Double Header; Will Play Ann Arbor Here Friday Night.

Chelsea High defeated Dexter Friday night in a hard fought battle, the first basket ball game of the season. The Purple and Gold boys did not get warmed up in the first half. They didn't seem to be able to locate the basket and their passing was ragged. However, the defense was good for the most of Dexter's points were made from the center of the floor. Dexter led at the half, 15 to 11.

In the second half our boys seemed like a different bunch. Steger got "hot" and began to rush shots from any spot on the floor. He piled up 19 points. The team work, accurate passing and straight shooting could not be halted by the Dexter aggregation.

Chelsea playing a man to man defense kept her territory under the basket air-tight. Considering the fact that this was the first game, and played on a strange floor we say that the team is in fine condition.

The line-up was as follows:

Chelsea		Dexter
Steger	rf	Cushing
H. Holmes	lf	Chase
Steiner	c	Nixon
Fahrner	rg	Toth
Staffan	lg	Steeb

Friday the Varsity and Reserves play the two teams from V. Hi of Ann Arbor, at Chelsea. Everyone come and see one of the best teams Chelsea has ever had.

In the preliminary game before the boys played, the girls also won their first game of the season. They took on as their opponents the Dexter High girls. The playing was about even during the first half, neither team could get the best of the other. The half-way mark ended with the score 12-11, with Chelsea on the long end. The third period began with competition still going strong. The Chelsea High school girls, however, began to take the lead. The fine team work and snappy passwork down the floor kept Dexter girls in the background. Chelsea kept gaining, Dexter's points remaining the same as at the end of the half, until when the final whistle blew Chelsea had surpassed Dexter to the tune of 19-11.

Line-up was as follows:

Chelsea		Dexter
D. Steiner	rf	B. Weber
J. Turnbull	lf	M. Weber
R. Brooks	c	A. Marshall
V. Wheeler	rc	F. Cushing
P. Jones	rg	M. Hincel
K. Hindelang	lg	L. Savery

The girls have started a successful season, and have promised to keep the good name they made for themselves last Friday evening.

PIONEER RESIDENT ANSWERS FINAL CALL

Thomas Leach Dies Monday At Home On Harrison Street; Funeral Services Wednesday

Thomas Leach was born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, in 1845, and died at his home on Harrison street, Monday, December 10, 1928.

For a number of years he worked with his father, who conducted a boot and shoe business in the block now occupied by Adam Faist and Wm. Wheeler. Later he, with Thos. Wilkinson, as partner, conducted a boot and shoe business in the place that is now occupied by the Schenk dry goods store.

He was married in 1868 to Miss Mary Goodyear of Dexter township. To this union were born four children, Alonzo, Lucy, Mabel and Minnie. Alonzo and Minnie died several years ago. Mr. Leach purchased the farm now owned by Gottlieb Bollinger and the family lived there until the death of the mother in 1916.

He again married in 1916, to Mrs. Della Denman, and has made his home in Chelsea for the past twelve years.

Besides the widow he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lucy Moore of Ontario, California, and four grandchildren, Mrs. Mabel Artz of Chelsea, four half brothers, Dennis Leach of Jackson, Alvin Leach of Beaverton, George and Robert Leach of Chelsea, one half sister, Mrs. Margaret Norton of Battle Creek.

He was a familiar figure upon the streets of Chelsea and (had a smile and good word for everyone. He will be missed by the community at large.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, 2:00 o'clock at the house and 2:30 at the Congregational church, Rev. A. E. Potts officiating. Burial in Oak Grove cemetery.

Methodist Ladies Will Banquet Football Team

Desiring to honor the members of the Chelsea high school foot ball team for the splendid record they have made during the past season, the ladies of the M. E. church have decided to tender the members of the team, the subs, and their coaches, a banquet on Tuesday evening next at 6:00. The banquet will take place at the dining room of the church and the success of the affair is assured, because the Methodist ladies never fail to do things in a very creditable manner.

The Chelsea team has made a most enviable record for the past two years and the banquet will be a fine compliment to pay them. This season they played a total of ten games and out of that number they lost but one—the game with Vicksburg in which they were not treated fairly.

It is not expected, of course, that any of the members of the team or any of the substitutes will be late for the fine dinner which will be served at 6:00 o'clock.

KIWANIANS ENTERTAIN AT CHRISTMAS PARTY

Eighty-one Kiwanians, Ladies and Guests Present for Annual Event; Santa Claus Also Appears

Chelsea Kiwanians, their ladies and guests gathered at the high school gymnasium Monday evening and enjoyed a Christmas party, an event which has been held annually by the local club since its organization several years ago.

A sumptuous banquet was served by ladies of the Methodist church at 7:15, with a menu consisting of roast pork, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cabbage salad, apple sauce, rolls, pumpkin pie and coffee.

Harry Young, secretary of Kiwanis International No. 1, Detroit since its organization in that city in 1915, was the speaker of the evening. His talk was a brief outline of Kiwanis activities and rapid growth throughout the United States and Canada since the beginning fourteen years ago.

Mr. Young concluded his address just in time for the audience to extend a warm welcome to "dear old Santa" who dropped down out of the air to pay his respects to the people present in his characteristic witty and humorous manner. He also left presents for some of the "good little boys and girls" before departing for parts unknown.

Music was furnished during the banquet by Eastlake's Hawaiian orchestra of Ann Arbor, they also furnishing music for the dance following the program. A number of club songs led by P. F. Niehaus, were also enjoyed during the banquet.

Monday evening's program and arrangements were in charge of George Wood Hayes, local Kiwanian.

Pupils of Mrs. P. M. Broesamle Give Recital

At the close of the recital Mrs. Broesamle presented each pupil with a box of handkerchiefs as a token of love and esteem in which she held each one.

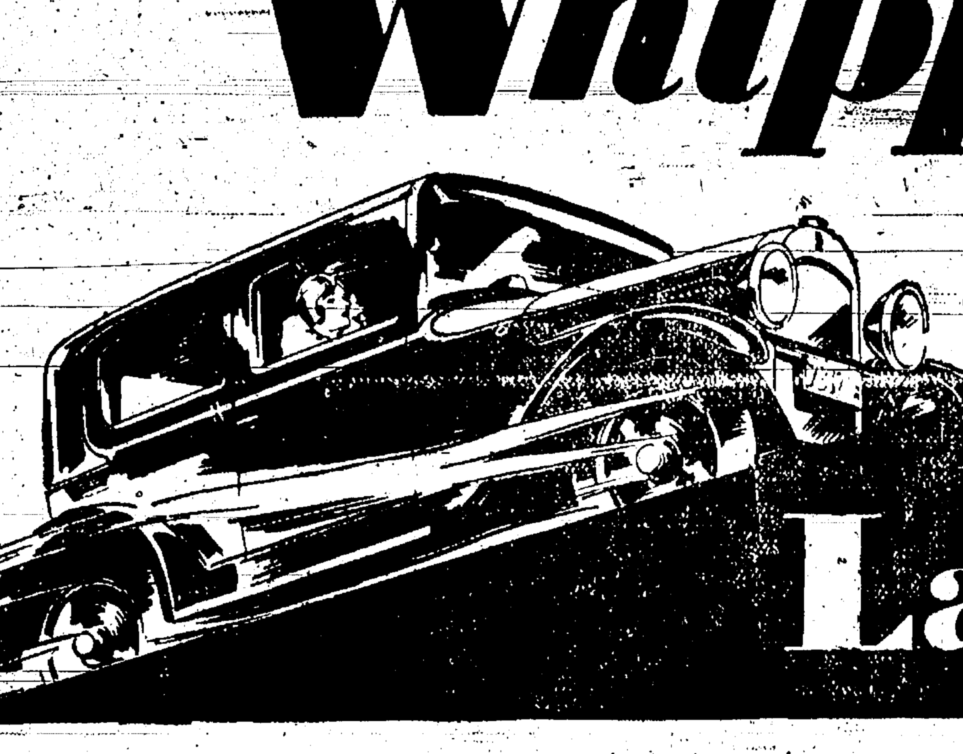
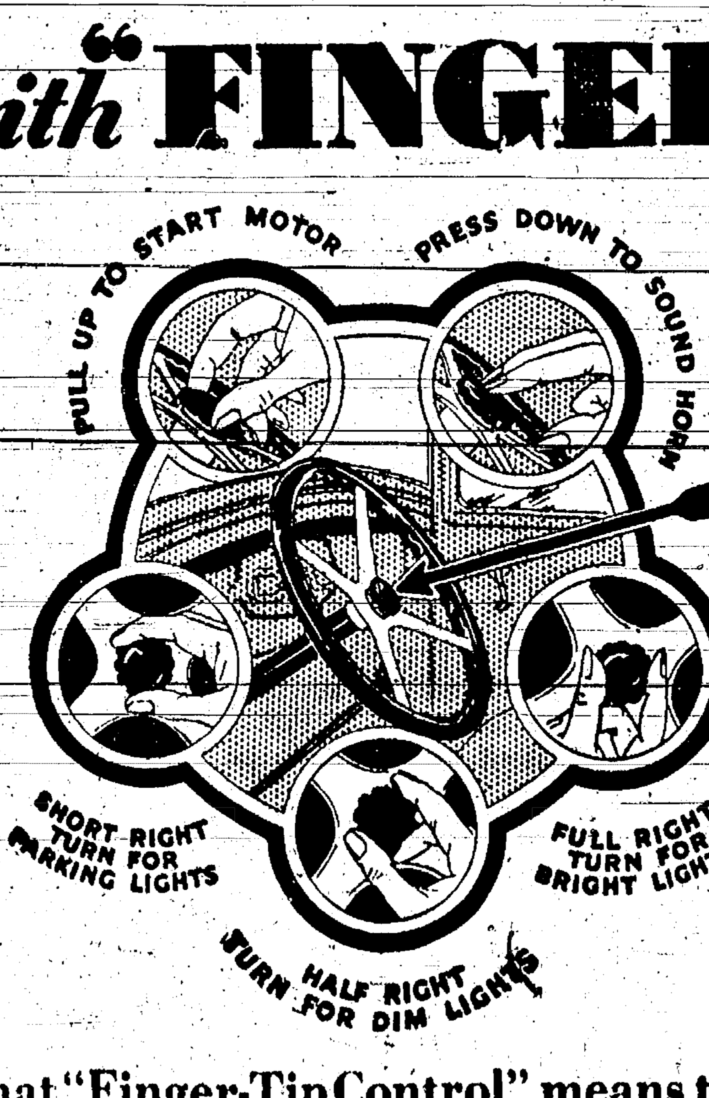
ANNOUNCING NEW SUPERIOR Whippet



Greater Beauty, Larger Bodies!

with "FINGER-TIP CONTROL"



—the most notable advance in driving convenience since the self-starter

What "Finger-Tip Control" means to you

Greater Convenience: A single button, conveniently located in the center of the steering wheel, controls all functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn.

This fundamental improvement does away with all troublesome foot fumbling for the starting button, a frequent source of annoyance particularly to women drivers. It also avoids changing from the comfortable driving position to reach a light switch on the dash.

Greater Safety: With the new "Finger-Tip Control," you can at all times keep your hands on the wheel and your eyes on the road. An important safety factor, especially when driving at night.

TODAY Willys-Overland presents for public judgment the new superior line of Whippet Fours and Sixes, setting new standards of beauty and comfort for low-priced cars.

Longer bodies, higher radiator and hood, richer colors, heavier one-piece full-crown fenders—all these contribute to the trim, smart appearance that denotes creative genius and superlative mastery of modern design.

Roomier bodies, greater comfort

More spacious interiors in the new Superior Whippet afford added leg room and elbow room. The wider, form-fitting seats are deeply upholstered . . . all passengers enjoy restful positions.

The longer wheelbase, plus the lengthened springs both front and rear, plus oversize balloon tires, and snubbers—all combine to the perfection of far easier riding under all driving conditions.

Greater power, greater speed

In mechanical improvements the new Superior Whippet advances even over its famous predecessor. The new higher compression engine gives more than 20% added horsepower, resulting in increased speed, faster pick-up and greater hill-climbing ability. A completely redesigned steering gear makes the new Superior Whippet instantly responsive to the lightest touch.

Through these further advances in scientific engineering, dependable performance and minimum operating costs are assured.

Order now for early delivery

See the new Superior Whippet today. An inspection and a demonstration will reveal to you an entirely new standard of dollar-for-dollar value in low-priced automobiles.

Going Home For Christmas

By Rutherford Worris

THE train sped on its way through the frozen country as if trying desperately to outstrip the furious fall of snow. Russell Hansford put aside his magazine to enjoy the spectacle and to meditate happily on this visit he was making to the old home town. It was the first since leaving abruptly ten years before in answer to the call of a wealthy bachelor uncle who wanted to train him for the management of his profitable business from which he hoped to retire within a few years.

None of the Hansfords now lived there, but Ridgewood, where he had grown to young manhood, would always be "home" to Russell. The glamour of business success had not dimmed his ardor for old associations. He loved every foot of ground in and around the town, as well as its inhabitants; but above all things else he treasured the memory of Lucy Miles, the sprightly little dark beauty whom he had loved and played with in childhood and with whom he had gone through the Ridgewood schools.

He had gone away without asking her to go with him as his wife, because his future, at that time, seemed very uncertain. He would get a good start, he planned, then go back for the dear girl. But Russell Hansford tarried too long over the job of getting ready. A strange man had come out of the West to win Lucy's heart, and had placed her beyond his hope. No other girl had ever interested him.

He sighed now as he reflected, and wondered if by any chance she, too, should be going back home for the holidays.

On and on the train dashed, his eager desire keeping pace with its mad speed. Suddenly he and all other passengers were thrown violently from their seats. Brakes screeched. All realized that there had been an accident.

An automobile had been struck on a crossing, the way being obscured, no doubt, by the heavy snowfall. The injured were placed aboard the baggage car to be taken to the hospital at Ridgewood, only a few miles farther on.

"You!"

At the station Russell made haste to lend aid, if possible, to the sufferers, and some one in the crowd was heard to say:

"It is John Miles and his sister Mrs. Gainstone."

Russell's heart-beats seemed to stop short.

"Lucy!" he murmured to himself. He pushed forward to see. One glance at the upturned face was enough. "Yes, Lucy. And my train struck her down."

The homecoming meant nothing to him now; nothing unless he could bring comfort to the injured.

At the hospital he waited to learn the state of the patients and was told that John was not seriously hurt, but that Mrs. Gainstone might not recover. She had not regained consciousness.

"Has her husband been notified?" he asked a little later.

Bringing Lonely Men and Women Together

A serious effort to solve the marriage problem for lonely men and women, who have about given up hope, has been undertaken by Le Quotidien, Paris newspaper.

"There are no longer old maids, for there are too many of them who travel life's road alone," says Madame Albine Alburan, a feminist writer, who is in charge of the work. In four years working alone, she says, she has arranged 60 marriages, "none of them ending in divorce."

She proposes to extend her efforts by publishing brief unsigned statements from both women and men, she meantime exercising what supervision she can over the "candidates" and their correspondence.

Through some misunderstanding of dates members of the Wesley Guild of Ann Arbor didn't appear Sunday afternoon and Rev. Balmer gave a few remarks to the assembled members.

Mrs. Alice Chapin passed another milestone last Thursday and was pleased by a visit of her son from Flint. He left a fine cluster of roses for his mother's remembrance.

A member of the family, who fortunately has a car is having much pleasure in taking the other members of the Home for an outing these beautiful winter days. He is enjoying it far more than the riders possibly can. Any one who has been missed just tip a wink at him and their longing will be satisfied.

Mrs. Susan Danson had a visit from her old friend Mrs. Arthur Wade of Detroit. Her husband is one of the violinists in the symphony orchestra of that city of which so many of our members have been enthralled.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rowland of Detroit visited with Mrs. Ione Gorton Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. B. Hayes of Grosse Point.

Mrs. L. C. Brabb, who has been confined to her room some time by a heavy cold is at her accustomed place again in the family circle.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Home was held Tuesday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Miss Alice Brown presided. Mrs. E. R. Reed had charge of the devotional exercises. Selections were read by Miss Abbie Carey and Miss Esther Fish. Mrs. Louise MacAdams acted as program manager.

Mrs. E. B. Hammond was a caller on Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bowen, Tuesday.

Mrs. Ione Gorton entertained Sunday, several guests: Mrs. Truesdale of Belleville, Mrs. Ione Cooper, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burke and daughter of Highland Park.

Mrs. L. C. Brabb on Sunday enjoyed a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Atwood McAndrews and her daughter, Mary Alice of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. M. Swarthout laid aside her duties in the culinary department Monday afternoon long enough to visit the dentist to part with an ulcered tooth.

Next Sunday afternoon a delegation from the Epworth League of the Ypsilanti Methodist church are expected to take charge of the services.

That the members of the Home are still interested, in spite of their advancing years, in Sunday school work and Bible study is indicated by forty members subscribing for the Sunday school senior quarterly magazine. A Bible class is maintained and one of the members acting as leader.

Mrs. Carrie Gowin has been under the doctor's care of late, so she has been unable to continue her work on card decorations.

The ladies adjoining the south sun parlor on the second floor have fixed up a very cozy retreat. They are indebted to Mrs. Ellen Galbraith who supplied a new rug and curtains for the place.

Mrs. Claribell Colby of Detroit, visited Miss Alvira Whipple, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Bradley of New York, visited the latter's aunt, Mrs. Louisa McArthur, last Sunday.
