soft, undefined, and feathery, the weather will be fine; if the edges are hard, sharp, and definite, it will be foul. Generally speaking, any deep unusual hues betoken wind and rain while the more quiet and delicate tints bespeak fair weather. Simply as these maxims are the British Board of Trade has thought fit to publish them for the use of sea-faring men.

The Seven Ancient Wonders.

The cholera has again broken out in a virulent manner at several places in Russia and Hungary.

The trial of Christopher Rafferty for the murder of Policeman O'Meara, in Chicago, last August, was concluded at Waukegan, Ill., on Wednesday. He was found guilty of murder in the first degree, and was sentenced to death by hanging.

BRIEF MENTION. The Whitaker's sale of pure Merino Ewes, on Thursday last, came off as well as could be expected. They averaged about $11.00 per head. Yesterday (Wednesday) was the commencement of Lent, so that the season of gaiety and parties is rapidly growing to a close. The bill allowing the citizens of Ann Arbor to raise, by loan, one third of the cost of the proposed new Court House has passed both Houses of the Legislature. The Great Industries of the United States, a very valuable, interesting and instructive work, can be seen by calling at this office. Only a few copies. Judge Boardman has denied the motion for a new trial in the Stokes case. His counsel applied to Judge Davis, of the Supreme Court for a stay of proceedings, which has been granted. Mr. John Mitchell, whose death is noticed elsewhere, was one of the oldest settlers of Lima, having purchased his farm of the government more than forty years ago, and had resided on it ever since. NOTICE—All those indebted to G. H. Coleman, either by book or note account, are requested to call immediately and settle the same. As he intends to have his books on the credit system closed up as soon as possible. HELP THEM OFF.—We occasionally meet with a man that is ever cursing the place in which he resides, and has prospered, and when we do, we generally consider the sooner he is out of it the better, as such men are a curse to any community. We are informed that C. S. Laird is going to occupy the store at the corner formerly occupied by Aaron Durand, on or about the first of March. He also intends to have on about that time, a large and well selected stock of boots and shoes. NOTICE—All those indebted to the firm of L. Babcock & Co., either by book or note account, are requested to call and settle the same. Messrs. Babcock & Co. have taken their books to Wood Brothers store, where they will be happy to wait on all their debtors and creditors. WELCOME TO STRANGERS.—We are happy to inform the readers of the HERALD, that a Mr. James M. Martin, from Howell, Mich., an able and talented lawyer of some fame, has come to Chelsea, to make it his home. We wish him success. See card in business column on third page. NOTICE—A meeting of the Farmers' Club will be held at the School House in Chelsea, on Saturday, March 8th, 1873. A full attendance is requested, as the present secretary is about to leave the place, and it is highly necessary that another be appointed to fill his place. L. CAMPBELL, Sec'y. The Goodyear block, at Manchester, occupied by Rose & Brinzel, hardware firm, and C. H. Nichols, dealer in dry goods, has been sold by the assignees to Dr. A. Conklin and G. Conklin, and it is rumored that they intend fitting it up as a hotel. R. COON and H. BUREH have also bought the hotel of the same parties. CASH SYSTEM.—G. H. Coleman our drug and grocery merchant, intends on and after the first day of March, 1873, that he will sell only on a cash system. And he also intends to keep on hand the purest of drugs—and one of the best selected stock of groceries, that Chelsea can produce—cheap for cash. Call on him and be convinced of the fact. Unclaimed Letters. LIST of Letters remaining in the Post Office, at Chelsea, Feb. 20, 1873. Andrews, L. C. Miss Backus, N. W. Jr. Butts, Henry Beatley & Chapman, Conely, Dora, Carrie, Freeman, Dutton, Cora Miss Eaton, Orin J. Field, Abner L. Gripe, William Gordon, Albert King, Jennie Miss Gordon, A. A. Mrs. Quinlan, Wm. 2. Sullivan, J. H. Leal, S. D. Wing, Uchida. Persons calling for any of the above letters, please say advertised. GEO. J. CROWELL, P. M. A clever author says there are three kinds of men in the world—"THE WILL, the word, and the deed." The first effect in everything, the next oppose everything, and the last fail in everything. "I will" builds our railroads and steamboats; "I won't" don't believe in experiments and nonsense; while "I can't" grows weeds for wheat, and commonly cuds his days in the court of bankruptcy.

MARRIED. At the M. E. Parsonage in Chelsea, on February 4th, 1873, by Rev. Wm. B. Holt, Mr. W. H. SHARPE and Miss MARTHA BEACH, both of Lima, Mich. On Wednesday, February 19, 1873, by Rev. L. C. Pattengill, Mr. FRANK A. SCOTT of State Center, Iowa, to Miss ADELIA FREER, of Lima, Mich. DIED. At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Emily Dancer, in the town of Lima, on the 10th day of February, 1873, Mrs. HARRIET GULLEY, aged 74 years. Deceased came from New York to this State in 1855, since which time she has been a resident of Lima. She buried her husband 35 years ago, and after a long and peaceful life, at last is placed beside his remains. She has been an active and sincere Christian for over 40 years. She leaves a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. A Singular Dispensation. The death of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, two of the oldest settlers of the township of Lima, within thirty minutes of each other is certainly a singular dispensation of providence. Mr. Mitchell was seventy-nine years of age, his wife a number of years younger. Mr. M. has been in feeble health for a number of years, while his wife has enjoyed good health. Mr. M. grew rapidly worse, showing that his end was near at hand, and his family at a distance was telegraphed for to "come home," while, Mrs. M. as usual, continued to nurse him with the tenderest and most devoted attention, until Saturday evening, the 15th inst., when the family and other attendants prevailed upon her to retire to bed and seek rest and repose. To this she assented, but in a short time after retiring, was taken with pains in her limbs, which extended up to her side, thence to her head. She continued to grow worse until about 9 o'clock Sunday evening—less than 24 hours from the first attack—when she expired. Her husband lingered behind but half an hour, when he too followed across the dark river, and those two, so devoted to each other during 40 years, passed from life within a few moments of each other, leaving behind a large and interesting family of grown up daughters and one son—also two sons of Mr. Mitchell's by former marriage. On the 18th inst., they were buried, side by side, near their late dwelling. The funeral was very largely attended by the immediate family, relatives, friends and neighborhood. It is safe to say that the deceased were highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of their acquaintance, and all who admire and love true and constant Christian character. COM. Henry Ward Beecher in making a tour west, will lecture before the Students' Lecture Association, at the Opera House in Ann Arbor, on Wednesday evening, March 5, 1873. Subject: "Manhood or Money." A talk upon legislative corruption, with special reference to the Credit Mobilier. It is well known that Mr. Beecher is the greatest of pulpit orators, and a man whose general ability as a writer is unsurpassed. His subject is a live one, and one towards which the attention of the government as well as the people is now turned. To hear it discussed by a man of such acknowledged ability as Mr. Beecher, we are sure is an opportunity all will be glad to improve. Tickets can be procured at the store of Gillmore & Fisk, in Ann Arbor, on and after Saturday, March 1st. Tickets of admission, $1.00; reserved seats, $1.50. During the pleasant afternoons of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week, the side walks on Main street, were presented with a lovely appearance. The young ladies of the village turned out en masse, bent either on shopping or pleasure, and their smiling faces and gorgeous attire, made up a scene, lovely indeed to behold; but those pleasant days did not last long—on Friday John Frost put in his appearance and made the scene look different. We have received a report of the Trustees of the Michigan Asylum for the Insane, covering the period from Dec. 1, 1870, to Sept. 30, 1872. This shows that there were 303 patients in the institution at the commencement and close of the period embraced in the report. The whole number treated in the time has been 490; number received, 135; discharged recovered, 86; discharged improved, 32; discharged unimproved, 40; died, 27. Odd Fellowship.—From the report of the Secretary of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows, which convened in annual session at Lansing on Monday, we learn that the number of grand encampments of the order is 35, and the number of subordinate encampments is 1,280. The whole number of members initiated during the year just closed was 6,972; admitted by card, 1,032; reinstated, 312; total, 8,316. During the same period, 1,038 withdrew by card; 2,127 were suspended or dropped; and 415 died, total, 3,678. This shows a net increase for the year of 4,639, making a total present membership of 67,813. The total receipts were $259,036.64, and the amount granted as relief funds $93,998.85. Reports are to the effect that the order is in a very satisfactory and flourishing condition. POSITION IN SLEEPING.—Sleeping should always be so arranged, if possible, as to allow the head of the sleeper to be toward the north. Frequently in cases of sickness a person will find it impossible to obtain rest if the head is in any other direction, and often a cure is retarded for a long time. A Vienna physician had a patient who was suffering from severe rheumatism, with painful cramps running from the shoulders to the fingers; and while his head was to the south he could do nothing towards his relief. On turning the bed, however, so that the head was

A SALT LAKE newspaper job office is threatened with a suit for publishing obscene literature, in having printed to order, in pamphlet form, some of the sermons of Brigham Young. The offensive matter, the corollary language of the Prophet, is incredibly vile.

The Grand Jury at Jacksonville, Oregon, has indicted a number of Capt. Jack's Modoc warriors for murder.

The tribulation of the Mormon leaders, in view of the possibility of decisive Congressional action against their peculiar institution, is becoming daily more manifest, and their removal from Utah is being seriously discussed. It is intimated that negotiations have been entered for the exclusive possession of one of the Sandwich Islands.

A SALT LAKE dispatch states that agents of the priesthood are circulating for signature a petition to Congress for the appointment of a commission to visit Utah and investigate the matters at issue between the Gentiles and Mormons. The object is understood solely to stave off legislation till better arrangements can be made to effect the removal of the Mormons from Utah. The Government effort to enforce the law, Mrs. E. J. Sullivan, wife of French Grove, Ill., was recently choked to death by a rabbit bone.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections have reported that the election of Senator Caldwell, of Kansas, was invalid, but they do not report in favor of expulsion, believing that he was in some sense a victim of sharpshooters. It is stated that President Grant's Southern tour will be of the greatest significance to the people of that section. The President commencing starting on the 20th of March, and expected to be accompanied by nearly all of his Cabinet, besides many distinguished gentlemen—Senators, members of Congress, and others. This flag of the new Spanish Republic is to be violet, white and red. A union between Spain and Portugal is seriously talked of. Germany, it is said, will immediately recognize the Spanish Republic in Spain. The Spanish Republic is expected to issue a decree abolishing all titles and decorations. The Vienna Exposition building is completed, and goods are arriving.

SPAIN: A bill abolishing capital punishment has been introduced in the National Assembly. The Royal Guard has been suppressed. The establishment of the Republic has been celebrated in Madrid by a grand illumination; the streets were brilliantly lit, and there was no discord. Advice from the provinces report tranquillity everywhere, save in the districts controlled by Carlists. It is said that the army is opposed to the Republic, and favors a monarchy, but is divided in its choice for a ruler between the Duke of Montpensier and the ex-Queen Isabella. Among the measures contemplated by the Ministry are the separation of Church and State, and the appointment of Judges for life. Minister Sallés has formally congratulated President Pura on the establishment of the Republic, and the dignity of the Republic was made. Barcelona has hoisted the flag of the Republic. The Senate committee appointed to consider the testimony taken by the House committee, which included Senators, and a statement of the Hon. Stevens, was made before them. The former, and having taken the Credit Mobilier stock, said he had nothing to add to his statement made to the House committee. Senator Harlan admitted receiving over $5,000 from one time, and the same amount at another time from the Vice-President of the Union Pacific railroad, to aid in his election as Senator from Iowa. He maintained that this was needed to pay hotel bills, printing, etc. Senator Wilson detailed again his statement that it was his wife's money which went into the Credit Mobilier stock on Ames' advice, but that he (Wilson) had also advised the investment, and was alike legally and morally responsible, and did not want to shrink from his whole story.
