All communications should be addressed to

Legal Printing.—Persons having legal advertising to do, should remember that it is not necessary that it should be published in the county seat—any paper published in the county will answer. In all matters transpiring in this vicinity, the interest of the advertisers will be better served, by having the notices published in their home paper, than to take them to a paper that is not as generally read in their vicinity, besides it is the duty of every one to support home institutions as much as possible.

CHELSEA HERALD.

CHELSEA, AUGUST 7, 1879.

Written for the Chelsea Herald.
"The Passage of Time."
BY E. E. ROGERS.

The childhood hours of man are past,
Less rapid than the last;
O, may I with a verse of rhyme,
"Roll back the tide of Time."

Ah, very well it seems to me,
Enshrined in days of jubilee;
That to the years in scores and ten,
Ne'er see we our youth again.

O, then the gloom of Erebus,
The murmuring of the shrouded place;
To our "eternal resting place,"
Shall we alone retire.

"August."
BY E. E. ROGERS.

Dip down upon our labor wrought,
Like gentle showers falling;
Bedeck the graves with which thou ought,
Like gentle angels calling.

The wise observers still shall rise,
In deep unfathomed mines;
Obscurely shall the incense rise,
Beyond the nature's sad designs.

And to those brighter realms shall soar,
When the month of August more,
Than happiness and pride restore,
To the final month—the sunniest closing scenes.

Special correspondence for Chelsea Herald.
Our Jackson Letter.

JACKSON, Aug. 6th, 1879.
REFORM CLUB MOVEMENTS.

The many friends of the temperance cause in your town will be encouraged by the intelligence that the work goes bravely on; and while the enthusiasm which at first was so intense has subsided, the work accomplished is most effective, and many a home once desolated by rum is today bright and cheerful; and to the women who with the spirit of the noble Helen Chalmers, of Edinburgh, Scotland, who in the true greatness of earnest work, the success of the cause is largely due. I would have it understood that the quiet, faithful effort has succeeded, while force and prohibition has proved a failure. The Red Ribbon Club is entering upon a new era of prosperity, having rented a new hall in David Dwight's building, No. 218 and 220 Main street, and it is nearly ready for occupancy; when finished and furnished it will be the neatest, most convenient and safest hall in the city. The club has again elected Dr. J. A. Robinson as president, and George J. McCandless as recording secretary. Both gentlemen have faithfully done their duty in the past, and their reelection is a fitting tribute.

THE FIRST M. S. T. REGIMENT.

The promotion of Colonel Withington to the rank of Brigadier General, and the resignation of Lieutenant Colonel Minchley, necessitated an election to fill vacancy; and at a meeting held on the 1st instant, of commissioned officers, Major Fitzsimmons was elected Colonel, and Captain Griffith, of the Jackson Guards, Lieutenant Colonel. Major Fitzsimmons is a graduate of West Point, of 1869. He was captain of the Tecumseh company for two years, and the election is said to be an excellent one.

THE AFTER HARVEST EXCURSION.

The First Methodist Church will give an excursion on the 14th inst., to Detroit and Grosse Ile, to participate in the State Temperance Camp Meeting, to be held at Grosse Ile, on that day, with the energy of our Methodist friends. The success of the enterprise is assured.

THE REV. MR. HATHAWAY.

The many friends of the reverend gentlemen in your town will be pleased to hear that his lot is to be casted in Jackson, and will assume charge of the Second Congregational Church next month. Mr. Hathaway has been spending some weeks here, and his services have been much appreciated with the ability and earnestness of the reverend gentlemen. We are in hope the congregation has entered upon a new era of prosperity.

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The members of this church, through the zealous effort of the Rev. Father Broys, have at last had their wishes gratified by the purchase of a large and handsome bell, weighing over 2,000 pounds. The bell is quite an acquisition to the city, and its fine tone has a solemnizing effect at all the services of the church.

A Cheerful Wife.

Better than gold to a man is a cheerful wife. But he must do his part toward making her cheerful. It is easy enough for a man to marry a happy woman. But the bride expectant, when she thought how happy she would be, never contemplated the picture of a husband coming home cross as a bear, and going to bed without speaking to her; she had never thought of the long evenings when he wouldn't come at all; or his bringing some one home to dinner without warning or preparation; of his awful profanity over so trifling a matter as the gas bill. She had no idea, in fact, that there could be anything but happiness in married life, and she had determined to be happy and to distribute her happiness to those about her. It is not often her fault if she doesn't succeed. Men, as a rule, do not exert themselves to secure their wives' happiness. They know that it requires a constant and a great effort to possess property and be secure in its value in the midst of constant commercial changes. The cheerfulness, the happy, hopeful character which every woman displays at the beginning of marriage is not so easily lost as a fortune; it requires but a small share of the attention, and yet so often does not get that little share. Therefore a word to the girls in this connection is in order: Beware of a man who doesn't know enough about cheerfulness to understand its value in daily life. Such a man would improve the first opportunity to grind the cheerfulness out of his shadow, and then wonder what is the matter. Such is no better than no husband at all; and when you want a husband, go find somebody else, somebody who will give you at least some chance to be happy far into the life beyond the honeymoon.

Wasters of Time.

The world is full of useless people—mere idlers, who are of no practical use in the world. Eating and drinking and sleeping constitute their chief employment. With such provender made sure, they are quite satisfied. Habits of industry they have not; and, moreover, it is no part of their plan to do anything that is of practical value. They occasionally make a pretense of being busy by devoting themselves to hunting, fishing or card-playing. This gives them what they call a good time. Animal selfishness is the supreme law of their whole being. Woman, in her way, generally more delicate and less offensive, is sometimes amenable to the same charge. There are some good-for-nothing women, as well as men—too many of them for the credit of the sex, with lives practically as useless as they are aimless. They can manipulate the little punctilios of what they regard as fashionable life. They know how to spend money. No one can beat them in using an opera-glass or in laying plans for empty and profitless amusement. In the matter of mere show they are finished experts. And there their usefulness—if usefulness it may be called—ends. They are feminine idlers, taxing the world for their subsistence, but returning nothing to it. Estimate all such persons, of both sexes, at their true valuation, we do them no injustice in saying that they are not really worth the garments they wear, or the bread it takes to feed them. Existence thus conducted is a gross imposition upon humanity. By the death of such people the world loses nothing, since it has fewer paupers to support.

DEPTH OF THE OCEAN.—Soundings in the Atlantic ocean have shown a depth of 18,000 feet, or about three miles and a half; those taken in the Southern Atlantic, to the west of the Cape of Good Hope, showed a depth of 27,000 feet, or more than five miles, and then no bottom was found. At a point 300 miles from the Bermuda, 5,700 fathoms of line were played out—nearly six and a half miles—and no bottom found. Near the same parallel bottom was found at less than half the above depth. Midway between the islands of Tristan d'Acunha and the mouth of the Rio de la Plaja, the bottom was reached at a depth of 7,706 fathoms, equal to 16,236 feet, or eight miles and three-quarters. The time occupied by running out the line was nearly three hours.

THE LENGTH OF DAYS.—At London, England, and Bremen, Prussia, the longest day has sixteen and a half hours.

At Stockholm, in Sweden, the longest day has eighteen and a half hours.

At Hamburg, in Germany, and Dantzic, in Russia, the longest day is seventeen hours, and the shortest seven hours.

At St. Petersburg, in Russia, and Tobolsk, in Siberia, the longest day has nineteen hours, and the shortest five and a half.

At Tornea, in Finland, the longest day has twenty-one hours, and the shortest two hours and a half.

At Wardhuys, in Norway, the longest day lasts from the 21st of May to the 22d of July without interruption; and at Spitzbergen the longest day is three months and a half.

At New York the longest day has fifteen hours and fifty-six minutes; and at Montreal fifteen and a half hours.

A HORRIBLE STORY OF THE GRAVE.—It seems a man died last week at Triumph, says the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Dispatch, a small place not far from Tidionte. The body was kept three days and at the expiration of that time buried. Then some curious person remembered that a sister of the deceased had lain in a death-like trance for several days. It was suggested that perhaps the man had been prematurely buried. This suspicion took so strong a hold upon the people that it was resolved to exhume the body, and the coffin was disinterred, after having lain three days in the grave. The lid was wrenched off, when a horrible sight greeted the eyes of the resurrectionists. Evidently the supposed corpse had revived, and the wretched man had fought desperately for his life. Imprints of his finger nails were visible on the lining of the coffin, which in some places was torn into shreds. The coffin itself was strained and wrenched apart at the joints in the death agonies of the miserable man who was buried alive. He had turned completely over, and was found lying upon his breast, his distorted countenance indicating the frightful sufferings he had undergone.

Our Chip Basket.

If you are not wealthy enough to keep a flock of hens and accompany gentleman attendant, keep a baby. He can "crow" early enough to wake you up in abundant season to see the sun rise.

A spring poet whose effusion reached us this morning, starts off with "Nature is full of Poetry," and as we shot it at the top of a two bushel waste basket we added "and something else soon will be."

Eminent Counsel: "Yes, gentlemen of the jury, you will—oh! I know you will restore my persecuted client to the arms of his wife and little ones, who—" The Court: "Your client is a bachelor."

Members of the bar will no doubt be glad to learn that drinks are going down rapidly. We find it so at least, although we saw some coming up the other day. The fellow stuck his finger down his throat.

A young lady in New Brighton, named Butter, demanded of her employer twice the amount usually paid for the services of a domestic on the ground that she had filled the position of both Cook and Butler.

Some of the boys in town prefer temperance conventions to Presbyterian Synods or Methodist Conferences, but it is not to be supposed for a moment that it is because lady delegates attend the former.

"Who's boss of this house?" asked a stranger of the man behind the bar in a down town saloon. "I am," said the man. "My wife's been dead over a month," and then he began to dance, and treated all hands.

A Rhode Island farmer's pig strayed over into Connecticut, and the granger followed it. He finally discovered it and hid behind a tree and grunted in order to capture it. He did it so naturally that he got a bucket of shot in his hide.

The house-fly has once again made its appearance, and the spider begins to clean house for its reception, and looks as happy as does the man who sees the butcher boy leave a basket of meat down stairs when he knows that the other family has moved out.

A little girl at school read thus: "The widow lived on a limbecky left her by a relative." "What did you call that word?" asked the teacher. "The word is legacy, not limbecky." "But," said the little girl, "my sister says I must say limbecky, not leg."

It is often extremely difficult in the mixed things of this world to act truly and kindly; but therein lies one of the great trials of man—that his sincerity should have kindness in it, and his kindness truth. And his whisky, a little sugar and lemon.

We know an editor who is so weak that he can't get up a loan.

THE MAN WHO STOPS HIS PAPER.—Philip Gilbert Hamerton, in his admirable papers on "Intellectual Life," thus talks to the man who stopped his paper: "Newspapers are to the civilized world what the daily house talk is to the members of the family—they keep our daily interest in each other, they save us from the evils of isolation. To live as a member of the great white race that has filled Europe and America and colonized or conquered whatever territory it has been pleased to occupy, to share from day to day its thoughts, its cares, its inspirations, it is necessary that every man should read his paper. Why are the French peasants so bewildered and at sea? It is because they never read a newspaper. And why are the inhabitants of the United States, though scattered over a territory fourteen times the area of France, so much more capable of concerted action, so much more alive and modern, so much more interested in new discoveries of all kinds, and capable of selecting and utilizing the best of them? It is because the newspapers penetrate everywhere, and even the lonely dweller on the prairie or in the forest is not intellectually isolated from the great current of public life which flows through the telegraph and press."

THE EXTENT OF FREEMASONRY.—The following statistics of the number of Freemasons' lodges which existed at the end of last year, says the London Family Herald, will be read with interest: In Germany there are 342 lodges; Switzerland has 33; Hungary, 44; Roumania, 11; Serbia, 1; England and Wales, 1,187; Scotland, 334; Ireland, 299; Gibraltar, 5; Malta, 4; Holland and Luxembourg, 46; Belgium, 15; Denmark, 27; Sweden and Norway, 18; France, 287; Spain, about 300; Portugal, 22; Italy, 110; Greece, 11; Turkey, 16; Egypt, 28; Tunis, 2; Algeria, 11; Morocco, 2; the west coast of Africa, 11; African islands, 25; the Cape, 61; Arabia (Aden), 1; India, 118; Indian islands, 16; China, 73; Japan, 5; Australian islands, 4; Australia, 229; New Zealand, 84; United States, 9,894; Canada, 535; Cuba, 30; Hayti, 32; West Indian islands, 65; Mexico, 19; Brazil, 256; other states in South America, 179; a total of 15,000 lodges. The number of brethren is calculated at above 5,000,000.

NOT VERY COMFORTABLE.—The beggars' lodging house, near Pekin, China, rejoices in the unique name of "The House of the Hen's Feathers." The floor is of earth, and the roof is of thin laths caulked and plastered with mud. The earthen floor is covered thick with feathers, which have been collected from the markets and restaurants. When the bell rings the beggars gather here, and pay a very small sum for a lodging. An immense quilt of thick felt, the size of the room, is spread over all of them, and there are holes in it through which they put their heads for fresh air if they choose. Not a very comfortable way of sleeping, we should imagine.

Quit town feels loomsome during these warm sultry evenings. Where is our band, has it gone to roost?

Miss ADDIE WESTFALL, of Lima, presented us with a nice basket of harvest apples, for which we return thanks.

OUR new frame primary school building will soon be in course of erection; Kempf, Bacon & Co. are the contractors. Size of building 24x38, and it will cost $500 when completed.

LAST Sunday evening all the churches in this place were closed, because of the hot weather. We are informed that all the churches will be closed each Sunday evening during the heated term.

We call attention to our Jackson letter on second page. We are trying to get correspondence all over the State, and hope our friends will try and help us, and send an occasional item. We want correspondence all over the county and State.

LATE intelligence from Ireland is to the effect that a famine is in prospect, owing to the failure of the crops. At many points the farmers are utterly unable to pay their rent, and in Mayo alone no less than 800 elecmnts have been served within a few months.

CHELSEA was full of business last Saturday, especially in the evening. We counted no less than 30 teams hitched, and what a throng of people you could see going to and fro, up and down the streets, with a perfect jam. Who can say that Chelsea is not a busy town?

PREJUDICE often rules in the physical treatment of Babies. They are allowed to suffer and scream with pain from Colic, Flatulence, Bowel Disorders, etc., when some simple, reliable and safe remedy as Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, would give almost immediate relief and perfect ease to the little sufferer.

Three ladies of the Baptist Church met at the residence of their esteemed pastor, E. A. Gay, on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 6th. After partaking of a bountiful repast, and leaving a handsome dress pattern for Mrs. Gay, the ladies went to their several homes delighted with their afternoon's visit.

SOME one said the other day that "if the boys who play base ball were asked to pitch hay, they would soon find it too hot." That's housewifery. The time when a man will prefer base ball to pitching hay, is just as natural and right as the time when he prefers candy to plugging tobacco. It is a part of the physical development of every man to prefer, at one time of his life, the exercise in which muscle and nerve and brain force are quickly tried before the criticising gaze of men; just as, at one time in his mental development, "every man becomes a poet." We honor a man who plays base ball—if he plays well. We should very much respect the man who had grown to manhood with a life long preference for pitching hay.

DIED.—In Marion, Col. July 22, 1879.

Le HOT B. GAGE, aged fifty-three years, eleven months and three days.

It will be remembered by most of our citizens that Mr. Gage ran the Chelsea steam mill for Mr. Ladd during the years of 1865, '66, and '67. He has lived in Burlington, Kan., since he left Chelsea, until the 12th day of May, 1879, when he visited Colorado for his health, where he died, after a lingering illness of eighteen months, of consumption. We understand he has brothers and other relatives living in Jackson and Manchester. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

GRAND EXCURSION.—Thursday, the 14th inst., "The Chelsea Library Association" will give a grand excursion to Grosse Isle and return. Grosse Isle is situated in the Detroit River near Lake Erie. The tickets entitle the holder to as many rides up and down the river as he may desire, giving an opportunity to spend the entire day on the water, if desired. The train will leave Chelsea at 7:55 A. M. Tickets will be for sale at the post-office and banks. Price of tickets, $1.50. Children half price.

SOMETHING NOVEL.—Frank Staffan informed us the other day that he had received a quantity by express. The following will explain: It is a wire fixing, to put on the cover of a coffin; the wire is six inches above the lid, then there is shells containing one pound of powder in each put underneath the wires,—so when those body snatchers come along and commence digging, and should happen to strike the wires, they will explode instantly. We think the above will prove a good "pill" for the medicine man to swallow.

RED RIBBON SOCIAL.—Next Tuesday afternoon and evening, the 12th inst., the Red Ribbon Club will give a social at Dr. R. B. Gates' in the grove at his residence. The exercises in the afternoon will consist of music by the Chelsea Cornet Band, and Mort-Fraser's orchestra. There will be speaking by Robert Frazer, Rev. Daniel Shier, and others; also, singing of quartets, duets, and comic songs, under the management of G. W. Turnbull; also singing by the Ann Arbor Glee Club. In the evening the grove will be illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and a hop will be given for the entertainment of the young. Ice cream, lemonade, etc., will be served. Proceeds for the benefit of the club. All are invited to attend. Admission 5 cents.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Rev. Father Van Erp, the beloved and honored pastor of St. Thomas-Catholic Church, Ann Arbor, met with a serious and fatal accident on Wednesday morning, of last week. He was returning from the county house, where he had been to say mass, and when near his home on North street, his horse became frightened and dashed off at a terrific speed. He was thrown from his carriage on the corner of Division and North streets, and his head struck the tall walk in front of Mr. Davidson's. Assistance was soon at hand, when he was picked up insensible and carried to the paragonie adjoining the Catholic Church. Physicians were immediately summoned, and upon examination discovered that his skull was fractured, but that the most serious injury was at the base of the brain. He was also suffering from internal injuries. As soon as the news of the unfortunate accident became generally known, hundreds of citizens, of all denominations and creeds, called at the house, and when informed there was but a chance in a hundred for his recovery, there was a universal feeling of sorrow. Father Van Erp, during his seven years residence at Ann Arbor, won many friends. He was beloved by his congregation, who will miss him from his accustomed place in the sick room, and at the altar. To the poor and afflicted he always had a kind word, and as a friend of the temperance cause he will long be remembered, particularly by the St. Thomas Temperance Society, of which he was the founder. The Rev. Father lingered on until Friday morning last, when he passed quietly away.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.—Only villagers or persons with rural ideas now contend that ladies should always be given the inside of the pavement in passing. The rule adopted in cities is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or to the gutter, and an observance of this common sense rule would obviate much unpleasant "scravenging" by over-gallant gentlemen who persistently crowd for the outside of the walk. Another common custom, and required by fashionable etiquette, and one which is nearly as inexplicable and absurd as the practice of a whole string of men filling out of a church pew, making themselves as ridiculous as an "awkward squad" practising at "catching step" in order to give a woman the wrong end of the pew, is that of a man, when on a promenade or walk with a lady, to keep himself on the outside of the pavement. A little exercise of judgement will convince any person of the utter uselessness of this boggling crowd and forth at every corner. The common rule is this: "If a man and woman are walking, she should always be at his right arm, whether it be towards the inside or outside of the walk; then the woman will not be shoved against the passers."

BURIAL OF OUR DEAD.—It has always seemed singular to us says the Church Union, that we should hand over our dead into the hands of strangers. We nurse and watch over them with the vigilance and devotion of love, until the breath is gone and the eye is set in death, and then we give them into the care of others. Could anything be more in place, look more beautiful, than that children should bear a dear father or a beloved mother to the grave? When we could not walk, and our feet stumbled, and our knees were weak, they lifted us up and bore us tenderly in their strong arms and on their beating bosoms, and nestling up our tired feet and hands, they sang us to sleep and laid us to rest in the old cradle.

CATARH!

ELY'S CREAM BALM

A Decided Cure.

A Local Remedy.

HARMLESS, EFFECTUAL, SIMPLE.

Application easy and agreeable.

The effect is truly magical, giving instant relief, and as a curative, is in advance of anything now before the public.

The disagreeable operation of forcing a quart of liquid through the nose, and the use of snuffs that only excite and give temporary relief, are already being discarded and condemned.

CREAM BALM has the property of reducing local irritation. Sores in the nasal passage are healed up in a few days. Headache, the effect of Catarrh is dissipated in an almost magical manner. Expectoration is made easy. Sense of taste and smell is more or less restored. Bad taste in the mouth and unpleasant breath, where it results from Catarrh, is overcome. The nasal passages, which have been closed up for years, are made free.

Great and beneficial results are realized in a few applications of the Balm, but a thorough use of it, in every instance, will be attended with most happy results, and generally a decided cure.

Fifty cents will buy a bottle, and if satisfaction is not given, on application the proprietors will cheerfully refund the money. Trial size, 10c. Ask your druggist for it. ELY BROS., Owego, N. Y., Proprietors.

Woodchuck.

N. A. of Lawton, Mich., through the Western Rural, perience with woodchucks. I have tried many plans and of a good ride in the hands of a marksman is the best instrument for destroying these pests. But that does not include union, among neighboring farmers was unsatisfactory, because of the crease and migratory habits of animals. In this State we have giving township authorities the to award such bounties for the of noxious animals, as that have voted at the preceding meeting. About five years woodchucks became such an nuisance in this vicinity that many towns voted to offer bounties for their destruction. In this bounty was offered in the which I reside, about one hundred woodchuck scalps were paid twenty-five cents each. The offered for three years in all, or something over $500 to the As evidence of the complete success every day dozens of them are seen every day, and the meadow so full of their burrows that it difficult to drive a team w mow. The greatest objection method is its expensiveness, objection is deprived of much force by the fact that in many the increased taxes a farmer pays this account is returned to him himself in the shape of wood bounties.
