OUR TELEPHONE.

Cool weather—overcoats are in order. Next Sunday will be childrens day. We had an abundance of rain during Monday night and Tuesday. The new additional track of the M. C. R. R. will soon reach Chelsea. This is rather cool weather for strawberry and ice cream socials. "What shall the harvest be?" is the question asked by the agriculturist. Cassis Upton, of Battle Creek, spent Sunday in Chelsea. Neb. Cook went to Lansing last Tuesday to the tournament as baggage-man for the band. Dexter and Ann Arbor base ball clubs had a friendly game. Dexter got badly beaten. Chelsea has got the fishing fever. Most every day parties go to the lakes and return home with a load. Chelsea never was better supplied with street crossings as she is at the present time. It was much needed. A green worm is making havoc among the grape buds, and rapidly devouring what winter did not kill. More drunkenness in Chelsea within the past week than it has been for some time. Who is to blame? Mr. R. Kempf of this village has purchased the Leland property in Ann Arbor for $5,700. W. F. Hatch, of this village, picked a strawberry off his vines that measured 8 1/2 inches in circumference—who is next—and who can beat it? A good many of our farmers are getting ready for sheep-shearing. It is supposed wool will bring from 25 to 30 cents per pound. Shall the inhabitants of Chelsea celebrate the glorious 4th? Nearly all of our sister towns are making preparations to do so. Who will start the "ball" a rolling? Died, at the residence of Milton Whitaker, at Lima, his mother Mrs. Whitaker, aged 84 years and eleven months, on Saturday morning June 4, 1881. John C. Taylor of this village has sued the village Board of Chelsea for $10,000 damages for trespass, which will come off at the Circuit Court next fall. Prof. N. A. Richards of St. Louis Mich., formerly a principal in the Chelsea Union School, has been hired for another year at St. Louis at a salary of $1,000. A team, belonging to S. Seny of Lima, had lively runaway last Monday, resulting in a great deal of excitement but no serious damage done. The bride and groom returned, bright, blooming and victorious, on last Friday morning, and he healed the sore hearts among the boys by a liberal supply of cigars. Reed & Co's drug store is the place to get your beautiful blended dyes for dyeing your clothes etc. Also headquarters for stationery, letter paper, note paper and other varieties. They sell at bottom prices. Venor, the weather prophet, seems to be redeeming his reputation as a prophet from last winter's failure, of eleven feet fall of snow, as we believe his last to be, that the "spring would be hot and dry, the summer cold and wet," and thus we have had it so far. Many wearing their overcoats the past week. One thing Chelsea has, to feel proud of is its Cornet Band. They left 17 strong last Tuesday for Lansing to attend the tournament, and with the Drum Major they make quite an imposing spectacle. Our best wishes go with them towards bringing home a prize. The Washteaw Baptist Association in session at Dexter last week organized by election of Rev. E. A. Gay of Chelsea, moderator, Rev. J. H. Scott of Ypsilanti, clerk, and Prof. W. H. Dorrance of Ann Arbor, treasurer.—Rev. J. Fisher of Mooreville, preached annual sermon. C. M. Fellows of Sharon, Sabbath school superintendent read annual report. Next meeting will be held in Ann Arbor, annual sermon to be given by Rev. J. W. Payne.—Ann Arbor Argus.

FROM THE HUB.—There is perhaps no tonic offered to the people that possesses as much real intrinsic value as the Hop Bitters. Just at this season of the year, when the stomach needs purifying, the cheapest and best remedy is Hop Bitters. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Don't wait until you are prostrated by a disease that may take months for you to recover in.—Boston Globe.

Does it Suit You To pay 75c for FRINGS which you can buy of us for 60c? To pay $1.00 for FRINGS which you can buy of us for 75c? To pay 50c for FRINGS which you can buy of us for 35c? Does it suit you to pay as much or more for American-made Hosiery, (with great ugly seams to hurt your feet), as we sell Foreign-made for, in which the colors are bright and lasting? Does it suit you to pay fully one-third more for Corsets than you can buy them of us for? Does it suit you to pay one-half more for LACE Mitts than we sell them for? Does it suit you to pay almost double the price we ask for every little article you buy to adorn yourself, your husband, your children or your home? Does it suit you to pay as much for a poor quality of UNDERWEAR as we sell a very good quality for? Does it suit you to pay 25c for a LINEN HANDKERCHIEF which we will sell at 13 1/2c? Count the difference in the price we sell goods at and what you pay for the same kinds and qualities—abstract from the expense of coming here. The difference will keep you in boots and shoes and many other things for a year. Does it Pay to Trade Here? A hundred voices from all around you will answer: "IT CERTAINLY DOES."

HONOR THY MOTHER.—Honor the dear old mother. Time has scattered the snowy flakes upon her brow, plowed deep furrows on her cheek, but is she not beautiful now? The lips are thin and shrunken, but those are the lips that have kissed away many a hot tear from the childish cheeks, and they are the sweetest lips in the world. The eye is dim, yet it glows with a soft radiance of holy love which can never fade. Ah yes, she is a dear old mother. The sands of time are nearly run out, but feeble as she is, she will go further and reach down lower for you than any other upon earth. You cannot walk into a midnight where she cannot see you; you cannot enter a prison whose bars will keep her out; you can never mount a scaffold too high for her to reach and bless you with her deathless love. When the world shall despise and forsake you, when it leaves you by the way side to die unnoticed, the dear old mother will gather you in her feeble arms and carry home and tell you of all your virtues, until you almost forget that your soul is disgraced by vice. Love her tenderly, and cheer declining years with holy devotion.

BIRD-EYE VIEW OF CHELSEA.—This meritorious work, which we have had the pleasure of examining, is a beautiful drawing made with pen and pencil by Mr. A. Ruger, of Chicago. A cursory examination will give some idea of the amount of work done by Mr. Ruger, to produce such a sketch; while a careful examination will show how faithful he has been in his task, every house or building showing so accurately as to be readily recognized. The point from which this view is supposed to be taken is at the north-east side of the village, from an elevation 1,000 feet in the air, which enables the artist to give our place a magnificent view. It is certainly a fine representation of our really beautiful village, and besides being the best possible reference for office or home use, to locate or point out each separate building in the village it is a pleasing picture, worthy a place in every home, and in after life every separate item of this faithful representation of our associations of to-day, will bring to memory through all time its own souvenir of the past. Its value will increase as years roll by, and it will show us in future years what we were in 1881. Mr. Swift the agent will call upon our citizens to give them an opportunity to examine it and subscribe. As it is simply a local picture it cannot be lithographed without the liberal patronage of our citizens. At least 100 of them must be subscribed for or it will not be lithographed, so let all respond liberally to Mr. Swift's call, for it will be a matter of deep regret should we now fail to secure a handsome engraving of our village.
