OUR TELEPHONE.

Green corn is in market.

We had a rain storm last Monday.

Our new town-hall is getting along finely.

The walls of A. Durand's block are going upward in a hurry.

We are indebted to Mrs. John C. Taylor for a mess of nice new potatoes.

Our Union School is having a wood-shed built, and other improvements.

Kempf Bro's. have been buying a large quantity of wool at Ann Arbor.

Wood Bro's. are shipping large quantities of huckleberries daily.

Four new Wide Awake steam threshers arrived in Chelsea the past week.

Last Sunday as usual Chelsea was visited with a rain, thunder and lightning storm.

It is understood that our boys go up to Grass Lake, to-day (Thursday) to have a friendly game at base-ball.

Mr. Sidney Harrington has bought the property of Dr. Johnson and will move in a few days.

Mrs. George Reynolds, daughter of Mr. Charles Congdon, has left Chelsea for her home in Norwich Conn.

Mr. Hatch our express agent left last Tuesday for a trip to Beaver Lake. He will return home in a few days.

Wm. E. Depew and wife have left for their new home at Harrisville in Alcona Co. May prosperity go with them.

Finley B. Whitaker, expects to go to Dakota in a few days, to work in the employ of the McCormick machine company.

Parker & Babcock have just received a large line of boys, youth's and men's clothing, which they are selling at greatly reduced prices for cash.

Mr. Math. Jensen who lives about two miles south of this village, is building a fine residence that will cost when finished about two thousand dollars.

Little grains of wisdom,
Little grains of wit,
May make your life more useful
And cheer you up a bit.

The huckleberry market took a sudden change, from six to twelve cents per quart. It is probably owing to the rains, and a scarcity of the fruit at the close of the season.

The local editor of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, Mr. J. H. Mabbitt, says: "We have used St. Jacobs Oil in our family for rheumatism, and found it to be a first-class thing."—Boston Herald.

We observe in the window of the Chelsea savings bank, a stalk of corn measuring about 12 feet, with a card attached to it, with the words "corn is a failure." The stalk was grown by Milo Boyd of this village.

On account of having so much rain the farmers in this locality will suffer severely. Most of their wheat is yet in the field and is badly sprouted, and almost spoiled. In low places the corn and potato crop is under water.

Last Saturday evening was a busy one in Chelsea among the merchants. There seemed to be about one thousand people in town, and any amount of teams—in fact there was not a hitching post to be found nowhere.

It is rumored that Mr. Hoag will commence building his new hotel. The bricks have been ordered—and it is expected that the building will be finished this fall. Keep on with the good work—Chelsea is bound to be a city some of these days.

The bank store has put up a new sign—it is elevated on top of the building, and is made of wire, with large cut letters, with a mortar in the center which reads "Bank drug store." It is well executed and makes the building have a fine appearance.

Our town fathers will please take notice, that there is a large hole in the main sewer in front of Godfrey Kempf's residence that needs repairing. If not done soon it will stop up the drain, and cause a good deal of expense to the town. Attend to it at once.

How wonderful is paint! That cleanser, beautifier and protector of our dwellings; that rich and tasteful, not to say fragrant, decorator which we all admire. And among the many kinds there is a choice—the Sherwin-Williams Paint is the best ever offered in the market. Sold by J. Bacon & Co.

BASE-BALL.—The regular organized base-ball club of Grass Lake, came down to Chelsea last Wednesday, and played our boys a "scrubby nine" called the unknowns. This "scrubby nine" has only been in practice for about three months—and the Grass Lake boys had an idea that they could beat them in less than no time—but they were mistaken. The score stood 19 for Chelsea and 7 for Grass Lake. Chelsea can beat any village of its size in the State, on a game of base-ball.

"Boil It Down."

Whatever you have to say, my friend,
Whether witty or grave or gay,
Condense it as much as ever you can,
And say it the readiest way;
And whether you write of rural affairs
Or matters and things in town,
Just take a word of friendly advice—
Boil it down.

For if you go spluttering over a page
When a couple of lines would do,
Your butter is spread so much, you see,
That the bread looks plainly through;
So, when you have a story to tell
And would like a little renown,
To make quite sure of your wish, my friend,
Boil it down.

When writing an article for the press,
Whether prose or verse, just try
To title your thoughts in the fewest words
And let them be crisp and dry;
And when it is finished and you suppose
It is done exactly brown,
Just look it over again and then—
Boil it down.

For editors do not like to print
An article badly long,
And the general reader does not care
For a couple of yards of song;
So gather your wits in the smallest space
If you want a little renown,
And every time you write, my friend—
Boil it down.

We hope our patrons will read the above carefully over and profit by it. Ed.

Kempf Bro's. of Chelsea visited Northfield and Webster last week and purchased 30,000 lbs. of wool ranging in price from 32 to 35 cents.

Elder Northrup sent us the following by postal card: Bay View, Emmet Co., Mich., Aug. 2, 1882.—Mr. Allison. I'm having a splendid time in this delightful place—but must soon leave it. Please say in your paper, that I intend to be in Chelsea and occupy my Pulpit on the 18th of this month. Also please say, that Aug. 20th, my Pulpit will be occupied by a man from around the world—it will be "Missionary Day" for the year, and oblige. Yours etc., H. C. NORTHRUP.

Sadly Afflicted.

"My boy was badly afflicted with rheumatism," said Mr. Barton, of the great stove firm of Redway & Barton, of this city, to one of our reporters. "We doctored him a great deal, but could find no cure; I had heard so much of the efficacy of St. Jacobs Oil that I finally determined to try it. Two bottles of the Oil fully cured him."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A short time ago the members of the Chelsea band made a present to their leader, Mr. M. Freer, the prize "Coronet" which they had the honor of winning at the band tournament held at Jackson. Hon. M. J. Noyes made the presentation in behalf of the band, in a very nice—but appropriate address, which was highly appreciated by all present. Mr. Freer then arose and made a beautiful reply, thanking them kindly for the gift and the honor which they have bestowed on him—and that memorial event will always be green and fresh to memory dear.

It is customary all over the civilized world for the friends of those who are prostrated on a sick bed to pray to the Almighty God for their speedy recovery. Why not the ministers of the gospel all over this section where the rain is in abundance, and the poor farmers are suffering so much on account of having their crops destroyed by the "heavy" rains. We suggest that all the ministers in Chelsea and members of the several churches meet together, and hold prayer meetings, and pray fervently to God for the deliverance of our poor farmers in this hour of affliction—so that they may receive beautiful dry weather. Ask, and ye will be received.

At nine months of age the head of George Roller of Freedom, measured 34 inches in circumference. Excessive weight compelled him to lie down continually. Recently he died of heart disease, and at a post mortem, his head being tapped, a full half of water was discharged. A plaster cast of the head was made in the interest of medical science.

KELLOGG—Died in Brighton, Sacramento county, Cal., on the 25th, day of June, A. D. 1882, Mr. Nathan Kellogg, of rheumatism of the heart, aged 75 years and 2 months. Mr. Kellogg was an old pioneer of Washtenaw county, having removed with his family from the State of Pennsylvania to the township of Lima, in the fall of 1834, where he resided until the year 1852, when he with one son went to California by the overland route, where he resided until he died. Mr. Kellogg was a man very highly esteemed by all who knew him.

The Marine City Reporter says: "Among the several names which have been suggested as candidates for the office of state treasurer on the Republican ticket this fall, that of Edward H. Butler of Detroit seems to be the most popular. No one more capable of discharging the duties of that important office can be found in the state. His excellent reputation as a successful and careful financier, upright and conscientious business principles, make him a strong candidate."

For Diseases of Horses

There is nothing that compares with Cole's Veterinary Carbolisalve. It cures cuts, wounds, bruises, galls, sores, mange, scratches, thrush, inflammations, and all skin or hoof diseases quicker than any other remedy. It is the only preparation that will invariably bring the hair in its original color. J. M. Harper, superintendent of the Adams Express Company, Chicago, says: "I am using Cole's Veterinary Carbolisalve on the horses of the Adams Express Company, and take pleasure in saying that I have never used anything with as good results. It is all that it is represented and works like a charm." Pound cans, $1.00; small cans, 50 cents.

Obituary.

CONGDON.—Mrs. HARRIET MANNING CONGDON, was born Oct. 6, 1812, at Norwich, Conn., and died at Chelsea, Mich., July 17th, 1882.

She was the wife of Mr. Charles Congdon, who for many years has been an official member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Chelsea. In their early married life they gave their hearts to God, and united with the Methodist church. For years they were pioneers of Methodism, and their home was not only the hospitable home for the early itinerant, but was many times opened for meetings as he came around. The last twenty-six years of their life have been spent in Chelsea, where their quiet home has been the pleasant resort of their pastors, who have enjoyed their counsels and prayers. They have been singularly devoted to the interests of the church, and religion, in the communities in which they have lived. Mother Congdon was a very consistent Christian, in whom all who knew her had unflinching confidence. For some years she had been a great sufferer, but amid it all she manifested true Christian fortitude and patience. Her disease was of a dropsical nature, and just before she expired, as there came over her a sense of strangulation, she exclaimed, "Lift me higher!" This had been the characteristic prayer of her whole Christian life, and for nearly fifty years God had been lifting her into a higher and purer life, until the evening of the 17th ult., after a day of extreme suffering, He lifted her into the glory of his presence. Her last moments were cheered by the presence of all surviving children, save one, who resides at Norwich, Conn., and did not arrive until some hours after her demise. They were ready and able to minister to every earthly comfort she could desire. Six surviving children and a large circle of friends share and sympathize with Father Congdon in his bereavement. On April 9th, one year ago, a large company of friends were privileged to greet her on the occasion of her golden wedding, and on the nineteenth day of July, 1882, we followed her remains to their last resting place. A former pastor officiated at the funeral in the absence of Brother Northrup, the present one. J. L. HUDSON.

We were informed by a member of St. Mary's Church of this village that a few of the congregation had formed themselves into a committee, for the purpose of selecting a site for a burial ground. They had looked at several fine locations suitable for a nice cemetery, and on last Saturday they went to look at some land owned by Thos. Wilkinson, and concluded it was just the spot they wanted. They next conferred with Rev. Father Dolig on the subject—but he was not in favor of it, and the projected plan is now dropped for the present.

TONIC,

AND

COUGH CURE

FOR COUGHS, COLD, CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, AND All Diseases OF THE THROAT, CHEST AND LUNGS.

The BALM OF TOLU has always been one of the most important weapons wielded by the Medical Faculty against the microorganisms of the above Diseases, but it has never been so advantageously compounded as in Lawrence & Martin's TOLU, ROCK and RYE. Its soothing Balaam properties afford a diffusive stimulant, appetizer and tonic, to build up the system after the cough has been relieved.

GREEN H. RAUM, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., Jan. 28th, 1880, says: "TOLU, ROCK and RYE is an agreeable Remedy in Pectoral complaints and is classed as a Medical preparation under the U. S. Revised Statutes, and when so stamped, may be sold by DRUGGISTS, GROCERS, and other persons, without special tax." or license.

CAUTION! Don't be deceived by dealers who try to palm off Rock and RYE for Lawrence & Martin's TOLU, ROCK and RYE—which is the only MEDICATED article made—the genuine has their name on the Proprietary Stamp on each bottle.
