ought to chip in to help the man along.
Try and do so.
Lost.—On May 14, 1887, somewhere between Unadilla and Chelsea two fur or coat robes, one quite dark and lined with

A few of our young men and boys make a habit of hanging around the church on.

Kellogg's Columbian Oil has proved beyond a doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy, and will cure all aches and pains incident to humanity. Our bodies need strengthening and repairing as much as the house we live in. Old persons are more subject than others to disease of the kidneys and urinary organs, and the soothing, curative and healing properties of Columbian Oil in extreme cases seem almost incredible. For sale by Glazier,

FOR MAN AND BEAST!

Mexican Mustang Liniment

Relaxation, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Stings, Bites, Bruises, Bunions, Corns.	Sprains, Strains, Stitches, Stiff Joints, Backache, Galls, Sore, Spavin, Cracks.	Contracted Muscles, Eruptions, Hoof Ail, Scurf, Worms, Sweeney, Saddle Galls, Fles.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY
accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine. The Lumberman needs it in case of accident. The Farmer needs it for his teams and his men. The Mechanic needs it in his shop, his stable, and his stock yard.
The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply aboard and ashore.
The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance.
The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble.
The Railroad man needs it and will need it so long as his life is a round of accidents and dangers.
The Blacksmith needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer.
The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when they come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once.
Keep a Bottle in the House. 'Tis the best of economy.
Keep a Bottle in the Factory. To immediate use in case of accident gives pain and loss of wages.
Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.

The new marriage license law which comes into effect Sept. 1st, places a heavy responsibility upon the county clerk. If either the youth or maiden is a minor the clerk must have the consent of the parents before issuing the license. This will do away with a good many runaway matches and will put a stop to children getting married, because they will have to ask papa and ma.
The Ann Arbor Argus of June 3rd, says "six dogs lost in Detroit since the dog show closed. Did they join the 'dog-gone' circus from curiosity, or were they simply stolen by some s-cur-ilious wag? Curious any way. Howl this be cur-tail-ed with a bow [wow]?" We would address the interested parties to sicem [seek them]. We think that is a good dog-ma that never fails.
The Lansing Sentinel says: "We have listened to many able and excellent speeches in the legislature this term, speeches that would have been a credit to any legislative body. But the one delivered by Senator Gorman on the celebrated Cross Insurance bill was a model of perfection. Fully understanding every phase of the subject, fully realizing the importance of the measure, and having the courage of his convictions, he made the most complete, concise and logical argument in its favor, that has been made by any member of either house or senate upon any measure during the session. Senator Gorman has a brilliant future, and we wish him success in all he undertakes."
The Grange picnic held at Lima on children's day was a most enjoyable occasion. It was well attended and after considerable social visiting, etc., dinner was announced, and such a dinner. It was rich, and enough to make any one hanker to be a granger. The children were seated at the table first, and soon all were served. Then came music and a dialogue by Miss Bertha Lulick and Miss Emma Stupler. Rev. H. Palmer was next introduced and in a facetious way spoke of the occasion. Soon A. E. Nordman was called out and demonstrated as usual that he is always ready and able to speak; Mr. Wines and Mrs. Bowen also made remarks; more music was furnished with song by Miss Annie Steinhach, and then worthy Master Baldwin declared the meeting closed. Many not grangers were present.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Mary McCombs, widow of the late John D. McCombs, died April 10th, 1887, at her home in Manchester, Ontario Co., N. Y., from cancer in the head, at the advanced age of nearly 84 years. Her illness was long and severe.
Mrs. McCombs was born at Salem, N. Y., and removed to Palmyra when about twelve years of age, and was married to Mr. McCombs when about twenty years old, living with him over 50 years. In the spring of 1848 they removed to this town on to the farm where she has since resided, and where her husband died in 1878. Mr. McCombs was a soldier in the war of 1812. They were parents of four children, viz: Mrs. Sarah Shaver, of Michigan; Mrs. Jane Speaker and Mr. Martin B. McCombs, of Manchester, and John McCombs, who died in the cause of his country in the late war. Mrs. Speaker and her family came from their home in Michigan several years since to care for her mother, and she has most faithfully administered to her during the long years of her suffering, during the last year of which her mind was nearly gone. Mrs. McCombs united with the M. E. church over sixty years ago, of which she remained a member until the time of her death. Rev. J. L. Jones attended her funeral from her late home on Wednesday afternoon, when she was laid to rest beside the companion of her youth, to await the "resurrection of those who fall asleep in Christ."—Shortville Enterprise, N. In Memoriam.

Mrs. J. Considine, mother of Rev. Father Considine, pastor of St. Mary's church, Chelsea, died at her home in Detroit, on Wednesday, June 15th, 1887.
Her last illness was comparatively short and her death unanticipated, although her health had been failing of late, under the influence of asthma, that painful and incurable disease which afflicted her for years.
To her family, her loss is irreparable; she was endowed with all the qualities required to make a devoted wife and a christian mother; as such, her example was always edifying.
Many are the friends which she wisely advised in their difficulties, or comforted in their afflictions.
Highly esteemed and respected by all at home, she had also many warm friends here, considering the short time of her acquaintance. Those that knew her well could not but admire her qualities and love her.
And thus, a noble christian life was crowned by a peaceful, edifying death. Mrs. Considine yielded her well prepared soul to her Maker during the Octave of Corpus Christi, and was buried on the 17th feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
Her funeral at Holy Trinity church, Detroit, was largely attended, and her remains were deposited in their last resting place in the presence of an immense crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends.
A few Chelsea parishioners assisted at the funeral. They all tender their most heartfelt sympathies to their beloved Pastor in the loss he has sustained.
