Mr. C. H. Wines of Chelsea was robbed of his watch and all the money he had with him, on the train returning to Ann Arbor from the picnic. He did not see the individual who robbed him; but it is quite certain that it was not the conductor or any of the attendants of the T. & A. road, as he moved off rapidly after securing Mr. Wines' watch and money.
Ypsilanti. We are informed that Mr. Wines caught hold of the thief but his confederate released him and both got away.
A sad and sorrowful event occurred in Sylvan last week. On Tuesday morning August 23rd, after a sickness of two weeks, the spirit of Cora Burchard took its flight. It has cast a gloom over the community such as has not been felt in a long time. Her funeral occurred on Thursday, and was attended by many people. The church was crowded, and all were, in a marked sense, mourners. The tribute of flowers was large and beautiful. The large bible class taught by Geo. Davis, of which she was a member, led the large funeral procession to the church and cemetery. Rev. H. Palmer delivered an appropriate and impressive discourse. Cora was a good girl, beloved of all. For some time she has been suffering with great acceptability at the organ, and was much interested in the work of the church. We shall all miss her, but we trust our loss is her gain. She was 21 years of age, and leaves a widowed mother to mourn her loss. A very efficient choir from Chelsea furnished most appropriate music.

The monument to the memory of the late Isaac Taylor was put up in Oak Grove cemetery last week by C. W. Hills of Jackson. It occupies the highest ground and is about one foot higher than any other stone in the cemetery. It stands thirteen and one-half feet high with a four foot base, and all of gray granite. It is of the latest style of architecture and for symmetry and beauty has no equal in our little cemetery. It is a fine addition to the many excellent monuments already there.

What is Life?

BY D. B. TAYLOR.
What is life and what are we?
Skiffs upon a restless sea:
Tossed by winds to-day on high,
Then we fold our sails and die.
Millions more as brave as we
Drifted o'er life's troubled sea,
Scrambled for a tithe of gold;
That is all that need be told.
So shall we be, with them anon,
Going to them one by one.
Soon from memory here we'll fall;
One oblivion waits us all.
But the part for which we're here
Will not die but disappear;
And shall live for time untold
Walking through your streets of gold.
If, indeed, we're true in time
To that Word that's all sublime;
True to every varied trust,
Walking through these streets of dust.
We must fight if we would win
Victories in this world of sin.
Wrong is ever on the throne,
Right deserted by her own.
Life is but a rugged road,
Now in sunshine then in cloud.
We must toil on paths untrod
If we reach the heights of God.
Chelsea, Aug. 27, 1887.

Speak Nae Ill.

Other people have their faults,
And so have ye as well;
But all ye chance to see or hear,
Ye have no right to tell.
If ye canna speak o' good,
Take care, and see and feel,
Earth has na to much o' woe,
And not enough o' weal.
Be careful that ye make no strife
Wi' meddling tongue and brain;
For ye will find enough to do
If ye but look at home.
If ye canna speak o' good,
Oh! dinna speak at all,
For there is grief and woe enough
On this terrestrial ball.
If ye should feel like picking flaws,
Ye better go, I woen,
And read the book that tells ye all
About the moat and beam.
Dinna lend a ready ear
To gossip or to strife,
Or, perhaps, it will make for ye
Nae funny things of life.
Oh! dinna add to others woe,
Nor mock it with your mirth;
But give ye kindly sympathy,
To suffering ones of earth.

Lima Notes.

At last our much needed iron bridge has arrived and is being put in position.
The subject of Missions was presented our church last Sunday, and a collection taken.
Charley Palmer is seen among us for a few days. He has a sort of vacation from railroad.
Nettie Storms resumes her work of teaching school in Franklin where she taught last summer.
A few days ago two unsightly telegraph poles were moved by the linemen from in front of I. Storms' gate.
Geo. Mitchell has got his fruit evaporator put up. It is somewhat of a curiosity, and will doubtless prove a success.
Eugene Freer, Jas. Mitchell and Uncle Charley Guerin and others having good times nowadays because of visits from friends.
"Oy Shike" is skying around up in the north country for a paying job. He is likely to succeed well, as in the past he has succeeded in raising "Lima Beans" among us.
Instead of an expected picnic our Sunday School had a lawn social at I. Storms' last Thursday evening. After a pleasant time at the lawn they repaired to the church and had music, recitations, readings, etc.
Several of our young folks are about returning to the hard study work of their schools. Bertha Luick to Ann Arbor, Annie Stuenkel to Chelsea, and Wallace Palmer to Flint. Where is our old Lima Academy?

Those Sidewalks.

Quite a few sidewalks on South Main st. are still in a deplorable state. When are the town officers going to see to it? Perhaps they are waiting until some serious accident has happened and damages have been claimed for a broken leg or other injuries. It often occurs that a pedestrian, escaping with a heavy stumble, throws a loose board aside. But what is done afterwards? The board is replaced just as it was before, but not fixed. Yet how many complaints of this kind have been made already.

A Merchant's Opinion.

Mr. B. F. Nourse, General Western Agent Royal Baking Powder Co., writes: "I have never found so great results from physicians' prescriptions and attendance upon our children, as I have after a few days' use of Papillon (extract of flax) Skin Cure. I cannot describe to you medically what it has done for us, but can say that years of treatment have not accomplished what Papillon has done after a few applications. Large bottles only $1.00, at Glazier, DePuy & Co's."

"WHERE is my boy and where is my girl to-night?" should often be asked by parents, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. The wide liberties granted American youth too often result in trouble. The number of burglars shot in the act of burglary is very small. But the list of the innocent victims of hasty shooting at supposed homebreakers is, says the Chicago Inter Ocean, assuming alarming proportions. Firing in the dark is risky business, and it is time to call a halt in this random target practice. Better allow a hundred burglars to escape than to shoot an innocent wife or mother.

THAT George Washington did not enjoy the narrative latitude in regard to fish stories which others so generally make use of is shown by the following entry in one of his diaries: "Having lunch, we proceeded to the Fishing Banks a little without the harbor, and fished for Cod; but, it not being a proper time of tide, we only caught two, with which, about one o'clock, we returned to town." The frankness here shown is as old-fashioned as it is praiseworthy.

S. J. ALBERT, a Louisville barber, had $3,000 insurance against disability in the Order of Chosen Friends. His hands became paralyzed, so that he could no longer wield a razor, but his claim for the insurance money was denied, and he began suing. Judge Barr, of the United States Circuit Court, decided against him on the ground that his disability did not prevent him from earning a living. It was shown that Albert had clerical in a store since he became incapacitated as a barber. This decision establishes a precedent of importance to all co-operative societies.

ELECTRIC lanterns will, it is thought, take the place, in course of time, of the ordinary mining safety lamps. A portable electric lamp can now be made, possessing the following features: Weight, about three pounds; illuminating power, five candles; size and shape, similar to present lamps; duration of light, ten hours; cost of repairs, charges of battery and materials, two cents for ten hours; these facts showing that there is nothing to prevent its adoption as a substitute for the present lamps, and even for candles in many mines where they are still in use.

Justice Field Decides that the Pacific Railway Commission is Not a Judicial Body, and Therefore Can Not Compel the Production of Testimony.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Justice Field, of the United States Supreme Court, delivered his opinion yesterday in the matter of the petition of the Pacific Railway Commission to compel Senator Stanford to produce certain vouchers respecting the Central Pacific railway management, and particularly to explain certain vouchers of the railway company, and whether any money was used to influence National or State legislation. The matter was argued before Justice Field, sitting with United States Circuit Judge Sawyer and United States District Judges Hoffman and Sabin last Monday. The chief question raised was to determine the power of the railway commission to compel the witness in question to answer their queries. The court decides that the Pacific Railway Commission is not a judicial body. It possesses no judicial power. It can determine no right of the Government or of the companies involved in the litigation. The President will not even be admissible in a judicial inquiry as evidence of any matters investigated. It is a mere board of inquiry to obtain information on certain matters and report the result to the President and to Congress. It is authorized to investigate and to determine the power of the railway commission to compel the witness in question to answer their queries. VAN HORNE, Aug. 30.—The Adjutant-General of the army has received a dispatch from General Terry at Chicago, enclosing a report to Indian Agent Byrnes, dated August 26, from Lieutenant Burnett, Ninth Cavalry, who, with twelve troopers, was sent by request of Indian Agent Byrnes to prevent the Indians from attacking the Colorado State troops and cowboys near the border of the reservation.
