WHAT HE LEFT.

'Twas 'bout 10 a. m. when he came into our store. Rid'n wasn't very good, so walked. Been want'n a watch sometime. He lowed he needed shoes too, but hadn't money nuf to get both, 'n he's goin to have a stem windin, silver back-actin, yard-wide, all wool watch, er bust. The neighbors all said fur him to go to Glazier's; he had the best stock and didn't have but one price on em. Common feller could buy a watch of him as cheap as the Prince of Wales, 'n he warrants em, 'n stays by em like er pig to a root, to see that they give satisfaction, 'n he guessed he'd take that huntin case stem winder with that sand-hill crane waden in a puddle of bullrushes. Well he took it and saved enough on the price over what he expected; so that while I fitted the movement in the case he went out and got him a good pair of shoes. He came back smiling and presented me with his old shoes, saying that I had saved him enough on his watch to get him a dogon good pair of shoes, and he proposed to make me a present of his old ones to show his gratitude. The shoes are now on exhibition at my store.

Sudden Death of Claude Palmer.

Sorrow unspeakable has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Palmer, in the sudden death of their young son, Claude M. Palmer. Early last week it was discovered that Claude had sugar diabetes, and had been more or less troubled in this way for over a year past, but as the disease is not painful he had never said anything, and it was by accident that his father and mother discovered his condition, and the terrible truth was revealed to them. The last week of his life Claude wasted away very fast, and it was little over a week from the time he had been on the street until his young spirit had taken its flight.

Claude M. Palmer was born August 18, 1874, and died Nov. 1, 1887, being a little over 13 years of age. He was loved by a large circle of friends, both old and young, and was a kind, good natured and noble hearted boy. The stricken family have the sincere sympathy of the community in their great sorrow.

Funeral services were held at the family residence, conducted by Rev. J. J. Phelps, at 10 o'clock last Thursday morning, interment taking place at Maple Grove Cemetery.—Grass Lake News.

Bodily ailments are more or less the results of kidney affection. When the skin becomes dry and husky, pains in the back, hot and high colored urine, soreness in the small of the back, are unmistakable facts that the kidneys are in bad condition, and a few doses of Kellogg's Columbian Oil will convince any one of its curative properties on their disorders. Miss Alice Mills spent Friday afternoon in visiting the school in the Bowen district, taught by Cora Bowen.

Miss Copeland has returned to her own room after acting as preceptress in the High School for the past two weeks.

Prof. Loomis spent Saturday in going to Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Albion, to get up a preceptress. We find that he was successful.

Miss Cora Lewis was unable to teach a few days of last week on account of a very severe cold. Lillie Armstrong took her place during her absence.

Dealla Norbert of Ypsilanti, came to Chelsea last Tuesday to apply for the position of preceptress. We hope to like her as well as our former teacher, Miss Lowe.

Prof. Loomis has adopted a very good plan in having our recitations, select readings, and essay reading come in the morning immediately after chapel, so those who visit chapel will have the benefit of hearing them.

Why Should We Be Proud?

BY J. MCCLAREN.

What is it that nature, on man hath bestowed, Or science, or art, hath supplied; That his heart should ever become the abode, Or be ruled by arrogant pride.

Is it beauty of features, and fairness of form, Those gifts, that so soon must decay, As soon as life's sun the spirit doth warm Already are passing away?

Is it wealth, mighty power for evil or good, As rightly or wrongly applied? A possible blessing, that never should Awaken or stimulate pride.

For often, the noble, the true, and the brave, Are doomed in life's battle to fall; To find on the field a true hero's grave, While cowards and traitors prevail.

The glitter of wealth, or fair sounding name, By death is unheeded; impartial his call; The King and the Peasant are taken the same. Death, it makes equal, it humbles men all.

The wealth of the heart, the wealth of the mind, Alone is the wealth that with man can abide. That with the spirit a refuge may find, Is all man possesses, that's worthy of pride.
