'Twas 'bout 10 a. m. when he came into our store. Rid'n wasn't very good, so walked. Been want'n a watch sometime. He lowed he needed shoes too, but hadn't money nuf to get both, 'n he's goin to have a stem windin, silver back-actin, yard-wide, all wool watch, or bust. The neighbors all said fur him to go to Glazier's; he had the best stock and didn't have but one price on em. Common feller could buy a watch of him as cheap as the Prince of Wales, 'n he warrants em, 'n stays by em-like er pig to a root, to see that they give satisfaction, 'n he guessed he'd take that huntin case stem winder with that sand-hill crane wader in a puddle of bullrushes. Well he took it and saved enough on the price over what he expected; so that while I fitted the movement in the case he went out and got him a good pair of shoes. He came back smiling and presented me with his old shoes, sayin that I had saved him enough on his watch to get him a dogon good pair of shoes, and he proposed to make me a present of his old ones to show his gratitude. The shoes are now on exhibition at my store.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE BY

Geo. P. Glazier's Loan and Real Estate Agency, Chelsea, Mich.

Farm No. 1—270 acres, located 2 miles south of Francisco, 6 miles west from Chelsea, 5 miles east of Grand Lake, adjoining Michael Schenk's farm on the south, known as the Wales Riggs farm. One of the best soil farms in Michigan. There is a comfortable frame house, a large frame barn 114 feet long, 2 small barns, 2 good wells of water, wind mill, corn house, honeyery and tool house, orchard and a fine vineyard of one acre. 180 acres of land fit for the plow, besides ample woodland. In all it is one of the best grain and stock farms in Michigan to make money from.

Farm No. 2—80 acres, situated 6 miles southwest of Ann Arbor, on good road. Nearly all good improved land, having a living stream of water, good orchard, very productive sandy loam soil. A bargain at $50 per acre. 10 acres additional of excellent timber, if wanted, at $65 per acre. Would make a very complete farm.

Farm No. 3—230 acres, located 2 1/2 miles from Chelsea, on prominent road, in good neighborhood, near church and school house and blacksmith shop. 175 acres of plow land, 25 acres of timber, 20 acres of good mowing marsh, 16 acres of low pasture with living stream of water through it. The northwest corner of this farm is the highest, gently sloping to southeast, protecting wheat from winter winds. It has a fine young orchard of graded fruit just coming into bearing. The buildings are unusually good, consisting of a frame dwelling house, upright and wing each 18x26, two stories, kitchen 15x18, wood shed 15x20. A fine basement barn 30x80 with gambrel roof, built in 1885, also hog house and kettle room, corn crib, carriage house and workshop attached, hen house 16x20, tool shed, and 2 good wells. Sandy loam about buildings, but most of farm is a clay loam and is a superior grain and stock farm in excellent condition. The owner was offered four years ago, $70 per acre, but will now sell at a sacrifice that he may remove to California. Price, $60 per acre.

Farm No. 4—160 acres, 8 1/2 miles N. W. of Chelsea, 3 1/2 miles from Gregory, 2 miles from Unadilla, 4 churches within 2 miles, on good road, excellent neighborhood, soil mostly sandy loam, remainder clay surface level as desirable. 100 acres of plow land, producing excellent crops; 35 acres of good white oak, hickory and walnut timber; 25 acres of good mowing marsh, with good living stream of water through it; 3 acres of orchard; 2 good frame dwellings, a frame stock and hay barn, a grain barn and 3 good wells of water. This farm is nicely arranged to divide into 2 farms. Its health is the cause of owner selling. Price $50 per acre.

Farm No. 14—280 acres, 2 1/2 miles east of Chelsea, 4 miles from Dexter village, 1 1/2 miles from German Methodist church, on prominent road, a large commodious frame house, pleasantly situated near a fine lake, a barn 30x50, also one 26x50, horse barn 30x30, corn barn 18x30, and other improvements, in good repair; 4 acres of orchard, 140 acres plow land, 60 acres good timber, 30 acres of mowing meadow, 50 acres of pasture and marsh. Strong gravelly loam soil, a good stock and sure crop farm. Price $60 per acre.

Farm No. 15—103 68-100 acres, situated 3 miles from Chelsea, near school, on good road, and in an excellent neighborhood of Eastern people. There is a frame dwelling house of 20 rooms (large and small), a frame barn 28x36, also a stock barn 100 feet long, wagon house 20x30, brick smoke house and fruit-dryer; 2 good wells of excellent water, medium sized orchard, 80 acres of plow land, remainder good timber land. No waste land whatever. This is a superior located farm, under high state of cultivation. The owner desires to retire from active work and will sell for $65 per acre.

Village Property No. 21—One of the prettiest and most convenient places in Chelsea as a home for a moderate sized family. Everything about this property is in its favor. Price, $1,000.

Farm No. 22—280 acres, 5 miles from Chelsea and 5 miles from Dexter. Large frame house near school house, barn 40x50 also one 20x40; 3 sheds 20x40 each, two wells, a windmill conducting water into house and barn, orchard with plenty of small fruits, and other improvements; 100 acres of plow land, 80 acres of timber, and 25 acres of marsh. Soil, gravel and sandy loam. Very productive. A farm to make money both in growing and as an investment.

Farm No. 23—A full sized farm of 200 acres near Chelsea. Price, $1,100.

The periodical dynamite scare has possession of London. Just now, and the police are on the alert for mysterious looking Irish-Americans.

In 1800 there were in all the United States only six cities of over 6,000 inhabitants. In 1880 there were 286, and by this time there are many more.

John Smith is a famous old stage-driver, aged ninety years, now living at Fryburg, Me., who is said to have driven miles enough to belt the earth nine times.

Prof. Elisha Gray has invented what he calls "The Telantograph," which will transmit "fac-simile" autographs to any distance over ordinary telegraph wires.

A silver-haired patron of the Fifth Avenue Hotel in New York, who has lived there for twenty-five years, claims that in that time his lodging and meals have cost him $700,000.

Will Carleton is a good deal of a people's poet. More than three hundred thousand volumes of his poems have been sold. Betsy may still be "out," but Mr. Carleton decidedly is not.

Lady Brassey, who died on her husband's yacht at sea, was the foremost yachts-woman of her time. She accompanied her husband in his voyages around the world in his yacht Sunbeam, and published delightful accounts of them.

The Hawaiian Government has ceded the finest harbor in the islands to the United States, to be used as a coaling station, upon condition that it is to be relinquished in case the reciprocity treaty, now in force between the two countries, be abrogated.

The other day Jonas Murry drove into Connelleville, Pa., in a dilapidated wagon drawn by two bony horses. He had driven from Tom Greene County, Tex., had been since April 1 in making the twenty-four hundred miles, and during the journey his wife had died.

Division of labor has been carried to such perfection in this country that it is now possible, so it is said, to make a complete sewing-machine in a minute, or sixty in an hour; a reaper every fifteen minutes; a locomotive in a day, and three hundred watches in the same time.

A girl in San Francisco named Gilroy, only thirteen years of age, has startled the community by communications and penciled sketches of heads, supposed to be from life. These written messages and likenesses appear on her arm, and often remain visible for an hour. The father of the girl says they come and go on the girl's bare arm, evidently under the cuticle, and can not be washed away.

A tall young man, far from stylish in appearance, recently registered at a Philadelphia hotel and asked to be called at half-past six in the morning. He proved to be John D. Dubs, of Minnesota, whose uncle died not long ago and left him a fortune of $8,000,000. Young Dubs is about twenty-six years of age, neither smokes nor drinks, is unmarried, retires early and rises early, and has neither the habits nor the appearance of a youthful millionaire.

Speaking of the late Jenny Lind, P. T. Barnum said recently: "She was worth at least $1,000,000. I remember my first meeting with the songstress. It was September 1, 1850, on her steamer, in New York. She asked me where I heard her sing. 'I never heard her sing,' I replied. 'How is it possible you dared risk so much money?' 'I risked it on your reputation, which, in musical matters, I would much rather have than my own judgment,' I answered."

Mrs. Mary Hopkins, the millionaire widow, was married to A. F. Searle in New York the other day. Mr. Searle is a retired country gentleman. The ceremony was simple, and devoid of any pomp. Mrs. Hopkins is one of the richest women in America. She is the widow of Mark Hopkins, one of the five men who built the Central Pacific railroad. When Mr. Hopkins died, in 1878, he left an estate that was inventoried at $21,700,000. Mrs. Searle got the whole of it, except about $4,000,000, and she is now worth at least $15,000,000.

The story of the poisoning of Daroko Lake, in Georgetown County, S. C., by a hall-storm, has been corroborated by a citizen who investigated the matter at the request of the Chief of the Signal Service. The lake is surrounded by black gum trees, the leaves of which are strongly impregnated with tannic acid. The bottom of the lake contains a deposit of iron. The poisoning of the water is due to the falling in of bruised leaves and branches, the tannic acid emanating from which, mingled with the iron, forming tannate of iron, poisoning the fishes.

The romantic is developed in connection with the marriage of the niece of the late President Arthur, Miss Ellen Bots, of Savannah, to Mr. J. H. Blaikie. The excitement of the earthquake induced her eyes so that an oculist decided she would lose her sight. She immediately sent word to Mr. Blaikie, who was in Scotland, releasing him from the engagement. He refused to accept it, and came to urge an immediate marriage. This expression of his fidelity produced a nervous reaction in Miss Bots' system, which ended in the restoration of her eyes.

Execution of Spies, Parsons, Engel and Fischer.

All Face Death Bravely—No Speeches on the Scaffold—Engel Dies with a Cheer for Anarchy on His Lips—The Scene Described.

CHICAGO, NOV. 12.—The Anarchists Spies, Parsons, Fischer and Engel were hanged on the county jail yesterday morning at 11:37 o'clock. The execution took place in the presence of a small assemblage of people, and was devoid of sensational incidents. The men met their fate stoically.

Spies' cases of yellow fever were reported on the 11th at night in cells A, 3 and 4. Richard E. Warrick, the murderer of David Coker, was hanged on the 11th at Lafayette, Ore.

The convention of the American Public Health Association at Memphis, Tenn., came to an end on the 11th. Dr. Charles N. Hewitt, of Red Wing, Minn., was elected president.

The funeral of August Spies, Albert R. Parsons, Louis Lingg, Adolph Fischer and George Engel, the dead Chicago Anarchists, occurred on the 13th. It was the occasion for a large gathering of their friends and sympathizers, but the event passed off very quietly. The bodies were taken from their homes and a procession was formed to the depot, where all who wished took trains for the cemetery. Speeches were delivered, after which the bodies were placed in a vault.

At Sever Station, Md., the house of Sever Culver was burned on the 12th, and Culver, with his two children, was burned to death while endeavoring to escape from the building.

Fielden and Schwab, the Chicago Anarchists whose death sentences were commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Oglesby, were taken to Joliet on the 12th. Before leaving the jail they were accorded interviews with their families and friends.

The convention of the Farmers' National Association came to an end in Chicago on the 12th. R. M. Kohl, of Enfield, Ala., was elected president.

Reveries were received on the 12th of Clara Louise Kellogg to Carl Strakosch, her manager.

At Avell, Minn., freight trains collided on the 12th and five laborers were killed.

At St. Peter, a merchant, Erie, Pa., was attacked by robbers on the 12th and beaten to death.

The upholstery factory of A. Wolter & Son, at Buffalo, N. Y., was burned on the 13th, causing a loss of about $100,000.

The death of Wilfred H. Nevin, aged thirty-nine years, editor and proprietor of the Pittsburgh Leader, occurred on the 12th.

SOME ANARCHIST sympathizers in Jersey City, N. J., displayed red flags on the 12th, and their places were immediately demolished by working-men.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. A SEVERE earthquake shock was felt in Corinth, Greece, on the 9th.

FUNERAL OF THE ANARCHISTS.

A Large and Orderly Crowd Followed Their Remains to the Tomb—The Procession Viewed by 100,000 Persons As It Marched Through Chicago's Streets—Fielden and Schwab Taken to Joliet.

CHICAGO, NOV. 12.—A great concourse of people followed the remains of August Spies, Adolph Fischer, Albert R. Parsons, George Engel and Louis Lingg, the dead Anarchists, in their funeral procession yesterday. The day was warm, and early in the morning crowds wended their way to Milwaukee avenue, down which thoroughfare the parade passed. Leaving Milwaukee avenue, it proceeded south on Desplaines street to Lake, within half a block of the fatal spot at which the Haymarket bomb was exploded, thence east on Lake street to Fifth avenue and south to Polk street, where the Wisconsin Central train was taken to the Tomb.

The people began to gather at the Spies' residence as early as 7 o'clock in the morning. Shortly after that hour the public were admitted to the house. A continual stream of men and women viewed the remains until a little after 11 o'clock, when preparations were begun for the transfer of the body to its final resting place. The grief of the strikers' mothers at this time was poignant and most excessive. Her lamentations were woful in the extreme. Miss Van Zandt, Spies' proxy wife, also deeply mourned the loss of him whom she undoubtedly loved. The sisters and brothers of the dead Anarchist wept constantly. Captain Black, the devoted advocate of the Anarchists and in out of all their power to assuage the grief of the afflicted ones. At a few minutes past noon it was announced that the hearse had arrived.

The hearse, and escorted by members of the Aurora Turn Verein and the Bakers' Union to the turn of about 500 proceeded down Milwaukee avenue to Paulina, where a halt was made while the hearse containing the body of Fischer followed by carriages containing the mourners came into line.

At Fischer's late home had occurred during the morning scenes similar to those enacted at the Spies' residence. Hundreds viewed the remains during the morning. Mrs. Fischer wept continually, and the poor woman's face was pale and haggard. At this point the German Typographical Union, No. 100 members of the Central Labor Union and a body of women, 250 strong, members of the Fortschritt Aid Society, joined in the procession.

The march was again begun, the next being made at the home of Mrs. Parsons. The crowd was here containing the remains of her dead, and here heaped up a mass of flowers and wreaths. The floral offerings were, as well as at all the other places, were numerous and of the most elegant designs. Mrs. Parsons' grief was most terrible in its expression. As the procession moved away to the grave and away measure of a dirge many of the women in the throng wept.

The silver plate on the casket containing Parsons' remains bore the following inscription: ALBERT R. PARSONS. Age 33. MURDERED BY THE STATE OF ILLINOIS. November 11, 1887.

It was a great crowd which gathered at the former residence of George Engel, at 286 Milwaukee avenue. Inside the dingy little house were the bodies of the two dead Anarchists, Louis Lingg and George Engel. The crowd was here, and the street traffic was completely blocked. The hearse moved slowly to the door, and the bodies of the two dead men were placed in the hearse.

At the intersection of West Indiana street, Milwaukee avenue and Halsted street the procession was stopped for nearly five minutes before the crowd could be separated sufficiently to admit of the passage of those on foot and in carriages. The procession then proceeded along the route given above to the depot. The utmost decorum was preserved throughout.

No banners of any kind were carried, the only flags displayed being two of red silk covering a portion of the caskets containing the bodies of Engel and Lingg. The several bands scattered through the procession played funeral dirges from time to time, and the crowds frequently lifted their hats as the hearse containing the dead bodies passed by. In the crowds that congregated along the route, many frequent imprecations were heard directed against Inspector Bonfield, States Attorney Grinnell and Judge Gary, but no threats were heard, the talk being more in the nature of criticism for the parts they had taken in the trial. There were over 6,000 in line.

There were thirty-five cars furnished to convey the people to Waldheim Cemetery, twelve miles west on the Wisconsin Central railway. It was nearly 4 o'clock when the cemetery was reached. Here 2,000 people were already assembled.

A small platform had been erected just at the side of the vault door, and the female relatives of the dead men took their stand. The coffins came one by one, and were placed before the vault on supports. Then the flowers were heaped up in profusion over the coffins.

Several others made short addresses, and the assembly quickly and quietly wended its way to the trains. The members of the committee of arrangements, assisted by the superintendent of the cemetery, conveyed the coffins into the vault, with the flowers and the flags, and the grave was closed and locked. At 5:30 o'clock the hearse left the vault and hurriedly down the lake driveway to the great cemetery gate. One after the other the trains, weighted down with weary men and women, steamed away toward the great city, and the Anarchist funeral was done.

CHICAGO, NOV. 12.—August Fielden and Michael Schwab were taken to Joliet at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon for a life imprisonment, in conformity to the commutation of sentence granted by Governor Tilden.

ST. LOUIS BANK SWINDLE. Half a Million of the Paper Practically Worthless—Full of Fraud. St. Louis, Nov. 14.—Developments in the Fifth National Bank case show the condition of affairs to be worse than first stated. All the paper has been listed, and it is learned that $300,000 is practically worthless. All the security the bank has for this immense sum is about $100,000 worth of old lumber, hides, wool and machinery. The money was loaned to three concerns under aliases, and $200,000 has been loaned within the last six months. It is feared the depositors will get very little back of the million they had in the institution.

Seven Seamen Drowned. LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Russian war vessel Elbiron was run into Friday night by an English steamer. There was a fearful crash. The Russian ship was nearly cut in two and sank in a few minutes. The officers and crew clambered up the sides of the steamer, and all escaped except seven, who went down with the ship.

Complete Returns from Iowa. Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 13.—Complete returns to the 18th of the election of the ninety-nine counties of the State give the following vote: Harrison, 158,886; Blair, 11,362; Larrabee's plurality, 15,810. The total vote is about 130,000 short of the vote last year.

FOR THE BEAST!

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

CURES. Rheumatism, Sprains, Contracted Muscles, Stiff Joints, Erysipelas, Hoof Ache, Burns, Stiff Limbs, Scalds, Stings, Bites, Galls, Sores, Swellings, Bruises, Spavin, Saddle Sores, Cracks.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what is needed. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs it as a medicine. The Lumberman needs it in case of accident. The Housewife needs it for general family use. The Canner needs it for his hands and his horse. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Planter needs it to cure his horses without it. The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard. The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it as a liberal supply aboard and ashore. The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance.

The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a lot of trouble. The Railroad man needs it and will need it as much as his horse. The Doctor needs it in all his cases of danger. The Blacksmith needs it. There is no thing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the laborer.

The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. It will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is a body of women, 250 strong, members of the Fortschritt Aid Society, joined in the procession.

BACH & ABEL

The Courier has a very new article this week about Bach & Abel, of Ann Arbor. Read it.

COATS, Wraps, Jackets, Newmarkets and what not for women's outside wear. Hundreds of Styles. Newest Clothes and Shapes. Fresh and bright. No printed, slip-stitch, old style, cotton stuff in the lot.

WHERE will the Clock Trade of the city be done? You won't ask after you have seen how they are piled up here and after you have looked at the price tickets on them.

Neither the Assortment Nor the Prices can be Matched in town.

DON'T take our word for it. Compare. You can't go wrong then, if you know money's worth when you see it. Judge by these.

100 ASTRACHAN Jackets, all new, perfect goods, 5.50—made to sell at 8.00.

50 ENGLISH Plaid and Check, tailor-made, bound Jackets, brown and black, 4.50—made to sell at 6.00.

30 BOUTLE and Diagonal Short Wraps, handomely trimmed, 10.00. This lot of garments were made to sell for 15.00 and 18.00. We made an offer for the lot and got them to run at this low price.

NEWMARKETS, Plaids and Stripes, with cape 10.00, 12.00 and 18.00.

50 BLACK and Brown, Beaver Newmarkets, with capes, 12.00.

OUR SPECIAL: English Seal Plush long coats, real Seal trimmings, 25.00.

WRAPS, ball trimmings, 16.00.

PLAIN JACKETS, 10.00. Beaver trimmed, 25.00.

WE GUARANTEE quality, workmanship, fit and price; as well made as any of our 50.00 garments. We don't think you can do better in the state. We judge by the sales and what we hear in the store. (We write without specific information.)

A heavy plaid cloth came Tuesday. A dozen different plaids. Suitable for dresses or wrappers, 54 inch, worth 1.25 for 1.00. To tell the whole tale in a few words. You won't find them in any other store. If you should find them in one or two of the quieter stores the price will be 1.25.

COTTON COMFORTABLES.

No shoddy in the filling—every scrap of it thoroughly cleaned cotton. Great variety of patterns. Double-bed size. Very good one for 1.00. Little better cover for 1.25 and 1.50. Satteen, one side turkey-red, 2.00 and 2.50. "Turkey-red" Comfortables 2 yds. square. The good old-fashioned size, covered with Turkey-red chintz, ornamental border, hand-quilted, 3.00.

BLANKETS.—Not a bit too early to be thinking about them. It is a rare time for blanket buyers, too.

50 PAIR each 10-4, white Blankets at 90 cents and 1.25. Surprising price, isn't it? They are not all wool. You see and feel only the cotton in the state. A great deal of blanket for little of money.

50 pair 6 lb 11-4 white Blankets 4.50 and 5.00 a pair. They are blankets you can feel, that you like to snuggle under.

A LITTLE FINER if you choose, 11-4, 6.00, 8.00, 10.00 and 12.00.

COLORED Blankets 1.25 to 6.00 a pair. Red blankets 4.00 to 6.00.

THE PRICES quoted give a fair idea of the money value in our blankets, but they no more than hint at the assortment and prices.

WE KNOW of no seller of underwear in the city who either keeps so great a variety as we, or gathers it with equal care as to quality. We will mention one price: 1 case gent's' pure wool underwear at 90 cents, worth 1.25.

JUST A WORD ABOUT YARNS.

WE SELL Nothing but the Best. Our Golden Fleece German knitting yarn is the best in the world. Fine and brilliant colors. Selected stock of wool. Even spinning.

OUR GOLDEN FLEECE SAXONY is the best in the world. Our Price is the Lowest.

OUR OERMANTOWN Yarn is the best in the world. Ask for Midnight Zephyr. It is unequalled by any as to quality, elasticity, evenness of thread finish and brilliancy of colors and shades.

OUR SPACE is limited, will tell you s'mother day about Hosiery, Underwear, Table Linens, Towels, Handkerchiefs, Napkins, Skirts and Skirting.

SPECIAL—50 Silk Umbrellas, 2.75 worth 3.50. Gold Handles.

BACH & ABEL

Babies that are fretful, peevish, cross, or trouble with Windy Colic, Teething Pains, or Stomach Disorders, can be relieved at once by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine, hence is safe. Price 25 cents. Sold by R. S. Armstrong, Druggist.

If a man blows his own trumpet, can his opinions be sound?

What Am I to do.

The symptoms of Billiousness are not happily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Billious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and turned, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and diarrhea or constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Most men like to see themselves in print, but women don't. They prefer silk or satin.

Save the Children. They are especially liable to sudden Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. We guarantee Acker's English Remedy a positive cure. It saves hours of anxious watching. Sold by R. S. Armstrong, Druggist.

What herb is it that cures all diseases? Thyme (time.)

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, Oh, it will wear away, but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which we sell on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effects after taking the first dose. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial size free. Glazier & Co. Druggists.

A poet writes, "I am saddest when I sing." So is a cat.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

There are eighteen non-resident pupils in the Dexter high school.

If you want your watch or clock repaired go to L. & A. Winans.

Pastor Robinson will talk, on temperance next Sabbath evening.

A Steiger is now shipping about 5,000 pounds of dressed poultry per day.

Boyd has knocked the bottom out of the banana trade. 15 cents per dozen.

Mr. James Osborne, of Delhi, was the guest of Miss Hattie Noyes last Sunday.

Rev. John A. Kaley, who has accepted a call from Ovid, will preach his farewell next Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Heller has been quite ill for the past week, and at present writing is not much better.

The pleasant face of Tommy McNamara is seen on our streets again. He is improving rapidly in health.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the residence of Mrs. H. M. Taylor, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1887, at the usual time.

Mr. Curtis, one of the firm of Cooper & Curtis, of Grass Lake, made the HERALD office a pleasant call last Monday.

The chorus class will meet at the Baptist church on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Dr. Champlin and family start East next week. The doctor will spend considerable time in the hospitals of New York and Philadelphia.

The ladies of St. Mary's church, Pinckney, Mich., are going to have an oyster supper and social in the Town Hall of that village on Tuesday evening, Nov. 22, 1887.

The fall term of school in the Freer district closed last Friday, after a very successful term. Miss May Bachelor, the teacher, has gained the good will of all who knew her.

The annual pew renting of the M. E. church will occur on Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1887, afternoon and evening. Also an oyster supper in the basement of the church from 5 to 8 o'clock. A general attendance is desired.

Rev. Fr. Considine is absent to-day in Jackson attending the quarterly conference of the Kalamazoo Diocese, of which he is Secretary. This Diocese includes all the Catholic churches on the Michigan Central railroad from Ypsilanti to Niles.

English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft, or Calloused Lumps and Blisters from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ringbones, Stifles, Sprains, Swellings, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted. Sold by R. S. Armstrong, druggist, Chelsea. v16n37

Last Tuesday evening was a very pleasant one for Olive Lodge No. 156, F. & A. M. There were about forty members of Grass Lake lodge present, and after the work of the lodge, which was conducted by the Brothers from Grass Lake in a very impressive and interesting manner, an elegant banquet was served, about one hundred participating.

A Jackson father bought his only son a handsome target rifle with which to shoot sparrows. The lad has owned the gun nearly a year, has shot off one of his fingers, ruined two suits of clothes, been licked by a neighbor's boy for shooting at the family cat and has managed to kill one sparrow, for which he is entitled to one cent bounty.

The children of St. Mary's Sunday School have given to the church a beautiful statue of St. Joseph and the Infant Jesus in commemoration of the Golden Jubilee of Pope Leo XIII, which will be celebrated all over the Catholic World with imposing solemnities next month.

The Statue came from Paris, and as a work of art, is very beautiful. St. Mary's church is now adorned with statues as beautiful as any in the diocese.

Names of those standing 80 and over in the examination for the month ending Nov. 11, 1887, in school district No. 4, Township of Lima: Inez Stocking 98; Otto Lewick 86; Lewis Stocking 86; Will Grau 88; Eddie Grau 96; Willie Fink-beiner 86; Libbie Finkbeiner 83; Bertha Spencer 94; Archie Palmer 81; Nelson Freer 85; Georgia Covert 90; John Fink-beiner 91; Lizzie Stricker 92; John Stricker 90; Those marked with a star were neither absent nor tardy during the month.

CHAS. BALDWIN, teacher.

Our School.

For some time we have been wishing that our school might be graded higher. It has now the reputation of being the lowest graded school in the county. Even Manchester, Grass Lake, and Dexter boast of a higher grade than our own. This surely is not because of the greater prosperity of these places, for Chelsea boasts, and justly, of being one of the busiest towns on the road.

All other things the place seems abreast with the times. Why not in school matters?

Overshadowed by the State University, with a population of at least 1,500, and with 330 pupils in our school, there is no reason why a school of high grade should not be maintained.

Not only is the grade low, but the work done has not been done, could not be done as thoroughly as in schools where teachers are not required to teach so many classes.

The school board, taking these things into consideration, has hired another teacher, the object being to give time for a revision and extension of the course. Hence our plan is to arrange the course that will prepare for the University. The board has secured Miss Frances Slaght, a graduate of the University, and eminently qualified to teach not only the studies we now have, but others that may be added. And with Miss Norbert, fresh from the Normal and an excellent corps of teachers for the other rooms there is now no reason why we cannot have a school at least equal to others of the same size, and one of which we may feel proud.

This is the plan that we proposed to carry out, and although it cannot be done in a term or in a year, yet the movement is on foot, and will surely go.

We ask all interested to visit our school, and we urge parents to take an active interest in the work of their children.

F. H. LOOMIS.

Obituary.

About 8 o'clock on the morning of the 5th of November, Mrs. Ed. Welch, for almost fifty years a resident of Sylvan, breathed her last after a brief illness, which she bore with Christian patience.

Her funeral was held from St. Mary's church, Chelsea, of which she was a devoted member, on Monday morning, Nov. 7th at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Father Considine officiating. Her relatives and many friends filled the beautiful church, which was appropriately draped in honor of the event. Rev. Dr. Kelly preached a brief but touching sermon, and extolled the dead as an exemplary Christian maiden, wife and mother. Her remains were laid away to rest in the quiet old cemetery at Sylvan.

Mrs. Welch was a woman of most lovely character, and leaves a precious example to her children. She has gone to her reward after a long life, with the respect and esteem of every one who knew her. Her husband and children have the sympathy of the entire community.

A Pleasant Surprise.

About 75 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ives, of Unadilla, dropped in upon them at their pleasant rural home last Friday evening, Nov. 11th, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding day.

The surprise was complete. The intruders took possession and spread a royal banquet, and the hours that followed were those of unalloyed pleasure. Brief speeches were indulged in by Rev. Tedman and Miller, father Ives and others, interspersed with music and songs.

The presents were substantial and reliable, and spoke of the unmistakable good will and kindly appreciation of the generous donors.

Mr. Ives was born upon the farm where he resides, and he and his estimable wife enjoy, to a marked degree, the confidence and esteem of all who enjoy their acquaintance and that they may have to enjoy many returning anniversaries is the wish of all.

By ONE THAT WAS THERE.

Wedding Bells.

A very pleasant wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's church, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. Pierce Cassidy, of Lyndon, and Miss Kate Wheeler, of Chelsea.

A large number of relatives and friends of the happy couple were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Father Considine. Mr. Wm. Conlin and Miss Lizzie Cassidy were groomsmen and bridesmaid, respectively. An elegant wedding breakfast was served at the new residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. John Conlin, of Lyndon, at which only relatives and intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy are well known here, having been born and brought up in our midst, and have many friends, who will heartily join with us in extending congratulations for a happy wedded life.

Notice to Exhibitors.

I will be at the Town Hall, Chelsea, on Wednesday, Nov. 23rd, and on Saturday, Nov. 26th, 1887, from 9 o'clock a. m. to 4 o'clock p. m. on each day for the purpose of delivering premium orders on the treasury. You will please bring your premium cards with you in every case possible. The record of our books must stand, but we shall be ready to correct all errors and without numerical entry book can do so to the satisfaction of everyone.

Very Resp. 12

Lima Notes.

Vol Potter is seriously ill and has been for several days.

Miss Nell Stocking of Lansing is visiting her parents here.

It now looks as though the Lima band would soon retoot their horns.

Abner Beach has recently done some nice grading about his new house.

Rev. T. B. Magee and A. B. Storms, were hurriedly among us one day last week.

Our Sabbath School has been suspended for winter. Hope the suspending will note entirely strange.

Theodore Covert Sr. had a child bit recently by a snappish pup. It is not bad, but the child is doing well now. Beware of dogs.

Prof. Colegrove of Ann Arbor, met with a number in the church last Monday night to talk over the matter of organizing a singing school.

Bar-a-ba, saith Burkhart's recently purchased Shorthorns, and Orrin is made still happier as he thinks his two month old colt will bring down the scales at 500 pounds.

Lima usually raises about all it needs to eat, but is short on potatoes this year. Some are sending to Philadelphia for sweet potatoes, and others to Iowa for the common Irish potatoes.

The threatened rain of last Wednesday evening prevented the success of the pound social, but didn't interfere with the visit of a number of ladies during the afternoon to Rev. Mr. Palmer's mother. It was a pleasant gathering. The pound social is now booked for Wednesday evening, Nov. 30.

Our grange had a meeting at Eugene Freer's last Friday. After a good square meal, and the formula of business, the whole meeting was open to all, and a lively discussion ensued on the creamery question. A few argued that it had been and was a benefit, while others thought that about the only benefit was the awakening of farmers to what they might do in butter making and the getting of better dairy stock. Fully as many argued that it was a damage, and that farmers would do better. The ladies took part in the discussion, and it was a profitable occasion. The next meeting will be at Will Stocking's on the 23th, where after getting a good feed of oysters they propose to give the Middle Man a racket or at least inquire if he is really needed.

Our Owl.

If I had known in the morning How wearily all the day The words unkind would trouble my mind That I said when you went away, I had been more careful, darling, Nor given you needless pain; But we vex our own with look and tone We might never take back again.

For though in the quiet evening You may give me the kiss of peace, Yet it well might be that never for me The pain of the heart should cease! How many go forth at morning, Who never come home at night! And hearts have broken for harsh words spoken, That sorrow can never set right.

We have careful thought for the stranger, And smile for the sometime guest, But oft for our own bitter tone, Though we love our own the best. Ah! lips with the curve impatient, Ah! brow with the shade of scorn; It were a cruel fate, were the night too late, To undo the work of morn.

A Warning.

Fathers, mothers, where are your girls after daylight has fled? Because a large per cent. of our boys smoke, chew and commit naughty acts too numerous to mention, must our little girls be free from restraint? Girls from ten years upwards, and some of them daughters of prominent citizens, are allowed to start, unattended by older persons, for church. Do they always get there, and on time too?

Sunday, Nov. 6, after the evening services, some of these children, boys and girls, might have been seen or heard on the steps of the school house. Was it your little girl? What harvest are you going to reap?
