The Sunday schools should be full now. Encourage your children to go, perhaps they will become attached to the school and hereafter be a regular attendant. Open the doors for the children.

One of the pleasant gatherings for which Unadilla is noted happened on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8, at the farm of C. B. Westfall. The friends and relatives at an early hour took possession of the premises and made Uncle Case and Aunt Betsy remember that this was the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day by presenting them a beautiful set of dishes, besides other useful presents.

Paw Paw has a genius who has got up an invention that he calls an anti-railroad collisioner. This invention consists of a train of cars with a railroad track attached, passing over it and down at either end near enough to connect with the main track, so that on meeting a train it passes directly over in perfect safety; or if one comes up in the rear, it passes over the same way. All trains will wear them—Ex.

Wednesday Dec. 14, 1887, Messrs Hugh Sherry and Timothy Sullivan waited upon Rev. Father Considine, and in the name of the parishoners of St. Mary's church, presented him with a purse of $175, with which to buy him a horse. The gift was peculiarly gratifying as it was given to the Rev. gentleman as a personal and not as a parish offering. St. Mary's pastor is certainly deserving of substantial recognition from his people, and we beg to offer congratulations.

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 1, 1881.

J. D. Kellough, Dear Sir: Your Columbian Oil has made some wonderful cures here of fever sores, one case of thirty years standing. Not finding it recommended for anything of the kind, we thought it might be of advantage to you to mention this case in your circular. Hoping this will be of service to you, we are very truly yours,

C. L. Brundage & Son,

Wholesale and Retail Druggist.

Don't

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. WHAT HE LEFT.

'Twas 'bout 10 a. m. when he came into our store. Rid'n wasn't very good, so walked. Been want'n a watch sometime. He lowed he needed shoes too, but hadn't money nuf to get both, 'n he's goin to have a stem windin, silver back-actin, yard-wide, all wool watch, er bust. The neighbors all said fur him to go to Glazier's; he had the best stock and didn't have but one price on em. Common feller could buy a watch of him as cheap as the Prince of Wales, 'n he warrants em, 'n stays by em like er pig to a root, to see that they give satisfaction, 'n he guessed he'd take that huntin case stem winder with that sand-hill crane wader in a puddle of bullrushes. Well he took it and saved enough on the price over what he expected; so that while I fitted the movement in the case he went out and got him a good pair of shoes. He came back smiling and presented me with his old shoes, saying that I had saved him enough on his watch to get him a dogon good pair of shoes, and he proposed to make me a present of his old ones to show his gratitude. The shoes are now on exhibition at my store.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE BY

Geo. F. Glazier's Loan and Real Estate

Agency, Chelsea, Mich.

Farm No. 1—270 acres, located 2 miles south of Francisco, 6 miles west from Chelsea, 5 miles east of Grass Lake, adjoining Michael Schenk's farm on the south, known as the Wales Ridge farm. One of the best soil farms in Michigan. There is a comfortable frame house, a large frame barn 114 feet long, 2 small barns, 2 good wells of water, wind mill, corn house, henry and tool house, orchard and a fine vineyard of one acre. 180 acres of land fit for the plow, besides ample woodland. In all it is one of the best grain and stock farms in Michigan to make money from.

Farm No. 2—80 acres, situated 6 miles southwest of Ann Arbor, on good road. Nearly all good improved land, having a living stream of water, good orchard, very productive sandy loam soil. A bargain at $30 per acre. 10 acres of additional of excellent timber, if wanted, at $25 per acre. Would make a very complete farm.

Farm No. 3—230 acres, located 2 1/2 miles from Chelsea, on prominent road, in good neighborhood, near church and school house and blacksmith shop. 175 acres of plow land, 25 acres of timber, 20 acres good mowing marsh, 18 acres of low pasture with living stream of water through it. The northwest corner of this farm is the highest, gently sloping to southeast, protecting wheat from winter winds. It has a fine young orchard of grafted fruit just coming into bearing. The buildings are unusually good, consisting of a frame dwelling house, upright and lying each 18x20, two stories, kitchen 15x18, wood shed 15x20. A fine basement barn 36x80 with gambrel roof, built in 1885, also hog house and kitchen, corn crib, carriage house and workshop attached, hen house 16x20, tool shed, and 2 good wells. Sundry loan about buildings but most of farm is a clay loam and is a superior grain and stock farm in excellent condition. The owner was offered four years ago, $70 per acre, but will now sell at a sacrifice that he may remove to California. Price, $60 per acre.

Farm No. 4—160 acres, 8 1/2 miles N. W. of Chelsea, 3 1/2 miles from Gregory, 2 miles from Unadilla, 4 churches within 3 miles, on good road, excellent neighborhood, soil mostly sandy loam, remainder clay, surface level as desirable. 100 acres of plow land, producing excellent crops; 35 acres of good white oak, hickory and walnut timber; 35 acres of good mowing marsh, with good living stream of water through it; 3 acres of orchard; 2 good frame dwellings, a frame stock and hay barn, a grain barn and 3 good wells of water. This farm is nicely arranged to divide into 3 farms. Ill health is the cause of owner selling. Price $50 per acre.

Farm No. 5—280 acres, 2 1/2 miles east of Chelsea, 4 miles from Dexter village, 1 1/2 miles from German Methodist church, on prominent road, a large commodious frame house, pleasantly situated near a fine lake, a barn 36x56, also one 26x30, horse barn 30x36, corn barn 16x20, and other improvements, in good repair; 4 acres of orchard, 140 acres plow land, 60 acres good timber, 30 acres of mowing meadow, 50 acres of pasture and marsh. Strong gravelly loam soil, a good stock and crop farm. Price $60 per acre.

Farm No. 6—108 08-100 acres, situated 3 miles from Chelsea, near school, on good road, and in an excellent neighborhood of Eastern people. There is a frame dwelling house of 20 rooms (large and small), a frame barn 28x56, also a stock barn 100 feet long, wagon house 20x30, brick smoke house and fruit dryer, 2 good wells of excellent water, medium sized orchard, 90 acres of plow land, remainder good timber land. No waste land whatever. This is a superior located farm, under high state of cultivation. The owner desires to retire from active work and will sell for $55 per acre.

Village Property No. 21—One of the prettiest and most convenient places in Chelsea as a home for a moderate sized family. Everything about this property is in its favor. Price, $1,000.

Farm No. 22—380 acres, 5 miles from Chelsea and 5 miles from Dexter. Large frame house near school house, barn 40x80 also one 30x30, 2 sheds 20x40 each, two wells, a windmill conducting water into house and barn, orchard with plenty of small fruits, and other improvements. 180 acres of plow land, 80 acres of timber and 30 acres of marsh. Soil, gravel and sandy loam. Very productive. A farm to make money both in cropping and in an investment.

Farm No. 23—A small some form of 20 acres near Chelsea. Price, $1,100.

A GERMAN tourist has encircled the globe at a cost of $5 a day, and the voyage took 185 days.

MAYOR ROBERTSON, of Concord, N. H., recently vetoed a bill increasing the salary of his office from $500 to $1,000. The Board of Aldermen, however, passed it over his veto.

NEW YORK has dedicated a new institution, the only one of the kind in this country, a cancer hospital. Its cost was $350,000, to which Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor contributed $250,000.

RAFAEL LUNA, after reaching the uncommon age of ninety-nine years, is now enjoying his honeymoon with Petra Negrete, a young woman of twenty-five, whom he has lately married in Guanajuato.

ABRAHAM BURBANK, who died in Pittsfield, Mass., the other day, worth $80,000, was a stone and brick mason, and worked at his trade until a few days before his death. A trowel was his only possession when he settled in Pittsfield in 1834.

At a recent entertainment in Philadelphia admission was not by ticket but by vegetable, each person being required to hand over to the doorkeeper a potato or some other vegetable product. The net proceeds were distributed among the poor.

THERE are three ministers in the present House of Representatives, Judge Stewart, of Georgia, and Chas. C. of Indiana, are ex-preachers, but the new Congressman from New Hampshire, Rev. Mr. McKinney, has been in the Universalist pulpit during his whole active career.

NINETY-TWO years ago a girl and a boy baby were born on the same day in South Hanover, Mass. They grew and thrived there and in time married. That was sixty-two years ago. To-day they live right there in the same town where they have always lived. They are Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bates.

REV. DANIEL P. PIKE, whose death has lately been announced at Newburyport, Mass., is credited with preaching five thousand sermons, marrying more than two thousand persons, conducting more than two thousand funerals and baptizing by immersion nearly eleven hundred converts.

An Indiana man named Wolfe, who was ejected from a railway train for using improper language in the presence of ladies, brought suit against the company for damages, and the case was carried to the Supreme Court of the State, which decided that the action of the conductor was justified by the misbehavior of the passenger.

Last winter Andrew Robinson, aged twenty-five years, tramped from Dakota to Brainerd, Minn., and was there employed by Mrs. Magdalena Schwartz, a rich German widow of forty summers, to "do chores" about the house. He has lately, however, been promoted from the position of hired man to that of husband, and is the wealthiest man in the district.

A NOVEL case came up in a Buffalo (N. Y.) court the other day. A young married woman had accused an unmarried woman of various indiscretions of a compromising nature, and the latter brought suit for damages. The husband was arrested and placed in jail, it being claimed in New York State that a husband is supposed to curb his wife's tongue.

THE people of the United States annually spend the following sums in the manner described: For missions, $5,000,000; public education, $85,000,000; sugar and molasses, $150,000,000; boots and shoes, $190,000,000; cotton goods, $210,000,000; lumber, $238,000,000; woolen goods, $237,000,000; iron and steel, $290,000,000; meat, $300,000,000; tobacco, $250,000,000; bread, $505,000,000; liquors, $900,000,000.

An extraordinary case of accidental shooting by which two men lost their lives is reported from Ozark County, Mo. William Regan, a member of a party on a hunting expedition in a remote part of the county, started out by himself, and when at some distance from his companions fired at an object which he took for a deer, but which proved to be W. H. Guinter, also a hunter from Wyandotte, Kan. After the discharge of his gun Regan rushed forward, and Guinter, who was still alive, though fatally wounded, fired upon him, killing him instantly.

MRS. ELISE ESSLINGER, matron of Castle Garden, New York, died recently. By her death the Emigrant Commissioners lose one of their oldest and most faithful employees, and a well-known figure at Castle Garden. For over thirty years she presided over the Labor Bureau there, and watched the interest of the women and girls who flocked from foreign climes to the hospitable shores of America. Many poor emigrant girls will remember some kind act on her part. She was beloved by all the attaches of the garden, and her loss will be mourned by many.

THE Official Military Gazette, of St. Petersburg, publishes an article which shows that the recent transfer of Russian troops to the western frontier was a defensive rather than an offensive movement. It is pointed out that during the last five years the armies of both Austria and Germany have been largely increased, that their garrisons on the side of Russia have been reinforced and strengthened, and that an immense amount of railroad-building has been accomplished in the eastern provinces of both countries so as to facilitate the transportation of troops.

INTERESTING NEWS COMPILATION.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Dec. 13.—Bills were introduced in the Senate to remove the limitation in the payment of arrears of pensions and to equalize the rates to extend the Congressional term until the last Tuesday in April; to amend the last State commerce act; to open the Grand Sioux reservation in Nebraska to settlement; to tax manufacturers and dealers in adulterated lard, and requiring it to be stamped; to regulate the holding of Congressional elections in South Carolina, Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana. The Committee on Privileges and Elections decided the West Virginia contested election case in favor of Mr. Faulkner. In the House a large number of executive communications were presented to the Speaker, and appropriately referred. The Committee on Elections was announced and accepted. Adjourned to the 16th.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 14.—In the Senate several bills were introduced, after which Mr. Morrill spoke at length on his bill relating to foreign immigration, the principal object of which he explained, was to change the character of the immigrants examined by the United States Consul at the port of departure. He stated that nearly one-third of the population of the country was composed of foreigners, and expressed a doubt as to the possibility of transforming them into good American citizens. The House was not in session.

THURSDAY, Dec. 15.—Bills were introduced in the Senate to protect employees and servants engaged in Interstate commerce; to extend the general land and mining laws over the Territory of Alaska; to facilitate the settlement and development of the resources of Alaska, and to open an overland commercial route between the United States, Asia and Russia and Japan; to forfeit lands granted to the State of Michigan for a railroad from Marquette to Ontonagon, Mich. Mr. Stewart advocated his bill providing for the sale of coin certificates to circulate as money. Adjourned to the 16th. The House was not in session.

FRIDAY, Dec. 16.—The Senate was not in session. In the House a concurrent resolution was adopted providing for the adjournment of Congress from December 20 to January 4, and a resolution of regret over the death of E. W. Robertson, late a member elect of the Fifty-first Congress from Louisiana, was adopted, and as a mark of respect the House adjourned until the 16th.

BURIED THEIR DEAD.

Anarchist sympathizers in Chicago follow the remains of Spies, Parsons, Engel, Fischer and Lingg from the Vault to their Last Resting-Place: The Proceedings of the Burial Service, Chicago, Dec. 19.—After lying in the vault at Waldheim Cemetery for five weeks, under the constant guard of those who knew them when living, the bodies of the five dead Anarchists, August Spies, George Engel, Albert R. Parsons, Adolph Fischer and Louis Lingg, were yesterday consigned to the great Mother Earth. At 11 o'clock a train of eleven coaches, crowded with the relatives, friends and admirers of the dead men, to the number of over a thousand, started out from the Park street depot of the Wisconsin Central railroad in a quiet, unostentatious way, without any previous show of banner-headed processions or heralding of trumpets. A few in the crowd had bouquets in their coats composed of crape and red ribbon intertwined, but outside of this there was nothing to mark the throng from those which usually attend a social occasion. The train was a most suburban picnic-ground. All of the most noted Anarchists of the city were present on the train, and also a large number of equally prominent labor-leaders of unpronounced Anarchist type. The attendance from outside towns was much smaller than had been expected.

On arriving at Waldheim Cemetery containing the bodies were taken from the vault and were each partially covered with a red shroud, and above these floral decorations, many of them very beautiful and of a costly character. One of these floral decorations was in the form of a pillow. It rested on the coffin of Albert R. Parsons, and was inscribed with the words: "Our Papa." Following each coffin in its turn as it was borne toward the grave came the widows and children and other relatives of the deceased, or those who had been nearest and dearest to them in life. Among those who were in mourning, were Mr. Parsons, Mrs. Engel, Mrs. Spies, Mrs. Grotchen Spies, the latter's two brothers and Nina Van Zandt. Walking behind the coffins came also the speakers of the day, Captain William P. Black, Paul Grottkan, of Milwaukee; Albert Buchanan, of St. Louis, and Joseph R. Curran, of Chicago. Arriving at the graves, the coffins were placed in line in the following order: August Spies, George Engel, Albert R. Parsons, Adolph Fischer, Louis Lingg. The coverings over the glass head ends of the coffins were then raised and the crowd allowed to march past in single file and take their last look at the faces of the dead. The features of the dead all looked as if but little marred by the lapse of time since life had departed from them, with the exception of Lingg's, around whose eyes were broad purpled rings. Spies' face in particular looked almost as natural as if still that of a living being, except that it looked larger, fuller and of sterner cast than it once was. Spies was living. Slowly and with hats off and reverent bearing the long procession passed and grazed at the faces of the dead. This ceremony took so long that it was thought inadvisable to await its termination before commencing the more formal ceremonies of the day.

Then followed addresses by Paul Grottkan, of Milwaukee; Albert Curran, of St. Louis, and Joseph Buchanan, and Captain Black, of this city.

These ceremonies were presided over by Joseph R. Buchanan, and commenced with the singing by a mass choir of a song written for the occasion and entitled, "An Grave Unearthed Friends," or, in English, "At the Grave of Our Friends."

During the course of Captain Black's remarks, and while he was making a special reference to the dead before him, Mrs. Parsons, who was standing in front of the coffin containing the remains of her husband, suddenly lost control of her feelings, and became hysterical, shrieking and moaning in a piteous way, and at last fainting.

At the close of Mr. Black's address the massed choir sang "Our Natch," after which the coffins were lowered into the grave which had been prepared for them. This grave or vault was open at the top, its sides and floor being made of solid masonry. Its width is that of the length of a coffin, and its length just sufficient to contain the coffins packed close side by side. The five coffins having been lowered into this curious vault, an immense flag-stone was lowered over them, it covering the vault entirely; the stone being lowered down to its place with the aid of a derrick.

To the Afflicted.

Since the introduction of Kellogg's Columbian Oil it has made more permanent cures and given better satisfaction on Kidney Complaints and Rheumatism than any known remedy. Its continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it known as a safe and reliable agent to employ against all aches and pains, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders. It acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering and often saving life. The protection it affords by its timely use on rheumatism, kidney affection, and all aches and pains, wounds, cramping pains, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, colds, catarrh, and disorders among children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure when cures are possible. Call at Glazier, Deputy & Co. and get a memorandum book giving more full details of the curative properties of this wonderful medicine.

Der Small Young Baby.

So help me gracious every day I laugh me wild to see der way My small young baby dry to play— Dot funny little baby!

When I look on them little toes, Und saw dot funny little nose, Und heard der viny viny vill crawl Rigid in its little stomach snout!— Dot's too bad for der baby.

Dot makes him sing at night so sweet, Und garbolic he must eat, Und I must clumb sherry on my feet, To help dot little baby.

He bulls his nose and kicks my hair, Und growls me oter every where, Und shlobers me—but what I care! Dot vas my small young baby!

Around my head dot little arm Vas squeezing me so nice and warm;— Oh! I may there never come some harm To dot small little baby!

Society Election.

A Sodality, under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary, was recently established in St. Mary's church. The Rev. pastor is spiritual director. The society begins work very auspiciously, having a membership of over 50. Meetings are held once a month. The following officers were chosen to hold office for one year: President, Miss Frances Hindekang; first assistant, Miss Mary Miller; second assistant, Miss Nora Daley; Secretary, Miss Alice Gorman; Treasurer, Miss Alice Looney; music leader, Miss Margaret Stiffin.

Obituary.

Michael Foster, whose death was noticed in last week's issue as having occurred at his home in the township of Sylvan, Dec. 11, 1887, was born in Reilingen, county of Schwetzingen, Baden Germany, February 13th, 1820. Emigrated to America June 18, 1845, with his young wife, settled in the township of Lima, in this county where he remained until his wife's death. He afterwards married Miss Magdalena Staph, who survives him. He also leaves ten children, five by each of his said wives. For the past thirty years he has resided on the farm where he died. He was one of the most intelligent, genial and public spirited men in the community and a member of St. Mary's Catholic church, of Chelsea, Mich. The whole community mourns his loss.

School Notes.

What will Santa bring us? Something nice. Wish you a merry Xmas and a happy New Year.

Visitors, come one and all, you can sit on the platform.

The whispering is somewhat decreasing in the High School.

The Seniors have their class colors now, Heliotrope and Pink.

A number of the scholars are absent on account of scarlet fever.

What a long week—Seems as if Friday night would never come.

The Seniors are to hold their next meeting at Miss Kittie Crowell's.

The new course of study will be done in the High School in a few days.

There is to be an entertainment next month for the benefit of the school library.

Preparations are being made for a good time Friday afternoon. Speaking, essays, etc.

The High School was visited by Mr. Lewis Willis Allyn, Esq., of Chelsea last Tuesday.

Miss Emma Lewis is taking her sister's place as teacher in one of the lower departments.

Palace Barber Shop.

J. A. Crawford has moved his barber shop one door east of Bacon's hardware store, on ground floor, and fitted it up in first class style. He will be glad to see all of his old customers and as many new ones as may favor him with their patronage.

Orders received for false bangs, hair switches, and false hair goods. 15

Christmas Festival.

A Christmas festival for the children and supper for all will be given by the ladies of St. Mary's parish in the Town Hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 27th, from 6 o'clock on. A splendid Christmas tree, laden with beautiful gifts for the children, will be one of the chief attractions. The children's choir will also sing some Christmas songs.

The following ladies have charge of the supper tables, and their names are ample guarantee of success:

FIRST TABLE. Mrs. Geo. Miller, Mrs. Frank Stiffin, Mrs. B. S. Greening, Mrs. Michael Merkle, Mrs. M. Sullivan, Mrs. Jacob Miller, Mrs. Rose Doli, Mrs. Geo. M. Staph.

SECOND TABLE. Mrs. Peter Gorman, Mrs. John Wain, Mrs. A. Lee Gorman, Mrs. Agnes Coffin, Mrs. Clara Whitaker, Mrs. Rose H. Wain, Mrs. Anna McKone, Mrs. Agnes McKone.

THIRD TABLE. Mrs. John Looney.

FOURTH TABLE. Mrs. Wm. Cassidy, Miss Maggie Hagerty.

FIFTH TABLE. Mrs. Stephen Clark, Mrs. Hugh Sherry.

Homoeopathic Medicines.

To my former patrons and all who may wish to use reliable Homoeopathic Medicines, There is a constant and increasing demand for Homoeopathic Medicines for domestic use. No one ought to keep house without a reliable Tincture of Aconite and many other equally reliable remedies at hand. As I am about to leave to spend some time in the hospitals of New York and Philadelphia, I would say to my patrons that they can obtain all of the medicines I have put up for them, of F. P. Glazier, the druggist, who keeps a complete line of Halsey Bros.' Preparations which are fresh and pure. I wish to announce also, that I have given Mr. Glazier the formula for various specialties of mine that are in much demand. My ointment and other preparations that have attained considerable reputation in the treatment of ulcers, hemorrhoids, catarrh and skin diseases, will be put up by Mr. Glazier.

I take pleasure in recommending my old patrons to go to Mr. Glazier for all medicines that I have heretofore furnished them knowing that they will get of him just what they call for. He is a graduate of the College of Pharmacy, University of Michigan, thoroughly posted in everything pertaining to the drug business and you may rest assured will dispense all medicines in a thoroughly scientific manner.

Benefit.

Of R. P. Carpenter Post No. 41, Grand Army of the Republic, at Chelsea Town Hall, Dec. 29th, 1887. Mr. John R. Clark, the famous orator and humorist in his witty subject, Hits and Misses. No description can do justice to this unique entertainment, it is made up of wit, humor, eloquence, pathos, song and dialect. Tears and smiles chase each other over the face of the listener. Pictures of domestic life, experiences in country and city, laughable incidents, eloquent appeals follow each other in rapid succession. John R. Clark cannot be described, he must be heard.

The fitness of things is not illustrated by a wrinkled, gossiping old girl at a church fair insists upon eating angel cake.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam, for coughs and colds, does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes F. P. Glazier to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

"Do cats reason?" asks a correspondent. Certainly. There are two in our neighborhood reasoning with each other all through the still night.
