His apparatus is complete, and he gives experiments and views with a brilliancy and success, which few busy teachers can attain. His lectures are very instructive and entertaining.

School Notes.

Another recitation room would be a great convenience.

The scholars anticipate a good entertainment Friday and Saturday evenings, and many of them are busy selling tickets that others may have a chance to enjoy it also. Don't fail to attend.

Prayer meetings are now being held daily by pupils from the various departments at the school house. There is quite a large attendance, and we are glad to say that quite an interest is shown.

Chelsea's Legal Victory.

As we mentioned in our issue of last week that the Furguson case was on trial in the Circuit court, for the county of Ingham, held at Mason. We have no doubt but many will await the knowledge of its termination with anxiety. The case lasted for two days, and eventuated in a verdict of $1,686.75 for the claimant Miss Furguson. The case was sharply contested on both sides, the estate having in its employ an attorney, who is acknowledged to be the best at the Ingham county bar, and M. M. Atwood of Dansville. Mr. Lehman of this place conducted the case for the claimant, and is reported to have presented his case with great legal nicety. It was the general rumor among those present, both lawyers and others that the closing argument by counsel for claimant was the best and most touching that had been made for the term in Mason. We congratulate Mr. Lehman and the others who assisted in the case, for its successful termination.

Mr. George Cook is at home with his grand children for a short time.

THE CHELSEA HERALD.

A. ALLISON, Editor and Proprietor.
CHELSEA, MICHIGAN.

It is said that there are three thousand faith healers in the United States.

Out of three hundred and twenty-five members of the present Congress two hundred and sixteen are lawyers.

Mrs. MARY GALLAGHER, of South Bethlehem, Pa., is 106 years old, and recently danced a jig to the music of a violin.

GEORGE W. ROSE, known as the "cowboy evangelist," is said to be worth $700,000, which gives him an income of $150 a day.

The Osage Indians number sixteen hundred, have $7,000,000 of capital drawing five per cent. interest, a reservation of good land and an annuity of $250,000.

ELI BOGGS and Miss Rhoda Smith, and Marion Greenhill and Miss Kate Chandler, walked from Carter County, Ky., recently to Maysville, a distance of one hundred miles, to be married.

BEN BENTON, the bigamist, arrested at Atlanta recently for having five wives, said he had registered a vow that by the time he was twenty-five years old he would have twenty-five wives.

THE New York City elevated and surface railroads carried last year 558,598,198 passengers, for which they received in excess of $17,000,000. The profits, after paying all expenses, were about $3,000,000.

THE Georgians marry and give in marriage, but seem to have little idea of the eternal fitness of things. A clergyman of that State has united 111 couples and has received in fees but $5, and that came from one man. The other 110 bridegrooms failed to liquidate.

In a recent sermon to men only Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, the eminent London preacher, gave some startling statistics. He said "there are in London 80,000 professional thieves, 600,000 practical drunkards, 6,000 public houses and 4,000 clubs for tempting young men."

THERE is a girl in the Treasury Department at Washington who can pick a counterfeit bill out of a pile containing $20,000,000. There is a prize for some man. Think of being able to sleep at night without the haunting fear hanging like a sword of Damocles over your head that there may be a counterfeit bill in your $20,000,000.

In lieu of death by electricity as a substitute for hanging a Frenchman has written to Governor Hill, of New York, proffering a chair in which the condemned man is to sit and have his spinal column instantly broken. It is claimed that a hundred persons per day can be executed in this manner, and the inventor describes the process as "beautiful."

FRANCIS MURPHY has some good ideas on other subjects as well as on temperance. In a late lecture he said: "There is one great trouble among the young men of the present day—they are ashamed to take off their coats and get down to hard work. They want to be genteel; they want to get rich right away. The crowning glory of manhood is labor."

The following is from a Harlequin MS. in the British museum (No. 2232): "Lendings, all of you I say, if the day that Christ was born. Fall upon a Sunday. Then winter shall be good, I say. But great winds shall still be. The summer shall be fair and dry. By kind soil and without loss. Through all lands there shall be peace. Good time for all things to be done. And that the steeds shall be found soon; What child that day shall be born, A great lord he shall live to be."

By the operation of the statute which bars prosecution for murder or manslaughter unless death occurs within one year and one day of the assault, Mrs. McGeevey, says the Chicago Times, escapes the consequences of having caused the death of Patrick Duanyan. On the night of January 10, 1886, she pushed him over a stair railing, and in the fall he broke his back. He lived until January 11, 1888, and Mrs. McGeevey goes free.

A WOMAN died in Alabama recently at the age of eighty-seven years. She was not known to fame. Her life was spent in the humble discharge of the duties pertaining to a plain and unpretending country home. She made a large family of stalwart sons and charming daughters, attended church regularly, gave as liberally as she could to the support of the Gospel and to all benevolent objects, was cheerful, happy and beloved by all who knew her, and died regretted by eleven children, and many grandchildren.

DURING the calendar year 1887 $3,086,793 gold coins were struck at the mints of the United States, of the value of $23,972,883. The value of the different gold coins struck was as follows: Double eagles, $5,662,420; eagles, $8,706,800; half eagles, $9,500,435; three-dollar pieces, $18,480; quarter eagles, $15,705; dollars, $8,543. The silver coinage for the year was $33,611,710 in "standard" dollars, $2,855 in half dollars, $2,678 in quarter dollars and $1,573,889 in dimes. The dollar coinage was the largest for any one year in the history of the country.

LATE details of the Chinese floods in late the story of one of the most terrible in history. What was a beautiful, populous district of 10,000 square miles is now a rolling sea. At least 3,000,000 people are homeless and absolutely destitute of the bare necessities of life, while it is thought that the loss of life will reach 750,000. Every thing in the way of figures is as yet, however, pure speculation, with the chances of a total mortality far greater than the present estimate. Court and business circles in Peking are doing all in human power to cope with the disaster.

SCORES FROZEN TO DEATH.

Over a Hundred Persons Perish in the Late Blizzard—List of the Victims So Far as Known—Many Missing. The Thermometer Reaches 35 Below at Brainerd, Minn.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The great storm which swept over the entire country from the Northwest last week has been followed by a freeze the like of which has not been seen since the memorable winter of 1884. The area of unusual cold has been general, extending from the extreme northern line of telegraphic communication as far south as Texas and the Gulf States.

Extreme suffering is reported from all directions, especially in Nebraska, Dakota, Montana and Nebraska, where many lives have been lost. In Kansas thousands are suffering for want of both fuel and food, and in some counties aid is needed to save many from actual starvation. The storm, while of course less severe in Arkansas, Texas and the southern States, still found the people there unprepared for it, and much suffering resulted. Crops and live stock have everywhere suffered more or less.

Saturday night's dispatches indicated that many people had been frozen to death, particularly in Minnesota, Nebraska and the Northwest Territories. Sunday night's reports swelled the death-roll by the following numbers in the States and Territories named:

4TH ANNUAL CHEAP SALE OF DRY GOODS

BOSTON STORE, Commencing Saturday Jan. 7. 1888.

While getting ready for inventory during the balance of January, we have, as is our annual custom, gone through our entire stock of winter goods, and put such prices on them that will insure for us a speedy turn over into cash. We do not do anything half way. We have made reductions that the people will readily see and appreciate.

Finding some departments overstocked in reasonable goods, we have decided to give our customers the benefit of a general mark-down all over the store.

No one department will be overlooked, but must all share their proportion of loss. Some departments will be slaughtered more than others, but you will find lots of good bargains in every stock.

You will find on perusing our 'ad.' carefully, some large reductions on several items which we quote prices on. Want of space prevents us quoting prices all over the store.

The only way to get our prices, which will be the lowest during this sale ever quoted, is to call.

Do not forget this sale. It is of as much importance to you as it will be to your neighbor. Respectfully,
Oliphant & Brown.

The New York MAIL AND EXPRESS, the favorite American newspaper of many people of intelligent and cultivated tastes, has recently made some noteworthy improvements, materially increasing its general excellence. It is in the broadest sense most carefully edited, and adapted to the wants and tastes of intelligent readers throughout the entire country—North, South, East and West. It is a thoroughly clean paper, free from the corrupting, sensational and demoralizing trash, mislabeled news, which defiles the pages of too many city papers.

A National Newspaper,

OUR POLITICS.

We believe the Republican party to be the true instrument of the POLITICAL PROGRESS of the American people and holding that the honest enforcement of its principles is the best guarantee of the national welfare, we shall support them with all our might; but we shall always treat opposing parties with consideration and fair play.

AGAINST THE SALOON.

The MAIL AND EXPRESS is the recognized National organ of the great Anti-Saloon Republican movement. It believes that the liquor traffic as it exists to-day in the United States is the enemy of society, a fruitful source of corruption in politics, the ally of anarchy, a school of crime, and with its avowed purpose of seeking to corruptly control elections and legislation, is a menace to the public welfare and deserves the condemnation of all good men.

"Thou hast given a banner to them that fear Thee." "Kindly courtesy has given us space in the HERALD," which we hope to fill with news items of temperance work and worker, of morality, and the reforms now before the people.

TO THE W. C. T. U. OF THE NORTH-EASTERN PENINSULA, MICHIGAN.

BELOVED SISTERS:—The unspeakable abominations disclosed by the Chicago press relative to the lives of the white slave women entrapped into the dens of infamy, adjoining your lumber camps, have never been exceeded in any age or nation. When I was with you last spring, I inquired carefully as to the efforts made to root out this unutterable crime, and was much encouraged to learn that Judge Grant was doing heroic and successful work in this direction.

Your interest and zeal were just what I had reason to expect, and I doubt not you are, if possible, more earnest to-day than ever. I have all been greatly encouraged to learn that Gov. Luce declared that no power vested in him shall fail to be exercised toward the same end; but if what our papers tell us is true, these righteous endeavors have not met with the success that all friends of humanity must ardently desire.

I therefore write you to ask just what the present situation is, and what can be done by the White Cross and White Shield department of the National W. C. T. U. to mitigate the horrors of the situation.

It seems to me all Christian and philanthropic people might well lay aside every other effort they are making until these breathing holes of predation are sealed up, and the incarcerated fiends who have opened them are incarcerated under a life sentence in the penitentiary. Pray let me hear from you promptly, and oblige your friend and comrade.

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

Evanson, Ill., Dec. 27, 1887.

"Dear Sisters, when you talk about the worship you receive from your brothers, do you forget the two hundred thousand licensed schools of vice in our country? Do you realize that these make your door-yard fence the dead line beyond which your boy passes only at peril of his soul? Women of old were held accountable for national vice, 'Woe unto you, women that are at ease in Lion.' Will not God sit in judgment against you, who, amid bright light and infinitely greater privileges, sit at ease in Lion while such snares are laid for soul? Can you make no better returns to the good men who have made your lives so sheltered and secure than darned lace and crazy quilts?"—Mrs. Lerelda Wallace on "responsibilities of motherhood," at Nashville convention of W. C. T. U.

"To-day Christ sits over against the ballot box, as of old he sat over against the treasury, and judges men by what they cast therein."

MARY ALLEN WEST.

"At the next general election, will be cast one million votes by men who cannot read the names on the ballot."—Prof. White, Supt. of Public Schools of Cincinnati.

"Woman's ballot, as a temperance weapon, will be as powerful as dynamite is destructive."—Mrs. Susanna Salter, Mayor of Arizona Kansas.

We thank our unnamed friend of Post 41, that the W. C. T. U. was not represented at J. R. Clark's lecture, implies any ill will toward the G. A. R. We emphatically deny, "The best laid plans off gany aglee," as we know by experience. That the W. C. T. U. of Chelsea, has a political ban laid upon it, we are well aware. Yet, we are a union of a few women bound to fight this liquor business in saloon, drug store at the communion table, in our daily food, everywhere found and to hale fellows, narcotics and immorality, just as long as the good Lord gives us breath.
