Father Aloysius for the 16th of this month. The Rev. gentleman will be a guest at St. Mary's Rectory on the 17th, and on Wednesday morning, April 18th, he will celebrate mass and preach in German at 9 o'clock. Our North Lake neighbors are in for fun once in a while as well as profit. They have engaged Rev. H. Palmer to give them a talk at their lyceum next Friday night on "The Army Mule." Whew! what a tough subject. But Palmer understands the nature of the brute, and can talk in a comical as well as instructive way about him. Died, March 20, 1888, Mattie Evelyn Perry, aged 3 years, 7 months, 23 days. Daughter of George and Almira Perry. She was a bright beautiful child, beloved by all who knew her. During her severe illness she was very patient, having no fears of death. After asking to be raised higher and higher as though longing to leave all suffering behind, and penetrate the bright beyond. She leaves father, mother and three sisters to mourn her loss.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE BY

Geo. F. Glazier's Loan and Real Estate Agency, Chelsea, Mich.

Farm No. 1—270 acres, located 2 miles south of Francisco, 6 miles west from Chelsea, 5 miles east of Grass Lake, adjoining Michael Schenk's farm on the south, known as the Wales Riggs farm. One of the best soil farms in Michigan. There is a comfortable frame house, a large frame barn 114 feet long, 2 small barns, 2 good wells of water, wind mill, corn house, hennery and tool house, orchard and a fine vineyard of one acre. 150 acres of land fit for the plow, besides ample woodland. In all it is one of the best grain and stock farms in Michigan to make money from.

Farm No. 2—80 acres, situated 6 miles southwest of Ann Arbor, on good road. Nearly all good improved land, having a living stream of water, good orchard, very productive sandy loam soil. A bargain at $20 per acre. 10 acres additional of excellent timber, if wanted, at $48 per acre. Would make a very complete farm.

Farm No. 3—236 acres, located 2 1/2 miles from Chelsea, on prominent road, in good neighborhood, near church and school house and blacksmith shop. 175 acres of plow land, 25 acres of timber, 20 acres good moving marsh, 16 acres of low pasture with living stream of water through it. The northwest corner of this farm is the highest, gently sloping to southeast, protecting wheat from winter winds. It has a fine young orchard of grafted fruit just coming into bearing. The buildings are unusually good, consisting of a frame dwelling house, upright and wing each 15x36, two stories, kitchen 15x18, wood shed 15x20. A fine basement barn 20x60 with gambrel roof, built in 1885, also hog house and kettle room, corn crib, carriage house and workshop attached, hen house 16x20, tool shed, and 2 good wells. Sandy loam about buildings but most of farm is a clay loam and is a superior grain and stock farm in excellent condition. The owner was offered four years ago, $70 per acre, but will now sell at a sacrifice that he may remove to California. Price, $60 per acre.

Farm No. 4—100 acres, 8 1/4 miles N. W. of Chelsea, 3 1/2 miles from Gregory, 2 miles from Unadilla, 4 churches within 2 miles, on good road, excellent neighborhood, soil mostly sandy loam, remainder clay surface level as desired. 100 acres of plow land, producing excellent crops; 35 acres of good white oak, hickory and walnut timber; 25 acres of good moving marsh, with good living stream of water through it; 3 acres of orchard; 2 good frame dwellings, a frame stock and hay barn, a grain barn and 3 good wells of water. This farm is nicely arranged to divide into 2 farms, or to be sold as one of owner selling. Price $50 per acre.

Farm No. 14—280 acres, 2 1/2 miles east of Chelsea, 4 miles from Dexter village, 1 1/2 miles from German Methodist church, on prominent road, a large commodious frame house, pleasantly situated near a fine lake, a barn 30x36, also one 20x30, horse barn 30x36, corn barn 16x30, and other improvements, in good repair; 4 acres of orchard, 140 acres plow land, 60 acres good timber, 30 acres of mowing meadow, 50 acres of pasture and marsh. Strong gravelly loam soil, a good stock and soro crop farm. Price $60 per acre.

Farm No. 15—103 68-100 acres, situated 3 miles from Chelsea, near school, on good road, and in an excellent neighborhood of Eastern people. There is a frame dwelling house of 20 rooms (large and small), a frame barn 28x50, also a stock barn 100 feet long, wagon house 20x30, brick smoke house and fruit dryer, 2 good wells of excellent water, medium sized orchard, 90 acres of plow land, remainder good timber land. No waste land whatever. This is a superior located farm, under high state of cultivation. The owner desires to retire from active work and will sell for $85 per acre.

Village Property No. 21—One of the prettiest and most convenient places in Chelsea as a home for a moderate sized family. Everything about this property is in its favor. Price, $1,000.

Farm No. 22—280 acres, 5 miles from Chelsea and 5 miles from Dexter. Large frame house near school house, barn 40x60 also one 20x60, 2 sheds 20x40 each, two wells, a windmill conducting water into house and barn, orchard with plenty of small fruits, and other improvements, 150 acres of plow land, 80 acres of timber and 20 acres of marsh. Soil, gravel and sandy loam. Very productive. A farm to make money both in cropping and as an investment.

Farm No. 23—A small snug farm of 20 acres near Chelsea. Price, $1,100.

It is said that some of the San Francisco custom-house inspectors have been making money fast by a conspiracy to evade the anti-Chinese regulations. Chinamen were hired to obtain certificates that would entitle them to go back to China and then return. These certificates they never used, but the inspectors sent them to China and sold them in large numbers to parties shipping fresh loads of the interdicted Celestials.

The paper doors now coming into use are claimed to possess the advantage over wood of neither shrinking, swelling, cracking nor warping. They are formed of two thick paper boards, stamped and moulded into panels and glazed together with glue and potash, and then rolled through heavy rollers. After being covered with a waterproof coating, and then one that is fireproof, they are painted, varnished and hung in the usual way.

TWENTY years ago women could not vote anywhere. To-day they have full suffrage in Washington and Wyoming Territories; municipal suffrage in Kansas; municipal suffrage (single women and widows) in England, Scotland, Ontario and Nova Scotia; and school suffrage in these fourteen of the United States: New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Minnesota, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Oregon and Wisconsin. These facts must be gratifying to female suffragists.

EDITOR SHEPARD, the purchaser of the New York Mail and Express, has obtained that a verse of the Scriptures shall head the editorial column of his paper every day. He commenced with the first chapter of Genesis, the supposition being that he intends to go through the Bible in this way. Mr. Shepard says that the reason for his plan is that he may spread the Gospel among the heathen, which is a very intelligent reply to those persons who have been persistently guying him since the appearance in his journal of the first text.

SOME two thousand married people residing in Camden, N. J., and vicinity are not a little disturbed to find that they have never heard of such a thing as a minister. The cause of the trouble is one Dr. J. J. Sleeper, who two years ago was deposed from his priesthood in the Episcopal church. Since that time Mr. Sleeper has been solemnizing marriage services, but the law of the State provides that only regularly officiating ministers shall perform this ceremony. The people feel shaky as to the legality of their relations.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, April 4.—In the Senate an amendment to the Bond-Purchase bill providing for the control of silver in all cases of the present monthly limitation to take the place of National bank notes withdrawn from circulation was adopted. A bill was introduced to test the science of spelling and to provide for establishing one hundred schools for that purpose. In the House the war pension was consumed in voting upon dilatory motions submitted by the opponents of the Direct-Tax bill.

THURSDAY, April 5.—The Bond-Purchase bill was passed in the Senate, and with it an amendment providing for additional coinage to take the place of surrendered National bank circulation. Mr. Wilson (I.) spoke on the President's message, and denounced free trade theories. In the House the entire session was consumed in filibustering over the Direct-Tax bill.

FRIDAY, April 6.—In the Senate a bill was introduced to repeal the statute which provides that no person who served in the Civil War, or who served in any other war, shall hold any position in the United States Army. Among the pension bills passed were the following: To the widow of General Kilpatrick, $100 a month; widow of General Robert Anderson, $100 a month; increasing the pension of Major General Sherman; and the pension of the late General Sherman, $25 a month. Adjourned to the 9th.

SUPPRESSING THE LEAGUE.

Violent Scenes at Various Towns in Ireland on Sunday.—The League Meetings Stopped by the Authorities.—Several Collisions Occur in Which Many Persons are Hurt.—O'Brien's Defiance.

CHICAGO, April 7.—At 10 o'clock last night a report was received at the rooms of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, at the Grand Pacific, that all the yardmasters of the Burlington, except three, had left the service of the company, because they would not work with scabs. There are 110 yardmasters in the knowledge of the local geography of the yards which makes them valuable, and upon that knowledge depends the proper disposition of the freight as they arrive. Hence it will be seen that they occupy peculiarly important positions. A long and animated conference was held, during which Mr. Sargent acted as spokesman for the strikers. In the absence of Chief Arthur, he again urged arbitration, but the Burlington officials declared that a proposition could not be entertained, as the road had substantially a full complement of engineers and firemen, and under no circumstances a new and competent man discharged from an old employe. Mr. Stone then urged upon Mr. Sargent the propriety of calling the strike off, and promised that the company would consider applications from the old men, and would give as many of them work as places could be found for. The conference ended with the resignation from the strikers as to the course they would pursue.

STILL WORRYING THE "Q."

This Time the Yard-Masters' Go Out—Significance of the Move—A Fruitless Conference.

CHICAGO, April 7.—At 10 o'clock last night a report was received at the rooms of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, at the Grand Pacific, that all the yardmasters of the Burlington, except three, had left the service of the company, because they would not work with scabs. There are 110 yardmasters in the knowledge of the local geography of the yards which makes them valuable, and upon that knowledge depends the proper disposition of the freight as they arrive. DEATH OF JAKE SHARP.

The Noted New York "Boss" Escapes Earthly Punishment—In His Delirium He Rejoices at Cheating the Law of Its Rewards—Sketch of the Millionaire Criminal's Career.

New York, April 6.—Jacob Sharp, the notorious hoodlum, died at 9:30 last evening after a severe attack of cholera and vomiting. He was known to have been ill for some time past, but the public did not believe that his condition was serious. In the general impression was that he was shamming sickness to some extent in the hope of evoking a little sympathy.

When the final moment came Mr. Sharp, who was lying on his back, his eyes half open, his hands raised, and his legs bent, in a delirious mood, he cried out: "I am a scoundrel, I am a scoundrel, I am a scoundrel. I am a scoundrel, I am a scoundrel, I am a scoundrel. I am a scoundrel, I am a scoundrel, I am a scoundrel."

His last words were "I am a scoundrel." He was buried in the city of New York the other day.

THE COW-BOY COSSACKS.

Following Fortune Through the Flames. A Story of the Great Wars of Today.

When the Grand Duke Alexis, of Russia, visited the United States he was captivated by the wild life of the far-western plains, and took a great fancy to the cow-boys, who reminded him of the famed Cossacks of his own country. There were three cow-boys of whom he became so fond that he invited them to visit him in Russia. One of them was Jacques Dardeville, from New Orleans, another was Robert Macy, from Nantucket, and the third was Jerry O'Brien, who came from Dublin when a baby. They all had nicknames, Dardeville's being "Daredevil Jack," Macy's, "Buckaro Bob," and O'Brien's "Little Bricks," from his small stature and grumpy qualities in a row.

These cow-boys liked the Grand Duke so well that they resolved to accept his invitation, and as soon as they could get ready, they went to Russia, and hearing that Alexis was in Moscow, they hastened thither. Shakespeare's Macbeth was to be played at the time, and they were to appear in the play.

General Skobelev, the celebrated "White General," as he was called, who was the idol of the Russian army, was present, and Daredevil Jack, Buckaro Bob and Little Bricks happened to sit in the paragon near him and his friend General Krupotkin. It so happened that the Grand Duke and the Grand Duke of his cow-boy friends, surprised while they were.

Skobelev, having fired a bullet through a mirror at an aristocratic party, had been deprived of his command, and knew that he had got to do some thing to get his command back.

He had got to do some thing to get his command back. He had got to do some thing to get his command back. He had got to do some thing to get his command back.
