After seven years delay Rev. H. Palmer has been granted a pension by the U. S. Government. It took only about seven minutes to enlist him in 1862. He has been engaged to deliver the memorial address on May 30th, at Webberville. It will be under the auspices of Farrel Post of that place. Mr. Palmer and wife have just returned from attending a Sunday School institute at Dundee.
We observe Memorial Day next Sunday morning. If the weather is favorable the service will consist of a sermon at or near the cemetery by Rev. H. Palmer after which comrades and friends will decorate the graves of our dead soldiers. Come everybody and bring flowers. If some are made to show initial letters of deceased comrade it will be very appropriate. If practicable some remarks will be made concerning Lima's record in the war.
Age brings with it the infirmities of the body. Our bodies need repairing and strengthening. Old persons are more or less subject to diseases of the Kidneys and urinary organs, and in these cases the strengthening and curative properties of Kellogg's Columbian Oil are sure. Its use stimulates the Kidneys and bladder, and creates natural action, as in youth. Every dose will give strength and vigor to these debilitated organs.

Obituary.

Mrs. Hattie E. Durfee, wife of James Durfee, who died at Williamston, May 7, 1888, at the age of 46 years, was the daughter of M. P. and Emiline Crowell, and lived in her childhood and school years at Leoni, Mich., afterwards at Locke where she was a successful teacher until her marriage.
She commenced her Christian life early, and was a useful and working member of the Congregational church. Her last sickness was painful and lingering, which she bore with meekness and patience. Besides her sickness she had a severe bereavement in the unexpected death of a younger sister. What loving hearts and willing hands could do for her, was done, but now she has gone to the mansions of rest, where there is no sickness, nor sorrow, nor death.
Among the bereaved ones are a husband and five children, three by former marriage. Two daughters are married and live at Brighton. Her mother and brother, Geo. Crowell, live at Chelsea, and a half sister, wife of Rev. Mr. Wells, lives west.
The funeral services were held at the Congregational church in Williamston, where a large congregation gathered, and impressive religious services were held, conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Parker. The burial was at South Locke cemetery.—Williamston Enterprise.

Decorations Day.

The years that have elapsed since the close of the civil war have served to obliterate all sectional feeling, and a united and prosperous nation joins in keeping green the graves of all its beloved dead. It is in this spirit that the publisher of the New York Family Story Paper has had written a thrilling and a pathetic romance peculiarly appropriate to this national holiday, entitled "Faithful Leonore; or, His Grave Kept Green." In the same paper will also be found a weekly instalment of the "Life and Adventures of a Showman of P. T. Barnum," written by himself, and equally interesting to the young folks as well as heads of families. These are rare literary treats, and those of our readers who are not already enjoying them will do well to obtain No. 706 of the New York Family Story Paper of their newsdealer, or send direct to the publisher, Monro's Publishing House, Nos. 24 and 26 Vandewater street, New York, and receive the paper four months for one dollar, postage free.

Decorations Day.

The years that have elapsed since the close of the civil war have served to obliterate all sectional feeling, and a united and prosperous nation joins in keeping green the graves of all its beloved dead. It is in this spirit that the publisher of the New York Family Story Paper has had written a thrilling and a pathetic romance peculiarly appropriate to this national holiday, entitled "Faithful Leonore; or, His Grave Kept Green." In the same paper will also be found a weekly instalment of the "Life and Adventures of a Showman of P. T. Barnum," written by himself, and equally interesting to the young folks as well as heads of families. These are rare literary treats, and those of our readers who are not already enjoying them will do well to obtain No. 706 of the New York Family Story Paper of their newsdealer, or send direct to the publisher, Monro's Publishing House, Nos. 24 and 26 Vandewater street, New York, and receive the paper four months for one dollar, postage free.

Corn planting well along.
Jake Steinbach is building a basement wall on which he will move his barn.
Mrs. O. B. Guerin is slowly recovering her health. Wm. Brown is also getting better.
Geo. Mitchell will put in an additional evaporator this year, and be ready to handle more apples at his dry shop.
Our Sunday School is prospering under the superintendency of Mrs. Palmer. It is proposed to observe Children's Day this year.
While at church last Sunday Fred Stapler's horse got his foot over a hitching post and threw himself so as to break one of the shafts of the buggy.
Jerusalem cattle are now herded along in the highway between Burkhardt's and Fletcher's. The little kids that do the watching are showing that they are the stuff to make cowboys of. When the herd moves it will go on toward Jerico.
After seven years delay Rev. H. Palmer has been granted a pension by the U. S. Government. It took only about seven minutes to enlist him in 1862. He has been engaged to deliver the memorial address on May 30th, at Webberville. It will be under the auspices of Farrel Post of that place. Mr. Palmer and wife have just returned from attending a Sunday School institute at Dundee.
We observe Memorial Day next Sunday morning. If the weather is favorable the service will consist of a sermon at or near the cemetery by Rev. H. Palmer after which comrades and friends will decorate the graves of our dead soldiers. Come everybody and bring flowers. If some are made to show initial letters of deceased comrade it will be very appropriate. If practicable some remarks will be made concerning Lima's record in the war.
Age brings with it the infirmities of the body. Our bodies need repairing and strengthening. Old persons are more or less subject to diseases of the Kidneys and urinary organs, and in these cases the strengthening and curative properties of Kellogg's Columbian Oil are sure. Its use stimulates the Kidneys and bladder, and creates natural action, as in youth. Every dose will give strength and vigor to these debilitated organs.

In both cases kidnapping was resorted to in obtaining jurisdiction.

LEE MACKAY, while plowing recently on C. S. Maxwell's farm, near Buffalo, Pa., found a pot containing $3,000 in gold coin buried under a flat rock. Mackay resigned his job immediately, and went to his home in Green County to enjoy his good fortune. The money is supposed to have been buried by Robert Dryden, a miser who many years ago occupied a cabin near the place where the gold was found.

THE New York Herald says that Rev. Lyman Abbott, who succeeds Henry Ward Beecher as pastor of Plymouth Church, is one of the men whom it is unsafe to judge by appearances. While he looks consumptive, he never is sick and he works rapidly and almost incessantly. His face is as solemn as a cage of owls, yet his chat is merry; he has the head of a poet, but is intensely practical, and though tremendously orthodox in theory, he would give the right hand of fellowship to a Mohammedan striving to live upright.

THE suicide by poison of a beautiful girl of twenty years at Erie, Pa., is reported, caused by her failure to have her literary efforts accepted by the magazines. She was highly educated, and, being an orphan and dependent on her own efforts, endeavored to secure a livelihood and fame by writing poetry. It was the old story. Repeated disappointment and the gradual diminution of her resources drove her to despair, and finally madened by a sense of life's failure she took the desperate chance of death.

THERE seems to be no falling off in the reformatory zeal of the Southern Indiana White Caps. The other night they went out on a corrective expedition, and in the night's work gave forty strokes with switches upon the bare body of a woman, because she was immoral; tied a man to a telegraph pole and gave him a hundred lashes because he was generally drunken and worthless, and gave forty lashes to another man because he loafed around saloons and other public places and let his wife work out and support him.

MICHIGAN.

Governor Luce has raised a quarantine on Cook County (Ill.) cattle.

The breaking of a lamp the other afternoon caused the burning of the South half of the Michigan Wood-Pulp Company's mill at Niles, incurring a loss of $30,000.

The Michigan monthly crop report, compiled from 911 reports from 573 townships, estimates the probable wheat yield at 50.8 per cent, 21 per cent less than last year, promising 15,000,000 bushels, a decrease of 5,000,000.

There are several bears near Deep River which are said to come to the edge of the town and defy the whole population.

Careless "trammers" at the Cleveland mill at Lapeer the other morning allowed a tram-car loaded with two tons of iron to fall down the shaft. August Turquist, aged twenty-seven, was killed, and E. J. Silvey was injured at the bottom of the shaft.

Burglars secured $1,800 in cash, checks for $1,570, and other valuable papers from the house of Lyman Jenison, at Jenisonville, the other night.

A boiler in the Caro wooden works exploded the other morning, killing one man and badly wounding four others.

The residence of Dr. W. B. Church, in Marshall, was entered a few evenings ago and $415 was taken.

The new twenty-stamp mill of Ropes' gold mine at Ashpensing has started up. This doubles the capacity of the mill. Last month's product of gold and silver of the mine was worth $4,300.

Erastus Freely, aged thirty-five years, living near Brevelyn, gave some medicine to his sick wife the other morning, and then laid down on a lounge and died of congestion of the lungs.

Sault Ste. Marie is greatly excited over the find of a $2,000 gold nugget at the Saulty mine on the Canadian side of the river. Many smaller nuggets have been found there.

Maggie Philpott has sued ex-Mayor Langdon, of Detroit, for $50,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage. He is fifty-five years old, a widower, and the father of grown daughters; and she is twenty and said to be handsome and stylish.

The other evening a crowd of Hollanders in Grand Rapids stoned off the watchman on the new track of the street railway on East street, killing one up the track. The police and railroad men were stoned and shot at, several being badly hurt.

MINNESOTA.

Three young men were arrested at Fergus Falls a few days ago for robbing the post-office at Battle Lake. The robbers took a lot of money and notions and fifteen dollars in stamps and cash.

A joint stock company is being organized by Minneapolis parties to open up and operate the Jasper stone quarries at the Luverne mounds.

Alexander Johnston, a well-known journalist of St. Paul, ex-secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and a register of deeds of Ramsey County, died recently, aged fifty-five years, leaving a wife and four children.

Jim Hill's recent sale of short-horns from his farm at North Oaks included thirty-seven head which sold for $14,335.

It is said that there is a big over-supply of logs in the Mississippi this season. There are more logs in the streams than the Minneapolis mills possibly saw, and there are no storage booms and no market for the logs. A demoralization of the lumber market is threatened.

Peter Leville and P. McMahon were drowned recently at Duluth by the upsetting of their canoe.

Two children at Red Lake Falls were poisoned to death recently by eating wild parsnips.

Twenty-six men employed in excavating a canal for the Electric Light Company's new building at St. Cloud, struck for an increase of twenty-five cents the other day. They were discharged and their places filled with new hands at old prices.

At Garden Grove twenty-four cases of scarlet fever and ninety-six cases of measles have recently reported.

The funeral of Commodore Kiltson took place at St. Paul recently, and many places of business were closed out of respect for his memory. His estate is estimated at $5,000,000.

The Congregational church at Fergus Falls, costing $18,000, was dedicated free of debt a few days ago.

The Minnesota division of railway station agents has been re-elected, and the old officers were re-elected, headed by G. F. Talmage, of Hastings.

A seven-year-old son of O. H. Brown, of Lyle township, while watching his father fell trees recently was struck by a tree and had his skull crushed.

The low boat Charlotte Boecker, belonging to the Schulerberg-Boecker Lumber Company, was back at a raft at Still-Creek a few days ago struck against the bridge, demolishing one span of forty feet. The damage amounted to $10,000, and would delay travel for ten days. The loss to farmers and saw-mill men on the other side was great.

DAKOTA.

The Farmers' & Merchants' Bank at Wahpeton, C. P. Finney & Co., assigned to S. B. Pinney, of Fargo, recently. Assets, $30,000; liabilities, $32,000.

Charles Herr, near Wessington, had his barn destroyed by fire the other night, together with grain, machinery, etc. Loss, $1,500.

It is said the opening of the great Sioux Reservation will be no special advantage to the people at large for several years. It will require the remainder of this year to secure the necessary number of signatures by the Indians. All of 1889 will be required to survey the other day. Loss, $30,000.

MILLIONS SWEEPED.

The Recently Flooded District a Most Desolate Waste—The Loss Now Placed at Nearly $4,000,000—Sickness Among the Victims.

QUINCY, Ill., May 21.—The mighty flood in the Mississippi, which will be remembered as without precedent in the destruction and suffering created, is slowly abating and it is thought that the worst of the high water is passed. But the worst that could happen has already occurred, hundreds of families having been rendered homeless and, to say nothing of the loss entailed by demolished dwellings, wrecked fences and wash-outs. A trip through the submerged regions shows that the stories of loss and suffering already published have not been exaggerated in the least.

From the northern end of Adams County to the southern end of Pike County the land on the Illinois side of the river was protected by a system of levees, the region embracing 250,000 acres, the soil being the richest in the State. All the region is now one vast lake from six to ten feet in depth. Along the banks of the river the submerged district hundreds of families are camped, living in tents, huts and in the open air. Before the flood most of these people were well-to-do, prosperous farmers, but now they have little or nothing.

In Memoriam.

Sarah M. Goodwin, the subject of this sketch, was born Oct. 11, 1832, in Pittsfield, Washtenaw Co., Mich., from whence she removed with her parents, William and Ann Maria Rott, to Lyndon while yet in her infancy. She was married to George Goodwin in 1849, by A. T. Gorton, Esq., and together they settled down for life near her father's home, in the same township. As a result of this union seven children, three boys and four girls, were born to them of whom five are still living. Two years ago last March Mr. Goodwin departed this world leaving her to struggle as it were alone in the battle of life.

Sister Goodwin united with the United Brethren Church in 1873, and was baptised by C. B. Sherk, June 18, 1876. From that time until her death she was one of the most active members of the congregation. Living at a distance of nearly six miles from the church, yet she rarely missed a service and usually was the first to find her place in the sanctuary. For the Sabbath School there was always a warm place in her heart which was manifested by her unceasing efforts to advance its interests and by her readiness in the regular work of the class.

But it was in the Ladies Aid Society that her abilities seemed to be displayed to the best advantage. Give Sister Goodwin a chance to make money for the church and she was at once in her element. Here she moved with ease and energy. As president of the Society for nearly ten years she directed its movements with a perseverance and skill rarely equaled by executive officers. She was always on the alert for a place in which to hold the meetings, and took special pains to have them fully announced. If absent we were sure that something serious had interfered with her plans for coming. She was foremost in inaugurating and carrying to a successful issue the socials which were held from time to time for the benefit of the church and Sabbath School. But her work is done. The strong constitution gave way. The mind which was so active in planning for the good of others has ceased its operations, so far as this earth is concerned.

Other hands must bear the burden,
Other hearts must take the load,
Someone else must do the planning
For our dear Lord here below.

Who will it be?
During her last sickness Sister Goodwin suffered a great deal of pain, which was deadened in a measure by opiates, and yet her mind was clear even to the last. She manifested a wonderful degree of patience, saying at one time, near the end, "I will make it as pleasant for my attendants as possible." And again "It is better to laugh than cry." At various times she expressed a willingness to die and would usually add, "I leave myself in God's hands, he can do what he thinks best." She delighted in hearing the voice of prayer and song; choosing especially "My latest sun is sinking fast," and "O, sing to me of Heaven."

On the morning of May 1, 1888, at six o'clock, Sister Goodwin had four spasms at the end of which she gently passed away to be at rest.

Her funeral was held May 3rd, at the First Baptist church of Lyndon, attended by a large concourse of friends. The services were conducted by C. B. Whitaker, using as text II Peter 1, 11, 14, 15.

Resolutions of Regret.

The following resolutions were read and adopted at a meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Second U. B. church, Waterloo, Mich., May 17, 1888:

Whereas, God has called from earth the spirit of our sister, Sarah M. Goodwin, to join the redeemed multitude where death can no more throw its darksome shades and carry loved ones away; therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That the Church, the Sabbath School and our Ladies Aid Society hereby feel and deeply mourn the loss of her who was so cheerful, so willing and so prompt in the discharge of her duty.

2. That the sweet memories of her Christian life be cherished by every member and lead them to imitate her many virtues and follow more closely the Master whom she served.

3. That we heartily sympathize with her bereaved family and relatives.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Religious Telescope, of Dayton, Ohio, to the CHLSEA HERALD and to the Stockbridge Sun; also that they shall be entered in the minute book of the Aid Society.

Mrs. C. B. WHITAKER, Pres.
Mrs. H. GORTON, Sec.
