On Sunday afternoon, at the Town audience listened with great satisfaction to the very appropriate and eloquent discourse of Rev. Mr. Reilly, memorial of Gen. Sheridan. The music on the occasion was especially attractive and excellent under the direction of Geo. Ward.

F. P. Glazier, our live druggist, is in Detroit attending the annual meeting of the Michigan State and American Pharmaceutical Associations. This joint convention will bring together the largest number of pill pounders ever gathered in convention in the United States. Frank has been a member of the Michigan Association since its organization, and is very enthusiastic over the good work it has accomplished.

The first political speech in this place of the present campaign was made at the Town Hall last Monday evening by Hon.
Henry M. Long, of Pittsburg, Pa. Mr.
Long was simply a guest here of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Barlow, and the request that he should address us was entirely unexpected and unprepared. His speech was the overflowing of a full heart, assisted by a clear mind, thoroughly conversant with the topic he was called upon to discuss. The call for the meeting was failed to our citizens, and many equally sudden to our citizens, and many failed to receive the notice, still the hall was well filled, the speech excellent and well received, and the entire effort a success.

get that I am in the swim and pay highest

The Young Ladies' Sodality, of St.
Mary's church, gave an ice cream social at the town last Saturday evening. It was well attended, and all had a pleasant time.

Our sympathy and that of all their many friends is extended to Mr. and Mrs.
Clark, of Lyndon, on account of the bereavement they have sustained in the loss of their youngest child and only girl Mary, who died last Saturday, aged 16 months.

The editor of one of our country exchanges lives in a house between a methodist church and a dance hall. One night lately there was a meeting in the church and a dance in the hall, and the editor sat on the veranda and took in the situation, jotting down the following which he heard. "Let us pray—choose your partners—O, Lord—all salute—wp beseech thee to—join hands and—draw near—circle to the left—listen to us—first forward and back—as we—all promenade—kneel before—and balance all—present our petitions—grand right and left—for Christ's sake—seat your partners." The editor was saddened at the degeneracy of the village and went off and joined a base ball club in order to be neutral.

While in Jackson last Monday we called at the pleasant office of the Saturday Evening Star, and found its publisher and editor, Myron W. Tarbox, hard at work preparing the contents for this week's issue. Mr. Tarbox is one of the working editors of this State, and he has made his labors count in building up one of the best metropolitan weekly papers in the West. He told us that though he held annual passes on all the railways, he had not been aboard a railway car in two years, and had not visited Detroit since 1876. We doubt if there is another publisher in the State that can say this. But they all do not reap the reward that Brother Tarbox has, for in the Star he has a fine piece of newspaper property.
We wish him continued success.

This image shows a single, vertically oriented page from a lined notebook. The paper has a light cream or off-white tone. It features faint, horizontal blue or grey ruling lines spaced evenly down its length. On the left side, there is a dark vertical strip, likely representing the binding or gutter of the book. The right edge of the page is slightly irregular. There are some very small, dark specks scattered across the surface, possibly dust or minor imperfections in the paper. No handwriting or printed text is visible on the page.

State Fair.

Those who attend the State Fair at Jackson this year, during the week commencing Sept. 10th, will be well repaid for their trouble. The entries and programme give promise of the finest exhibition in the history of the society. Jackson is of such convenient and easy access, that a trip which is often a great hardship in more distant parts of the State, is made at once inexpensive and pleasurable.
The grounds are finely shaded, and have been much improved since the last exposition. They are close to the depots, and good food and excellent water are in abundance on the grounds. Those who desire to do so will be enabled by the favorable running of trains to reach the city in good season in the morning, and return home at an early hour in the evening, thus saving the expense of hotel fares. If they wish to remain over night, they will be comfortably cared for at reasonable prices and see the best electrically lighted city in the United States.

Among the attractions at the fair grounds the State Agricultural College promises to occupy considerable space in different halls, displaying the work of its students in the mechanical course, and showing lathes and other machines in actual operation by the young men.

The art department promises to be one of great interest.

The horticultural department will be better patronized than in previous years.

The premiums are generous, and must all every department with fine exhibits.

Farmers are earnestly invited to come and bring the products of their farms and gardens. The live stock premiums offer attractions that they cannot overlook.

The special speed list of $2,000 will bring together a large aggregation of fine horses. This feature will be a great attraction in itself.

Aside from the fair, a look through the State Prison is always interesting, and the Water Works, Fire Department Houses, Electric Light Works and some of the factories may be seen. An attempt will be made to give strangers an idea of the appearance of the city, by means of a collection of views in the main hall.

Arrangements have been made for three league games of ball to be played on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. It is hoped the people of the State will take a lively interest in the fair and make it the best ever held.

Jackson people will do all in their power to entertain those who come. Take a holiday and visit the State Fair.
