ENGLAND pays her colonial Government big salaries. In New Zealand it is $37,500 a year; Bermuda, $15,000; Jamaica, $30,000; Fecjee Islands, $25,000; British Guiana, $25,000.

The lofty monument erected at Plymouth, Mass., to commemorate the landing of the Pilgrims, has at last been completed. It was begun in 1859 and has cost something like $200,000.

BENJAMIN HARRISON will be the sixteenth President of the United States having only one given name. No man has ever been elected President who parted his name on one side.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN has emerged from obscurity once again. This time he gets his name in the papers by going to a barber-shop in New York and having his beard—aged thirty years—removed.

MRS. SARAH BARNETT, of Lafayette, Va., took to her bed forty years ago, and has not left it since. Her appetite is good, as well as her general health, but she suffers from an injury of the spine.

REV. LYMAN ABBOTT, although officiating as pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, since June last, has not been installed. Disagreement among the committee members as to the form to be used is said to be the cause.

FRANCIS MCGOVERN, of Newark, N. J., is ninety years old and is perfectly sane during the day, but as soon as darkness sets in he becomes a maniac and raves continually. The brilliant glare of gas or electric lights does not abate his mania in the least.

JOHN H. KINKER, of Hillsburg, Pa., and Miss Mary E. Brannon, of Carlisle, Pa., were married the other day in payment of an election bet. Miss Brannon had promised that if Cleveland was defeated she would procure the marriage license and defray all expenses.

MAYOR HEWITT has issued an order to tenants on his farms in Ringwood, N. J., not to furnish food, drink or lodging to newspaper reporters under penalty of ejection. The reason given is that exaggerated reports of the condition of Robert Garrett, who is at one of Mr. Hewitt's farms, have been sent out.

CAPTAIN NICHOLAS COSTELLO, of Haverhill, Mass., is still active and healthy at one hundred and six years of age. His special pride and greatest treasure is a black cutaway coat in which he was married sixty years ago, and which he still wears on state occasions. He seriously objects to being called "Old Nick."

GOVERNOR FORAKER says the White Cap organization in Ohio has been disbanded forever. At the first outbreak he employed a detective, who learned enough about the secrets of the order to bring its principal leaders to justice. The result was that the leaders resolved to quit their line of conduct and disband.

JAMES M. NEW, an Englishman living at Greenpoint, Long Island, deserted his family in 1832. He had become embarrassed in business and lacked moral courage to face the music. Now old and wealthy as a Montana stock raiser, he is on his way to plead forgiveness from that outraged family with whom he has not communicated in these thirty-six years. His family do not need his money now.

The trial of the air-ship at Coney Island recently was a success so far as it went. The machine seemed to obey the actions of its propellers, and the inventor claimed that the landing was made at just the point he wished it. Nothing can be positively determined, however, till the air-ship has been tried in a gale of wind. If she then obeys her helm, and is not driven from her course, something of practical value has been invented. If not, no one will care to go sailing in a balloon unless there is a certainty of fair weather.

CAPTAIN JOHN MILLER, who was killed recently near Jintown, I. T., by one of his tenants named Jim Ables, had a remarkable criminal record, having killed thirty men at different places and under different circumstances. His death was the result of a dispute with Ables concerning the disposition of some cotton which the latter claimed had been stolen. Miller made a suspicious movement, as if to draw a revolver, when Ables shot him dead. Captain Miller was born in Choctaw County, Miss., in 1816, and was seventy-two years of age.

GEORGE FREDERICK AUGUSTUS HANBY, King of the Musquitoes, and the only monarch on the American continent, save Dom Pedro, of Brazil, is dead. King Hanby did not live in New Jersey, but on the north coast of Nicaragua. His grandfather was the immediate subject of the "Monroe doctrine," and it was his establishment on the throne under the auspices of the celebrated protest from President Monroe. The kingdom now consists of an insignificant strip of land and a few hundred Musquito Indians.

DEATH IN THE BLIZZARD.

Fifteen Lives Reported Lost in a Storm Which Has Swept Over Canada, Much Suffering Caused—Furious Gales in the South and East.

MONTECAL, Can., Dec. 19.—Canada has been visited by a fearful blizzard with a heavy fall of snow. In consequence the train service on all the roads has been greatly delayed. Trains between here and Quebec, a distance of only ninety miles, have been delayed for twenty-four hours.

Two trains which left here for Quebec Monday night had not arrived there at last accounts, and the passengers are suffering very much from the cold. Communication between many points has also been cut off during the storm. A little below the city, there comes a terrible story. Monday afternoon six farmers, Vian, Flamme, Michaud, Naud, Piche and Trudel, two accompanied by their wives, and others by their sons, left home with team loads of Christmas produce to bring to the city, the frozen river. Soon the storm came down in all its fury and the ice which had but recently formed began to break up. During the night at various points on the river heart-rending screams were heard above the fury of the wind. No trace or sign of the unfortunate people have been found and no doubt are entertained but all found a watery grave.

Two brothers, Hugh and Michael Walsh, who arrived exhausted at Carleton Place yesterday afternoon, tell a terrible story of suffering. They were attempting to cross with a team on the ice to that place from Point Fortune. In the middle of the river the hurricane overtook them and the ice broke up. The team was swept away and they only escaped death by jumping on a large ice-floe. The rest of the night was spent in terrible agony drifting on their frail support upon the tempest-tossed river. At daylight the ice-floe grounded on a small island and their plight being seen from the shore a boat was put off and they were rescued. Reports of more serious loss of life and damage are expected when the telegraph is once more in working order.

A dispatch from Quebec says that the storm, which has been raging there since Sunday, rose to a blizzard Tuesday morning, and the wind and snow are driving the almost deserted streets with blinding violence. The thoroughfares are terribly drifted. All communication is cut off between town and country. Farmers from the surrounding districts here say that the roads are almost impassable and fences and buildings have been blown down. It was difficult for them even to get to their barns to care for their stock.

Several people are reported buried in snow. The gale was frequently as high as seventy miles an hour. Many tall chimneys have been blown down and in one instance the city was in a narrow escape from great loss of life.

The residents in the neighborhood of Warden, King & Sons' foundry on Craig street were startled at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning by a noise something like an earthquake. It turned out to be the fall of a large chimney, near 100 feet high. The heavy wind of Monday night had so shaken the chimney that it came down with a sudden rush, falling inward on the machine-shop, carrying all before it in its course, and entirely demolishing the shafting in places. It was fortunate that it occurred in this way, for had it been an ordinary fall, the loss of property would have been very great.

PETERSBURG, Va., Dec. 19.—The storm of Monday night in this section was the severest yet known in the history of the large area of country, bringing destruction everywhere in its path. At Emporia, in Greenville County, a thriving little town on the line of the Petersburg & Weldon railroad, much damage was caused. Nearly every house and building in the town was wrecked.

The storm was very severe along the line of the Atlantic & Danville road, near Savage station, in Surry County, a locomotive and two freight cars were blown from the track and completely overturned. One of the train hands was injured, and the locomotive was so badly damaged that it was necessary to use a crane to get it off the track. The houses were blown down and trees uprooted. Outside of the city, a pole supporting a telegraph wire was blown down and all telegraphic communication interrupted.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 19.—Reports from the surrounding country, as well as in a number of towns in the Cumberland valley, show that the storm did great damage to property was destroyed Monday night by one of the most disastrous rain and wind-storms which ever visited this section. In the rural districts dwelling houses were unroofed, barns blown down, trees uprooted and fences blown to pieces.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Heavy rains in Pennsylvania, New York and Connecticut Sunday and Monday caused the rapid rise of the Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Mohawk and Connecticut rivers, and much damage was done in places. At Saratoga, Pa., a loss of $75,000 was reported to the New York Central Railroad Company by damage to bridges and track and a damage of $50,000 resulted in the city.

A NOVEL SUGGESTION.
The New York "Star" thinks General Harrison would serve his Country Well by being elected President Cleveland's Vice President.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The Star in a leading editorial advocates the selection of Hon. Grover Cleveland as Attorney-General in President Harrison's Cabinet on the ground that this will be the most important step in the Government during the next four years, and that Mr. Cleveland, by his firmness, justice and industry, and the confidence felt in him by all classes, is exceptionally qualified for the post. The Star predicts that the question of Cleveland's nomination will be the great issue of the future, and it declares that no other man possesses the qualities needed in dealing with these matters to such a degree as Mr. Cleveland does.

HAYTT'S TROUBLES.

Legitimate Gun-Boats Bombard Cape Haytt, Being Much Damage to the Town, and Killing a Number of People—Their Fire Returned and They Are Forced to Retreat.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Passengers on the steamer Saginaw which arrived here Tuesday afternoon from San Domingo report that on December 3 Legitimate gun-boats of Cape Haytt, after granting thirty-six hours' time for Consuls and other foreigners to leave the place. About fifty shots were fired. The natives were fleeing to the mountains when the Saginaw sailed.

The gun-boats dropped anchor four or five miles off the shore, lying broadside to the town. The guns of these vessels were at first charged with blank cartridges which were shot off as a notice of the war like intention of the fleet. The people fled into the hills taking with them as much of their property as they could carry. They were in great danger, and as the supply was limited to fifty or sixty, the prices were paid for their use by the wealthy residents, in some instances $100 being paid for the use of one of the animals for one afternoon. Those of the poorer classes who owned mules preferred hiring them out to using them to save their own.

At the expiration of the thirty-six hour time given for foreign Consuls to leave the city the bombardment was commenced in earnest. The bombardment vessels were the Deshaytes, Bellin, Tene, L'Ouverture, and the Legitimite. The Deshaytes fired the first shot, which buried itself in the sand on the beach in front of the frail bamboo houses of the poorer class. The other vessels followed suit and fired wildly. In a few minutes, however, the shots began to tear through the town, demolishing the bamboo and damaging the stronger stone houses. Despite the warning they had received to leave the town, many of the residents clung to their habitations. In fact, it had been impossible to remove many of the sick within the town, and the Legitimite fired a shot which was placed on all houses in which were sick persons, but this did not seem to have any effect upon the gunners. None of the passengers of the Saginaw can say how many persons were killed but it is thought that at least fifty or twenty-five had been lost up to the time the Legitimite sailed. Legitimite is said to be losing the confidence of the people whose sympathies are now with the North.

On the 15th the gun-boats ventured a little further in shore, and proceeded with the bombardment, congratulating themselves on their success in not being shot at. The Legitimite did not last long. It came a little cloud of smoke from the fort, and a little shell dropped into the water not far from the bombardment vessel. The first shell from the fort was quickly followed by others fairly well aimed. This was something the officers of the gun-boats were not used to, and after firing four shells altogether Legitimite's squadron turned tail and ran out to sea. Soon after they disappeared beyond the horizon, leaving the insurgents to bring their families home in safety. This was the finale of the first attempt to bombard the stronghold of the North.

LOOKS LIKE A FLOUR TRUST.
The Millers at Milwaukee Empower a Committee to Restrict the Output.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 19.—The millers in this city have organized a committee to restrict the output of flour. The committee is composed of some of the wheat-grinders. It is not such a cast-iron one as was desired by some of the wheat-grinders. It will probably grow stronger with age; and, as it is even now, it will certainly affect the price of flour and the bread of the people. The committee is now in the city, and is at present. The resolutions by which it was formed were passed very quietly and by a unanimous vote. It was resolved to appoint a committee of the members and three-fourths of the capacity of the mills shall deem it necessary. This committee was also given power to terminate a shut-down whenever the committee should see fit. In the with this restriction resolution was passed ordering a half time shut-down for the month of January.

At the conclusion of the general convention the spring-wheat men went into secret session and proceeded to take steps toward effecting an organization similar to that of the winter wheat men. A. C. Loring, of Minneapolis, and J. M. Turner, also of Minneapolis, acting as secretaries. It was finally decided to appoint a committee to ascertain by correspondence with the rest of the fraternity whether a permanent organization should be formed. The organization that shall practically control the production of spring wheat flour is practicable. It was resolved to meet again in Indianapolis the first Tuesday in February.

DOUBT OSMA DIGNA'S STORY.
It Would Take Four Months for the News of Stanley's Capture to Reach Suakin.

BERLIN, Dec. 19.—Interest in African affairs is for the moment all centered in the fate of Emin Pasha and Henry M. Stanley. Lieutenant Wissman at a public meeting in Cologne in October said that Emin's position was such that the Arabs of the Sudan from those of the south, and that if the wall collapsed the whole Arab movement would be so strengthened that it would require a hundred-fold greater sacrifice to master it. The report regarding the capture of Stanley here has been captured. It is argued that the alleged fight must have occurred between the 31st and 5th degrees of north latitude, between Lado and Wadai. The distance to Omdurman, Omdurman Digna's headquarters, is 1,300 miles, and thence to Suakin is another 400 miles. The swiftest messengers would take four months to cover the entire distance. The result of the discussion of the Emin Relief Committee, however, is the postponement of the departure of Lieutenant Wissman until definite news has been obtained of Emin's fate.

The Season's Greeting.
A happy, happy Christmas,
A peaceful glad New Year;
May the words of kindly greeting,
As they fall upon the ear.

Laden with the memories
Of happy days of yore,
Of silenced voice, of vanished hand,
Of loved ones here no more.

Bear to our hearts the message
Of the Great All Father's love,
And quicken in our hearts the hope
Of perfect life above.

As we think of the broken circle,
And look on each vacant chair,
Let us list to Hope's glad whisper
Of bliss re-union there.

When the ties by death now severed
Shall be re-bound in Heaven,
And the parted now, for a little while,
Back to each other given.
