KIEIN ESCAPES,

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18 -- The steamer Mariposa arrived Saturday from Australia. She brought news from Samoa up to Feb-ruary. No more fighting had taken place, but the story of events show the arbitrary and illegal acts of the Germans. Among the passengers on the steamer was Klein, the American correspondent, who left the islands for fear the Germans would kidnap him, as they never recognized Tamasese, and that no charged he led the attack of Mataafa's forces that ended in the loss of twenty German marines and officers. Klein was living in a hired house near the American consulate when on January 20 he learned from a reliable source that the Germans intended to arrest and try him by court-martial. He had several narrow escapes from capture by the German police, and on the night of January 21 sought safety on the American man-ofwar Nipsic. On January 29 the captain of the German gun-boat Adler sent a letter to Captain Mullan, of the Nipsic, demanding Klein's delivery to the German military tribunal on the gun-boat Adler. Mullen promptly refused, declaring that no American citizen could be tried by a military tribunal in Samoa. Klein never left the Nipsic after

He was finally allowed to go, and immediately lodged formal complaint with the British Consul.

The steamer Wainul arrived from Auckland on the 23d, bringing important dis-patches for the German Consul. These were supposed to order the Consul to sus-pend operations until further orders from Germany. Dr. Knappe went at once to see Mataafa. The Consul intimated to the chiefs that Germany did not wish to prosecute war against them, but if they persisted in resistance there were plenty of war ships coming from Germany to compel their submission. power would allow them to seize arms unless they were being used against a friendly nation. It was found out on the 34th that a German proclamation of the most exacting kind had been prepared but postponed until the arrival of news from America. A category of offenses was contained in this reserved proclamation with penalties ranging from a fine to deportation or imprisonment for a life term. Helping Mataafa and opposing German interests and the cir-

Notwithstanding the aid furnished by the German Government to Tamasese the latter's forces are fading rapidly away. At the time the Mariposa sailed he had not over 600 men, while the army of Mataafa was receiv-

About 6 o'clock Friday evening Chemeleck went to the residence of M. L. Chemeleck, his halfbrother, to spend the evening. About il o'clock he picked up his hat and went out of doors. It was expected that he was going to return, but instead of coming back he went to his father's home and pro-cured a double-barreled shot-gun. He went back to M. L. AWFUL CRIME IN MICHIGAN.

TECUMSER, Mich, Feb. 18 .- One of th most terrible crimes ever enacted in Michi. gan took place Saturday night at this place. Frank L. Silvers, a prominent horse-breede and well-known citizen, shot his wife, his two daughters, aged 9 and 11 years, respect ively, and ended the awful deed by shoot ing himself

The crime was not discovered until Sur day morning. About 10 o'clock some of the neighbors noticed that the curtains of the Silvers house were closely drawn and that there was no sign of life about the place. Their curiosity was excited, and after waiting for an hour it was decided to investigate. An axe was procured and the rear door was forced open. The kitchen was deserted. The dining room door stood ajar, however, and, pushing it open, the party entered the parlor, where a horrible sight met their gaze. There upon the floor near the stove, full-dressed and with her glassy eyes staring at the ceiling; lay the body of Mrs. Silvers in a pool of blood. But if this was not calculated to terrify, a more terrible one was in store for the investigators. After searching the lower part of the house they wended their way up stairs. Envers weitering in blood, and with life a'most extinct. The victims had all been shot through the temple, and, with the exception of Mr. Silvers, all had died instantly.

The murder was carefully planned and coolly and systematically executed. Early Saturday evening Mr. Silvers entered a hardware store and bought a 32-caliber revolver of the Smith & Wesson pattern and a box of cartridges. He betrayed no agitation, and it was supposed that he intended to use the weapon in shooting rats. He walked around town awhile after making his purchase and spoke with several of his friends in his customary free-hearted, easy manner. He returned home about 8 o'clock, and as the bodies of his victims were cold when found it is supposed that he shot them before retiring and did not take his own life until several hours later. This theory is strengthened by the fact that the neighbors were stirring very early in the morning and would undoubtedly have heard the shots had they been fired at that time.

Frank Silvers came Lore about ten years ago. He belonged to a highly respected family, and was raised on a farm about four miles north of here. He married a Miss Shephard in Lynn, N. Y., and had been living in the house where the tragedy occurred for nearly ten years.

Those who have known the family say that Mr. and Mrs. Silvers were a seemingly happy and affectionate pair. They went together frequently and their out home seemed bright and cheerful always. The little girls were un-commonly pretty and attractive, and, taken all in all, the family seemed to be one of the happiest that could be found any where. This being the case, no cause can be ascribed for the crime. A note was found in Mr. Silvers' pocket requesting his friends to break open the safe and find directions for the disposal of his property and keepsakes. The note is written in a bold, steady hand, and in it the writer declares that the reason for the dreadful crime will never be known. The coroner is at work on the case, but no clew to the cause of the tragedy has been obtained, and the crime bids fair to prove one of the most mysterious as it is one of the most earefully edited, and adapted to the wants and tastes of intelligent renders throughout the outire country-North. South, East and West. It is a thoroughly clean paper, free from the corrupting, sensational and demoralizing trash, miscalled news, which deflies the pages of too many city papers.

OUR POLITICS.

We believe the Republican party to be the true instrument of the POLITICAL PROG-RESS of the American people; and holding that the honest enforcement of its principles is the best guarantee of the national welfare, we shall support them with all our might; but we shall always treat opposing parties with consideration and fair play.

AGAINST THE SALOON.

The MAIL AND EXPRESS is the recognized National organ of the great Anti-Saloon Espurdican movement. It believes that the liquor traffic as it exists to-day in the United States is the enemy of society, a fruitful source of corruption in polities, the ally of anarchy, a school of crime, and, with its arowed purpose of seeking to corruptly control elections and legislation, is a menare to the public welfare and deserves the condemnation of all good men.
