The Mission.

The Mission given in St. Mary's church the past week was a grand success. The services were well attended, and the sermons and lectures were powerful, forcible and eloquent.
Father Van der Erden has done much good, and has a very warm place in the hearts of the Catholics of Chelsea. There were over 800 persons who received Holy Communion last Sunday and Monday.
The Mission closed Sunday evening with a grand sermon on Perseverance, and the giving of the Papal Benediction to all who made the mission.

On Wednesday, October the 9th at 9 o'clock, the solemn erection and veneration of the Mission Cross will take place. This cross is very large, and has the figure of Jesus Christ

Sacred Heart and the altar of the Blessed Virgin. It will be a very beautiful and striking memento of the holy mission.

There is no parish in the diocese of Detroit, which shows healthier evidences of prosperity than the parish of Chelsea, both in the material and spiritual order, and Father Van der Erden highly complimented both pastor and people on the condition of the church, house and everything connected with the church.

Somebody asked Susan B. Anthony at a reception given by the veteran women suffrage leader some days ago if it did not fatigue her to stand so long and shake so many hands. "Yes, it does tire me," came the quick answer, "but not half so much as it did twenty years ago to stand all alone with no hands to shake at all." Miss Anthony is nearly 70, but her figure is straighter than that of many a girl at 17. Her eyes are bright and her rather thin face expresses acuteness and kindly intelligence. Her hair is quite heavy still and softly gray. She wears it combed down over the tips of her ears in the manner of a century ago. She dresses quietly but richly in dark silks, with fine lace for garniture. She has one feminine weakness, a horror of going out in the rain.—Ex.
For Sweet Charity's Sake.
People of quality in search of new schemes for raising money for charitable purposes by amateur performances are advised to try the dime museum idea. Private theatricals are tiresome and a private circus involves too much hard work in training. But in half an hour a gentleman might make himself into a tattooed man or, if he can fiddle, into a cowboy violinist, and a bearded lady can be made up in a minute, and no rehearsal needed.
