Hot Weather.

Hot weather has come at last and the season of straw hats and sun strokes is fairly inaugurated. There is not the slightest need of sunstroke if simple principles of health are observed. The fact is that most sunstrokes come from excessive heat within the body superinduced by the consumption of too heating food and the drinking of intoxicants, or too much ice water when overheated from exertion or exposure. The carrying of a wet handkerchief or a cool, large leaf inside the hat is an easy protective. It is also well to walk instead of hurry through the streets on a hot day. It is better to deminish the amount and the temperature of the foods and to eat less meats and more vegetables and good fruits. Milk is the best hot weather drink, but it should not be iced.

Michigan Weather Crop Bulletin.

The weather conditions of the past week have been favorable to all crops and they are progressing finely. The rainfall for the last two weeks in some sections has been below the average for this season, and in these sections the effect has not been so favorable. The wheat is reported as being "spotted," or of uneven growth, and while some portions of the field show a fine growth, other portions are bare, and this condition seems to be pretty general, although the condition of wheat has improved much during this month. Wheat is heading out in fair shape. In many sections the straw is heavy and some reports show that the wheat is already beginning to lodge. Wheat on fallows looks the best, while that on clay ground has the hardest struggle with the cool weather of the fore part of spring to get a strong and even growth. With favorable weather conditions for the remainder of the season, the reports indicate that in most sections the wheat crop will be favorable, yet in some sections the reports indicate that the wheat crop at present would not pay for harvesting. However, there are but few of the latter reports. All crops have improved very much during the past week. Light frosts were reported in Macomb, Washtenaw and Van Buren counties on the 8th, but no material damage was done.

A Skunkery

How many of our citizens know that an institution for raising skunks exists in Michigan, and not far from Jackson? Over at Homer is an enterprise of this kind, and up to the present writing there have been no bids received for it from any English syndicate. Out there Abe Vreeland, a farmer, is raising skunks on a large scale. The stock will be increased this season by over 3,000 animals. They are tame, inoffensive, and the skunkery is paying over 200 per cent. on the capital invested. Choice animals for pets bring about $12 a pair. The hides are worth 40 cents each. It is a great business, and Michigan is not the only state in the Union that can boast of such an industry. Skunks make excellent pets, and hundreds can be found all through Michigan. A large pair of handsome animals has just been sent to Mr. McKinley at Washington by one of his admirers in our state.— Jackson Star.

The geographical center of the United States is marked by the grave of Major Ogden, who is buried in the National Cemetery at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

JUDGE GOBETT, of Peery, Fla., has a canchur tree on his place. The cold has not injured it in the least, and he believes the trees can be successfully raised.

STANLEY says the director of a Dutch house recently told him that his firm now has thirty steamers on the Upper Congo, and that their house had bought $1,500,000 of ivory in the last two years.

SENATOR CARLISLE is one of the many men who have found Friday any thing but an "unlucky" day. His first nomination to Congress and his nomination as successor to the late Senator Beck each occurred on that day, and he was married on a Friday.

MRS. MARTHA LUMPKIN, of Upon County, Ga., is in her ninety-eighth year and enjoys good health. When ninety-five years of age she knit fifty-five pairs of socks during the year. She has four hundred children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

ONE of the results of the recent floods of the Trinity river is an immense landslide, which is carrying off the entire face of the bluff which encircles Fort Worth, Tex., overlooking the river. For eight miles up and down the stream the bluff is gradually sloughing toward the river.

THE King of Siam has a private fortune of $10,000,000, with an annual income of $5,000,000. Of course the temptation of a man with this wealth to require every body to approach him on all fours is very great, and yet the Siamese monarch has lately abolished this custom.

STATISTICS of the progress made in heating passenger-cars by steam from the locomotive have been recently published, showing that 7,391 cars, or about one-fourth of the entire passenger rolling-stock in the country, including passenger and sleeping cars, are now equipped for steam heat.

A LADY in America, Ga., is using a lamp chimney she has had and used daily for the past eight years, and she expects to use it for many years yet. She says that she boiled it in salt and water when it was bought in 1852, and no matter how large a flame runs through it, it won't break.

M. SPITZER, of Paris, is dead at the age of seventy-four years. He was the most remarkable example of the born collector in our age. He began his life with nothing and has ended it the owner of a collection of works of art valued at twenty million francs. The Rothschilds were patrons of Spitzer.

AT the beginning of the year it was estimated that about $600,000,000 was invested in the electrical industries. The telephone companies, $120,000,000; electric lighting and power companies, $100,000,000; electrical supply companies, $100,000,000. There is no doubt that another year will show $1,000,000,000 invested in electrical industries.

AN attempt has been made in the Chinese province of Hupeh to stir up the people against the missionaries and foreigners generally. Inflammatory hand-bills were posted about the capital, caricaturing Christianity and demanding the extermination of foreigners. The matter was vigorously taken in hand by the French, English and American consuls, and at last accounts the excitement had subsided.

SINCE the order went forth that all dogs in England should be muzzled, in consequence of many outbreaks of rabies, the number of cases of the disorder reported has fallen from eighty-one in the last quarter of 1889 to thirty-nine in the first quarter of the present year, and the decrease is still going on. What is more to the point, nine of the rabid dogs seized since the order was issued were found to be securely muzzled, and thus prevented from mischief.

EX-MINISTER PALMER says the Queen of Spain, who is about thirty years old, is of most amiable characteristics, fond of her children, and wonderfully popular with the Spanish people. She is thoroughly a woman of business, and has the quick perceptions, unerring intuition, clear knowledge, and thorough grasp of affairs which we associate with women of superior mental endowments. She speaks most excellent English. Her family is the Hapsburgs of Austria.

FOR the decade of 1850-60 the duel statistics of Italy record for the entire kingdom 2,759 duels, most of them military. The hotter the weather the more duels, while in very cold winter spells the figures tapered off. Thus seven-eighths of the whole number took place in the summer and one-eighth in winter. Only fifty deaths resulted out of all these duels, ninety of which were fought with the sword, 2,489 with the sabre and the rest with the pistol. Ordinary quarrels produced 796; and political discussions, 1,322; love, 188; religious questions, 29. Most of the duels took place at Naples.

THAT a woman, in spite of the theory to the contrary, can hold her tongue is illustrated by the strange case of Mrs. Merrifield, who died a few days ago at Amesfield, Ga. She had not spoken a word for over thirty years. In 1859 her husband snappishly told her to stop talking, and added that the sound of her voice was hateful to him. She answered that she should never hear it again, and he never did. The woman kept her word. Neither he nor any one else ever heard her speak from that moment. She went along in the usual performance of her duties, but no one ever heard a word from her lips.

IT is estimated that over twenty million cigars are manufactured every day in the United States alone, and this enormous number requires in the neighborhood of 400,000 boxes for their keeping. As a result there are over two hundred factories in the country turning these boxes out. The wood of which these boxes are made comes from Mexico, Central America and the West Indies. The manufacturers buy the wood in large, heavy logs, and cut it up to suit themselves. Some of the cheaper grades of boxes are made from poplar cut in the West, which is afterward stained to imitate the real cedar.

Epitome of the Week.

UNDER WATER.

Many Northwestern Towns Flooded by a Furious Rain-Fall—Buildings Swept Away by the Force of the Torrents Which Rush Through the Streets of Rockford and Joliet. A Loss of $300,000 in the Former City—Much Damage in Cincinnati and Adjacent Towns—Number of Persons Killed by Lightning.

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 16.—The storm of Friday night was beyond doubt the most terrific and destructive in its results that has ever visited this city. Shortly after 8 o'clock the storm began suddenly and with indescribable fury, but it was not until daylight revealed the havoc wrought that even those who were out in the work of rescue or saving property could form any adequate estimate of the results. A freight train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul was completely wrecked and two car-loads of hogs drowned. A freight train stood on the track of the Illinois Central ready to go east when the track was washed away from under it and the engine toppled over on its side. The bridges, culverts and tracks of the Illinois Central and St. Paul are destroyed for a distance of half a mile into Kent Creek valley, entailing a loss to the Central of about $100,000 and of fully as much more to the St. Paul. The bridges washed away over Kent and Keith creeks will cost the city $15,000. The loss of the Forest City Furniture Company will amount to about $3,000. The Rockford Fuel & Lumber Company's sheds are in ruins and the office was swept away. They also had five horses drowned and figure their loss at about $4,000. The Rockford Construction Company lost about $1,000. It is impossible to estimate the amount of private losses. They are serious and entail much suffering. They will probably reach $300,000.

JOLIET, Ill., June 16.—Not since the night of August 18, 1853, has Joliet had such a storm of wind, water, hail, lightning and thunder as that of Friday night and Saturday morning. The storm began about 11:30 o'clock Friday night, and from that time until 11 o'clock Saturday morning the heavens sent out an almost continual roar of thunder, the flashes of lightning following each other so fast that it was hard to separate one from another. The down-pour of rain was uninterrupted. Railway tracks were under water and traffic was interrupted until 4 p. m. Saturday. The Thomson-Houston electric-light works, which furnish power for the electric street-cars, were inundated, and no cars were started till noon.

The suburb of Brooklyn being low ground was three feet under water. The police patrol wagon was used to take people from their houses. Mrs. Edward Phelps, a widow, and her family were taken from her house, which in a few minutes floated down Hickory creek, breaking to pieces at the Fourth avenue bridge. The Elgin, Joliet & Eastern round-house, north of the city, was flooded with two feet of water. Residences for a mile east of the round-house were fully four feet under water. Fences and small houses were swept away, breaking to pieces at the first bridge encountered. The southern part of the city was under water until Saturday evening. All fences and sidewalks have disappeared and great distress prevails, especially among residents of the southern district.

Farmers coming in report great losses through the destruction of fences, barns, trees and crops. They say that the water lying on the fields will ruin the crops, especially if the weather grows hot.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 16.—Much damage was done there to growing crops by wind and rain. Hailstones of enormous size fell, breaking windows. Trees were torn down and uprooted, corn, wheat, oats and fruit were badly cut down, and the damage done is hard to estimate. The streets were flooded and basements badly overflooded.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Dispatches received from various points tell of heavy losses sustained by the fearful rain and wind-storms of Friday night and Saturday. Among the Illinois towns reported as having suffered severely are Belvidere, Monticello, Monmouth, Aurora, Mokena, Elgin and Kankakee. The losses in these places and the country surrounding are heavy. Crops were damaged and all kinds of fruit trees are injured. The loss will be great to farmers and fruit growers. Twenty miles east of Jacksonville the ground was covered with hailstones to the depth of five inches. The stones measured from three to eight inches in circumference. Cattle were driven wild by the pelting they received and ran howling with fear and pain. Beardstown and other points west of Decatur are reported to have suffered severely from the effects of the storm.

Much damage is also reported in Iowa and Wisconsin. The railroads suffered many washouts and trains were from five to fifteen hours late on the various lines. The wagon roads in the country were damaged and many bridges were swept away.

CINCINNATI ROUGHLY HANDLED. CINCINNATI, June 16.—Cincinnati and the country for fifty miles around experienced a sensational storm Sunday. It began at noon and for more than an hour terrified thousands. The wind was severe, the lightning of fierce disposition and alarming frequency, and the rain fast, furious and deluge-like.

The shower came up suddenly as the churches were closing and the thousands who thronged the cable and electric cars were caught in the first down-pour. Curtains offered no relief and windows were burst in. Hundreds of ladies dressed in costly raiment were drenched to the skin, and the loss in that direction was very heavy.

As the shower grew heavier lightning began its work. All the three electric roads were rendered useless and miles of their wires were destroyed. The flood along the Sycamore street thickly populated portion of the city, was so great that the cars could not traverse the streets and the road was temporarily abandoned. The fire-alarm system was wrecked and lightning nearly rendered useless the new Gest street engine-house. The elegant residence of J. F. Carlson, on Harrison avenue, was knocked to pieces by the same bolt.

By 1 o'clock every sewer in the city was full and the streets were amateur rivers. State street, a narrow thoroughfare lying very low in the valley of what was once Deer creek, became a torrent. Water stood two and three feet deep in the houses and the drift was doing much damage.

Edward Lanahan, who kept a grocery on the street, was standing on a raft near his door, warding off timber, when he slipped and was sucked into a sewer. His body has not been recovered. The storm formed a ravine twenty feet wide and ten feet deep from Slack to Boat street through land worth $500 a foot.

In all thirty-three houses were unroofed in the city. Thousands of trees were razed, and in the lower portions of the city many thousand dollars' damage done to goods on the first floors of stores. Two people were blown off a shanty-barn near the mouth of the Miami river and drowned and thousands of dollars damage was done to coal boats and timber-rafs. The Chesapeake & Ohio road loses $50,000 by washouts and landslides within fifty miles of the city.

Severe destruction of property is reported from Loveland, Hamilton, Milford and Batavia. Near the latter place the Ohio & Northwestern railroad track is washed out and a bridge is gone. New Richmond and Ripley lost $10,000 each.

At Fairmount, Ky., three boys fishing in a boat are missing and were doubtless drowned. Covington, Beloit, Dayton and Newport, Ky., had eight houses unroofed and two persons hurt. Thousands of acres of wheat just ready to reap are laid flat and the loss will be great. It is safe to say that the loss in Cincinnati and a radius of fifty miles amounts to $300,000.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING. PARIS, Ky., June 16.—A terrific lightning and thunder-storm passed over the northern part of this county about 4 o'clock p. m. Friday. Two of a fishing party were killed and two others badly injured. They took shelter under a couple of cattle-troughs. Lightning struck the troughs, and Joseph Sheaks, aged 18 and Lash Wilson (colored), aged 15, were killed. Blanton Speaks was badly burned about the face, and one of his eyes was forced from its socket.

MARYVILLE, Ind., June 16.—At 6 o'clock Friday evening William E. Stoner, aged 38, a married man and father of a large family, was killed by a bolt of lightning.

CHOLERA IN EUROPE. The Dreaded Asiatic Pest Makes Its Appearance in Spain and Russia—Twenty-Three Deaths in the Province of Valencia—Residents Fly from the Stricken Towns.

MADRID, June 16.—Cholera has broken out at Puebla de Rugat, in the Province of Valencia, and there have already been twenty-three deaths from the disease. It is believed that the disease was conveyed to the place by some soldiers who recently arrived there from North Africa.

Two-thirds of the inhabitants have fled from the town. The first of the cases appeared a month ago, the victims all being residents of a street which had been opened up for paving. Seven deaths have occurred at Monticello, a village near Puebla de Rugat, and seven fresh cases are reported there.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

A Subject of General Interest to Parents and Others Having Children to Educate. The four leading school book publishing houses of the country which have heretofore been known under the following styles and titles, viz: Van Antwerp, Bragg & Co., Cincinnati; Ivison, Blakeman & Co., New York; A. S. Barnes & Co., New York; D. Appleton & Co., New York, after a full and careful consideration of all the circumstances, have decided to form an incorporated company for the prosecution of the school book business. They realize that the time has come when something must be done and some means devised for reducing the cost of school books to the people and for enabling the patrons of the schools to purchase their supplies of books direct from the publishers at net prices wherever they desire so to do. They have felt that the future of their business is seriously threatened by the popular prejudice which has been created by the exorbitant prices charged for school books by the local retailers. There have been too many profits made off of school books, and in reorganizing their business into this new stock company they do so for the purpose and with the determination to establish closer relations with the actual purchasers of the books and give them the benefit of the lowest possible prices. To accomplish this new departure in the manner of furnishing school books at reduced prices, a greater economy in manufacturing the books and in conducting the business must be practiced, and this is the object held in view by the firms above named in forming the new company. Under this new organization one plant and one force of clerks and agents will do the business which has heretofore required several expensive establishments. The saving of expense in this direction will be evident to any one, and beside this there will also be a material advantage to the new company in the fact that it will be able to get better terms in purchasing the paper, printers' ink and other material used in the manufacture of the books.

It has been stated by the competitors and opponents of this new company that as soon as it gets control of the trade in school books it will increase the price of books. The falsity of this criticism can not be better proven than by the willingness of the new company to give guaranty with satisfactory bond in any reasonable amount, contracting as follows:

First, that there will be no increase in prices for five, ten or even twenty years if desired; and second, that if at any time the new company's prices shall be reduced to a lower figure, that established price will at once become the reduced price under all contracts. To those who are informed in the matter it is well known that the majority of the school books now in use in the schools throughout the country are published by the four houses which have formed the new company. It is the earnest desire of the company to have these books continued in use in the schools, and it will aim to make it for the interest of the public to use them.

By a generous policy the new company expects to increase its business and to secure the widest possible sale for its books, realizing that the only way in which this can be accomplished is by furnishing the books to the people direct and at lower prices than school books have ever been bought.

THE LITERARY WORLD. JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY'S poems bring him from twenty-five to fifty dollars each.

PHINCE BISMARCK has declined numerous offers from English and American publishers for his memoirs.

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES believes in reading many books by proxy, particularly the big, thick volumes printed in small type.

LORD TENNYSON has yielded to a request to recite his "Charge of the Light Brigade" and parts of "The Princess" in an Edison Phonograph. His son says the tones of the poet's voice as heard through the tubes were reproduced with startling fidelity.

ALL France is laughing over the following announcement that lately appeared in one of the journals: "M. Ernest Zola, inventor of the spring handcuffs, notifies his customers that he has nothing in common with his namesake, Emil Zola, writer."

LORD COLERIDGE doesn't like the editor of the present day. He thinks the editor doesn't know much. "In former times," he asserts, "knowledge was written, deeper and more exact, and imparted with much more force, width and power than in the present day."

MR. W. D. HOWELLS said lately to a friend in speaking of Henry James' stories: "I hesitated and debated a long time before I accepted them, because I did not think they would be popular. However, I've never been sorry that I didn't think them back, as I was more than half inclined to do at one time."

LUDOVIC HALEVY, member of the French Academy and author of many successful books and plays, says that his daughter lamented to him that she had never read a line that he had written, for the parental edict had gone forth to that effect. Moved by her complaints, he set himself to write a story for her especial behoof, and the result was "The Abbe Constantine."

MR. GLADSTONE is said to be a confirmed "book-staller." To escape being mobbed when on his excursions "the seediest of coats and hats are usually brought into use." Only a few weeks ago, when so disguised, he spent considerable time in selecting a number of volumes from a stand in New Oxford street, London, without being recognized.

OLIVE LOGAN, who now lives in London, has been chosen a member of a Society of Authors, of which Tennyson is the president and Walter Besant the secretary. This society gave a dinner to Mrs. Burnett when she achieved her triumph in the Fauntleroy litigation. Olive Logan was present and made a little speech, which, it is said, created such a favorable impression that she was elected to membership at the first vacancy.

AUSTIN DONSON, the poet, was born in Plymouth, England, in 1840, and was intended to be an engineer. At least that is what his parents wanted, but, however, he entered the civil service, and soon after began writing. Mr. Donson's prose writings, chiefly studies of eighteenth century literature, are noteworthy for careful research and a finished style that show the result of having written much polished verse.

WENDELL M. MASON, a prominent Methodist layman and leader of the Troy Praying Band, died here, aged 67 years. He organized the Round Lake Camp Meeting Association, and was its president for several years. He was the author of "The Revivalist," a singing book of which 150,000 copies were published.

Kentucky's Empty Treasury. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 16.—The treasury of the State of Kentucky is empty, and the deficit will by July probably amount to $50,000. Governor Buckner will save the State by advancing money without interest from his private fortune to meet all urgent obligations. He has already given $10,000.

TWO Children Killed. WEBSTER, Mass., June 16.—Aldis and Annie, aged 8 and 12, daughters of Mr. Felker, of Wilsonville, Conn., were struck by a train on the Perryville State line bridge Friday and killed. The father was fishing off the bridge and was also struck by the engine, but was not seriously hurt.

FOR THE BEAST!

Mexican Mustang Liniment. CURES: Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Rheumatism, Stiff Joints, Backache, Galls, Sores, Swellings, Cracks, Contractions, Muscles, Hoof Ail, Scraw, Worms, Swinney, Saddle Galls, Piles.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what it claims to. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. It cures every kind of medicine. The Lumbago needs it in case of accident. The Housewife needs it for general family use. The Chandler needs it for his team and his mule. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Pioneer needs it—can't get along without it. The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard.

The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply aboard and ashore. The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance.

The Blackwoodsman needs it. There is no such good thing as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer. The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and wise men keep a Bottle in the House. "Tis the best of all the remedies for accidents and dangers.
