R. A. SNYDER.

Larger Store, Larger Stock.

We are now showing the largest exclusive clothing, boot and shoe stock in Washtenaw County.

Remember the great Slaughter sale of Boots and Shoes is still going on.

Prices are still from from 25 to 50 per cent below others.

OVERCOATS

While you are looking around don't forget to notice the large and handsome line of overcoats we are showing. We have them in Children's from $1.00 to $3.00. In Boy's from $3.00 to $10.00. In Men's from $3.75 to $20.00.

For $10 we give you the choice of at least fifteen styles Men's overcoats. They are all beauties.

For $15 and $20 we can give you the handsomest and most stylish overcoat in the market, equal in every respect to home made garments that would cost you from $30 to $35.

W. P. SCHENK.
Corner Main and Middle Streets.

Here and There.

Corn in this vicinity is nearly all harvested. Mr. A. B. Mitchell, of Dayton, O., was in town the past week.

Glazier, the druggist, will pay you 25c per dozen for fresh eggs.

There is some talk of moving the school house in district No. 9 Sharon.

Miss Cora Irwin, who has been ill for some time is slowly recovering.

Chas. Kaercher, has a card on last page of this issue, which we invite you to read.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sparks, and children, of Jackson, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Mary Telford, of Pinckney, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy McKone.

Milo Hunter and family have moved into their new house on Washington street.

Mr. Frank Uphause and Miss Minnie Steingwey, of Freedom, were married last Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Cassidy and children spent Sunday in Ann Arbor as guests of Sheriff and Mrs. Dwyer.

Miss Jennie Merrill and sister Grace, have gone to Jackson to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Miss Agnes McKone, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Chicago, returned home last Friday.

The Rev. J. H. McIntosh will preach in the M. E. Church at Lima Center, next Sunday Nov. 9th, at 2:30 p. m.

Master L. K. and Miss Kate Markey, of Pinckney, made a pleasant visit to Chelsea friends last Thursday and Friday.

To the corner loafer who has idled away his summer, the chief question now arises, "How can I procure an overcoat?"

Tariff or no tariff, Wm P. Schenk, our hustling clothing dealer, is selling the goods. Read his "ad" on first page.

Mr. Richard Roche, of Pinckney, was the guest of Chelsea friends last Thursday, and took in the bazaar at the town hall.

F. C. Delmont, the artist, who left town Saturday night, quite suddenly, leaves quite a number to mourn his departure.

Our citizens will have a general ratification next Monday evening. Everybody invited. See bills for further particulars.

Some one entered the Dewey residence on West Middle street Tuesday, and stole $10.00 in cash. No clue as to who did it.

Miss Jessie Merrill closed a very successful term of school in Sylvan, district No. eleven, last Friday, and has been engaged to teach the winter term.

We see by the Livingston Herald, that Will Canfield, well known in this vicinity, has moved to Detroit where he has opened a meat market on his own account.

Heschelwerds, who have so long kept a restaurant in this village, have gone out of the business, and moved into Chas. Kaercher's house on East Middle street.

The square contradiction between the advertising columns and the free trade editorials of the democratic papers is one of the funniest things in contemporaneous journalism.

The lovely basket of flowers, presented to Bishop Foley at the opening of St. Mary's bazaar, were given by the distinguished prelate to Mrs. Senator Gorman, who appreciated the gracious and delicate compliment.

Work was begun last Monday in Mt Olivet cemetery, and several roads laid out. The plan is a very fine one, and, as it is to be carefully carried out, it will result in making this cemetery one of the most beautiful in the state.

The Good Templars installed the following officers last Tuesday evening: W. C. T. Jas. F. Harrington; V. T., Dora Harrington; Chap.; Wm. Pottinger; Sec., Mrs. D. B. Taylor; F. Sec., Mrs. A. J. Congdon; Tres., C. M. Bowen; Marshal, E. J. Whipple; Guard, Ruth Loomis; Sentinel, Geo. Clark; Organist, Mrs. Libbie Tichenor; Supt. of Juvenile Temple, Mrs. J. P. Wood.

The attorneys for R. Irving Latimer, the fend who murdered his mother a year ago last January, and who, through the able efforts of Detective John Boyle and Prosecuting Attorney Parkinson, was convicted and is now serving a life sentence, will take his case to the Supreme Court on a writ of error. This is conclusive, and they have already caused a transcript of the testimony to be taken.

At a regular meeting of the men's sodality of St. Mary's church held last Sunday the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: Prefect, Thomas McKone; 1st assistant, Ignatius Howe; 2nd assistant, Charles Whitaker; Secretary, Jacob Hummel Jr.; Treasurer, John Wade; Marshal, Philip Kousch; Consultants, John Breitenbach, Geo. Miller, Jr., John Clark, Henry V. Heatley, Geo. Eder, John Young.

It is very evident that our trees are disappearing much faster than any of the forest-planting or "Arbor Day" schemes are replacing them. Unless some systematic method of preventing the destruction now going on is devised it is but a question of a few years when the land will be practically timberless. Such a result would in many ways be very unfortunate. The probable effect on the climate of the country and especially on the rainfall alone makes the question one of serious moment; and when to this is added the necessity of finding some substitute for wood in its myriad uses the problem becomes one of appalling magnitude.

Two giddy girls we soon shall forget, Campaign Lize and Election Bet.

Head Glazier's change of "ads" on first and last pages.

Dr. R. R. Finch spent a few days in Toledo, O., the past week.

Ms. Emory Fletcher, of Iron Mountain, visited in town the past week.

Abath Yocum drove over from March and spent Sunday in town.

The boys behaved remarkably well Halloween, only a few gates being carried off.

Mrs. Brown is having another story added to her house, and an addition built to the same.

Rev. Carpenter and wife, of Francisco, are the happy parents of a son, which was born Friday.

Ampere should say railway station instead of deep oh. It isn't a place for sighing, don't-cher-know?

Ralph Gorton, of Webberville, who went to California some time ago, is now city editor of the leading newspaper in Los Gatos.

Now it turns out that McGinty's best Sunday clothes were of the readymade kind, and that the frequent dampening shrank them so he isn't able to appear in public any more.

Here's a way out of it: If imported goods are to be so high under the McKinley bill that few can reach them, let the foreigners move their plants here and make their wares. America can furnish the workmen. See?

Statistics show that there are some two million people in this country dependent upon the railroads for support. The number of employed, is put at 704,743. In case of a general strike, the number of people to suffer direct loss is thus shown to be very large.

New York wants to erect a monument to Columbus. That's all right in its way, but why not begin father back? Has it never occurred to New York that Adam has never been honored with a monument yet? Perhaps though, he'll get one as soon as Columbus. New York works that way.

Typographical blunders are usually laughable, but now and then one of them is a fitting theme for tears to the person who is a victim of it. A Denver man married a "handsome Colorado woman" the other day, but the intelligent compositor mistook the word "Colorado" for "colored."

It is said that last Sunday a car load of canned corn was dumped into the Huron river in this way. A freight train, bound south, broke into just before reaching the bridge. The first section stopped on the bridge, where the other section ran into it, one car breaking open and allowing the corn to drop through into the river.—Argus.

Kansas crops having failed, it becomes necessary to stimulate emigration thither by some new device, and the following has been hit upon: "A Kansas man sunk a shaft on his farm the other day, and in going down 100 feet, it is said, struck two five-foot veins of mineral paint, a ten foot stratum of clay, a twenty-inch vein of coal and a five-foot stratum of marble."

A contemporary asks: "Do children pay?" That depends. They don't pay spot cash. Nobody with sense, experience and observation expects them to be prompt payers. If their reared and trained correctly and wisely, they'll pay at maturity. They're not immediately convertible into cash. Parents hold a first mortgage on them; and it is parents' fault, either of folly or neglect, if the claim is not paid with interest.

Some one illustrates progressive knowledge as follows: "At ten years old a boy thinks his father knows a great deal, at fifteen he knows as much as his father, at twenty he knows twice as much, at thirty he is willing to take advice, at forty he begins to think the old man knows something after all, at fifty he begins to ask advice, and at sixty—after his father is dead—he thinks his father was the smartest man that ever lived."

We copy the following from the Grass Lake News: "Married on Wednesday at the home of the bride in this village, Carlton K. Cobb, of Detroit, and Miss Mary T. Hamilton, daughter of C. Hamilton, Rev. D. M. Kirkpatrick officiating. Among those present from abroad were C. J. Cobb and wife, of Pinckney, Wm. Hamilton, brother of the bride, and wife, of Chelsea, Mrs. D. C. Monroe and sister, of Jackson. The wedded pair will reside in Detroit."

The amount of money that is obtained from apparently indifferent and immaterial businesses is sometimes very large.

For instance, the value of the paper thrown away in some of the big stores is sufficient to pay a good many salaries. The managers of a large dry goods house in New York wrote to this effect when they learned that the man who had the contract for cleaning their establishment was rapidly acquiring a fortune by selling the waste materials found on the floors. He had undertaken to provide help and see that the place was cleaned nightly in return for the waste paper and pasteboard boxes. It requires very little attention, as the man had a foreman to see that the work was done properly. At the expiration of this contract it was not renewed and the house takes the profit.

NOT EXPECTED.

You were not prepared for it, were you? But one can never tell what will happen next. Now who could have foreseen that we would offer

Full Cream Cheese
(For this week only) at the absurdly low price of 9 1/2 cents per pound, and when we did so, people were generally surprised.

A Double Dose.
We have another surprise for you today. Not content with giving you ONE HAIR-RAISER.

We will give you another and we quote CRACKERS (for one week only) at 6 1/2 pounds for 25 cents. We do not expect that there will be one cracker or one cheese left at the end of the week to show what they were like.

If you want to be in on these two radical bargains come early.

The purity of the language used by a community is an index of its general intellectual culture.

Our children spend long years in the public schools, wrestling with "language" among other branches of instruction.

Woolen socks very cheap at Snyder's. Stamp patterns at Mrs. Staffans.

Mr. Godfrey Grau, an old resident of Chelsea, who has been suffering with sore eyes for the past year, is now almost cured.

The art loan was an original and unique feature of this bazaar, and was presided over by Mrs. Wm. Cassidy and Mrs. H. V. Heatley.

The "Wheel of Fortune" was turned very gracefully by Miss Kate Winters, who made a goodly sum.

The elegant gold-headed cane, voted to the most popular gentleman, was won by Mr. Timothy McKone.

The Pastor and congregation are delighted with the brilliant success attained. The handsome sum of $810.00 was realized.
