So long as people continue to act as if railroads tracks were built to walk on, so long will they find that the average train goes faster than they do and is likely to overtake them. And when the trains do overtake them, it's the same old story of the first locomotive and the cow. It's "verra bad for the cow."

Parrell emphasizes the tradition of the cow that gave down a bucket full of rich milk and then spitefully kicked it over.

Lecturers advise that in cold weather people keep their mouths shut and breathe through their noses. It would be well for some people followed the first bit of advice even in warm weather.

The capped McKinley bill has raised the cost of living so that no fellow can more than half keep himself. No wonder so many marriages are blocking the wheels of courtship and romance.

Supervisor Alonzo Pixley, of Muncie was struck in the eyes Friday by an arrow from a toy gun in the hands of a small boy, inflicting serious injury. Dr. J. S. Drown hopes to save the sight.

Grass Lakers profess to be shocked seeing Chelsea girls munching caramels in the streets. Our maidens and young matrons do not use store teeth, and the natural masticators are as white as the new driven snow.

Man is the universal animal. It is estimated that there is 1,350,000,000 of him on the globe. The sheep rank next with 530,000,000; 300,000,000 cattle; 100,000,000 hogs (the four-footed variety), and 600,000 horses continue the list.

Good, honest work never killed man nor woman. It supplies nutriment, conflict and struggle, and causes both mind and body to grow. The gospel of labor wisely done and duty faithfully performed is worth all the now-fangled "fads" of Christendom.

The tramp is beginning to come in from his summer outing. He is sure to turn about this time of the year with his crop fully ripe. As that is pretty much all he has saved during the season, nobody should grudge it to him, and, so far as known, nobody really does.

Perhaps you have discovered long before this how green and unsavory are potatoes this fall. And they don't appear to improve with age. Farmers say the condition is due to the frequent and copious rains, that they didn't have an opportunity to ripen but continued green.

Those who have given the subject special thought are probably not aware how rapidly the forests of this country are being denuded. Within the last two years hundreds of thousands of acres of timber lands have been swept of their wealth, by so much reducing the available timber supply of the land.

Some process which has swept away the pine forests of New England, New York and Pennsylvania, and the black walnut, maple and beech of Ohio and Indiana, has been repeated with the timber lands of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

A vegetarian church is to be established in Philadelphia. One of the fundamental principles of the church will be that no sacred, and that therefore the shedding of blood, even though it be for the sake of providing food for the human race, is wrong. But the vegetarians don't forget their own principles. In the eyes of the scientist there is no appreciable difference between plant life and animal life. The only objection that vegetarians make to the shedding of blood is that it terminates a life, but from a scientific point of view they terminate a life every time they eat a potato or a turnip.

The oyster which is gulped down thoughtlessly by the heedless mass of mankind is an object of deep and scientific study of Professor Brooks, of the Hopkins University. He has spent much time in studying the processes of development, the best methods of culture and the seasonal habits of this popular bivalve, known to biologists all over the world. The highest authority on all questions regarding it. Up to this time the professor studies in this line have been independent of his college duties, but the emotion in the Maryland oyster business is to result in establishing a regular professorship at the Hopkins University of which he will be in charge. It is proposed that the state grant 10,000 acres of Chesapeake Bay to this institution for oyster planting, the proceeds to be used for educational purposes. It is believed that under the professor's scientific guidance the grounds will become productive and Maryland's importance as an oyster producer be restored.

Is the appropriate name given by Dr. Holmes to the Nut Cracker, that he has invented, on which he has obtained letters patent in the United States, Canada and Great Britain, and which he is now having manufactured and put upon the market. Bounty on Maple Sugar.

W. E. Weston, of Bancroft, Mich., deputy collector of internal revenue for this division, desires the name and address of every person in the counties of Shiawassee, Genesee, Oakland, Livingston, and Washtenaw, who will produce over 500 pounds of maple sugar the coming season, and who will apply for the bounty under the conditions imposed. Under an act of congress of October 1st, 1890, a bounty of 1 1/2 cents per pound is offered on sugar testing 80 to 90 degrees upon the polariscope, and 2 cents upon sugar testing 90 degrees or over. Ordinary maple sugar will test under 90. Such bounty will be paid to producers of 500 pounds or more of sugar made on and after April 1st, 1891. The applicant will be required to file a notice setting forth the place of manufacture, machinery and methods employed, estimate of amount to be produced, number of trees to be tapped, and make application for a license. He will also be required to file a bond not to violate the internal revenue regulations. No bounty will be paid for the production of any amount less than 500 pounds, and no bounty will be paid on syrup.

Heaven's his Home.

An editor died and slowly wended his way down to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. The devil met him and said: "For many years thou hast borne the blame for the errors the printers have made in the papers. It has gone, alas! for one dollar. Alas! the dollar has very often failed to come in. The printer have deviled thee for wages on Saturday night when thou hast not a cent to thy name. Men have taken the paper without paying for it, and the curse thee for not getting up a better paper. Thou hast been called a head bent and fraud by men who were wiser than thou. Thou canst not come here. And he fired him. As he said the devil murmured to himself: "Heaven's his home, and his sides, if we had let him come in here he would have been continually doing delinquent subscribers, and thus create discord in my kingdom."—Ex.

The Weight of a Dollar Bill.

Do you know how many one-dollar bills it takes to weigh as much as a twenty-dollar gold piece? One of those walking compendiums of useful information sprung the above query upon a small party of gentlemen the other evening, and the opinion that it elicited showed a remarkable range. One member of the party, whose business it is to handle money in large sums, after profound thought suggested that the number would be from 1,000 to 1,200. Others guessed down the line to 500 but no one less than that number. After all had placed themselves on record, the compendium stated that the number of bills was thirty-three, according to their condition as to dirtiness and age.—Ex.

Subscription Laws.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrangements are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.
7. The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft.
