

Here and There.

It will soon be time to muzzle your dog. Mrs. Eva Taylor is visiting at Three Oaks.

Wheat promises a good yield in this vicinity. A. W. Wilkinson was in Jackson last Monday.

Council proceedings will be found on last page. Hay is being cut and farmers report a good yield.

Godfrey Lutek, of Lima, lost a valuable horse recently. Applicants for holding down dry good boxes are plenty.

Chauncy Hummel is on the road the Buckeye company. Business is rather quiet just now, as the farmers are busy.

Tiddledywinks soda is the latest. The accent is on the wick. Martin Cavanaugh, of Ann Arbor, was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. D. H. Fuller visited her son at Battle Creek last week. Miss Clark, who has been seriously indisposed, is much better.

Saline will have a balloon ascension and parachute drop; July 4th. The cut worm is doing great damage to the bean crop in general.

Mr. Hugh Sherry is now the possessor of a handsome St. Bernard dog. A number of young gentlemen from this village spent Sunday in Grass Lake.

Tommy McNamara has put up a new awning in front of his place of business. Geo. Knoll, of Ann Arbor, was stabbed by Mack Dunlap, Tuesday last week.

Peaches are reported at 71 per cent. of an average crop in the June crop report. U. H. Toquesand marketed some of the finest strawberries we have seen this year.

Summer resorts are being looked up, ready for invasion as the days grow warmer. Arthur Congdon, who broke his leg some time ago, is able to be out on crutches.

P. J. Lehman and wife spent Sunday in Freedom with Mrs. Lehman's mother, Mrs. Braun. Dr. R. S. Armstrong is having a cement sidewalk laid in front of his residence on South street.

Mr. Timothy McKone is making an extended visit in Chicago with relatives and friends. Geo. Beckwith has the contract for building a new house for Tommy Heim, Jr., this summer.

Wm. Leucht lost a thumb and three fingers in the Michigan Furniture factory, Ann Arbor, last Thursday. Sam Heeschwerdt has painted a hand some sign for Tommy McNamara, which he has placed in front of his saloon.

Nine horses were smothered by a fire in the livery stable of Hiram Kittredge, Ann Arbor, Tuesday night of last week. Rev. Fathers Buysse, of Jackson, Kelly, of Ann Arbor, and Fleming, of Dexter, were guests at St. Mary's Rectory last Monday.

We hear of certain sidewalks which need to be laid, which have been ordered laid, but which have not been laid. What is the reason? According to the census returns of 1890, as published in the Michigan Manual, Washtenaw County has a population of 42,210. Chelsea has a population of 1,320, part in Lima not included.

The Misses Klein entertained a large party of their friends Wednesday evening of last week, in honor of Miss Norma Cousno, of Erie, who was their guest. Music and games was the order of the evening and all enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Miss Cousno left Thursday for Grand Rapids, where she will visit friends for a few days before returning home.

St. Mary's church was in gala attire last Sunday in honor of the double solemnity, the Feast of St. Aloysius and the First Holy Communion of 40 children. The church presented a lovely appearance, with the choicest of cut flowers and vases on the altars threw a soft, mellowing light over the sanctuary. It was a beautiful picture, never to be forgotten by those who were present. The children, handsomely attired, marched in procession from the Rectory to the church, while the choir sang with excellent effect, Tambillotte's beautiful O Quam Dilecta. The pastor officiated, and preached a touching and beautiful sermon to the happy children. At the second mass at 11 a. m. the juvenile choir sang, in their usual excellent style, some beautiful hymns, notably so, the hymn in honor of St. Aloysius. The evening services were largely attended, and the church was very beautiful. The children renewed their baptismal vows, were dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, new promoters were received, and members enrolled in the League. It was a memorable day for the members of this prosperous parish, who have every reason to be proud of their temporal and spiritual progress.

Good corn weather. Ypsilanti is $180,500 in debt. Lots of fish are being caught now-a-days. Cherries bid fair to be a good crop this year. The ice cream crop is now being secured. Munith has some hopes of a local newspaper. Read the Chelsea Savings Bank "ad" on last page. Geo. Blalch is having the front of his store painted. The prospects are good for a large crop of Huckleberries. Read Glazier's change of "ads." on first and last pages. Mrs. H. W. Schmidt is visiting friends in Manchester this week. Mrs. H. G. Hoag visited her daughter at Stockbridge last week. Wm. Brietenbach, of St. Louis, Mo., is the guest of Rev. C. Haag. The Dexter high school graduating class numbers seven this year. Celebrate? Of course we will! But will have to go somewhere else to do it. Dr. H. L. Williams attended a meeting of the dental alumni at Ann Arbor, on Wednesday. J. F. Campbell, of the Ingham County News, will deliver the oration at Pinckney, July 4th. The Scharf tag and label company was incorporated at Ypsilanti last week with a $40,000 capital. Mrs. Hampden Kingsley and children, of Manchester, visited Mrs. Calkin the first of this week. Unadilla township has eight churches, and is one of the best law-abiding townships of that county. Martin Cavanaugh was elected commissioner of schools last Monday, by the board of Supervisors. The M. E. church society will serve ice cream in the McKone block Saturday afternoon and evening. The Misses Edith Congdon, Cora Bowen and Florence Bachman, attend commencement at the Normal this week. John Brooke, of Waldron, is probably the oldest man in Michigan. He celebrated his 105th birthday recently. Michigan weather last week was favorable to all growing crops. The temperature was high and there was plenty of rain. Married, Wednesday, June 24, 1891, at the home of the bride's parents in Whitaker Mich., Mr. W. J. Knapp to Miss Lucy E. Lowe. Lost, last Tuesday in Chelsea, an umbrella with the initials A. M. K., and also date on the handle. Valued as a keepsake. Finder please leave the same at this office. Chas. C. Nims, died at his home in Stockbridge, June 16, 1891, aged 51 years. Mr. Nims was postmaster at that village for four years, besides holding other important offices. The Michigan Farmer says there is no use having any circus troupes in Michigan this season at least as long as the legislature is in session. Lansing holds the "biggest show on earth." The M. E. church at Sylvan Center has been rehung, the ceiling and walls beautifully papered, and in the near future it is to be painted, inside and out. These much needed improvements have been made and paid for by the citizens generally, irrespective of denomination or belief. On the 14th inst. it was rededicated, the Rev. J. H. McIntosh preaching the sermon, and the Revs. O. C. Bailey and D. H. Conrad making, also, appropriate remarks. About the 7th of July Dr. Strangways intends to start on his summer trip through the large hospitals. He is making arrangements to spend five or six weeks seeing and studying all the various diseases to which humanity is heir and the treatments advised for them by America's greatest and best physicians and surgeons. Mrs. Strangways and family will visit friends in Canada during the doctor's absence. If the doctor has not called on you, no doubt he will be glad to have you call on him at his office if you owe him anything, as he will be under considerable expense. The Ladies and Society, of the M. E. church, learning that the Boy Orator, Ralph Bingham, of Philadelphia, Pa., was to be enroute for Port Huron, shortly, were fortunate enough to secure him for an entertainment at the Town Hall, in Chelsea, Thursday, July 2nd, at "enroute" Chelsea, so as to make the prices of admission within the reach of all, namely: For adults, 25c; children under 12 years, 10c.; Reserved seats, 35c. Reserved seat tickets can be secured at F. P. Glazier's store. Doors open at 8 p. m. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8.30. The following are a few of the testimonials lavishly bestowed on this rarely gifted boy: "He is the wonder of the whole city."—Daily Dispatch, Richmond, Va. "The gift of eloquence has come to Ralph Bingham by divine right."—New York Herald. "There has not come upon our stage an object of greater interest than this lad."—Evening Journal, Albany, N. Y. "His impersonations are marvelous, conceptions unique, and expressions of character inimitable."—Rev. Frederick J. Stanley, Presbyterian Church, Blauvelt, N. Y.

Are especially invited to do their Banking business with the Chelsea Savings Bank.

Date, Mar. 10th, 1891.

State Law Guarantee Fund and Capital $109,887.52 Deposits, Mar. 10th, 1891 178,371.76 Invested in Choice Bonds, Mortgages and approved Loans 120,879.30 Cash on hand and in banks 105,302.34

If you have money deposit it in the Chelsea Savings Bank, that it may earn for you interest, or until wanted, that you may be free from care and fear of loss by fire, thieves or otherwise. If you need to borrow money, upon good approved security, the Chelsea Savings bank will be glad to supply it for you.

The Chelsea Savings Bank has recently had built for it one of the strongest safes made, being the new patterns of the Mosler Bank Safe Companies, Round Screw Door, Laminated Chrome Steel, Burglar and Dynamite Proof Safe, with no keyhole, spidre or other connection through the door or walls, nor any access to the lock from the outside, the door being screwed in and held secure by a Double Chronometer Time Lock from inside. It is considered the strongest and best security ever devised against efforts of burglars. The safe is protected by a large new fireproof vault made necessary to store the upwards of twenty years' accumulation of books and papers of its business, and the whole premises are further protected by an Electric alarm System, which gives instant warning of trespassers at night.

Resolutions.

The following is a copy of resolutions passed by Gen. Geo. H. Thomas Camp, No. 1, Sons of Veterans, Seattle, Wash:
Whereas, by the sad and untimely accident which occurred upon Saturday, May 9th, 1891, Calvin J. Kempf, First Sergeant of this Camp, was suddenly and unexpectedly called from this life, therefore be it

Resolved by Gen. Geo. H. Thomas Camp, No. 1, Division of Washington, Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., that in the death of Sergeant Kempf we mourn the loss of an esteemed friend and brother. That this Camp has lost in him a faithful and efficient officer, who modest and unassuming in character and demeanor, was true to the duties which were reposed in him, and filled with fidelity and success that station to which he was called, both as an officer and brother of this Camp, and as a man before the world.

Resolved that for the period of thirty days the charter of the Camp be draped in mourning and that we wear the emblems of mourning with the decorations of our Order.

Resolved that to the parents and relatives of Sergeant Kempf, and to his friends in this city to whom he was so strongly bound by ties of love and affectionate regard, whose sorrow is deepest as they knew him best, we extend our most heart felt and sincere sympathy, and that while to night we bid our last farewell to our dead comrade, farewell in friendship, in charity, in loyalty, we yet join with those relatives and friends in the living memory of his presence and it the hope that after this darkness we may stand again with him in the light beyond.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Camp; that a copy thereof be sent to the parents of brother Kempf and another copy be presented to his friends in this city.

Resolved that the parents and relatives of Sergeant Kempf, and to his friends in this city to whom he was so strongly bound by ties of love and affectionate regard, whose sorrow is deepest as they knew him best, we extend our most heart felt and sincere sympathy, and that while to night we bid our last farewell to our dead comrade, farewell in friendship, in charity, in loyalty, we yet join with those relatives and friends in the living memory of his presence and it the hope that after this darkness we may stand again with him in the light beyond.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Camp; that a copy thereof be sent to the parents of brother Kempf and another copy be presented to his friends in this city.
