CAMPBELL CHOSEN.

Renominated for Governor by the Ohio Democratic State Convention—The Platform Declares in Favor of the Free Coinage of Silver—Disappointment of Some of the Delegates. One of the largest conventions that ever assembled in the history of the Ohio democracy met in Cleveland Wednesday, July 15.

Chairman Norton, of the state central committee, formally opened the convention and introduced Hon. Allen W. Thurman as temporary chairman. After Mr. Thurman's speech accepting the chairmanship, the committee on permanent organization reported ex-Congressman Le Bond, of Mercer county, as permanent chairman.

Mr. Le Bond spoke briefly. The convention decided to adopt the device to designate the democratic ticket, the recent ballot reform law requiring the selection of some device.

Chairman Finley, of the committee on resolutions, then presented the following majority report of that committee: The democracy of Ohio, in convention assembled, hereby resolve that we most heartily endorse the honesty and economy of the administration of Gov. James E. Campbell, and bill providing for free and secret ballot, thus demonstrating its professions to be sincere and for political effect only; and we cordially endorse and approve the act of the legislature regarding the compensation of county officers by providing for a fixed salary.

We are opposed to all class legislation and believe in a tariff levied for the sole purpose of producing a revenue sufficient to defray the legitimate expenses of the government. We accept the issue tendered to us by the republican party on the subject of the tariff as represented by the so-called McKinley tariff act, confident that the bill providing for free and secret ballot, thus demonstrating its professions to be sincere and for political effect only; and we cordially endorse and approve the act of the legislature regarding the compensation of county officers by providing for a fixed salary.

We favor a graded income tax. We denounce the demoralization of silver in 1873 by the party then in power as an iniquitous alteration of the money standard in favor of creditors and against debtors, taxpayers and producers, and which has since that time, in the hands of the party in power, operated continually to increase the value of gold, depress prices, hamper industry and disparage enterprise; and which, by the constant and unrelenting standard of both gold and silver, with the equal right of each to free and unlimited coinage.

We denounce the republican billion dollar congress, which by its extravagant expenditures exhausted a surplus in the national treasury left there by a democratic administration and created a deficit, which substituted despotic rule for free discussion and the rule of the majority, and which has since that time, in the hands of the party in power, operated continually to increase the value of gold, depress prices, hamper industry and disparage enterprise; and which, by the constant and unrelenting standard of both gold and silver, with the equal right of each to free and unlimited coinage.

We are opposed to the enactment of all laws which unnecessarily interfere with the habits and customs of our people which are not offensive to the sentiment of the civilized world, and we believe that the personal rights of the individual should be curtailed only when it is essential to the maintenance of the peace, good order and the security of the community.

We favor the passage of such laws by the general assembly as will give us a system for the government of our municipalities uniform throughout the state, as the constitution requires. In which the executive and legislative power shall be separate, the former to be lodged in a mayor and the latter in a council, both to be elected by the people, thereby realizing the principle of home rule, safe from the dangers and evils of special legislation.

We favor closer commercial relations with our Canadian neighbors and the removal of the embarrassing and annoying restrictions which only we people without yielding any substantial benefit to the general government.

We favor liberal and just pensions to deserving and disabled soldiers and sailors who fought for the maintenance of the government and like pensions to their widows and orphan children, and the pensioning of the veterans of the Russian government justly deserves and receives our unqualified commendation. We extend to them our sincere sympathy, and believe that the government of the United States, the enlightened governments of Europe disposed to unite with us, should take proper steps to alleviate the wrongs thus inflicted on this long suffering and oppressed people.

A minority report declares in favor of both gold and silver coinage and against the graded income tax plank. The minority report was overwhelmingly defeated and the majority report of the credentials committee then adopted.

AT 1:20 the convention proceeded to nominate candidates for governor. Ex-Congressman Follette presented the name of Mr. Neal, Gov. Campbell's name was presented by Mike Ryan, of Cincinnati, and Delegate Dodge, of Cleveland, nominated Virgil P. Kline. A vote was reached at 2:22, which resulted in the renomination of Gov. Campbell.

The rest of the ticket is as follows: For auditor of state, T. E. Peckinbough, of Wayne county; for attorney general, John P. Bailey, of Putnam county; for state treasurer, C. F. Ackerman, of Mansfield; for judge of supreme court, Gustavus H. Wald, of Hamilton county; for commissioner of common schools, Charles E. Miller, of Erie county; for member of board of public works, John McNamara, of Summit county; for member food and dairy commission, H. S. Trumbull, of Lawrence county. Then, after passing the usual vote of thanks to the officers of the convention, at 5 p. m., adjourned sine die.

MANY PERISHED.

Rebel Firebugs Cause a Holocaust in Santiago, Chili—Between $3,000,000 and $3,000,000 Worth of Property Swept Away and Thirty or Forty Lives Lost. NEW YORK, July 20.—Special dispatches received say that Santiago, the capital of Chili, has been visited by a most destructive fire by which between $3,000,000 and $3,000,000 worth of property was destroyed. Early in the morning of June 5 the fire broke out in a house on Augustinos street, one of the principal thoroughfares of the city, and spread rapidly. Every available engine and fireman was on the scene, but it was not long before the water supply gave out and then hope was very nearly abandoned. The large Catholic university was one of the first buildings to be attacked. It blazed fiercely and so rapidly that many people were unable to leave the building in time. In full sight of the horror-stricken people they fell back into the flames and perished. The Banco de Santiago and the Banco Popular, the Hotel Hermandad and the editorial rooms of El Mercediano, in the direct path of the fire, were quickly reduced to ashes. It was at this time that the water gave out. The crowds were immense and soldiers were obliged to drive them back with bayonets. The houses on the opposite side of the street caught fire and all that could be done was to watch them burn. Some of the principal business buildings of Santiago were destroyed and there were many narrow escapes. The most exciting of these was that of Mr. Kennedy, the British minister. Almost before he knew it his residence caught fire and blazed so fiercely that it was with difficulty that he escaped. He was partially overcome by the heat and smoke. The German and Nicaraguan legations are also said to have been destroyed. After a considerable period the water ran sufficiently in the mains to allow of its use by the engines. By this time, too, the flames had spent themselves and were at last subdued. It is believed that between thirty and forty lives were lost. Government authorities believe the fire to be the work of insurgent firebugs.

FOUND WATERY GRAVES.

Seven Lives Lost by the Wrecking of a Schooner Off the Coast of Newfoundland—Other Drowning Disasters. HALIFAX, N. S., July 20.—Particulars have been received by mail of a disaster on the Newfoundland coast, the schooner Pacific Belle being wrecked and two women and five children lost. Capt. S. Butts, of the lost vessel, states that the Pacific Belle with a crew of four men left Catalina July 8 bound for St. Johns with a cargo of lumber. She had also on board five women and five children as passengers. They encountered a storm of wind and rain from 11:30 o'clock Wednesday night until daylight Thursday morning. The vessel lost her mainmast and foremast and ran ashore on the cliff at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning. William Ross jumped ashore and the captain then a line to him. By this means the rest of the crew got ashore and three passengers were saved. Mrs. Freeman and Miss Caroline Higgins were drowned and five children were also lost, one being Mrs. Freeman's infant, another child coming to St. Johns and the remaining three belonging to Mrs. Rachel Burton—a boy of 12 years, a boy of 9 and a girl of 5 years.

CRUELLY MURDERED.

A New Hampshire Girl Dragged from Her Mother's Arms and Shot by a Crazy Assassin. HANOVER, N. H., July 20.—As Miss Christie Warden, accompanied by her mother and her sister Fannie and Louise Goodell, were returning on foot to their home, located 1 mile from the village at a late hour Friday night, Frank Almy, about 20 years of age, jumped into the road in front of them, seizing Christie by the arm, said: "I want you." The mother and sister attempted to defend her. Almy fired at them, but missed. They ran for assistance. Then Almy dragged his victim to the bushes on the road and shot her twice through the head, one shot tearing out her left eye. When help arrived the girl was dead and her body was stripped of nearly every article of clothing. Almy had fled. Miss Warden was a beautiful and most estimable young woman about 25 years old, a graduate of the State Normal school, and a popular teacher. Almy was a former employe of her father, and his attention to Miss Christie had been repulsed. She was the daughter of Andrew A. Warden, a wealthy farmer and leading citizen. The father of the murdered girl offers a reward of $500 for the capture of the murderer.

ELVEN KILLED.

Distressing Railway Accident at Manchester—Eleven Men Killed. LIVERPOOL, July 20.—A terrible accident occurred along the line of the Manchester ship canal. A train passing along the railroad running near the canal fell over the latter's embankment near this city, killing eleven men who were working under the heading. In addition to the men killed, many other workmen were injured. The accident was due to the fact that the pointsman, a boy 17 years of age, mistook the points and turned a railroad train, consisting of twenty-two wagons loaded with ballast, into a siding leading into a cutting. The train then crashed into a slight buffer at the end of the cutting and toppled over upon the men at work below the embankment. The bodies of the men killed were horribly mutilated. The boy pointsman ran away when he saw the accident which was due to his mistake. The lad was captured later in the day and was charged with manslaughter.

SCIENTIFIC DEDUCTIONS.

THE average laborer wears out five ounces of muscle a day. EXPERIMENT has shown that when coal is burnt in an open grate from one to three per cent of the coal escapes in the form of unburnt solid particles, or "soot," and about ten per cent is lost in the form of volatile compounds of carbon. It has recently been observed that when liquid carbonic acid is allowed to escape into a stout canvas bag in the dark, and by its expansion to freeze in a snowy mass, the effect is accompanied by a pale, greenish violet light and electric sparks.

LYNCHED.

A Mob of Indianians Hangs Frank Dice in His Cell at Spencer. SPENCER, Ind., July 20.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock a. m. Saturday Sheriff Johnson was called by some unknown person outside the jail, and, throwing up the window, he asked what was wanted. Two men stood below, with a third between them, and one of the former replied that they had a prisoner whom they wished to place in jail. Descending in his night shirt, the sheriff opened the door, and immediately some forty or fifty men rushed upon him, threw a blanket over his head and in a moment had him securely bound and gagged. They then demanded and secured the keys to the various cells and began a search, evidently looking for Frank Dice, who had been in jail for several days awaiting trial on a charge of murdering a man named Chaney. Not a word was spoken by any of the men till Dice's cell was reached. The prisoner had been aroused by the heavy tread of the mob and was crouched in one corner of the cell. As the door swung open he uttered a low groan, as if conscious of what was coming, and a moment later he was brought into the corridor in front of his cell. The gagged sheriff tried to expostulate with the mob, but a hand was placed threateningly over his mouth, and the cold muzzle of a revolver was pressed against his temple, while a low voice admonished him to be quiet if he valued his life. Dice was then told that his hour had come, and he was asked if he had anything to say. He was so terror-stricken that coherent speech was out of the question, but he managed to mumble a few sentences. While still trying to talk a member of the mob threw a small cord around his neck and he was drawn up to one of the cross beams in front of his cell. The mob carried a few moments till satisfied that life was extinct, and then quietly left the jail and passed out of town. The whole affair was managed so cleverly that the nearest residents to the jail did not know that anything unusual was going on. The mob was under the command of a tall, well-built man, who uttered his commands in a whisper, and every act in the terrible tragedy was performed with the regularity of clockwork. Even the prisoners in the remote cells were not awakened, so quietly was the hanging conducted.

FOUND WATERY GRAVES.

Seven Lives Lost by the Wrecking of a Schooner Off the Coast of Newfoundland—Other Drowning Disasters. HALIFAX, N. S., July 20.—Particulars have been received by mail of a disaster on the Newfoundland coast, the schooner Pacific Belle being wrecked and two women and five children lost. Capt. S. Butts, of the lost vessel, states that the Pacific Belle with a crew of four men left Catalina July 8 bound for St. Johns with a cargo of lumber. She had also on board five women and five children as passengers. They encountered a storm of wind and rain from 11:30 o'clock Wednesday night until daylight Thursday morning. The vessel lost her mainmast and foremast and ran ashore on the cliff at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning. William Ross jumped ashore and the captain then a line to him. By this means the rest of the crew got ashore and three passengers were saved. Mrs. Freeman and Miss Caroline Higgins were drowned and five children were also lost, one being Mrs. Freeman's infant, another child coming to St. Johns and the remaining three belonging to Mrs. Rachel Burton—a boy of 12 years, a boy of 9 and a girl of 5 years.

CRUELLY MURDERED.

A New Hampshire Girl Dragged from Her Mother's Arms and Shot by a Crazy Assassin. HANOVER, N. H., July 20.—As Miss Christie Warden, accompanied by her mother and her sister Fannie and Louise Goodell, were returning on foot to their home, located 1 mile from the village at a late hour Friday night, Frank Almy, about 20 years of age, jumped into the road in front of them, seizing Christie by the arm, said: "I want you." The mother and sister attempted to defend her. Almy fired at them, but missed. They ran for assistance. Then Almy dragged his victim to the bushes on the road and shot her twice through the head, one shot tearing out her left eye. When help arrived the girl was dead and her body was stripped of nearly every article of clothing. Almy had fled. Miss Warden was a beautiful and most estimable young woman about 25 years old, a graduate of the State Normal school, and a popular teacher. Almy was a former employe of her father, and his attention to Miss Christie had been repulsed. She was the daughter of Andrew A. Warden, a wealthy farmer and leading citizen. The father of the murdered girl offers a reward of $500 for the capture of the murderer.

ELVEN KILLED.

Distressing Railway Accident at Manchester—Eleven Men Killed. LIVERPOOL, July 20.—A terrible accident occurred along the line of the Manchester ship canal. A train passing along the railroad running near the canal fell over the latter's embankment near this city, killing eleven men who were working under the heading. In addition to the men killed, many other workmen were injured. The accident was due to the fact that the pointsman, a boy 17 years of age, mistook the points and turned a railroad train, consisting of twenty-two wagons loaded with ballast, into a siding leading into a cutting. The train then crashed into a slight buffer at the end of the cutting and toppled over upon the men at work below the embankment. The bodies of the men killed were horribly mutilated. The boy pointsman ran away when he saw the accident which was due to his mistake. The lad was captured later in the day and was charged with manslaughter.
