EDWARD B. GILES, of London, the editor of the West End Gazette, as the guest of the banquet given by the association of Master Tailors and Custom Cutters made some very sensible and telling remarks on that occasion. One was particularly pertinent. "Fashion should be based upon common sense and adapted to the climate of the country and the habits of its people. None but Americans should originate garments suitable for Americans." This fits Americans who return from abroad in the universal misfit suits.

It is reported that the cabs of Paris are to be fitted with slot machines, enabling the passenger who drops in ten centimes to obtain an insurance policy available for the time during which the the cab has been hired. If the passenger is killed his heirs get 5,000 francs; should be absolutely incapacitated by accident, 1,500 francs; or if the injury is just sufficiently severe to keep the rider from work for a month he receives 500 francs. "There's millions in it" for the genius who will so modify this scheme that it will insure immunity from extortionate charges on the part of the cab driver.

WHAT an unconscious contrast is presented in the news dispatches; in one place chronicling the bountiful harvests of western America, which are fairly bursting granary doors, and in another telling, for example, how in the Russian province of Volga women and children wander exhausted about the market places, crying for food. But while with true Yankee susceptibility to distress wherever encountered Americans sympathize with stricken Europe they cannot forget their own good fortune, which will enable them not only to be prosperous beyond expectation, but also to be generous.

PENSIONS AND LANDS.

Extracts from the Reports of the Com-missioners of These Important But of Commissioner Raum, of the report of Commis retary of the interior, shows that on June 80, 1891, there were 676,160 pen-sioners borne on the rolls of the oureau, being 138,216 more than were carried on the rolls at the close of the last fiscal year. They are classified as follows: Widows and daughters of revolutionary soldiers, twenty-three; army invalid pensioners, 413,597; army widows, minor children, etc., 108,587; navy invalid pensioners, 5,449; navy widows, minor children, etc., 2,568, survivors of the war of 1812, 7,590 survivors of the Mexican war, 16,379; widows of soldiers of the Mexican war,

The aggregate annual value of the 676,160 pensions on the roll June 30, 1891, was $89,247,200 and the average annual value of each pension was $139.99 and the average annual value of each pension under the act of June 27. At the close of the fiscal year there were 38,574 pensioners on the roll who remained unpaid for the want of time and who were entitled to receive $4,883,242, which will be paid out of the appropriation for the current fiscal year; and there remained at the close of the fiscal year in the hands of the several pension agents the sum of $5,713,852.84, which has since been covered into the treasury. This amount added to $3,607.-183.22 of the pension appropriation not drawn from the treasury aggregates $9,320,986.06 of the appropriation which was not expended. There will be a building at Savannah, Ga., causing a deficiency in the appropriation for the payment of fees and expenses of examining surgeons of about $300,000.

> The total amount disbursed on ac count of pensions, expenses, etc., during the fiscal year was $118,548,959.71, as compared with $106,492,890.19 disbursed during the preceding fiscal year; so that it appears that 138,216 pensioners were added to the rolls during the fiscal year just closed, at an icreased cost to the nation of $12,-055,069 as compared with the expenditures for the previous fiscal year, and said expenditure includes $4,357,347 paid upon vouchers remaining unpaid at the close of the year.

> The loss to the pension rolls by the death of widows and dependent mothers and fathers was at the rate of 35 per 1,000 in 1891. It is estimated that of the soldiers who served the country during the late war 1,004,658 were killed in battle or died during and since the war. On June 30 last 124,750 of these deceased soldiers were represented on the pension rolls by their widows or other dependents. There are about 1,208,707 soldiers of the union now living, and 688,549 survivors who are not pensioned and 879,-908 deceased soldiers not represented on the pension rolls.

The commissioner says that on an average about 30,000 pension certificates are being issued each month, and that during the current year he expects that as many as 350,000 claims will be adjudicated, for which he believes the present appropriation of $133,473,085 will be sufficient WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.-Land Commissioner Carter has given out a report from which is taken the following, showing the vacant public lands in each of the public land states and ter-*Alabama, 947,310; Arizona, 55,061,005; Arkan

Total, 579,664,

Patents issued during the years 1890 and 1891 were: Preemption, 149,515; homesteads, 75,545; timber culture, 5,-346; military bounty land, 723; agricultural college scrip, 32; miscellaneous scrip, 446; mineral, 3,199; coal, 450.

The total number of agricultural patents issued during 1886-'87 was 44. 443, against a total of 231,607 during the years 1890 and 1891, an increase of 187,164 patents. The increase in the number of mineral patents issued was 967 and of coal patents 382.

The number of acres of public lands disposed of during the year shows that the cash sales amounted to 2,143,090 acres. Of the miscellaneous entries (not cash) 5.040,393 acres were homesteaded; 939,006 acres were entered under the timber culture law. The railroad selections amounted to 1.857,579 acres; the state selections to 174,404 acres; the Indian allotments to 117,485. and the original swamp selections to 23,167 acres. Total cash receipts during the year $5,429,220. Filings during the year 20,241, the fees on which amounted to $77,069.

Latest Granger Organization. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 26.-The Na tional Woman's Alliance is the latest figure in the people's movement. Articles of incorporation were filed here Wednesday, and the charter list includes the names of the wives of the Kansas congressional dele gation. Mrs. Senator Peffer heads the list, and Mesdames Jerry Simpson, William Baker, John G. Otis and Ben Clever are also charter members. The object of the association is to establish a bureau for the better education of the women in economic, social and political question.

Rain Checks the Fires.

ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 26.—Specials from ten different towns of northern Wisconsin say that the rain Thursday night checked the forest fires. Drummond had a close shave and hundreds of men were fighting the fire at one time. Thursday night the weather turned off cool and clear, and for the first time in a week it was possible to see across the bay. The damage will not be as heavy as at first reported, a most of the fires were confined to districts burned over last spring. West of Hayward there were several heavy particularly noticeable in the central portion of the city and in the north and west ends. On West Pine street it was noticed that the shock lasted two minutes. Its greatest force was reached during the first minute, after which it became less and less notice able until it died out. It is said that the shock felt, here was similar to that experienced on the night of the Charleston disaster. It seemed to move from south to north.

Buildings facing the north and south were visibly affected by the shock. Watchmen in several high buildings say they became alarmed and made all haste to reach the ground. At one newspaper office the compositors, who were on the fifth floor, left their cases and rushed panie-stricken down the stairways into the streets. Throughout the whole city the police report that the people rushed from their homes in great alarm. No serious damage has been reported as yet. At East St. Louis the shock was dis-tinetly felt. Many people were aroused from their slumbers and in a few moments the streets were filled with people. No damage has as yet been reported, but the whole city felt the quaking of the earth. At Gillespie, Ill., the shock was felt very distinctly. The wave was from the southeast to northwest. At Decatur, Ill., the vibration was from east to west and lasted several seconds. It shook doors and windows all over town and awoke people who had already retired. No damage resulted, but a great many people were badly frightened. At Greenville, Ill., the shock was so violent in its nature as to cause brick buildings to tremble. A large proportion of the inhabitants were aroused from their slumbers. The shock lasted fully a minute. At Xenia, Ill., brick houses swayed on their foundations, while frame dwellings rocked to and fro. Plaster was knocked from the ceilings and vases and pictures were thrown from the walls. CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Saturday night's earthquake shock was felt in this city. While the shock was not severe, it was noticeable in different sections of the city. Other Illinois points where it was felt were Galesburg, Vandalia, Albion, Sullivan, Pittsfield, Hoopeston, Moweaqua, Mattoon, Paris, Nashville, Hillsboro, Shelbyville, Virginia and War-INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 28.-Indianapolis was visited by a distinct shock of earthquake Saturday night. The phenomenon occurred about ten minutes before 11 o'clock. Reports as to its duration differ, but from the best information that can be gathered it lasted about eight seconds. In the Journal office building the shock was perceptible. The operator at New Palestine, 15 miles out on the Cincinnati, Hamilton there was of such force as to rattle windows and set chairs to rocking. The people were greatly frightened, but were reassured when it became evident that the disturbance was only tem-

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 28. - An earthquake shock that lasted about thirty seconds was felt here about 10:50 o'clock Saturday night. Buildings rocked, glassware and crockery were shaken from the shelves, and persons asleep were awakened by the rumbling noise. Unfortunately the seismiscope at the Rose Polytechnic institute, one of the two in this country, was not in readiness for this earthquake, and no measurement is obtainable. The people who felt the shock and were able to distinguish the direction say it was from the southwest to the northeast and lasted fully thirty seconds. Many persons were nauseated by the undulations. VINCENNES, Ind., Sept. 28.-A very perceptible earthquake was felt here at 11 o'clock Saturday night and people in the hotels and saloons rushed into the streets much alarmed, and persons were aroused from their slumbers. Buildings vibrated and windows rattled and continued fully thirty seconds. The shake was felt at Evansville, Olney, Washington and various places in this neighborhood. The freight depot rocked to and fro so plainly that the men rushed from the building. No damage is reported.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 28.-Louisville had a good shaking Saturday night. A severe earthquake shock was felt at 10:53, and, although no serious damage was done, it caused considerable excitement all over the city. The bell in the city hall tower was rung by the vibrations of the building and the watchman in the tower thougt his last hour had come. At the Galt house and other hotels the bells were rung, waterpitchers were overturned in the upper stories and guests came hurrying downstairs in a panic, it requiring much persussion to induce the more timid to return to their quarters. Several drug stores suffered a slight loss from drugs. In the residence part of the city the shock caused much alarm, the people rushing into the street.

KEOKIK, Ia., Sept. 28.-Three distinct shocks of earthquake were felt in this city about 11 o'clock Saturday night. The damage done in this city and the surrounding country was not serious, so far as learned.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—With a concus sion that broke the glass in windows for blocks and that lifted a street car from the tracks, 100 pounds of dynamite exploded Sunday afternoon. The accident occurred at Thirty-fifth and Iron streets, where work is in progress for the Thirtyfifth street tunnel. Though the explosion was so great as to damage buildings a considerable distance away, half a dozen men who were at work within a few feet of the dynamite at the time escaped uninjured. What caused the explosion is a mystery.

D., and Else St. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 28.—Dis-atches from Carleton, Milaca, Hinckey and Pine City state it has been raining at all those points for the last eighteen hours and that the forest fires are everywhere under control. There has never before been a fire of the magnitude of this one in this region. The whole country has been swept by the flames, and everything has been burned outside of the towns, except that a few lumber camps were, by great exertion, saved. Thousands of tons of hay have been cut on the lowlands about the lakes and this is all destroyed. For miles and miles on every side there is nothing but a blackened waste.

A dispatch from Williamsport, N. D., the county seat of Emmons county, says the property loss there has been somewhat exaggerated, but will reach $100,000. Three persons were burned to death in that county-Henry Tabor, living near Williamsport, and George W. and Clyde C. Johnson, farmers living near Beaver Creek. A report from the Holland settlement on the Missouri, north of Bismarck, says three farm hands were burned there. The loss at that point is about $50,000. Whole herds of cattle hemmed in by the awful conflagration were burned to death. The prairies are strewn with carcasses. Hundreds of families are homeless and penniless, and in many instances they had to flee from their abodes with only the clothes on their backs. There is certain to be great suffering this winter unless assistance comes to them from outside sources. The fire which started this great conflagration was set by a thrashing machine.

TURTLE LAKE, Minn., Sept. 28 .-Word has reached this village that the family of Mr. Nesse, a farmer living a short distance out of town, consisting of himself, his wife and several small children, were hemmed in by the flames and no doubt burned to death, as no help could reach them.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Sept. 28. -Reports from the east fork say that forest fires are raging in that vicinity. Lumbering camps, timber and hay are being reduced to ashes, and even the flooding dams on the streams are not spared by the raging flames. Bears, deer and all manner of small game are seeking the streams for a place of safety. In this vicinity fires are raging on every side and a large amount of property has been destroyed.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Sept. 28 .-Forest fires are raging all over Chippewa county and the air in this city is thick with smoke. Considerable timber land, barns containing summer crops, stock, etc., have been burned. Whole villages have been burned.

Dr. Burchard was present at a reception to Mr. Blaine, then republican candidate for president, tendered at the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York by several hundred ministers of various denominations. Dr. Burchard was there and had been chosen to address Mr. Blaine in behalf of the clergy, who gathered in the grand corridor of the hotel on the second floor. Mr. Blaine was escorted from his rooms on the third floor down the staircase in full view of the clergymen and others who had gathered to greet him. Pausing on the staircase a half dozen steps above the corridor floor where the throng was,

Mr. Blaine stood and waited the address of welcome. Dr. Burchard left his colleagues and ascended the staircase to the second step below Mr. Blaine. Then Dr. Burchard spoke, and as he neared the close of an address of affectionate regard and esteem for Mr. Blaine he used practically these words: "And we admire and we welcome you, Mr. Blaine, as a steadfast opponent of rum, Romanism and rebellion." The tornodo struck Beltrami county and passed in a northwesterly direction into Itasca county, spending its force near the Manitoba line. It is estimated that 150,000,000 feet of timber was destroyed. The country was sparsely settled with woodsmen and it will not be known for several days whether or not any of them were killed.

the fact that the coinage of silver dollars was by law stopped July 1 (except that of the trade dollar bullion, about $5,000,000 in all, which is now in progress), the shipment from the mints of standard silver dollars now depends almost entirely on the amount of silver certificates of treasury notes presented for redemption. I hear far voices, sweet as flutes, somewhere, Calling me into the darkness, and I know Their soft insidious languor on the air Comes from the land of burial, damp and low.

Blow on me, oh, thou current of sweet youth! Come back dear days of boyhood and bright arise again, thou white, clear bloom of truth; Babble once more, oh, careless morning

Kiss me, warm lips of purity and love; Sing to me, lasses from the meadow lands; Bind me with blossoms from the sacred grove Wherein the temple of my childhood stands.

Lo! I am sick to death of manhood's ways, And long to be a fighting man no more; No more for me the clanging iron days; So let me live my happy Maytime o'er.

FOOLISH FRANK.

Billings' Prediction Proves Correct in an Unpleasant Way.

Salamander City was a mining camp nestling in a little valley in southern New Mexico. This camp, like the ma-jority of camps of the kind, was made up of men of all classes, kinds and nationalities. There were good men, bad men and men of indifferent character in the camp, but if there was any dif-ference the bad men predominated. So it will be seen that the camp would not be easily surprised, no difference how old, how unique the specimen of humanity might be who dropped in upon

But one day a newcomer put in an appearance whose like the citizens of Salamander City had never seen before. He had every appearance of an idiot, being wild eyed, long haired and crazy looking. He had a peculiar way of dodging every once in awhile, just as if he thought some one were striking at him. He was almost starved when he appeared in the camp, and it took several days to get his hunger appeased, the miners giving him only such scraps as they did not want themselves. When asked his name he answered "Frank," but to all other questioning he returned no answer, and the miners quickly placed the word "foolish" before his name, and as "Foolish Frank" he was known.

He took up his abode in an empty cabin, and here he lived, the citizens of the camp coming presently to look upon him as a permanent fixture. But while the citizens looked woon

Foolish Frank as a simple, harmless fellow as a whole, there was at least one among them who thought differently. This was Mark Billings, a big, burly, savage-looking fellow, half miner, half Foolish Frank was not what he seemed. with an air of conviction; "that fellow sn't what he seems. Thar's something wrong with him, and I'll bet my hat

"Yes-he's foolish," laughed a miner. "Maybe he is, and maybe he isn't," said Billings, doggedly; "just you fellows wait and see if somethin' don't happen around here before long!"

"We'll wait," said the miners, and nothing more was thought of the matter until about a week later, when the camp was thrown into a state of excitement by a robbery. The partners of the Gold-bug mine had been robbed of about three hundred dollars' worth of dust, savings of the past two months. The miners were wild with rage. Woe to the thief, should they succeed in laying hands upon him! It was now that Mark Billings' words of suspicion bered, and many were the dark looks of his having had anything to do with features of all the trades and industries the robbery, however, and he was not of Switzerland.-Chicago Times.

and they lost no time in hunting Foolish Frank up. They found him sound asleep in his cabin, and when three or four of the miners yanked him out of his bunk and appeared with him before the crowd outside he simply winked and blinked like an owl suddenly transferred from darkness to light, but he said never a word. He did not seem to be surprised or frightened, and if he was other han he seemed he was certainly a good

"Yes, and you are my prisoner!"
With the words Foolish Frank whipped out a pair of revolvers and covered the big miner gambler, the thing being done in the twinkling of an eye almost. For a moment the miners stood staring in open-mouthed astonishment. Then, thinking that one of their number was menaced by one of their number was menaced by one who was a robber, several of them aade motions toward drawing weapons.

"Hold!" cried Foolish Frank. "Don't nake any breaks, men of Salamander City. This fellow whom you know as Mark Billings, is Colorado Carl, a noted desperado, road-agent and all-around crook. He is the man who robbed you of your dust, and no doubt you will find what has been stolen, in his cabin, if you look for it. I am Bob Ferret, a Denver detective, and he is wanted there for robbing a bank. I have been on his trail for two months, and now have you, Colorado Cari!" he finished up, addressing the baffled desperado, and he quickly handcuffed his prisoner, who submitted sullenly to the in-

"You rather overreached yourself by trying to throw suspicions on me, laughed the detective. "I reckon if you had known who I was, you wouldn't have tried it!"

The stolen dust was found in the cabin the desperado had occupied as Mark Billings, and the miners wanted to hang the thief, but Ferret said no. "I've been after him two months. boys," the detective said; 'he's my prisoner, and I'm going to take him to Denver to answer for his crime of bank robbing."

And he did. The next stage carried the detective and his prisoner out of the camp, and Salamander City never saw either of them again.

"Billings war right," said a miner, as the crowd stood looking after the stage; "he said that Foolish Frank warn't what he seemed, an' he warn't!"-S. A. D. Cox, in Yankee Blade.

HISTORICAL PROCESSION.

Picturesque Feature of a Recent Celebration in Switzerland. The historical procession, which was the great feature of the recent celebration of the seventh centenary of Berne. was a spectacle of uncommon magnificence and picturesqueness. No less than twelve hundred persons in costume took part in it. At the head was some red dragoons in the eighteenth century costume, followed by an allegorical group representing Bernese history, art and science, surrounded by pages in the sixteenth century costume. Then came the Zahringen group, including Duke Berchtold V. and his spouse, attended by knights of St. John. The thirteenth century was illustrated by the Savoyard protectorate of Berne, with Duke Peter, the Petit Charlemagne, and Heinrich von Strattlingen, the poet of love, and the Mingambler, who gave it as his belief that Swiss archers. At the head of the nesingers, attended by a company of "You can't fool me!" he declared. group representing the fourteenth centresses of Berne, followed by the chief characters of the battle of Laupen and of the entry of Berne into the confederation. The entry of Sigismund into Berne was the chief subject of the fifteenth century. The king was gorgeous in red velvet and ermine. He rode under a canopy of cloth of gold, and was surrounded by the members of his court in magnificent costumes of the period. These were followed by heroes of the Swiss-Bergundian wars. "Well, it's about Jones-you know him-Andrew Jones, the grocer." "Yes—the one who is so profane." "Just so. Well, he went to the telephone one day when he was awfully mad and called up a customer who owed him a bill. The customer gave him some impudence, and the way Jones talked to him was terrible. Some of the bystanders in there trading were afraid of a judgment on him. His language was simply dreadful. But you've heard it, haven't you?"

"Well, if you'd been at the telephone

you would."

TRIPLE MURDER.

Three Indians Found Dead in their Cabins Near Bay Port.

A terrible triple murder took place at Bay Port in which three Indians—John, Dan and Bill Squanos—were killed The men were in a saloon where they got into a quarrel with Charles Atherton. A man named Bradshaw was also mixed up in the affair. The latter struck John Squanos on the head, crushing his skull. The other Indians in company with Atherton started for their cabins, a mile distant, and their dead bodies were found in their homes.

Health in Michigan. Reports to the state board of health by sixty-eight observers in different parts of the state for the week ended

September 19 indicated that typhoid fever, inflammation of the brain, cerebro-spinal meningitis and measles increased, and typhod-malarial fever, cholera morbus and scarlet fever decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at thirty-three places, scarlet fever at twenty-seven places, typhoid fever at sixty-eight and measles at nine places.

Hasn't a Hair on Its Body.

There was on exhibition at Menominee a remarkable freak in the shape of a hairless horse. The beast is 6 years old and hasn't the sign of a hair on its body. The horse is splendidly built and was foaled on the farm of a Belgian near Sturgeon Bay, Wis. For several years after its birth crops failed in the vicinity and the superstitions foreigners concluded that the hairless horse was a "Hoodoo." Menominee parties obtained it for $40 and have been offered $5,000.

A Michigan Skunk Farm. A skunk farm has just come to light in Jackson county. The gentleman who runs the skunkery is T. P. Vining, of Columbia township. He says that it it is easier, pays better and is pleasanter than plowing. The skunkateer has started breeding with five female skunks. He figures that by the old problem, relative to the nails in the horseshoe, he will have in five years 10,239 skunks, whose skins will be worth to him $17,958.25.

Crawled Into a Tree and Died. A party of hunters discovered the badly decomposed body of a man hidden in the hollow of a fallen tree on Elander Macle's farm, near Woodmer cemetery. Beside the body lay a five-chamber revolver, containing four exploded shells. The corpse was clad in a light colored coat and vest and striped pantaloons. A slouch hat was crushed down over his head. A pair of kid gloves, a pipe and some tobacco were in the pockets.

Three Miners Killed. Peter Folleste, John Gilbert and Eric Jarvoia were taking down two pillars of ore directly over the mouth of No. 6 shaft at the Republic mine near Marquette when the ground gave way beneath them and they went headlong down the shaft. Another fall of ground from the foot wall covered the shaft again. It would be weeks before the bodies could be recovered as this shaft was a wreck from the recent fire.

Breaking Colts.

In the education of a colt a man requires absolute control of his temper. A colt is willing at all times to do just what you want him to do, if he only knows what it is, and it takes pataience to show him what is wanted. If the handler loses his temper and uses harsh language of the whip the colt will remember it to his disadvantage for months. Be firm, but not harsh; put on the harness, check him up loosely and let him stand for an hour or two; after repeating this four or five times drive him into the yard for thirty minutes; always pet him after each effort. In the course of a week or so when hitched up he will walk off like an old broken horse.

In the education of the colt, or the aged horse, the principle to persue is short, sharp spurts to make speednever over fifty yards from the first then pull him up, let him blow out, and then another effort, and in time extend the distance to half a mile. This makes muscles and stay-Most Beautifully and Artistically Designed ing qualities better than if you jogged them ten miles at a four minute

Farmers Should Study.

It is a fact that cannot be disputed that furniers do not exercise their wits sufficiently in considering how they may widen the range of their business. If they confine themselves to raising corn and wheat, and pork and beef, their market will always be a narrow one. If they would exercise their ingenuity in the same way that manufacturers and other business men are constantly doing, in an effort to get up a greater diversity of products, or to put old products up in new ways, they could widen their Entries are already coming in insuring the market almost indefinitely.

Farm Fagots.

Trying to grow a crop on impoverished land is like trying to make something out of nothing. .

Hay grown in a dry season conains a larger per cent of nutrition than that grown in a wet one. Improved stock, improved men and women and improved everything else are called for in this age.
