The Christmas festival of the young people of St. Mary's church was a decided success. After failures covering a period of more than 20 years the proposition to hold a constitutional convention has carried by 60 majority. Some of the important changes proposed relate to the salaries of state officers.
Reader, when you are preparing to come to town to do some trading, just pick up this paper, glance at the advertising columns and see who wants your trade. We'll guarantee that if you trade with a firm that recognizes the local paper as an incentive to their business, they will save the price of the paper on every ten dollar's worth of goods you buy of them. The firm that advertises certainly has inducements to offer you, or they would not ask you to call and see them before buying.
It is remarked by almost the entire adult population, that this looks like good old-fashioned weather. In fact it is. It isn't often in these degenerated days that we get snow enough for good sleighing. Nevertheless, every one is glad to see the snow, on general principles. It looks reasonable. The weather is trying to keep up with the Almanac. Winter-without-snow is like a flower without odor—something incomplete and unsatisfactory. There are some to whom snow and cold bring only an access of misery, but thank Heaven they are fewer in this prosperous country than elsewhere.
John M. Barchard, a pioneer of Michigan, died at his residence in this village, Dec. 29, 1892. He was born in Schoharie Co., N. Y., in 1816, and came to Michigan in 1834. In 1846 he was united in marriage with Ann M. Glover. By her death a little more than a year ago he was deprived of his dearest earthly companionship.
His home was on his farm in the western part of the town of Sylvan for many years, until recently, when he came to this village to live. He was a man of sturdy manhood, in good repute among his neighbors, and a member of the Methodist church. The funeral was held at his late home on Saturday, and the remains were placed in Sylvan Center Cemetery.

Nothing is more sinned against to-day than the use of scents, writes Mrs. Burton Harrison in the December Ladies' Home Journal. To the many people to whom any strong odor is distressing, the present reign of scent bags in the garments of women who frequent public places and public conveyances is intolerable. It is only the faintest suggestion of a refined perfume that should ever be allowed to hang over for a moment about the belongings of a well-bred girl; and even such a casual use of the merest whiff of the dainty and impalpable essence should be rare; to wear any redolence upon her person in sachets is unpardonable.

Good Java Coffee 19c per lb.

And should pay the price of other dealers for them he would not feel so happy. Always trust to the price-list on last page for the bottom price of goods.

CANNIBALISM is still practiced in fourteen places in the world, and it is said that the taste of the cannibals have not changed in the slightest. Cold missionaries are still prime favorites.

CALIFORNIA at the November election cast 157,938 votes for the proposition to elect United States senators by a direct vote of the people, and 14,243 against it. An educational qualification for voters was favored by 151,820 and opposed by 41,058.

A CORRESPONDENT asks: "For commercial purposes what constitutes the Pacific coast territory?" It consists of the states of California, Oregon and Washington bordering on the Pacific ocean, and Idaho and Nevada and the territory of Arizona, which in business are tributary to them.

MARY M. ANDERSON, who was a few years ago granted a separation from her husband, Louis C. Anderson, of Seattle, has sued him for $25,000 damages on the ground of breach of promise. She avers that he courted her again a year ago, recaptured her heart, and promised to marry her, but has since married some one else. A rather unique case.

ACCORDING to Aristophanes the qualifications of a demagogue are a vile voice, low birth and ill breeding. Then all a man has to do is to "mangle and mash everything, and flavor and spice to suit the people's taste." In these days the most successful demagogue must have a soft voice, good birth and gentle breeding. He must coddle and not mangle, and substitute mush for meat. As for the flavoring the recipe still stands.

THE severity of British justice was well illustrated at Northampton recently, where a trial for murder was in progress. The jury having been permitted to partake of a lunch in their room, one of their number profited by the opportunity to step out of doors and post a letter. The judge, to whom this act was reported, promptly gave the offending juror a sharp lecture and fined him $250. He dismissed the jury and a new one was impaneled.

WHEN he is inaugurated next March Mr. Cleveland will lack but a few days of being 56 years old, which is precisely the average age of presidents on their accession. The oldest president was William Henry Harrison, who was 68; Buchanan was 62; Taylor, 63; Jackson and Adams, 62; Monroe, 59; Jefferson, Madison and J. Q. Adams, 58; Benjamin Harrison, 57; Hayes, 54; Lincoln, 53; Tyler and Arthur, 51; Polk and Fillmore, 50; Garfield and Pierce, 49; Cleveland, 48, and Grant, the youngest president, 47.

J. S. PIZA, of Piza & Nephews, New York, has beaten time and the White Star line in a remarkable race. Missing the Dublin mail train for Queenstown he hired a special and traveled the one hundred and eighty miles in two hundred minutes, thus eclipsing the fastest long-distance time in England. The Teutonic was starting when he reached Queenstown. He chased it in a special steamer, telegraphed far ahead, caught the liner and got aboard with bag and baggage while all the passengers cheered.

THERE is getting to be too much foolishness about the courts, anyway, says the Kansas City Star. Smart lawyers are continually taking advantage of the law to shield open violators of the law, and judges permit it. A lot of sensible men who don't know a mandamus from a nebular hypothesis should be elected as judges, with instructions to laugh at the slystering practitioners where they try to shield "well-known criminals." A little more justice and a little less law is needed in the criminal courts of the country.

RICH gold placers are said to have been found in southern Utah, 150 miles from Durango, Col. Of course "great excitement" is being created in the region—"nothing like it since 1849," it is reported. The discovery was made a year ago but kept a secret until preparations could be effected for working the find. Should the fields prove as rich as reported the effect, says the Chicago Journal, would be marked upon business, and perhaps upon the monetary question. The chances are, however, that the "richness" is overdrawn, and was kept secret while capitalists were being "worked."

THE railroad construction for 1892 in the United States is footed up as 4,023 miles, which is about 10 per cent. less than the total for 1891. The course of railroad building shows that at any time within the last quarter of a century the work has proceeded fully as fast as wanted by the people, and in many cases has gone ahead of the demand. A total of 289 lines were built, the average length being but fourteen miles. The railroad mileage of the United States now foots up 174,068 miles, 53,000 miles of which have been added in the last ten years, and 104,000 in the last twenty years.

GEN. DYRENFURTH shook down precious little rain with his dynamite, rattle and other impulsive lies, but he stirred up the native population of Texas after a most astounding manner. His big hydrogen gas tank sprang a leak one night and the next morning a wagon load of paralyzed rattlesnakes was picked up in the neighborhood of the camp and not a jack rabbit has been seen in that vicinity since. Experimental explosions near the earth's surface killed rattlesnakes, rabbits and lizards by thousands. If Gen. Dyrenfurth can't fetch rain he might be of service as a national snake destroyer.

PROF. C. A. S. A. Briggs has been acquitted by the New York presbytery of the charge of heresy.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR.

Trade Has Followed the Lines of an Enlarging Prosperity.—The Most Prosperous Year Ever Known.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The most prosperous year ever known in business closes to-day with strongly favorable indications for the future.

WHOLESALE trade is not usually so active as the year closes, but in 1892 it was remarkably so. Settlements through clearing houses outside New York in December were approximately the largest ever made in any month, and for the year by more than 10 per cent. longer than last year, and the largest ever known. Railroad earnings in December show an increase of about 3 per cent. over last year, and for the year an increase of about 5 1/2 per cent.

FOREIGN trade has been smaller than last year in volume of exports—New York $7,800,000 in value for the last four weeks, and at cotton ports about $10,000,000 less—but in value of imports has been larger, and the month still shows a great excess of exports. For the year the excess of merchandise exports has been the largest in the largest total of exports and imports ever known in any year.

THE year closes with all woolen, cotton and silk fabrics employed, and unsold stocks of goods much lighter than usual, while the demand for the coming season already exceeds the capacity of many mills. Sales of wool and dry goods extracted lines, especially in heavy dry goods, holiday trade was very good at Milwaukee. At St. Louis retail trade was unusually strong. Business at St. Paul, except in the woolen goods line, is bright, though lack of water restricts the flour output. The lumber trade is most prosperous. Business at Omaha and at Kansas City is satisfactory. At Nashville, Memphis and at New Orleans trade is especially in sugar.

IN iron the trade is weaker, the demand for finished products being at present light. But in average price there has been a decline, and sales of iron ore remain in excess. Business has been restricted in purchases of rails and supplies. But for the last week stocks have been stronger, gaining about 12 per share in average price. Speculation in iron ore has been comparatively inactive, though wheat has been advanced by a western pool nearly two cents.

COTTON has been steady and strong, with diminished stocks. The year 1892 was remarkable for fewer failures than have occurred in any other year since 1866, the numbers reported being 104, or 2.29 per cent. of the total number of firms failing was but $11,000,000 in 1892, against $199,000,000 in 1891 and about the same in 1890.

THE average liabilities of firms failing in 1892 has been only $11,000, the lowest average reported since 1878.

IN 1892 only one of every 113 traders failed, against one in every thirty-three in 1891, and one in every 102 in 1890.

HANGED.

Execution of A. J. Hudspeth at Harrison, Ark., for the Murder of a Man Whose Body Was Never Found.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 31.—A. J. Hudspeth was executed at Harrison, Ark., Friday for the murder of George Watkins in 1887. Hudspeth was hanged for the murder of a man whose body was never found. The murderer worked for Watkins on a farm in Marion county. One morning in the spring of 1887 Hudspeth and Watkins went to town. Since that morning Watkins has never been seen. Hudspeth was arrested on suspicion of murder. Mrs. Watkins was afterwards incarcerated charged with being an accessory to the taking off of her husband. She was taken fatally ill, but before dying confessed that Hudspeth killed her husband to get him out of the way so he could marry her. Hudspeth was sentenced to be hanged. The case has been appealed and retried, two respites have been granted, and the fate of execution changed three times, but all efforts to save the murderer failed. Traces of blood in the wagon and a bloody hatchet found in the wagon bed were the only evidences of foul play other than the strange disappearance of Watkins, aside from the wife's testimony.

UNDER ARREST.

WARRANTS issued for Iron Hall Officials in Pennsylvania—Against Extradition.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.—Joseph Gladding, C. H. Baker and J. P. Eckersley, the Iron Hall officials who were indicted in Indianapolis for taking $200,000 of the order of funds, were arrested here Friday evening on a warrant sworn out by State Bank Examiner Krumboltz. The arrest was made at the instance of District Attorney Graham, who is also receiver for the local branch of the Iron Hall, to prevent Baker, Eckersley and Gladding from being taken to Indianapolis on the warrants issued for them there. Baker and Eckersley gave bail in the sum of $5,000 for a hearing.

PROF. BRIGGS WINS.

The New York Presbytery Votes Against Sustaining the Charges of His Prosecutors.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The session of the New York presbytery, which is sitting as a court on the trial of Prof. Briggs, was begun promptly at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Each member was allowed three minutes in which to express his views.

THE voting on the first charge was begun at 4 o'clock and the vote on the sixth charge was completed and the presbytery adjourned shortly before 6 o'clock. The result of the several ballots was then announced to the reporters. The result was a great surprise, for on all of the six counts the vote was adverse to sustaining the charges.

ON the first charge, accusing Prof. Briggs of teaching that the reason is a source of Divine authority, the vote was as follows: To sustain the charge, 68; against sustaining the charge, 68.

ON the second charge, which accuses Prof. Briggs with charging that the church is a source of Divine authority, there were 55 votes in favor of sustaining the charge and 71 against.

THE closest vote was on the third charge, that Prof. Briggs taught that the Scriptures contained errors of history and fact. On this charge the vote was as follows: To sustain the charge, 61; against, 68.

AFTER this vote had been taken two or three of the anti-Briggs men left the court and others refrained from voting on the last three charges.

ON the fourth charge, accusing Prof. Briggs with teaching that Moses was not the author of the pentateuch, the result was: To sustain the charge, 58; against, 72.

THE vote on the fifth charge, accusing Prof. Briggs with teaching that Isaiah did not write many of the chapters in the book bearing his name was: In favor of sustaining the charge, 49; against, 70.

THE vote on the sixth charge, accusing Prof. Briggs of teaching that sanctification is progressive after death, was as follows: To sustain the charge, 57; against, 69.

THE case will be appealed to the general assembly, which will meet in Washington early in the spring. The assembly will appoint a commission consisting of fourteen unprejudiced members to act on the appeal.

THE friends of Dr. Briggs were greatly pleased with the result. They had calculated on a majority ranging from four to six.

THE movement against Dr. Briggs practically took its rise in 1891, when he was given the Edward Robinson chair of biblical theology in the Union theological seminary. The alleged heretical doctrines he was accused of giving utterance to were culled from his inaugural address on that occasion. His address was severely criticized by many Presbyterian ministers in New York and by numerous others attached to outside presbyteries. Better articles scoring him for the views expressed were printed in religious journals. Demands were also made upon the New York presbytery that summary measures of discipline be taken in Briggs' case.

THE friends of Dr. Briggs claimed that the real motive of the attack on him was to stop the movement in favor of the revision of the creed. He had been the champion of the revision of the revolutionists in the previous general assembly. The anti-revisionists, it was claimed, thought that if they could get him turned out of the seminary and out of the church they could make an example of him that would scare others who held the same views and kill revision at one blow. The New York presbytery, however, declared that Dr. Briggs should be tried for heresy, and a committee was appointed to prepare formal charges.

THE directors of the Union theological seminary propounded questions to Dr. Briggs which he answered to their satisfaction on May 30, 1891, and they decided to stand by him. The presence of the charges was made to June, 1891. At the meeting of the general assembly, held in Detroit, Mich., May 27, 1891, the committee on theological seminaries, to which the whole matter had been referred, presented its report concerning Dr. Briggs and advising that his appointment to the chair of biblical theology in Union theological seminary be discontinued. After two lengthy conferences by the committee of fifteen, appointed by the Presbytery general assembly of Detroit and the directors of the seminary as to the removal of Dr. Briggs from his chair, they reported that they had come to no satisfactory understanding.

DR. Briggs was arraigned before the New York presbytery November 15, 1891, and it was voted to dismiss the charges against him without trial.

His prosecutors appealed from this decision to the next meeting of the general assembly at Portland, Ore., May 30, 1892. Dr. Briggs argued his case but the case was sent back to the presbytery for trial.

A. H. Fairchild Killed by a Dynamite Explosion in Thirty-Five Feet of Water.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—A. H. Fairchild, one of the most skillful marine divers in the country, met a peculiar death in 35 feet of water at the end of the Inman line pier in the North River. He went down into the water in his diving suit, carrying with him several sticks of dynamite to be used in blasting out the rocky bottom. After he had been under water several minutes the men overhead, who were pumping air to the diver, heard a muffled explosion and the water was disturbed. Not answering a signal Fairchild was pulled up. His helmet was crushed into the side of his face and the dynamite had evidently exploded while Fairchild was ramming it down. On examination it was found that the concussion had snapped the valves of his heart, killing him almost instantly.

33 per cent. difference. Royal Baking Powder

Strongest, Purest, Most Economical.

As to whether any of the baking powders are equal to the "Royal," the official tests clearly determine. When samples of various baking powders were purchased from the grocers, and analyzed by the United States Government Chemists and the Chemists of State and City Boards of Health, the reports revealed the fact that the "Royal" contained from 28 per cent. to 60 per cent. more leavening strength than the others, and also that it was more perfectly combined, absolutely pure, and altogether wholesome.

As most of these powders are sold to consumers at the same price as the "Royal," by the use of the Royal Baking Powder there is an average saving of over one third, besides the advantage of assured purity and wholesomeness of food, and of bread, biscuit and cake made perfectly light, sweet, and palatable.

The official reports also reveal the presence, in other powders, of alum, lime or sulphuric acid, by which their use is made a matter of grave danger to the consumer.

Whenever a baking powder is sold at a lower price than the "Royal" or with a gift, it is a certain indication that it is made from alum, and is to be avoided under all circumstances.

Two Little Rhymes.

The husband had gone out boating, and the wind a great noise made, And the anxious wife for his safety dropped down on her knees and prayed. The New York physician who has devised the scheme of feeding his medicines to plants and then feeding the plants to his patients is a great man, if his system is successful. When he gives a bogus to a tree and the tree grows, he will know that it would not be a good thing for a sick child. Young physicians should be encouraged to use the theory and try to cure nettles and thistles of prickly heat before going into the human system deeply.

Criticism of the school system is good for the schools if only it calls attention to faults. It is easy to point out that the schools are not satisfactory in their results. That may be admitted. In regard to the defect pointed out is whether it may be remedied or is unavoidable. Probably the most general cause of failure of the schools to make more striking successes lies in the fact that Providence has not gifted his children overplentifully with brains. Any system of education must run up against this fact, and the system is not to be blamed for not accomplishing the business.

The New Half Dollar.

The World's Fair souvenir half-dollars have just been issued. On the obverse side, around the rim of the coin, just inside the reading, are the words "United States of America, Columbus Half Dollar." On the reverse side around the rim are these words, "World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago." Just above the center is a representation of Columbus' caravel Pinta, and another design showing the eastern and western hemispheres. To the left of the western hemisphere are the figures 41 and to the right of the eastern one the figures 42, the date of the year during which the new world was discovered and finally, underneath is the date 1892, the 400th anniversary of the event.

A Theory About Man's Beard.

There is a theory favored by the disciples of Darwin that the beard is merely the survival of a primitive operation. Man, according to this view, was originally as hairy as the opposum itself, but as he rolled down the ages he wore the hair off in patches by sleeping on his sides and sitting against a tree. Of course the hair of the legs is not worn off in this way, but a great theory is not to be set aside by an objection so trifling. By and by our ancestors "awoke to the consciousness that they were patchy and spotty," and resolving to "live down" all hair that was not ornamented to the eye, they gradually and unanimously seem to have fixed on the eye-brows, the mustache and—unfortunately, as the self scrapers mostly think—the beard as being all that was worth preserving of the primitive covering.—Ex.

It was not Slang.

A contentious church member in a western town recently attempted to have his pastor disciplined for using the slang phrase "not in it" in the pulpit, but the bottom dropped out of his charge when the chrysalis man read the manuscript of his sermon and read this sentence from it, "In a word, my Christian hearers, the ark was a miniature world; there was no form of life that was not in it."

Too Busy for Enamity.

When I hear men or women attributing a lack of success in any direction to the machinations of their enemies, I involuntarily smile at the egotistical assertion. People are in general too much engrossed, each by his own affairs, to make any very active war against each other. Jealous, envious, rancorous they often are, but to wage positive hostilities, they are for the most part too indifferent. This proneness to attribute our misadventures to enemies is merely one of the reflexes of our self love. Admitting possible exceptions, it may be said emphatically that we are none of us anybody's enemy but our own. We are all, however, our own enemies. The tongue that truly detracts from our credit and glory is our own tongue; the hand that most mercilessly despoils us of our property is our own hand. As the numbers in this world—that is, apart from the more commonplace killings of men and women—are self-murderers. Conceit tells us a different tale, and we are too ready to lay on the flattering unctious. But all great successes, all grander triumphs, will be in proportion to our seeing the truth as it really stands; namely, that the hardest obstacles, the most discouraging, lie in the perverse impulses of our nature.

Adulterated Wine.

Is injurious, but not being gives strength, and tones up the stomach like a pure old port wine. "Royal Ruby Port," so called for its royal taste and ruby color, is an account of its purity, age and strength, particularly adapted for invalids, convalescents and the aged. Sold only in bottles (never in bulk) while cheap wine is sold by the gallon and gives a larger profit to the seller but less to the user. The wine is absolutely pure, and has the age without which no wine is fit to use. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby," quart bottles $1.00, 60 cents. Sold by R. S. Armstrong & Co., Druggists.
