Free rural mail delivery is coming. Other countries have it, why not we? "The cost will be too great," some one says. But it will not cost as much, of course it will not. Now twenty go tramping to the post-office daily doing the work of one. If an unbeliever let your mind grow to this thing; it is right and is bound to come.

The Maccabees began the year 1893 with a membership of 99,318, standing fourth in numerical strength among the great organizations composing the national fraternal congress, and enjoying greater prosperity than ever before. The history of this order has been a most remarkable one, even from the day of its birth. In response to numerous inquiries Attorney-General Ellis has announced that for the spring election tickets bearing the names of the candidates for the supreme justice, regents of the university, circuit judge and county commissioner of schools must be printed under the supervision of the county election commissioners, while separate tickets, on which shall appear the names of candidates for city, village or township officers, must be printed under the direction of the city, village or township commissioners, provided for under the statute. Separate ballot boxes for the two classes of tickets must be provided.

The observance of the 14th of February as St. Valentine's day, in the manner which now characterizes the day, is in no way connected with St. Valentine himself (who was a priest and lived in the third century) beyond the coincidence of his day being the one chosen for those festivities so dear to all children. The person whose name one draws is called his or her valentine. Of course, each has two valentines, but usually the men prefer the girls they have chosen for a valentine, who have chosen them. Each then pays great attention to his valentine. St. Valentine's day, like other holidays, is fast disappearing, and its observance will soon be abolished.

The knowledge that lies concealed under many a humble hat would, if disseminated save the world from much misery by enabling mankind to foresee and provide against impending evils. For instance, it is now disclosed that the avian men last fall noted the preparation for a severe winter. The bees were killed earlier than usual. This demonstrated that to the prophetic souls of the bees a period of polar weather was a certainty. Yet the bee-keepers were mum; at any rate, they did not make their invaluable information generally known. If the massacre of the drones at the beginning of autumn had been instantly announced, coal men would have filled their yards with the "fixed sunshine," every cellar would have been crammed with fuel the windows of every house listed, the fur trade would have flourished—in short, people would not now be shivering and praying for spring.

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season took place on Tuesday, Feb. 14, 1893, the high contracting parties being Mr. James William O'Connor, of St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Alice Augusta Looney, an estimable young lady, of Chelsea. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. P. Conkright, rector of the church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the happy couple. The attendants were Mr. John O'Connor, of Albion, Mich., brother of the groom, and Miss Isabel Looney, sister of the bride. After the church services an elegant reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Looney in Syrian, and a bountiful repast was spread for the many guests present. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor left on the evening train for Chicago on their wedding tour. They will visit for a time their many relatives and friends in Chelsea and vicinity and then make their permanent home in St. Louis, Mo., where Mr. O'Connor is employed in the regular army. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor were the recipients of many handsome presents, evidences of the high esteem in which they are held. Their hosts of friends are enthusiastic in their good wishes for many years of happiness.

A FEW FACTS.

A remedy has been found which cures chronic diseases; not in every case, but a large percentage of them. And in cases too far gone for cure; it affords relief and prolongs life. Many who have been given over by physicians have been prevailed upon by friends to try this remedy, the

Compound Oxygen Treatment of

Drs. Starkey and Palen, of Philadelphia, and are now living to testify to its wonderful curative powers. It has been successful in curing many cases of catarrh,

malarial diseases, hay fever,

asthma, bronchitis, neuralgia, nervous prostration and other chronic diseases. In these diseases physicians have had little success, as the name they have given to this class of disorders indicates, but

Compound Oxygen has worked wonders.

There is only one genuine Com-

elsewhere or by others than Drs.

George W. Staphish.

Since the death of George W. Staphish, all of the Jackson papers have published his occurrence, mourning his loss, and speaking in the highest terms of the young man, showing the respect and esteem in which he was held by his fellow men. The following resolutions are from last week's Patriot, made by the Central City's Tent.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

To the Officers and Members of Central City Tent No. 139, K. O. T. M.:

Your committee appointed to draft resolutions upon the death of Sir Knight George W. Staphish respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, The Great Commander of the Universe, through His grim sergeant, Death, has summoned from our tent Sir Knight George W. Staphish to attend the grand review above said;

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the supreme edict which took from us a brother, we mourn our loss.

Resolved, That through his death our tent has lost a valiant Sir Knight; his family a kind and loving protector; his country a patriotic citizen, and the world a man who was ever mindful of duty in all of the relations of life.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family of our deceased brother our sympathy and regrets. Sympathy because of our mutual loss, and regret because our tent cannot do more to lift the cloud of sorrow that has settled upon their homes and lives. Only the sunlight of God's mercy can pierce such gloom and temper such darkness. May his soothing influence reach their hearts, bringing with it the sweet consolation of peace and reconciliation.

Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Sir Knight, the charter of this tent be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

Resolved, That the record keeper be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to the widow of our deceased brother and to furnish copies to the Jackson city papers as well as to the official organ of the order for publication.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Dr. King's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory result do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely by their merits. Glazier & Co., Druggists.

Adulterated Wine.

Is injurious, but nothing gives strength, and tones up the stomach like a pure old port wine. "Royal Ruby Port," so called for its royal taste and ruby color, is on account of its purity, age and strength, particularly adapted for invalids, convalescents and the aged. Sold only in bottles (never in bulk) while cheap wine is sold by the gallon and gives a larger profit to the seller but less to the user. The wine is absolutely pure, and has the age without which no wine is fit to use. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby," quart bottles $1.00, 60 cents. Sold by R. S. Armstrong & Co., Druggists.

Preachers have an easy time compared to the hard road editors travel. All that the former have to do, you know, is to take a text and blaze away. But an editor has got to skirmish around the streets, half the time on an empty stomach, to gather local news and how often it happens that his efforts are fruitless and poignant sorrow brings the tears to his expressive blue eyes. Now, fellow city, if you have any local intelligence, bring it in and when you see a white cloth hung out on the dormer window of our humble cabin, come in, we say and sample a turnip and corn dodger with us.—Grass Lake News
