HOAG & HOLMES.

John K. Yocum.

In the death of Mr. John K. Yocum, which occurred at the home of his son, Melvin, in Jackson, Thursday, Nov. 30, 1893, Chelsea has lost one of her best citizens.

John K. Yocum was born in Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, March 27, 1819. His parents, Jacob and Hannah Yocum were natives of the same county and came to Washtenaw county, Michigan, in 1836, settling in Lynx township.

Mr. Yocum worked on a farm in summers and taught school in winters for many years. In 1850 he was elected to the state Legislature, also serving in the extra session the following winter. In 1863 he was appointed commissioner of Internal Revenue and served in that capacity for five years. In 1867 he received the appointment of U. S. Inspector of Liquors of a district comprising this and three contiguous counties. He was also Deputy Surveyor of Washtenaw county for over thirty years.

Mr. Yocum was married Nov. 26, 1846, to Maria Ann Johnson, who died one year ago.

A good friend, a kind neighbor, liberal in thought and generous in heart, John Yocum counted among his friends every acquaintance. He was earnest and consistent in church and business. A communicant of the Baptist faith and an officer in his church.

Mr Yocum's death resulted from cancer from which he had suffered for several weeks.

He leaves four children, Charles A., Adolia A., Adelbert D., and Melvin F. The funeral occurred Saturday.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Burkhart.

Another pioneer has been called hence—one who has long been known and esteemed in Lyndon for her rare qualities of mind and heart, and whose Christian character will long be cherished by those who knew her best.

Mrs. Sarah Burkhart, widow of the late William Burkhart, died on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 1893, at the home of her son, F. A. Burkhart, of Lyndon, after a short illness.

Her surviving children are F. A. Burkhart, of Lyndon, and Aaron Burkhart of this village.

The funeral was held from the Lyndon M. E. church last Saturday at 1 o'clock p. m. Rev. F. E. Pearce, of Dexter, officiated.

A Sad Funeral.

We take the following extract from the Owosso Argus in reference to the sad and untimely death of the late Mr. James Prendergast, so well and favorably known here. The funeral took place last Monday morning, Dec. 4, 1893

"St. Paul's Catholic church of Owosso has not often seen a sadder or larger funeral than that this morning of James A. Prendergast. On the last day of November he was caught between two cars on the Pan Handle road in Chicago and eight hours later died. The remains were brought here to the home of his boy hood for burial, and were followed to the tomb by a heart-broken wife, whom he married six months ago, and a mother bowed with grief, an aged father, three brothers and one sister. The funeral was unusually sad for it was just a year and a half ago that a brother of the deceased, killed in a like manner, was buried here. The floral offerings came from Chicago and were elaborate.

High mass was said by Rev. Father Doman and after that he preached a most eloquent sermon. If words could heal the broken-hearted the consolation and the eloquence of the priest as he spoke with seeming inspiration would have dispelled the gloom that prevailed every part of the large church. The deceased was a good and faithful Catholic and died with the blessings of his church upon him."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Glazier & Co's., Drug store Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

Cummings, of Chelsea, were entertained by Miss Jennie Tuttle, of West Middle street, Thanksgiving night.

The nomination of officers of the L. O. T. M. will be the order at next regular meeting Dec. 12th. It is the duty of all to be present. Also a special meeting has been called next Saturday afternoon Dec. 9th at half past 2, to give all the ladies a chance to bring or send their articles for the fair and to attend to any other business pertaining to the fair. Bill Nye says: "Go where you will in this country today and you will find men talking about tariff and the tax on raw material, while there was none of that or any kind in their houses for weeks except as their wife earned it and brought it to them. The country is full of men who have thought so hard for the common weal that the seats of their trousers shine like the dome on the Massachusetts state house."

An exchange says every town has a liar, a smart Aleck, some pretty girls, men who know it all, a woman that tattles, a neighborhood feud, more loafers than are needed, a man who understands the aliyer question, some men who make remarks about the women, hens that scratch up other people's gardens, a young man who laughs every time he says anything, and men who can tell you all about the finances but have made a dismal failure of their own.

At this season of the year grip is particularly active in scattering seeds of destruction. The temptation is constant to take chances of catching cold, going out without extra wraps, leaving off flannels and if the weather is rainy getting the feet wet. And to have the grip is no longer a joke. No more serious ailment has come to plague humanity during this century. It is estimated that the grip has been directly or indirectly responsible for more deaths than yellow fever and cholera combined. Beware of the grip.

C. J. Chandler & Co's Warehouse Burned.

C. J. Chandler & Co's warehouse was consumed by fire last Monday night. The fire was discovered about 9:30 and the alarm given. The fire department and citizens worked with a will but the fire had gained too much headway and in a short time the whole building was one mass of flames.

There was nothing saved, 1700 head of dressed poultry, a carload of fillers, large number of egg crates, and even the Company's books were burned.

The Taylor warehouse on the west, which Chandler & Co. also use, was saved by tearing away the shed which connected the two buildings.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will probably reach $3,000, with $1,200 insurance.

The firm will resume business as soon as a suitable building can be procured.

Correct Styles of Linking Arms to Walk Together.

"So she took his arm and"—but are you sure he didn't take hers instead? The paragraph set me thinking, and from the result of close observations I give the following classified list of the various forms which armtaking assumes, with a description which will make the average reader as learned in this particular branch of the study of human nature as though I had put a label on them all, says the Pittsburg, Tenn., Republican.

First comes the correct thing. The gentleman holds his elbow at a stiff right angle, while the lady's wrist rests upon his forearm, her hand drooping over like a lovely white lily. This is observed on all state occasions, weddings and society events. It is graceful and stately in effect. A pleasing modification of the above is when the lady is pretty well acquainted with her escort and reaches up and gives his manly biceps a tiny little squeeze, to let him know she's having a perfectly nice time.

Next we have the brotherly and admonitory arm-tangle. In this the gentleman takes the lady's forearm midway between elbow and wrist, with a gentle but firm grasp. This position is peculiarly favorable to mild lectures and friendly conferences. Although frowned upon by fashion its convenience explains its popularity, the greater length of the gentleman's arm allowing the lady's elbow to rest snugly within the angle of his own.

The third variety is most for evening wear. The gentleman takes the lady's hand right in his own larger grasp, and tucks her elbow cosily into the hollow of his own. This is the "best girl" variety, and is deservedly popular as a fall and winter style.

Notice.

The Woman's Relief Corps will give a chicken-pie social at the Town Hall Friday evening Dec 8th. Supper will be served from five to nine o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Supper 15 cents. Com.

Adulterated Wine.

Is injurious, but nothing gives strength, and tones up the stomach like a pure old port wine. "Royal Ruby Port," so called for its royal taste and ruby color, is on account of its purity, age and strength, particularly adapted for invalids, convalescents and the aged. Sold only in bottles (never in bulk) while cheap wine is sold by the gallon and gives a larger profit to the seller but less to the user. The wine is absolutely pure, and has the age without which no wine is fit to use. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby;" quart bottles $1.00, 60 cts. Sold by R. S. Armstrong & Co., Druggists. 15

Read DRS. KENNEDY & KERGAN Have Done.

"At 14 years of age I learned a bad habit which almost ruined me. I became nervous and weak. My back troubled me. I could stand no exertion. Head and eyes became dull. Dreams and drains at night weakened me. I tried seven Medical Firms, Electric Belts, Patent Medicines and Family Doctors. They gave me no help. A friend advised me to try Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. They sent me one month's treatment and it cured me. I could feel myself gaining every day. Their New Method Treatment cures when all else fails." They have cured many of my friends.

"Some 8 years ago I contracted a serious constitutional blood disease. I went to Hot Springs to treat for syphilis. Mercury almost killed me. After a while the symptoms again appeared. Throat became sore, pains in limbs, pimples on face, blotches, eyes red, loss of hair, glands enlarged, etc. A medical friend advised Drs. Kennedy & Kergan's New Method Treatment. It cured me, and I have had no symptoms for five years. I am married and happy. As a doctor, I heartily recommend it to all who have this terrible disease—syphilis. It will eradicate the poison from the blood."

"I am 33 years of age, and married. When young I led a gay life. Early indiscretions and later excesses made trouble for me. I became weak and nervous. My kidneys became affected and I feared Bright's disease. Married life was unsatisfactory and my home unhappy. I tried everything—all failed till I took treatment from Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. Their New Method built me up mentally, physically and sexually. I feel and act like a man in every respect. Try them."

There can be no doubt that we are becoming a nation of dyspeptics. Our forefathers, those hardy old pioneers who conquered the wilderness, were blessed with good appetites and sound stomachs. They knew not pepsin nor the hot water cure. Rum was good enough for them—rum and true religion, with a casual witch-burning for an appetizer. Their degenerate descendants, however, are chronic sufferers from indigestion. The slightest indiscretion in diet brings a train of tortures and sometimes terminates fatally. Out at Duncan, Oklahoma, for example one Frank Martin, Sunday, ordered and ate a light lunch, the materials of which were eighteen fried eggs, three-quarters of a pound of beefsteak, a dozen oysters, two or three fishes, five cups of coffee and a sufficient quantity of bread and butter. Soon after partaking of this light refreshment Mr. Martin remarked that he feared he had eaten too much, "although he did not complain." Shortly afterward he became extremely deceased. Thus may we perceive the effects of luxury and sumptuous living upon the descendants of the pilgrim fathers. Two hundred years ago Mr. Martin would have been looked upon as a light and finicky eater.

Odds and Ends.

Any train robbers who contemplate rifling the Michigan Central express trains in the future should be careful to have their wills drawn up before the attack. It will be equal to running up against an arsenal in good working order. Every train carrying American Express Company's freight will include an arsenal car in which the conductor, two brakemen, and the express company's guards will ride. Three of these rolling arsenals will be required for the trains running between Detroit and Chicago, and two on the Canadian side from Buffalo. The frequency of train robberies determined General Superintendent Miller to have these cars built. Five Winchester repeating shotguns comprise the implements of war with which the men are provided. Each gun contains seven cartridges and may be quickly reloaded, and in each cartridge are twenty-two large buckshot. The guns scatter enough so that even though a man was a poor marksman he could make it pretty dangerous for an attacking party.

An English paper records an event which may do away with waltzes and polkas forever. Flirting, when carried too far, is checked (in certain circles) by the action for breach of promise, and now the law has been called in to redress the grievance of a young lady at Newark, whose partner fell with her in a ballroom and broke her leg. She claims damages for contributory carelessness. What partner is safe? A collision, a slippery bit of floor, and a couple is down, and a broken leg, a dislocated ankle, and an action at law ensue. No prudent man will in future risk a round dance. We must go back to the pas seul, to the slow, stately minuet or the livelier rigadone, or, in lower spheres of life, perhaps, to the jig or hornpipe—dances where every young lady has the sole conduct and care of her own limbs.

"Royal Ruby" Port Wine.

If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this Old Port Wine, the very blood of the grape. A grand tonic for nursing mothers, and those reduced by wasting disease. It creates strength; improves the appetite; nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs, guaranteed absolutely pure and over five years of age. Young wine ordinarily sold is not fit to use. Insist on having this standard brand it costs no more. $1 in quart bottles, pints 60 cents. Royal Wine Co. For sale by R. S. Armstrong & Co., Druggists.

A long chapter of dentists' secrets—the secrets revealed to them by customers made unconscious but talkative by gas—has been revealed by a conscienceless tooth puller. One society young lady swore several lines of blank spaces while a tooth was being drawn. A burglar taken from jail to have a tooth pulled confessed all the details of his crime when under the "influence" and parted with 10 years of liberty. Occasionally men want to fight and are very strong; others are jolly and confidential.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by R. S. Armstrong & Co., Druggist, Chelsea, Mich.

Boys—you who spend more time on the streets than in your homes—read the following opinion of street education by an unhappy man in jail waiting trial: "I had a good home education. My street education ruined me. I used to slip out of the house and go off with the boys in the street. In the streets I learned to lounge, in the street I learned to swear; in the street I learned to smoke; in the street I learned to gamble; in the street I learned to pilfer and to do all evil. O, sir, it is in the street that the devil lurks to work the ruin of the young!"

Deserving Fraise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Glazier & Co., Druggists.
