ALASKA LETTER.

An Interesting Letter Written by Chas. Carpenter.

You see that it is no funny thing for a man to be up here all alone, and as we were the only small party on board, and the others were all full, he was in that shape that he was glad to get in on any terms, besides he seemed to have plenty of money and nothing else but his flour and bacon. We closed the deal with him and we now have a supply of provisions for four men for two years, plenty of clothes, three Winchester rifles, one shot gun, three sleds and a good boat that we bought from the ship, a 10x12 foot tent, a cook stove, in fact everything that we want for a long stay in the ice. If his party should show up here we have enough for at least one year, and we shall buy all that his party have a surplus of. We have all agreed that should one or two get dissatisfied that the ones who are dissatisfied shall take a month's provisions and leave the balance to those that stay. I will stop now and close this after we leave the vessel for good.

March 27th—The thing has come to a head and it came in this way. The parties that had chartered the boat thought that they had a contract for Disenchantment bay and that the captain would take them there whether the tug came or not. But when it came to push it seems that he was not obliged to land them there but at the nearest place thereto consistent with good judgment with regard to the safety of the vessel and cargo and the lives of the passengers. Now he positively refused to take his vessel into that bay on account of the icebergs, etc., but proposed to land us on an island about twelve miles to the south of the entrance. Day before yesterday we raised the anchor and started for the entrance, but when we got within about ten miles of it we could see lots of ice coming down out of the bay and so the captain turned around and came back to Yacata mission and anchored again, and said that he would not do anything more and that we could land here or go back to Seattle with him. The passengers held a meeting and appointed a committee to wait upon him and demand that he should take us up there. They did so and he told them that he would wait 24 hours more for the tug and if it did not come he would take us up as far as that island and we could get off there or not, just as we saw fit, and that was all he would do. We kept out of the trouble, and as the tug did not show up I went to him and told him just how we were fixed, and that as there was trouble brewing on board we did not want to be in it, that I wished that he would let us off here and help us to get some Indians to take us and our things up there. I told him such a nice story that he fell in love with me, and told me that he would do all that layed within his power to help us, but he did not want us to give it away. He went on shore with us and through the storekeeper we secured some Indians and their canoes to take us up to where we wanted to go. I made him believe that we were busted or nearly so and that our only salvation was to get there. He drew me a map of all the surrounding country and said that he would see that we got our freight off in good shape, which we shall proceed to do in the morning. We are to have two canoes and our own boat and four Indians.

We have to pay them $32 and if we have good luck we will make it in two days. You see we have to go with the tide and as there is one flood tide at night and another in the day time we shall camp when night comes and wait for the next one in the day time. We have about 45 or 50 miles to go on the water, and then that will end our voyage on salt water.

Prof. Hill and a few others were sent out the other day to see how things lay and got back while we were gone, and they turned around and went back again. They left some good news however. It seems that there was a party left there last September to go the same way we were going, but they could not get over the glacier on account of the heavy storms. They staid at the foot of the glacier all winter and are there yet, but they found plenty of gold right there where they were and have staked out claims, not more than 50 miles from here. Now you see that by getting there ahead of the large party on board the boat we will be in a position to get a much better claim than we would otherwise be able to do.

Today there was one of their pumber here on his way home and I saw him and had a long talk with him, and he told me to get there as soon as I could and stake out my claim, and then go over the glacier to the Anikini river and prospect there for better ground. He said that it was the finest kind of weather there now. He also told me just where to go and how to get there, and to wait for nobody but to get there just as soon as possible, for he felt sure there were going to be some very rich finds there this summer, and the first ones there were the ones that were going to strike it. Now you need not think that we will not hurry, for we shall. The captain gave me an introduction to this man as one of his friends and wanted him to put us onto anything that he could. I think that he gave it to me straight all the way through, for he showed me his papers and those of his companions that he was taking to have recorded at Sitka.

Now you see that if there is anything this side of the glacier that we will be right in it, and if not we will be right ahead of the rest as the snow is hard before we get to the glacier, which is about five miles back from the coast. The glacier is as smooth as glass all the way over—about twenty miles—so that by getting there right away there will be nothing to interfere with rapid progress into the interior where we shall begin prospecting in earnest.

Elmer and I took our boat today and rowed over to one of Prof. Hill's claims on the beach, about six or seven miles from here, and saw our first beach mine. It is not very rich, although we saw gold in the sand through our glass, but it was very fine. They call it flour gold, and I think that it is rightly named. We went more to see gold bearing sand than anything else. We not only saw that but some of the finest scenery that I ever saw, besides ducks by the thousands. When we went back there was a fresh off-laud breeze blowing which made the water pretty rough but we have gotten so used to our boat that, although it was hard work pulling, we enjoyed it very much.

Memorial Day.

The following is general order No. 12, issued by the Department of Michigan, G. A. R.:

Another day, sacred in the hearts of our comrades living, as Memorial to our comrades dead is with us. May 30th, 1898, comes in the roll of days and years, to awaken slumbering memories of past days of strife, when heroes gave their lives in defense of National honor. It comes, too, at a time when martial music, the tread of armed men and the sound of artillery tell us that we are engaged in another war. While it is not our intention at this time to speak at any length of a contest between our own beloved country and a Nation whose history is written with the blood of innocents, it is proper that your attention should be drawn to the fact that the contest between the United States and Spain, is waged upon our part, only with humanity as the basis of our desire for a peaceful solution.

As we scatter the sweet blossoms of spring time upon the grassy covers of our soldier dead in the cemeteries of Michigan, and gather at the "Soldiers' Lot" in remembrance of our heroes resting in unknown graves, or in National Cemeteries, let us hold in memory precious these brave boys, who, while resting in quiet sleep within the walls of the ship they loved, the Stars and Stripes floating over them, were by a treacherous act diabolical, buried beneath the waters in a haven they supposed to be of safety. "Remember the Maine."

As in former years, call to your assistance the noble band of helpers, the Woman's Relief Corps, the Sons of Veterans, all citizens, particularly the school children, that the day by their help may be the more surely observed.

Let Memorial Day, 1898, be to all our comrades and the citizens of this our State, a most impressively sacred day. As we remember the dead with our flowers, we will not forget that thousands of our brave youth are today in camp, as earnestly filled with true love of country as were we in 1861 to '65.

Let invitations be extended to every church in the State, to hold memorial services on Sunday, the 29th day of May, and if possible a Union Service should be held at some hour of the day, at which times the Posts, in the community should attend in a body, with Post colors and acting as escort to the Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans. At the services of Memorial Day, National Order No. 6, these "Orders and Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg will be read."

Let Memorial Day, May 30th, 1898, be especially marked as one upon which no innovation of its sacredness was attempted by giving of it up to games and fancied amusements. "Be the Soldiers' Memorial Day." By command of ALEXANDER T. BRIS, OFFICIAL: Department Commander. C. V. R. POND, Asst. Adj. General.

The Stars and Stripes Now Float Over Spain's Oriental Colony

Washington, special.

The first battle of the war for Cuban freedom has been fought, and victory crowns American arms. The Maine has been remembered and its murdered seamen have been avenged in far away waters. The Asiatic squadron of the United States, Commodore Dewey commanding, engaged and completely defeated the Asiatic squadron of Spain in the harbor of Manila, in the Philippine Islands.

Reports of the terrific battle at the time this is written are meager. From the general opinion of the dispatches it would appear that Commodore Dewey's fleet of five cruisers—the Olympia (flagship), Baltimore, Boston, Concord, and Raleigh, and the gunboat, Petrel, approached the shore under cover of the darkness on Saturday night and at day-break Sunday morning steamed into Manila Bay, where he found himself con-

"We Always do as We Advertise; Oft-times More."

You cannot afford to buy elsewhere any goods that we handle, it's too expensive for you. You will always find our prices as low as any, and especially on those lines of goods that you can't always keep posted on. You will surely find that our prices are lower for the same quality. You always feel safe when you trade here. Prices on everything guaranteed. We try at all times to have just the goods that are wanted, at the low price. Our facilities for buying Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoes are not equaled in Chelsea. We use immense quantities in these departments of our three large stores.

Well Dressed People

Do get along better in life—it is true that appearances cannot be over estimated. They are better received in society and business circles, for the reason that taste in dress is accepted as an infallible sign of intelligence and refinement. You can't go wrong with our clothing this season, surely. We are showing the newest checks, mixtures and coverts. Some very good values in all-wool suits at $10.00, $12.50 and $14.50. You ought to see these before the best patterns are selected.

New Hats every week. New Neckwear. New Fancy Shirts (Ask to see these at $1.75 and 50c). We are using every effort to deserve the clothing trade of this section.

We have just placed on sale a lot of new red, white and blue goods including ties, badges, belts, ribbons, flags, draperies, suspenders, etc. We have just placed on sale our full line of cotton wash goods. New organdies, new muslins, new lawns, new nainsooks, new dimities, new piques, new laces and embroideries to trim these wash goods. New white goods for graduating dresses.

MEN'S SHOES

We have just opened a lot of men's latest style tan shoes. These were bought for ease, comfort and style. Buy your tan shoes of us if you want to walk easy.

The orders to every clerk in our store this morning were to sell every pair of ladies' walking shoes (sizes 2 1/2 to 6 1/2) at the marked down price. We are very much overstocked on these goods and they must be closed out if price will do it. We offer $2.50 walking shoes at $1.00. 2.00 1.50 1.25 1.00

EASY WALKING.

Every step taken in a shoe that is not made right does you harm. The fault is in the last. Much money and pains must be taken with the last to have it just right, after which every shoe made up it will be just right. It is said that Pingree & Smith have one of the finest collections of lasts in the country. This is the firm of which Governor Pingree is a member. Integrity and conscientiousness are the characteristics of the shoes they make. They are always safe shoes to buy. We can't say too much about the good qualities of their "Composite" shoes for women.

CARPETS.

We buy carpets (for three stores) in 50 and 100 roll lots and own them 5 to 7% per cheaper than others. The only way our price can be matched is to substitute lower grades and try to convince you that they are just as good. Such quantities of carpets as we show this season never were shown in Chelsea. High art Aggra and Agra yard wide carpets. Pure Cordova wool, warp and wool, extra heavy and strong. 2-ply ingrain, full extra super, 60c. 62 1/2c. 65c.

The best qualities of Ingrains, all wool, full extra super, 65c. 62 1/2c. 60c. Medium weight, all wool, 2-ply 50c. 45c. 42c. Very heavy union ingrain, 40c. 32 1/2c. 30c. 29c. special value. The heaviest rag carpet you ever saw, factory made, 35c. no less. Mattings worth 50c for 30c. Others at 20c. 25c. 20c. Rugs at 1/2 less than others ask. Can you take time to look these over?

HOSIERY.

This is the only store in Chelsea that absolutely guarantees the wear on ladies' and children's black hose. For every unsatisfactory wearing pair of ladies' 2 pairs for 25c black hose, every pair of our No. 517 ladies' 25c hose and children's 25c leather stockings we will give a new pair free. While these stockings will wear out in time they have proven themselves so entirely satisfactory to our customers that we shall now guarantee them to wear. These are sold in Chelsea only by us. New fancy striped, dotted and plaid hosiery for ladies and children. Ask for our children's 75c black and tan hose. The best you ever bought at the price.

SHADES.

We carry more shades than all others in Chelsea together. Our three stores buy these together and get quite a "legway" in price by placing a wholesale quantity order. We make a specialty of wide shades with narrower shades to match. Get our prices before buying. Good shades on best rollers 15c. Good opaque cloth shades on best roller 25c. Sash curtain cloths at 7c, 10c, 15c, 19c and 25c. Sash curtain brass rods (very easily put up) 12 1/2c and 15c. Good wood-trimmed poles, regular, 20c style, our price 19c. New brass rods 20c and 25c, for long lace curtains just received.

We offer a special value for this week. 20 dress patterns of our regular 50c goods at per pattern of 7 yds $2.25. Skirt patterns cut from same goods $1.20. New crepon dress patterns special values. New high grade English bleached table damasks in 2 1/2 and 3 yd patterns at $3 and $4. Fancy sash ribbons at 10c, 20c and 25c. Large lot of regular 7c prints now 5c. Just a few pieces of those 10c to 20c faces white and butter color go at 5c. All linen 7 1/2c brown crash now 5c. Remnants of 8c ginghams now 6c. Full size ready-made gingham aprons 10c and 15c. 10c fancy lawns 7 1/2c. 100 corsets 50c. Summer corsets 25c and 50c. New capes just opened at $2.00, $3.40, $3.98 and $7.00.

Shut up your internal chickens! Grass Lake News. A few days ago a little son of Erasmus S. Cooper of Sylvan was severely hurt. He was with his father who was unloading fence posts, and having his hand on one of the wheels a post came down upon it bruising it severely. It was thought the hand would be saved with the loss of one finger. Grass Lake News. A student was shot in the arm Wednesday evening by another student who was being pursued by a crowd who wanted to cut his hair. The young fellow fled into the crowd with the above result. The University faculty say they will expel all the participants in the affair if they can find them out. It is time the silly fad was put an end to. Ann Arbor Argus. Those who have heard George Apple's patriotic war-whoop sounding the charge on Spain during the past few weeks will be both surprised and pained to note that in this hour of his country's need the Democrat is compelled to chronicle the arrival of two more girls at the Apple residence last Saturday morning. By their deeds shall ye know them. Ann Arbor Democrat. Commencement week this year bids fair to be one of the gayest that old Michigan has ever seen. Although all arrangements have not been made as yet, there will probably be something going all throughout the entire week. On Monday night the University Glee Band and Mandolin Club will give their annual concert. This will be the only appearance of the clubs in Ann Arbor this year. During the early part of the evening will come the promenade on the campus. On Tuesday evening the senior reception will be held in the Waterman Gymnasium. On Wednesday evening the University Comedy Club will present their "All the Comforts of Home" at the Athens Theatre. This will give the alumni who return in June a chance to see our Comedy Club. The next day, Thursday is Commencement Day. Washburn Times.

INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA.

Medical Science has Produced a Cure at Last.

The increasing prevalence of dyspepsia has been a matter of the gravest concern to the medical profession, and for years leading scientists have been experimenting to produce a remedy. Constant effort in this direction has introduced many preparations which barely afford temporary relief to sufferers. It remained for Dr. Drake, a chemist of many years' experience to produce a treatment which has proven to be a positive cure for the disease in all of its manifold forms, which is known as Drake's Dyspepsia Cure and Nerve Restorer. In order to obtain a common disadvantage to sufferers, that of buying medicine which has been advertised for years in drug stores and necessarily be the case where all druggists handle the same article—the manufacturers are placing Drake's Dyspepsia Cure and Nerve Restorer with a limited number of druggists, consequently you are sure to always receive the treatment fresh, although being put up in tablets and tightly sealed boxes, it will retain its freshness longer than in any other form. If you are troubled with indigestion, sour stomach, acid fermentation, water brash, headache, sleeplessness, or any form of nervous dyspepsia, call at either drug store Chelsea, Michigan, and ask for Drake's Dyspepsia Cure and Nerve Restorer. A book on Stomach and Nerve troubles, their symptoms and cure, given free for the asking at the above mentioned store.

Market Report. The market the past two weeks has been peculiar and irregular beyond all former experiences. The differences between red and white wheat and between the grades were never before so great. It is the temporary pushing of No. 2 red by the gamblers on the May deal far above the milling basis of all other grades. A large amount of white and mixed wheat has been bought here the past week at $1.20 per bushel, which is the top for milling purposes. A large amount of red wheat that would grade No. 2 has been bought for $1.35 to apply on the May deal. That is likely to be settled within a few days after which the large difference between red and white will disappear and red will have to get down to milling price. All markets have been firm and advancing until now they begin to show signs of weakening and it is very probable that the top has been reached. There is from ten to fifteen thousand bushels to come to this market yet and it will all come in soon after our planting. Rye has advanced, but is nearly all in and is nominal at 65 cents per bushel. Oats have advanced some and now 38 cents are offered in this market. Clover seed $2.50. Potatoes 50 cents. Beans have rallied from their late dullness and $1 per bushel for country stock is now offered. Butter 12 cents. Eggs 8 cents. Trade has been good and receipts free for some weeks but will be dull now till after corn planting. An occasional lot of wheat comes in and brings from 15 to 20 cents per pound, being all unwashed.

IS A PROMINENT MAN.

IDENTITY OF A BURGLAR ARRESTED IN OHIO.

Recent Attempted Crime and the Developments Following Give Toledo a Thrilling Sensation—Vandals—Deeds—Crime—New Jersey Cemetery.

Well-Known Citizen's Double Life.
Back of the regular arrest of a man giving his name as James G. Gallipoli, Ohio, on the charge of burglary and the subsequent arrest of Mrs. Pratt of Toledo, is a sensational story. The alleged burglar is announced by the police authorities to be John O. Ladd, a prominent Toledo real estate man, who has a wife and two daughters. A sister of Ladd's says she knew of his infatuation for the handsome widow, but the wife was in ignorance of the intrigue. Mrs. Lewis, whose home was the robber's goal, is worth $75,000. Mrs. Pratt is her daughter by adoption and her only heir. Marshal Kohn of Gallipoli was shown a picture of Ladd and declared it was that of the man in jail there. He said: "I am confident the couple were in a conspiracy to rob Mrs. Lewis, who always keeps a large sum of money in the house, and if the coast was clear they intended to kill the woman."

A hint was given the police that an attempt was to be made to rob Mrs. Lewis and possibly murder her. The man arrested, said to be Ladd, was caught with a piece of gas pipe in his hands, and when searched had a revolver, dirk and mask in his possession. The window had been left open downstairs, so he could easily have effected an entrance. Mrs. Pratt and Ladd had been seen to meet several times recently and they were being watched. Ladd is shown and Mrs. Pratt is considered deep and designing. She refuses to say a word.

Discotheque a Cemetery.
The police of Bloomfield, N. J., and citizens generally are greatly brought up by the antics of vandals, who in the Bloomfield cemetery have recently broken down and destroyed 200 headstones from as many graves, and broke monuments and marble slabs, some being ruined. The most thing was done to the most beautiful part of the cemetery, where the early stones were not only thrown down and broken, but flowers were uprooted and trampled and the graves were carelessly desecrated. The damage will not be less than $2,000.

General merchants, $2,500; George Shires, general merchant, $2,000; C. A. Walker, druggist, $2,000; J. E. Porter, jeweler, $1,000. About twenty other business houses were destroyed. The total loss amounts to nearly $10,000.

Four cent officers, all of whom were ambushed as they were on their way to the Dillonville, O., office. Stephen Gentry was shot through the lungs. John Matz was shot through the back and John Manzik was seriously wounded. Another miner, who is not known, was shot in the breast. The coal diggers declare the shooting was done by strikers who were not in favor of returning to work. A few hours after the shooting John Matz was lodged in jail. He is thought to have been connected with the shooting, but his fellow-miners believe him innocent and are looking in other quarters for the guilty parties. The thousands of miners in the district are thoroughly aroused and should trouble break out, the strike will have to be ended, for the best and best strikers being in mind for the Police and Huns, who are clamoring for vengeance.
