Miss Minnie Wackenhut.

The news of the death of Miss Minnie Wackenhut, which occurred at Jackson on Friday, Aug. 26, 1898, was a great shock to her relatives and many friends, who had not heard of her illness. Miss Wackenhut was visiting in her old home on Sunday, Aug. 21, and complained a little, but went back to her work at Jackson against the protest of her relatives, who wished her to rest. But her indomitable courage asserted itself, and she returned to her labors; but her illness assumed an alarming and serious phase, and she peacefully breathed forth her spirit after a beautiful preparation for death.

Mary Wackenhut, or "Minnie" as she was familiarly called, was a native of Chelsea, where she had spent most of her short life, and where she was well and favorably known. She had just completed her nineteenth year, and was beloved by all. The remains were brought to Chelsea last Friday evening, and the funeral was held from St. Mary's Church, on Monday morning, at ten o'clock, in the presence of a very large congregation. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in Chelsea, and evidenced the esteem in which the young lady was held. The ladies Sodality, of which Miss Wackenhut was a member, attended the funeral. Requiem High Mass was sung by the pastor, the Rev. William P. Considine, who addressed the audience briefly at the close of the services. The floral offerings were elaborate and beautiful. The remains were conveyed to Mt. Olivet Cemetery and tenderly laid to rest. Miss Wackenhut was a young lady who had the faculty of making friends and retaining them. She was a dutiful daughter, a faithful friend, and a devout Catholic, and her memory will be in benediction. Her mother, Mrs. John Breitenbach, is overwhelmed at her untimely departure and the profound sympathy of the entire community goes out to the afflicted mother and relatives. May her soul rest in peace.

Resolutions.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to lay the heavy hand of affliction upon our brother, George Wackenhut, by removing from him, by death, his sister Minnie; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Chelsea Rifles, extend to him our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this his great bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to him and to each of our local papers.

PRESIDENT'S OUTING.

Leaves Washington with His Wife to Visit His Brother.

On the Way to Somerset, Pa., He Inspects Camp Meade—Will Visit Montauk Point During His Travels.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The president and Mrs. McKinley left Washington at nine o'clock Saturday morning over the Pennsylvania road for Somerset, Pa., where they will spend some days with Mr. Abner McKinley, the president's brother. The only other members of the party were Mr. Cortelyou, assistant secretary to the president, and Mrs. McKinley's maid.

On the Way.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 29.—The demonstration here in honor of the president was made notable by an electric display by the Johnson company. Their electric department was illuminated throughout with an enormous arrangement of variegated lamps forming the word "Welcome," and as the presidential train passed, this flashed out in bold relief, while volleys of artillery salutes were fired and all the whistles in town were blown.

Welcomed to Pennsylvania.

Hamburg, Pa., Aug. 29.—President McKinley and party were met at the station here by Attorney-General McCormick and Secretary of the Commonwealth Martin, who had been requested by Gov. Hastings to welcome the president. The greeting was cordial, and the Pennsylvanians were then presented to Mrs. McKinley.

President at Camp Meade.

Middletown, Pa., Aug. 29.—President and Mrs. McKinley spent a pleasant hour at Camp Meade. Gen. Graham had ordered a marching review in honor of his distinguished guests, but at their request the order was revoked. They were met by Gen. Graham and staff and the First Delaware regiment, which was detailed as guard of honor. The regiment was drawn up along the road leading to the camp, and when the president and other guests had been seated in open carriages the regiment presented arms and the band played "The President's March."

Drive Through the Camp.

After a hurried inspection of the quarters of the general and his staff President and Mrs. McKinley were driven through the camp. Company streets were scrupulously clean and the men looked their best. The president was much pleased with the location of the camp and the appearance and condition of the men. The various regiments were drawn up in line to receive the party when it arrived at their quarters.

Arrive at Somerset.

Somerset, Pa., Aug. 29.—The presidential party, composed of president and Mrs. McKinley, Assistant Secretary Cortelyou, and Maj. Webb Hayes, of the Sixth Ohio cavalry, reached Somerset by special train from Johnstown at 8:40 Saturday evening. Burgess J. H. When the president stepped out of the car with Mrs. McKinley on his arm the 2,500 people who had gathered cheered heartily. The president and Mrs. McKinley entered Mr. Abner McKinley's carriage, with Abner McKinley and his daughter, Miss Mabel. Hundreds of people lined the street, and kept the president bowing until the carriage reached the pretty summer home of Mr. Abner McKinley, where the distinguished guests will remain during their stay here.

Enjoy the Journey.

The president and Mrs. McKinley are in good health, having passed a restful day, and both say they greatly enjoyed their trip to Somerset. The party will leave here at 11 o'clock today for Cleveland, reaching there in the evening.

WELL-NIGH BRUTAL.

But the Stern Parent Was Not Wholly Without Cause for His Unkindness.

He was a well meaning young man. He had a way, however, of standing by the side of a piano and rolling his eyes at the chandelier while unsweet noises gurgled from his throat. Friends were too kind to suggest to him that his efforts were other than melodious. Such is the patient charity of the man with iron gray side whiskers and an eagle eye showed signs of overtaxed endurance. It was his daughter who was playing accompaniments, and it was his gas they were burning.

"Did I understand you were going to sing 'On the Banks of the Wabash, Far Away'?"

"Yes."

"When?"

"Why, right away."

The questioner took out his watch and said: "Well, I'm afraid you haven't much time to spare. The next train for the west goes in less than three-quarters of an hour, and you'll have to start for the Wabash far away, right away, if you're going to sing there before the week is out. Good-by. I hate to have you cut your visit short, but I wouldn't have those folks on the Wabash, far away, disappointed for anything!"—Washington Star.

NO WOMAN IS EXEMPT.

Regularity is a matter of importance in every woman's life. Much pain is, however, endured in the belief that it is necessary and not alarming, when in truth it is all wrong and indicates derangement that may cause serious trouble.

Excessive monthly pain itself will unsettle the nerves and make women old before their time.

The foundation of woman's health is a perfectly normal and regular performance of nature's function. The statement we print from Miss GERTRUDE SHIRES, of Eldred, Pa., is echoed in every city, town and hamlet in this country. Read what she says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel like a new person since following your advice, and think it is my duty to let the public know the good your remedies have done me. My troubles were painful menstruation and leucorrhoea. I was nervous and had spells of being confused. Before using your remedies I never had any faith in patent medicines. I now wish to say that I never had anything do me so much good for painful menstruation as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; also would say that your Sanative Wash has cured me of leucorrhoea. I hope these few words may help suffering women."

The present Mrs. Pinkham's experience in treating female ills is unparalleled, for years she worked side by side with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, and for sometime past has had sole charge of the correspondence department of her great business, treating by letter as many as a hundred thousand ailing women during a single year.

All suffering women are invited to write freely to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice about their health.

Its specialties will be hydraulic engineering, shipbuilding, marine engines, electricity and agricultural chemistry. The object of the school is to apply science to the needs of the low-lying maritime districts of Prussia along the Baltic coast.

The largest kitchen in the world is said to be in the Parisian store, the Bon Marche, which has 4,000 employees. The smallest kitchen contains 100 quarts, and the largest 500. Each of the 50 roasting pans is big enough for 500 cutlets. When omelets are on the bill of fare, 7,800 eggs are used at once. For cooking alone six cooks and 100 assistants are always at the ranges.

A LOCOMOTIVE of the Pennsylvania railroad recently drew a train about three-quarters of a mile long, made up of 180 loaded coal cars, from Altoona to Harrisburg, 132 miles, in 19 hours. The weight of the train behind the tender was 5,212 tons. The locomotive weighed 104 tons. This is said to have been the heaviest train ever moved a long distance by a single locomotive.

A LETTER from Limeno, near Luca, states that during a tremendous tempest which recently occurred in that town, five young men mounted the church tower and began to ring the bells, acting in accordance with the popular superstition that the sound of bells keeps off storms. Lightning suddenly struck the tower, killing two of the young men and injuring the other three.

The entire collection of plate in the London mansion house is a wonderful sight. An idea of the wealth of it may be gathered from the fact that at the time of the opening of the mansion house in 1753, the plate which was deposited in the strong room cost $57,000. Every year since then each lord mayor has added to the collection to the amount of $2,500, and in addition there are many handsome presentation pieces.

In the little town of Nasso, in Sweden, the firemen happen to be women, however paradoxical that sounds. The place is only a little village, and four enormous tubs constitute the "waterworks." One hundred and fifty women make up the fire department, and one of their duties consists in always keeping the tubs filled with water. The women are fine workers, it is said, and know how to handle a fire with as little confusion as possible.

WHEN Porto Rico becomes legally and formally a part of the United States domain, it will be the most easterly possession of the United States. The most easterly point of the island is a degree and a half of longitude further east than any part of the state of Maine. The island of Guam, in the Pacific ocean, in longitude 145 degrees east, is far to the westward of the island of Atton, the most westerly possession of the United States at the present time.

GEORGE J. GOULD, head of the family of the late Jay Gould, and guardian of the millions left by the financier, will arrive in New York from Switzerland on September 4. Within a few days of that date Frank Jay Gould, the youngest of the children will come of age, and then according to the will of Jay Gould, the great fortune must be divided. That will mark the end of the estate left by the "wizard of Wall street." The securities will be sold, and each heir will get his share.

An old countryman came into a small town in Arkansas a week or so ago. He lived in the woods, and his last visit to town had been made at the close of the civil war. The little country place was then full of soldiers, and now after 30 years the first thing the old man saw was a militia company marching to the depot on their way to the encampment. He looked in amazement and muttered audibly: "By gosh, them durned liars told me Lee had surrendered, and here's that dratted war still a-goin' on!"

JULES VERNE, in spite of the fact that so many of his books relate to doings in foreign parts, has traveled very little. When he is going to write a story, and has settled the scene of it, he sets to work to read up books relating to that particular part of the world. Perhaps it is just as well that he is not dependent, as so many novelists are, on visiting different countries before describing them, as otherwise he would have been compelled to travel to the moon, and journey both in the depths of the sea and the bowels of the earth.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS

Turned Over to the City.
A decision by Judge Stone will give Marquette $20,000 in ready money. It is a part of the funds deposited by K. M. Wilkinson under a private arrangement with two other banks, and which was in their vaults at the time of the assignment of Wilkinson bank last January. The assignees tried to have this money turned over to them to be used in pro rata liquidation of all claims, but Judge Stone ordered it paid direct to the city and charged against the city's account with Wilkinson. This reduces the amount of the city's money tied up to $17,000.

Stopping an Ocean Liner.

Experiments seem to show that a large ocean steamer going at 19 knots an hour will move over a distance of two miles after its engines are stopped and reversed, and no authority will give less than a mile or a mile and a half as the required space to stop its progress. The violent collisions in some cases during fogs may thus be accounted for.

A Good Target.

A gentleman was one day having a walk down a lane with a gun in his hand to see what he could shoot. While he was going down he met a little schoolboy and said to him: "Is there anything to shoot down here, my little boy?" "Yes," said the boy; "there's the schoolmaster coming over the hill—Tit-Bits."

Country flour mills are having a great deal of trouble in getting wheat to grind, the farmers still holding on to their stock for better prices. The peculiar spectacle of buying in city markets on the part of the country mills has been presented for the past few days, it being necessary to get wheat this way in spite of the fact that there is a great deal of wheat all around if it could only be got out of first hands or shippers.

Dealers who buy hogs prefer them to weigh not over 300 pounds. The fall pigs pay well if they are sold when about 180 pounds weight, but fall pigs should not be farrowed later than September, as they are liable to be retarded by a severe winter unless well sheltered. Spring pigs should be large enough for market before winter sets in, and to make them grow give bran and skim milk, omitting corn or meal from the ration until the weather becomes cold.

The newspaper is a wide field and full of roses and thorns. When we roast the minister the ungodly smile; when we roast the teetotaler, the saloon men set 'em up. When we roast the saloon, the preacher and his flock smile and say "praise God." If we swear, we are wicked; if we pray, we are a hypocrite. If we have an opinion we get cussed, and if we refuse to loaf on the street and talk about the women we are a nonentity. The preacher knows one thing, the saloon man and gambler another, but the journalist is expected to know everything and to suit all classes of people.

The man who advertises stands before the public in full, legitimate and dignified prominence of one who is proud of his business, has a right to be proud of it, is doing a lot of it and wants to do more of it, and is the kind of a man that everybody wants to do business with, for just so long as the moth is attracted by the candle-light so long will buyers swarm around the advertising light of business.—Ex.

W. C. Brann, the late editor of the Iconoclast, Waco, Texas, is credited with the following: "The dollar is indeed almighty. It is the Archimedian lever that lifts the ill-bred man into select society and places the ignorant sapshead in the United States Senate; it makes presidents of stuffed prophets, governors of intellectual geese, philosophers of fools and gilds infamy of supernatural glory. It wrecks altars of innocence and pollutes the face of the people; breaks the sword of justice and binds the goddess of liberty with chains of gold. It is the lord of the land, the uncrowned king of the commonwealth."

A prominent farmer of Michigan, who has had years of experience in threshing and milling wheat, gives the following advice: "Threshing should not be done under any circumstances until the grain has thoroughly sweated out in the straw, which requires from six to eight weeks. Wheat thoroughly sweated out in the straw will keep for years without any attention, and besides is much more valuable for milling purposes. Wheat threshed in the sweat or damp can never be improved but usually gets worse and becomes musty. There is more money lost to the farmers every year in threshing their wheat out of condition than would many times pay the threshing bill."

Harvest Thoughts.

When lusty August brings the purpling grape,
And all the tendriled branches of the vine
Are rich with promise of the coming wine—
When Summer faints and Autumn's fingers shape
The ripening grain in rustling fields that drape
The laughing plain or heaven-aspiring hill—
When glowing apples fragrant incense spill,
And luscious juices from pale pears escape
Then swells the heart with memories of old days,
And dreams of those to come like mists arise
Between the soul and cold or cruel skies,
While store of mellowed thought the mind repays.
And thus, ere winds grow bleak and senses sear,
Are yielded up twin harvests of the year.

The Theory of the Kindergarten.

Lucy Wheelock, the celebrated kindergarten, explains the methods of child-training by the Froebel system in an article on "The Child in the Kindergarten," in the Woman's Home Companion:

"It was through his observation of real, living children at play that Froebel discovered his child-garden, with its games and gifts and occupations. Everything which he offers as a means of education is in response to some discovered need and interest of childhood. He was the first to divine the significance of the imitative plays of children, and his insight is embodied in his famous dictum, 'What man tries to represent that he begins to understand.'"

"In its best estate the kindergarten is the place where genuine, natural child-life is guarded and preserved. The simple kindergarten gifts, appealing to the child's natural desire to construct, are in delightful contrast to other gifts made indiscriminately in the home. The little box of blocks, which contains in its eight parts a table, a bed, a chair, a sofa, or maybe a house, is a revelation of the possibilities hidden in common things. Froebel has aptly called his first building gift the child's joy."

"It must never be forgotten that play is the child's serious business, and it is through the unregulated activity of free play that children are gradually guided to regulated activity. The very mimicry of play is an earnest expression of the child's first feeble efforts to help in the real work of the world; a fact parents overlook when a child's help seems 'of more bother than it is worth.' Through legitimate and happy doing the path leads to self-expression and self-mastery. When the normal play activities of children are considered in determining the exercises of the kindergarten, then it is a place of genuine effort. It was the wise Quintillian who said that he could not hope for much diligence later when a boy was not diligent at play."

Care for Your Watch.

A watch should be wound up every day at the same hour. Avoid putting it on a marble slab or near anything excessively cold, as the sudden change of temperature, contracting the metal, may sometimes cause the main spring to break. The cold coagulates the oil, and the pivots and wheels working less freely affects the regularity of the timekeeper. In laying aside a watch be sure that it rests on its case. If suspended, the action of the balance may cause oscillation, which will interfere with its going. To keep your watch clean take care that the case fits closely and see that the watch pocket is free from fluff, which is so often given off by linings.

IS ON THE INCREASE.

Reports Show That Trade Is Constantly Improving.

Volume Larger Than Ever Before—No Unfavorable Change in the Crop Prospect—A Reduced Number of Failures.

New York, Aug. 27.—R. G. Dun & Co., in their weekly review of trade, say:

"The volume of business reflected in exchanges at the principal clearing houses is 26.4 per cent. larger than last year, and 26.8 per cent. larger than in 1892, heretofore the year of largest business and highest prosperity ever known. Part of this increase was due to speculation at New York, but there remains a healthy increase over the best of previous years, and though in some branches business is not satisfactory in character, in nearly all it is in volume larger than ever before. No unfavorable change appears in the prospect of crops, upon which the welfare of the country so largely depends, nor is there present or threatening financial disturbance. Europe has not worried of buying American securities, although some speculators have been selling, nor is there shown any want of confidence among American investors.

"Wheat goes down three cents for the week, as if there were no foreign demand coming, the obvious concern of farmers to keep back wheat, the crop being certainly very large, tending to encourage a conspiracy of traders against them, which thus far has entire control of the market.

"The output of iron and steel no longer measures the demand, and the stipulated stoppage of furnaces in the Shenango and Mahoning valleys has raised the price of Bessemer pig at Pittsburgh to $10.50, and of grey iron to $8.25, without any certainty whatever that such prices can be maintained when the valley furnaces resume operations, as some of them are now doing.

THE HAWAIIAN COMMISSION.

Men Who Will Form a Government for the Islands Meet and Organize at Honolulu.

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—The steamship Moana has arrived here from Australian ports, via Honolulu. A press correspondent writes from Honolulu under date of August 18 that the congressional members of the committee to report on a form of government for the territory of Hawaii arrived August 17 on the Mariposa.

The three commissioners met President Dole and his cabinet at the executive building by appointment. The compliments of the president and his colleagues had been sent to the United States senators and the representatives earlier in the day.

To-day the commission met at the home of Justice Frear to qualify as members by taking an oath. As soon as the members were regularly listed, the commission proceeded to elect a secretary, a stenographer and a sergeant-at-arms. Senator Cullom is chairman. The men for the clerical positions and the sergeant-at-arms have been brought from Washington.

COLLISION AT SEA.

Foggy Weather Causes a Catastrophe Which Results in the Loss of Sixteen Lives.

New York, Aug. 26.—The Thingvalle line steamer Norge, which arrived here, reports that she sunk the French fishing schooner Locoquette, of Bayonne, France, on the Grand banks. The captain and eight seamen were saved. Sixteen went down with the unfortunate vessel.

On the day of the accident, between three and four o'clock in the afternoon, the weather was foggy, but not so thick that the vessel's speed was reduced. Capt. Knudsen said he could see about three cables' lengths ahead. The wind was fairly brisk from the west-southwest, when a vessel suddenly loomed up from the north with sails full and stood directly across the bow of the steamer. The bells were rung to stop and back at full speed, but it was too late to check the steamer's headway. The stranger, a fishing schooner, fell across the bow, and with a crash was forced over and sunk.

Three men sprang aboard the Norge. The passengers of the Norge, most of whom were about the decks, rushed about in alarm at the shock, but were soon quieted when they learned that the steamer was uninjured. A boat was lowered and six men and a dog were picked up. The vessel sank almost immediately, and in sinking carried with her 16 of her crew. Capt. Knudsen, of the Norge, said that as a steam vessel he was obliged to keep out of the way of all sailing craft, but that this was a time when the sailing vessel could do more to help herself than the steamer. The latter was going ahead at full speed, for the fog was not, in the judgment of the captain, sufficient to reduce headway.

Rations for Starving Cubans.

Washington, Aug. 26.—In accordance with the determination of the administration the Comal sailed from Tampa to Havana with 1,000,000 rations for distribution to the starving people of Cuba. These rations will be distributed by Lieut. A. D. Niskern, under the direction of Capt. Lotus Niles, of the artillery, in conformity with the orders of the president and secretary of war. Supplies will be furnished to other provinces in the island under the direction of officers of the army as emergency may demand.

Delaware Republicans.

Dover, Del., Aug. 26.—At the regular republican state convention the following candidates were nominated: For congressman, John Henry Hoff-ricker; for state treasurer, Dr. L. Heisler Ball; for state auditor, John A. Lingo. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the straightforward and wise statesmanship of President McKinley; favoring a vigorous foreign policy and the maintenance of the present gold standard.

Secretary Alger Visits the Sick.

New York, Aug. 26.—Secretary Alger was driven to the general hospital, where there are 1,200 sick soldiers. He conversed with many of the sick men, inquired as to their condition and if they were in need of anything. Gen. Alger occasionally made notes of what he saw. He assured the sick men that as soon as they were well they would be allowed to go to their homes on furlough.

Ship Sinks at Sea.

New York, Aug. 24.—Mute evidences of a great ocean disaster in which one vessel and perhaps two may have gone to the bottom were seen ten miles off Fire Island by the crew of the incoming British steamship Algoa, from Hamburg and Shields. The Algoa passed through a vast quantity of wreckage in which were steamer chairs, trunks, boxes and bedding.

Elected Supreme Chancellor.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 27.—The supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias, adjourned Friday's session at seven o'clock in the evening after having elected the following officers: Supreme chancellor, Thomas G. Sample, Allegheny, Pa.; supreme vice chancellor, Ogden H. Feathers, Wisconsin.

Threats of Lynching.

Preston, Minn., Aug. 27.—M. R. Todd, cashier of the wrecked bank at this place, has been lodged in jail. At one time a mob, containing many of the bank's depositors, gathered with the avowed intention of lynching Todd, but Sheriff Blexrud protected him. The sheriff now foots up $115,000.

Epidemic of Typhoid Fever.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—An epidemic of typhoid fever has broken out among the troopers of the First Illinois cavalry who arrived at Fort Sheridan Friday from Chickamauga. There were 11 cases in the regiment when it arrived, and now there are over 30, many of them being very serious.

The Santiago Troops.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Gen. Lawton's report of the health conditions of his troops Friday is as follows: Total sick, 557; total fever cases, 403; total new cases, 15; total returned to duty, 5; deaths, 7.

May Stay Away Sixty Days.

Washington, Aug. 27.—An order has been issued by the war department extending the furlough of volunteers given leave of absence from 30 days to 60 days.

AT CAMP WIKOFF.

Secretary Alger Returns from His Tour of Inspection and Reports to the President.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Secretary Alger returned from Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point, L. I., Saturday morning, and at once drove to the white house to have a short conference with President McKinley before the latter started for Somerset, Pa., for a short vacation. It was arranged that the president should go to Camp Wikoff next Saturday to pay his respects to the heroes of Santiago, and Secretary Alger will meet him there. He assured the president that the camp is in better condition than has been reported, and that the sick are being well cared for in the hospitals, while the convalescents have the best of wholesome food, which will, in the salubrious climate of Montauk, build up the men and put them in condition to go home in comfort.

The secretary declined to discuss for publication the criticisms of the war department, but he said that the possibilities and almost certainties of terrible ravages from the fevers had been fully discussed by the war officials and by the press before the army went to Cuba, and the government had held back against sending a great army to Cuba when the same agitators who now complain that men have died were demanding that an army of 100,000 be sent to Cuba. He was thankful that so few men had died from disease in Cuba and that so many of the sick who had returned were suffering from no worse complications than malarial fever.

CUBANS WILL OBEY.

Gen. Castillo Says That Hostility Towards Americans Is Rapidly Passing Away.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 29.—Gen. Castillo, who has been in consultation with Gen. Lawton, expresses the opinion that the disbandment of the Cubans can be effected without trouble. He says the hostility of the Cubans, growing out of the refusal of the Americans to permit joint military occupation of the conquered territory, with the Cuban flag floating over the palace beside the stars and stripes, is disappearing, and under the advice of cool heads the scheme of making an armed demand for their alleged rights has been abandoned.

Gen. Lawton has instructed Gen. Wood to formulate a plan of civil government, based upon the old regime, but with modifications. He thinks it advisable that the number of officers necessary to the government of the city should be fixed immediately. Gen. Wood will arrange the salaries and make the nominations, which will be submitted to Gen. Lawton for his approval.

Native officers will be appointed as far as possible, as they understand the language and temper of the people better than the Americans do. The police force is to be reorganized. The force will be increased and the sentinels, whose presence in the city arouses discontent, will be withdrawn and called into service only upon special request to guard life and property.

Gen. Shafter's regulation requiring vessels to remain unloaded in the harbor until all of the duties upon their cargoes have been paid has been abolished, and the public warehouses and wharves have been thrown open to commerce. One of the wharves has been reserved for public use.

Gen. Lawton has ordered that the stars and stripes be displayed upon public buildings from sunrise to sun-

Bradstreet's Review.

"Business conditions in the main reflect the continuance of most of the favorable features hitherto dominating the trade situation in the more favored sections of the country. Prominent in this direction, of course, are the iron and steel and allied industries, in which active demand, present or prospective, has led to further price advances, sustained and even increased activity in distribution at most western markets, with some improvement likewise noted at the south and on the Pacific coast, steadiness in prices—wheat, corn and cotton, however, excepted—a reduced number of business failures, fair gains in railroad earnings; as a whole, and bank clearings, in spite of a slight reduction from last week, showing heavy gains over all corresponding periods in previous years.

"The less favorable elements in the situation are the reports of arrested or smaller than expected trade at eastern markets, more particularly in textile lines, lowered quotations and apparently less active demand from abroad for our cereal products and reduced prices paid for the south's great staple, raw cotton. Qualifying the latter might be mentioned the fact that spring wheat has apparently begun to move in the northwest, and the promise of large yields in wheat and cotton alike, has tended to depress prices."

court, had accepted the appointment made several days ago. This completes the commission, which is as follows: Secretary of State Day, Senator C. K. Davis, of Minnesota; Senator William P. Frye, of Maine; Whitelaw Reid, of New York, and Justice White.

John Moore, of Massachusetts, now assistant secretary of state, will be secretary of the commission, and J. R. MacArthur, of New York, assistant secretary.

Shows Good Sense.

New York, Aug. 27.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: Gen. Aguinaldo, interviewed at Bacoor, declared that he was anxious to support the authority of the United States in these islands, and that he had persuaded the other rebel leaders to accept his views.

Puerto Rico Troops Coming Home.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Orders have been issued directing Gen. Miles to send home from Puerto Rico all troops not actually needed for service there.

and Manila, carrying troops, supplies and $1,000,000 for Gen. Merritt's army, and also the balance of the New York regiment for the Hawaiian islands.

Three hundred officers and men of the First New York will be left at Honolulu. Companies A, B and D, which make up the detachment of New Yorkers, are in command of Lieut. Col. H. P. Stackpole. With them are Maj. Walter Scott, of the Second battalion, and Maj. Robert T. Emmett, of the Third battalion. The Scandia also carried 150 men of the hospital corps, who are to work among the wounded and sick at Manila, and 25 men of the First battalion of California heavy artillery, who will act as guards of the $1,000,000, which is to be used in paying off the navy and troops.

THE TIME FIXED.

Departure of Commissions to Control Evacuation of Cuba and Puerto Rico Near at Hand.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Arrangements have been made for the speedy departure of the commission charged with the supervision of the evacuation of the Spanish forces from Cuba and Puerto Rico. The Cuban commission, consisting of Gen. Wade, Admiral Sampson and Gen. Butler, will sail on the 3d of September on the auxiliary cruiser Resolute.

The Puerto Rican commission consists of Gen. Brooke, Admiral Schley and Gen. Gordon. The army transport ship Seneca will take the members of the commission now in this country to Puerto Rico, leaving New York on Wednesday.

The departure of Rear Admiral Sampson for Cuba will make no change in his command, as reported. He will still command the North Atlantic station. Commodore Philip will be in charge of the repairing of the ships at New York.

set. Carrying arms by troops, except when on duty, is prohibited, and sentries will not be allowed to load their guns except upon the order of an officer.

The death rate among the citizens and troops is increasing. The deaths in the city daily number about 80. The mortality among the soldiers is small, however. Patients who are now convalescent after an attack of dysentery and yellow fever gain strength slowly, owing to the enervating effect of the climate. Two hundred immunes are now in the hospital.

PUERTO RICO TROOPS.

They Are Concentrating at Ponce Preparatory to Movement for the United States.

Ponce, Puerto Rico, Aug. 29.—Concentration of the troops here preparatory to the homeward movement has begun.

Six light batteries, five troops of cavalry, the Fourth Pennsylvania, the Sixth Illinois and the Second Wisconsin infantry, all volunteers, about 5,000 in all, will leave. This will leave about 10,000 United States troops on the island.

Gen. Miles will leave in about three days, as will also Gen. Wilson. This will leave Gen. Henry in command.

Being Worked Too Hard.

New York, Aug. 28.—Some of the nurses in the general hospital at Camp Wikoff are suffering from dysentery, and orders have been issued that they be given more time to themselves in which to exercise, bathe and rest. More nurses have arrived and ten will reach camp ready to take the places of those overworked until all that are needed are here. There are three male and three female nurses in each ward during the day time and two on duty at night.

Indiana's Former Governor a Victim of Paralysis—Passes Away Surrounded by His Family.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 29.—Ex-Gov. Claude Matthews had a second stroke of paralysis on Saturday afternoon and expired at 6:30 Sunday morning. He was conscious from Friday morning until the second stroke occurred and recognized his family and friends, but was speechless. Short funeral services will be held at Isaac Meharry's residence, Meharry's grove, conducted by Rev. Nave, of Crawfordsville, after which the body will be taken overland to Wingate, where a special train will convey his remains to his home at Clinton, 15 miles from Terre Haute. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Matthews received hundreds of telegrams and messages of condolence Sunday. Gov. Mount expressed the sorrow of the state at the sudden death of the ex-governor and requested that the remains be brought to Indianapolis to lie in state at the capitol. In this he was joined by Mayor Taggart and other prominent citizens. To the governor and mayor Mrs. Matthews replied that Mr. Matthews had often said to his family that when he died he wanted no pomp nor parade and would not like to have his body lie in state. Hence other and more unostentatious arrangements had already been made for the funeral. Gov. Mount and staff will attend the funeral at Clinton and a special train will leave Indianapolis Wednesday morning to carry state officials and others.

[Gov. Matthews was born in Bath county, Ky., December 14, 1845. He left Kentucky in 1868 and settled in Vermillion county, Ind., where he had a farm of 2,000 acres. He organized the Indiana Short Horn Breeders' association, and was one of the founders of the National Association of Short Horn Cattle Breeders of the United States and Canada.

Although always having a strong predilection for politics, Mr. Matthews rarely sought office. He served a term in the legislature in 1876. In 1890 he was nominated and elected secretary of state, and in 1892 he was chosen governor.

Gov. Matthews was related, through his mother, to some of the best families of Virginia and Kentucky. He was the son of Thomas A. Matthews and Eliza A. Fletcher. His maternal great-grandfather, Gen. Thomas Jefferson Fletcher, was an officer in the United States army of 1812. After his term as governor expired, Mr. Matthews retired to his home in Vermillion county.

In 1896 the friends of Mr. Matthews resolved to make him a conspicuous candidate for the democratic presidential nomination. The state convention was enthusiastically in favor of his nomination by the national democratic convention which met in Chicago in July, 1896.

Mr. Matthews endorsed the action of the national democracy, and immediately began a most brilliant campaign for Messrs. Bryan and Sewall. He never faltered for an instant, but continued actively at work until the polls were closed in November of that year.

On January 7, 1898, he married Martha R. Whitcomb, daughter of the late James Whitcomb, who was governor of Indiana from 1843 to 1849, and was afterward United States senator from this state.]

FIVE PERSONS KILLED.

Wagon Containing a Pleasure-Seeking Party Is Struck by a Boston & Maine Road Train.

Ware, Mass., Aug. 29.—Five persons were killed at Whiting's Crossing, on the Boston & Maine railroad, by a collision between a train and a wagon containing a pleasure party of 11 persons. The dead are:

George Whiting, aged 50; Mrs. George Whiting, Jessie Whiting, aged 18; Sadie Whiting, aged 20; unknown boy, who flagged the crossing.

The pleasure party was made up of the Whiting family and some of their immediate friends of Bondville, and they were going to Forest Lake in a covered wagon drawn by four horses.

As the wagon came over the crest of the hill and started down toward the railroad track the flag boy at the foot of the hill was seen to come out of his station to flag an approaching train.

The momentum of the vehicle on the steep grade was so great, however, that it went by the flag boy and out upon the tracks just as the Northampton and Ware accommodation train came along.

New York, Aug. 29.—A beautiful 18-year-old girl, who died of heart disease in a flat in this city was identified by Baron P. De Lange, an Austrian banker, as Wanda von Speno Bodenback, baroness and viscountess of Spierenbergh of Austria, and heiress to $4,000,000. She had eloped from home with a young man who robbed her of her jewelry and money and then deserted her.

TOLD BY THE SERGEANT.

From the Democrat, Grand Rapids, Mich.

At the Michigan Soldiers' Home, in Grand Rapids, lives Sergeant Richard Dunn, hale and hearty, although he carries the scars of several wounds sustained in some of the battles of the Civil War. In recounting his experience to a reporter, Mr. Dunn said:

"About a year and a half ago I began to have trouble with my stomach. My suffering was so intense that I tried different medicines and doctored with several physicians, but without permanent relief.

"I read an account of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People having cured a case much like mine, and I decided to give them a trial, which I did.

"After taking five boxes I was cured. I never felt better than I do now, even in my younger days. I am naturally a robust man, but that stomach trouble, together with rheumatism, which afterward set in, were making fast inroads upon my health and I am satisfied that it would have been but a short time before my comrades would have been conducting the regulation funeral ceremonies over my remains, had I not chanced to read of and taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"There are several others in the home who are taking these pills and are receiving great benefit."

RICHARD DUNN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 1st day of Nov., 1897.

HENRY GIBSON, Notary Public.

Sergeant Dunn is perfectly willing that anyone should write him in reference to his case, provided stamp is enclosed for reply.

All the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves are contained in a condensed form in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. In men they cure cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

Odds and Ends.

In a little country church, one hot Sunday, recently, there were very few worshippers when the pastor opened the services. Perspiration oozed from the faces of the just and unjust alike. The preacher was the picture of discomfort when he mounted the pulpit to preach the sermon. He gazed at the congregation for a moment and began in the most unorthodox manner: "Brethren, it's hot, and so I say, 'Comfort before pride.'" With that he shed his heavy black coat, hung it over the side of the pulpit, and preached the sermon in his shirt sleeves.

The civil war is said to have cost the country fully eight billion dollars, while it was in progress—adding to the direct outlay the value of property destroyed and the damage done by interference with industry. And the end is not yet, for though thirty-three years have passed, pension and interest payments still continue to increase the total. A part of the cost of that war was put off on another generation, just as a part of our present outlay will be; but the people who danced paid the piper notwithstanding, in the form of "war taxes"—and we must do the same. The men and women who cheerfully bear this increased burden are not the lowest on our list of seventy million patriots.

A prize was offered recently by a paper for the best answer to the question: "What is home?" Here are a few of the answers which were received: Home is the blossom of which heaven is the fruit. A world of strife shut out, a world of love shut in. The golden setting, in which the brightest jewel is mother. The only spot on earth where faults and failings of humanity are hidden under a mantle of charity. The place where the great are sometimes small and the small often great. The father's kingdom, the children's paradise, and the mother's world. Where you are treated best and you grumble most. A little hollow scooped out of the windy hill of the world, where we can be shielded from its cares and annoyances.

While horses may never again be so valuable or in as great demand as they were twenty or fifty years ago, yet such a thing as a horse famine might occur in this country within a few years. Most farmers have quit raising colts because there is no great demand for them, and they think they cannot afford to be bothered with them during the spring and summer working season. This objection can be largely overcome by having the foals come in the fall after the summer work is over, and the colts can then be weaned and out of the way before the work commences in the following spring. Fall colts can go into the pasture the next spring and will be older and better able to go through the next winter than the colts born in the spring. Every farmer should raise horses for his own use and some extra good ones to sell, and generally he will find it much easier to raise colts that are born in the fall than those that are born in the spring.

One way to preserve fodder in good condition for feeding is to put both the ears and stacks of corn into a silo, says Prof. Clinton D. Smith of the Michigan experiment station in Bulletin No. 154. As to the stage of ripeness at which the crop should be cut, the results of the experiments carried on in 1896 and 1897 go to show that the maximum yield of dry matter and nutrients is obtained by allowing the crop to mature until the ears are well glazed. Between the time when the kernels begin to glaze and full ripeness there is a gain of over one-eighth in dry matter, one-sixth in starch, sugar and other carbohydrates and one-fifth in fat. The study of the losses in the silo goes to show that there may be danger of allowing the corn to stand too long, especially in hot and dry weather, making the silage too dry to secure the proper fermentation. No regular and consistent variation in extent of loss was noted which could be related to the age of the corn when cut.

If any bats are found about the barn or other buildings encourage their presence. Dr. C. F. Hodge of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., in the Country Gentleman, says that in an orchard near his home he found nine grubs of the codling moth in one minute. Chancing to visit another orchard not a mile from the first he found only four grubs in an hour's search. The owner of the farm said that in an old barn near by live seventy-five to one hundred bats, and his apples were always free from worms. The naturalist caught a bat and offered it some of the grubs, which were greedily accepted. The codling moth flies only at night; so does the bat—good circumstantial evidence that the bat is a useful friend to the apple grower. Dr. Hodge took half a dozen bats home and kept them in the parlor. They made their home in the top folds of the window draperies, dining about at night and sometimes in the daytime. From time to time net full of night-flying insects were released in the room and never a bug remained in the morning.
