Foster-Craig.

The social event, par excellence, of Sylvan, occurred Thursday, Sept. 15, 1898, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Updike. The happy and brilliant occasion was the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ella May Craig, and Lyndon's noble son, Schuyler P. Foster, by Rev. Thomas Holmes, D.D., of Chelsea. The company was large and sprightly, and the sharp shafts of wit and wisdom, well wrapped in loving words and smiles, flew thick and fast through the crowd.

After the impressive and solemn ceremony, and the discussion of such a spread of wholesome and toothsome viands as only farmers' wives and daughters know how to make, "the feast of reason and the flow of soul," well seasoned with sparkling wit (not wine) and hearty laughter, followed, to the social enjoyment and at least the hygienic profit of all. The presents were numerous, beautiful and valuable.

At a seasonable hour the delighted company, leaving their parting benediction with the happy couple, retired to their several homes, each bearing a pleasant memory of a happy event, that will be a source of joy to the end of life. May joy, peace, length of days and prosperity be the portion of Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler P. Foster.

Oratorical Contest.

The Matrons' Oratorical Contest, which is being arranged for by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be held at the M. E. Church, on Friday evening, September 30th.

The subject of discussion will be "Equal Suffrage." A beautiful silver medal will be awarded to the successful contestant.

The names of the following ladies are on the list, and will vouch for the worth of the entertainment: Mrs. J. S. Edmunds, Mrs. Merritt Boyd, Mrs. Geo. P. Glazier, Mrs. E. L. Negus, Mrs. D. B. Taylor, Mrs. C. E. Stimson, Mrs. J. Everett, Mrs. Jas. B. McLaren, and Mrs. H. M. Doig, President of the County W. C. T. U.

The programme will include a variety of thought and style of expression—from grave to gay, humorous and pathetic—and will be interspersed with bright and lively music. Three judges will decide which one, in their opinion, has made the best effort.

While the decision is being made a supplementary programme will be given by the little folks.

The object of the entertainment is to promote public sentiment. No admission fee will be charged, although a collection may be taken to defray necessary expenses. Everyone will be welcomed.

The Surprise of All.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Glazier & Stimson's drug store.

HERO HAD HIS TROUBLES.

Woman's Care and Kindness Makes Him Think of Cuba with Longing.

"War is pretty bad, of course," remarked a blue-coated man with a bandage under his coat, "but I declare, in some ways, women are as bad as Spaniards—only they kill you with kindness instead of bullets. I came home from Santiago with this little wound in my hip, and, really, I can't tell you how I've suffered since, from the women of my family. It is all right, of course; this world would be a den of wild beasts without the love and sympathy of woman—but the dear creatures—especially those nearest to us—generally overdo it. They didn't believe my message that I was only slightly wounded, so on my arrival I was met by my wife, her mother, two maiden aunts and a girl cousin, all rallied from the four quarters of Michigan and adjoining states to nurse me. I don't need any nursing worth mentioning, but, believe me, if I've drawn a long breath in two weeks without those five women jumping up and rushing at me, I will eat my army blanket. If I wink my wife says: 'What is it, dear?—if I move one leg, my girl cousin springs at me with another pillow in her hand; during the night my two aunts wake me up to see if I want anything; and my mother-in-law—well, the dear soul hasn't sat down or been to bed since I came—to my knowledge. My wound is nearly healed, and that's a blessing, for if I don't get back to Cuba pretty soon I'll be a ruined man. I can't stand such coddling—it will make a bloated tyrant out of me, so it will. A man needs war once in awhile to get him away from woman—dear, loving woman—she would make a spineless infant out of him in no time.'—Detroit Free Press.

Improvements in Flying Machines.

Inventors are plenty who can make a machine that will rise and float in air, but the one improvement which none has succeeded in making is an apparatus that will guide the machine through the many treacherous currents of air. In this respect humanity is fortunate in having Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which acts as a safe guide by curing treacherous stomach, liver and blood diseases, giving a good appetite, a strong constitution and nerves like steel.

Several hundred thousand people in the United States and Canada are literally starving for breath because of chronic asthma, when if they would consult Dr. P. Harold Hayes, of Buffalo, N. Dr. Hayes makes no charge for examination by mail and his opinion as to the curability of any case.

MRS. PINKHAM'S WARNING TO WOMEN.

Neglect is the Forerunner of Misery and Suffering—A Grateful Husband Writes of His Wife's Recovery.

Nearly all the ill health of women is traceable to some derangement of the feminine organs. These derangements do not cure themselves, and neglect of the sensations resulting from them is only putting off trouble.

Pathetic stories are constantly coming to Mrs. Pinkham of women whose neglect has resulted in serious heart trouble and a whole train of woes. Here is the story of a woman who was helped by Mrs. Pinkham after other treatment failed:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It affords me very great pleasure to be able to state that I believe my wife owes her health to your medicine and good advice. For three years her health failed rapidly; she had heart trouble, often falling down in dizziness and fainting spells, shortness of breath, choking and smothering spells, bloating of the stomach, a dry cough, dyspeptic symptoms, menses irregular, scanty, and of an unnatural color. She had been treated by physicians with but little benefit. She has taken your treatment according to your directions, and is better in every way. I am well pleased with the result of your treatment, and give you permission to use my letter for the benefit of others.

CHAS. H. and Mrs. MAY BUTCHER, Fort Meyer, Va.

The healing and strengthening power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all female ills is so well established that it needs no argument. For over twenty years it has been used by women with results that are truly wonderful. Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are puzzled about their health to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice. All such correspondence is seen by women only, and no charge is made.

A Million Women Have Been Benefited by Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Medicine.

Poon's Manual of Railroads for 1898 shows the increase in railroad mileage in the United States for 1897 to have been 2,004, making the total miles in operation 184,603.

HON. CHARLES DENBY, former United States minister to China, who has just returned to this country, has the almost unprecedented record of having served continuously for 13 years as a minister.

COL. DU PATY DE CLAM's rise in the nobility is traced by the Paris Siecle. His great grandfather was a judge in Bordeaux, named Mercier Dupaty; his grandfather bought Clam, a little vineyard, and called himself Dupaty de Clam. His father was a general and turned his name into Count Du Paty de Clam. The colonel himself uses the title of marquis.

WALTER WRENN, the distinguished India civil service "coach," who died a few days ago, had a rather remarkable history. He had not completed his education when, as a result of a kick he received at school, he was attacked by spinal disease, which compelled him to leave off reading for honors and to content himself with a pass degree, and for years made him a helpless cripple.

ERNESTINE CUROT, a young saleswoman in a Parisian dry goods shop, who is declared by many to be the most beautiful woman in the city, is at present the craze of the French capital. She personated the "Muse of Poetry" in crowning with laurel the bust of Michael, and was discharged by her employers for her participation in that ceremony. A movement is on foot to furnish her with a shop of her own by popular subscription.

The terrific speed at which a modern man can travel without the aid of any outside force is amazing. Last Monday two bicyclists, Michael and Linton, traveled in an hour respectively 33 1/2 miles and 31 miles—an average of over one mile in two minutes—and continued for one hour. Linton covered two miles in three minutes and twenty-two and two-fifths seconds, which was one and three-fifths seconds faster than the record of Champion Taylore.

CASES of smallpox are very rare in the German army. The excellent system of vaccination has resulted in making the enormous army almost immune. Not more than a half dozen cases of smallpox appear each year. The regulations demand at least ten punctures in each arm. Every recruit must undergo a revaccination. The one death caused by smallpox between 1874 and 1887 was probably due to the fact that the victim was twice unsuccessfully vaccinated when recruited.

ACCORDING to the calculation of the New York Commercial Bulletin, the fire loss in the United States and Canada for the past month of August amounted to $7,793,500. This loss was only larger than the March loss, which was $7,645,200. The greatest monthly loss, so far this year, was in February, when the fire loss aggregated $12,639,302. Up to August the loss for 1898 amounted to $74,960,350; for 1897 the first eight months' loss amounted to $71,031,700 and for 1896 it amounted to $81,880,050.

The golden stories of the rich strikes made in the Klondike told by some of the returning Argonauts are not sustained by the records. The Engineering and Mining Journal keeps an account of the gold brought from the Alaskan fields and finds that the result of last winter's work was not more than $9,000,000. Most of the gold was mined in Canadian territory and the Canadian authorities have collected royalties on $4,000,000 and estimate that there has been mined, $8,000,000 upon which royalties are yet to be paid.

ANDREW CARNEGIE has notified the Pittsburgh Carnegie library commission that he will personally assume responsibility for the safety of the pictures sent to the annual art exhibition, and recommends that the money heretofore devoted to insuring the safety of such pictures be used in the formation of a sinking fund, to be expended in the purchase of pictures, as well as continuing the insurance after the fund reaches the proper size. The annual cost of insuring pictures in the art department of the library is now estimated at $3,500.

THE United States department of agriculture has received through the department of state a communication from Count Cassini, Russian ambassador, stating that the Imperial Russian Horticultural society will hold an international horticultural exposition at St. Petersburg in May, 1899. The United States is invited to take part in the exposition by sending exhibits and special commissioners to prepare the American section. Exhibits of foreign exhibitors duly accredited will not be subject to customs' inspection at the Russian frontier.

SUGGESTED WAY TO POLICE CUBA.

President Comonfort Solved the Problem in Mexico by Creating the Rural Guard Out of Outlaws and Stamping Out Brigandage.

Copyright, 1898.

With the close of the American-Spanish war Puerto Rico and the Philippines have been left permanently in the possession of the United States, and there has devolved upon this country the responsibility for good government in Cuba. In the governing of these territories the imperative question first met is that of the maintaining of law and order—the protecting of public institutions and private citizens.

So far as Puerto Rico goes with its small territorial extent and the pacific character of its people, it undoubtedly brigands, made up principally of the disbanded soldiers of the deposed Santa Anna, infested the road between Vera Cruz and the City of Mexico and levied tribute on travelers and treasure trains. They were known as the Plateados—a name given on account of the rich fashion with which they adorned their trappings with silver—and they were popular with the common people who admired their dash and daring and saw no harm in their taking the spoils of the rich. Comonfort was quick to see the advantage of extirpating brigandage and of adding can be left to the care of its local police, backed by the power of such garrisons as the national government shall maintain there. In Cuba and the Philippines different conditions prevail. In both these territories there is a considerable element of population naturally lawless, and, beyond this, there will be for years the tendency to brigandage that follows the close of a war. In Cuba there are the thousands who were insurgents, accustomed for many years now to a reckless, irregular life and the excitement of fighting. In the Philippines, in the population, 8,000,000 in number, made up of various native races, the Malays, who are in the majority, are traditionally given to murderous impulse and piracy.

In the policing of the Philippines the system of the British in India will probably be followed—the employment of native soldiers and police, under the command of white officers, with a certain proportion of native noncommissioned and subaltern officers. From the character of the native people this presents a new and difficult problem of military organization and discipline, and it is likely that years will pass and many changes be made before the best system is arrived at. In Cuba with its Spanish-at the same time a powerful military element to his support. He invited all the bandit chiefs to a conference and there proposed that, instead of robbing, that they and their men should enlist as a military body, which should be charged with the office of keeping the roads of Mexico safe for travel.

The Mexican people of all classes are very proud of their rurales, and it is interesting to see the enthusiasm shown when a detachment of the soldiers pass along a street of a city. The best opportunity to observe this feeling occurs in the City of Mexico, when, on the 16th of September, the Mexican Independence day, all the national troops that conveniently can be gathered for the purpose parade the streets of the capital, passing in review before the president. The Mexicans love military display, and the people cheer and shout as the different cavalry and infantry battalions march in procession down the Calle de San Francisco toward the great plaza. But it is when the rurales come on that their great enthusiasm breaks forth. At such parades the rurales use bridles and saddles mounted with silver, and the stirrups of some are of solid silver. Their horses wear housings of tooled and embroidered leather. As these American population the situation would probably best be met by the organization of battalions of Cubans on the system of the rurales or road guards of Mexico.

No traveler upon the railways of Mexico can fail to be impressed with the spectacle of the line of cavalrymen that he sees drawn up at every station where the train halts. In native Mexican costume of high-crowned, wide-brimmed sombreros, leather jackets and pantalons, all heavy with silver trimmings; with their darddevil look and air of having been born to the saddle; with their fine horses showing careful care and grooming, their equipment of carbine, saber and revolver, these riders look equally picturesque and fit for business.

It was President Comonfort, one of Mexico's greatest rulers, who, back in the "fifties," conceived and carried into effect the idea of organizing this remarkable corps of cavalry. When he came to the presidency bands of magnificent cavalymen, in their gold and silver trimmed leather ranchman's garb, ride along in platoons, every man looking as proud and free as the spirited horse beneath him, the people that crowd the streets and housetops go fairly wild. They cheer and throw their hats into the air, shouting: "Viva! These are Mexicans! They are our own soldiers, the soldiers of the people!"

Without the rurales it would be next to impossible to operate railways in Mexico. When the Mexican Central railway was built the poorer Mexicans would steal iron from the rails. To prevent this source of danger to trains a national law was enacted that any man detected in the act of disturbing the rails or track of a railway should be shot without trial. It was the rurales who carried this law into effect so thoroughly that soon the track of the road was safe from molestation from the Rio Grande to the Mexican capital.

JUDGE COOLEY DEAD.

Famous Jurist Passes Away at His Home in Michigan.

One of the Most Eminent Members of the American Bar—Famed for His Authorship of Books on the Law.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sep. 13.—Judge Thomas M. Cooley, the noted jurist and constitutional lawyer, died early Monday at his home. Three months ago he returned from a private sanitarium at Flint, Mich., where he had been treated chiefly for mental weakness. He was then so much improved in mental health that he was able to recognize acquaintances. He realized his weak physical condition and his failing mental abilities, and often expressed a wish that death would come. Several weeks ago he relapsed into a comatose condition. During the ensuing interval the only intelligible utterance he made was once when he inquired for his oldest son.

Life of Judge Cooley.

[Thomas McIntyre Cooley had had a distinguished career in jurisprudence, mounting step by step to an exalted rank among legal writers and gaining the highest appointments on the bench of the state of Michigan.

The eminent jurist was born in Attica, N. Y., January 6, 1824. He removed to Michigan in the year of his majority, and two years later was admitted to the bar.

The first tribute to his genius came in 1857, when at the age of 33 he was appointed to compile and publish the laws of the state, and in 1858 he was made reporter of the decisions of the supreme court. He held this position for several years, during which time he published eight volumes of reports, followed by a digest of all the decisions of the state. The University of Michigan organized its law department in 1859 and the young lawyer was chosen one of its professors. Later he became dean of the faculty and held the position until 1885, after which he was for three years professor of constitutional history in the same university. He was also a lecturer for three years on governmental subjects at Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore.

During these years of pedagogy he was holding distinguished judicial positions. In 1864 he was appointed to fill a vacancy on the bench of the supreme court of the state and retained the position for 21 years, being part of the time chief justice.

The United States circuit court at Chicago made him receiver for the Wabash Railway company in 1887. He took the management of the road upon himself, but resigned it after a few months' service to accept an appointment on the interstate commerce commission for the regulation of railroads. He took his commission at the earnest solicitation of President Cleveland and was made chairman of his associates, holding the office for four years.

Among the works published by Judge Cooley are "The Constitutional Limitations Which Rest Upon the Legislative Power of the States of the American Union," in 1868, and which has gone through several editions; an edition of Blackstone's "Commentaries," in 1870; and of Story's "Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States, with Additional Chapters on the New Amendments," in 1873; "Law of Taxation," in 1876; "Law of Torts," in 1879; "General Principles of Constitutional Law in the United States," in 1880, and "Michigan, a History of Governments," in 1885.]

Governor's Proclamation.

Gov. Pingree issued the following proclamation:

"Judge Thomas McIntyre Cooley died at his residence in Ann Arbor this morning. He was 74 years of age. He was born in Attica, N. Y., January 6, 1824. He had been a resident of Michigan since 1843. He was three times elected justice of the supreme court of Michigan—in 1864, 1869 and 1877. His work on the supreme bench extended through 44 volumes of the Michigan reports.

"He was one of the four judges who in the earlier days laid broad and deep the foundation of those principles of local self-government which to-day give to the people of this state that great bulwark of free institutions, a right inherent in the people and underlying our form of government.

"He saw a state develop into a great commonwealth. His works as a law writer and his published opinions are a part of the state's history. He fearlessly did his duty, uninfluenced by party passion or prejudice of any kind. A common people mourn his loss. Like a shadow, thrown softly and sweetly from a passing cloud, death fell upon him."

"In recognition of a general sentiment and as a slight but fitting tribute to the memory of a great and good man, I deem it proper that observance be made on the day of his funeral.

"Therefore, it is hereby directed that flags on the capitol building be placed at half mast until after his burial, and that on Wednesday, the 14th day of September, the day appointed for the funeral, all ordinary business in the executive chamber and in the other departments of the state government be suspended."

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Biggest Ever Reported.

The Michigan crop report for September says:

The probable yield of wheat in the state is 34,162,563 bushels. This is more than ever reported in the farm statistics. The final estimate will be made in October. Threshers' returns indicate that oats will yield in the state 32 bushels and barley 24 bushels per acre.

Corn, beans, potatoes and pastures have been injured by the dry weather, though scattering showers have afforded partial relief. Beans are estimated to yield 69 per cent. and potatoes 72 per cent. of average crops.

Apples promise in the state about six-tenths and peaches three-fourths of average crops. The estimate for apples in the southern counties is 52 and for peaches 76.

Michigan's Oldest Man.

Henry Banks, of Bangor, celebrated his one hundred and fifth birthday. The old man, who is colored, is the oldest person in Michigan. He was born in Louisiana, and in his younger days was a slave. When a babe in Louisiana he sold for $150 and when grown large enough to ride his master's horse was sold for $1,000. Banks' owner and a neighboring slaveholder had a quarrel, and to this he owes his freedom. The latter, in revenge, assisted Banks to escape by the underground railway route to Canada.

Murder and Suicide.

While in a fit of drunken jealous rage Ezekiel Lazette, aged 45, shot and instantly killed his wife at Wyandotte and then turned the revolver on himself, inflicting a wound from which he died in an hour. Lazette had for some time been jealous of his wife, and a few days ago assaulted her in their home. Mrs. Lazette had him arrested for this, but he secured bonds, was released from jail and went to his home and committed the crime.

A Triple Tragedy.

Jesse Badgerow, a farmer of James-town, Ottawa county, stabbed his wife, killing her instantly, then fatally, stabbed her sister, Miss Aylesworth, 17 years of age, and then killed himself. The wife had been visiting her father, John Aylesworth, five miles distant, for several days, and did not return as soon as expected, and this was the cause of the crime.

To Have a Monument.

Word has come from the commander of the United States arsenal at Watertown, N. Y., that under an act of congress passed in 1896, two large guns, one a 100-pound Parrott and the other an 8-inch Hotchkiss, will be forwarded to Charlotte. They will be suitably mounted on the courthouse square and will fill the purpose of a monument to the soldiers of 1861-65.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health from 86 observers in various portions of the state for the week ended September 10 indicate that typhoid fever and pleuritis increased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 189 places, measles at 7, typhoid fever at 83, scarlet fever at 23, diphtheria at 13, and whooping cough at 19 places.

A Western teacher in a town in which the women have the right of suffrage received the following note accounting for the absence of one of her pupils on election day: "Dere Teacher—Plese be so kind as to excuse Lizzie for not having went to school yesterday. I kep her hom to mind the baby while I giv out votes at the poles an otherwise don what I could to elect the right man, who, as you will see by the morning paper, got there by a big majority. So I am glad I kep Lizzie hom an don what I could at the poles."—Harper's Round Table.

Bill Nye often spoke his witticism laden with the greatest truths. Among the most noticeable, most Nyeish and most apropos is the following: "A man may use a wart on the back of his neck for a collar button; ride on the back coach of a train to save interest on his money until the conductor comes around; stop his watch at night to save the wear and tear; leave his 'I' and 'I' without a dot or cross to save ink; but a man of this kind is a gentleman and a scholar compared to a fellow who will take a newspaper, and, when asked to pay for it, puts it back into the post-office and has it marked 'Refused.'"

Select the seed corn while the stalks are standing in the field is the best single item of advice that can be given to farmers. Corn is a standard crop. Its failure is much worse than the failure of wheat. Much can be done by selection. Over 160 bushels of corn were raised on an acre in Nelson county, Va., by a former member of congress by selection of seed. Some stalks contained from five to seven ears, and grew to the height of fourteen feet. This may appear remarkable, and may not be repeated, but it shows that in order to secure the largest yields the seed corn must be selected every year until the variety is made better.

There never was a time when newspaper advertising was so popular as it is now, nor was there ever a period when it returned greater results to those who place their wares in a proper light before the public. The wide awake merchant no more thinks of shutting his business out from the newspaper field than he thinks of living without eating. Newspaper advertising is necessary to success. Look about you and see who it is that takes the lead in business. It is always the house that keeps its name prominently before the public through the local papers. The people nowadays are always on the lookout for bargains, and it is the newspaper advertising columns they turn to before buying. The wide-awake advertisers are the people who do the business of the country.

Sudden Death.

James Bacon, of this place, but of late years a resident of San Antonio, Texas, where he was employed in the firm of G. Hellemans & Co., died in that city on the 10th instant.

News had been received here that he had met with a serious accident, being thrown from a vehicle and sustaining spinal injuries; but the doctors had pronounced favorable symptoms of recovery, and great hopes were entertained in that direction, when he was taken suddenly with an internal hemorrhage.

The intelligence of his death was a sad and unexpected blow to his friends and family.

An Important Work.

The Detroit Evening News, with the characteristic enterprise of that paper, is preparing a very elaborate historical and biographical review of the State of Michigan, to be entitled, "Men of Progress of Michigan."

It is their purpose to make this work authentic and complete. It will include portraits and sketches of such citizens as have aided and are aiding in the growth and development of the State. Newspaper men, and those familiar with our State affairs, have long felt the want of a work of this character as it has been practically impossible heretofore to obtain such information regarding prominent Michigan men outside of Detroit as this book will cover. The State is fortunate that The Evening News has seen fit to take this work upon itself, and is thus assured of its high quality.

The Stockbridge Fair.

Few if any fair associations in the State can boast of twenty-one consecutive years of success. The Stockbridge Union Agricultural Society was organized in 1876, six years before the village secured railroad facilities. The first exhibit was held under the church sheds in 1877, and from this small beginning the progress and growth of the fair have been steady. The twenty-second annual exhibition of the society will be held on the association grounds, in this village, Sept. 28, 29 and 30; and the officers of the society, and the people generally, expect that it will be one of the best ever held by the association.

The Dansville band, which has just received new uniforms and several new instruments, will be present and furnish the music. A contract has been made, and the celebrated colored base ball club known as the "Page Fence Giants," of Adrian, will play a game of ball with the equally prominent club, known as the "Detroit Athletic Club." Thus the African and Caucasian will contend for the mastery in the national sport on the second day, Sept. 29. If the weather permit, the last of the Hogans will make a balloon ascension, Sept. 30. There will also be a free exhibition in front of the grand stand every day of the fair at 11 o'clock. Liberal purses for the races have been hung up; and there will be a trotting, pacing and running race on 29th and 30th.

A general invitation is extended to all to come to Stockbridge on any or all days of the fair.

Old Papers Useful.

A few folds of the newspaper under the cake tin prevents it burning while in the oven.

Wrap ice in newspapers if you are afraid of its melting away over night. The papers keep it even better than a blanket.

A few newspapers, perforated with small holes for ventilation, tacked to a blanket, make a warm and comfortable bed covering on cold nights.

Rub the hairbrushes every morning with a pad of paper; it removes the dust. A piece of newspaper rolled into a pad is a good substitute for a sauc'pan brush.

Crush some paper in the hand and rub the cooking stove after the cooking is done; it removes the grease quickly and keeps the stove in capital order if done frequently.

Torn into shreds—a nice amusement for a child, by the way—newspapers can be put into washing ticks and, if frequently changed, make a good bed for a small child.

How to Cook Onions with Eggs.

Slice two quarts of silver or white or Spanish onions, put them on to boil in cold water, to which has been added salt and a little baking soda. When they come to a boil, throw this water off, then add hot water and a little more salt. Stew until tender. Turn in colander and drain in a warm place. When thoroughly drained, have ready in a pan a teaspoonful of melted butter. Put onions in pan, and when hot add a tablespoonful of butter and two or three beaten eggs. This will agree with the most delicate stomach.

Just now the Chelsea Standard is giving Grass Lake fits for being an old fossil. Well, this reminds us that once upon a time, so the story runs, a spirit departed, and appearing at the pearly gates, sought admittance of good Saint Peter. The good spirit asked from what part of the earth the spirit came, and was informed from Grass Lake. He was denied admission, because all the Grass Lake appropriation of space was taken. Thereupon the erstwhile fettered spirit sought the opposite realm, and was informed that there, also, the Grass Lake appropriation of room was occupied, and it is said it required four constables from each realm, and a squad of soldiers, to compel the spirit to return to Grass Lake. And yet, Brother Carleton, of the News, is constantly humming—"There's no place like home."—Stockbridge Sun.

PROTOCOL ACCEPTED.

The Spanish Parliament Agrees to the Terms of the Bill.

Queen Regent Signs the Measure—Cabinet Discusses Philippine Situation—Agitation in Cuba.

Washington, Sept. 15.—In official quarters much satisfaction is expressed over the reports from Madrid that the lower house of parliament had passed the government bill accepting the terms of the protocol.

The queen regent signed the protocol bill Wednesday evening. The upper house already has passed this measure, so that the last fear of legislative opposition to the transfer of Cuba, the Ladrone and Puerto Rico is now over.

The Cortes Prorogued.
Madrid, Sept. 15.—The premier, Senor Sagasta, has obtained the queen regent's signature to a decree proroguing the cortes, and with it ended a stormy session of the senate.

Fixing the Terms.
Washington, Sept. 14.—Two important meetings of the cabinet were held Tuesday, at which the situation in the Philippines was carefully considered and an outline arrived at of the instructions which the peace commissioners will carry with them to Paris. It was first decided that there should be no mistake as to the attitude of the two countries. The United States will treat with Spain as a conqueror with the conquered. This much is established, and the commissioners will be clearly instructed to this effect.

Cuba and Puerto Rico will not be subjects of negotiation, except incidentally. They were disposed of by CURRENCY CONVENTION.

Champions of the White and Yellow Metals Discuss Their Various Merits at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 14.—One of the most distinguished gatherings of financial students that ever assembled opened a three days' session at the Nebraska building, exposition grounds, Tuesday morning. Scarcely a well-known name on either side of the great currency problem which has been so long before the American people but is represented on the programme for a set of papers or a part in the running debate. Hon. J. Sterling Morton presided.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 15.—There was a largely increased attendance of delegates at the second day's session of the national currency convention. Silver had the floor, both forenoon and afternoon, and an array of congressmen, economists and others sought combat with their gold-standard opponents, and essayed to answer the arguments advanced by the latter in Tuesday's discourses.

Ex-Congressman Charles H. Towne, of Duluth, Minn., presided over the session and delivered the first volley in an address on "The Coinage and Use of Silver as Standard Money Coordinatedly with Gold." Those who took a prominent part in assisting Chairman Towne in exploiting the silver side of the currency question included C. S. Hartman, of Montana; E. P. Bartine, of Washington, D. C.; Anson Walcott, of Indiana; Senator Jones, of Arkansas; Henry G. Miller, of Chicago, and C. N. Fowler, of New Jersey.

Answers to the arguments of these speakers were embodied in brief speeches delivered by Edwin Burrill Smith, of Chicago; Platt Rogers, of Denver; J. Adam Bede, of Duluth, and H. L. Franing, of Ohio.

DEATH IN THE WIND.

Awful Havoc Caused by Hurricane in Danish West Indies—Many Lives Reported Lost.

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Sept. 15.—According to the latest reports from St. Lucia the storm which broke upon the island Sunday night developed almost unprecedented violence, being accompanied by a tidal wave and tremendous rains. Numerous landslides were caused, and many houses, bridges and cocoa estates have been destroyed. At least 12 lives have been lost. Guadaloupe, the French island in the Leeward group, has experienced very heavy weather. Nineteen deaths are reported, and there have been destructive landslides.

A boat from the island of St. Vincent, a hundred miles west of Barbadoes, arrived Wednesday at the island of Grenada, and reports that St. Vincent has experienced the most violent and destructive cyclone ever known there. Kingston, the capital of St. Vincent, is totally destroyed. It is estimated that 300 lives have been lost in that island, and that 20,000 people are homeless. The bodies of the dead are being buried in trenches. Thousands are starving or being fed at the public expense.

The amount of property destroyed in St. Vincent cannot yet be estimated. Every small house is down, and many large ones have been destroyed. The demolished buildings include churches, stores and almost all the estate buildings. Three large ships are ashore on the Windward coast, and many smaller vessels are stranded.

London, Sept. 15.—Advises were received here late Wednesday night saying that a terrible hurricane has swept over Barbadoes, in the Windward group of the Lesser Antilles. Two hundred persons have been killed and thousands rendered homeless.

St. Vincent, British West Indies,

SPAIN'S COMMISSION NAMED.

Sagasta Finally Selects the Men Who Are to Negotiate Terms of Peace.

London, Sept. 19.—A special dispatch from Madrid says the Spanish peace commissioners have been appointed. They are Senor Montero Rios, president of the senate, who is president of the commission; General Cerero and Senors Abnarzuza, Villarrutia and Garnica.

New York, Sept. 19.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Madrid (via Paris) says that it is a bitter disappointment to Premier Sagasta that he has failed to get for Spanish peace commissioners representative men of all parties, to give it a national character, over and above sectional politics. In spite of all his promises and persuasion, the premier has been unable to obtain the consent of any statesman outside of his own immediate followers, who are willing to act on the commission, where, to use an expression of Senor Silveira, "Spain can employ nothing but empty words and parables to oppose any demands the American commissioners may see fit to make."

The sitting of the cortes, and especially Count Almenas' violent onslaughts upon the generals, which are said to be endorsed by numbers of younger officers of the army, are regarded as foreshadowing events of far graver importance that cannot be avoided after the signing of the peace treaty. The sole point upon which all parties here now seem to agree is that Senor Sagasta must remain in power until the conclusion of peace, and thereby drink the dregs of the cup which his enemies maintain he has himself brewed.

It is impossible longer to conceal the fact that the military leaders are now preparing to act as soon as peace is signed. Gen. Weyler never misses an opportunity to discredit the dynasty and is bitterly opposed to Senor Polavieja. Weyler is believed to be aiming at an outright dictatorship in his own personal interest and is known to have promised the highest and most lucrative places to his military followers.

The great danger in the situation is that the military element is considered as offering the only solution of the present difficulties, which party passion has so embittered that cool-headed men fear an era of pronouncements, dictatorship and civil war.

London, Sept. 19.—The Daily Mail's Madrid correspondent says a long conference was held between Senor Sagasta, the premier, and Senor Montero Rios, the president of the Spanish peace commission, Sunday, which resulted in the decision that the peace commission shall strenuously defend the retention of the Philippine islands by Spain.

New York, Sept. 19.—The United States commissioners to conclude the terms of peace with Spain sailed on board the Cunard line steamer Campania, en route to Paris. The commission consists of Former Secretary of State William R. Day, United States Senators William P. Frye, Cushman K. Davis and George Gray and Whitelaw Reid. Each commissioner is accompanied on the trip by his wife or other members of the family.

ENDS ITS WORK.

Puerto Rican Commission Completes the Arrangements for Spanish Evacuation.

San Juan, Sept. 19.—The work of the military commission is practically over, all arrangements for the evacuation by the Spanish troops and the receipt of government property having been determined upon. Admiral Schley says that if there were transports here for the embarkation of the troops the commission could leave for home within a week. He thinks a military government will be established here within a month. The commission has simply demanded the immediate evacuation of the island and possession of all tangible government property. These demands have been frankly conceded by the Spanish commission, so that while the meetings of the commissions will continue for the purpose of winding up the details there is nothing of importance left to be done. The attitude of the American commission has offended some Puerto Ricans, who think the Americans have not demanded enough. They have insisted they should claim the sum of $400,000 alleged to be in the bank here belonging to the government. The Puerto Ricans maintain that the money was raised by the island, hence it should not be taken to Spain.

THREE DROWNED.

Boat Containing a Party of Worshipers Is Upset in the Connecticut River.

Middletown, Conn., Sept. 19.—Three persons were drowned in the Connecticut river off Moramus Sunday afternoon, the victims being Patrick Kelly, aged 26; William Kelly, 24, and William Gorman, 18. These young men, with John Hines, rowed up from Moramus Sunday morning to attend services at St. John's church in this city. They were on their return and had almost reached home when a sudden squall came up and in the storm the boat was upset.

War on the Canteens.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Bishop Samuel Fallows is preparing a monster petition to President McKinley against the army canteen. He expects to secure 5,000,000 signatures. The bishop has invoked the aid of the Young People's Christian Temperance union in the movement.

All Have Gone.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Word reached the navy department Wednesday that all the Spanish war vessels in Puerto Rico have left that country. The war vessels included the Isabel II, a cruiser, the Creolla, the torpedo boat Terror, a small gunboat, name not given, and one other. Their departure is simply in accordance with the plan of evacuation of the island by the Spanish forces, as provided for in the protocol of peace.

Mexican Congress Opened.

Mexico City, Sept. 17.—President Diaz opened congress Friday evening. His message touched on the relations with the United States, yellow fever in the gulf ports, finances and the general growth of the country. He said that peace and friendship characterized all the relations of Mexico with foreign nations.

A New Record.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 17.—A special train of an engine and four cars on the Chicago & Northwestern railway established a new record between Chicago and Omaha Friday, making the run of 493 miles in nine hours and 29 minutes. It left Chicago at eight o'clock Friday morning, and pulled into the Omaha union depot at 5:29 p. m.

the armistice, and the future government of Cuba will be established by the United States without reference to Spain's demands or wishes.

The Philippine question will be only partially open to negotiation. That is to say, Manila bay, with the capital of the island, Cavite and the Corregidor islands must remain as the absolute property of the United States.

Havana, Sept. 16.—The predominant feature of the situation is the feverish and widespread agitation of the Cubans in favor of the absolute independence of the island at all costs. Manifestoes are being circulated inviting the cooperation of Spanish residents and merchants to this end, and pointing out that either annexation or an American protectorate would mean death to all trade with Spain in a couple of years.

One reason why many Spaniards who at first favored annexation have now changed their opinion is that they fear the competition of American rivals as storekeepers, hotel managers and restaurateurs. They are afraid that the Americans, instead of coming to buy out their establishments and stocks at fabulous prices, based upon the old Spanish duties, will open shops next door, import goods at the duties under the new regime, ruin their business and reduce them to poverty. Exactly the same spirit prevails among the planters, especially the smaller ones, who had hoped to sell at good prices the old French and Belgian machinery for which they paid dear and imported under excessive duties. They realize that the American syndicates will bring American machinery, much cheaper and paying practically no duties, establish a large central market, close theirs and push them to the wall.

Two Tramps Killed.

La Crosse, Wis., Sept. 16.—As the result of a broken flange on a car wheel of a freight train on the Burlington road, six cars were hurled down a 20-foot embankment at Trempealeau, 20 miles north, and wrecked. Two tramps riding on one of the cars were killed.

Revenue Collections.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that during the month of July the total receipts amounted to $27,804,573, a net increase, as compared with July, 1897, of $8,331,710.

WINNIE DAVIS DEAD.

Daughter of the Leader of the Confederacy Passes Away.

The Sad Event Occurs at Narragansett Pier, R. I.—She Was Born During Stormy Times at Richmond, Va.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Sept. 19.—Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, died at noon Sunday at the Rockingham hotel, to which place she came as a guest in the early part of the Pier's social season. She had been ill for several weeks and a fortnight ago her ailment was diagnosed as malarial gastritis. At times her condition became very serious, so that consultations of physicians were deemed necessary, but frequent rallies gave renewed hope that she would ultimately recover. During the past week especially was her condition considered favorable and it was thought that her removal from the hotel would be possible in a few days, as the hotel had closed for the season, leaving the patient and attendants practically alone in the house. Saturday night, however, a relapse in Miss Davis' condition was noticed, and throughout the night she lost strength perceptibly. In the morning the physicians said that the end was not far off, and at noon death came to end the suffering, which at times had been intense. Mrs. Davis had watched unremittingly at her daughter's bedside, and she is now bowed with sorrow. The physicians of Mrs. Davis report she is holding up with great calmness in her affliction, and no fears are at present entertained of her health yielding to the strain.

Miss Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," was born in the confederate executive mansion at Richmond, Va., in 1863. She was educated principally at home, owing to the trouble surrounding her father and the publicity which attended all movements of the Davis family. Miss Davis attained her maturity at Beauvoir, Miss. Here she assisted her mother in various ways, and took her place in the many social functions of the place. She was her father's constant companion. She assisted him in all his work, and much of the information which was required by Mr. Davis in his writings was secured for him by his daughter. Her strong character was marked from youth. She was engaged to Mr. Wilkerson, of Syracuse, N. Y., but shortly after her father's death, the engagement was broken off. While no public explanation of the rupture was given, it is well known that it was for the purpose of maintaining her father's name. She received the name "Daughter of the Confederacy" in 1886, when her father made his famous trip through the south. Mr. Davis being unable to appear, Miss Winnie was brought before the thousands at the different points along the route and introduced as the daughter of the confederacy.]

UNEASINESS AT NAPLES.

Vesuvius Hourly Growing More Active—A Feeling of Apprehension Prevails.

Naples, Sept. 19.—A state of gloomy apprehension prevails among the population regarding the eruption of Vesuvius, which is hourly becoming more active and menacing. Streams of lava are spreading in every direction. The most threatening of these flows through the Vedrino valley, which is almost filled. The observatory, which originally stood at a height of 610 meters, is now only 27 meters above the sea level, owing to the sinking of the ground. Seven new craters have formed around the central one, and this has not tended to diminish the fears formerly felt, which were based upon the eruption of stones and scorifics similar to that which occurred in 1872.

One of an Organized Band.

London, Sept. 19.—The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent says he has ascertained that Luccheni, the assassin of the Austrian emperor, belonged to a gang of anarchists who went from Europe to the United States two years ago and who had for their object the assassination of crowned heads. The correspondent says it is also known that chiefs of the band are still in New York.

All Voted for Him.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 19.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler was unanimously renominated for congress in the Eighth congressional district of Alabama Saturday. Though there was no opposition the vote was by primary and was large. Not a vote against him was cast in the entire district.

DEATH OF A HERO.

Aged Veteran Dies Suddenly at Columbus, O.—Fought at El Caney—Three Other Soldiers Die.

Columbus, O., Sept. 17.—Brig. Gen. Joseph T. Haskell died suddenly at his home at the Columbus post about 4:30 Friday afternoon. He was stricken with apoplexy, the excitement through which he had passed during the day being the immediate cause of the attack. Gen. Haskell commanded the Seventeenth infantry at the battle of El Caney and was twice wounded in the left shoulder and knee. He came home about a month ago and was rapidly recovering. The wound in his shoulder, however, had paralyzed his left arm, which he carried in a sling. Friday morning the Seventeenth regiment returned home, and Gen. Haskell went to the depot in a carriage to welcome his gallant men. He rode at the head of the regiment through the city to the post, and the cheers of the immense crowds of people that lined the streets were directed almost as much to him individually as to the regiment. At the reviewing stand the crowd surrounded the carriage and flowers were fairly showered into the vehicle from every side. He was born at Cincinnati November 19, 1838.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Gen. George W. Smith, ex-treasurer of Illinois, a prominent attorney and a brave soldier who commanded the Eighty-eighth Illinois regiment during the war of the rebellion, died suddenly Friday at his home, 514 North State street. For some time Gen. Smith had not been in good health, but no apprehension was felt by the family. He was seized with an attack of heart trouble early Friday morning and died at four o'clock, having been ill only two hours.

Philadelphia, Sept. 16.—Maj. William E. Baldwin, of the Sixth Illinois volunteers, died Thursday in the Orthopaedic hospital in this city, of typhoid fever. Maj. Baldwin was brought to this city about ten days ago on the hospital ship Relief from Puerto Rico.

Keene, N. H., Sept. 16.—Gen. James Jensen Dana died in this city Thursday after a short illness. He went through the civil war, rising to the rank of brigadier general in the quartermaster's department.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

A Former Servant Kills a Louisville Man, His Child and Himself.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—Joseph F. Villier, his two-year-old child and a woman named Nellie McGuffin were found dead in a room in the Enterprise hotel Thursday morning. From notes left by the woman it was learned she had given Villier and the child morphine in wine, but, fearing that this would not be effective, had shot him through the right temple and then turned the revolver upon herself, death being instantaneous in each case. The child was already dead from the effects of the drug. Villier was a motorman for the Louisville City Railway company and was 26 years old. He was a widower. The woman had once been employed by Villier as a servant.

SECRETARY DAY RESIGNS.

Lays Down the Portfolio of State and Takes Formal Leave of His Associates.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The cabinet was in session an hour Friday, Secretary Alger being the only absentee. Secretary Day tendered to the president his resignation as secretary of state and took leave of his cabinet associates. A telegram from Gen. Otis at Manila was read showing that the situation there was entirely satisfactory. The instructions to the peace commission were gone over for the last time and officially approved.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Assistant Secretary Moore, of the state department, has also tendered his resignation to the president.

No More Troops to Be Mustered Out.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Tremendous pressure is still being brought to bear on the war department to have more troops mustered out of the service. Efforts in this direction, however, are of no avail. It is announced with increased emphasis that there will be no more troops mustered out. The situation does not admit of any further reduction in the army, and efforts are being made to put those volunteers who are retained in the service as near as possible to the footing of the regulars in the matter of drill and discipline. An effort is being made to eradicate the amateurish idea of independence among the troops, and to bring them down to the strictest discipline. The purpose at the outset

Philippine National Assembly.

Manila, Sept. 17.—The Philippine national assembly was inaugurated at Malolos Thursday with great enthusiasm. In an interview Aguinaldo declined to discuss the American army and protested his undying gratitude to the Americans. He said they had come to the Philippines to fight the Spaniards only, and now that they had finished the task, it was to be expected that they would return to America. He was unwilling to believe that the Americans would demand a reward for an act of humanity.

HOSTILITIES AVERTED.

But It Took the United Efforts of the Whole Crowd to Prevent a Hot Engagement.

"One of the liveliest brushes I have witnessed since the opening of hostilities," said one of the representatives at the recent meeting of the credit men, "took place in a quiet New England village of my state. Both participants had passed their three score years and ten, but were still vigorous in mind and body, and especially vigorous in language, for both had been followers of the sea."

"One of these old fellows espoused the cause of Spain, declaring that she had been jumped on because she was little, and that this country was playing the part of a great big bully. After they had exchanged hot shots for a few minutes, the champion of the government got things to going his way by shouting that the other fellow came honestly by his principles and was a traitor."

"What do you mean, you old shrimp?" from the advocate of Spain.

"During the war with Great Britain the British entered the harbor and burned the town of New London, didn't they?"

"Course they did. What of it?"

"Why, somebody piloted them there and when he come home his pockets was full of British gold, paid for his dirty work, and his neighbors, hearin' of what he had done, got ropes and made him an evenin' call. He scudded by the back door and never stopped till he got to Bermuda, and he never had the cheek to come back."

"What you tryin' to git at?"

"That there pilot was your grandpap." And it took a dozen bystanders to keep the two old sea dogs from clinching."—Detroit Free Press.

THE RUSH FOR GOLD.

From the Times, Bluffs, Ill.

The rush of gold seekers to the Klondike brings thrilling memories to the "forty-niners," still alive, of the time when they girdled the continent or faced the terrors of the great American desert on the journey to the land of gold. These pioneers tell some experiences which should be heeded by gold seekers of to-day. Constant exposure and faulty diet killed large numbers, while nearly all the survivors were afflicted with disease, many of them with rheumatism. Such a sufferer was Adam Vangundy, who now resides at Bluffs, Ill., where he has been justice of the peace and was the first president of the board of trustees. In a recent interview he said: "I had been a sufferer of rheumatism for a number of years and the pain at times was very intense. I tried all the proprietary medicines I knew of, but received no relief. I finally placed my case with several physicians and doctored with them for some time, but they failed to do me any good. Finally, with my hopes of relief nearly exhausted I read an article regarding Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which induced me to try them. I was anxious to get rid of the terrible disease, and bought two boxes of the pills. I began using them about March, 1897. After I had taken two boxes I was completely cured, and the pain has never returned. I think it is the best medicine I have ever taken, and am willing at any time to sign my name to any testimony setting forth its good merits."

Washington, D. C., September 18, 1898.
—A busy week for the administration closed with the departure of the American Peace Commissioners, who will sail from New York tomorrow. The whole matter has been gone over carefully and a decision reached as to what this government intends to do regarding the Philippines, and the Peace Commissioners have been instructed accordingly. These instructions have not been put upon paper, but were given to the Commissioners verbally by the President. As a matter of course nearly every correspondent in Washington has sent what purports to be an abstract of these instructions, but as a matter of fact only the President, the members of the Cabinet, all of whom, except Secretary Alger, were summoned to Washington to consider them and the Peace Commissioners, knew what those instructions are. It is known, in a general way, that members of the Cabinet have expressed opinions, and even the President, at times, dropped hints as to his attitude. Putting these together and drawing deductions therefrom is about the process by which the published instructions were evolved. It is certain that we are to have the island of Luzon, of which Manila is the principal city, but there the certainty ends. It is probable that Spain will have to give up its authority over the other islands, and that they will either be given an independent government under American protection or become absolutely our property, although there are reasons for the belief that the instructions so far as they relate to the islands, other than Luzon, are somewhat elastic, and that if Spain will furnish proper guarantees, and will offer certain trade concessions to us, she may be allowed to maintain a nominal, if not an actual, control over them.

Two important diplomatic moves were made by this government this week, which have received less public attention than they deserve. The first was a communication sent to the Czar of Russia expressing sympathy with his proposition for the holding of an international convention for the purpose of arranging for the partial disarmament of the nations of the world which are practically on a war footing all the time, and a willingness on the part of the United States to take part in such a convention. The other was a communication to the Sultan of Turkey, informing him in polite but plain language that the United States did not intend to allow him to escape paying for the property of American Missionaries destroyed by Turkish mobs in Armenia, under his plea of non-responsibility, recently put forward. There is no desire on the part of the administration to bully Turkey; but this claim is a just one and it intends to make Turkey pay it, if it is necessary to make a naval demonstration in order to do it.

Hon. Charles Denby, who was for more than thirteen years United States Minister to China, and who is consequently well posted upon the commerce of the East and the part that the Philippine Islands can be made to play therein, has been in Washington this week, and his businesslike arguments in favor of our retaining control of all the islands have convinced many whose minds had not been entirely made up, that the United States should certainly retain control, if not absolute ownership, of all the islands. Mr. Denby has had several extended conferences with the President and with members of the Cabinet, and his knowledge of the situation has doubtless been an important factor in determining the instructions given to the American Peace Commissioners. After giving his reasons why he should control the Philippines, Mr. Denby said: "If we withdraw now, we throw away this great opportunity, which has been opened and accepted as the manifest destiny of this nation. We close the door, and close it so that it will never open to us again. We shut the far East from our influence and do it deliberately. We can never reconsider such a step; and if we take it, it would have been far better for our trade and our influence, commercial and religious, if Admiral Dewey had never gone near the Philippines."

Ex-Secretary Sherman may be too old to make a satisfactory Secretary of State, but he still has the use of his reasoning faculties, and was the first man to point out the weak spot in the proposed commission to investigate the conduct of the war—its want of legal status, and its consequent inability to compel witnesses to testify. Since Mr. Sherman pointed out that defect, which is now generally acknowledged to exist, the proposed investigation is not as popular as it was. It is likely also that the lack of legal status influenced some of the prominent gentlemen who have declined to serve on the commission.

Do not throw away the stacks of newspapers which accumulate in every household. Dipped in cold water they will clean windows almost as well as, though hot water and soap had been used.

Earth is all in splendor dressed;
Queenly fair she sits at rest,
While the deep, delicious day
Dreams its happy life away.
—Sangster.

Hazy mists hang o'er the wildwood,
Languid, dreamy, dun;

The pictures representing the battles of San Juan and Guantanamo Bay were more like pictures of school boys scrapping over a game of marbles. We hope our exchanges will copy this item. On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Mary Jane Birch, praying that a certain instrument now on file in this Court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, may be admitted to probate, and that administration of said estate may be granted to herself, the executrix, in said will named, or to some other suitable person.

Thereupon it is ordered that Saturday, the 24th day of October, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the devisees, legatees, and heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Ann Arbor, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Chelsea Herald, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.
