FRANCE IS WARLIKE.

The Republic Apparently Preparing for Hostilities with England-Secret Council of War Held.

Paris, Oct. 21 .- The alleged war preparations of France are the absorbing subject of discussion here at present. According to the French papers, there were important naval experiments at Toulon Wednesday evening. A flotilla of torpedo boats was detailed to make an endeavor to force the entrance of the harbor, and the whole garrison was called to arms and the forts and batteries were manned, ready for instant action. The result of the experiments has not been made public.

The Aurore asserts that five classes of the naval reserves around Brest have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for active service.

The drift of opinion on the Fashoda question among commercial men in Paris was shown by a resolution adopted by the municipal council of this city, urging the French government, without sacrificing the material interests of the country, to use its utmost efforts to avert a conflict with Great Britain over this dispute.

London, Oct. 21 .- The London morning papers have cooled down to an exceedingly cautious and conservative tone in dealing with the Fashoda question, apparently realizing that the public on both sides of the channel is heated to the danger point. There is a marked effort to avoid an offensive

FOUGHT ON THE ROOF.

Desperate Battle Between Two Boston Laborers Results in the Death of Both.

Boston, Oct. 19 .- Two roofers, Patrick Rosch, 45 years old, and John C. Rice, aged 30, while employed in repairing the roof of a four-story house on Hudson street, became engaged in a quarrel Tuesday afternoon, and people below saw them struggling on the roof. The men drew gradually near the edge, and then, to the horror of the spectators, the two rolled over and fell 50 feet to the ground. Both were terribly injured and died a few hours later at the Emergency hospital, while the surgeons were working over them. The cause of the quarrel is unknown, but it is supposed it resulted from a little dispute about the work.

Homeward Bound.

Chicago, Oct. 22. - President Mc-Kinley and the members of his party over the Pennsylvania road. One continuous ovation marked his passage over the states of Indiana and Ohio. Defying the wind and rain of a most disagreeable October day, the citizens of these states congregated in great numbers at every station along the line, and never were they disappointed, for the president graciously appeared at every point where crowds awaited his coming to speak a few words to his constituents and receive their approving cheers. He spoke to large audiences at Indianapolis, Kokomo, Cincinnati, Columbus and several smaller Deed of a Demented Mother. Toronto, Ont., Oct. 22 .- A dreadful tragedy was enacted in the east end of the city Friday night when Eliza Burrill, wife of a well-to-do mechanic, became demented and strangled her three children, Ethel, aged eight; Stanley, aged three, and Harold, aged 11 years. The husband of the woman found all of them on their mother's bed dead when he came home from work. The woman is evidently demented. She says her reason for the terrible deed was that she did not want them to grow up wicked.

Washington, Oct. 19 .- Gen. Otis is giving attention to the complaints that have reached him to the effect that the Philippine insurgents are ill-treating and killing such of the friars as fall into their hands. There is difficulty in dealing with such cases, owing to the fact that the United States military and naval forces are not always in possession of the places where the outrages are committed, but they are under instructions to use their good offices with the insurgents to prevent the commission of these outrages.

A. ALLISON, Editor and Proprietor.

MICHIGAN CHELSEA,

SAILORS of Adm. Dewey's fleet en' gaged in a rough and tumble fight at Hong Kong with the members of the crew of the German man-of-war Kaiserin Augusta, in which the Germans were put to rout.

Blaine, a near relative of the duke of Norfolk, and, as representative of the oldest Irish Catholic families, is heir to the estate of Ballynolum, one of the largest in the British empire.

Paris is suffering from the ice famine and London's stock is very low owing to the prolonged heated term of the past summer. A few weeks ago the daily consumption in London was about 2,000 tons, or double the usual quantity. There is little hope of the supply being increased, the ice houses of Norway and Sweden having been practically emptied of their stores.

According to a correspondent of a London paper there is as much whipping in the girls' schools as in the boys' schools, but the girls make no fuss about it. Says the correspondent: They know they deserve their punishment, so they take it with a good grace, dry their eyes and smooth their curls and don't let any one know, not even their parents, that they have had a taste of the rod."

THE army officers in Cuba are discussing a novel proposition for a garrison. The plan is to provide by a special act of congress for an army of 75,000 or 100,000 Spanish soldiers, officered by Americans, to serve until a stable government is established, then to be returned to Spain or to remain as citizens. This, it is believed, would serve all purposes, besides supplying a needed white immigration for Cuba.

Owing to a low and declining birth rate, which has reached a point where it means an annual loss of some 20,000 of population a year, France has resolved to take care of what babies she has. A law has therefore been passed forbidding anyone to give solid food of any kind to infants under one year without the written authority of a qualified physician. Also the use of long rubber tubes to feeding bottles is prohibited, because of the difficulty of keeping them sterilized.

WESTERN Australia is becoming a prominent gold-producer. In 1897 her production of gold was 674,993 ounces, or two and a half times the product of 1896. But in the first seven months of 1898 the production has been 547,671 ounces, indicating a progressive increase. There is no commodity the production of which has a brighter prospect of increase than gold. In the United States, Canada, South Africa, Australia, Russia, India and China the output is continually increasing.

OFFICIAL CRANK FILE

It Contains a Rare Collection of Peculiar Correspondence.

Only Letters from Mental Frenks Addressed to the Department of the Interior Can Find a Place in It.

[Special Washington Letter.]

Although it is not generally known, it is nevertheless a fact that the dea separate official file for the reare received from persons who do not write concerning department matters, but send letters are either inspired by the sentiments of an anarchist or else the absurd ideas of a crazy person. In short, it is a "crank file," and in it are recorded all letters coming from cranks, fools, lunatics or anarchists, as the case may be. No other of the executive departments maintain a distinct file for such communications, and whenever a paper of this sort is received at the treasury, war, state or any of the departments other than the interior, it is completely ignored, unless it is obvious that a reply is needed. At the interior department, however, the communications are acknowledged in every case where an answer can be sent, and in its due course the paper is placed on the "crank file" for future reference, if any such contingency as would demand the existence of the communication should arise.

The file is kept in the miscellaneous division of the department, where all communications are sent which do not directly relate to one or the other divisions of the secretary's office, as the appointments, the lands and railroads or the Indian divisions. Scarcely a day passes that some communication which must be referred to the "crank file" does not come in. The letters, all of which are peculiar, and many of which are ridiculous, are generally received from land settlers who have claims before the interior department and desire to have them adjudicated. They are sent by aged and decrepit pensioners, or else they emanate from some poor western land claimants, who believe that they have been oppressed by the department and desire redress for the alleged wrongs imposed. It is often found that when a land claimant or settler writes to the department asking for information as to the status of his case, or urging immediate action upon his claim, he incorporates personal messages to the secretary of the interior and even to the president of the United States.

There are many cases in which the wirter addresses his communications from the seven hills that is coming down to the official personally, putting it: and execute true judgment and show "Dear M1. Secretary," or "My Dear mercy to the down-trodden and oppressed President McKinley," thus disregard- and release the widows and orphans in ing all rules of official communication. Many correspondents have a habit of four winds, Heathenism, Judicism, Cathwriting to the department at certain olicism, and Protestantism, have put upon periods, either communicating some messages of ridiculous purport, or making some statements or claims as to what the department owes them. In many cases the officials are threatened with danger, but no attention is paid to letters of that character as they are regarded as coming from ordinary cranks.

One of the most ludicrous communications which has been received for

THE GERMAN CRANK FROM NEW

JERSEY. some time came in on December 26, 1895. It was from a German, living in New Jersey, and is devoted to a statement of claims which he desires the department to settle. His name is L. H. Frederick, and he avers in his communication and in those which have been received before, that the what he calls the "Frederick claim." His letter is couched in ridiculous and Why is my writing barred? I have a absurd language, but the climax comes good conshience in my work." in the address which he has put on the prosecution against you."

While examining the "crank file" at the interior department recently another communication was discovered from Mr. Frederick, in which he re-ferred to his "clame." The message was written on a large square piece of manilla paper, which apparently had been bicked up in the street, for it was badly marred with dirt and tobacco stains. He renews his threats of "civil prosecution," and says he hopes the secretary of the interior will answer him by return mail. The letter has THE SOCIETY HAS ITS OWN BUILDING been placed on the files with the others which have been received from him. It is not likely that his claim for millions will be paid, inasmuch as he does not accompany his communication with any proof of his title to the

Some amusement is found in the letter which was sent about a year ago by a Philadelphian, and addressed to "Mrs. Hoke Smith, Interior Department." The message is written on a piece of newspaper, cut into an L shape, about six inches long and four inches wide. It reads as follows: 'Cleveland gives way to the moneybesmeared bankers instead of to the people's wishes and two-thirds of the party. When he falls out of the white house he will see the day and feel the weight of his mistake. Not one poor democrat of '61, '62, '63 or '65 has got an office from him in Pennsylvania."

Another crank who has contributed abundantly to the "crank file" is A. E. Moore, of Greeley, Col. He apparently has no claim before the department. or an irreligious one, for he declares to the students. that he wants to prohibit Christians from observing the Sabbath day. The following is a sample of his writings:

"To the ruler of the great republic, I once more appeal. Will the old eagle sit still and suffer himself to be torn to pieces in the oncoming storm by the four winds on him like a hurricane, or will he arise their distress and give employment unto the poor and brake every yoke that these th. neck of the people in Sunday laws. 1 beg of you to cause every state law in the United States of America to be repealed that does set any day apart as a Sabbath, for it is not in accord with the spirit and proclamation of our forefathers or with the words of the heavenly father."

The officials were recently puzzled by the receipt of a letter beautifully written in shorthand. After several expert stenographers had endeavored to translate it, the task was given up and the letter laid aside. Another letter was received, written in German, but this communication was interpeted without difficulty by one of the translators of the patent office to whom it was referred by the interior department. Another writer has communicated to the interior department and given his views upon the question of American missionary work in China. His letter was no doubt inspired by the Chinese outrages during the last summer and early fall. Addressed to the secretary of the interior the letter read in part as follows:

"My dear sir: I beg leave to ask your honor the most highly-esteemed consideration to the importance of this letter. While a most joyed to take interest in affairs of such national importance, i feel it my duty a an american citizen to aid in Bringing about the proper relation necessary to restore peace and progress with foreign nations.

"I hope the subject of my letter may have the good fortune of coming before the president and his worth cabinet. remember I have looked this matter over from a moral standpoint as well as a matter of commercial interest Between this country and China."

One poor individual who lives in Crosses, Ark., says that he has not been able to have his letters to government officials considered, and that he is oppressed on this account. He is evidently a religious crank, for he writes about a number of Scriptural characters and has considerable to say about the Apostle Paul. In conclusion government owes him $4,404,000 on he says: "All Scripture is profitable,

The Students' Christian Association at the University of Michigan Are the Headquarters.

How Preparations Are Made for the Freshmen-A Valuable Handbook-How to Secure a Chum-A. Labor Bureau-Social Side of the Organization and Other Notes.

[Special Correspondence.]

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 19 .- One of the first organizations that the freshman entering the University of Michigan comes in contact with is the Students' Christian association. This organization has its own building, Newberry hall, which is directly across the street from the front door of University hall.

This it makes headquarters for freshmen, new students and even old students. The institution is practically turned into a big information bureau.

Preparing for the Freshmen. Several days before the first freshman is likely to arrive the officers of the association begin making preparations for his coming. The city is canvassed and lists of the rooms for rent,

NEWBERRY HALL.

with the prices, and the advantages, such as furnace heat, electric lights; baths, etc., prepared. Lists of boarding houses also, with their location and price, are made. These lists are posted on the walls of the prayer meeting room in Newberry hall, which for His hobby seems to be a religious one, the time being is entirely given over

The Students' Handbook.

Another thing that is done in the interests of new students is the getting out each fall of the Students' Hand Book. This, which is freely distributed to both new and old students alike, contains some 40 pages of information. In the front is a map of Ann Arbor which shows the streets, railway stations, public buildings, churches, schools and university grounds. This is a great help to many, as the geography of Ann Arbor is not as simple as that of the western cities, where the streets run at right angles to each other and the blocks are uniform in size and square. It is not an uncommon thing during the first week of college to see at some street corner two students consulting this map.

Following the map in the book are several pages of valuable information to the new students. The book gives him a Brief history of the university. tells of the organizations that exist in connection with the institution, of the student publications, of the Ann Arbor churches, their location and hours of service. It also contains directions for students entering the several departments of the university, and gives several pages of excellent suggestions, including the college yell, college colors, university records and the "Yellow and the Blue." the university song.

Chums Furnished.

The Christian association, besides assisting the student in selecting rooms and boarding place aids him, if he desires, in getting a chum. A directory of students wanting chums is kept during the first few weeks and the wants are filled from the new students coming in. Strange as it may seem, many of the friendships formed in this clearing house manner are of the most congenial and lasting kind.

A Labor Bureau.

But the association does not stop here. It recognizes the fact that many of the students who attend college have to work their way through. For the benefit of this class of students it has a labor bureau. Through this many students are enabled to secure a place to wait on table or wash dishes for their board, to care for a horse or furnace for their room, or perhaps are enabled to get work for which they are paid in money.

Social Advantages.

Then there is the social side of the association's work for new students. After assisting them all the week in finding rooms, boarding places, chums and opportunities to earn a portion of their college expenses it caps the climax by procuring social acquaint- Reckland. ances for them. This it accomplishes at its annual freshman reception. On see that the new student is made acquainted with his classmate and his classmate with him.

Peach Orchards in Peril.

The vast peach orchards of southwestern Michigan are being destroyed by a tree disease said to be more damaging than the dreaded yellows. Guns Are Freely Used in a Riot-One White Man and Nine Negroes Are Killed-Further Trouble In Feared.

New Orleans, Oct. 24 .- The Picayune's Vicksburg special says: Telegrams report a most serious state of affairs at Hermanville, 12 miles north of Forest, Miss., on the line of the Alabama & Vicksburg railroad, in Scott county. It is stated that bad blood has existed in Hermanville between the whites and blacks. Saturday evening a negro man beat most unmercifully an oid white man. At night a deputy sheriff and two others went to the negro's house with a warrant to arrest him. When the officers neared the man's house they found it surrounded with a crowd of some 50 negro men, all armed, and were fired on. Mr. Potter, a well-known man, was killed and the other two thought to be mortally wounded. As soon as the news reached the center of the town of Hermanville the men hastily armed themselves and went to the scene of the riot. Then the fight opened in reality and lasted the greater part of the night. At daylight Sunday it was found that nine negroes had been killed and four captured who are slightly wounded. Some seem to think the trouble is not over.

The whole country is terribly aroused and the sheriff's posse has been reenforced with men from all the neighboring towns. Gov. McLaurin has gone to the scene, which is about ten miles north of Forest, the nearest railroad point. The governor and Adjt. Gen. Henry are naturally counseling moderation, but in the excited state of the public mind a general fear is expressed that the posse will not regard the suggestion favorably. Their presence, however, will undoubtedly have a good effect in restraining the number of fatalities after enough negroes have been killed to satisfy the outraged feelings of the whites in that section.

St. Louis, Oct. 24.-A special to the Republic from Dallas, Tex., says: Three negroes shot and killed Julius Redd, a 16-year-old white boy, Sunday night, near the Texas cotton mills, on South Lamar street. Witnesses claim the murder was unprovoked. A mob ened with total destruction. The outchased the negroes to a house in the look is exceedingly gloomy. Farmers outskirts of the city and surrounded it. #### BACK IN WASHINGTON.

Presidential Party Arrives in Washington-Work to Begin on Message at Once.

Washington, Oct. 24.-President Mcsence of two weeks. The train made no long stops between Pittsburgh and The affair has now assumed serious Washington, and the schedule was arranged to anticipate the gathering of no large crowds, so that the ride through Pennsylvania and Maryland was really a rest for the president after his hard work in the west. President McKinley has been seeing crowds, speaking, shaking hands and receiving congratulations every day from soon after daylight until nearly midnight, and yet his marvelous physical endurance has left him looking even better than when he left the white house. It is all the vacation he will have, in spite of the nervous strain during the war, and to-day he will begin work on the annual message to congress, which will necessarily be one of the most important state papers of this generation.

The trip from Washington to Omaha and return, taking in St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati, besides innumerable small cities, towns and villages, was made without a mishap. The service was perfect, and the comfort of the president and his party was admirably provided for. The president made over 50 speeches, long and short, and yet returned to his duties at the white house in perfect voice and apparently refreshed in mind and body, in spite of the trying weather of last week.

REVIEW OF TRADE

Situation as Outlined by R. G. Dun & Co. in Their Weekly Statement -Failures for the Week.

New York, Oct. 22.-R. G. Dun & Co., in their weekly review of trade, say: " growing foreign demand for American products exchange is influenced mainly by political uncertainties abroad. While Europe waits for the outcome between England and France about the Upper Nile, the financiers of all European countries are trying to force upon each other the burden of providing cash for the enor-mous demands of the United States. England has so managed as to make France and Germany send most of the gold and the resulting war of exchanges between foreign nations checks for the moment the movement of gold this way. Yet these and all other causes do not so far hinder business as to prevent an excess over the most prosperous of previous years. The exchanges through all clearing houses for the past week have been .6 per cent. larger than last year and 1.7 per cent. larger than in 1892, but outside New York for the week transactions were smaller than in 1892.

"The outgo of wheat staggers all prophets of disaster, but while the price has advanced three cents at the west, the rise would have been much greater but for the feeling that the enormous foreign demand may not last. Without doubt many western farmers are still holding back their wheat, and yet receipts at the chief western points have been in three weeks 30,592,494 bushels, against 23,725,801 last year. It is significant that this heavy demand continues after foreign crops, officially reported as fairly large, have been almost everywhere harvested. The corn exports continue large, and although it is the bottom point of the year for corn, prices have risen nearly 11/4 cents during the week.

"There is much hesitation in the iron and steel trade, partly because the outcome of various combinations in Bessemer pig. steel rails, bars, wire nails and the like cannot yet be definitely anticipated. If general buying was expected to result from hese movements it has not appeared thus far. Yet prices of domestic products have not declined, and although the tone is somewhat weaker for bars and plates, quotations are in part sustained by considerable orders for export. The plate mills have received orders for 25,000 tons from the government for ship purposes, and the bar and billet mills have a very encouraging

"Failures for the week have been 221 in the United States, against 224 last year and 24 in Canada, against 36 last year.

VICTIMS OF A STORM.

Loss of Life and Enormous Damage to Property Results from a Hurricane in Texas.

St. Louis, Oct. 21.-A special to the Republic from Houston, Tex., says: The electrical and windstorm which swept over Texas Wednesday night was very severe in South Texas. Damage to cotton is enormous. At Deer Park, 20 miles from Houston, the residence of C. E. Adams was demolished. Adams, his wife and baby sustained minor injuries, while A. J. Cook was crushed to death. At Pasadena the residence of John Stout was turned over and completely wrecked. Six occupants were injured. The wind was so high at Missouri City, 35 miles west of Houston, that it blew a number of freight cars from the siding out on to the main track. The California express, running 40 miles an hour, dashed into the cars at full speed. #### A PEACE CROSS.

Unveiled with Impressive Ceremony on Site of New Episcopal Cathedral New Washington.

Washington, Oct. 24 .- A most impressive ceremony in this city Sunday was the unveiling of the peace cross on the summit of Mount St. Albans, the site for the new Episcopal cathedral. This ceremony was in lieu of that of laying of the corner stone of the edifice which will be known as the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul. President McKinley was present and delivered a brief address. Many other distinguished men were present, and 300 bishops and other high dignitaries of the church which has been holding its convention in Washington. These marched in solemn processional in their clerical robes, accompanied by choir boys of the different churches of the city. An audience of many thousands was present. Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, delivered the address of welcome, while the sermon of the occasion was by Bishop Doane. The drapery was dropped from the stone while President McKinley was speaking. Several bishops participated in reading the services, while the chants and hymns were rendered by a choir of The president's remarks were very brief. He said:

"I appreciate the very great privilege given to me to participate with this anclent church here by its bishops and its laymen in this new sowing for the Master and for men. Every undertaking like this for the promotion of religion and morality and education is a positive gain to citizenship, to country and to civilization. And in this single word I speak I wish for this sacred enterprise the highest influence and the widest usefulness.

While the president spoke the draperies of red, white and blue were removed, revealing a huge Ionian cross 20 feet high, cut from a single stone. After a chant by the choir, Bishop Whipple read a special prayer of thanksgiving for victory.

Mount St. Albans is some distance from the city proper, but it overlooks the capital, and from its site the many public buildings, the domes of the capitol and congressional library and the Washington monument are plainly visible. Not far distant may be seen the Potomac river, and beyond the famous Arlington cemetery, while on the other hand is the beautiful Rock Creek park, and beyond it the soldiers' home. The situation, the surroundings and a beautiful day combined to make the scene inspiring, and the occasion, with so many distinguished public men and prelates of the church present, rendered the ceremony impressive.

TERROR IN VIENNA.

Outbreak of Bubonic Plague in Austria's Capital Is a Source of Great Alarm.

Vienna, Oct. 24.-The outbreak of the bubonic plague at Vienna, which is due to the experiments in cultivation of the plague baciflus, has spread terror at the Austrian capital. Five cases, in addition to that of Herr Barisch, the assistant in the establishment, who contracted the bubonic plague while cultivating the bacillus, have now occurred.

Dr. Mueller was considered an authority on the plague, having been to Bombay for the purpose of studying it on the spot, and he survived all the dangers there. The disease at Vienna has assumed a pneumonic form. There are no boils, but each case is accompanied by high fever and blood spit-

Extraordinary precautions have now been taken to prevent an epidemic. The plague patients lie in an isolated building, attended by Dr. Pooch, a volunteer physician, and by sisters of charity. They are surrounded by a rope, across which nobody is allowed to pass.

Dr. Pooch writes the prescriptions and fastens them to the window pane. The doctors outside read them and have them made up. Then the prescriptions are placed on the window ledge, whence they are removed by those inside.

It is feared, however, that the precautions were taken too late. Herr Barisch was ill for several days before he saw a doctor, during which time he each regiment. Emperor William lived with his wife and visited wine shops. The wife, who has now developed suspicious symptoms, visited friends, rode in public omnibuses, and came in contact with dozens of persons at her husband's funeral.

They were standing before the camera at the time preparing to have their pictures taken. Melchert resided with his parents at 1330 West Madison street, Chicago. He had been in Omaha as an expert photographer at the exposition. Miss Morris was a saleswoman and resided with her parents. President Is Royally Cheered at the Jubilee Parade in Chicago.

More Than 10,000 Persons in Line-Viewed by Fully 500,000 - President at the Banquet - The Jubilee Ball.

Chicago, Oct. 20 .- Throngs of men and women, filling the downtown streets in solid phalanxes and reaching upward to the roofs of the tallest buildings, looked upon the jubilee pageant which wound its way through the city in celebration of the victories won in the war with Spain and the advent of peace.

Fully 10,000 persons were in line, and the procession was nearly three hours in passing a given point. From the time when the carriages bearing the president swung around the corner and started north on Michigan avenue past the Auditorium the jubilee noise began and continued until the pageant, with its miles of carriages and soldiery, had disbanded.

Enthusiastically Greeted. The greetings extended to President

McKinley were enthusiastic to extreme, as were the plaudits showered upon Gens. Miles and Shafter as they passed through the streets. The president in his carriage was surrounded by members of the Chicago hussars formed in a square, and detachments of grand army and confederate veterans acted as escort. He occupied his piace in the parade from the starting point at Congress street and Michigan avenue to the Union League clubhouse, where, in company with all other distinguished guests, he alighted and reviewed the parade. Throughout the entire march past the stand, which lasted a trifle over three hours, the president remained standing, nor did he take a seat until after the platoon of police which formed the protecting line for the rear of the parade had passed down the boulevard.

Mrs. McKinley arrived at the Union League club in advance of the presidential party and remained at an upstairs window during the passage of the procession. The presidential party arrived at one o'clock.

BANQUET TO THE PRESIDENT.

Brilliant Scene in the Great Auditorium Theater in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 20 .- For the third time since their commencement the jubilee festivities were shifted to the interior of the Auditorium, and the third and last scene to be enacted within the great hall was the most brilliant, beautiful and successful of them all. It was the great national peace jubilee banquet tendered to the president of the United States and distinguished guests by the citizens of Chicago. No similar event ever held within the Auditorium surpassed in brilliancy an' simple elegance this banquet.

Reception of the President. Twelve hundred guests, among them men prominent in all branches of business, science, arts-men of brilliant record upon the sea and men famed for deeds of arms done on shore-were standing by their chairs when a tap from the gavel of Franklin MacVeagh, the presiding officer, announced the approach of President McKinley. The orchestra struck up "Hail to the Chief," and the president, attended by the jubilee reception committee, came down the center aisle, bowing right and left in acknowledgment of the applause his presence evoked. He was escorted to his seat at the west end of the hall, and as he took the seat 1,200 guests followed his example, only to

Crane delivered a short and eloquent invocation. Then for two hours the material wants of 1,200 men received close and careful attention. Later, when the speechmaking began, President McKinley arose to respond to the toast "Our Country." "The Navy" was responded to by Capt. Charles D. Sigsbee, his address being greeted with applause. The last toast on the programme, "Our Future," was responded to by Secretary Lyman J. Gage and President Cyrus Northrup, of the University of Minnesota. Immediately after the conclusion of the banquet President McKinley was driven to the McWilliams residence, and soon retired. The Jubilee Ball,

Chicago, Oct. 19 .- In round numbers some 10,000 or 12,000 persons, including the president of the United States, clothed themselves Tuesday night in their most gorgeous apparel and by divers ways and conveyances reached the Auditorium, there to set the seal of their satisfaction on the advent of mild-eyed peace by dancing at the jubilee ball.

It was nearly daylight when the last dancing number came to a conclusion and the jubilee ball was over. Socially the affair was all its promoters wished for it, and financially it surpassed their expectations, about $25,-000 being realized for the benefit of soldiers and sailors.

Says Dreyfus Is in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 21. - An evening newspaper announces that Capt. Dreyfus is already in Paris and is now confined in the fortress at Mont Valerien, to which he was secretly brought.

One on the Judge.

In a case of slander that was heard not long ago a lady had gone into the witness box on behalf of the plaintiff, whose counsel was examining her.

"Now, madam," the lawyer began, "please repeat the slanderous statements made by the defendant on this occasion, just as you heard them."

"Oh, they are unfit for any respectable person to hear!" was the emphatic answer. "Then," said the examiner, coaxingly, "suppose you just whisper them to the judge."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"In Hawaii," said the man who was occupying the greater part of two seats, "the women have hogs for pets."
"In the United States," said the woman who was hanging on to a strap, apparently speaking to the woman next to her, "the women often marry hogs."

Immediately thereafter three men got up and made believe that they really preferred to stand.—Chicago Post.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole sys-tem when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is often ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. A Striking Resemblance.

The addresses of a young man having been declined by a young lady, he paid court to her sister. "How much you resemble your sister," said he, the evening of his first call. "You have the same hair, the same forehead, and the same eyes—"
"And the same noes!" she added quickly.
