ENLARGING ITS BASE

Chelsea Manufacturing Co. Sold to a Stock Company

WHICH IS CAPITALIZED AT $25,000.

A New Three Story Factory to Be Erected, and 60 Hands Will Be Employed.

At a meeting held in Dr. G. W. Palmer's office on Monday evening the business of the Chelsea Manufacturing Co. was sold to a stock company capitalized at $25,000, with a paid in capital of $15,000.
The company, which will retain the old name, will at once proceed to still further develop the business which had grown greatly beyond what its former proprietors could handle, and entirely out of proportion to the premises it now occupies.
The company will proceed to erect a three-story factory as soon as spring opens, in which the manufacture of sheet metal goods will be carried on and a force of 60 hands will be employed. New machinery and equipment will be added and every means will be employed for rapid production and consequent lessened cost of the articles manufactured that skill and experience will suggest.

The board of directors are H. S. Holmes,
W. J. Knapp, Geo. P. Glazier, G. W.
Palmer and J. D. Watson.

The stockholders of the company in addition to the directors are A. R. Welch, Albert C. Watson, L. T. Freeman, A. W.
Wilkinson and Fred S. Welch.

The officers of the company are: H. S.
Holmes president, W. J. Knapp vice president, J. D. Watson secretary and treasurer,
A. R. Welch manager.

The Herald is glad to see another manufacturing industry of such dimensions inaugurated in our village and bespeaks for it a great measure of success. The gentleman who comprise the company are Chelsea's substantial business men—men who have made a success in their own lines of business—and with such backing and a line of commodities to manufacture that meet with a ready sale at good profits, there is no reason to doubt but that the company will be successful.

Funeral of Fred Boos.

The funeral services of Fred Boos, formerly of Sylvan, who was killed at Wall Lake, Iowa, Jan. 26, were held at his mother's home in Jackson, last Friday.
Mr. Boos was working for the Illinois Central Railroad at Wall Lake, and while hanging out the switch lights on the night of Jan. 26 was struck by a fast passenger train and killed. It was the last lamp he had to put up. He only lived 15 minutes after he was struck. He was unknown to the people around the depot, but it was remembered that he came there in company with another man who was working on the section further along the line. This man was Hugh McLaughlin, who left here with the deceased about two months ago, and he identified the remains and told where Mr. Boos came from. William Schatz, of Chelsea, was notified by telegram and he went to Jackson and told the Boos family about it, when the deceased man's brother A. G. Boos went to Iowa and brought back the remains.

ROBBED HIS BENEFACCTOR.

Frank Diamond's Son Is Evidently Following in His Father's Footsteps.

A 14 years old lad, small of size and sharp as a steel trap, was in Justice Parker's court Monday on a charge of stealing Mrs. Michael Keelan's watch. His name was Willie Diamond and he is a son of Frank Diamond who has lately been serving time for different offences.
He came to Chelsea a week or two ago and told a pitiful story of his mother having died of rheumatism of the heart last summer, that his father had deserted her, etc. Michael Keelan took him in and got him employment at the stove works.
He made his home with Mr. and Mrs.
Charles M. Davis, who took quite a liking to him, and had he behaved himself he could have had a good home there.
F. P. Glazier was kind to him and gave him clothes, but he mistreated his benefactors and stole the watch when he went to Mr. Keelan's to dinner on Monday and was allowed to go into the bedroom where the watch was to wash himself and comb his hair. Deputy Sheriff W. R. Lehman arrested him and brought him into court. There it transpired his mother was not dead and that he left his home in Dearborn because his stepfather had given him some chores to do. His mother came up on the Grand Rapids train that evening. Justice Parker suspended sentence on the boy and she was allowed to take him back home with her next morning.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR DAY

Appropriately Observed at the Congregational Church Sunday Evening.

Last Sunday was Christian Endeavor
Day, and the evening services at the Congregational church were in charge of the society. The inclemency of the weather prevented a very large attendance, but it was a good meeting nevertheless. Miss Kathrine Haarer, president of the society presided. The hymns were all applicable to Endeavorers and their work. "The Story of World Wide Endeavor" was ably told by J. George Webster in an excellent and exhaustive paper. "New Flowers and Fruit" were told of in five two-minute papers. Miss Louella Townsend spoke of "The Quiet Hour." D. W.
Greenleaf of "The Tenth Legion." Mrs.
H. I. Davis of "The Forward Movement for Missions, or the Macedonian Phalanx," Fred C. Mapes spoke of "New Plans for Unity in our Local Unions," and Mrs.
Helen Enos of "Larger Fellowships the World Around." There were sentence prayers by the Endeavorers, followed by a five minute address by the pastor, Rev.
C. S. Jones, on the subject "God's Spirit the Essential Power in every Christian Endeavorer." The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction pronounced in unison.

To Make Pension Laws Lucid.

Congressman H. C. Smith introduced a resolution in Congress Monday that may lead ultimately to the codification and pruning of the pension laws. Commissioner Evans has complained, in answer to the demands for explanation of the slowness of his office in some pension matters, that the red tape laws and rulings were to blame. Speedy granting of pensions, said he, had been impossible. Congressman Smith's resolution calls upon the commissioner to report at once to congress what rules and laws prevent rapid work on pension cases. He would also have the commissioner state what legislation would remove the fault and reduce the pension laws to lucidity and effectiveness.

Lyndon Cheese Factory.

John Clark, manager of the Lyndon cheese factory, has issued the first yearly statement of the business done at the factory last year, and it is a very satisfactory one. The factory was in operation only three months but in that time 151, 645 pounds of milk were received, from which 14,562 pounds of cheese were made. The number of pounds of cheese charged against milk receipts was 436, and 14,126 pounds were sold for cash, realizing $1,492.81. The factory had on hand in cash and stock at the close of the year $388.16.

written pages.

SENT TO CONGRESS.

President Transmits Report of Philippine Commission.

The Home Rule Principle, with as Few Americans in Office as Possible, Strongly Favored by Commission.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The president Friday transmitted to congress the first volume of the report of the Philippine commission. It is a volume of 294 pages, including the appendix, and is signed by Prof. Schurman, Admiral Dewey, Col. Denby and Prof. Worcester. The principal subject dealt with is the plan of government proposed by the commission, which includes a discussion of the Spanish government existing prior to the war, the various reforms desired by the Filipinos and the constitutions proposed by them, together with the conclusions and plans suggested by the commission. The report also covers many other matters connected with the social administration of the island: racial characteristics, education, secular and religious orders, the Chinese in the islands, public health, currency, etc., as well as the condition and needs of the United States in the Philippines from a naval and maritime standpoint. The second volume of the report, which will not be ready for several weeks, will contain a detailed description of the climate and natural resources of the islands. The chief interest in the report naturally centers in the plan of government proposed by the commission.

Favor Home Rule.

The commission announces itself unequivocally in favor of a government of the Philippines analogous to that of a territory of the United States, with a governor appointed by the president. They say it is desirable that the inhabitants of the archipelago should enjoy a large measure of home rule in local affairs, their towns to enjoy substantially the rights and privileges of towns in a territory.

The provinces should be vested with substantially the functions of a county in a territory; this system might be applied to Luzon and the Visayan islands at once, and a beginning might be made on the coast of Mindanao. The Sulu archipelago, calling for special arrangements with the sultan, the commission says, need not be considered in this connection.

Filipino Officers.

The Filipinos could manage their own town and county affairs through their own officers, whom they could elect with no help from American officials except such as would be involved in control from the central government at Manila. The suffrage should be restricted by educational or property qualifications, or both. This system would necessitate a small body of American officials of great ability and integrity and of patience and tact in dealing with other races, and on this account the commission recommends that they should be paid high salaries. The commission says they could be called advisers or commissioners, and that one for every 250,000 natives should suffice. It would be the duty of such commissioners to report upon their work to the central government at Manila.

Their main function would be to advise town and county councils in the discharge of their duties and to watch the collection of revenue and its expenditures. Our government of the Philippines, the commission insists, must be adapted to the Filipinos.

Basis for the Government.

A territorial government, it concludes, is a desideratum. The commission takes as a basis for the government proposed the territorial organization of Louisiana. The act is set forth in full. It provides for a governor and secretary of the treasury, and vests the legislative power in a council appointed annually by the president. Courts are also provided for. "This scheme of government," says the commission, "possesses, besides its intrinsic merits, the historical interest attaching to origination with the author of the declaration of independence."

Thinks Task Would Be Easy.

The commission, while not underrating the difficulty of governing the Philippines, is disposed to believe the task easier than is generally supposed. The Filipinos, they say, are of unusually promising material, possessing admirable personal and domestic virtues and being naturally peaceful, docile and deferential to constituted authority. The educated among them, though constituting a minority, they say, are far more numerous than is generally supposed, and the commission bears strong testimony to their high range of intelligence and social refinements.

These picked Filipinos will be of infinite value to the United States in the work of establishing and maintaining civil government throughout the archipelago.

Conclusions Reached.

In connection with the subject of government the commission reaches the following conclusions:

"1. The United States cannot withdraw from the Philippines. We are there and duty bids us remain. There is no escape from our responsibility to the Filipinos and to mankind for the government of the archipelago and the amelioration of the condition of its inhabitants.

"2. The Filipinos are wholly unprepared for independence, and if independence were given to them they could not maintain it."

Under the third head is included a copy of Admiral Dewey's letter to Senator Lodge, which was read in the senate the other day, denying Aguinaldo's claim that he was promised independence.

"4. There being no Philippine nation, but only a collection of different peoples, there is no general public opinion in the archipelago; but the men of property and education, who alone interest themselves in public affairs, in general recognize as indispensable American authority, guidance and protection.

"5. Congress should, at the earliest practicable time, provide for the Philippines the form of government herein recommended or another equally liberal and beneficent.

"6. Pending any action on the part of congress, the commission recommends that the president put in operation this scheme of civil government in such parts of the archipelago as are at peace.

"7. So far as the finances of the Philippines permit public education should be promptly established, and when established made free to all.

"8. The greatest care should be taken in the selection of officials for administration. They should be men of the highest character and fitness and partisan politics should be entirely separated from the government of the Philippines."

Passed Away.

Our Increased Trade with China.

England can no longer compete with us in the shipment of many products to China. Our trade with the Chinese has increased almost forty per cent. within the last year. This is merely natural. Nervous Women are ailing women. When a woman has some female trouble she is certain to be nervous and wretched.

With many women the monthly suffering is so great that they are for days positively insane, and the most diligent efforts of ordinary treatment are unavailing.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

comes promptly to the relief of these women. The letters from women cured by it proves this. This paper is constantly printing them.

The advice of Mrs. Pinkham should also be secured by every nervous woman. This costs nothing. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

SOME INTERESTING TALKS

Subjects of Current Public Interest Presented to Members of a University Club.

SOME FEATURES OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

Many Students Enrolled in the Summer Schools—Artists Secured for May Musical Festival—Cause of Fever Among Troops—Other Notes of Interest.

[Special Correspondence.] University of Michigan, Feb. 5.—At the last meeting of the History and Political Science Journal Club of the University of Michigan Prof. Henry E. Bourne, of Western Reserve University, gave a talk on some features of county and municipal administration in the city of Cleveland. Prof. Bourne spoke in the light of his experience as some-time secretary and member of the executive committee of the municipal league of Cleveland. His address was mainly an account of boss methods of controlling elections, of ways of carrying on the administration of public affairs for private ends, and of the work of the league in opposing and reforming conditions.

Interesting Talks. The History and Political Science Journal club is composed of the advanced students and members of the faculty in the departments of history and economics and sociology. It meets on alternate Wednesday evenings in the east seminary room of the library.

The programme usually consists of a talk by one of the students, or by the faculty, or by some one from outside, on a subject of current public interest, followed by an informal discussion. Prof. Bourne's was the second address to the club this year on municipal problems. At a former meeting Allen Pond, secretary of the Municipal Voters' league of Chicago, gave an account of the organization of the league, and especially of its work in regard to the choice of aldermen in Chicago. One of the most interesting meetings of the past semester was that at which R. L. Melendy read a part of his study on "The Saloon in Chicago." Among those from outside who will address the club next semester are Harry J. Hollister, of Grand Rapids, on the work of Behring Sea Seal Fisheries Commission.

Summer Schools.

Last year 266 students were enrolled in the summer schools of the University. Of these 221 were credited to the literary department and 45 to the law department. Ninety-six of those in the literary department had been previously enrolled in the university and 103 were teachers. The 266 students came from 20 states and territories, the District of Columbia, England, Norway, Japan and South Africa. The largest number (135) were from Michigan. Ohio was represented by 20 students; Illinois, 15; Indiana, 12; Wisconsin, 10; and Iowa, 10.

The first session of the summer school was held in 1894. The total enrollment for several years since the organization of the school is as follows: 1894, 91; 1895, 187; 1896, 224; 1897, 225; 1898, 233; 1899, 266.

May Festival.

The seventh annual May festival of the University School of Music will be held in Ann Arbor Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 17, 18 and 19. The first concert will be held Thursday evening, the second and third Friday afternoon and evening respectively, and the fourth and fifth Saturday afternoon and evening. The artists and organizations for the several numbers in the festival are: Madame Schumann-Heink, contralto, of the Royal Opera of Berlin and the Metropolitan Opera company, New York; Miss Sara Anderson, soprano; Miss Isabelle Bouton, contralto; Emma Juck, soprano, of New York; David Bispham, bass; Evan Williams, tenor; George W. Jenkins, tenor; Gwyllim Miles, baritone; Bernard Sturm, violinist, of the University School of Music; the Boston Festival Orchestra and the Choral Union of the University of Michigan. Emil Mollenhauer and Prof. Albert A. Stanley will be the conductors.

Cause of Fever.

Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, dean of the medical department, has completed his portion of a report made as a member of the board appointed to ascertain the cause of typhoid fever among the troops in the Spanish-American war and to suggest means for the prevention of this disease. This board, consisting of Maj. Walter Reed, Maj. Shakespeare and Maj. Vaughan, was appointed by the department of war in August, 1898, and immediately visited the camps and personally inspected all the troops, afterwards making a study of the official reports. Dr. Vaughan's portion of the report, which includes the conclusions drawn from all the available data, comprises something over 11,000 pages of typewritten copy.

In the Museum.

The specimens in the museum are being mounted and placed on exhibition. Among the skeletons are those of domestic and wild animals, birds and reptiles, including the skeleton of a camel and of a tamara. The tamara is probably the only one in this country. The collection also contains a large number of skulls. The specimens are displayed in cases in the hallway on the fourth floor of the museum building. They are exhibited against a black background and are neatly labeled.

Pushing the Work.

The walls of the homeopathic hospital are complete to the top of the first story and work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. An important feature in regard to this building is the system of ventilation which has been adopted. Blasts of fresh air will be constantly sent into the several wards by large fans. The foul air in the building will be drawn off by mechanical means into the ventilation stack. The system is so complete that the air in the entire building can be changed in ten minutes.

Invention of Printing.

"Gutenberg and the Invention of Printing" is the title of a lecture to be given by Byron A. Finney, of the general library, before the Unity club of Ann Arbor, February 26. The lecture, which is in commemoration of the five hundredth anniversary of the accepted birth year of Gutenberg, will be illustrated with lantern slides showing some of the earliest specimens of printing and portraits of the printers.

General Notes.

President James B. Angell responded to the toast "The University" at the fourteenth annual dinner of the Washington Alumni association of the University of Michigan, held in Washington January 24. The succeeding day he was a guest at the dinner of the Michigan State association at the national capital.

Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, dean of the medical department, will speak at the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Alumni association, to be held at Milwaukee Friday evening, February 16. Former United States Senator John Patton, Jr., of Grand Rapids, will deliver the address at the annual Washington birthday exercises held under the auspices of the law department.

A portion of the senior class in mechanical engineering will visit Jackson, Mich., the latter part of February to make a test of the plant of the Heat, Light & Power company.

FULL OF EVIL.

The Anti-Saloon League of Detroit Says That City Is a Modern Sodom—Officials Scored.

The Anti-Saloon league of Detroit, composed of ministers and members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, allege that Detroit is a modern Sodom; that saloons are allowed to violate the laws by keeping open on Sundays, holidays and after legal hours; that the police are in league with them and with questionable resorts; that the common council is largely composed of aldermen who are interested in the saloon business and refuse to aid in correcting the evils; that Seelye dinner dances are of frequent occurrence in the downtown districts, at one of which the sheriff was recently a spectator, and that the circuit judges and public prosecutor refuse to call a grand jury to investigate.

Rural Delivery.

The report of the postmaster of Hillsdale upon the rural mail delivery for the first six months ending December 31, 1899, shows a very gratifying increase. The number of pieces of mail delivered by the carriers in July was 8,035; in December it was 18,461—an increase of 10,426 pieces. The number of pieces of mail collected by the carriers during the six months was 12,703, and the number delivered was 84,735—a total delivered and collected of 97,438.

Won Suit for Liberty.

In probate court in Hastings a jury decided that Mrs. Nettie Marshall is not insane. Mrs. Marshall resides near Nashville and was lodged in jail on complaint of her brother, Jacob Miller, who alleged she was insane. Mrs. Marshall makes grave charges against her brother. She alleges that it was after she had announced her intention of marrying again that he sought to have her sent to an asylum.

A Costly Press.

William Hall, a resident of Monroe, took his trousers to a tailor in Toledo, O., to be pressed, and forgot to remove a diamond stud valued at $350 from the small watch pocket in the trousers. The tailor denied all knowledge of the stone's whereabouts, and after consulting a lawyer without obtaining satisfaction, Mr. Hall was forced to consider his stud as lost.

Bears Fruit.

The agitation on the part of farmers in favor of a higher price for sugar beets has borne fruit in Kalamazoo county, the owners of the factory in the celery city having announced their readiness to make contracts for raising beets this year at the rate of $4.50 per ton for those containing 12 per cent. of sugar, with proportionately more for those testing higher.

A Methodist society has been organized at Millersburg, one of the new boom towns in Presque Isle county, and a church building will be erected in the spring.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health from 73 observers in various portions of the state for the week ended January 27 indicate that inflammation of the bowels and pneumonia increased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 177 places, measles at 90, typhoid fever at 50, scarlet fever at 78, diphtheria at 34, whooping cough at 30, cerebro-spinal meningitis at 4 places and smallpox at Watervliet, Benton Harbor and Masonville.

Mysterious Case.

Prof. A. Leflamboy, magnetic healer, was found in a bath-tub filled with steaming hot water in Grand Rapids and his brother, George Leflamboy, was lying on the floor of the bathroom unconscious. The professor was nude and had been in the hot water so long his body was parboiled. George was dressed, and until he recovers sufficiently to tell what happened the case will continue a mystery.

Sues for Bounty.

Lucius L. Hickox, a Kent county veteran, has asked the supreme court for a mandamus to compel the board of state auditors to allow his claim for $150 state bounty provided by an act of 1865. The records show an assignment of this bounty to C. G. Wilcox, to whom the bounty was paid, but Hickox has established the fact that this assignment was fraudulent and his signature thereto a forgery.

Charge Is Embezzlement.

Augustus O. Hyde, ex-superintendent of poor of Calhoun county, in whose accounts the special committee which has been investigating the accounts of county officers discovered an alleged shortage in the neighborhood of $5,000, was arrested in Marshall charged with embezzlement. Mr. Hyde had been superintendent of the poor for 30 years, his term of office expiring January 1, 1889.

Devoured by Wolves.

John Smith, a former resident of Detroit, was devoured by wolves a short distance from a logging camp where he was employed near Presque Isle. He strayed from the camp in the early evening, as he was in the habit of doing, and the next morning his partially devoured body was found in the snow. Smith was a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

Pupils Attack a Teacher.

Because she tried to punish two of her pupils Nellie Willard, a school-teacher 20 years old, at the school near Hetherton, is so ill that fears are entertained for her recovery. The pupils, Wallington and Willard, aged 14 and 16 years—the latter the young woman's cousin—attacked her with a club and a knife and she was badly beaten.

The annual meeting of the Michigan Press association will be held at Grand Rapids February 15 and 16.

The Citizens' State bank, capital stock $50,000, has opened in Benton Harbor. The Benton Harbor State bank opened three weeks ago. This gives the city three state banks with a like capital.

THE COAL INDUSTRY.

Labor Commissioner Cox Gives Some Interesting Statistics Concerning Michigan Mines.

In his forthcoming report Labor Commissioner Cox will devote a chapter to the coal industry in Michigan, which has recently assumed large proportions. The report will say in part:

The total area of the coal basin in Michigan covers nearly 9,000 square miles, running from Jackson county on the south to Rosecommon county on the north, and extending from Huron county on the east to Mecosta county on the west. It is irregular in shape, like a pear, its stem end being at Jackson and its broadest part on a line passing through Saginaw county. Of course not all of the vast area referred to contains coal in workable quantities, but the rich finds in Saginaw county are said to be an index of what will follow. There are now over 200,000 acres under lease, each acre estimated at an average of 4,500 tons.

At the beginning of the year there were 25 coal mines in operation in the state, while many new shafts were being projected. There are seven mills in Bay county, nine in Saginaw, two in Shiawassee, one in Huron, one in Jackson and five small ones known as drift mines on the banks of Grand river, near Grand Ledge. In the past six months these five mines have taken out about 2,500 tons of coal.

The number of employees in the coal mines of the state is 1,402, the average for each mine being 56; the average hours per day being 7.8 and the average number of days worked each month being 21.3. The average daily wages paid is $2.04. The number of tons of output was 233,898, and the average cost per ton was $1.31. Many of the mines have been worked but a short time, and it is estimated that the mines are today producing 60,000 tons of coal per month at an average of $1.30 per ton.

MARRIED SIXTY YEARS.

Rev. and Mrs. Lafayette Church, Pioneers of Gratiot County, Celebrate the Event at Alma.

Rev. and Mrs. Lafayette Church, of Alma, recently celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage. They were married at Lyons, Iowa county, in 1840, and began their wedded life in a log cabin, built by Mr. Church for his young bride, about ten miles north of the city of Iowa, then a small hamlet. From Iowa county they moved to Wheatland, Hillsdale county, where they lived for six years, and in 1854 moved to the farm on which they now reside, buying the land from the government. During the civil war Mr. Church raised a company of volunteers in Gratiot county, of which he was commissioned captain. This company was assigned to the Twenty-sixth Michigan infantry. Mr. Church was made chaplain of the regiment in June, 1864, and served until the end of the war, being present on the line at the time of Gen. Lee's surrender at Appomattox.

Mr. Church is one of four brothers, all prominent Baptist ministers. He is 84 years of age and Mrs. Church is 77. They have four sons and four daughters, all married, and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Frozen to Death.

Charles Ovenden, aged 19, was frozen to death within a few feet of the back door of his home in West Bay City, and the body lay where it fell until his mother discovered it frozen in a pool of blood. It is thought that he slipped and fell, striking so hard on his head that severe concussion of the brain and hemorrhage from the mouth and nose was caused. He was evidently knocked senseless by the blow, and lay there and froze to death in his own blood.

Must Be Observed.

Railroad Commissioner Osborn has issued a circular to the managers and superintendents of all railroads calling attention to the fact that numerous complaints have been made of the failure of station agents to comply with the law requiring the bulletining of passenger trains. Commissioner Osborn asks that orders be issued so that a strict compliance with the law will be insured by the railway agents of the state.

First Finnish College.

Suomi college was dedicated in Houghton, services being in charge of Rev. K. L. Tolonen, of Ishpeming, president of the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church Association of America. This is the first Finnish college in this country. The buildings, which are modern and handsome, cost $30,000. The college opened four years ago in temporary quarters, and now has a capacity for 150 students.

NICARAGUAN CANAL.

Treaty Placing Its Control Absolutely with the United States Is Signed.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Hay-Pauncefote treaty, amendatory of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty relative to the construction of the Nicaragua canal, was signed at the state department Monday by Secretary Hay and the Right Hon. Lord Pauncefote, of Presford, for Great Britain. Though the consummation of the treaty occupied some time, owing to the necessity of comparing the two drafts, there was very little formality about the ceremony, and a convention that is expected to be, for the United States, at least, of the most far-reaching importance and value, came into being without any theatrical surroundings.

Mr. Smith carried the freshly signed treaty to the white house, where the letter of transmittal was signed by the president, so that the treaty could be dispatched at once to the United States senate for ratification. The letter of transmittal was purely formal, simply commending the treaty of the senate without entering upon any argument to demonstrate its great value.

Secretary Hay declined to make public the text of the treaty, or even to make any statement as to its details, holding that courtesy to the senate obliged him to remain silent until the senate itself removed the seal of confidence from the convention. So that all that is now known of this convention is that it amends the Clayton-Bulwer treaty of 1850 in such manner that Great Britain yields to the United States the right to construct the Nicaragua canal, or a canal at any other point on the isthmus, without British participation. Most of the other features of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty are retained. This is notably true of article No. 5, which guarantees the absolute neutrality of any canal, and the security of the capital invested. It is understood that the United States continues upon itself this obligation to maintain the neutralization of the canal, which shall be forever open and free. It is also believed that the treaty looks to an international undertaking on this point.

As soon as the treaty is ratified and the ratifications have been exchanged, the United States will be at liberty to proceed at once with the construction of an isthmian canal unfettered by any obligations toward Great Britain save that of allowing to British citizens, as to the citizens of other nations, the use of the canal on the same terms with American citizens.

There is absolutely no quid pro quo offered to Great Britain in this treaty in return for the valuable concession to the United States. Whatever return the United States may choose to make for this concession is a thing of the future.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The new treaty with Great Britain relative to the building of the Nicaragua canal was received by the senate and was read in executive session. Senator Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, moved to make the treaty public, as it was a subject in which all were greatly interested, but after some discussion it was decided to refer the matter to the committee on foreign relations before taking that step. The comments of senators upon the treaty after hearing it read were favorable. It was said to allow the United States all the authority that was needed and the neutrality of the canal was guaranteed, as was the neutrality of the Suez canal.

REBELS ARE ROUTED.

The American Forces Under Gen. Kobbe Occupy and Garrison Nine Towns.

Manila, Feb. 6.—Brig. Gen. Kobbe's forces in the islands of Luzon, Leyte and Samar have occupied permanently and garrisoned nine towns, the regiments used being the Forty-third and Forty-seventh. This has placed on the market 180,000 bales of hemp. A thousand insurgents armed with rifles and over 5,000 armed with wooden swords, bows and arrows, were encountered during the entire trip. The troops killed 75 natives, 11 of whom had rifles. The others were villagers armed with wooden swords. The American loss was one man killed and nine men wounded. The Americans captured $9,000 in gold, the enemy's money, and 40 muzzle-loading brass cannon. At Calbagog and Samar the enemy evacuated the towns, the Americans chasing, fighting and scattering them to the mountains.

At Cathalagan, Lukban, the Tagalog general, fired the place with kerosene just before the Americans landed, and then fought with cannon and rifles from the hills encircling the town for two hours. When the Filipinos were driven out the Americans did their best to save the town, fighting the fire for several hours. Thirty stone and 60 other houses, half the business portion of the place, were consumed. The soldiers prevented the fire from spreading. The next day Maj. Allen, with three companies of the Forty-third regiment, pursued Lukban to the mountain fastnesses and thence to the coast town, whither Lukban was heading in hopes of escaping. Lukban, by taking the natives' wealth, has accumulated $100,000 in gold. His capture is probable.

THE CHELSEA HERALD

T. W. MINGAY, Editor and Proprietor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

for $1.00 per year strictly in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Chelsea, Mich., as second class matter.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1900.

The state treasury is not yet bankrupt. There was $1,813,144.47 in it at the close of business Jan. 31.

Representative George S. Wheeler, of Salem, has formally announced his candidacy for state land commissioner. Mr. Wheeler has been a prominent figure in Washtenaw county politics for a number of years and is well known throughout the state also.

Attorney General Oren says: "I shall let the Republican state convention decide whether I shall be the candidate of the Republican party for attorney general." There is not the least question but that such would be the case, whether the attorney general gave his permission or whether he did not do so.

Some busybodies have been circulating the report that W. W. Wedemeyer would be a candidate for congress in opposition to Congressman H. C. Smith. It was a ridiculous and foolish report and hardly worth a denial, but Mr. Wedemeyer wrote Mr. Smith a letter, nevertheless, assuring him there was no such a feeling existing in the second district.

Trusts are no respecters of persons or things. This is evidenced by the news that the great houses engaged in the manufacture of bibles have gone into a trust and will materially raise the selling price. If Christ himself were on earth nowadays these trust fellows would want to get up a corner on him and charge an admission fee to look at him or hear him speak.

That $150 bounty law passed by the Michigan legislature in 1865 which gave that sum to every man who should enlist thereafter, being credited to any military subdistrict, may cost the state considerable money yet. The supreme court has just issued an order for the board of auditors to show cause why the claim of one man should not be paid. There are hundreds of others in the same fix.

A bill is before the house committee on military affairs, providing for dental surgeons for the army in the proportion of one surgeon for every 1,000 men. The national and dental associations are working for the passage of the bill; Gen. Otis has telegraphed the war department that the men in his army need dental attention; numbers of representatives have pledged themselves to support its passage, and it looks as though the soldier boys might soon be relieved of the pangs of toothache, or at least will have a remedy afforded, the same as he has for bodily ailments which come under the care of the army surgeon.

The gain in gross receipts at the Ann Arbor post office for the month of January was $500. If the office keeps that up for two months more it will be entitled to a place on the first class list. Provided this rise is not a fictitious one, due to the means advocated by some people in Ann Arbor to make it a first class office, it will be all just and fair and proper. But if the rise is caused by artificial means it is no more entitled to be a first class office than is Fredonia. It would simply be a case of marching up to the top of the hill and marching down again. For the post office department will reduce it to the second class rank again very quickly if the receipts do not hold up to the required amount. Better make haste slowly in this matter.

In an open letter to the Detroit Evening Journal H. W. Stevens, of Tecumseh, puts forward as first choice for governor of Michigan on the Republican ticket Gen. Russell A. Alger. His second choice is Hon. James O'Donnell, of Jackson. In the concluding paragraph of his letter he says:

"Russell A. Alger is the man. Bring such a man's name forward and all others fade away like the morning dew, and that oft repeated, 'What's the matter with Alger?' will have the same old response, 'He's all right!' Then when elected we may look for a clean, honest and honored administration. Right the wrongs that now lay at the doors of our fair state. If this cannot be done, then give the Second congressional district your support for Hon. James O'Donnell."

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at Stimson's drug store.

TAKING THE CENSUS.

The National Census Will Be Made in June.

The active work of taking the United States census will probably begin about June 1, and returns must all be made to Washington by July 1. There will be fifty thousand enumerators to work one month. Over seventy-five million of people must be recorded within thirty days, and there will therefore be an average of two and one-half million a day. In towns and cities of 8,000 inhabitants or over, it is required that the work must be finished in two weeks, however, and this will make the daily average still greater.

The work all over the country will be performed in the same way as in this state. The senators and representatives send in their recommendations of persons to be employed, including one supervisor of census for each congressional district and as many enumerators as are necessary, based upon an estimated showing of population. The work itself is not especially remunerative. It is estimated that the average amount paid to enumerators all over the country is about $60. This is based proportionately upon the amount of work done, but in any event will not run much over this amount, except for those who are retained for special work in getting statistics after the census work proper is finished. It is said that for some of these the job may last for a year or more. The supervisors of census, however, will get a good thing out of it. The law stipulates that each supervisor shall receive upon completion of the work in his district the sum of $12 and a certain sum in addition thereto according to the population in his district. It is provided, however, that the total sum for each supervisor shall not be less than $1,000.

The work will be practically the same as it was ten years ago. The same questions will be asked and answers recorded. No enumerator is allowed any assistance, as he must see everyone in person. In cases where there are foreigners who do not understand the language sufficiently to answer questions he can employ an interpreter, but that is all.

The authorities at Washington have figured it out that the taking of this census, which will be the twelfth, will cost about $12,000,000, or about 15 cents for every man, woman and child in the United States. It is interesting to look back to the first census, which cost less than a cent for each person, and when the entire population was less than four millions, and to see how the work has grown. Next June the census department at Washington will have in its employ over 50,000 people. They figure that they will have the work of computing the population ready to announce at the end of this year. The compilation of necessary statistics, however, will take a much longer time, and it will be five or six years before the whole work is finished.

The many friends of Leonard Gruner, of Ann Arbor, who has been undergoing such a heavy cross examination in the Ellis estate case in the probate for the last few days, will learn with regret that he has physically collapsed under the great mental strain. His symptoms point strongly to apoplexy and his lower limbs are partially paralyzed.

Rev. Francis Clement Kelly's lecture on "The Yankee Volunteer" at the opera house last evening, was well attended. He is a pleasant and forcible speaker, treats his subject in an able manner and interlards it with humorous stories and incidents, so that it does not weary his audience. He spoke last night for an hour and a half and held the undivided attention of his hearers from first to last.

County Sunday School News.

The treasurer is sending out class collection slips to all superintendents for the annual offering. Do not send this offering to Mr. Reid, whose name is on the white slips, but to C. E. Deake, the county treasurer, Salem.

The Life of Moody.

In last week's Herald Dr. Thomas Holmes had an article over his signature as "authorized agent" for the "only authentic biography of the late Dwight L. Moody, by his son Wm. R. Moody," in which he used the following words: "You will be able to get just what you want for the money you are now asked to pay for what you do not want, and will be dissatisfied with, when you get it." He evidently referred to the book I have been selling, written by Dr. Northrop. I wish to make the following statement and offer in regard to it:

If any of the persons who have subscribed with me for "The Life of Moody," by Rev. Henry Davenport Northrop, D. D., would prefer to have "The Life of D. L. Moody," by his son Wm. R. Moody, I will gladly make the change, as I hold agencies for the sale of each of the books.

Respectfully,

CHAS. T. LIMPET.

Wants to Serve His Country.

The Detroit Evening News of Friday gave the following curious letter dated from Manchester and received by Lieut. Gaston, of the U. S. recruiting station in Detroit:

"Dear Sir I Would Rite To Know What The Work Would be I am a citizens of United States Yo can get My Rekeman From Clarence Case Cash Shere of The People Bank He Can Tell Yo All about Me If Yo Want To Fend Out What I am i am in business but I Can Sell Out i gese Let Me Here From Yo."

The letter was signed "William Holt." Holt was a member of Co. C, 31st Michigan, during the late unpleasantness with Spain and is well known to many in Chelsea. It would seem from his letter that he would again like to enter Uncle Sam's service.

"In mercantile life success depends upon publicity. The merchant who permits his business to remain untrumpeted can never obtain prominence; but he who insists upon making himself known to the public through the medium of newspaper advertisements will rise from obscurity and troubled fortune to fame and affluence. In like manner, the successful merchant who has always advertised can sustain and still farther develop his trade. The advertisement does for business what the ancient alchemists believed the philosopher's stone would do for the baser metals.

Anyone who feels like having a lively enjoyable time must not miss being there.

Howard City Record: One of the homeliest men on the east side has a very pretty little four years old daughter. One day she was sitting in his lap, opposite a large mirror. She looked at his reflection, then at her own, and, turning to him, she asked: "Papa, did God make me?" "Yes, dear," was the reply. "And did he make you, too?" "Yes." "Well," she said, again glancing at the mirror, "he's turning out much better work lately, isn't he?"

From the secretary of state's report of farm statistics in Michigan for 1898-9 is gleaned the following facts: Lima has 14,332 acres of improved land in farms, 1,251 acres of unimproved, 152 farms with an average acreage of 134 acres. Lyndon has 11,465 acres of improved land, 3,924 acres unimproved, 182 farms with an average acreage of 154 acres. Sharon has 14,349 acres of improved land, 3,865 acres unimproved, 126 farms, average acreage 143. Sylvan has 8,430 acres improved land, 4,453 acres unimproved, 107 farms, averaging 120 acres each.

Railroad Commissioner Osborn has issued a circular to the managers and superintendents of all railroads calling attention to the fact that numerous complaints have been made by commercial travelers of the failure of station agents to comply with the law requiring the bulletining of passenger trains. The law was passed in 1895, and has been indifferently observed in many of the smaller towns. Commissioner Osborn asks that orders be issued so that a strict compliance with the law will be insured by the railway agents of the state.

REPUBLICANS YIELD.

Agree to the Recognition of Beckham as Governor.

Withdrawal of Troops from Frankfort Also Conceded—Result of Conference Awaits the Acquiescence of Taylor.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 6.—If the agreement drawn up this morning at the conference of representatives of the republican and democratic administrations held at the Galt house in this city is accepted and carried out, the strife which has rent Kentucky for the last few weeks will be ended. The agreement was reached shortly after midnight, and arrangements were immediately made to have it drawn up and signed. This was slow work, however, and it was after two o'clock when the conferees separated.

The democrats gained nearly every point they contended for, and the republican representatives, Acting Lieut. Gov. John Marshall, Gen. Dan Lindsey and Attorney David Fairleigh, gave assurances that the agreement would be accepted by Acting Gov. Taylor.

To Make Beckham Governor.

The agreement provides that in order to leave no question as to the title of William Goebel and J. C. W. Beckham to the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, respectively, the general assembly shall pass a resolution in joint assembly validating the acts on that subject since the legislature has been prevented by troops from holding its regular sessions at Frankfort. As soon as the legislature does this Beckham's title to the office of governor is not to be questioned.

Grant Immunity to Taylor.

The democrats grant immunity to Mr. Taylor and his associates from prosecution for treason, usurpation of office or contempt of court for what has been done since the shooting of Goebel.

These matters are to be held in abeyance until next Monday. The republican legislature is to be withdrawn from London immediately, and no filibustering or other attempts of this character is to be resorted to by the republicans to obstruct the carrying out of this agreement in the legislature.

The democrats suggested that in view of the great crowds expected in Frankfort during the Goebel funeral ceremonies the soldiers should be withdrawn. The republicans asked that an adequate guard be left to protect Mr. Taylor and his associates.

Question of Leaving Troops.

It was finally agreed to leave to Gen. Daniel Lindsay, one of the republican conferees, the decision as to how many troops should be left to prevent a clash as a result of the Goebel funeral, the republicans to begin at once the withdrawal of troops from Frankfort. It was agreed that the board of election commissioners sitting as a contest board should be allowed to meet at Frankfort without molestation, the democrats agreeing that no summary action be taken on these contests and that nothing be done without due hearing of evidence and argument.

The republicans asked that some provision for a repeal or modification of the Goebel law be included in the agreement. The democrats agreed that to two leading republicans and two leading democrats should be left the matter of suggesting changes in the Goebel law believed to be wise.

The acceptance of this agreement by the principals is the only element of uncertainty now remaining in the situation.

Taylor Advised to Yield.

How accurately the republican conferees represent Gov. Taylor, or how necessary the latter's acquiescence is to carrying out the plans agreed upon, can only be determined by the events of the next 24 hours. It is probable that the republican policy was materially influenced by the following telegram:

"Washington, Feb. 4.—Hon. W. S. Taylor: The unanimous sentiment here is that you are wrong in preventing the legislature from meeting, and that you should submit the disputed questions to the civil courts. Federal assistance cannot be given you on your requisition so long as the legislature is in session or can be convened. There is no doubt but it can be convened if you will permit. The democrats intend that if any violence occurs you shall be the aggressor. You will be forcible resistance alike all who formerly sympathized with your case. No assistance. Answer. 'W. J. DEBOE.'"

TAYLOR MAKES AN OFFER.

Willing to Submit His Case to Three Arbitrators.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 6.—Gov. Taylor Monday night made a distinct and positive offer to submit the merits of his claim to the gubernatorial chair of Kentucky to any three fair-minded men in the world, these three men to be selected by the United States supreme court. He will allow them to arbitrate the case and will abide by their decision. This announcement he made at six o'clock Monday night, in his office in the executive building. The declaration made by Gov. Taylor regarding arbitration was at once wired to Lieut. Gov. John Marshall and Attorney David W. Fairleigh, republican members of the political conference held Monday night at Louisville.

VIEWED BY THOUSANDS.

Remains of Maj. Gen. Lawton Lie in State at Fort Wayne, Ind., His Former Home.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 6.—The remains of the late Maj. Gen. Henry W. Lawton Monday lay in state in this city, his former home. The occasion was one of general observance.

The special train bearing the remains, Mrs. Lawton and her children, Maj. Gen. William R. Shafter and staff and the military guard arrived over the Pennsylvania road from Chicago at 7:30 in the morning. At nine o'clock a military and civic procession proceeded to the Pennsylvania depot and escorted the remains to the rotunda of the courthouse, where the casket is on view. The procession was nearly a mile in length. Among the bodies of which it was comprised was Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., of which Gen. Lawton was a member, Harmony lodge of odd fellows, of which Gen. Lawton was at the time of his death the oldest charter survivor, and Summit City lodge, of masons, of which Gen. Lawton was a member.

Between closely packed columns of people the pageant moved down Calhoun street to the courthouse, the national colors mingled with ecrepe being displayed in profusion from business houses along the line of march. The casket was borne on two caissons, draped with the American flag. As the procession started the Twenty-eighth battery fired a major general's salute to Gen. Shafter. Thousands of people thronged the rotunda of the courthouse to view the casket.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6.—The remains of Gen. Lawton arrived here at 9:15 o'clock Monday night. The funeral party was received at the Union station by Gov. Mount, Mayor Taggart, Gen. Harrison, Admiral Brown, Maj. Charles Shaler and others.

The remains were not removed from the train and will not be disturbed until 11 o'clock this morning when they will be taken to the capitol building to lie in state.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—In a coffin hidden under the silken folds of the national colors, in defense of which he gave up his life, the body of Maj. John A. Logan lay in state in Memorial hall in the public library building. Piled in fragrant profusion on and about the coffin were handsome floral offerings sent by friends and relatives of the dead soldier and military organizations of which his father was a member. Thousands viewed the remains.

KEPT SECRET.

Actual Operations of Gen. Buller in South Africa Not Made Public.

London, Feb. 6.—The war office statement that it has received no confirmation of the report that Gen. Buller has recrossed the Tugela river has failed to shake public belief that operations of tremendous importance are proceeding at the Tugela, and it is thought that either the denial was prompted by a desire to keep the military movements as secret as possible until something is accomplished, or that Gen. Buller is keeping the home officials in the dark pending results. It is obviously extremely difficult to extract the truth from the conflicting statements shrouding Gen. Buller's movement, but most of the commentators agree that the aggregate of the items tends to confirm the belief that movements of importance are in progress.

Whatever may be the actual situation, there seems no doubt that Gen. Buller's preparations for a fresh attempt to relieve Ladysmith were completed Thursday or Friday, and though the start was possibly deferred from the date first selected, it will not be long before it is definitely known that Gen. Buller's forces are again fighting their way towards Ladysmith. Those, however, who expected Gen. Buller to reach the beleaguered town Monday night, seem to have forgotten the presence of the Boers.

The war office announces that 15 transports will be dispatched between now and Monday with 13,000 troops, including the Fourth cavalry brigade, militia battalions and 3,000 yeomanry, with 253 horses and six guns. These 13,000 are not included in the 180,000 due to be in South Africa on February 15. The Eighth division of 10,000 men is still available to send.

Cape Town, Feb. 6.—President Steyn and President Kruger have communicated with Field Marshal Lord Roberts, the British commander in chief, protesting against the destruction of farmhouses and the devastation of property. Lord Roberts, in replying, declared the charges were not sustained, adding that wanton destruction of property was contrary to British practices.

Cuban Revenue Receipts.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The war department gave out an itemized statement of receipts in the department of internal revenue for the island of Cuba during the five months ended November 30, 1899. The chief items are as follows: Inheritance and conveying tax, $170,199; corporation tax, $33,906; tax on railroad freight and passengers, $120,537. The total internal revenue receipts for the five months ended November 30, 1899, were $360,214.

WHAT A FORMER AMERICAN SAYS.

Doubled Their Cultivated Lands and More Than Doubled Their Stock.

The following letter written by Mr. John Cummings of Wetaskiwin, Alberta, Canada, formerly of Washington, to a friend in the United States is only one of a hundred similar cases, and what was done by Mr. Cummings can more easily be done to-day by any good, sober and industrious farmer who chooses to make his home in the Dominion.

Dear Sir: You want to know how I got along since I came into Northern Alberta. I am happy to inform you that I am not ashamed to tell.

We located five miles northeast of Wetaskiwin; left Farmington, Washington, on the 29th of May, driving all the way.

We had time to build our log house the first fall and to make us comfortable for the family and stock. We then built four stables 18x20 inside, so that we could put everything inside them when the cold got down to the fifties, and worked hard getting up the stable and got through dubbing on the 1st December, but to our surprise we had no use for the stables only for the milk cow and two span of horses. The balance of the horses lived on the prairie all winter and took care of themselves. The doors of two stables were left open for them to go into in a cold time, but they would not do it, but stayed out on the prairie the coldest night we had, and looked as spry as crickets.

I can go ten rods back of my house and count ten residents. I know all of their circumstances. Every one of them have doubled their cultivated land and doubled their animals, and a great deal more. All of us are comparatively out of debt and an unusually big crop to thresh and prospects of a fair price, and I expect we are as well contented lot of people as there are from Florida to the Klondike.

My son bought two pounds of twine to the acre, and when we started to bind some barley, we found that instead of taking two pounds to the acre, it was taking nearly five pounds. Then you ought to have seen him hitch up a team and make for town for 100 lbs. more. I cannot say how it will thresh. All I can say is that it is well headed, and takes an enormous amount of twine.

Exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated or toilet soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet soap and BEST baby soap in the world.

MRS. LETITIA SEMPLE.

Daughter of President Tyler, Who Once Was Mistress of the White House, Still Living.

Living in the big brick building known as the Louisa home in Washington is a white-haired woman who was the mistress of the white house more than half a century ago. By the world at large her existence has been forgotten, nor would the mention of her name, Mrs. Letitia Semple, recall any memory to the ordinary reader. It was as Letitia Tyler that she first became known to Washington society in the days when the Capitol city was scarcely more than a country village, containing a few fine public buildings separated by long stretches of bottomless mud. She was the second daughter of President John Tyler, and she was a Virginia belle in the days when that was the clearest title to beauty that could be bestowed in this country. Tyler's administration seems a long way back to most of us. It seems strange to think that this serene-faced old woman, who is still active and vigorous, knew and talked with Webster and Clay and Calhoun and the other leaders of that period which was so prolific of great men. Webster she saw often, and describes him as a man of imposing presence which made its power felt in any assembly.

"At the time of our coming to Washington," said Mrs. Semple, in recalling her white house experiences of 50 years ago, "my mother's health was too poor to admit of her taking active charge of the duties naturally devolving upon the wife of the president. My elder sister and I had our newly-made homes in Virginia to supervise, and my youngest sister was only a child. Therefore by common consent the wife of our brother Robert became the mistress of the white house so far as the public side of the life there was concerned. However, my other sister and myself were there a good part of the time. This arrangement continued until after my mother's death, which occurred in the white house. Then my brother established himself

MRS. LETITIA SEMPLE.

(Daughter of President Tyler and Once Mistress of the White House.)

In law practice in Philadelphia, and his wife wished to make her home there. Meanwhile my husband had been appointed a paymaster in the navy, and as that led to his being away from home a great part of the time I came here to take charge of my father's household and remained until 1844.

"There were no great social entertainments in the white house during my father's term. My mother's ill health and later her death forbade that. For the most part we lived openly, hospitably and unpretentiously; in fact, just as we had been accustomed to do at home in Virginia. I remember that it was customary during the sessions of congress to entertain guests at dinner in the white house twice a week. The first dinner was usually attended by about 20 prominent public men, the personal and political friends of my father. The second was on a somewhat larger scale. It usually included members of the diplomatic corps, and the number of guests was generally about 40. But these dinners were always very simple affairs, and they ended at what would be considered now a ridiculously early hour. Then on other evenings it was customary for the president's family to be informally at home—that is, to receive calls from friends and acquaintances. But even on these occasions the visitors always departed before ten o'clock. At that hour the white house was closed and the family retired."

Although Mrs. Semple is nearly 83 years old she takes an active interest in all current affairs. She receives many invitations from people in public life in Washington.—N. Y. Sun.

New Electric Foghorn.

A new electric foghorn consists of three electro-magnets, which operate half a dozen clappers that strike upon a gong at the rate of 36,000 strokes a minute, producing a continuous sound. The effect is increased by the use of a megaphone, which also sends the sound in any desired direction.

WINDOW GARDENING.

A Charming Home Occupation and Recreation for Lovers of Plant Life and Beauty.

Winter flowering plants may be grown better in boxes than in small pots. Window boxes used outside in summer may be brought in the house in winter if the precaution is taken to make them water tight with zinc or galvanized iron. Leave a hole in the bottom of the lining to draw off the surplus water. The boxes may be placed on brackets or hung with wires screwed into the window frame, or placed on the sill.

Any of the plants commonly grown in the house can be planted in the box. Geraniums of any sort, heliotrope, fuchsias and begonias make a good variety, while a fern or two gives a dainty, tasty effect different from other plants. Or the box may be filled with annuals grown from seed. Petunias, phlox, sweet alyssum, nasturtiums and a sprig of mignonette will give a variety of bloom all winter.

At the ends may be planted morning glories and trained up each side of the window. English ivy is also a good vine to use, but it is without flowers. In a cool room carnations, violets and pansies may be grown, while roses could be handled successfully in a kitchen where there were heat and moisture. Tradescantia or Wandering Jew can be planted along the edge to hang over the sides, or the box may be covered with pretty colored paper or drapery.

Shelves fill up a window so much that the men do not like plants in the house. In brick or stone houses, with the deep window casings, an arrangement as shown in the illustration may be adopted. If there is not room in the casing, a series of brackets might be fastened along the side, and the plants receive nearly the full benefit of sun without obstructing the light.—Farm and Home.

EXERCISE FOR WOMEN.

It Imparts to the Outline of the Figure Graceful Contours and Beauty to the Face.

In Sandow's book on physical culture he devotes a chapter to women. He says: "I am quite aware that there is a very widespread notion that exercise tends to coarsen and render a woman unbecomingly, but that is absolutely false. Were there any truth in it I should indeed despair of converting my fair readers to my way of thinking, for truly it is a woman's mission to look beautiful. But the idea is absurd; nature, which intended woman to look lovely, also intended her to be healthy; indeed, the two are practically synonymous."

"Of course, improper, violent and one-sided exercise will naturally result in making a woman clumsy, heavy and ungainly, but proper exercise, having for its object symmetrical and perfect development, will have an exactly contrary effect. Curiously enough, the visible effect of proper exercise upon a woman's muscles is not precisely the same as upon those of a man. Regular and gradually progressive exercise will not make a woman's muscles prominent, but will cause them to grow firm and round, and impart to the outline of the figure those graceful contours which are so universally admired."

"Without well-conditioned muscle the most beautifully proportioned woman in the world will look comparatively shapeless and flabby; her muscles are not required to show up as in the case of a man's, but they must be there all the same, as a solid foundation for the overlying flesh. Take a woman's arm, for instance. If it has been duly exercised and developed, it is easy enough to see that its shapeliness and good modeling are due to the muscles; white and soft though the skin may be, you can tell at a glance that it is firm and elastic to the touch. On the other hand, the arm of the woman who has never exercised the muscles betrays the fact unmistakably; it may be plump and round, but its lines are lacking in beauty, its movements in grace, and so with the figure generally."

THE OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Tells How He Escaped the Terrors of Many Winters by Using Peruna.

Mr. Isaac Brock, Born in Buncombe Co., North Carolina, March 1, 1788, Says: "I attribute my extreme old age to the use of Peruna."

Born before United States was formed.
Saw 22 Presidents elected.
Pe-ru-na has protected him from all sudden changes.
Veteran of four wars.
Shod a horse when 99 years old.

Always conquered the grippe with Pe-ru-na.
Witness in a land suit at age of 110 years.
Believes Pe-ru-na the greatest remedy of the age for Catarrhal Diseases.

Isaac Brock, a citizen of McLennan
County, Texas, has lived 111 years.
He now lives with his son-in-law at Valley Mills, Texas.

In speaking of his good health and extreme old age, Mr. Brock says:

"After a man has lived in the world as long as I have, he ought to have found out a great many things by experience.

"One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the proper remedy for ailments that are due directly to the effects of the climate.

"During my long life I have known a great many remedies for coughs, colds, catarrh and diarrhea. I had always supposed these affections to be different diseases, but in reading Dr. Hartman's books I have found out that these affections are the same and that they are properly called catarrh.

"I had several long sieges with the grip. At first I did not know that Peruna was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that la grippe was epidemic catarrh, I tried Peruna for la grippe and found it to be just the thing.

"As for Dr. Hartman's remedy, Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only, reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy.

Very truly yours,
Isaac Brock.

Vest's Stolen Pigs.

"Another story that Vest told related to his candidacy for the legislature in 1861 against A. S. Walker. The canvass was exceedingly exciting because of the near approach of war, and all the questions incident to it were discussed with much animation. Charges and counter-charges were made. Both sides knew that about six votes either way would determine the contest, and on the day before election Walker raised the point on Vest that he had stolen some pigs. The only way that Vest could meet the charge was to acknowledge smilingly that he had the pigs in his pen and in his possession. If he had gone further and said that he had bought them—which they hoped he would do—they had witnesses to show that he had not bought them, but Vest was too shrewd to be caught in the trap, and turned the accusation off with a laugh and the remark:
"One can't account for the way his boys get pigs."—St. Louis Republic.
