MACCABEES MEMORIAL DAY.

Appropriate Exercises at the Town Hall. After Which the Graves of the Dead Were Decorated.

The Maccabee memorial exercises at the town hall Sunday afternoon were largely attended. At least 75 of the K. O. T. M. were in line and there were even more of the L. O. T. M. The day was bright and clear and was quite comfortable as regards temperature. The stage was nicely decorated with flowers and plants and American flags.

The exercises opened with the hymn "My God, my Father, while I stray," by the choir, Miss Margaret Nickerson, Miss Florence Bachman, Lynn Raeder and Fred Welch. Rev. C. S. Jones offered the prayer and R. A. Snyder sang "Sleep, weary ones, sleep." H. Lighthall, chairman of the day, then introduced Roland Connors, of Saginaw, who spoke on the subject of "The social side of the Maccabees."

He said the Maccabees are one of the strongest social forces at work today in the state of Michigan. The reasons for this are found in the facts that 90,000 K. O. T. M. and 47,000 L. O. T. M. are in the state; that two men cannot meet together in a lodge room without being benefited, as these associations are the best cures in the world for crankdom unless it has become chronic; the lodge is the best educator in the world as men are brought together despite political and theological beliefs and learn to know the best side of each other.

The part of religion that does the most good is genuine self sacrifice. The millennium will wipe out all petty dogmas and make us see each other as we are, the Methodists will be equal to the Baptist, and the Catholic equal to the Jew. All Maccabees are more or less animated by this spirit of self sacrifice, and so are the members of all other fraternal societies.

The social influence exerted by the L. O. T. M. is equally large and they are doing the same kind of good among women that the K. O. T. M. is among men. It is broadening their lives beyond the mere routine of daily work and making them better and nobler. It is wiping out the shoddy aristocratic feeling of "I am better than thou" from our midst.

He spoke feelingly of the dead in whose memory the day was celebrated, and said we should always remember the dead as they were at their best.

After a selection by the Chelsea Band, Rev. C. S. Jones pronounced the benediction, and the audience moved out of the hall. The procession headed by the band then marched to the cemetery where the graves of deceased members were decorated with flowers.

MODERN WOODMEN

Have Invaded Chelsea and Established a Camp Tuesday Evening.

Chelsea Camp, No. 7338, Modern Woodmen of America, was organized at a meeting held in the Foresters' hall Tuesday evening, by Deputy Head Consul W. L. Plummer, assisted by District Deputy Consul G. H. Russell, of Northville. There are 50 charter members of the camp, 26 of whom were present at the organization meeting, and there are fully 25 besides these who have signified their intention of taking out policies and becoming members of the order.

Mr. Plummer started in to get the necessary members under the most discouraging circumstances, but keeping bravely at it he sees his efforts after about eight weeks' work crowned with success and a most encouraging prospect for a large and flourishing camp.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected and installed:

Consul—Jacob Hummel.
Advisor—George H. Jackson.
Clerk—Bernard Parker.
Banker—William R. Lehman.
Escort—Fred C. Mapes.
Physician—Dr. S. G. Bush.
Watchman—Charles Carpenter.
Sentry—Rolla Beckwith.

Board of Managers—Otto Hoppe, John Sohenk, Peter Merkle.

Tuesday or Friday of next week the members of the Jackson Camp to the number of 100 or 125 will come to Chelsea by special train and will exemplify the work for the benefit of the new members. A banquet will follow the meeting, at which some good toasts and speeches will be made.

A lodge of the Royal Neighbors, the woman's branch of the order, is being talked up and is among the possibilities of the future.

ITS FAREWELL RECEPTION.

The Bay View Reading Circle Charminglly Entertained Its Friends.

The farewell reception for the 19th century of the Bay View Reading Circle was given at the residence of Mrs. F. P. Glazier Monday evening to the Chelsea Ladies' Research Club and other invited guests, among whom was Miss Carrie B. Taylor, general secretary of the Bay View Reading Circle, and it was very gratifying to the members of the home circle to be thus honored and remembered by one whose life is crowded with duties pertaining to her work.

The reception committee was Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. F. P. Glazier, Miss Mary Van-Tyne, Miss Elizabeth Depew. The ushers were Mrs. G. W. Palmer and Mrs. D. C. McLaren.

It was one of the happiest of the many happy meetings that the circle has had during its organization and was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. The handsome rooms were beautifully decorated and with the artistic floral arrangement of the three dining tables presented a most inviting appearance.

A short program of five numbers was admirably given and was very enjoyable, the piano duets and solos being especially fine. The paper by Mrs. M. G. Hill on "The Muses" was written in a bright, humorous style which evoked audible smiles from many of its hearers. The main feature of the program was "The Convention of the Muses," a short classical play, finely presented by the ladies representing the nine Muses, who, in their Grecian costumes made the characters very realistic.

Following the intellectual course of the evening came a dainty four course banquet which was thoroughly appreciated by the more than 100 people present. Sweet music was rendered during the banquet by the Aeolian Club, which added much to the evening's pleasure, many seeming to have no control over their pedal extremities and to have a desire "To chase the hours with flying feet."

The following was the program:
Piano Duet—"Witches' Dance," Mrs. J. McKain, Vera Glazier.

Paper—The Muses, Mrs. M. G. Hill.
Piano Solo—"Narcissus," "Mexican Dance," Mrs. J. McKain.

Convention of the Muses—Clio, Mrs. J. W. Schenk; Polhymnia, Mrs. H. H. Avery; Euterpe, Mrs. J. McLaren; Thalia, Mrs. A. J. Congdon; Terpsichore, Mrs. J. S. Cummings; Melpomene, Miss Jessie Everett; Erato, Miss Katherine Haarer; Calliope, Miss Nellie C. Hall; Urania, Miss Mattie Vale Stimson.
Piano Duet—Meadames McKain and Keenan.

THE LATE JOHN GUTHRIE.

He Was a Pioneer of Sylvan Township and Had Lived Here 61 Years.

John Guthrie, for nearly 61 years a highly esteemed resident of Sylvan, died at his home Wednesday, June 6, aged 87 years, 3 months and 28 days.

Mr. Guthrie was born in the county of Londonderry, Ireland, March 8, 1813. When about 20 years old he came to Canada. He remained there about three years, and during that period served as a British soldier in the Patriot war. Soon afterwards he came to Detroit, and Sept. 12, 1839, was married to Miss Elizabeth Logan. They came to Sylvan and for 55 years lived together until Mrs. Guthrie's death six years ago. Nine children—five sons and four daughters—were born to them. Of these all the sons and one daughter survive their parents.

The funeral services, which were attended by a large number of friends, were conducted at the home and at the Sylvan M. E. church on Sunday afternoon, June 10, by Rev. George B. Marsh, pastor of the Chelsea M. E. circuit, assisted by Rev. F. A. Stiles, of the Baptist church, Chelsea, and Rev. Mr. Sturgis, of the Christian Union church, Sylvan.

FOREIGN.

The United States has sent the warship Helena from Manila to reinforce the command in China.

The soldiers dispatched to attack the boxers fought an engagement quite close to Peking and many on both sides were killed.

Later details show that the Boers took 1,600 prisoners from Pretoria and made orderly retreat with all their guns. The Boers were said to be massed at Hatherley, 12 miles east of Pretoria. President Kruger declares the government still effective and the real struggle just begun.

Gen. Pio del Pilar, the Filipino leader, has been captured near Manila.

Gen. Buller, after a slight battle, has obtained a position which he believes will render Laing's Nek untenable to the Boers.

Advices from China say that all the foreign residents in Peking have been compelled to take refuge in Legation street for safety from the mobs. Seventy-five native Christians, well-known men, who had been trained for years by American missionaries have been massacred near Tung-Chau.

The Boers cut Lord Roberts' line of communications at Roodeval, north of Kroonstad, in the Orange River colony. Unexpected appearance of 2,000 burghers there made the situation serious.

The exports at the port of Manila, Philippine islands, for the first three months of 1900 show an increase of $2,050,443 over the same period of 1899.

The American missionary conference at Peking sent a telegram to President McKinley appealing for protection and stating that chapels everywhere were being burned and hundreds of native Christians massacred by the Boxers.

The cities of Cubana, Cumanacoa and Cariaco, in Venezuela, were nearly destroyed by an earthquake.

LATER.

China's young emperor has asked that the foreign powers should remove the empress dowager and establish a joint protectorate. Admiral Kempf has 200 marines ashore and 100 more will be sent him from Manila. Russia is acting alone. Other naval forces are under orders of British admiral.

The temperance congress opened in London with delegates from all parts of the world.

Belle Boyd, aged 57, the famous spy of confederate fame, died suddenly of heart disease in Kilbourn, Wis., where she was to lecture.

Charlotte Crabtree, the retired actress, widely known to older players as Lotta, has subscribed $500 to the fund for building an actors' home in New York.

BOERS STRIKE A BLOW.

Roberts' Line of Communications Cut, and Derbyshire Regiment Meets with Disaster.

London, June 12.—Lieut. Gen. Sir Frederick Forestier-Walker, in command of the lines of communication in South Africa, reports that in the disaster to the British troops, June 7, at Roodeval, where the Boers cut Lord Roberts' line of communications, the Fourth battalion of the Derbyshire regiment were all killed, wounded or made prisoners, except six enlisted men. Two officers and 15 men were killed and five officers and 72 men were wounded, many of them severely.

The Boers returned the wounded to the British. The officers killed were Lieut. Col. Baird-Douglas and Lieut. Hawley.

The wounded include Col. Wilkinson and Lieut. Blanchard, of the Canadian infantry.

Gen. Forestier-Walker's dispatch in full is as follows:

"Cape Town, June 10.—The following telegram has been received from Charles Knox: 'Kroonstad.—The following casualties reported from Roodeval, June 7, received from Stonham, commanding the Imperial yeomanry hospital, dated Roodeval, June 8, received here by flag of truce June 10:

"The Fourth battalion of the Derbyshire regiment (the Sherwood Foresters). Killed, Lieut. Col. Baird-Douglas and Lieut. Hawley and 15 of the rank and file; wounded, Col. Wilkinson, Capt. Bailey, Lieut. Hall, Lawder and Blanchard and 59 of the rank and file; the Shropshire light infantry, one; Cape Pioneer railroad regiment, seven; ammunition park, Royal marines and Imperial telegraphs, one each; post office corps, one.

"Stonham reports that many were severely wounded and the remaining of the Fourth Derbyshire and details of prisoners, except six of the rank and file, are in his camp. All the wounded are in his camp, lately occupied by the Fourth Derbyshire. Inquiries are being made as to the names."

It is inferred that the Boers captured over 500 men and as late as June 10 held positions cutting off the British force north of Kroonstad from reinforcements.

A dispatch from Gen. Forestier-Walker says Gen. Methuen was fighting within ten miles of Heilbron June 6, as follows:

"Cape Town, June 10.—Kelly-Kenny reports from Bloemfontein this morning that Methuen, with the greater part of his division, was fighting early in the morning of June 8, ten miles south of Heilbron, where Colville was reported to be with the Highland brigade. Methuen left Lindley June 5, with ample supplies for himself and Colville, leaving Paget to hold Lindley with a sufficient force and supplies.

"Kelly-Kenny has ordered Knox to press in the enemy's outpost, believing the enemy's strength to be exaggerated. 'All is quiet and there is no anxiety as regards the district to the south. Communications north of Kroonstad have been cut since June 6.'

London, June 12.—A Reuter dispatch from Maseru says: Fifteen hundred Boers surrendered to Gen. Brabant today in the Ficksburg district.

Machadodorp has been officially proclaimed the capital of the Transvaal.

A Lourenzo Marques dispatch says that the village has swollen into a small city, the majority of the new inhabitants living in tents.

An official Boer telegram asserts that the British have been defeated with considerable loss at Donkerspoort, in the southern extremity of the Free State or Orange River Colony, ten miles from Norval's Pont. It was thought that this district had been cleared of Boers and rebels long ago. The Boers still cling to Laing's Nek; but Gen. Buller's forces are still working far around in that direction.

London, June 12.—The Lourenzo Marques correspondent of the Times says: At Machadodorp President Kruger has a bodyguard of 1,000 burghers. Stores are being moved as quickly as possible from that point to Lydenburg.

LEAVE DETROIT.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey Continue Their Trip—Stop at Lansing and Visit Capitol.

Detroit, Mich., June 12.—The Dewey private train bearing the admiral and Mrs. Dewey left for Grand Rapids at nine a. m., over the Pere Marquette railroad. The car containing President Heald, of the Pere Marquette, and the official reception committee from Grand Rapids was attached. Admiral and Mrs. Dewey were escorted to the union station by Mayor Maybury. A half hour stop was made at Lansing, while the distinguished guests were driven to the state capital.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 12.—The Dewey train reached here at 1:45 p. m. Admiral and Mrs. Dewey alighted amid enthusiastic salutes of cheering and the thunderous welcome of an admiral's salute of 17 guns, which boomed from a battery near at hand, and were immediately driven to the Morton house, where a suite of rooms had been reserved for them. The progress of the admiral's carriage was marked by a continual ovation, and the jam at the hotel was so great that it was with difficulty that the party was escorted inside. The Admiral and Mrs. Dewey retired at once to their rooms, but later went for a drive through the suburbs of the city, accompanied by Mayor Perry and Congressman William Alden Smith and their wives. They returned very much refreshed, and in the evening were the center of attraction at a public reception in the city hall.

Straight Road To Health

Is by the way of purifying the blood. Germs and impurities in the blood cause disease and sickness. Expelling these impurities removes the disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla does this and it does more. It makes the blood rich by increasing and vitalizing the red globules and giving it power to transmit to the organs, nerves and muscles the nutrient contained in digested food.

WASTE THEIR LIVES.

Retired Statesmen Who Make Their Home at Washington.

No Other City in the World Contains So Many Pictorial Pictures of Departed Greatness—Some Notable Instances.

(Special Washington Letter.)
The author of the play "King Henry VIII," who enriched the literary world with most sage philosophy and unrivaled delineations of the characteristics of human nature, penned no more pathetic lines than those of Lord Wolsey:

"Had I but served my God with half the zeal I served my king, He would not in mine age Have left me naked to mine enemies."
Times change, but human nature changes not. Lord Wolsey ruled England's king for many years, and sometimes seems to have actually swayed the scepter itself, so complete was the domination of the regal court. The lament uttered after his fall has often been echoed in the hearts of those who have served potentates or people, but who, while serving others, were most busy in serving themselves and their interests.

The capital cities of kingdoms and empires do not place before the eyes of the people many living pictures of departed greatness, but the capital city of the republic is replete with such pictures. Here we see in capitol corridors, in the executive departments, on the thoroughfares by day, and in the hotel lobbies by night, and also in the barrooms and lower resorts, men who have played mighty pranks while holding a little brief authority, but who are now so shorn of standing that there is none so poor to do them reverence.

When the sovereign people inform a senator that his services are no longer required, or when the people decline to give a representative another nomination, or another election, the man who ceases to be a statesman would be wise if he were to seek opportunities for earning a living almost anywhere else than in this city. Those who remain here are sometimes pitiable creatures, and all of them become more or less objects of commiseration. How they eke out an existence is a subject of query quietly made by all who view them as they mingle with the throngs in public places.

One of the few ex-statesmen who have been wise enough to absent themselves from the scenes of their triumphs and pomp is John J. Ingalls, of Kansas. For 18 years he was a member of the senate, and during committee on appropriations goes into hiding. He is a nuisance and a bore. The bill is a meritorious one, in principle, but the employment of Senator Blank has practically killed the measure; and for a very good, substantial reason. Senators do not feel like encouraging the employment of ex-senators as lobbyists. It lowers the dignity of the senate to have an ex-senator coming upon the floor of the senate, as he has a right to do, and acting as an accredited lobbyist. For this reason alone I know of many senators who will vote against the bill, if it ever comes up for consideration. But in all probability, for this same reason, the committee will never report the bill at all, but let it die in the committee room, unreported."

Ex-representatives also have the privilege of the floor of the house when that body is in session. Some of them secure employment as lobbyists on pending bills, and abuse the privilege of the floor in that behalf. As soon as it becomes known that any ex-representative is so demeaning himself his influence sinks and the measure which he advocated is tabooed, just as in the senate. Consequently these "ex's" are the least influential men that can be thus employed. Individuals and corporations having legislation pending before congress realize this fact, and hence the ex-congressmen find few to employ them.

Senator Money, of Mississippi, was for a number of years a member of the house of representatives. He voluntarily retired from the house, but remained in Washington practicing law and acting as a claim agent. He prospered. But during the six years that he resided here as an attorney he never availed himself of the privilege of going upon the floor of the house. On the contrary, whenever he wanted to see a congressman, he remained outside the door and sent in his card, as any plain citizen must do. By this course he always maintained the respect of the statesmen and his self-respect, and also possessed considerable influence. After he was elected to the senate he rigidly declined to accept retainers from any of his old clients. But men of such broad gauge and high principle are not numerous.

Not less than 200 ex-members of congress and ex-members of the cabinet or assistant secretaries and other ex-officials are striving to live here on such meager fees as they can pick up. One of them was reared in Iowa, was a good politician, popular with all Iowa men; went to Nebraska, was elected to congress, served two terms, and then located here as a claim agent. He presumed that he would have the backing of the congressional delegations of two states, but he has the backing and aid of neither one. If he had gone back to Iowa or Nebraska he might have succeeded as a lawyer, for he is a good one, and he would have been highly respected. But he chose the wrong course, and he is almost "on his uppers."

One of the worst cases is that of an assistant secretary of a great department, who fell in love with his typewriter, obtained a divorce from his wife covertly and sneakily, and married the handsome typewriter. He was a great lawyer, but he is now a briefless barrister and claim agent, creeping through this segment of the world with the look of a sneak upon his face. Nobody respects him, and surely he has no self-respect.

Another one died here not long ago; died in a station house; died drunk. He had not been wholly sober for almost two years. He had three daughters, and for them he secured positions in the government departments. The senators and representatives from his state had no respect for him, but they pitied the girls. Their father had been a strong man, an excellent lawyer, and a great campaign orator. They supported him until he died. After the conclusion of his last term in the house of representatives he could have returned to his home and been successful and honorable. He remained here, failed in his business aspirations, went from bad to worse, and his death was a relief to himself and to those who loved him.

The ex-statesmen could find no worse place than Washington for their abiding places, no meaner field in which to fight the battle of life. Those who do possess superior abilities and reserved forces do not settle here. They go back to their homes and complete their careers in the midst of those who have respected and honored them.

SMITH D. FRY.

DEPUTIES DID RIGHT.

Sheriff Upholds Action of His Posse in Firing Upon St. Louis Strikers Sunday.

St. Louis, June 12.—Monday opened quiet after Sunday's reign of terror. With one exception all the street car lines were in operation. Each car carried the usual guard of police officers, on some lines, running through unruly districts, the number being doubled. Squads and companies of the sheriff's possemen are on duty at all the power houses and car sheds of the transit company, and at the barracks on Washington avenue, in front of which Sunday's terrible encounter took place.

There is considerable hard feeling as the result of Sunday's shooting in front of the posse barracks. The deputies are blamed for what some call their unwarranted action in shooting striking street car men, while the men in the procession are censured for their bravado. Whether they meant any harm or not, they should have kept out of danger by staying away from the vicinity of the barracks, is the opinion of many.

Chief of Police Campbell says he recognizes among the 20 strikers arrested several men whom he gave a friendly warning earlier in the day to be peaceable.

Sheriff Pohlman justifies the action of his deputies. He says they were given guns just for the purpose for which they were used, if the necessity should arise. In his opinion the time came for their use and the deputies did their duty. Adj. Gen. Bell is still in the city awaiting the governor's orders.

The strikers and their sympathizers naturally view the occurrence in a light diametrically opposite to that of the sheriff's posse, the officials of the former making the claim that the men were shot down in cold blood. Up to ten o'clock p. m. no reports of disorders had been received by the chief of police. The vigilance of the police department was not relaxed in the least as compared with the preceding days of the strike. If anything their efforts were redoubled in maintaining peace and order, as in some quarters it was feared the lawless element of the community might possibly take measures to even up Sunday's score.

Mayor Ziegenheim has issued a proclamation calling on the people to avoid assembling in crowds or groups on the streets, to refrain from acts of any kind which may tend to produce or create excitement in public places, the discussion of the situation in boisterous language or the discharge of firearms or fireworks. All minors are warned to keep within doors during the next three days, and parents are notified that all minors found out of doors between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise are subject to arrest and imprisonment.

At a mass meeting of strikers and sympathizers at the West End coliseum Monday night the action of possemen in shooting the strikers in Sunday night's riot was denounced. A committee of ten was appointed to prosecute the men who did the shooting.

It is just one month and three days since the strike began. Since the first day there have been numerous encounters between the strikers or their sympathizers on one side and the authorities on the other. These encounters have resulted in ten fatalities and the wounding of at least 50 persons.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 12.—Gov. Stephens, in a signed statement, blames Mayor Ziegenheim for declining to assist in suppressing the St. Louis rioters. Monday night the governor received a telegram from Adj. Gen. Bell saying that he sees no necessity for calling out the militia. He does not consider the situation "very strained."

Has Two Chiefs of Police.

St. Paul, Minn., June 12.—The police commission provided for under the recently adopted new city charter Monday organized and elected J. J. O'Connor chief of police, but when the new chief tried to take possession, Chief Getchell refused to yield the place, insisting that he could only be removed for cause. The case will be settled in the courts and for the present two chiefs of police are stationed at headquarters. Chief O'Connor is being obeyed by the police force.

Situation in India.

London, June 12.—In a letter to the lord mayor, A. J. Newton, lord Curzon says: Fifteen per cent. of the population of India are now supported by the government. If the famine continues until December it is estimated that the government will have spent £9,250,000. The relief committee has already dispensed £500,000. The outburst of practical sympathy in the United States is deeply appreciated.

A Fatal Fire.

West Newfield, Me., June 12.—The farm buildings of George W. Goodwin, situated two miles from here, on a cross road leading to East Wakefield, N. H., were burned at an early hour in the morning, and it is believed that Mr. Goodwin and three others lost their lives, namely, the housekeeper, Mrs. Elsie Horne; Mr. Goodwin's adopted son, Scott Goodwin, and a boarder named Fred Birch.

THE COLLAR BUTTON.

Lots of Brains and Energy Go Into the Manufacture of This Tiny Dress Convenience.

Even the simplest little contrivances are often very complicated in the making.

There's the collar button, for instance, which, in addition to lining the pockets of the humorists with gold, has caused mankind more trouble than the proper up-bringing of children.

From all we can learn, however, it is the collar button which is made of a number of pieces soldered together which is wont to break just at the wrong time. And, indeed, the only reprehensible habit attributed to the one-piece collar button is the weakness for rolling under the bed just when a man (or a girl) is in a rush. In case it's a man, you know just how it ruffles his temper to be caught under the bed hunting for buttons; it annoys him equally if the wife shrieks, thinking him a burglar, or if she assumes a superior air and goes silently on her way.

STAGES IN ITS CONSTRUCTION.

But let us look at this one-piece button and note its evolution. You may imagine there's a lot of complicated machinery behind it—behind every stage of it, indeed.

In the first stage there's a circular disk stamped out of a strip of metal. Being fed into several machines, it at length gets into the third form, so like a grandfather's hat. Rapid blows, and many of them, from powerful hammers, bring it to the fourth stage.

Then a machine turns up its edge. Still another rolls it over. Then its head is put into shape. Last comes the polishing.

It stands to reason that this button is stronger than the old one, with its straight shank.

How seldom do we stop to think of all the brains and energy that go into every tiniest article.—Chicago Record.

ART OF BEDMAKING.

Although It Is Easily Mastered, Many Housekeepers Do Not Understand Its Rudiments.

Before making up the beds see to it that the rooms have been aired. On a clear, sunny day open the windows before breakfast and strip the bed, hanging the clothing over chairs near the windows.

Allow the rooms to air for a couple of hours and shake the bed clothing free of dust. If the day is rainy do not open the beds while the room is airing. They will gather moisture if you do. On a damp day hang the bedding to air in the rooms with the windows closed, make up the beds and air the rooms again after the beds have been made up.

The most important part of bedmaking is to get the sheets properly adjusted. Wrinkles in a sheet are an abomination. The bottom sheet should be tucked in securely at the top so that it cannot be jerked down by the restlessness of the sleeper.

The top sheet should be tucked in lightly at the bottom so that it cannot easily be drawn out of place.

It should be laid with the wide hem at the top and the rough side of the hem turned uppermost, so that when it is folded back over the coverlet the right side will be exposed.—N. Y. World.

How to Clean Fine Lace.

Occasionally a piece of fancy work on the lace order does not show soil enough to justify sacrificing its newness to the process of washing. If such work is laid away for a week in a heavy book between blue tissue paper, having had rubbed into the soiled places calined magnesia or pipeclay, it will come out cleaned and brightened by the process. This is a good way to treat battenberg and point lace work which has become dingy or yellow.

Germs in Walking Skirts.

A Philadelphia bacteriologist who made a microscopic examination of the train of the walking skirt of a woman of that city found it contained "200,000 germs—many bearing diphtheria, pneumonia and tonsillitis—also collections of typhoid and consumption germs."

WASHING THE FACE.

Nothing Else Is Quite as Helpful for Clearing the Skin from All Impurities.

The story is told of a young woman who was afflicted with blackheads visiting a physician in search of a remedy for the disfigurement, and being politely and candidly told to wash her face thoroughly in plenty of hot water and soap and keep it clean. Not every physician is frank enough to tell his patient the true cause of "blackheads" or the failure of the fine sebaceous glands of the face to do their work and cast out impurities from the skin. When for any reason whatsoever these oil glands are clogged, what is popularly known as "blackheads" appear. This is simply a collection of impurities in the mouth of the gland, which it has not force enough to throw off. These "blackheads" appear often on the nose and in the space between the eyes because the sebaceous glands are very abundant in these places. The only remedy for "blackheads" is to stimulate the glands to do their work by washing the face with plenty of hot water, using just as hot water as one can bear. Use pure white Castile soap to assist in the stimulating and cleansing process. Large "blackheads" must often be pressed out, and if there is any irritation a little cold cream should be used. This cold cream is made of almond oil, and not lard or mutton tallow, as most of the cold cream of commerce are made. Coarse animal fats, like lard or mutton tallow, clog up the glands themselves and produce "blackheads." Steaming the face by laying cloths wrung out in water as hot as you can bear it helps to clear the skin from impurities.

A person afflicted with "blackheads" and pimples, which are the legitimate result of "blackheads," has scientifically a "dirty face," no matter how many times it has been washed in a conventional manner. Sponges and all wash cloths should be scalded frequently and hung out in the sun to become thoroughly dried after being used.—N. Y. Tribune.

SHIRT WAIST HANGER.

Clever Device of a Bright Girl Who Had More Summer Clothes Than Closet Room.

The summer girl, with her large assortment of gowns and shirt waists, finds it quite a problem to dispose of the latter where they will be kept free from crease or rumple. As freshness constitutes the chief charm of the shirt waist, it must be preserved at all hazard. A clever art student who had but one closet at her disposal, and that one filled to overflowing with all sorts of odds and ends, from gowns to art materials and sketches, set her wits to work to solve the problem. The only unoccupied space was the ceiling; she must utilize that or her beloved waists would suffer. The accompanying diagram of her scheme will show the manner of her triumph. A piece of curtain pole, a few screw-eyes, four or five yards of cord, a hook for the ceiling, the proper number of ordinary coat hangers, and the simple but effective thing was complete.

Of course there are objections to this arrangement; dust and flies, and the marring of the general appearance of the room. But where a corner of a room is curtained off for a closet it would be an easy matter to carry the curtains up to the ceiling. Summer hotels and boarding house keepers would make themselves very popular with the summer girl by carrying out this idea in the curtained recesses that answer for wardrobes.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Just to Keep Him Down.

"But, surely," urged Barlow, "seeing is believing?"

"Not necessarily," responded Dobson; "for instance, I see you every day, but as to believing you—" He never finished that sentence.—Tit-Bits.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

It Was Observed Last Sunday in the Congregational, Methodist and Baptist Churches.

Sunday was Children's Day in the above churches and the services were very appropriate to the occasion. Great interest was manifested by the grown up ones in the services and remarks made to the young folks.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

At the morning service in the Congregational church the rostrum was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants, the singing was bright and the hymns suited to the occasion. The rite of baptism was administered and five children were baptised. A pleasing feature of the service was the present to the church by the Junior C. E. of a beautiful golden oak communion table. The presentation address was made by Master James Schmidt. It was very prettily composed and delivered. Rev. Thos. Holmes, D. D., responded on behalf of the congregation and it was a touching sight to witness this meeting on the platform of the aged grey haired Christian warrior and the youthful little soldier of the cross. The service concluded with some pointed remarks by the pastor, Rev. C. S. Jones.

The exercises by the children at the evening service were the brightest and best the church has ever had on Children's Day. Following is the lengthy program:

Song—"Praise to the King of Kings," School.
Prayer—Rev. C. S. Jones.
Song—"The Call to the Children," School.
Recitation—"Children's Day," Marguerite Eppler.

Recitation—"What's So Sweet?" Hazel Whipple.
Song—"The Call for Volunteers," School.
Recitation—"What is Heaven?" Nina Belle Wurster.
Song—"The Little Givers," Marjorie Freeman and Margaret Hoag.
Recitation—"Grandmother's Spectacles," Edith Bates.
Song—"Oh! We Are Volunteers," Mr. Mapes' Class.
Recitation—"The Burden Bearers," Bernice Hoag.
Solo—Dorothy Bacon.
Rose Exercise—Miss Crowell's Class.
Remarks—Rev. C. S. Jones.
Recitation—Elsa Maroney.
Song—"Stand Up for Jesus," School.

METHODIST CHURCH.

The services at the M. E. church were held in the morning and the auditorium was comfortably filled. The rostrum was decorated with flowers and plants and the exercises were fitting to the day. During the service the rite of baptism was administered to two children by the pastor. Below is given the program:

Opening Chorus, No. 3—Choir and School.
Responsive Reading—School.
Prayer—Rev. J. I. Nickerson.
Chorus, No. 6—Choir and School.

Chorus, No. 18—Choir and School.
Recitation—George Keenan.

Remarks by the pastor.
Chorus, No. 26—Choir and School.
BAPTIST CHURCH.

The exercises at the Baptist church in the evening were well attended in spite of the threatening weather, and were of a very pleasing nature. They were in charge of N. W. Laird, superintendent of the Sunday school. The rostrum was nicely decorated with flowers and plants, and a representation of an old wayside well was erected at one side of the platform from which to symbolically draw "the water of life." The program and those who took part in it was as follows:

Instrumental music.
The Lord's Prayer—Superintendent and school.
Music—"Tell the glad story," Congregation.
Responsive scripture reading—Assistant superintendent and school.
Prayer—Rev. F. A. Stiles.
Anthem—Choir.

Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Stimson's drug store.

Death of Squire Covert.

Squire Seaburn Covert, a well known old resident of Lima Center, died at his home there early Sunday morning, as the result of a stroke of paralysis received Friday evening.

Mr. Covert was born in Lodi, Seneca county, N. Y., Dec. 17, 1832. He was married to Ellen VanHorn, at Reading, N. Y., Oct. 27, 1857, and came to Michigan in 1877. Five children were born to them, of whom but one, Theodore, remains, the others with the mother preceding the deceased to the silent land. The funeral services were held at Lima church in the presence of a large gathering of friends, Tuesday morning, Rev. G. B. Marsh, the pastor, officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Lima cemetery.

Thread From Earth to a Star.

Sir Robert Ball once made a curious calculation on the distance to the nearest of the "fixed stars." The calculation was inspired by a visit to one of the great Lancashire thread factories. The superintendent of the factories inspected by the astronomer informed the star-gazer that the combined output of the various Lancashire thread factories was 155,000,000 miles of thread per day. These figures were certainly enough to astonish any one unless it should be an astronomer. Sir Robert Ball has long since passed the point where he expresses surprise at a string of figures which represent even billions of miles. Instead of falling stunned at the thread man's feet, he paralyzed the manufacturer of cotton filaments by telling him that if all the factories in Lancashire should work day and night producing 155,000,000 miles of thread every twelve hours, it would take them two hundred years to spin a thread long enough to reach from the earth to the nearest of the fixed stars.

Feeding Pumpkins to Cows.

When I was a boy in the Keystone State, where we had bank barns, we fed pumpkins, seeds and all, from the first of September to the first of January. I have fed hundreds of loads both with the seeds and with the seeds taken out, and I never could see any difference; the results were always the same, lots of pumpkins, lots of milk, I used to cut the pumpkins into small pieces in a feed trough, but of late years I feed them on meadow or pasture sod. I break them in two and the cows do the rest. I think they are the best feed there is for changing from pasture to dry feed.—Samuel Fryer.

The young ladies of St. Mary's parish will hold their first ice cream social of the season at the opera house, Chelsea, on Saturday, June 16, beginning at 6 p. m. Choice refreshments will be served, and the ladies extend a cordial invitation to their friends to come and have a good time. The senior choir of the church will furnish the musical program.

The Grass Lake News tells of a cocaine fiend who stole all the available cash in sight in the office one day last week, namely, a few postage stamps, which the fiend had seen Editor Carlton "toss" into a drawer as he sat talking to him. You shouldn't be so free with your cash, neighbor, as to "toss" it into a drawer. You should wrap it up carefully in paper, put it in the safe, and always set the office cat to watch it while you are temporarily absent.

The production of "Quo Vadis" by the Courtney-Morgan Company at the opera house was not accompanied by any brilliant display of dramatic ability. The play did not commence until 9 o'clock and then those who presented the several characters seemed to have forgotten they were taking the parts of dignified Romans and rattled off their lines like a lot of school children anxious to get out to play. It was a poor travesty of a work that has gained world wide fame.

William Dolan, of Dexter, has begun a contest of his father's will. The estate of the late Thomas Dolan is valued at $30,000. By the will William receives 125 acres of land, $800 cash and a $1,000 mortgage, the remainder of the estate going equally to the other two children.

Mrs. John Strahle died at the family home in Sylvan quite suddenly Friday afternoon of heart failure, aged 51 years. The funeral services were held at St. Paul's church, Chelsea, Monday, Rev. L. Koelbing officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove cemetery. Besides her husband she leaves one child to mourn her loss.

Applications were filed in the probate court Saturday to commit Delia Harrington, of York, and William Gregory, of Dexter, to the insane asylum. On Tuesday, Delia Harrington was removed to an insane asylum. She and her sister had been reduced to utmost poverty through the expenses of a lawsuit over a $7 calf, and when the poor woman was brought into the probate court Monday she wore a wheat bag for a dress skirt. Her entire manner of living was in keeping with this attire.

THEY COME FROM JAPAN.

Seven Natives of That Country Are Now Students at the University of Michigan.

AMONG NUMBER THERE IS ONE WOMAN.

Gives an Interesting Account of Why She Left Her Native Land—How Students Fooled the Emperor But Were Forgiven—Courses of Study They Are Pursuing.

[Special Correspondence.]

University of Michigan, June 11.—This year there are seven students from Japan attending the university. Four of the seven are in the literary department, two in the medical and one in the law. During the early part of the year there was a Japanese student in the Ann Arbor high school. He, however, left about Christmas time.

She Learned the Truth.

One of the seven students now in the university is a woman. Her name

TOMO INOUE.

Is Tomo Inouye and she registers from Nagasaki, Japan. She is a junior in the medical department. She came to Ann Arbor from Cleveland, where she was graduated last year from the Cleveland Homeopathic Medical college with the degree of doctor of medicine.

In answer to the question how she happened to leave her native home and come to America she said:

It was because of Christianity. I learned the truth from the missionaries. Then the desire to be of use to my own people took possession of me. I learned what I could of the English language in the mission school. It is now five years since I left Japan. Another Japanese girl crossed the ocean with me and then I came the remainder of the way alone. The reason that I have come to Ann Arbor to complete my medical education is because I have heard so much about the University of Michigan and what a good school it is. When my education is finished I expect to go back to my own country to be a Christian missionary. I earn money each summer by giving lectures and entertainments. I lecture about the people in Japan, their customs and ways of living. I have a number of Japanese costumes which I carry with me, and these are used in illustrating my lectures. These lectures are given under the auspices of some church society.

Miss Inouye is 29 years old. She is short in stature, being only about four feet high. Her face is round, her hair an intense black. Ordinarily she dresses as an American and observes our American customs. She speaks English, although not with great rapidity. She is to a large degree earning her own way through college.

Finance and History.

Itsuo Tokunaga, of Yan Agawa, is a graduate student in the literary department. He is making a special study of political economy, finance and history. Tokunaga will represent his country on the commission at the Paris exposition this summer.

Outwitted the Officers.

Yoshinaga Mikami is another graduate student. He comes from Kofu and is a graduate of Keio college. The special subjects that he is pursuing are political economy, history and international law. He tells a story of how the students of Tokio college, at which he was at one time a student, outwitted the officers of the mikado:

"Students in Japan are forbidden by law from taking part in actual politics or joining any political party," said Itsuo; "but still have to serve in the army. They form a separate world, and are the pets of society. Within college there is no distinction between rich and poor, nobles and commons. Restrained, but jolly in their daily life, free in thought and liberal in expression, simple and gay in their living, their life is entirely isolated from the outside world. But the inspectors come often, and it is sad to see our friends dragged into the army. "But we students at Tokio fooled the emperor once and were left exempt. It comes like this. The emperor's inspectors were to appear upon a certain day to register all able-bodied men in the college. That was just after the war with China, when men were needed, and we were all shaking with fear. But there came a clever little fellow from Shinjuku with a remedy. It was in the form of a little white powder, and we all took one the night before inspection day. "The following day the inspectors came, and that same night a report was submitted to the mikado that all the students in Tokio were suffering a severe attack of a peculiar malady which interfered with the examinations. Yes, we cheated the empire that year, but the emperor forgave us."

Studying Law.

The only student from the land of the rising sun in the law department is Shigetuna Furuya, from Shimouwa. He is a representative of the typical newspaper man of the orient. He was formerly a political reporter on the Kokumin or Nation of Tokio, and acted as its special correspondent in the Hawaiian islands at the time of the trouble between Japan and the United States over certain questions involved in the annexation of those islands by the government of this country.

The other three students from Japan now in the university are Kakujiro Akamatsu, from Tokio; Buichi Mayehake, from Okayama, and Talsuzo Ohno, from Saruga. The first two are in the literary department and the third in the medical.

First Japanese Student.

The first Japanese student to enter the university was Saiska Tagai, of Kuwana, who took up special work during the year 1872-73. Since then 71 have been students in the several departments. The largest number in attendance at any one time was during the year 1889-90, when 21 were registered. Sixteen of them were in the law department. Forty-one of the 72 registered have been graduated, 32 from the law department, five from the literary, three from the medical and one from the pharmaceutical. Nine have received advance degrees.

An Alumni.

Among the Japanese alumni of the university is Yeihiro Ono, who received the degree of doctor of philosophy in 1889. He is in the bank of Japan and an authority on Japanese finance. Some years since he translated the work on "Public Debts," by Prof. Henry C. Adams.

Another alumni that has been a credit to the university was Dr. Toyama, who but recently died. He received the honorary degree of master of arts in 1886. He was professor of sociology in the Imperial university, dean of its literary department and finally president of the institution. He was elected a life member of the house of peers. At the organization of Marquis Ito's cabinet in 1898 he was called to serve as the minister of state for education.

Were Buncocoed.

A farmer in Locke township recently saw a notice in a Chicago paper which called for a reliable man with $1,000 cash to hold down a permanent job paying $1,000 a year. It was stipulated that the $1,000 be sent on to Chicago. The farmer mentioned borrowed the money from his father and sent it to Chicago, following shortly after to take up his new duties. On his arrival at Chicago he learned that the parties who received the money had left for parts unknown.

Her Dream Came True.

Miss Lulu Auguire, of Muskegon, a few nights ago dreamed she had fallen heirress to a large sum of money. She has just received word from relatives in California that an uncle has died, leaving her and her sister $150,000, to be divided equally between them. The uncle was John Marti, of San Jose, Cal. Miss Auguire is an orphan, and for the past two years picked berries for a living.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health from 79 observers in various portions of the state for the week ended June 2 indicate that inflammation of the bowels, scarlet fever and pneumonia increased and consumption and influenza decreased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 167 places, measles at 93, typhoid fever at 27, scarlet fever at 63, diphtheria at 24, whooping cough at 25, cerebrospinal meningitis at 5 places and smallpox at Detroit, Cato, Grand Rapids, Brant, Springwells, Durand, Huron, Highland and Wyandotte.

Statues Unveiled.

The unveiling and dedication ceremonies of the statues of the four central figures of the war for the preservation of the union, Lincoln, Grant, Sherman and Farragut, presented to the city by Muskegon's benefactor, Charles H. Hackley, took place on Hackley square in Muskegon and were most impressive. After the unveiling the chaplain offered the prayer of dedication, and the commander of the post, S. A. Aldrich, declared the statues dedicated in the name of the Grand Army of the Republic.

May Be a Murderer.

Andrew Dider, a Lake Shore engineer, met a tragic death at White Pigeon, where his family resides. He had gone fishing in one of the races near the city and his extended absence caused alarm. A search resulted in the finding of his hat, coat and fishing pole lying on the bank of the race. Later his body was found in two feet of water. Considerable mystery surrounds the case, as there is no known motive for suicide, and it is thought that he was murdered.

Must Have Rest.

Fred R. Luce, secretary and manager of the Luce Furniture company, committed suicide in Grand Rapids by shooting himself. He had been in ill health for a long time. He left a note saying he must have rest, and that he was insane. He was 43 years old, and his father is Ransom C. Luce, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens, and president of the National City bank. A widow and three children survive him.

Crop Outlook.

The weekly crop bulletin gives the outlook as follows: General and ample rainfall has greatly improved crop conditions. A good hay crop is assured. Oats and meadows are greatly improved, corn has germinated rapidly and rye and potatoes are in fine condition. Sugar beet seedling is about completed. Wheat is heading, but the Hessian fly is doing great damage. Strawberries are ripening fast and promise a plentiful crop. Apple, peach and pear prospects continue generally good.

Game Warden's Report.

Game Warden Morse reports 153 cases investigated during the month of May. Prosecutions were commenced in 72 cases and in 65 convictions resulted. During the month there were 13 seizures for violating the fish and game laws, the property seized having an aggregate value of $111.82. The amount of fines and costs collected during the month was $633.86.

Killed by Lightning.

Capt. Arlie Morrison, Frank Campbell and William Medlar were killed by lightning at St. Clair. The three men were at work in the cabin of a new boat. The lightning struck the mast, splintering it and passing down into the cabin. Morrison and Medlar were killed instantly; Campbell died half an hour later.

Loss is Very Heavy.

The temperature in the burning shaft of the Calumet and Hecla mine near Houghton indicates that the fire, if not decreasing, is certainly not gaining. The mine is at present sending about 3,000 tons of rock daily to the stamp mills, instead of 6,000, and accordingly is losing about $100,000 a week.

News Items Briefly Told.

The alleged shortage of Joseph R. Murphy, the absconding clerk of the village of Laurim, is said to be about $2,500, and possibly may be larger. The village will sue the bondsmen.

The will of the late Dr. David Ward, of Pontiac, the multi-millionaire lumberman gives his widow $100,000 in cash and the Detroit and Orchard Lake homesteads. He leaves $12,000 each to his grandchildren and several bequests of $1,000 and $4,000 each to relatives in the state.

The receipts at the custom house for the 11 months of the fiscal year up to the end of May were $929,999.56, as compared with $659,649.31 collected in the same period of the last year.

Poster post, G. A. R., mustered in 30 new members in Lansing. This is claimed to be the largest muster that ever took place in the state except at the organization of a post.

Frank Carney, son of the woman who owns the Erdlitz hotel, at Menominee, has been arrested, charged with having destroyed the building by fire.

The Davidson & Womsey salt works, destroyed by fire in Marine City last September, have been rebuilt and are running again. This is the largest plant in the state outside of Manistee.

LIKE GREENBACKS.

Michigan Rodents Make Their Nest of Currency Hidden by an Eccentric Michigander.

Another interesting chapter is added to the variegated history of the late Dr. Peter W. Reed, whose estate is in litigation, but the story now going the rounds is that somewhere on the premises in Port Huron of the late eccentric and erratic doctor is buried a large sum of money in gold and greenbacks.

Rats and mice have been carrying a great deal of paper money to the old barn on the Sanborn property, which adjoins the Reed property. The Sanborn barn is leased by Frank Becton.

The first money he found in the barn was a ten-dollar bill, which was only slightly torn. A few days later a big rat skurried across the floor with something in its mouth. He shied a cob at the rodent and it disappeared. Becton then searched for it and found a hole under the barn stairs. He tore off a board and found a rat's nest literally made of bank bills, chewed up into pieces. Since then he has found torn bills that could be redeemed to the amount of $75, a total of $100, and pieces of bank notes aggregating $5,000 which could not be assembled.

MARQUETTE MONUMENT.

One Will Be Erected on Mackinac Island if Present Plans Are Not a Failure.

Twenty-five thousand dollars is the sum which the Marquette Monument association expects to raise in a single day when it holds its big meeting at Mackinac island some time next month.

As the name of the association implies, the purpose of the fund is to erect a monument to Father Jacques Marquette, the intrepid missionary and explorer. This idea first crystallized in 1888, and at that time the original Marquette Monument association was formed. Mackinac island, which the great priest-explorer had loved and many times visited, was deemed the most fitting place for the erection of the memorial.

A week or so ago the officers and trustees of the association held a meeting in Chicago and made partial arrangements for a Marquette day on the island the latter part of July. Two speakers of national reputation will be invited. Neither the design of the monument nor the sculptor have yet been selected.

ELOPED WITH A NEGRO.

Mrs. Daniel Lamb, a White Woman, Leaves Her Husband to Live with a Colored Man.

A few days ago William Gillam (colored), 50 years of age, arrived in Detroit with a white woman and a baby. He said the woman was his wife. He was arrested on the charge of kidnapping the child. The woman has confessed that she is the wife of Daniel Lamb, of Waterloo, N. Y., and that she ran away with Gillam. She is 30 years of age. The deserted husband ordered the arrest on the charge of kidnapping, but the woman insists that the baby, nine months old, is the child of her negro paramour. She professes undying love for Gillam, and says that if they are taken back to Waterloo she will die for him if necessary. Gillam has nothing to say, except that he was introduced to the woman by the husband, and that she fell in love with him. The woman alleges that her husband ill-treated her.

Interesting Decision.

B. O. Pearl, referee in bankruptcy in the Marquette district, has made a decision in the case of John W. Jestila, of Calumet, which is of wide interest. He holds that the section of the law which says judgments taken within four months of the time of filing application to go into bankruptcy are void applies only to such judgments as in themselves create a lien and that where no lien or preference is claimed under an execution that the judgment is proof of the claim.

Many Dead Fish.

Reliable reports were received in St. Joseph that sunfish, black bass and blue gills are dying by the thousands at Magician's lake, a favorite fishing ground, a few miles north of that city. The surface of the water is covered with dead fish, and on warm days one cannot approach the lake because of the odor. The same fatality is reported at Sister lakes and several small inland streams. The cause of the mortality is a puzzle to the oldest fishermen.

Rural Delivery.

Letters have been received in Holly from Congressman S. W. Smith, announcing that he will recommend the establishment of a rural delivery route north and east of Holly, 30 miles long and accommodating more than 500 families.

Are Champions.

After the hardest kind of competition in 16 track and field events at the western intercollegiate amateur athletic meet, held at Ravenswood, Ill., the University of Michigan won the right to the title of champion of the west.

LARGE FRUIT CROPS.

All Reports Indicate That This Will Be a Profitable Season for Growers in Michigan.

Michigan will produce crops this year that will surpass the most abundant year of its fruit-producing record. The season has just opened. In the past there has always been some variety lacking. The more tender kind has succumbed to the rigors of winter, but this year there promises to be an abundance of every product of berry patch and orchard.

Of some fruits there is an increased acreage. The wet weather of last year, however, is said to have interfered with the planting of strawberries and raspberries. What is lacking in the way of acreage will be made up in quality.

Of peaches there will be two bushels to one of any late year. In some localities the trees must be thinned 75 per cent. Every variety is unusually full. There will also be a big crop of apples, pears and cherries.

Michigan people are going ahead planting fruit trees. It is claimed that in Berrien county alone 100,000 peach trees are annually set out. One feature of the fruit-producing seems to have come to stay. That is the red tartan which is made to give a deceptive hue to fruit in the basket. The manufacturers of cases say that they will use as much as ever. It costs from 90 to 95 cents a bolt, 15 yards to a bolt. The factory people say they invest $7,000 in tartan a year.

FLEES FROM TAXES.

A Mount Clemens Millionaire Leaves the State Because He Thinks He Is Wronged.

Because he considered himself taxed too heavily and owing to his disinclination to what he considered extortion by state officials, William Cottrell, a millionaire resident of Mount Clemens until last March, has exiled himself and is now living with his wife in a single room in one of the hotels of Windsor, Ont., across the river. Mr. Cottrell left behind him at Mount Clemens a mansion which, it is said, he sold at a loss of $13,000, and a $10,000 mausoleum, which it is now doubtful that his remains will ever occupy.

It is understood that the thing that really led Mr. Cottrell to go to Canada was the fact that the state tax commission recently unearthed about $400,000 worth of mortgages held by him on property throughout the state which had never been given a place on the assessment rolls. He says he will quit the state for good. He is very bitter against the tax commission created by Gov. Pingree, but Tax Commissioner Oakman says the commission will get after him and that if he stays in Canada he will be worse off than ever.

New Industry.

A new industry has sprung up in the southern counties of the state where small lakes are numerous, and it opens another avenue for an industrious person to turn many an honest penny. It is the gathering of the common cattail, which grows in profusion in the marshy ground near the water's edge, and which is greatly in demand for stuffing mattresses and upholstered furniture, in which line it has largely superseded the use of wool, cotton and hair.

Took Oil of Tansy.

Mrs. Edward Carpenter, of Petrolia, Ont., a young and comely woman, died at the home of Mrs. William Thorne in Port Huron from an overdose of oil of tansy. The woman obtained a position with Mrs. Thorne to do housework a week ago. Since her death it developed that she was a married woman and had deserted her husband and two-year-old boy and was attempting to keep her whereabouts a secret from her husband.

Wait in Vain.

A fashionable wedding in Tecumseh was spoiled by the nonappearance of one of the principals. Miss Alto Powell, 19 years old, was to have been united to Clyde Salkeld, 21 years old. All preparations had been made and the friends were gathered at the home of the bride. Rev. Mr. Pope and Rev. Mr. Barber were present to perform the ceremony. Salkeld failed to appear and investigation indicated he had left town.

Railway Earnings.

The Michigan earnings of all roads doing business in the state for the month of April aggregate $3,186,776.48. This is an increase of $412,145.41 over the corresponding month of 1899. During the first four months of the present year the aggregate earnings of Michigan roads were $12,104,541.07, an increase of $1,648,534.15 over the corresponding period of last year.

Cursed the Judge.

Jerry J. Morris, a young man in Grand Rapids with numerous aliases, was sent to Marquette prison for 12 years for passing a forged check on a local hotel man. He cursed Judge Newnam when sentenced. He is wanted on the same charge at Oxford and Ionia, Mich., Kansas City, Mo., and other points.

ARE SENT TO CHINA.

Prompt Response to Request of Admiral Kempff.

Secretary Long Orders 100 Marines Sent from Manila to His Aid—Deposed Emperor Appeals to the Powers.

Washington, June 12.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Kempff:

"Tong Ku, June 11.—Secretary of Navy: In case all communication with Peking is cut will not be able to go alone; if other nations go will join to relieve American, pending instructions. Situation serious. Battalion of marines from Manila has been urgently requested. Answer."

"KEMPFF."

Upon receipt of the above Secretary Long sent the following cablegram to Admiral Remy at Manila:

"Navy Department, June 11.—Remy, Manila: Send by Solace immediately with all dispatch to Kempff 100 marines, arranging if practicable that after landing Solace shall continue homeward voyage, as previously ordered."

"LONG."

En Route for Peking.

Tien-Tsin, June 12.—The captain in charge of the British defenses here commended a third special train yesterday and a fourth to-day for the transport of 213 Russians and two guns and 63 French marines, with stores and one gun for the British. The international forces are near Lang-Fong, 40 miles from Peking, but it is doubtful if they reach the capital before to-day.

British Admiral in Command.

London, June 12.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says: All the naval forces, except the Russians, are acting under the orders of the British admiral. It is reported that the head of a foreigner has been seen exposed on a pole northwest of Tien-Tsin. The Chinese are fleeing from Peking and Tien-Tsin to Shanghai. There are ominous indications of outbreaks in the Yangtze district. All classes of natives in the north display intense hostility toward foreigners, and the Chinese soldiers point their guns at foreigners as they pass.

China Calls a Halt.

Shanghai, June 12.—The empress dowager has ordered the viceroys at Nankin and Wu Chang Fu to resist the passage of the Yangtze-Kiang by British warships. Tens of thousands of Chinese troops are proceeding north. Foreign residents of Yunnan and the extreme southwestern provinces are thus left in great danger, and are emigrating as fast as they can get away.

Appeals to the Powers.

London, June 12.—Huang Hsu, the figurehead emperor of China, wants to rule his country as a protectorate under the dominating influence of the foreign powers. He is plotting the overthrow of the dowager empress and her entire government, and proposes to transfer the capital of the empire from Peking to Nankin, Wuchong, or Shanghai. Moreover, Huang Hsu appeals to the powers of the west to enter the palace of the empress dowager at Peking and break down the bars that hold him prisoner while the Boxers destroy property and lives of natives and menace those of foreigners. He urges that the powers seize his person and bear him to the new capital, surround him with their own soldiers and place him on a new throne, whence he will dispense authority in the interest of progress.

Latest from Peking.

London, June 12, 3 a. m.—The last message out of Peking to reach London left there Monday morning at 11 o'clock, going by way of the Russian telegraph through Manchuria, the Tien-Tsin line being cut. It is as follows:

"Gen. Tung, a Mohammedan, extremely hostile to foreigners, arrived here this morning and had a long audience with Prince Tuan, father of the heir-apparent, who is seemingly friendly to the Boxers. Prince Tuan has been appointed chief of the foreign office, over Prince Ching, who is more friendly toward the foreigners."

"The dispatch of more marines was in response to a telegram from the ministers to the consuls at Tien-Tsin for additional troops. Convoys have left Peking to meet the troops coming by the first train."

"The arrival of the empress dowager has rendered the city somewhat more quiet than it had been recently. The Protestants have erected a barricade before the building in which they have taken refuge, and they have a small guard. The Catholics are concentrated north of the cathedral under the protection of the French guard of 25 men, who will hold out to the end. I am convinced that Peking, especially the Tartar city, is safe."

"Shanghai reports that there has been street fighting in Peking since early Sunday afternoon. The Russians are making large purchases of canned provisions at Shanghai, and everything points to an outbreak of hostilities. All British missionaries will probably be ordered to return quickly to treaty ports."

Disorder Spreading.

All the telegrams indicate that the situation has not in the least improved. On the contrary, the disorder has spread from the neighborhood of Peking to the capital itself, which is growing turbulent in anti-foreign demonstrations. In addition to the burning of the Peking club, the secretary of the Belgian legation has been roughly handled in the streets. Hostile crowds continue to demonstrate against the legations. Two thousand international troops are approaching the city, and the advance guard is due to arrive to-day (Tuesday).

Revolution in Water Travel.

Experiments have proven that vessels, fitted with propellers which imitate the fish's fin, develop a remarkable propelling power. It will cause a revolution in water travel. Men gradually learn that Nature's ways are best. One cause of the remarkable success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters springs from the fact that it is a harmless, natural medicine, made of Nature's most strengthening herbs. It is a sure cure for constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness or weak kidneys.

Sambo and the Freshman.

An American writer tells a good story of his college days. It relates to a negro gardener, a jolly fellow, with whom the boys used to have considerable sport. Sometimes he would floor them with his repartees.

One day in spring Sambo had been burning the college green in order to get rid of the old withered grass. A freshman came along, and, thinking to have some fun, shouted:

"Say, there, Sambo, you ought not to burn that stuff."

"Why?" inquired Sambo.

"Because," replied the freshman, "it'll make that grass as black as you are."

"Well, massa," retorted Sambo, "dat's all right. Yes, dat's all right. Never you fear; dat 'ere grass'll come up and be as green as you are!"—London Answers.

Too Anxious.

It was at a wedding, and as the soon-to-be wedded couple walked down the aisle of the little church embarrassment was plainly written on the face of both; but when, in response to the question by the minister if either of them knew of any reason why they should not lawfully be joined together, there came boldly forth from each the answer "I do," the evident embarrassment on their part was changed to one of real on the part of the clergyman.—Harper's Monthly.

Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 21st day of July, A. D. 1898, executed by Robert J. Cromie and Catherine M. Cromie, his wife, of the city of Detroit, Wayne county, Michigan, to William Osius, of the city of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw county, Michigan, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in the county of Washtenaw, in liber 91 of mortgages, on page 106, on the 22nd day of July, A. D. 1898, at 10:05 o'clock a. m., and whereas the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of One Thousand One Hundred and Eighty-seven Dollars and Thirty-three Cents, ($1,187.33), of principal, interest, taxes and insurance premiums, and the further sum of Thirty-five Dollars ($35.00) as an attorney fee, and the whole amount claimed to be due on said mortgage is the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty-two Dollars and Thirty-three Cents, ($1,222.33), and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction to the highest bidder at the south front door of court house in the city of Ann Arbor (that being the place of holding the circuit court in and for said county) in said county of Washtenaw, state of Michigan, on the Seventh day of July, A. D. 1900, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit:

All that certain piece or parcel of land situated in the township of Lodi, in the county of Washtenaw, state of Michigan, viz.: The southwest part of the northwest fractional quarter, section nineteen (19) in township three (3) south of range five (5) east, containing thirty nine and sixty one hundredths (39.60) acres according to the United States survey thereof.

Said mortgage was given as a part of the purchase price for said premises.
Dated March 22nd, 1900.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Albert F. Vanatta and Maria A. Vanatta, his wife, to Lewis S. Anderson, bearing date the 31st day of January, 1898, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Washtenaw county, Michigan, on the 31st day of January, 1898, in liber 84 of mortgages, on page 21, at 2 1/4 o'clock p. m., on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice (the mortgagee electing to consider the whole amount of the sum secured by said mortgage due on account of the non-payment of interest), the sum of Sixteen Hundred and Twenty-eight Dollars and Fifteen Cents, and no suit at law or proceeding in equity having been instituted to recover the amount due on said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and the statute in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the 14th day of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of that day there will be sold at auction to the highest bidder at the east front door of the court house in the city of Ann Arbor, (that being the place for holding the circuit court for said county,) the premises described in said mortgage or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of said mortgage and the legal costs of this foreclosure. The premises so to be sold are described as follows:

The east half of the north-east quarter of section sixteen in the township of Salem, being township one south, range seven east, in said county of Washtenaw.
Dated Ann Arbor, April 14, 1900.

The Late Alfred U. Angevine.

The following taken from the Homer Vidette of June 8, is a brief notice of the life of the late Alfred U. Angevine, father of Mrs. George H. Kempf, who died at his home in South Albion, May 30: "Mr. Angevine was born Nov. 9, 1816, in Dutchess county, N. Y. He was educated in the common schools, and at the age of 21 he started in business for himself.

"In 1845 he accompanied his father and family to Michigan and settled on the farm which has since been his home; with the exception of a short residence in Albion.

"On November 24, 1847, he was united in marriage to Miss Louisa M. Sheldon, of Albion, who after 40 years of harmonious wedded life, laid aside earthly cares and preceded her husband to the better life.

"Their union was blessed with four children, Mattie, Eugenia, Byron and Mary Carlinda, of whom the latter, now Mrs. George H. Kempf, of Chelsea, is the sole survivor and mourns the loss of an affectionate father.

"Mr. Angevine was generous in any undertaking that would benefit the community. Charitable towards suffering and always willing to lend a helping hand to his fellow men. He was a fine representative of the courteous, warm hearted Christian gentleman, and, although his hair showed the effects of 80 winters, his vigor would credit a man many years younger."

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but now her health is excellent." Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 60 cents. Sold by Stimson, the druggist. Guaranteed.

Eighth Grade Diplomas.

Nervous, Weak Men.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are annually swept to a premature grave through EARLY INDISCRETION, EXCESS, AND BLOOD DISEASES. If you have any of the following symptoms consult us before it is too late. Are you nervous and weak, despondent and gloomy, specks before the eyes with dark circles under them, weak back, kidneys irritable, palpitation of the heart, bashful, dreams and losses, sediment in urine, pimples on the face, sunken eyes, hollow cheeks, careworn expression, poor memory, lifeless, distrustful, lack energy and strength, tired mornings, restless nights, changeable moods, weak manhood, stunted organs, premature decay, bone pains, hair loose, sore throat, etc? Our New Method Treatment will cure you.

MEN'S LIFE BLOOD

Nothing can be more demoralizing to young and middle-aged men than emissions at night or secret drains through the urine. They unfit a man for business, married life or social pleasures. No matter whether caused by evil habits in youth, natural weakness, or sexual excesses, our New Method Treatment will positively cure you. CURES GUARANTEED. NO CURE, NO PAY.

No Names Used Without Written Consent.

Before Treatment

After Treatment

W. A. Muir, of Lima, O., says:—"I was one of the countless victims of early vice at 15 years of age. The drains on my system were weakening my brain as well as my sexual and nervous system. For ten years I tried scores of doctors, electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, in fact contemplating suicide when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured seven years ago—am married and happy. I heartily recommend Drs. K. & K. to my afflicted fellow men."

DR. K. & K. CURE Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Urinary Discharges, Self Abuse, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases of Men and Women.

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT. PRIVATE. No medicine taken. C. O. D. No names on boxes or envelopes. Everything confidential. Question list and cost of treatment, FREE.
