GREAT FRATERNITY NIGHT.

Two New Organizations Started Out Under Favorable Conditions Tuesday Night.

Tuesday night was a notable one in fraternal circles in Chelsea, witnessing as it did the constitution of an R. A. M. chapter, and practically the institution of Chelsea Camp of Modern Woodmen of America.

OLIVE CHAPTER, R. A. M.

Olive Chapter, No. 14, R. A. M., was duly constituted Tuesday evening, by R. C. Webb, G. H. P., C. L. Stevens, Deputy G. H. P., and L. C. Goodrich, Grand Lecturer. The following officers were installed for the ensuing term:

H. P.—R. S. Armstrong.
K.—H. S. Holmes.
Scribe—W. J. Knapp.
Treasurer—J. A. Palmer.
Secretary—T. E. Wood.
C. of H.—J. F. Waltrous.
P. S.—C. W. Maroney.
R. A. C.—W. W. Gifford.
1st M. of V.—H. H. Avery.
2d M. of V.—E. R. Dancer.
3d M. of V.—R. B. Waltrous.
Sentinel—Wm. Bacon.

After the work was over all adjourned to the Chelsea House where a nice little spread was heartily enjoyed, followed by a pleasant social time. The chapter starts out most auspiciously with 20 charter members.

CHELSEA CAMP, M. W. OF A.

A few minutes after 8 o'clock the special train bearing 95 of the members of Maple Leaf Camp, of Jackson, arrived here. But little time was lost in preliminaries, and under the hustling leadership of Deputy Consul W. L. Plummer a procession headed by the Chelsea Band was formed which marched along Main street to Orchard street and back to the town hall. The camp was duly opened by the officers of Chelsea Camp and was then turned over to the Jackson brothers, who, with their well drilled degree team, worked the ceremony of adoption on Rev. F. A. Stiles, Bert Williams and B. Glenn.

After the work of the evening was ended the Jackson visitors and members of Chelsea Camp repaired to M. L. Burkhardt's ice cream parlors where they were regaled with ice cream, strawberries, cake and coffee.

Rev. C. S. Jones was then called upon to act as toastmaster, and in a series of stories, jokes and well timed remarks he severely introduced Consul Jacob Hummel, of Chelsea Camp, who spoke the words of welcome to the Jackson visitors; Consul Johnson, of Jackson camp, who responded to him; Revs. J. I. Nickerson and George B. Marsh; Charles H. Smith and A. C. Northrop, of Jackson; Rev. F. A. Stiles; J. F. Forward, of Jackson; Hess, of Clark's Lake; Fitzsimmons, of Iowa; and District Deputy G. H. Russell, of Northville, who stated in his remarks that this was the largest camp in the number of charter members that had yet been started in Michigan. A few remarks from W. L. Plummer closed the proceedings and the Jackson boys left for home about 1 o'clock a. m.

LADIES' RESEARCH CLUB

Had a Very Pleasant Closing Meeting Monday Evening.

The closing meeting for the season of the Chelsea Ladies' Research Club took place at the home of its president, Mrs. J. D. Watson, on East Middle street, Monday evening. The company embraced the members of the club and their husbands and gentleman friends, and numbered about 50 persons.

The house was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers and the dining tables were decorated with ferns and carnations.

The program was mainly of a musical character in which Mesdames George P. Staffan, J. Edward McKune, L. T. Freeman, A. R. Welch and Blanche Cole Wood took part. Mrs. H. L. Wood gave a recitation in fine style. The feature of the evening was a miscellaneous history of the year, very cleverly composed and read by Mrs. Fred Roedel.

At the conclusion of the program the guests marched to the dining room to the music of Sousa's march, "The Stars and Stripes," where the tables were so arranged that all were able to be seated at once. The dainty refreshments were much enjoyed by all and the whole evening's entertainment was a pleasurable experience.

FIRST SHOT IS FIRED.

Guns of Taku Forts Open on the Foreign Fleet.

A Fierce Battle Follows—Hundreds of Chinese Killed—Europeans Lose 20 Killed and 57 Wounded—Russian Warship Blown Up.

London, June 19.—Hostilities have begun in earnest in China by the battle between the Chinese forts and the allied fleet at Taku. In the battle 20 Europeans are reported to have been killed and 57 wounded. A Russian gunboat was blown up. The British gunboat Algerine and the German warship Itlis were badly damaged, two British merchant vessels sunk, two forts blown up, the rest captured at the point of the bayonet by landing parties, and several hundred Chinese soldiers killed.

No formal declaration of war has as yet been issued, but there now seems little doubt that China has decided to defy the world. Two important reports were contained in yesterday's dispatches, the taking of the Taku forts and the forced return of Admiral Seymour's mixed relief force to Tien-Tsin. Both are fully confirmed, but as yet nothing is definitely known of the fate of the German minister, Baron von Ketteler, at Peking, nor what has really happened at the foreign legations in the Chinese capital, though late advices from Japanese sources declare that all the legation buildings in Peking have been captured by the Chinese.

The unofficial narratives, coming by way of Shanghai, vary widely and bear internal evidence of supplementing the main facts with guess work. One dispatch says that the Yorktown participated in the bombardment. Another asserts that American marines formed part of the storming force of 2,000. A dispatch from Chefoo, dated Monday afternoon, says:

"The forts on both sides of Taku are now occupied. The Chinese opened fire unexpectedly. The casualties to the mixed force were as follows:

"Killed—British, 1; German, 3; Russian, 1, and French, 1. Wounded—British, 4; German, 7; Russian, 45, and French, 1.

"Chinese torpedo boats were seized."

Other Dispatches.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing Monday, says: "The forts began firing in observance to orders from Peking, conveyed in a personal edict of the empress dowager, by advice of Kang Yi, president of the ministry of war. Several warships were struck by shells from the 12-inch guns of the forts."

"Four hundred Chinese are reported to have been killed. The Chinese, when retreating, fell into the hands of the Russian land force."

The Daily News has the following from Chefoo:

"Two of the forts were blown up. The 32 warships at Taku aggregated 200,000 tons and carried more than 300 guns."

Sent an Ultimatum.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times, under Monday's date, gives the following description, said to be from official sources, of the action at Taku:

"On the afternoon of June 16, in view of the large bodies of Chinese troops assembling at the forts and of the fact that torpedoes had been laid in the river and that all communications were interrupted, the naval commanders held a council and decided to send an ultimatum calling for the disarmament of the troops and announcing that if this demand were not complied with before two a. m. of the following day the united squadron would destroy the forts."

"Shortly after midnight the forts opened fire. The British, French, German, Russian and Japanese warships replied. Two of the forts were blown up and the rest were carried by assault."

A State of War.

The morning papers consider that state of war practically exists, and that the issue is between eastern and western civilization. The Times says that the latest news infinitely increases a situation sufficiently serious.

Powers Acting Promptly.

The powers are taking prompt action. Four thousand German troops have been ordered to China; 10,000 French troops are waiting to embark at Saigon, capital of French Cochinchina, and from 3,000 to 5,000 more Russians have been ordered from Port Arthur to Taku. This reinforcement, says the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, is announced in the St. Petersburg Gazette, the government pointing out that Russia is sending so many troops solely for the sake of peace and humanity.

News Reaches Washington.

Washington, June 19.—The navy department has made public the texts of the two cablegrams received Monday from Admiral Remy and Commander Taussig. The first is as follows:

"9:40 a. m. Cavite, June 18.—Bureau of Navigation, Washington: Taussig cables that the Taku forts fired upon foreign gun vessels and then surrendered to the allied forces the morning of June 17. Kempff asks instructions about joining other powers who are taking united action in demanding that the Taku forts be turned over to them to secure favorable termination of the trouble. Will the department instruct Kempff, through Taku, at Chefoo, and give me the same information? (Signed)

"REMEY."

The telegram from Commander Taussig, of the Yorktown, is as follows:

"Chefoo, June 17.—Taku fort fired upon foreign vessel about 12:45 a. m. Surrendered to allied forces at eight a. m. The British admiral at Tien-Tsin (Signed)

"TAUSSIG."

Supreme Court Sustains the Foot-Ease Trade-Mark.

Justice Laughlin, in Supreme Court, Buffalo, has ordered a permanent injunction, with costs, and a full accounting of sales, to issue against Paul B. Hudson, the manufacturer of the foot powder called "Dr. Clark's Foot Powder," and also against a retail dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making or selling the Dr. Clark's Foot Powder, which is declared, in the decision of the Court, an imitation and infringement of the "Foot-Ease," the powder to shake into your shoes for tired, aching feet, now so largely advertised and sold all over the country. Allen S. Olmsted, of Le Roy, N. Y., is the owner of the trade-mark "Foot-Ease," and he is the first individual who ever advertised a foot powder extensively over the country. He will send a sample Free to anyone who writes him for it. The decision in this case upholds his trade-mark and renders all parties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease" advertising, in placing upon the market a spurious and similar appearing preparation, labeled and put up in envelopes and boxes like Foot-Ease. Similar suits will be brought against others who are now infringing on the Foot-Ease trade-mark and common law rights.

No Remedy Equals Peruna, So the Women All Say.

Miss Susan Wymar.

Miss Susan Wymar, teacher in the Richmond school, Chicago, Ill., writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman regarding Peruna. She says: "Only those who have suffered as I have, can know what a blessing it is to be able to find relief in Peruna. This has been my experience. A friend in need is a friend indeed, and every bottle of Peruna I ever bought proved a good friend to me."—Susan Wymar.

Mrs. Margaretta Dauben, 1214 North Superior St., Racine City, Wis., writes: "I feel so well and good and happy now that pen cannot describe it. Peruna is everything to me. I have taken several bottles of Peruna for female complaint. I am in the change of life and it does me good." Peruna has no equal in all of the irregularities and emergencies peculiar to women caused by pelvic catarrh.

THE SYRIAN COLONY.

Its Quarters in New York Have a Genuine Oriental Air.

As Traders the Turbaned Sons of Damascus Are Without Rivals—What Policemen Maloney Thinks of Them.

[Special New York Letter.] JUST west of Trinity church, within a radius of five blocks of the corner of Rector and Washington streets, in the heart of the downtown district, a colony of 10,000 Syrians form a city unto themselves. The domes and minarets of the oriental metropolis are wanting; the gayly-colored turbans and the loose Turkish trousers; the wide sashes and the quaint upward turned pointed shoes are the exception rather than the rule—but the jargon and the patois of the east are there; the eagerness for trade and barter is heard on every hand;

IN A SYRIAN SHOP.

the shops are thrown open to the street, inviting an inspection of their wares of tawdry semi-barbaric finery. On the first floors, of dingy buildings bedecked with dull-colored flags and bunting men with dark skins and dusky-faced women are sitting about the little tables in the smoking rooms and drinking places. The walls are covered with eastern draperies and from the ceilings are suspended the square brass lamps of Turkey. The odor of the sweet-scented cigarette is everywhere. Men and women smoke incessantly. Along the street may be heard the cries of the peddlers in that peculiarly sharp, yet musical, tongue. They are selling all kinds of food and merchandise upon the streets. You may buy a platter or a set of dishes from the owner of a perambulating crockery store. You may get a bit of Turkish tobacco from a tobaccoist's booth on wheels. You may select a soup bone and a handful of vegetables from the push-cart of an enterprising tradesman. Little bakery shops are trundled here and there, and steaming hot from within wicker baskets are the big, thick pancakes, a foot and a half in diameter. One will not want for the necessities or the so-called luxuries of life in the Syrian colony. Even the shoemaker will stop at your very door and repair your footwear while you wait. You may see in the long hallways leading to the different apartments in the tenement buildings boys bearing the ghooks—the Turkish water pipes—and you may hear the tinkling of cymbals and the voices of singers. On every side is that undefinable air of the east. There is the subtle perfume of sweet gums and spices. There is the sensuous languor of the Turk that is infectious, and one has but to close his eyes to be transported in his fancy to the Bagdad of Ali Baba.

The Syrian colony in New York has grown very rapidly in the last few years. The first Syrians came over to this country 25 years ago to escape the religious and other persecutions of the sultan of Turkey. The number in this city is difficult to estimate, as they are divided among the various branches of Asiatic Turkey, and no real census has ever been obtained. The number has been placed as high as 25,000, but the most conservative estimate it from 10,000 to 15,000. It is probable that 10,000 is about the right figure. Scattered throughout the United States there are about 100,000 Syrians.

There is some dispute in regard to the exact nationality of these people. If you ask one of the shopkeepers to what race he belongs he will promptly tell you that he is a Syrian. On the other hand, a highly-educated Turkish doctor, who has an office in Washington street near Rector and who is an assistant at Bellevue hospital, insists that there is not a Syrian in the city of New York. He maintains that they are all Turks. However, Mr. Najeeb M. Diab, the managing editor of the Meraat Al-Gharb, a Turkish weekly paper, informed me that this was absolutely untrue. He said that he was a Syrian and that most of the people in the colony were Syrians. He said there were some Turks and some Armenians here. I think the difference of opinion grows out of a confusion of religious names, and as the term is generally understood, I consider that the colony may be considered for all intents and purposes as composed of Syrians.

The Syrians of New York are divided into four religious parties: Greek Orthodox, Catholics, Maronites and Protestants. The Protestants attend the churches of all denominations, the majority, however, favoring the Methodist, the Congregational and the Presbyterian. There are very few Mohammedans in this country, and those who are here remain only temporarily for the reason that the United States government does not tolerate the establishment of the harem, and that institution is a part of the religion and the very life of that type of Turk.

The Syrians are rapidly becoming accustomed to the ways of this country. They like the form of government and fully 2,000 of them have taken out naturalization papers. Mr. Shockey Saleeby, who is one of the proprietors of a Turkish bazar in Rector street and whose father is a Christian missionary in Mount Lebanon, is enthusiastic in expressing the loyalty of the Syrian people to America. He says they will come over to this country in great numbers; will become citizens, and good citizens, ready to take up arms, if need be, for the protection of their future home. Mr. Saleeby is an exceedingly well educated man. He speaks English fluently and is greatly interested in the welfare of his race. While the majority of the Syrians speak only their native tongue, they are learning the English language rapidly, and the children who attend the public schools are growing up full-fledged Americans.

There are classes among these people, just as there are among all races. There is a Syrian "four hundred" swell set that is very exclusive and is composed of wealthy members. The richest man of the aristocratic class in America is Mr. Tafanyan, an Armenian importer of Turkish rugs, who is reputed to be worth $3,000,000. The lower classes make a livelihood as common laborers; the next grade higher as peddlers; and the middle class as shopkeepers and tradesmen generally. The poor people live in the tenement houses huddled after the manner of the Italians. They are dirty and ignorant. They have the characteristics of the oriental as to shrewdness and the manner of the Frenchman as to politeness. The educated men of the race say the people are industrious and honest. They are certainly thrifty and economical and they eke out an existence and actually secure a competency under conditions and circumstances where an American would starve.

I asked a keen-witted, observing Yankee grocerman, who has kept a store in the midst of this colony for years, what he thought of the Syrians as a class. He closed both eyes and meditated for a moment. Then he said:

"The Russian Jew is a white-winged angel of justice in a trade compared to a Syrian."

The big Irish policeman who keeps things straight in the neighborhood of Morris street remarked:

"Well, faith, I suppose the Sarians live like ahny other of the hatthens. I'll say this for them, like the pig-tailed Chinamen, they kape clear av the strong arm av the law. They be no crooks among them, but they do say in a thrade they be powerful shifty."

The Syrian population is increasing so rapidly in New York that it is only a question of a few years when their quarters will assume the air of an oriental city, and be as much of a curiosity as Chinatown or the Ghetto.

NEW FIELD FOR WOMEN.

It is the Stretching of Shoes and Is Not of Flowery Ease for Those Who Try It.

When the woman said she wanted a pair of shoes the hollow-eyed clerk did not ask: "What size, madam?" but said, instead: "New or second-hand?" The woman hesitated, not quite grasping the significance of the question. "Why, new, of course," she said, at length.

"The reason I asked," said the clerk, "was that we have several pairs of shoes of different sizes that have been worn a little, just enough to stretch them, and I didn't know but that you would like a pair that your feet would slip right into, and that you'd never have any trouble with."

The woman's interest had plainly got started by that time "Have you any such?" she asked.

"A few pairs, as I have just said," replied the clerk. "They have been worn long enough by professional shoe stretchers to take the stiffness and newness away. We are thinking of making these stretched shoes a permanent and prominent feature of our stock. Why, do you know," he continued, with increased earnestness, "if I had a foot that I could expand or contract at will, according to circumstances, I could make a pile of money by just trying on shoes. Anybody who has ever endured the torment incident to stretching a new pair of shoes would be willing to pay 50 per cent. more a pair in order to be relieved of the discomfort of getting them set to the foot. The custom of offering stretched shoes to patrons has already been introduced into several stores in town, and it certainly ought to become very popular. Judging by present indications, it will not be long until every shoe store of any pretensions will employ people with feet of the standard sizes to wear new shoes for a day or so to break them in. It will certainly be a good investment, for patrons will buy shoes oftener when the horror of setting them has been removed, and thus more money will accrue to the dealer. Shoe stretching is a calling that will not permit its followers to tread on flowery paths of ease, but the possibility of buying shoes that are comfortable from the start opens up a view of elysium for the wearer."

THE PLAITED SKIRT.

Dame Fashion Decries That It Should Be Laid in Tiny Folds Across the Back.

Even with the triple-fold center plait predominant, the fate of the plaited skirt hangs in the balance, for there are those who declare that the design does not sufficiently break the plainness originated by the habit back, and is therefore found wanting.

Dame Fashion in an arbitrary moment presents an irreproachable method of arranging the fullness at the back of the skirt and one which bids fair to enjoy a large share of popular favor during the summer season.

It requires no more material to make the new skirt than is used when adopting the triple-fold center plait. The fullness of the latter is simply dispersed across the back of the skirt in smaller box plaits which can range in width from one-half to three inches, as the material will allow.

A summer skirt of khaki cloth made to wear with separate waists has the fullness at the back laid in seven tiny plaits not more than an inch wide.

The front and sides are close fitting and the skirt touches the floor all around with an increased train effect at the back. An economic advantage of these skirts is that they are all built upon imitation silk linings, and, with care, will wear the whole season without evidencing any need of replenishment.—Helen Gray Page, in Chicago News.

How to Preserve Vegetables.

Keep them on damp stones covered with a damp cloth. Beetroot, parsnips, carrots and potatoes are best kept in sand during the winter. Onions should be tied in bunches and hung up.

The Best Furniture Whip.

Narrow strips of ticking tied to a piece of broomhandle is the best whip to beat upholstered furniture, in the opinion of the New York Evening Post's household expert.

GREEK ROYAL FAMILY.

Its Members Are, Without Exception, Good-Looking and Live Together in Perfect Harmony.

Considering the relationship between the Greek royal family and the reigning houses of Europe it is curious that so little is known of them. They do not occupy public attention as do other royalties. King George is the favorite brother of the prince of Wales and is one of the cleverest as well as one of the handsomest reigning sovereigns on the continent.

Like the princess of Wales, he has the rare combination of fair hair and deep blue eyes, and at the time of his marriage to Grand Duchess Olga of Russia they were said to be not only the handsomest royal couple, but the finest-looking man and woman in Greece, that land of handsome folk. Few princes have had more romantic lives than King George. He was the second son of his parents, the king and queen of Denmark, and when offered the Greek throne was but a boy of 17. He began to reign a couple of months before he was 18, and four years later married, his bride being just 16.

The king and queen became the parents of seven children—five sons and two daughters; and the one shadow over their ideal married life has been the loss of the elder princess, the namesake and god-daughter of the princess of Wales, who died within three years of her marriage to one of the Russian grand dukes. Of the five princes, the future king of Greece—who enjoys the splendid title of duke of Sparta—was married shortly after the death of the late Emperor Frederick to Princess Sophie of Russia, one of Queen Victoria's most charming and accomplished granddaughters, who showed, during the Turkish-Greek war, not a little of her mother's remarkable intellectual power, for she organized all the arrangements made for the nursing of English nurses whom she early asked to come to her assistance. The duke and duchess of Sparta, who inhabit a beautiful country palace near Athens, have three children—two little sons and a daughter. In connection with this fact, it is curious to note that, according to an old-Greek prophecy, when a George is born to royal parents rejoicing in the names of Constantine and Sophie, he will become the conqueror of the Turks and set up once more the Greek orthodox religion in Constantinople.

Of late Prince George, the king and queen's second son, has played a certain part on the European stage, for to him has been confided the pacification of Crete. He is a splendid-looking man, just 31 years of age, and full of energy and vitality. He is the intimate friend—as well, of course, as a first cousin—of the emperor of Russia, and he accompanied the latter during his tour in the east; indeed, it was Prince George who saved the future czar from being assassinated by a Japanese fanatic. He is possessed of enormous strength, and successfully warded off the blow intended for the czarowitz.

Dinner and Luncheon Soups.

Clear soups should be served at dinners and thick soups at luncheons. Cream of chestnut was one of the novelties that demonstrated its popularity last season as a winter soup. Peel about 60 chestnuts and blanch until the skin will rub off between the thumb and forefingers. Then cook gently in a rich, well-flavored stock until soft enough to rub through a sieve. Dilute to the proper consistency with the stock in which they were cooked and serve very hot with croutons.

How to Clean Glass Globes.

When the globes belonging to chandeliers have become very dirty with smoke, they should be soaked in warm soda water. Then add a few drops of ammonia, and wash the globes well with a soaped flannel, rinse in clean water and dry with a soft linen cloth.

Public Office in Boston.

The writer of a letter to the mayor of Boston, offering $1,000 for a good position, was found to be an honest-looking old man, who said he thought all officials got their places that way.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Republican Convention.

The official call for the state convention says:

The republicans of Michigan are called to meet at the Auditorium in the city of Grand Rapids on Wednesday, the 27th day of June, 1900, at 10:30 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for state offices, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. In accordance with the resolution of 1876, each county will be entitled to one delegate for each 500 of the total vote cast for governor at the last election (November, 1898), and one additional delegate for every fraction amounting to 300. Each organized county will be entitled to at least two delegates. No delegate will be entitled to a seat who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.

Wheat Crop Short.

Secretary of State Stearns says in his crop report for May:

The condition of wheat has declined to such an extent during May that this state now has one of the poorest crops ever known. More than three-fourths of the entire crop is grown in the southern four tiers of counties, and the condition of wheat there is but 40, there having been a decline of nine per cent. since May 1. The condition for the entire state is 49, a decline of five per cent. Fruit is generally reported dropping badly owing to the work of the canker worm and tent caterpillar. The following shows the prospect in per cent. for acre of the several varieties: Apples, 81; pears, 67; peaches, 40; plums, 62; cherries, 66; strawberries, 82.

The Grand Army.

At the annual encampment in Grand Rapids of the Michigan Grand Army, of the Republic the report of Adjt. Gen. Pond showed a total membership December 31 last of 15,102, in 352 posts. This is a net loss of 429 in the year, and of this loss 402 were from death. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Commander, E. M. Allen, Portland; senior vice, Theodore C. Putnam, Grand Rapids; junior vice, S. J. Lawrence, Wyandotte; chaplain, H. C. White, Romeo; medical director, W. W. Root, Mason. J. T. Spellan, of Detroit, delegate at large at the national encampment.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health from 77 observers in various portions of the state for the week ended June 9 indicate that cholera morbus increased and pneumonia decreased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 172 places, measles at 91, typhoid fever at 31, scarlet fever at 67, diphtheria at 22, whooping cough at 24, cerebro-spinal meningitis at 6 places and smallpox at Detroit, Cato, Grand Rapids, Springwells, Durand, Huron, St. Charles, Jackson and Wyandotte.

Both Were Drowned.

Robert O. Emmens, a well-known trainer of animals connected with Davis' circus, and a six-year-old boy named John Breanizer were drowned at the Air Line railroad bridge in Jackson. Emmens was fishing off the bridge and the boy was playing there, when the latter fell into the water. Emmens immediately jumped in after him, but became tangled in the weeds at the bottom, and both were drowned.

Suit Put Over.

The case instituted by Attorney General Oren to recover for the state the amount of money lost through the fraudulent sales repurchase of state military authorities has been continued until the September term of court by consent. It is understood that Attorney General Oren expects to soon recover the money without prosecuting the case in the courts.

Ladies of the Grand Army.

At the annual meeting in Grand Rapids of the Ladies of the Grand Army these officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Mary A. Jameson, Marine City; senior vice, Mrs. Mary E. Christenson, Grand Rapids; junior vice, Mrs. Martha Palmer, St. Joseph; treasurer, Mrs. Celia Barbour, Cassville; chaplain, Mrs. Lou Hendrix, Benton Harbor; delegate at large, Mrs. Nellie L. Ward, Benton Harbor.

News Items Briefly Told.

Pink eye has broken out among the horses in and around Lapeer. A number have died.

The huckleberry crop of northern Michigan promises to be a big one; also all other small wild and cultivated fruits.

The soldiers' and sailors' encampment for northern Michigan will be held on September 12, 13 and 14 at Standish.

THE CHELSEA HERALD

T. W. MINGAY, Editor and Proprietor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

as second class matter.

THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1900.

A Wayne county man suggests the name of James L. Lowden, of Augusta, as a good one to head the Democratic state ticket this fall. They might go further afield, and then not find as good a man.

The Warren Featherbone Co., E. K. Warren president, has paid $250 to the village of Three Oaks, on condition that there shall not be a saloon licensed to do business in the village during the coming year. That is what one might call a practical temperance act.

Lee N. Brown, of Ypsilanti, aspires to the nomination for prosecuting attorney on the Democratic county ticket. Fred W. Green has a good chance for the same place on the Republican ticket. The two Ypsilantians would make a pretty run on the political race track.

Now that Mr. James Brown Potter has been divorced, he may make a name for himself. One never can tell, though. Bob Burdette, the famous humorist, was introduced to the Women's Federation at Detroit the other day as the "husband of Mrs. Burdette." Wouldn't that jar you?

Admiral Dewey has finally made up his mind that neither the country nor any of the parties want him for vice president of these United States, and he says, "Thank God, that they don't." Well, admiral, you are not the only pebble on the beach that is giving thanks on that score.

By permitting women to be beaten and stripped in the streets of St. Louis and refusing to protect them, Governor Stephens, of Missouri, has earned the contempt of every decent American citizen. This miserable pandering to the worst elements of the community for the sake of their votes, ought to earn for him political destruction.

Admiral Schley has added to his popularity in Washington, always great, by a letter stating that he knows nothing about politics, wants no political office, and would under no circumstances accept a nomination to one. That is just the sort of talk that was expected from Schley. It was also expected from Dewey, but ambitious wives have influenced other men before George Dewey was born.

Detroit wants to celebrate its 200th birthday by building a $1,000,000 peristyle at the foot of Belle Isle. The first third of the amount was comparatively easily raised in the city, but the other two-thirds is a sticker and it is proposed to go into the country towns to raise the balance. What do the neighboring cities and villages care for Detroit's birthday and million dollar peristyle? They have enough to do to keep up their own expenses without paying for frills and furbelows to deck out Detroit with. Now, if Detroit had met with a misfortune and was suffering it would be a different matter, but for outside towns to contribute to the building of a peristyle,—pooh!

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery which wholly cured me. Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Stimson's drug store.

STRAIGHTENING ITS TRACKS.

Michigan Central Will Do a Big Job and Move the Course of the River Huron.

The Michigan Central officials recently secured options on land along their right of way east of Dexter for the purpose of straightening the track.

The difficulties of the job can hardly be estimated at the first glance. The proposition is to begin straightening the tracks at Dexter and then run as near an air line as possible to the Scio bridge. There are several intervening curves to look after. The proposed new line will strike about the middle of Cole's saw mill, then angle across the White farm to the river, doing away with that snake-like curve just east of the village. At what is known as "Johnson's Job," or the lime springs, the entire course of the river for about 60 rods will be changed. Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of land for a new channel from S. O. Davis. The channel will be dug and a bank thrown up to prevent the water flooding Mr. Davis' low land, and then the old channel will be filled with earth from an eight acre hill which has been purchased from H. I. Phelps.

It is not decided when the work will be commenced, but there is little doubt but that it will be done.

Miss Olive Conklin.

Died, at her home in Chelsea, Sunday, June 17, 1900, Miss Olive Conklin, aged 59 years.

Miss Olive Conklin was born in Sylvan township in 1841. Here was the home of her childhood and youth. She was baptised when 12 years old and united with the Sylvan Baptist church. Here has been a devoted, unselfish christian life. A cheerful worker in church and Sunday school, of her it can be truthfully said, "She went about doing good." Her health failed while she was studying in the Ypsilanti Normal, and she was obliged to give up her cherished hope of a college education.

Forgetting self and ever ready to work for the good of others, when the Woman's Home Mission Society called for workers among the Freedmen she responded and accepted a position in New Orleans. After teaching there one year she was sent to Wayland Seminary where she labored successfully three years, when her health again failed and she came back to the old home and soon commenced Sunday school work, doing this faithfully and efficiently. After the death of a brother she with her mother moved to this village where she has since resided. The past year has been one of suffering, which she bore with patience and christian fortitude. She passed peacefully away Sunday, June 17. One brother and a host of friends will miss her devotion and christian example.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. F. A. Stiles in the presence of a large number of friends of the deceased lady.

One of our town fathers wanted a baby show the Fourth, but there were so many old bachelors on the committee they voted it down.

Girls, don't stay at home the Fourth because we didn't write for Hobson. We have lots of nice young men who are willing to take his place.

Will Examine All Packages.

Owing to the fact that many packages that pass through the post office are marked falsely as to their contents, post office authorities have decided to examine all suspected packages this year with a view of determining the proper postage thereon.

In many cases packages are marked "no writing" and contain letters and photographs with the articles of merchandise placed inside. The government has hitherto been defrauded out of hundreds of dollars. Now and then, too, notes are included in newspapers. This is very foolish, as it risks imprisonment to save a single penny.

STARTLING STORIES.

Reports of Further Outrages in the Chinese Empire.

German Minister Is Said to Have Been Murdered—Communication with Peking Cut Off—American Troops Sent from Manila.

London, June 18.—There is not a cabinet in Europe apparently that knows what has been transpiring in Peking for five days or in Tien-Tsin for three days. Nor is there any that knows with what difficulties the small and inadequately-equipped international column is contending between those cities. The German foreign office, upon learning the report of the murder of Baron von Ketteler, the German minister at Peking, sent a telegraphic inquiry to St. Petersburg, the Russian government, because of its wires to Manchuria being supposedly in a better position than the other governments to obtain direct news. In reply, the German foreign office was informed that nothing whatever was known on the subject, as communication with Peking was interrupted. The report spread world-wide from Shanghai that the legations had been attacked and that one minister, probably the German, had been murdered, has been traced to the Tao Tai Sheng, who for a few days, as the empress dowager's agent, has been censoring telegrams from Shanghai.

Not Confirmed.
A cablegram from Shanghai asserts that the reports of the murder of the German minister emanated from London, are quite unconfirmed, and are discredited at Shanghai. "The German minister has been captured," is the announcement to the Morning Post from Peking, in a dispatch dated June 13, five p. m., via Tien-Tsin, June 15.

All the London papers print a sensational dispatch about Peking legations being burned by the Boxers and the German minister being murdered, but all but two, the Post and Express, are inclined to discredit the report.

The only fresh message approaching an authentic confirmation comes from the Post's Peking correspondent, who, wiring Wednesday, says that the German minister was captured.

Says He Was Slain.
The Shanghai correspondent of the Express sends a much more sensational message, but it is palpably of the mind reading sort, to the effect that Taotai Sheng, the head of the Chinese telegraph system there, on Friday received a telegram either from Peking or Tien-Tsin, saying that Gen. Tung Fuh Siang's troops aided the Boxers in an organized attack on the legations at Peking, which resulted in the reduction of some of the legation buildings and the slicing to pieces of the German minister.

The correspondent admits the slicing story may be an exaggeration and says, while the nationality of the murdered minister is unknown, he is believed to be Baron Von Ketteler, the German minister.

Situation Very Critical.
The following summary of the situation was telegraphed to the Daily News from Shanghai Sunday evening: "The situation is critical and without parallel since the Indian mutiny. At the Yang Tse ports there is a grave feeling of unrest among the natives. As yet there has been no outbreak, but placards have been posted in Kin Kiang, Ugas Skin and Wu Hu, calling on the people to 'kill and burn.' A body of rioters 5,000 strong are at Kwei Hsien, in the prefecture of Canton, and troops have gone to suppress them. The powers, unprepared, are helpless to prevent disaster; but, barring trifling local friction, they are working amicably."
"Telegraphic communication with the north," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Times, under Sunday's date, "ceased early this morning. The last message from Tien-Tsin reported that fighting had begun, but gave no details."

Hundreds Massacred.
The Peking correspondent of the Times, in a dispatch dated June 14, via Tien-Tsin, June 15, says: "A serious anti-foreign outbreak took place last night, when some of the finest buildings in the eastern part of the city were burned and hundreds of native Christians and servants employed by foreigners were massacred within two miles of the Imperial palace. It was an anxious night for all foreigners, who were collected under the protection of the foreign guards. The Boxers burned the Roman Catholic East cathedral, the large buildings of the London mission and the American board of missions, and also the buildings in the eastern part of the city occupied by the foreign employees of the maritime customs."

Will Go to China.
Manila, June 18.—The Ninth regiment has been ordered to Manila, whence it will proceed to China.

No News Received.
Washington, June 18.—The third day passed here without a single line of news from any official source respecting the critical situation in China. All day the telegraph offices at the white house and in the state, war and navy departments were manned, but no word came. Inquiries of the cable companies showed that not only were the communications by wire with Peking, Taku, Tien-Tsin and all northern China suspended, but the notices conveyed little encouragement for the hope that they would be soon reopened.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

An Outline of Document Prepared for Presentation to the National Convention.

Philadelphia, June 18.—For the first time since the republican leaders began to assemble in Philadelphia there was on Sunday some earnest work upon the platform, and a draft has been made which, it is believed, will receive the approval of the convention. This document was prepared in part before coming to Philadelphia by Postmaster General Smith, and it is understood that it was submitted to the president for his inspection and approval before Mr. Smith left Washington. Mr. Smith was in consultation during the greater part of the afternoon with Senator Foraker, who, it is understood, will be chairman of the committee on resolutions. The senator has himself given considerable attention to the preparation of the declaration of principles, and he added considerably to Mr. Smith's draft.

The instrument, as so far prepared, is of considerable length, but very clear-cut and emphatic in its enunciations. A synopsis follows:

It begins by calling attention to the promises that were made in the St. Louis convention of 1896, and after enumerating them declares that faith has been kept in almost every instance, as is shown by the statutes which the last congress added to the laws of the country. Especial attention is called to the fact that the platform of 1896 promised that the country should be put upon the gold standard, and that this pledge has been faithfully maintained. There is a clear and distinct declaration for the maintenance of this standard, and the resolutions as so far prepared make no reference to bimetalism. The resolutions also contain the usual declaration for a protective tariff. The president's policy with reference to the Philippines is indorsed throughout and his conduct of the war with Spain is upheld in the strongest terms of commendation and praise. The president's course on the Boer-British entanglement is also indorsed, and attention is called to the fact that under his guidance the United States has been the only nation to offer intervention between the warring nations. The president also comes in for praise because of his attitude in the Hague peace conference, and the administration is especially commended for its position and its accomplishment in the matter of an open door in China.

The legislation towards which attention is especially directed as having been accomplished in accordance with party pledges, in addition to that concerning the finances, includes the Dingley tariff law, the annexation of Hawaii and the liberation of Cuba from Spanish domination. The country is also felicitated upon the acquisition of Porto Rico.

The plank on the Philippines is practically in the language of the president's message, promising the restoration of order and the establishment of authority in the islands and the granting of local self-government so soon as the Philippines show that they are prepared for it.

On the question of trusts the platform recognizes the right of capital to combine for industrial purposes, but condemns all conspiracies in restraint of trade and the limitation of prices.

There will be a declaration for an isthmian canal rather than for a canal via the Nicaraguan route specifically, pending the report of the commission appointed to investigate.

A promise will be made to redeem the promise to establish independence in Cuba as speedily as practicable, and a demand will be made for the condign punishment of crimes committed by American officials in Cuba.

Legislation for the restoration of the merchant marine will be indorsed. There is a proposition to at least express the hope with reference to China that the empire shall not be dismembered. A demand will be made for the protection of American missionaries and other Americans in China.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

American Soldiers Victorious Over Filipinos in Two Recent Engagements.

Manila, June 18.—The United States forces had two engagements of importance last week. The troops under Gen. Funston and Gen. Grant organized an advance, with parts of five regiments and two guns against 500 rebels in a mountain stronghold east of Biacnabata, where it was supposed Capt. Roberts, of the Thirty-fifth regiment, who was captured last month at San Miguel de Mayumo, was held captive. The Americans operated under many difficulties and over an exceedingly rough country, but the rebels retreated, only a few resisting, and the stronghold was occupied and burned. As the result of last week's scouting 60 Filipinos were killed, 200 were captured, and 300 rifles, with 23,000 rounds of ammunition were surrendered. Three Americans were killed.

Destroyed by Fire.

Des Moines, Ia., June 18.—Sunday morning at four o'clock the large auditorium used for convention hall and only constructed a year ago, at a cost of $50,000, was destroyed by fire. The insurance amounts to $25,000. It was occupied by the commercial exchange and the T. W. P. Chase Amusement company, the latter holding a lease and conducting a vaudeville show. All seats, effects and scenery were lost, amounting to $5,000, making the total loss, as now estimated, $40,000.

Elevator Burned.

Kansas City, Mo., June 18.—The big Union grain elevator, located on the west river bottoms but a few blocks from the Union depot, was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon, causing a damage of over $100,000. The building was valued at $70,000 and it contained $30,000 worth of wheat, all of which was destroyed.

IN TRADE CIRCLES.

In Outward Appearance the Situation Is Worse Than the Real Facts Warrant.

New York, June 18.—Bradstreet's says: "Measured by recent records and recollections of business activity, the present between-seasons dullness seems specially marked and the reactionary movement of prices makes trade look worse than it really is. Judged by such indicators as railroad tariffs and the statistics of foreign trade, the volume of business doing is considerably larger than a year ago, when it will be recalled trade was cheerfully active. It is true bank clearings are considerably smaller than last year's clearings, undoubtedly included much of a speculative character, this year almost wholly absent, and yet, outside of the metropolis, bank clearings are heavier this year than last."

"Lower prices for iron and steel have not met expectations of causing a reduction in output, and the latest furnace report indicates an actually larger output and increased stock, though this latter feature apparently has been magnified because supplies of high-grade pig iron are still scarce, particularly so at the south. On the other hand, low grades are in plentiful supply, with little demand."

R. G. Dun & Co., in their Weekly Review of Trade, say: "A season of declining prices is never wholly agreeable to business men whose stocks on hand are losing part of their value. Yet there are times when return to the highest prosperity in business is not possible except through readjustment of prices. The highest prosperity the country had ever reached, prior to the panic, was in 1892, with prices averaging not quite 75 per cent. of their average in 1880. After great depression for several years the highest point reached with last year's recovery was 80 per cent., in March, but the gradual yielding has already returned the general average of prices to a shade less than 75 per cent., practically where it was with the highest prosperity in 1892."

"Failures for the first week of June were in amount $2,118,810, of which $1,062,870 were in manufacturing and $333,236 in trading concerns. Failures for the week have been 162 in the United States, against 136 last year, and 21 in Canada, against 18 last year."

EIGHT PERISHED.

Fire in a Tenement House in New York Causes Death of an Entire Family.

New York, June 15.—Fire in a tenement house at 34 Jackson street at three o'clock this (Friday) morning caused the death of eight people. The dead are: Daniel Miller, Daniel Marrior, Mrs. Daniel Marrior, Mamie Marrior, aged 18; Albert Marrior, aged 15; another son, aged 13; Elsie Marrior, aged four; Antoinette Marrior, aged eight months. The Marriors were all of one family. The fire broke out on the first floor of the five-story tenement. The first body found was that of Daniel Miller, who lived in the rear tenement, who jumped from a window to the ground and was killed.

President Resigns.

Chicago, June 13.—Dr. Henry Wade Rogers resigned the presidency of Northwestern university Tuesday, and his resignation was accepted. His action was precipitate, although it was not unlooked for. The great Methodist university has lost its president and his successor is not yet in sight, although there is some talk of Dr. Robert D. Sheppard, at present treasurer of the university and professor of history. Friction and lack of cooperation with trustees are assigned as some of the causes for Dr. Rogers' retirement.

Perished to Save Another.

Jackson, Mich., June 14.—Robert O. Emmons, a well-known trainer of animals, who has been connected with Davis' circus this season, and a six-year-old boy named John Breanizer were drowned at the Air Line railroad bridge Wednesday night. Emmons was fishing off the bridge and the boy was playing there, when the latter fell into the water, which is very deep at that point. Emmons immediately jumped in after him, but became tangled in the weeds at the bottom, and both were drowned.

Great Carnage.

New York, June 14.—Official advices were received in this city from Cartagena and Bogota, giving details of the revolution in Colombia. The complete and utter overthrow of the rebels in Santander has been confirmed, in which place, after a hard-contested battle lasting 21 days, the government forces remained complete masters of the field. The casualties were 1,800 dead belonging to the enemy, 2,000 wounded and 1,800 prisoners of war.

Killed in a Street Battle.

Kansas City, Mo., June 13.—Two city detectives, Matt Kenney and Henry Sparks, undertook to stop a street fight between a crowd of negro men and women in East Third street Tuesday afternoon, and as a result of an exchange of shots Rufus Bennett, a North end tough, and Ora Childs, the latter a woman, were killed and Charles Jackson, proprietor of a barber shop, was seriously wounded.

Bryan's Nomination Assured.

Chicago, June 15.—By the action of the democratic state conventions in California, Missouri, Kentucky, Georgia and Vermont Thursday, Hon. W. J. Bryan is assured of the nomination for president on the democratic ticket. The instructions given delegates by those five states carry Mr. Bryan's vote, it is believed, considerably over the two-thirds necessary to nominate him.

NO ARMISTICE

Roberts and Botha Fail to Agree and Hostilities Have Been Renewed.

London, June 19.—Lord Roberts, according to a Boer dispatch from Machadodorp, sent a message to Commandant Gen. Louis Botha on June 13, suggesting disarmament and complimenting the bravery of the burghers. It was pointed out that the surrender would be without dishonor to the burghers and would prevent much suffering. Gen. Botha asked for a six days' armistice in order to confer and consider. Lord Roberts consented to five days. Finally Gen. Botha declined to accept the proposal, and hostilities were renewed.

The Boer commandoes are retiring on Middleburg, followed by the British cavalry and artillery, occasionally shells reaching the rear guards. The Boers are destroying the bridges and burning the veldt behind them, carrying off provisions and cattle and leaving the country barren.

Other advices from Machadodorp say that the Boers have an abundance of arms and ammunition, with dynamite and oxen, and that they are preparing heavy wagon trains for a retreat to the Lydenburg district, where the chiefs, notwithstanding rumors to the contrary, are determined to make a stand.

MAY BE THE PLAGUE.

Suspicious Cases Occur at Hermosillo, Mexico, and Rigid Investigation Being Made.

St. Louis, June 19.—A special to the Globe-Democrat from Hermosillo, Mexico, says: Many exciting rumors have been current here for several days past to the effect that the bubonic plague has made its appearance at Guaymas, this state. A rigid investigation has been made by the Sonora health authorities, under direction of the national board of health. It is found that 30 Chinamen who arrived at Guaymas a few days ago, after passing through San Francisco and the United States in bond, were taken sick upon arriving at Guaymas, and the symptoms of their illness indicated that they were victims of the plague.

The whole lot of Chinamen were immediately isolated, and are now under surveillance, awaiting further developments. Some of them have died, but the number of deaths is not known here.

WILL REMAIN ON GUARD.

The Sheriff's Posse at St. Louis Will Not Be Discharged for the Present.

St. Louis, June 19.—Monday was by far the most uneventful in the history of the street railway strike. This was owing to the discontinuance of all negotiations tending toward a settlement of the controversy, and to the utter absence of trouble along the numerous routes of the Transit company. The strike has now passed into the second stage of its history, and the general boycott instituted by the American Federation of Labor, as outlined in these dispatches for several days, must tell the story. A slight stir was caused during the day by Sheriff Pohlman, who proposed that the posse comitatus, comprising 2,500 citizen soldiers, be discharged. A conference of police and posse officials threw a wet blanket on the sheriff's proposition by emphatically declaring that the time was not yet ripe for dispersing the body.

Passed Away.

New York, June 19.—Henry Walter Webb died Monday at his residence at Scarborough-on-the-Hudson, aged 47 years. He was a son of the late Gen. James Watson Webb, and brother of Dr. W. Seward Webb, and was a director in the Wagner Palace Car company, the Buffalo Erie Basin Railroad company, the National city bank and the Oswego & Rome Railroad company, and trustee of the Mutual Life Insurance company. He was ill less than half an hour. His death was wholly unexpected, although he had been seriously ill many times during the last few months. As assistant to President Depew, of the New York Central in 1891, Mr. Webb defeated the great strike of the Knights of Labor.

Not a Candidate.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 19.—In a statement to the News Benjamin F. Shiveley, of South Bend, stated positively that he was not a candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket. Mr. Shiveley recently refused to accept the gubernatorial nomination, and John W. Keene was chosen. Mr. Shiveley expressed the opinion that Eliot Danforth, of New York, would be on the ticket with W. J. Bryan.

Again at Work.

Joliet, Ill., June 19.—Two of the three rod mills of the Illinois Steel company here resumed work Monday after a shutdown of several weeks. Between 500 and 600 men were given employment, all departments of the steel mills are now running except the converter and one rod mill. Two thousand men are employed.

WORK OF BOXERS.

They Have Murdered Over 1700 Chinese Christians Thus Far—Situation Grows in Gravity.

Moscow, June 16.—According to a dispatch from Port Arthur, the Boxers have killed, up to the present, 1,700 Chinese Christians. They have destroyed the telegraph line between Peking and Kiachta, on the Trans-Baikal frontier, whence communication was had with Irkutsk and St. Petersburg. This leaves Peking isolated until the international force succeeds in restoring telegraphic communication between Tien-Tsin and the capital.

The same dispatch declares that the Chinese government recently acknowledged Russia's right to increase her armed force in Peking for the protection of Russian interests.

Shanghai, June 16.—News of the safety of all the foreign ministers here Peking was received here Friday. None of them has been murdered. The legations have been barricaded and the foreigners within will thus be able to resist any attack by mobs. If, however, the Chinese soldiers should storm the barricade the diplomats and refugees would be powerless, and many lives would be sacrificed.

The Peking government is defiant on demands made for the suppression of the Boxers. Proof of this is seen in the appointment of four anti-foreign ministers to the tsung-li-yamen.

The powers, however, are not inclined to allow mobs to menace foreign lives and interests further. A myriad of foreign troops has been landed at Tien-Tsin.

Tien-Tsin, June 15.—The New York Journal correspondent cables: Boxers control Tien-Tsin. The native city officials have been burned at the stake. The foreign settlement is expecting an immediate attack.

The allied forces under Vice Admiral Seymour, now marching on Peking, are short of provisions and water, and the railway has been destroyed behind them. They are expected to encounter strong opposition. The authorities fear a massacre of foreigners and native Christians at Peking.

China is gathering munitions of war. More reinforcements are demanded by the commanders of all foreign forces. A great panic prevails among the Chinese. Most important news is expected every moment.

Yokohama, June 16.—The murder of the Japanese chancellor of legation at Peking by the Chinese imperial troops has aroused keen feeling in Japan. The press urges the government to exact ample reparation. Eight warships are to be sent to Taku.

Shanghai, June 15.—A dispatch from Chung-King says that a riot has taken place at Yan-Na-Fu. The buildings of the China Inland mission were partially destroyed and those of the Roman Catholic and Bible Christian missions were utterly demolished. All the missionaries are safe.

Over an Embankment.

Williamsport, Pa., June 14.—Six men were killed and another fatally injured on a logging railroad at Cammalt, about 36 miles from this place, Wednesday afternoon. A train jumped the track in some unaccountable manner and plunged down a 300-foot embankment. Both fireman and engineer were instantly killed, as also were four Italian laborers. The car and engine were literally smashed to kindling. The county coroner and an undertaker left this city at midnight for the scene.

Some Census Figures.

Chicago, June 16.—Estimates made for the Tribune indicate that the census will show a population of 78,964,742, an increase of 26 per cent.; value of manufactured products, $12,698,403,060, a gain of 36 per cent.; and farm lands, $17,865,200,831, a gain of 35 per cent. School census superintendent estimates Chicago's population at 1,986,500. The school census shows 253,000 Chicago children in public and 88,000 in private and parochial schools.

Judge Johnson Dead.

Milwaukee, June 16.—Judge Daniel H. Johnson, of the circuit court of Milwaukee county, died from a stroke of apoplexy, aged 76. Judge Johnson had been on the circuit bench since 1887, prior to which time he was city attorney. He was well known throughout this state. He was a native of Canada.

Mail for Alaska.

Washington, June 14.—A notice has been issued by the post office department that no mail for points beyond Dawson City shall be forwarded via Lake Bennett, and the dispatch of mails in the Yukon district will be limited to points between Lake Bennett and Dawson.

Bryant Given a Place.

Washington, June 14.—The president has appointed ex-Representative W. D. Bryant, of Indiana, a member of the commission to codify the criminal laws of the United States, vice D. B. Culberson, deceased.

Dynamite Kills Five.

Burbank, Minn., June 15.—A terrible accident occurred Thursday at the Hale mine, three miles from here, in which five men were instantly killed by an explosion of dynamite.

AGRICULTURAL HINTS

PERFECT COW STALL.

Sanitation has become a perfect necessity in every dairy barn where a good, first-class article of milk, butter or cheese is to be produced. The science of bacterial influence has laid down laws that when violated leave a certain positive loss in the wake. Every stable should at least be cleaned and dusted with some absorbent once each day, and twice would not hurt. Dusting whenever liquids have accumulated and stand. The stalls should be forced free from an accumulation of dust and fine straw by being placed in the ditch as an absorbent, thereby readily finding its way into the compost heap, away from the stable. Mangers should also be kept free from any accumulation of uneaten food, either roughage or grains.

PERFECT COW STALL.

Years of dairy work many years of study and practical demonstration in our own barn. After using many devices and reconstructing them to do away with imperfections, our plan for "the perfect cow stall" resolved itself into the plan illustrated. I have seen a large number of stalls, but none that has so many good points as this one. Thousands of them are in use all over the country, and wherever put in after the plan herein described, have proven to be more than satisfactory. The floor may be made of wood or cement. Mine is laid with oak with joints broken as laid, allowing a drop of two inches in the 6 1/2 feet. On the platform two three by three scantling are laid running the full length of the stable. Upon this a board or floor 18 inches wide is put down with flange board facing cow seven inches wide. A two by four post five feet high is toe-nailed in one corner of the manger, to which both partition boards and the fence in front of the cow are nailed. The partition is four feet high and 3 1/2 wide from outer edge of the two posts, but it is only one foot high in the mangers past the five feet post, so that any large roughage can be distributed. The opening for both feed and roughage is 18 inches. The grain, ensilage or any cut feed escapes readily into the 18-inch manger, but cannot, but rests against the fence and is eaten through it.

Many find the annex of a feed bin in front an easy means of distributing feed to cows. The ditch is made waterproof and 16 inches wide, nine inches deep next to platform and seven inches by walk. The latter may be made any width or depth to suit the builder. The distance from the ditch to the fence facing cow depends upon the size of the cow to occupy. The 6 1/2 feet is the right length for a 1,000-pound cow, with less or more accordingly. The fencing can be placed as far toward the cow as her size demands, so that she may be fenced back to her ditch, insuring perfect cleanliness and at the same time have perfect and absolute freedom with her head, not having to move backward or forward to lie down or rise. Arrangements for watering with pans bolted on sides of partitions can be readily attached.—G. E. Scott to Ohio Dairyman's Association.

Shade for the Dairy Cows.
At a convention of dairymen some years ago a dairyman said that it was his practice not to have any shade in his pasture, as he did not want his cows to lose time in feed gathering. He claimed that on hot days a cow would go hungry in the shade rather than go out into the hot sun and feed. He was fiercely opposed by many other dairymen, but there were some that sided with him. It was rather a surprise that any should take a position of that kind. It seems hardly short of barbarous to place cows in a pasture where there is no escape from the fierce heat of a midsummer sun.

Clean Water for Cows.
Less watering should be done from the brook and more from the well or tank. It is true that the cow, of all farm animals, prefers to take her water warm; but this warmth of the water can be obtained by exposing it to the sun for a day. All troughs and tanks should be cleaned out often in the summer time, and no slime should be permitted to accumulate. Water is the surest road by which disease attacks its victim.—Farmers' Review.

SCOURS IN CALVES.

Very Simple Remedies and Limited Rations for a Day or Two Usually Work a Cure.

Calf scours are usually due to one of three causes: First, and most frequent, damp, ill-ventilated and filthy quarters, or badly cleaned feeding vessels. Filth, or decaying milk, generate ptomaines or poison germs that set up the disease. The vessel from which is fed milk should be rinsed with cold water immediately after using and then scalded every day. After scalding, it should be set in the sun to dry, drain and sweeten. Second, feeding cold milk that chills the young calf and checks digestion. From 90 to 100 degrees is the proper temperature for calf milk. Third, too long time between feeding; as a consequence the calf gets so hungry that it gorges itself when fed. From two to three quarts is as much as the ordinary six-week-old calf should be fed at a time. It should be fed not less than three times a day until it begins to take solid food. The remedy is to feed sparingly for a day or two. Give one or two ounces of castor oil in a little milk; two hours later give a tablespoonful, or teaspoonful of following, in a little milk from a bottle in which an egg has been beaten: Tincture of ginger, four ounces; tincture of opium, three ounces; spirits of camphor, two ounces; tincture of rhubarb, two ounces; essence of peppermint, two ounces. Mix. In very bad cases give every two hours; in mild cases, give every four or six hours, until the discharge becomes more natural. If calf is small and young, one ounce of oil and a teaspoonful of mixture will be a dose. Keep the calf warm and dry.—Midland Farmer.

HINTS FOR SUMMER.

What to Do to Carry the Dairy Cows Through the Hot Season in Good Condition.

Shade is almost as important in summer as shelter from cold in winter. See that the cow has plenty of feed and clean water while in pasture, so that she can fill her stomach in a short time and then lie down in the shade, chew her cud, enjoy herself, and make milk.

The cow must not have to travel a long distance for water. If she does, she will go without it until she gets very thirsty and feverish, and then drink until she is painfully uncomfortable. Both conditions are unfavorable for milk secretion.

If a cow has to travel over a large surface and take a good deal of time to fill her stomach, the extra time and energy expended will cause a corresponding reduction in the flow of milk.

Milking should always be done in a clean, airy place, free from all bad odors. If in a stable, it should be scrupulously clean, and have some deodorizer, such as dry earth, dry muck, land plaster, sawdust, etc., scattered over the floor. The best of all is the land plaster, which goes into the manure, and is applied to the soil in about as good a way as possible.

It is better to have cows confined in stanchions, or otherwise, for milking, to avoid their moving about, and to prevent accidents. It is also better to have some kind of shelter, especially when it rains.—Farm and Home.

FIGHTING THE CUTWORM.

An Extremely Simple Contrivance for Protecting Plants Against the Pest's Attacks.

Fold old newspapers and cut into sheets, say, nine by twelve inches. Paint with cheap, quick-drying black paint or waterproof varnish. Sticky paper covered with rosin and sweet oil will answer for one season. Cut the sheets from edge to center. The plant being set, slip a paper around it and place a clod or stone on the lapped edges of the slit near the plant and otherwise secure it against winds. This will flare the edges, cast water to the center, let air under to prevent mold and yet is dark and retains moisture. The grub prefers the ground on which to travel and will not attempt to crawl onto the paper. The papers, if properly cared for, will last for a number of years and can be safely taken away from the plant in a week or ten days.—Dr. M. W. Strealy, in Orange Judd Farmer.

Unskillful shearing calls for immediate attention to the proper treatment of cuts made in the skin. These should be immediately protected by a coat of clean pine tar.

The Typewriter Invention.
A statistician has proved that the invention of the typewriter has given employment to 600,000 people, but he fails to state how many cases of weak stomachs and dyspepsia it has induced. All people of sedentary occupation need Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It helps nature to bear the strain which ensues from confinement and it is a wonderful medicine. No one realizes that more keenly than the man or woman who has been cured of stomach trouble by its use.

The Nation's Census.

The Chicago Tribune has made a careful canvass of the entire country for the census and has arrived at the following figures: For the population of the United States the close estimate is 78,964,743. For Michigan the figures show 2,561,901, a gain of 28 per cent from the 1890 census. Detroit with 315,000 has had a 52 per cent gain, and is the 13th city in point of size, having passed New Orleans and Washington, D. C.

Washtenaw county has a 30 per cent gain, jumping from 42,210 in 1890 to 55,000, while Ann Arbor has over a 50 per cent gain from 9,481 in 1890 to over 15,000. This puts the county seat with only 11 cities ahead of it in Michigan.

These figures may be taken with a grain of salt. The official bulletin, which gives the correct figures, will not be out for two weeks yet.
