DEATH OF I. M. WHITAKER.

A Pioneer of Washtenaw County—He Had Resided in Lima and Chelsea 64 Years.

In the death of Isaac Milton Whitaker, which occurred at his home in Chelsea, Monday morning at about 4 o'clock, another of the sturdy pioneers of Washtenaw county has passed away. He had been in feeble health for some years, but had only been confined to the house since last November. He was an inoffensive, worthy man, a great home body, and was respected by all who knew him. He was four times married, his marriage to Miss Hannah Kitchen, who survives him, taking place Feb. 22, 1899. He leaves no family.

Mr. Whitaker was born in Benton, Yates county, N. Y., May 2, 1826, he was, therefore, 74 years, 2 months and 7 days old. He came to Michigan with his parents, Isaac and Achsah Whitaker, in 1836, and they settled in Lima on the old farm which the deceased retained possession of and lived on up to 12 years ago, when he came to Chelsea and bought the place which has been his home since then. He had four brothers and two sisters, of whom one brother, Byron C. Whitaker, of Dexter, and the two sisters, Mrs. Caroline Stephens, of Jackson, and Mrs. Matilda J. Easton, of Lima, survive him. He was a member of the Congregational church, and the funeral services, held at the house yesterday afternoon, were conducted by Rev. Thomas Holmes, D. D. The remains were followed to their last resting place in Oak Grove cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

ANOTHER LARGE BUILDING.

The Glazier Stove Co. Will Erect One Within the Next Ninety Days.

Inside of two weeks the Glazier Stove Co. will commence the erection of a new two story brick factory building to be used in the manufacture of their popular line of stoves, the demand for which is continually on the increase. The building is to be located north of the side track running through the company's yards, and between the foundry and the lamp stove factory, otherwise known as factory No. 10. The building is to be used for the manufacture of a complete new line of blue flame wickless oil cook stoves, which will be the best on earth, and it will be equipped with the most modern and improved machinery. One of the new machines will be a press weighing 28,000 pounds—twice as large as any now in the factory—and using a punch and die which fills a space of 5 feet 2½ inches between uprights. This large press will be used to stamp out the large bases, sides and tops for the new line of stoves. The large toggle drawing press now in the engine room will also be moved to the new building. Each machine will be driven by individual electric motors.

The new factory is to be completed by Oct. 15, and it will mean a large addition to the company's force of employees during the coming year.

FOREIGN.

The dispatches from Shanghai are practically unanimous in the declaration that the entire European colony in Peking, numbering nearly 1,000 souls, has been wiped out by the Boxers and the Chinese soldiers at the instigation of Prince Tuan. China's emperor was forced to commit suicide by Prince Tuan and the dowager empress was made insane by poison. Rebellion is spreading to southern and central provinces and there is talk of the civilized world having to fight all China.

Chinese are reported to have butchered 5,000 persons in Peking, and it is feared the Boxer revolt will spread throughout the empire if the allied army is defeated. Russia has given Japan free rein to end the war and the mikado probably will send 20,000 more troops to China.

There is little to shed light on the fate of the Peking legations and foreign residents in the Chinese capital. Report comes that the legations were still safe on July 4, but it is generally discredited. There is a strong belief that no foreigner is alive in Peking.

With the foreigners in Peking probably safe amid civil war, with Prince Ching on their side, with the powers united and their forces constantly increasing, the outlook in China is now rather more hopeful for a month.

BOXERS MEET CHECK.

The Movement Against Legations Blocked by Prince Ching.

The Latter with His Army Said to Be Protecting Foreigners in Peking—Hard Fighting at Tientsin Is Reported.

London, July 10.—With the foreigners in Peking probably safe amid civil war, with Prince Ching on their side, with the powers united and their forces constantly increasing, the outlook in China is now rather more hopeful than it has been for a month. It appears from the cautious statement given out by Taotai Shang in Shanghai that the reason that the heavy guns bearing on the legations at Peking were not used is that Prince Ching, who is served by 10,000 troops, seized all the artillery ammunition. Sheng likewise intimates that Yung Lu, commander-in-chief of the northern army, is associated with Prince Ching in opposing Prince Tuan's ferocious designs and dictatorial ambition. Sheng, who appears to be the sole Shanghai conduit of Peking news, cheers the foreign consuls by these confidential communications, but takes excessive precautions to prevent the Chinese from thinking him friendly to the foreigners.

Must Capture Peking.

From a foreign point of view, the capture of Peking is the key to the situation, as there is a fear, according to the Daily Mail's Shanghai correspondent, that delay now means 100 recruits for the Boxers for every soldier of the allies in the land.

Empress Dowager Not Dead.

A dispatch to a news agency here dated Tientsin, July 2, says:

"The empress dowager, so far from being dead, is actively striving to prevent the factions fighting. Prince Ching has informed her that he would rather lose his head than be constantly obliged to warn her of the consequences of the prolongation of the present anarchy. Prince Tuan is quite willing that Ching should be decapitated, but the dowager empress will not allow this. Prince Tuan has decided that he will take full responsibility. He purposes to retake Tientsin and Taku. Outside of Peking, except in the Pe-Chih and Shan Tung country, the people are supremely indifferent."

Fighting at Tientsin.

However, all this may be, the allies at Tientsin are having an exceedingly unpleasant time. The last engagement of which news has come through, occurred on July 6. The Chinese artillery opened at dawn. Their fire was more accurate and their ammunition better, the shells exploding with precision and setting fire to several buildings. H. M. S. Terrible's guns again quieted the Chinese, who, shifting their artillery, reopened the attack in the afternoon, but a thunderstorm breaking, the Chinese suddenly quit. The allies immediately attacked and drove the Chinese from their works, but lost 30 killed or wounded in so doing.

Foolish to Attempt Advance.

Military opinion is unanimous that if the legations did not need relief it would be foolish to attempt to advance before September.

Expresses a Doubt.

London, July 10.—The Times says: "Some Chinese officials are evidently desirous to have it believed in Europe that the legations in Peking are still under the protection of one section of the Chinese army. But that only makes it more remarkable that they should not employ the only convincing argument by allowing direct communication between the ministers and the outer world. We do not wish to insist too strongly upon this aspect, but the circumstantial rumors lack the confirmation so easily supplied if they are true."

Three Thousand Killed.

Berlin, July 10.—Lu Hai Houan, the Chinese minister to Germany, said that he had received a dispatch from Li Hung Chang, dated July 7, saying:

"No authentic confirmation has arrived of the Peking slaughter, but I have reliable information that Prince Ching has organized a determined opposition to the Boxers, fighting them with regular troops, a majority of which remain loyal. Several severe encounters have been fought, in which the loyal troops were victorious. Three thousand rebels have been killed in the streets before the gates of Peking."

Will Pay Liberal Rewards.

Washington, July 10.—Minister Wu has cabled to Sheng, the director general of imperial posts at Shanghai, and to the viceroy at Nanking a request that they take steps to have it made known in Peking and vicinity that heavy rewards will be paid by the American people for the salvation of the people in the legations.

William's Latest Utterance.

Kiel, July 10.—Addressing the first naval division, prior to its departure for China Monday, Emperor William said:

"Yours is the first division of armored ships which I send abroad. Remember, you will have to fight a cunning foe, provided with modern weapons, to avenge the German blood which has flowed. But, spare the women and children. I shall not rest till China is subdued and all the bloody deeds are avenged. You will fight together with the troops of various nationalities. See that you maintain good comradeship with them."

Ninth Infantry at Taku.

London, July 10.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Chefoo announces, under date of July 7, that the Ninth United States infantry has arrived at Taku.

THROUGH THE RAPIDS.

A Chicagoan's Perilous But Successful Experience in the Whirlpool at Niagara.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 10.—Peter Nissen, of Chicago, or "Mr. Bowser," as he styles himself, went through the whirlpool rapids of the Niagara river Monday afternoon, in the presence of about 10,000 persons, in his craft, the Foolkiller. The boat was towed to a rock about a mile above the rapids and secured. The point was difficult to reach by officials from either the American or Canadian shores who might have been disposed to interfere with the much-advertised adventure.

Shortly after three o'clock "Mr. Bowser" was seen on his boat. A little later James LaBland pulled up in a rowboat and towed the Foolkiller, with "Bowser" aboard, into the current. At 3:57 the start down stream was actually commenced, but the fickle eddies kept the Foolkiller drifting about until 4:50, when she got into the whirlpool current and started for the final plunge. Passing under the Cantilever bridge, the boat took on the speed of an express train.

"Bowser" threw his oar far from him and waved his cap. The crowd saw the craft rise on the crest of a smooth wave and then dive into the leaping spray and disappear. The strange craft turned over and over like a top, rolling and plunging until it passed a bend in the river, and the most perilous part of the journey had been passed. The buoyant craft kept on the crest of the waves until submerged again on the verge of the whirlpool. Shooting into the whirlpool the Foolkiller swung around and went down like a fishing bob, but rose again quickly. For the next 55 minutes "Bowser" and his boat circled around the whirlpool. Shortly before six o'clock the Foolkiller was carried out to the edge of the rapids, and a line was thrown by "Bowser" to men on the shore, who hauled him in. His first question was: "How is that for 'Bowser'?"

The Foolkiller is 20 feet long and four feet deep, and is made of two-inch pine, with four air-tight compartments. The keel weighs 1,250 pounds.

TELLS OF FIGHTING.

Long Dispatch from Lord Roberts Gives Account of Operations in South Africa.

London, July 10.—The following dispatch from Lord Roberts has been received at the war office:

"Pretoria, July 8.—As the enemy, for some days, had been threatening our line of railway by trying to get round our right flank, I dispatched Hutton July 5, with mounted infantry, to reinforce Mahon and with orders to drive the Boers to the east of Broekmanspruit. These orders were effectually carried out during Friday and Saturday by Mahon, who was attacked by some 3,000 men, with six guns and two Maxims. Our casualties were:

"Wounded, two officers, including Capt. Nelles, of the Canadian mounted rifles, slightly, and 26 men.

"Steyn left Bethelhem on the night of July 4 for Fouriesburg, between Bethelhem and Ficksburg, accompanied by Christian Dewitt and other Free State commanders, with troops reported numbering 3,000 men.

"Hanbury-Tracy, commanding at Rustenburg, reports that a party of Boers under Lammier called on him yesterday to surrender the town and garrison. Hanbury-Tracy replied that he held Rustenburg for her majesty's government and intended to continue to occupy it. The enemy then opened fire with artillery and tried to take the heights commanding the town, but did not succeed, owing to the good arrangements made by Hanbury-Tracy and his officers. Eventually they were driven off with the assistance of Holdsworth and his hussars, who made a rapid march of 45 miles from the neighborhood of Zeerust, with the bushmen under Col. Aire, on hearing Rustenburg was likely to be threatened. The enemy suffered heavily, and five men were captured. Our casualties were two men killed and one officer and three men wounded."

London, July 10.—As Lord Roberts' dispatches reveal, the Boers are unusually active, both in the Orange colony and the so-called pacified western Transvaal, but without producing any serious impression upon the British arms.

EDUCATORS GATHER.

Annual Convention of the National Educational Association at Charleston, S. C.

Charleston, S. C., July 10.—Although the general convention of the National Educational association will not be called to order until this afternoon, large numbers of delegates have already arrived. The hotels are crowded and trains brought in delegates from many parts of the country. Charleston has thrown open many of her private homes to the visitors. The National Council of Education, the Department of Indian Education and the National Conference of Religious Education held brief sessions.

Interesting and instructive papers were read at each. A lively contest is already in progress for next year's conference. Five cities have entered their claims—Detroit, Cincinnati, Duluth, Boston and Buffalo. The Cincinnati delegation, headed by Dr. R. G. Boone, has opened headquarters in the Charleston hotel and is making a strong fight. Detroit has made great headway during the day, and the choice is believed to lie between these two cities, with chances favoring Cincinnati.

MAY HAVE BEEN KILLED.

Six Graduates of University of Michigan Were in Peking When Present Troubles Began.

NONE ARE KNOWN TO HAVE ESCAPED.

Four of the Number Were in the Chinese Capital as Missionaries—Brief Record of Interesting Careers—Ties That Bind the University to China—Faculty Changes.

[Special Correspondence.]

University of Michigan, July 8.—At least six graduates and former students of the university are believed to have been in the City of Peking at the beginning of the present troubles, and so far as known none of the six have escaped. Four of the six are in the Chinese capital as missionaries. They are Miss Eliza E. Leonard, M. D., '95; Miss Virginia C. Murdock, M. D., '79; Mrs. Minnie E. Sinclair Headland, M. D., '87, and Miss Anna D. Gloss, medical student, 1882-83. Miss Eliza E. Leonard had charge of the Woman's hospital. She is in the field under the supervision of the Woman's North Pacific Presbyterian Board of Missions. Miss Murdock spent the winter of 1898-99 in America on a vacation, but returned to the Chinese mission fields in 1899. A portion of the vacation was spent in Ann Arbor. Her work is done under the American Board of Foreign Missions. Mrs. Headland and Miss Gloss are in the service of the Methodist Episcopal board.

Went from Ludington.

Harry E. King and his wife, Edna Alexine King, are instructors in the Methodist university in Peking. Mr. King holds a professorship and Mrs. King is an instructor. The Kings went from Ludington to China in 1894. They graduated from the university with the class of 1891. The school year 1891-92 Mr. King was principal of the Ludington high school and the two following years he was superintendent of the school system. It was this latter position which he left to go to Peking.

Other Alumni.

Other university alumni thought to be in China as missionaries and their latest addresses as shown by the alumni records are: Mrs. Rev. King, nee Leonora A. Howard, M. D., '76, Tientsin; Mrs. Dwight Goddard, M. D., '93, Foochow; Harry L. Carrington, M. D., '89, Chentu, west China; Mrs. J. August Coffin, M. D., '77, Foochow; Johannes A. Otte, M. D., Amoy; Mary Brown, M. D., '89, Chefoo; James S. Grant, M. D., '89, Ningpo; Ernest R. Jellison, M. D., '83, Nanking; Lucy H. Hoag, M. D., '83, Kiu-Chiang.

Ten Years in China.

The past school year Edward R. Wagner and wife have been in Ann Arbor for their vacation after ten years spent in China in missionary work. Mr. Wagner graduated from the medical department in 1887 and Mrs. Wagner completed the work of the literary department in 1885. The past year Mr. Wagner has been pursuing some graduate studies in the medical department preparatory to returning to the Flowery Kingdom. His station is at Kalgan.

Return Missionaries.

Among the alumni who are return missionaries from China are Marietta Haslep, M. D., '83, now in Indianapolis, Ind.; Daniel E. Osborne, Ph. C., '79; St. Helena, Cal.; Mrs. Ford, M. D., '83, Rushville, Ind.; Frank A. Waples, M. D., '93; Battle Creek, Mich.; Mary A. Holbrook, M. D., '80, North Carolina. Estelle C. Long, M. D., '83, now at Albion, Mich., was appointed in 1885 by the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church for Nanking, China. Here she was to open the hospital work. Ill health, however, prevented her leaving for the foreign field. Two missionaries to China are deceased: Judson D. Collins, M. D., '45, to Foochow, 1847, died at Lyndon, Mich., May, 1852. Leander W. Pilcher, literary student, 1863-65, Peking, died November, 1893.

Dr. Delia E. Howe, literary student, 1877-79, of Detroit, was in China as a missionary during the years 1878-80.

Chinese Students.

At different times six Chinese students have been registered in the university. The past year Suatchuan Yin, of Amoy, has been a freshman in the medical department. In 1896 Mei-yi Shie and Ida Kahn, two Chinese girls, were graduated from the medical department. They are now at Kiukiang engaged in missionary work. Style Wei, of Shanghai, died after one year spent in the university. Tai Yin Cheo, of Kiukiang, was a student in the literary department from 1893 to 1897, and Yung Peng Cheng was a medical student during the years 1894-96.

Ties That Bind.

Two other ties that bind the University of Michigan and the Chinese people together are the exhibit presented to the university museum in 1883 by the government and the fact that at one time President Angell was the representative of the American nation in Peking. The Chinese collection is the one sent to the New Orleans exposition. It includes several thousand separate exhibits and illustrates with special fullness the Chinese methods of manufacturing cotton and silk.

Faculty Changes.

Secretary Wade has given out the following list of appointments, promotions, reappointments and changes in the salaries of the literary faculty of the university:

NEW NORMAL SCHOOL.

Combined Dedication and Commencement Exercises at the Seat of Learning in Marquette.

Dr. Albion W. Small, of the department of sociology in the University of Chicago, delivered the principal address at the combined dedication and commencement exercises of the new northern normal school in Marquette. He spoke on "A Message to Twentieth Century Democrats," a practical discussion of pressing problems now before the American people for solution.

Dr. Albert H. Leonard, the president of the Michigan state normal system, and Perry F. Powers, president of the state board of education, also delivered addresses, the latter making the dedicatory speech. Both sessions, the dedication in the morning and the commencement in the afternoon, were attended by large crowds.

WASHTENAW PIONEERS.

Held Their Annual Meeting in Ann Arbor and Listen to Good Addresses and Music.

A very successful meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer and Historical society was held at the Presbyterian church in Ann Arbor. The day's programme consisted of historical and patriotic papers by the members and invited guests and patriotic music by the old-time music teacher, Prof. J. R. Sage, and by the Allmendinger sisters. From the annual reports of the necrologist, W. H. Lay, it was learned that the society has lost 115 members during the year from June 1, 1898, to June 1, 1899, nine of whom were over 90 years old at the time of their death, and 86 members during the year just closed, the same number having reached the age of 90 years.

GOOD ROADS.

Delegates at the International Congress Favor a Suggestion for Prison Labor.

A suggestion for the practical utilization of prison labor for breaking stone and building good roads was made at a session of the international good roads congress in Port Huron and received with considerable favor by the delegates. The question of good roads was discussed from all points of view and strong presentation made of what benefit improved rural highways would be to all classes, the wheelman, the farmer, the merchant and the professional man. Progress in the work of good roads was generally reported. Education, agitation and organization were advanced as the chief weapons in the crusade for the betterment of rural roads.

Gifts to Olivet.

Pearsons, $12,500; Mrs. John S. Canfield, $5,000; N. B. West, $4,000; estate of Dennis Barnes, $2,000; Justus S. Stearns, $1,000; Miss C. B. Dickenson, $1,000; a friend, $1,500; Fred Lee, $500. This completes the endowment fund of $100,000 which the college commenced to raise last year.

Relics of Philippines.

George Benson, a soldier boy, recently returned to Eau Claire from the Philippines and brought many curious souvenirs of his stay in the east. His collection is worth hundreds of dollars. One of the most interesting things in his collection is a deck of cards—the kind used by the Filipinos. There are only 48 cards in the deck, the queens being left out entirely. The natives believe it a sin to use an emblem of a woman in card playing.

Pure Food Cases.

Since the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, Food Commissioner Grosvenor has commenced 63 cases for violation of the pure food laws of the state. Thirteen cases have been ended by orders of nolle pros, and 37 cases resulted in conviction.

Suffers by Fire.

Fire gutted the building occupied by the Detroit Journal and destroyed the mechanical, business and editorial outfit of the paper, with the exception of the presses, which sustained only water damage. The total loss is placed at about $75,000, fairly covered by insurance. The Journal will be issued from the Free Press building until the building is far enough restored to permit the return of the paper to its own quarters.

Thrilling Experience.

John Largent, millwright at Squires & Sterling's mill in West Branch, was caught on a revolving shaft while engaged about the machinery and was carried around with the shaft until all his clothing was stripped from his body. He was doubled up and forced through a 21-inch space at each revolution. His right arm was broken five times and nearly severed from his body. It is thought he will recover.

Found His Wife Dead.

Mrs. Frank Sheppey, formerly of Grand Rapids, was found dead a few rods from her home near McCarty's camp, 18 miles from Cheboygan. Her husband, returning home at six o'clock in the evening, found no fire in the stove, and as his wife was subject to occasional fits, he at once started to find her. She was lying dead a few rods from the house.

Back in Service.

The tow barge Aurora left Marine City for Toledo to load coal for Lake Superior. She is the largest wooden barge on the lakes and has a capacity of 3,500 tons. The Aurora was originally a steamer, and was burned on Lake Erie last year. She was brought to Marine City and rebuilt for Stephenson and others of Detroit at an expense of $50,000.

Died on the Way.

Samuel Robinson, of Charlotte, who was to have been sergeant-at-arms for Michigan in the democratic national convention, died of heart failure at Gardner, Ill., while en route on the Chicago & Alton train to Kansas City. Mr. Robinson was one of the best-known democrats in the state and a close political friend of Chairman Campbell.

WIND AND RAIN.

They Cause Much Damage in Michigan—Loss in Vicinity of Kalamazoo About $300,000.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 9.—The worst wind and rainstorm for 50 years swept over southern Michigan late Saturday afternoon, doing damage over an area extending from Hastings, 30 miles north to ten miles south of here. The wind twisted and whirled through the center of this city, wrecking a score of mammoth oak and maple trees in Bronson and West street parks. Half the streets in the city were made impassable by the fallen trees. The Michigan Traction company's lines were put out of service by trolley wires being broken. The Michigan telephone lines in the city were wrecked and all state lines were put out of service. The roof was blown off the Israel block, Rosenbaum & Speyer's dry goods store was flooded and stock damaged to the extent of $25,000. The Stern block suffered a similar fate, and H. Stern & Co.'s stock of clothing, occupying double stores, suffered serious damage.

Accompanying the wind was a cloud-burst throughout the Kalamazoo River valley, causing a flow of water two feet deep in the main streets, flooding many cellars. All the creeks rose with great rapidity, inundating all lowlands and causing great damage to the famous Kalamazoo celery crop. The damage is estimated at $300,000, one-fourth of this being on the celery crop. Arcadia creek, where ordinarily there is but a stream a foot wide and six inches deep, was a raging flood 20 rods wide and ten feet deep in half an hour.

FIREMEN KILLED.

Five Perish While on Duty at a Fire in Pittsburgh—Collapse of a Floor the Cause.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 9.—Pittsburgh's down-town business section was visited by another disastrous fire Saturday, the second within a week. As a result four men are dead and six others are in hospitals suffering from injuries which may prove fatal. All of the victims were firemen. The dead are John Griffin, St. Clair Crawford, Max Batterbaugh, Stewart Burns and John Lewis. The fire was one of the most stubborn and hard to fight that the firemen have had to contend with for years. Its origin was in the basement of T. G. Evans & Co.'s china and glassware establishment on Fifth avenue, between Wood and Market streets. About 5:30 p. m., when all danger seemed to have passed, ten members of engine companies 4 and 11 were working on the second floor knee deep in water. It appears that the weight of the water, with the already heavy burden the floor was carrying in the shape of big jewelers' safes of Goddard, Hill & Co., was too much, and it gave way. In its plunge down it dragged the third floor along with it clear to the cellar. The firemen were buried under the debris.

THE BOER WAR.

British Troops Are Reported Successful in Several Recent Slight Engagements.

London, July 9.—Late news from South Africa reports that the Boers ineffectually attacked Gen. Buller's escort between Standerton and Heidelberg on Saturday as he was returning from a visit to Lord Roberts. The Boers attacked Ficksburg garrison at midnight on Tuesday, but were driven off after 45 minutes' fighting. Gen. Brabant on July 5 occupied Dernberg, between Senakal and Winburg, which served as a base for bands assailing convoys. Col. Mahon, of Gen. Hutton's mounted troops, on July 6 and 7 engaged 3,000 Boers east of Broukers spruit and drove them off. The casualties numbered 53. Commandant Limer tried to recapture Rustenburg on July 5, but was driven back. Thirty-four of Strathconan horse under Lieut. Anderson were attacked by 200 Boers, east of Standerton, on July 6. The British soon took possession of a kopje, upon which they successfully withstood the attacks of the enemy.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

A Resume of the Desultory Fighting in Luzon During the Past Week.

Manila, July 9.—The past week's scouting in Luzon resulted in 11 Americans being killed and 16 wounded. One hundred and sixty Filipinos were killed during the week; and eight Americans who had been prisoners in the hands of the rebels were surrendered, and a hundred rifles were turned over to the United States officials. The enemy ambushed a wagon train between Indang and Naic. The Third infantry lost nine men while on an expedition to punish the Ladrone in the delta of the Rio Grande. In the Antigua province of Panay a running fight of three hours' duration resulted in the killing or wounding of 70 of the enemy. There were no casualties among the Americans. The insurgents are slowly accepting the amnesty provisions. In some instances the Americans are suspending operations in order to give the rebels an opportunity to take advantage of the decree.

VOTE TO RENEW STRIKE.

Street Car Men at St. Louis Claim Company Has Violated the Agreement Made.

St. Louis, July 10.—The strike against the St. Louis Transit company, by its former employees, which was declared off on July 2, was ordered renewed Monday at a meeting of the street railway men's union at the West End Coliseum. This morning at five o'clock was the time fixed for the renewal of the boycott on all the company's lines. When the strike was settled on July 2 there were some mutterings of discontent among the men over the terms of settlement, and since that time the dissatisfaction has grown daily.

Charges were made that the company had failed to keep the agreement of July 2, and a dozen or more instances were cited tending to prove that there had been a breach of faith. Meetings were held at several places in the course of the week, and committees were appointed to procure proof of infidelity on the part of the company. At a meeting of the executive committee of the railway men's union, held on Saturday, a batch of affidavits were to the effect that men have been employed by the company, since July 2, in violation of the terms of the agreement of that date. After a session lasting several hours the executive committee determined to call a mass meeting of the street railway men for Monday morning, and to recommend to the meeting that the strike be declared on again. The central trades and labor union met later and endorsed the action of the executive committee.

The representatives of the company met and, through President Whitaker, addressed a letter to the men denying that the company had intentionally violated the agreement of July 2, and declaring its intention to live up to every condition of the agreement, both in letter and spirit. Fred W. Lehmann, attorney for the company, appeared at the meeting and offered to submit the question as to whether the company had broken faith to Joseph W. Folk, counsel for the men, and bound the company to abide by Mr. Folk's judgment in the premises. The proposition was ignored, and by a unanimous vote the strike was renewed.

A member of the executive committee said that this was the second time this company had broken faith with its employees, and no agreement would be accepted in the future that did not provide for the reinstatement of all old employees within 24 hours after the execution of the agreement. "There will be no lawlessness or demonstrations of violence this time," he continued. "By means of a vigorous enforcement of the boycott we hope to absolutely destroy the earning capacity of the company." The whole trouble seems to hang upon a question of facts, the men insisting that the company had violated its agreement, while the company on the other hand, emphatically denies that such is the case.

Charged with Murder.

Anoka, Minn., July 10.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of James Hardy, Elmer Miller and William Mattison on charge of having murdered Mrs. William Wise and her son William on May 27, and mortally wounding William Wise, Sr., and his son Joe. The accused are mere youths, but the confession of Mattison has been corroborated at every point. Hardy and Miller were lovers of the two Wise girls, and had been forbidden the house by the girls' father. The shooting was done for revenge.

Our Army in the Philippines.

Washington, July 10.—A statement prepared by the adjutant general shows that the total strength of the United States army in the Philippines June 30, last, was 63,426 officers and men. Of that number 31,821 are regulars and 31,605 volunteers, distributed among the different arms as follows: Infantry, 54,368 officers and men; cavalry, 3,492; artillery, 2,291, and staff corps, 3,276. The total strength given above includes 1,310 officers and men of the Ninth infantry since transferred to China.

High Death Rate Among Children.

New York, July 10.—To the continuation of the hot weather is attributed the high death rate among children. For the first six days of July the deaths reported of children of five years old or under averaged 53 in Manhattan and the Bronx and 41 in Brooklyn. Saturday's report showed 51 deaths of children under five years in Manhattan and the Bronx and 58 in Brooklyn. Sunday's list includes 45 such deaths in Manhattan and the Bronx.

The drum beat of the United States has done a little trotting around the globe of late years and has not yet ceased from its labors.

No national ticket ever nominated gave more general satisfaction to its party and more trouble to its opponents than the one named by the Philadelphia convention.

It is entirely evident from Croker's course at Kansas City that he has not the slightest hope of carrying New York state this fall. All he wants is to carry New York city and remain at the top of the machine there.

Now we are told that the Boer war will probably last for three months longer despite the fact that it has been reported all over for at least two months. Probably the British mean that it is all over the country.

The Prohibitionist party has gone through its usual motions of putting a ticket in the field and denouncing the President for not adopting a temperance law, and thus making everybody good and holy. This fall the ticket will meet the usual fate.

Rev. Sheldon has refused to run for president on the ticket of United Christians. Rev. Sheldon may be a good deal of a poser, but he is to be congratulated on deciding not to attempt to show the country how Christ would conduct a campaign.

A surplus of over $81,000,000 for the last fiscal year is a pretty good showing for Republican party government, considering that heavy war expenses as well as the ordinary expenditures of government were paid out of the receipts. When we add that the national debt has been decreased some $40,000,000 in the same time, the showing becomes phenomenal.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Hon. H. C. Smith Receives a Unanimous Renomination by His Constituents.

The second congressional district Republican convention was held at Manchester yesterday, and Hon. Henry C. Smith was unanimously renominated to succeed himself as congressman. The committee on credentials, after hearing the arguments of the Judson and Anti-Judson delegates unanimously decided to seat the former. Mr. Smith was given the privilege of naming three congressional committeemen from each county. When Mr. Smith entered the hall after being nominated he was wildly cheered and in return made an eloquent patriotic speech, full of interesting facts, and was roundly applauded at its close.

WASHTENAW'S PIONEERS

Discussed Who Was the First White Child Born in the County.

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer Society was held in the Presbyterian church at Ann Arbor, Wednesday, July 4. It was an audience of gray haired men and women who assembled and the absence of the younger element was greatly regretted as after these old people pass away there will be none left to carry on the work of the society unless the younger people take interest in it.

Rev. J. M. Gelston opened the session with prayer. J. Q. A. Sessions read the minutes of the last session and a ladies' trio sang. President W. D. Harriman made a few remarks, calling J. Q. A. Sessions to the chair. J. R. Sage sang "The Old Oaken Bucket," accompanied by Miss Minnie Davis on the organ, also other songs during the meeting.

The necrologist's report was made by Wm. H. Lay, of Ypsilanti. It showed 115 pioneers to have died in 1899-9, and 86 in 1899-1900. In these two years 18 pioneers died whose age was upward of 90, of whom only 6 were men. The oldest was Daniel B. Tichenor, of Sylvan, aged 97. Between 80 and 90 years there were 59 deaths. Thirteen of those who died had lived in the county for over 70 years. Sixty-one had lived in the county 60 or more years.

Prof. J. R. Sage sang "The Song of a Thousand Years," and Rev. O. J. Perrin, of Clyde, Mich., a Methodist minister who was a pioneer of the county, gave a very interesting talk on the early schools of Washtenaw. Other addresses were made by W. K. Childs, Mrs. Bach, Col. H. S. Dean, J. W. Wing, Rev. Thomas Holmes, William and Robert Campbell and Probate Judge H. Wirt Newkirk.

By a rising vote it was discovered that there were 63 present who had lived in the county over 50 years, and 43 who had lived in the county over 60 years. Eight present were born in the county between 65 and 70 years ago. The three present who had resided the greatest number of years in Washtenaw were Mrs. Hattie Smith of Delhi, 75 years; Daniel Brown, of Ann Arbor, 77 years, and Mr. Ballard, of the Willis bar, 75 years.

Rev. Thomas Holmes, of Chelsea, asked who was the first white child born in Ann Arbor. Mrs. Hattie Smith produced a portrait of John James Dix, born at Dixboro, March 27, 1826, and claimed that he was the first white child born in the county. Dr. Holmes took the county history to task for saying that John Nowland, who was born June 13, 1826, was the first white child born in Ann Arbor. He said the first white child born was Elisha Walker Rumsey Smith, son of Asa L. and Syrena Smith, who was born Nov. 27, 1825, as he had the family records to prove, and Mr. Rumsey had promised this child a village lot as the first born. The child did not live to claim the lot as he died in April, 1827. He was a brother of Mrs. Holmes.

A splendid dinner was served in the basement of the church, prepared by the Young Women's Christian Association, to which 150 sat down and did ample justice.

It was decided to hold the next pioneer meeting in Dexter, and on the report of the committee the following officers were chosen:

President—R. B. Copeland.
Secretary—Robert Campbell.
Treasurer—R. C. Reeves.
Necrologist—W. H. Lay.

Vice Presidents—Albert Graves, James L. Lowden, Daniel Hiscock, Smith Botsford, Frank Palmer, W. D. Smith, E. A. Nordman, C. D. Johnson, L. D. Watkins, E. E. Leland, H. D. Platt, G. S. Wheeler, W. H. Was It a Miracle?

"The marvellous cure of Mrs. Rena J. Stout of consumption has created intense excitement in Cammack, Ind.," writes Marion Stuart, a leading druggist of Muncie, Ind. She only weighed 90 pounds when her doctor in Yorktown said she must soon die. Then she began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and gained 37 pounds in weight and was completely cured. It has cured thousands of hopeless cases, and is positively guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Stimson's drug store.

The very light wheat crop is a most formidable condition for many farmers, in addition to the small income they will receive from that source this coming year. Straw is a necessity in the care of stock, and the farmers of Central Michigan will be very short for straw this year. Many farmers who have marshes are cutting them this year much cleaner than they have ever cut them before, and will use the marsh hay for bedding. Other farmers are using their ingenuity in various directions to make up the shortage.

The Ann Arbor Argus says: In the botanical gardens on the campus can be seen a number of tobacco plants growing. They are not as far advanced as the plants were at this time last year. There is no reason why as good tobacco cannot be raised in Washtenaw county as in Wisconsin, which produces a large amount.

Grass Lake News: Some years ago Stowell Wood and Miss Edna Fisk, of Sylvan, were united in marriage. Subsequently they were jarred apart and the courts cut the silken ties binding them together. Last week, after a pleasant but brief courtship, they repaired to Windsor and were married over again, and are now enjoying their second honeymoon at the home of the bride's brother, Howard Fisk. Thus, all is well that ends well.

The total increase of valuation in Washtenaw county this year amounts to $530,240 which places the county's valuation at $34,303,013. Of this increase the city of Ann Arbor furnishes the lion's share, $2,747,148, while the remainder of the county gives $2,558,092. There is an increase of valuation in every township of the county with the single exception of Sharon. This showing under the new tax law is considered very satisfactory.

Another course of entertainments similar to that of last winter has been arranged for the coming season. It was found to be impossible to get a return date of the Park Sisters who received the largest number of votes as the most popular entertainers, as two of them have been married since the season closed and the company has disbanded. There will, however, be six concerts with even better talent than the Park Sisters. Lovett's Boston Stars, who were the second choice in the voting, will have a place in the course.

A poultry fancier, seeing a storm approaching, ordered his newly hired man "to get the coach in." A few minutes afterward the man returned, very red in the face and perspiring very freely. "Faith, and sure, sir, its a sorry job that ye give me; I was after catching him several times, but the burrid is not aisy caught at all. I run him under the corn house, an' I think, sir, he will stay there until after the storm." "Stupid dunce. I mean get the carriage in." Rev. G. B. Marsh was returning home from Waterloo Monday morning when his team of ponies got frightened at a passing railroad train and proceeded to mix things up at a lively rate. In the course of their runaway efforts they attempted to pass between two telephone poles with the buggy, in which was Mr. Marsh. The result was the buggy was badly smashed and Mr. Marsh was thrown out. Luckily he missed striking the poles, but received some bruises which stiffened him up considerably. He walked to Chelsea and sent a dray to bring in the buggy. The ponies were not hurt any.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty, of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin was slowly changing color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was yellow jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 50 cents. Sold by Stimson, the druggist.

Democratic Convention Nominates Bryan and Stevenson.

Imperialism Is Pronounced by the Platform to Be the Paramount Issue—Silver Coinage at Ratio of 16 to 1 Favored.

Kansas City, July 8.—The democratic national ticket was completed Friday by the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president. The nomination was made on the first ballot, state after state joining in the wild scramble to record their support of the winning candidate. It was not accompanied by any such frantic demonstration of approval as had marked the proceedings at previous stages, although the result followed a spirited and at times highly dramatic contest between the advocates of Stevenson, Towne, Hill and the lesser candidates.

The platform declares imperialism to be the paramount issue of the campaign; opposes militarism; is strongly anti-trust in its declarations; favors silver coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1; condemns the Dingley tariff law; denounces the currency bill enacted at the last session of congress; favors election of United States senators by popular vote; favors direct legislation; opposes government by injunction; recommends creation of a department of labor in charge of a secretary, with a seat in the cabinet; favors liberal pensions; urges immediate construction and government ownership and control of the Nicaraguan canal; condemns the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as a surrender of American rights and interests; favors statehood for Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma, and home rule and a territorial form of government for Alaska and Porto Rico; declares against entangling alliances with foreign powers; expresses sympathy for the Boers, and urges repeal of war taxes.

The silver republican convention nominated Bryan as its candidate for president. After a conference with a committee of democrats and one of populists, it was decided to refer the selection of a candidate for vice president to the party's national committee. This body met later and endorsed Stevenson. The populists have not yet decided, still insisting that Towne should be the candidate.

THE FIRST DAY.

Permanent Organization and Appointment of Committees.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—Amid scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm befitting such an event and such a day, the democratic national convention began its sessions Wednesday. At exactly 12:02 Chairman Jones ascended the platform and called the body to order. The first business of the convention was the reading of the formal call, by Secretary Walsh. Chairman Jones announced the prayer by Rev. S. W. Neel. Following the prayer came an address of welcome by Mayor Reed, of Kansas City. Miss Fulton, of New York, was introduced and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience standing and cheering and applauding after each verse. It was an innovation in a national convention. Then, as she finished the last strain, the band took up "America," and led by Miss Fulton, the great mass of 20,000 people broke into the stirring words: "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," singing it through with unison and closing it with a cheer.

An Ovation to Hill.

Then, suddenly, somebody started the cry for "Hill," "Hill." In an instant Maryland, Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi and New Mexico were on their feet waving their standards and yelling "Hill," "Dave Hill."

The pounding of the chairman's gavel had no effect and for a time it looked like a concerted movement to stampede for the New Yorker. As delegation after delegation rose in their seats and the chairman's gavel fell, Mr. Hill was compelled to rise and bow.

The call of states now began, for naming the members of the various committees. This was a tedious work, covering all the caucus selections of the several states and territories.

Adjournment was taken until afternoon.

The convention, at 4:50 o'clock, having no business to transact, because of the failure of the committee to be ready to report, took a recess until 8:30 p. m.

The Night Session.

At 8:33, Chairman Thomas rapped the convention to order, although considerable less than two-thirds of the delegates had arrived. There was considerable expectancy over the arrival of Senator Hill, but he failed to put in an appearance. Gov. Thomas introduced ex-Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois, who delivered an address. The speaker unwittingly touched off a mine by using the expression in discussing the attitude of certain democrats toward the silver question: "Now, my friend, Hill." That was as far as he got, for several minutes. The name of Hill again started the uproar that had marked the first session of the convention. The demonstration lasted for many minutes.

Permanent Organization.

The report of the committee on rules and credentials was read and adopted. Chairman Thomas then called for the report of the committee on permanent organization. When it was announced that Hon. J. D. Richardson, of Tennessee, had been selected as permanent chairman, cheers swept over the great audience. Upon Mr. Richardson's introduction to the audience, he was greeted by another wave of cheers.

In his remarks Mr. Richardson said that the republican party stands for empire. The democratic party stands for the republic, for the declaration of independence, and the constitution of our country. He denounced trusts. His arraignment of the failure of the republican party to establish bimetalism and the creation instead of a single gold standard was received with manifestations of hearty approval. He decried President McKinley and his secretary of state had done all in their power to nullify and abrogate the Monroe doctrine, and said democracy stood for this doctrine and demands its rigid enforcement. The policy of the administration with reference to Porto Rico and the Philippines was denounced as equivocating and cowardly, and he declared the present administration to be incompetent to deal with these questions. The administration he also bitterly arraigned for the war scandals and the Cuban postal scandals. The speaker accused the republican party leaders of forming secret and entangling alliances of the most detestable character with England, and denounced the failure to repeal or reduce war taxes on articles of prime necessity.

A Wild Scene.

His mention of the name of W. J. Bryan brought the convention to its feet in a frenzy of enthusiasm. Delegates sprang upon their chairs, waving hats, handkerchiefs and umbrellas in the wildest fashion. By a common impulse, the poles bearing the names of the states were torn up and thrust into the air. Then down the aisles toward the speaker's desk came groups of delegates surrounding one man who held the name of the state aloft. Texas and New York became engaged in a rivalry as to which should hold the name of the state highest in the air.

Precisely 20 minutes after Chairman Richardson had mentioned the name of Bryan, which, like the waving of a magic wand, had conjured up a scene of such wonderful enthusiasm as has seldom been witnessed in a political convention, he began to rap for order; but the delegates were not yet ready to yield the floor even to the chairman of the convention. The band in the gallery started a patriotic air, and despite the continuous efforts of Chairman Richardson to restore order the demonstration continued for 9½ minutes longer, its total length being 29½ minutes.

Order was then sufficiently restored to enable the chairman to recognize Delegate J. G. Johnson, of Kansas, who made a motion that the convention adjourn until 10:30 a. m. Thursday. At 10:34 the chairman declared the convention adjourned.

THE SECOND DAY.

Platform Adopted and Bryan Nominated Amid Great Enthusiasm.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—Convention hall was again besieged Thursday by eager and excited thousands and long before the time set for opening the second day's proceedings of the convention, all of the streets approaching the building were solidly massed with humanity, moving forward to the many entrances. In calling the convention to order for the morning session Chairman Richardson announced that the platform committee was not ready to report, and pending word from them he invited to the platform ex-Gov. Hogg, of Texas, to address the convention. The Texan's address created unbounded enthusiasm. Stirring addresses were also made by Hon. A. M. Dockery, of Missouri; Mayor Rose, of Milwaukee; Congressman Williams, of Illinois, and Hon. J. W. Miles, of Maryland.

Chairman Richardson announced that he had been informed the platform committee would be ready to report at 3:30. Thereupon a motion was agreed to adjourn until that hour, and the vast audience filed out of the building amid enthusiastic shouts for the favorite leaders and the enlivening music of the orchestra.

Senator Jones presented the platform. The document was read by Senator Tillman. When Senator Tillman reached the point declaring imperialism the paramount issue in this campaign, the delegates mounted their chairs and cheered wildly.

Great Enthusiasm.

Senator Tillman was requested to repeat the imperialism plank, and again the demonstration was great. Delegates mounted their chairs, waved hats, umbrellas and flags. The whole convention hall was a mass of waving flags. The band began playing and the demonstration increased in intensity. The state standards were pulled up and carried to the platform.

Fine Flag Display.

No such flag display was ever seen in a convention. The flags bore this inscription:

"The constitution and the flag, one and inseparable, now and forever. The flag of the republic forever, of an empire never."

Again and again the demonstration was renewed. The band played "A Hot Time," and the convention sang "While the state standards were carried about the hall. A Boer flag was carried to the platform and waved amid great enthusiasm. The band played "America," and the whole vast audience sang it, marking time with the flags.

Senator Tillman stood surveying the storm and awaiting an opportunity to proceed. The chairman pounded his gavel and appealed for order. But the march of the delegates, bearing their standards and banners, ran on uninterruptedly for 22 minutes.

Another Outbreak.

When the senator reached the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, with the declaration for free silver coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1, pandemonium again broke loose. But the demonstration was faint in comparison to what had just occurred when imperialism was announced as the "paramount issue." Many of the delegates stood on their chairs and waved flags and cheered, but a very considerable number—more than half—held their seats. Senator Hill was among those who maintained quiet, while Mr. Croker waved a flag until it broke, and George Fred Williams led the Massachusetts contingent in salvos of cheers. One of the New York delegates raised a standard bearing the inscription: "Don't think there are no 16 to 1ers in New York." The demonstration lasted 4½ minutes.

Platform Adopted.

The reading of the platform was concluded and adopted by acclamation.

Roll of States Called.

The chairman then said:

"The next business before the convention is the nomination of a candidate for the presidency of the United States. The secretary will call the roll of states. Before doing so, the secretary read the names of the members of the committee appointed by the chair to confer with the silver republicans and populists in accordance with the resolution introduced by George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, at the morning session. They are: George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts; J. G. Berry, Arkansas; W. H. Thompson,

Nebraska; Charles Thomas, Colorado; J. S. Rose, Wisconsin; Thomas H. Martin, Virginia; J. O. McGuire, California; B. R. Tillman, South Carolina; Carter H. Harrison, Illinois.

Bryan's Name Presented.

Alabama was called for nominations, but yielded to Nebraska. W. D. Oldham, of Nebraska, who was to present the name of Mr. Bryan to the convention, was waiting by the chairman's desk, and as the chairman of the Alabama delegation resumed his seat, he came forward, and in a few graceful words expressed his appreciation of the favor extended by Alabama in surrendering its time to the state of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Oldham in an eloquent address presented the name of William Jennings Bryan as a candidate for the presidency.

This was the signal for the demonstration of the day, and in a common purpose of enthusiastic devotion to the party leader. A huge oil portrait of Bryan, measuring 15 feet across, was brought down the main aisle before the delegates. At the same time the standards of the state delegations were torn from their sockets and waved on high, while umbrellas of red, white and blue, silk banners of the several states and many handsome and unique transparencies were borne about the building amid the deafening clamor of 20,000 yelling, gesticulating men and women. All of the intensity of former demonstrations, and much more, was added to this final tribute to the leader.

When the demonstration had spent itself the speeches seconding the nomination of Mr. Bryan were in order. Senator White spoke for California, giving the tribute of the Pacific coast to the Nebraska candidate.

Seconded by Hill.

When Colorado was reached that state yielded to Senator Hill, of New York. The audience had anxiously awaited the appearance of the distinguished New Yorker, and as he took the platform he was accorded a splendid reception, the entire audience rising and cheering wildly, with the single exception of the little group of Tammany leaders, who sat silent throughout the cheers for their New York associate. Mr. Hill was in fine voice, and his tribute to the Nebraskan touched a sympathetic chord in the hearts of the audience. He pictured Bryan as the champion of the plain people and of the workman, strong with the masses, with the farmer and with the artisan. When Hill declared, with dramatic emphasis that the candidate would have the support of his party—a united party—there was tremendous applause and the suggestion of democratic unity. Aside from the brilliant eulogy of Bryan, the speech of the New

ADLAI E. STEVENSON.

York leader was chiefly significant and attractive in its strong plea for unity. "It is time for unity, not for division," he exclaimed, to the rapturous approval of the great multitude facing him.

Mr. Bryan's nomination was seconded by Perkins, of Texas; Lomax, of Alabama; Moore, of North Carolina; Daniel, of Virginia; Overmeyer, of Kansas, and many others.

Hawaii, through its native delegate, John H. Wise, made its first seconding speech in a democratic national convention, and finally a sweet-voiced and pleasant-faced woman alternate from Utah seconded the nomination of Mr. Bryan in behalf of the state of Utah.

Bryan Nominated.

After the call of states was completed the secretary began to call the roll on the ballot for the presidential nomination. As the roll call proceeded the shouts of approval of the unanimity of the vote seemed to increase. All of the large states were cheered heartily as one after another they cast their votes for Mr. Bryan. The list of states and territories was completed with the calling of the territory of Hawaii. The announcement by Chairman Richardson that Mr. Bryan had been nominated for president of the United States unanimously was received with great applause.

After the nomination of Bryan the convention adjourned until 10:15 to nominate the candidate for vice president. There was a fear of lighting the convention hall when it was packed with people.

THE THIRD DAY.

Stevenson Nominated for Vice President—Convention Adjourns.

Kansas City, July 7.—The final meeting of the democratic national convention was attended by an enormous crowd.

Stevenson and Towne Named.

At 10:45 Chairman Richardson advanced to the front of the platform, a great bouquet of sweet peas in his hand, and with a sweep of the gavel cut off the strains of the band, slowly stilled the confusion and brought the convention to order for its third day's work.

After the prayer the call of states began for the purpose of making nominations for the vice presidency. Great confusion prevailed and very few of the delegates were aware of what was going on until Alabama and Arkansas had been passed, and California was called. Then the doughty form and florid face of Senator White emerged from the Californians, and in stentorian tones he demanded to know what was going on and that the aisles be cleared of the disorderly intruders. When the chairman responded that California was being called for nominations, Senator White announced that California yielded to Arkansas.

"And Arkansas yields to Illinois, to place in nomination Adlai Stevenson, of Illinois," shouted Jeff Davis, the democratic candidate for governor of Arkansas, standing on a chair and receiving a cheer for his nomination of Stevenson.

Now all business was suspended, as the confusion had become so overpowering that the call of the secretaries was inaudible above the roar. The police and sergeants-at-arms struggled vainly to control the mob which was now well-nigh in control of the floor. Men fought to retain their places, and there were many exciting encounters, which at times threatened to precipitate a fight under the eyes of the multitude. It took 15 minutes to restore some semblance of order, and then the spokesman for Illinois, Representative James Williams, presented the name of Stevenson.

Stevenson's name was received with cheers.

Confidently yielded to Minnesota and Mr. Roosevelt nominated Towne.

There was considerable cheering for Towne among the spectators, but Minnesota was the only state that joined in the demonstration save one delegate here and there. The cheering was kept up for a little while, but it was evident that Towne's friends were in the galleries.

Spring's Name.

Meantime attention was being directed to an excited group, massed in front of the New York section with Hill as the vortex of a struggling throng of delegates. They pressed forward from all quarters of the hall, urging him to permit his name to be placed before the convention. The face of the New Yorker was a study as the demands upon him came from all sides. He sat in the front row of delegates, with ex-Senator Murphy on his right and Judge Van Wyck on his immediate left. A second seat away was Mr. Croker. Hill protested vociferously. Judge Van Wyck said he could not refuse. Murphy and Croker pleaded with him to obey the will of the convention and accept. While the pleadings continued the call of Delaware was heard above the roar, and Delaware yielded her place to New York. At this the bulky form of Senator Grady, the silver-tongued orator of New York, pushed through the densely-packed aisles up to the platform. There was a hush through the hall to hear what word New York had to offer.

"In behalf of the united democracy of New York," shouted Grady, "I present as a candidate for vice president the name of David Bennett Hill."

A Great Scene.

The effect was electrical and a tidal wave of enthusiastic approval swept over the convention. Delegates stood on their chairs and waved frantically, not in a few scattering groups, but in solid phalanxes. Flags and standards were again mingled in triumphant procession while a roar as from Niagara pulsed through the great structure. Grady stood there proudly waiting for the storm to subside. But as he waited the audience observed a strange pantomime. They saw Hill leave the New York delegation and push through the throng up to the platform. They could hear him appeal to Grady to withdraw, while Grady's answer was apparent from the shake of his head and his advance to the front of the platform to continue his nominating speech. When the demonstration had subsided Grady completed his speech placing Hill before the convention.

Hill Protests.

But as he stepped from the platform the man who had just been placed in nomination took his place. The senator looked out sternly, even savagely, on the shouting thousands. When he could be heard he made due acknowledgment of the honor done him. "But I cannot, I must not, be the nominee of this convention," he declared, with explosive emphasis. He was frequently interrupted with enthusiastic shouts of approval, but when he left the platform the delegates were firmly convinced from his words and manner that he was sincerely desirous of having his name withheld. It is probably this alone which prevented a nomination by acclamation then and there, for the tempestuous spirit manifested showed that the convention was on the point of being carried off its feet.

Bryan Opposes Hill.

When Hill's name was sprung Mr. Bryan was heard from and he made a vigorous protest to some of the leaders. He favored Towne.

Stevenson Stock Rises.

It was soon apparent that, with Hill out, Stevenson was a strong favorite. State after state seconded his nomination—Georgia, Indiana, Virginia, Iowa, Kentucky, Illinois. Some of the devoted friends of Hill still maintained their allegiance to him, and the delegations of New Jersey, Louisiana and some others seconded his nomination.

Other Names Presented.

A number of favorite sons also were placed in nomination, Maryland bringing forward Gov. John Walter Smith; Washington naming James Hamilton Lewis; North Carolina nominating Col. Julian Carr, and Ohio presenting the name of A. W. Pack. It was after two o'clock when the seconding speeches, many of them wearisome, were concluded and the balloting began. As the roll was about to be called Mr. Lewis appeared on the platform and in a few well-chosen words withdrew from the contest.

The Balloting.

The vote was followed with intense interest, for when Alabama announced three for Stevenson and 19 for Hill it looked as though a close and exciting contest was to occur. But it was soon evident that Stevenson had a strong lead. At the close of the call he had 559½ votes, while, however, was not enough to nominate, the requisite two-thirds being 624. Hill had received 200 votes and Towne 89½. But before the announcement of the result a strong-lunged delegate from Tennessee stood on his chair and announced: "Tennessee changes her 24 votes from Hill to Stevenson."

Stevenson Nominated.

That started the tide irresistibly toward Stevenson. From every quarter of the hall came demands for recognition. Alabama changed to Stevenson; California did the same. North Carolina changed from Carr to Stevenson. Even New York finally and reluctantly announced its change from Hill to Stevenson. That ended it. Stevenson's nomination was assured, although for some time longer the various states continued to record their changes from Towne and other candidates to Stevenson. In the end the nomination was made unanimous. Its announcement was greeted with enthusiastic approval, and again the state standards and banners were borne about the building in tribute to the party nominee.

The usual formal resolutions of thanks to Kansas City and to the officers of the convention were adopted amid the greatest confusion and then, at 3:21, on motion of Chairman Jones, the national democratic convention of 1900 adjourned.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Senator Jones Unanimously Re-elected Chairman.

Kansas City, July 7.—The national committee of the democratic party met at the Kansas City club after the adjournment of the convention, and immediately organized. Senator Jones, who was not a member of the committee, remained outside until the preliminaries were over. Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, who has been mentioned as a possible chairman, and he received the unanimous vote. The matter of selecting the executive committee was left to Chairman Jones, who had time for consideration. It is understood that many of the members of the last committee will be chosen. A committee consisting of Tillman, of South Carolina; Johnson, of Indiana; Williams, of Massachusetts; Osborne, of Wyoming, and Wilson, of Idaho, was appointed to confer with representatives of the populist and silver republican parties as to the best plan of campaign.

SILVER REPUBLICANS.

Nominate William J. Bryan for President by Acclamation—Their Platform.

Kansas City, Mo., July 8.—The national convention of the national silver republican party met in the auditorium Wednesday. The delegates were slow in arriving, and it was some time after the hour fixed for the convention, when Chairman Charles A. Towne's gavel fell and the party formed in St. Louis four years ago, after the bolt of the advocates of free silver from the republican national convention was launched on its first regular national gathering. Twenty-five states were represented at the convention. After the reading of the call for the convention and the declaration of independence, Temporary Chairman Towne introduced Dr. Howard S. Taylor, of Chicago, a poet of the new political movement, who read the poem entitled "The Liberty Bell." Mr. Towne then delivered an address.

Senator Teller was introduced as chairman of the convention, and made an eloquent address, dealing with the monetary question and bitterly denouncing the establishment of silver. The mention of Mr. Bryan's name by Senator Teller created a perfect storm of applause, but the demonstration was excelled by that which occurred when Charles A. Towne's name was mentioned.

E. S. Coffey, of Minnesota, presented a resolution, providing for a committee of 15, of which Henry M. Teller shall be chairman, to present to the democratic national convention the name of Charles A. Towne as a candidate for vice president.

The various state delegations announced their selections for members of the convention committees, and pending their organization and reports, the convention adjourned until ten o'clock Thursday morning.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—The silver republican national convention spent all of Thursday in waiting for the report of the committee on resolutions. It was expected that the platform would be out of the way and nominations be in order at least before the close of the afternoon session, but so much friction developed in the subcommittee to which the drafting of a platform had been referred, that it was not until late Thursday afternoon that the formal enunciation of the party's principles was in readiness to be presented to the full committee. Once the disputed points had been settled, however, the committee on resolutions lost no further time, but promptly voted its approval of the subcommittee's work. The main points of difference lay in the attitude of the party on expansion, and on this point both the subcommittee and the full committee were divided practically on geographical lines, the eastern members favoring condemnation of imperialism, while most of the members from the western states opposed this course.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—After a long and exciting debate, during which it looked several times as if Charles A. Towne would be nominated for vice president in spite of his protest against such action, the national convention of the silver republican party adjourned sine die without making a nomination, the whole matter being referred to the national committee with power to act. W. J. Bryan was made the unanimous choice of the convention for president during the morning session, and it was the intention to complete the ticket in the afternoon by the nomination of former Congressman Towne. The action of the democratic convention, however, in placing Adlai E. Stevenson in nomination took the delegates off their feet, but most of them asserted their determination to nominate Mr. Towne notwithstanding. For two hours Senator Teller, former Congressman Shafroth, of Colorado, and Cheadle, of Indiana, and others made speeches in favor of endorsing the democratic ticket, but it was not until Towne himself appeared and appealed to the convention not to nominate him, but to concentrate their forces, that the delegates calmed down, and the vice presidential nomination was referred to the national committee.

A meeting of the silver republican national committee was held immediately after the close of the conference, and at the end of a brief discussion, it was voted unanimously to place Adlai E. Stevenson in nomination for vice president and to cooperate in every way with the democratic party for the success of the ticket.

The populist committee has reached no decision.

Platform of Silver Republicans.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Following is a synopsis of the platform adopted by the national silver republican convention: The opening sentences recognize the principles set forth in the declaration of American independence as fundamental and everlastingly true in their application to governments among men. Washington's farewell address, Jefferson's wise statesmanship and Lincoln's patriotism and broad philanthropy are enunciated and emphasized. The principle of bimetalism is declared to be the right basis of monetary system. The currency law is criticized because destroying the full money power of the silver dollar and fixing the gold standard on the country. The party pledges itself to seek its repeal. The platform favors an income tax, election of senators by direct vote of people, and the maintenance and extension of the merit system.

Combinations, trusts and monopolies are denounced as unjust, unlawful and oppressive and laws are demanded for their destruction. The Monroe doctrine is reiterated and adherence demanded therefor. Ownership of lands by aliens is denounced. Principles of direct legislation are favored. Liberal pensions recommended for favored soldiers, their widows and orphans, but the present administration of the pension laws is condemned.

Sympathy is extended to the South African republics. Porto Rican tariff bill is denounced and imperialism entirely opposed to our republican form of government. Demand for repeal of war revenue law. Admission to the union of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma as states is favored. Demand made that promises made to Cuba be fulfilled in every particular. Government aid is urged in reclaiming the arid lands of the country. A sentiment is expressed in favor of the public ownership and operation of public utilities. Peace is declared to be the virtue of civilization and war is its crime. The expansion of our commerce in the interests of American labor is favored and the importation of Asiatic laborers in competition with American labor is denounced. The platform in closing says:

"The silver republican party of the United States in the foregoing principles seeks to perpetuate the spirit and to adhere to the teachings of Abraham Lincoln."

Lynched.

Albany, Ga., July 7.—John Roe, a 44-year-old negro, was lynched near Columbia, Ala., for an attempted assault. His body was shot to pieces.

TAKE A BRAVE STAND
Legation Guards in Peking Are Fighting Desperately.
It is Reported That the Legations Were Safe on July 4.
London, July 9.—The foreign consuls at Shanghai met on July 7 and officially announced that the legations at Peking were safe on July 4. The foregoing statement, read with Consul Warren's dispatch to the foreign office on Saturday, makes it possible to believe that the legations will hold out for a number of days yet. Having fought to a standstill the first outburst of fanaticism, it is believed that something will intervene to save them. The news, however, the sinister rumors of the last few days, is enough upon which to build up hopes.
Situation at Tientsin.
Tientsin is still hard pressed. A Chinese force numbering from 80,000 to 100,000 men, as estimated by inconclusive reconnaissances, floods the country aroundabout Tientsin, communication between which place and Taku is apparently possible by river only.
Refugees from Tientsin arriving at Shanghai say that only five civilian foreigners were killed during the long Chinese bombardment. The foreign men became so indifferent that they walked through the streets, not heeding the shells. Most of the civilians were deported to Taku, thence to be conveyed to Shanghai.
Reports a Great Battle.
The correspondents at Shanghai, who are still the clearing house of all Chinese news, say that a combined force of Russians and Japanese have taken Tientsin, following the railway far as Lang Fang, and have thence swept swiftly to the west, attacking the Chinese 18 miles north of Tientsin and killing 1,000 of them.
The Shanghai correspondent of the standard says reports from Tientsin Chinese sources say a great battle has taken place, in which the Chinese lost heavily. The allies at Tientsin are short of provisions.
The Daily Mail's Tientsin correspondent, in a dispatch dated July 2, Chefoo, July 4, says: "No forward movement is possible with less than 600 men."
President to Li Hung Chang.
The Daily Telegraph's Canton correspondent, wiring Friday, via Hongkong, Saturday, says:
Li Hung Chang was formally notified that President McKinley cordially appreciates his assurances of friendship for the allied powers. Now that they control the capital, President McKinley trusts to the responsible provincial authorities to carry out the international obligations of the Chinese government.
Seeks Our Help.
The Times says:
We learn from a private message from London that Li Hung Chang has telegraphed direct to the Chinese minister at London, urging him to request the British government to approach the Japanese government with a view to the maintenance of the Chinese empire and the establishment of a strong government on a solid basis, the three nations uniting in an appeal for the support of all the other powers.
Legation Guards Kill 2,000.
London, July 9.—The foreign office issued the text of a telegram from Consul Warren, at Shanghai, affirming from thoroughly trustworthy sources the news received by the legations from Peking July 3, by way of Shanghai, to the London office of the protectorate of Chinese maritime customs, saying that two legations were, by the courier left, holding out against the troops and Boxers, and that the troops had lost 2,000 men and Boxers many leaders. Mr. Warren adds that the messenger says the troops were much disheartened by losses, and that the Boxers claim mystic powers have been broken by the foreigners, and that they dare approach the legations. It is further asserted that the foreigners at Peking ought to be able to hold out for some time, as they have sufficient food and ammunition.
More Hopeful Feeling.
Washington, July 9.—A slightly more hopeful feeling for the safety of the legations in Peking is apparent in official circles. The hope is not based on any official dispatches which have reached the state department, as nothing was received during the day from the consular representatives of the United States in China. Cumulative statements, however, which are daily printed from various sources of the empire reporting the movements of the troops and the German minister as safe up to a certain specified time, together with the absence of any corroborative evidence of their murder, is partially responsible for the slight hope which prevails that they (the ministers) are alive. The statements purporting to come from Sir Robert Hart, the Chinese inspector of customs, regarded as the best information which has been received. While showing that conditions were desperate, the dispatches have not been entirely without hope.

CREDIT SHE DIDN'T SEEK.
Embarrassing Position of an Absent-Minded Woman Who Had Made a Mistake.
A lady who keeps a summer boarding-house at the seashore near Boston went down the other day to look the house over and find out what must be renewed. She found numerous umbrellas left by former boarders, says the Boston Transcript, and tying them together, she took the bundle to Boston to have them repaired. She stopped in at Hovey's and laid the bundle on the floor at her feet at the counter. When she had made her purchase, she forgot her umbrellas, and absent-mindedly picked up an umbrella lying on the counter, thinking it was hers, or not thinking at all, and started off.
Then the owner of the umbrella, a woman standing next her, seized her and said very sharply: "You have taken my umbrella!" Of course she apologized, feeling much cut up about it, and went on forgetting in her fluster her own bundle of umbrellas. The next day, on her way to Cambridge, she went to Hovey's and readily recovered her lost package of umbrellas, which had been kept for her. On the car for Cambridge she noticed a lady eyeing her very closely. Presently this lady leaned forward and said to her, with elegant emphasis:
"You seem to have been more fortunate to-day!"
It was the lady whose umbrella she had taken the day before.
CHOATE AND THE BABY.
The American Ambassador's Nail Head Wit in an Address in England.
Lately, at the opening of a free library at Acton, England, Hon. Joseph H. Choate, the American ambassador to Great Britain, delivered an address, and caused much laughter by his impromptu references to a baby who persisted in distracting the attention of the audience by making its voice heard at the most inconvenient moments, says the San Francisco Argonaut. The first interruption occurred early in the speech. Mr. Choate was saying: "There is a special provision for children in your library, and I think when men come to make a choice of a residence in Acton they will not forget that fact." Here the baby screamed in such a manner as to drown the words of the speaker. There was some disturbance, but Mr. Choate said: "Don't be disturbed by the baby. Nobody knows better than my Lord Bishop that out of the mouths of babes and sucklings cometh wisdom." Things went fairly well after this, the baby appearing to be flattered by the reference, until Mr. Choate was saying: "There is a book with which all of you—Here the baby wailed loudly. "Except, possibly, the baby—are familiar," the ambassador went on, "it is Ecclesiastes, and it says that of the making of books there is no end."
Japan Anxious.
Japan has become alarmed over the emigration of many of her residents to this country. It is stated that they are lured here by misrepresentation and then turned adrift. This is like the misrepresentations which delude people into believing that any other medicine is equal to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for stomach disorders. In the Bitters lies safety and surety. It is worth its weight in gold in all cases of indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, malaria, fever and ague.

For ten years I tried scores of doctors, electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, in fact, contemplating suicide, when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured seven years ago—am married and happy. I heartily recommend Drs. K. & K. to my afflicted fellow men."
