DEATH OF THOMAS JEWETT.

A Well Known and Respected Citizen of Lima Has Passed Away.

Thomas Jewett, one of the earliest settlers of Lima township, died Tuesday. on the farm which has been his home since he first settled on it in 1844, aged 82 years, 1 month and 5 days. Twenty-five years ago Mr. Jewett had a serious illness and had never been really strong since that time, and during the past three years he had failed rapidly.

Mr. Jewett was born in New Hampshire, July 28, 1818. He was a carriage maker by trade, having learned the business from his father Eleazer Jewett. He followed the business until 1844, when he came to Lima and settled on 120 acres of land in section 30, which was his home all through the rest of his life.

Feb. 1, 1842, he married Miss Jane B. Clark, also a native of New Hampshire, who although nearly seven years his senior still survives him. Three children were born of this union, two of whom, Mrs. Thomas Fletcher and Mrs. John F. Waltrous, are still alive.

The funeral services were held at his late home this afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. C. S. Jones. The remains were interred in the Vermont cemetery.

HAD HIS SKULL CRUSHED.

A Grandson of Hiram Pierce Injured in an Altercation Over Some Melons.

John Guthrie, a young man 20 years of age, a grandson of Hiram Pierce, of Sylvan, living in Brady township, Kalamazoo county, got into an altercation Friday with another young man named Walter Huntington, about a melon patch. During the argument Huntington threw a stone or brick at Guthrie which struck him square in the forehead, crushing his skull into the brain. Physicians trephined the skull and took out five pieces of bone. Latest advices to Mr. Pierce's family are that the young man will recover if no bad symptoms set in.

The State as a Landowner.

In his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30, Land Commissioner French gives the amount of lands held by the state as follows: Primary school lands, 155,980.82 acres; university, 40 acres; agricultural college, 62,528.29 acres; salt spring, 280 acres; asylum lands, 1,122.98 acres; swamp lands, 81,648.58 acres; total, 587,045.77 acres.

During the year the land office has sold 13,340.71 acres of agricultural college lands for $87,743.78; 16,760 acres of primary school lands for $36,238.48; 14,581.40 acres of swamp lands for $20,142.81; 40 acres of salt spring lands for $160; 80 acres of asylum lands for $320; and has patented 2,489.18 acres of homestead lands, the total number of acres disposed of being 47,211.22, for which $144,535.07 will be received. During the year 897 acres of land have been forfeited to the state.

The Whitneys.

The original and only Whitney show will be seen in Chelsea on Monday next, Sept. 3, afternoon and evening. It makes the claim of being the oldest and best one ring circus in America and the ideal show. The program presented on their bills is a good one, replete with new faces, new feats and new sensations. Among the list of performers are The Brobet Trio, Zoro, the human frog, Whitney and Jerkinson in a revolving ladder act, Herman, the serpentine wonder, George and Esther Irving, monarchs of the air, Will and Lula Walbourne, living statuary exponents, Leon Whitney, comedian, Neola, the world's premier juggler, etc. A fine band accompanies the show. The admission is 25 cents, children over 5 and under 10 years 15 cents.

County Maccabees' Picnic.

The first picnic of the Washtenaw County Maccabee Association was held at Whitmore Lake last Thursday. More than 3,000 knights and ladies were in attendance. The association represents 16 tents and 10 hives, most of which were represented. In the afternoon addresses were made by Hon. Devere Hall, of Bay City; Noble Ashley, district deputy, of Detroit; and Mrs. Adelaide Hughes, of Mecosta. A number of members of both orders from Chelsea were present.

Intestinal infection, appendicitis and all affections of the bowels, liver and kidneys prevented by taking genuine Rocky Mountain Tea, made by Madison Medicine Co. Ask your druggist.

REMOVED THE SPINAL CORD

Of the Late Joseph Tuttle for Use in the Pasteur Treatment.

A post mortem examination of the remains of Joseph Tuttle, of Ypsilanti, who died Friday morning from hydrophobia, was held by Dr. V. C. Vaughan, dean of the medical college at the U. of M. The spinal cord of the deceased gentleman was removed for the direct purpose of affording a prevention of any future deaths from hydrophobia which may develop, by treating the victims of rabid dog bites by the Pasteur method.

The seat of the disease in a person or animal infected with hydrophobia is in the spinal cord. The theory of the Pasteur treatment is to inject the virus obtained from animals inoculated with the poison obtained from this spinal cord into the veins of a person who is known to have been bitten by a mad dog in gradually increasing quantities until such time as the hydrophobia would ordinarily develop, and by this means make his system able to withstand the attack, then the bite is not fatal.

K. P.s at Detroit.

The meeting of the supreme grand lodge Knights of Pythias in Detroit this week has been an occasion long to be remembered by the members of the order in Michigan. In the grand parade Tuesday there were 10,000 uniformed men in line, the largest number from one state being from Ohio—2,200 men. It was a grand sight and was witnessed by 150,000 people.

Milan Lodge, of Milan, this county, had the unique distinction of having the tallest and shortest members in line. William J. Sissem stands 6 feet 5 inches high, weighs 289 pounds, and is 32 years old; Elmer J. Beverly is 40 inches high, weighs 70 pounds, and is 30 years old.

The total Pythian membership in the world is 513,000, an increase of 42,207 in the past two years. The cost for maintenance during that time has been $63,992. The endowment order membership is 64,516, carrying $113,840,000 of insurance. The uniformed rank has 55,000, an increase of 2,000 in the past two years. The Knights of Khorassan number 9,827. The Rathbone Sisters, the ladies' organization, numbers 63,000, 41,000 ladies and 22,000 men.

Ann Arbor Races.

Commencing with Tuesday of next week and continuing until Friday the Ann Arbor Driving club will hold the biggest race meeting that has been held in Washtenaw county in years. The half mile track on the fair ground has been fitted up in such fine shape that Ode Russ, the veteran horseman, says it is the best half mile track in Michigan.

The purses to be hung up aggregate $8,200, and up to Tuesday night 38 horses had put in an appearance to compete for them. Last night the number of entries made were 90, with prospects of still more coming in.

A new grand stand to accommodate 1,000 people is being erected east of the present grand stand and will be ready for use Tuesday.

From the interest being taken in the coming races the meet bids fair to be a big one.

KIDNEY TROUBLES OF WOMEN

Miss Frederick's Letters Show How She Relied on Mrs. Pinkham and Was Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have a yellow, muddy complexion, feel tired and have bearing down pains. Menstruation have not appeared for three months, sometimes am troubled with a white discharge. Also have kidney and bladder trouble.

I have been this way for a long time, and feel so miserable I thought I would write to you and see if you could do me any good."—Miss EDNA FREDERICK, Troy, Ohio, Aug. 6, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound according to directions, and can say I have not felt so well for years as I do at present. Before taking your medicine a more miserable person you never saw. I could not eat or sleep, and did not care to talk with any one. Now I feel so well I cannot be grateful enough to you for what you have done for me."—Miss EDNA FREDERICK, Troy, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1899.

Backache Cured

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to thank you for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. It is the only medicine I have found that helped me. I doctored with one of the best physicians in the city of New York, but received no benefit. I had been ailing for about sixteen years, was so weak and nervous that I could hardly walk; had continued pain in my back and was troubled with leucorrhoea. Menses were irregular and painful. Words cannot express the benefit I have derived from the use of your medicine. I heartily recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARY BARSHINGER, Windsor, Pa.

ARE WELL WORTH SAVING

Verses and Stories That Originate in University of Michigan Will Be Preserved.

WORK OF COLLECTING BEGUN LAST FALL

The Selection of Verses Goes as Far Back as 1844—Book of College Stories—Student from the Hawaiian Islands—Specimens for the Museum Being Mounted.

[Special Correspondence.] University of Michigan, Aug. 27.—An effort is being made to gather together and put in permanent form the literature of the university. Every year verses and stories appear in the college publication which are worthy of preservation. The number of such poems and stories is not large for a single year, to be sure, but in a period of years the number becomes sufficiently great to receive special attention. The work of collecting and publishing the university literature was begun last fall by the Inland Press Publishing company, of Ann Arbor. The first effort was "A Collection of Varsity Verse." This was a choice selection of college rhymes in six little books, which were formed into one volume. The editors were Arthur M. Smith and George R. Baker, two alumni.

Selection of Verses. In selecting the verses a diligent search was made of all the university publications and the records of the literary societies as far back as 1844. Only the best verses were given a place in the volume.

The subjects treated in the six books are Humor, Nature, Love and Sentiment in Sombre Mood, Love and Sentiment in Lighter Vein, College and Campus and Miscellaneous Verse. The printing is in black and red, and the type used is old style.

"The Chimes." Among the verses on College and Campus are some entitled "The Chimes." They are by F. N. Scott, a member of the class of 1884. They treat of the chimes in the library clock tower, which ring each day at 7:27 in the morning and at 5:27 in the afternoon. The verses are:

Jangling bells in high clock tower,
Zig-zag chimes that tippy go,
Ring that crazy tune you know,
For the useless inter hour,
CHORUS. (Imitation of chimes.)
Ting! Tang! Ting! Tang! etc.
Pause—(imitation of half-hour).
Kling! Klang! Kling! Klang!
Winter's gloom and spring-time's glee,
Morning's stir and evening's calm—
Still you sing that same old psalm
In your doleful minor key.
CHORUS.

Bells that quavering rise and fall,
Tuneless bells that strangely chime,
Sweet shall seem your voice some time,
When in dreams we hear you call.
CHORUS.

College Stories. A book of college stories has been published as a companion volume to "Varsity Verse." It contains the best short stories written by students of the university during the last dozen years. Other volumes have been planned, and will be published during the coming year.

Hawaiian Student. The latest student to arrive at Ann Arbor for the college year of 1900-1901 is Alex Lindsley, Jr., of Honolulu, Hawaiian islands. He is a Scotchman by descent, and has been in the islands for 20 years.

For a number of years he lived on the island of Kauai, which is near Honolulu. He and two other gentlemen were the only white persons on the island for four years. He learned the native language almost perfectly.

"In fact, I had rather talk it than English," said he. "It seems more natural, having used it almost entirely for a long period of time. I was appointed official interpreter in Judge Wilder's court in Honolulu."

Mr. Lindsley will enter the law department.

Specimens for Museum. Norman A. Wood, the taxidermist, is completing the mounting of two skins for the museum. One is an American flamingo, and the other is that of the South American edible lizard known as Iguana. This skin was brought to the university more than 20 years ago by Dr. J. B. Steere, when he returned from his trip through South America.

Will Cut Some Ice. S. T. Cummings, of Oxford, has invented and recently perfected an ice-cutting boat, which, he says, will revolutionize the ice industry. The boat is on runners, propelled by a spiked wheel and an engine, which also furnishes power for the ice saws. The advantages of this invention over other attempted steam plows is the fact that, in case of the ice giving way, it will float. There are many other features which, the ice men claim, will make the contrivance a success.

MICHIGAN FIREMEN.

Some Interesting Facts and Figures Presented in a Report Made by the Labor Commissioner.

A canvass of the fire departments of the cities and villages of the state has been completed by Labor Commissioner Cox. Among other things the report says:

Only 44 of the incorporated cities of Michigan have paid departments and employ full time men. There are 794 men so employed, and their aggregate annual salary is $337,066, an average of $82.33 each. Twenty-nine of these cities allow full-time men off, 13.4 days being the average time allowed per year. Sixty-five of the cities employ part-time men. There are 1,592 men so employed, an average of 24.5 per city. Some of these men are paid by the year, others by the hour, some by the fire and some others as occasion requires. In 69 cities property of the aggregate value of $2,217,098 was destroyed during the past year, the average per city being $32,132. Sixty-one cities report that the departments saved property of the aggregate value of $13,713,606, an average of $208,420 per city.

There are 305 incorporated villages in Michigan, but only 158 of them have organized fire departments, and in 151 of these there is simply a volunteer service. Only eight villages employ regular firemen, and these are paid an average salary of $32.20 per month. Fire engines are owned by 157 villages, there being 102 hand engines, 37 chemical and 31 steam engines. A total of 227 villages have fire department property of the aggregate value of $335,553, an average of $1,556.32 per village.

THE RACE PROBLEM.

Michigan Federation of Colored Women Prepare a Memorial Treating of the Factional Riots.

The State Federation of Colored Women in session in Detroit adopted a memorial addressed to President McKinley asking him to favor a bill in congress appropriating $40,000 for the widow of the late Postmaster Baker, of Lake City, S. C., who was killed by a mob of whites. The memorial deprecates race riots, but declared that colored people do not uphold negroes in wrong doing. As a solution of the negro problem the memorial suggested that any state having mob laws and lynchings shall be expelled from the union, giving negro haters a state of their own where black faces would never be seen.

Mrs. Lucy Thurman, of Jackson, president, was reelected, as was Mrs. McCoy, of Detroit, the vice president. Mrs. C. F. Bayliss, of Ann Arbor, was made recording secretary and Mrs. Bishop Smith, of Detroit, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Dealle Barrier, treasurer. Mrs. F. E. Preston lecturer and Mrs. M. R. Tate state organizer.

IS WELL POLICED.

Labor Commissioner Cox Issues an Interesting Report Concerning Michigan Cities and Towns.

Labor Commissioner Cox has issued statistics dealing with the police of cities and villages in Michigan. He says:

There are 78 chartered cities in the state, 54 employing a city marshal and 24 a chief of police. The salaries paid these officers is $668.90 on an average. Fifty-six cities have regular men on the police force numbering 898, the average outside of Detroit, where there are 513 men, being seven to each city. The average daily wages paid are $2.38. Seventy-four cities have deputy sheriffs actively serving as guardians of the peace and 72 cities have the protection of 162 constables. Sixty cities employ 186 night watchmen. Only 12 cities have police matrons.

Out of the 305 villages in the state, 205 have a village marshal. In 53 cities the marshal receives no salary and subsists entirely on fees. The average salary paid village marshals is $148 besides fees. Only 65 villages have police officers besides the marshal, but 233 villages have deputy sheriffs who help maintain order and work for fees. Nearly all the villages have constables, 446 of this class of officials being constantly in service.

STATE POSSESSIONS.

The Commissioner of the Land Office Says That Michigan Still Owns Quite a Tidy Farm.

The forthcoming report of the commissioner of the state land office will say:

The number of acres of land held by the state at the close of the fiscal year, June 30, is over 100,000 acres less than was held one year ago. The total number of acres of land held one year ago was 642,319.53. There were 897.05 acres of part paid land forfeited to the state during the year; 1,067.40 acres of swamp land were forfeited; 9,718.58 acres of tax homestead land reverted to the state, and 1,120 acres of swamp land was patented to the state by the general government, making a total of 565,517.57 acres.

The state sold 44,802.11 acres of land during the year, licensed 2,731.20 acres of swamp land, parted with 42,369.42 acres of homesteaders, and deeded back to the auditor general 28,199.07 acres of land against which certificates of error had been issued. These transactions leave the state the possessor of 537,045.77 acres of land at the end of the fiscal year.

The total amount of money received from the sale of lands during the year was $144,595.07, and the total receipts from all sources was $209,762.51.

After Twenty Years.

The search for her oldest son which Mrs. Frank Jones, of Ionia, has prosecuted for more than 20 years ended the other day when she found him on a farm south of Lansing. Her first husband was James Reardon and the family resided in Macomb county, when he died and left them destitute. She could not support the boy and he was taken by Mr. and Mrs. King, who soon moved away. As soon as she was able Mrs. Jones set about to find her son, but obtained no trace of him until now.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Name a Ticket. The independent people's party of Michigan held its state convention in Saginaw, with a majority of the congressional districts in the state represented. The following ticket was nominated:

Governor, Daniel Thompson, Saginaw county; lieutenant governor, G. F. Cunningham, Grand Haven; state treasurer, Robert Blenhuber, Marquette; auditor, A. M. Malone, Burt; commissioner of land office, J. H. Baker, Bay City; attorney general, Frank P. Montford, Mount Clemens; superintendent of public instruction, G. A. Greenfield, Tuscola county; member state board of education, Daniel C. Wachs, Kent county.

Resolutions were adopted favoring equal taxation, municipal ownership of public utilities, nomination for public offices by popular vote, equal suffrage regardless of sex, and condemn the political policy of offering aid or encouragement to open enemies of the United States.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health from 98 observers in various portions of the state for the week ended August 18 indicate that cholera morbus, inflammation of the kidneys and whooping cough decreased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 183 places, measles at 34, typhoid fever at 94, scarlet fever at 41, diphtheria at 12, whooping cough at 17, cerebro-spinal meningitis at 5 places, and smallpox at Adams, Houghton, Nottawa and Lake Linden.

Michigan Pharmacists.

At the annual convention in Grand Rapids of the Michigan Pharmacists' association the following officers were elected:

President, Charles F. Mann, of Detroit; vice presidents, W. D. Church, of Grand Rapids; N. D. Morrish, Sault Ste. Marie, and R. T. Bower, of Petoskey; secretary, J. W. Seeley, Detroit; treasurer, Walter K. Schmidt, of Grand Rapids; executive committee, E. E. Calkins, of Ann Arbor; W. H. Burke, of Detroit; C. B. Schuman, of Manistee; J. S. Bennett, of Lansing, and D. A. Hagans, of Monroe.

Farmer Was Too Sharp.

Morgan Gulick, of Mount Vernon, was arrested near Oxford while attempting to dispose of $1,000 worth of "green goods" to Egbert Burdick, a well-known farmer, for $200. Gulick met Burdick in the woods to make the deal. Under Sheriff Green had been previously notified, and arrested the man. A package of paper covered by two five-dollar bills was found on Gulick. He was taken to Pontiac.

Fire on Mackinac Island.

Fire started at one a. m. in the Pine Cottage, one of the largest boarding houses on Mackinac island. The flames were fanned by the wind into a large blaze before discovered. The residence of John W. Davis, adjoining, also caught, and both houses were burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at $25,000; no insurance. William Tailon, a member of the fire department, was seriously injured.

Crop Conditions.

The weekly crop report of the Washington weather bureau says for Michigan:

Showers have been very beneficial to corn, potatoes, beans and pastures, but have slightly interfered with oat harvest; oat harvest nearly completed; corn and potatoes continue very promising; beans and buckwheat somewhat shortened by extreme heat; apple prospect very uneven, but considered generally fair, although continued dropping is reported; fall plowing well advanced.

News Items Briefly Told.

Prominent Adrian people, including bankers, lawyers and business men, are organizing a golf club.

The new Grand Rapids city directory contains 42,400 names, which is 5,460 in excess of the names in last year's directory. Figured on a basis of 2½ persons per name the population of Grand Rapids is 104,800.

A rural mail route, 24 miles long, has been established through Flushing and Clayton townships, starting from Flushing.

A severe hailstorm struck Hartland village and vicinity, destroying the standing crops of corn, beans and fruit. Not a house escaped without broken lights.

Word has been received in Saginaw that Benjamin Morrell, formerly a resident of that city, has been murdered in South Africa.

The post office at Berrien Springs has been raised from fourth to third class.

James Patch, aged 37, a carriage painter who had resided in Detroit for a number of years, killed himself at South Bend, Ind., by turning on the gas in his room.

Thirty-eight years ago company I, of the Twenty-fifth Michigan infantry, was raised in Holland. Of the 84 men, rank and file sworn in, there are still 52 living.

The thirty-fifth annual reunion of the Eleventh Michigan infantry was held at Three Rivers.

MR. BRYAN DECLINES.

Will Not Attend Grand Army Encampment in Chicago Because of President McKinley's Absence.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—William J. Bryan has declined to be a visitor at the national G. A. R. encampment. He sent a message to William H. Harper, head of the local committee, saying that because of the absence of President McKinley from the encampment he considered it advisable to remain away. His telegram follows:

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 27.—W. H. Harper, Executive Director Grand Army Reunion, Chicago: Since President McKinley is detained by public business, I believe the proprieties of the occasion demand that I also decline, and thus relieve the reunion of any appearance of partisanship.

W. J. BRYAN. The local committee, through Mr. Harper, expressed its regrets at the inability of Mr. Bryan to be present by sending him the following message:

Chicago, Aug. 27.—W. J. Bryan, Lincoln: Your telegram declining invitation to the grand army reunion because of President McKinley's absence by reason of his public duties is received. The executive committee appreciates your delicacy of sentiment under the circumstances, while regretting that we cannot have the pleasure and honor of entertaining you.

W. H. HARPER.

RETIRE FROM THE RING.

Robert Fitzsimmons Says Henceforth There Will Be One Man Less in the Heavyweight Division.

New York, Aug. 28.—Robert Fitzsimmons has announced his retirement from the pugilistic ring. He made an ineffectual attempt to get on a match for the heavyweight championship with James J. Jeffries to take place before the Horton law expires at midnight next Friday, and has issued the following statement:

"I am through with fighting. I will retire from the ring and will not claim the championship from Jeffries. I am ready and on edge to meet him next Friday night, as his manager suggested ten days ago, but as he claims he is in no condition to fight on that night, I am through with him and with the ring. Henceforth there will be one man less in the heavyweight division, for I will go out with the Horton law."

A TERRIFIC STORM.

Several Business Houses in Sedalia, Mo., Wrecked and Two Persons Are Seriously Injured.

Sedalia, Mo., Aug. 28.—A terrific wind and rainstorm approaching the violence of a cyclone, swept over a portion of Sedalia, wrecking a number of business houses, unroofing a score or more of residences and destroying hundreds of trees. Two persons were seriously injured by falling buildings. They are: James Postal, a farmer; head and chest lacerated and internally injured; Nelson Umbles, a negro, chest crushed and internally injured.

Thousands of dollars' worth of property in the surrounding country was destroyed, many fine fields of corn having been blown down.

GEN. OLIVIER CAPTURED.

Lord Roberts Reports Important Success of British Arms in South Africa.

London, Aug. 28.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts:

"The Boers have been beaten back by Bruce Hamilton at Winburg. Gen. Olivier has been captured."

The text of Lord Roberts' dispatch from Belfast under Monday's date, announcing the capture of Gen. Olivier, shows that three of Olivier's sons also were captured in the attack which the Boers made from three sides on Winburg. Lord Roberts adds that Gen. Olivier was "the moving spirit among the Boers in the southeast portion of the Orange colony during the war."

A HOTEL TRAGEDY.

Double Shooting in New York, Both Victims Being from the City of Chicago.

New York, Aug. 28.—H. H. Stridiron, a wealthy Chicago lumber merchant, was shot twice in the head in his room in the Vendome hotel, Forty-first street and Broadway, by his friend, John H. Esson, also of Chicago. Esson then turned the revolver on himself and sent a bullet into his own brain.

The double tragedy was the result of murderous frenzy, induced by the heat and excessive drinking. Stridiron is in the New York hospital with two mortal wounds. There is a bullet hole in the back of his head and another in his forehead above the right eye. The bullet Esson sent into his own brain caused instant death.

Must Have Passports.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The department of state is in receipt of the dispatch from the charge d'affaires ad interim of the United States at Berlin, stating that since the assassination of the late king of Italy travelers in Germany are subjected to a more strict police supervision than has heretofore been the case, and are therefore advised to provide themselves with passports from the department of state, before going abroad. In Berlin, as in many other German cities, the police regulations in regard to the establishment of identity are quite strict.

BOXERS CUT LINES.

Telegraphic Communication Between Shanghai and Chefoo Severed and Dispatches Delayed.

Washington, Aug. 28.—After several days' intermission in Chinese advices the government Monday received two dispatches which presumably bring its advices up to the most recent date. There are indications that the principal delays in the lines of communication are encountered between Tientsin and Peking, a fact explainable by the newspaper advices that small bands of Boxers are operating on the line of communication of the Peking campaign force. Such interruption would delay all messages several days, as they would have to be sent from Chefoo to Shanghai by steamer, a trip of about four days.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The department of state makes public the following dispatch from Minister Conger, received Monday morning:

"From Taku, Aug. 27.—Secretary of State, Washington: No important movements since last dispatch. Military is trying to restore. No representative of the Chinese government encountered yet. Several ministers of the tsun-li-yamen reported in the city and are expected to appear soon. Generals decide not to enter imperial palace, leaving it practically vacant. Two thousand Germans arrived to-day.

(Signed) "CONGER."

Washington, Aug. 28.—The United States government has not invited any government to participate in a conference with the purpose of arranging the future of China. Nor has it received any such invitation from any other government.

Brussels, Aug. 28.—A dispatch from Shanghai states that the Japanese cavalry, which was dispatched to Mansan, reports that the imperial family, which left Peking August 14, set out for the westward, after a short rest at the village of Mansan. They were escorted by Gen. Ma and 500 horsemen. Their train comprised 20 wagons.

Paris, Aug. 28.—A special dispatch to Le Siecle from St. Petersburg says: "It is persistently rumored in St. Petersburg that the Russian government has received a dispatch asserting that, after a fierce battle inside Peking, the allies retreated, losing 1,800 men, mostly Russians. It is further said that the Chinese occupy fortified positions, from which they are bombarding the allies in a murderous manner."

Paris, Aug. 28.—Official dispatches from Shanghai explain that the Hankow uprising was not due to the Boxers, but was a plot organized by the partisans of Kang Yu Wei, the reformer, combined with the secret society known as the "Ko-Lao-Hui," an anti-foreign organization, who proposed to the southern viceroys a revolt against the Peking government.

Washington, Aug. 28.—It is said in administration circles that in the event of the ability of the powers to agree upon a Chinese policy that will preserve the integrity of the empire the plan most likely to be adopted will provide for international administration of the customs service. Under this plan representatives of the several allied powers having forces on Chinese soil will be stationed at all the customs ports of China to supervise or administer the service and watch the revenues with a view to insuring the collection of the enormous indemnity that will be individually demanded by each of the governments.

London, Aug. 28.—The allies, resuming aggressive operations, have taken the district west of Peking. This statement, based on Chinese authority, is cabled from Shanghai. From the same place comes the further statement that Li Hung Chang has wired the empress dowager at Hsian Fu, requesting the arrest of Prince Tuan and the disarmament of the Boxers, in order to give him an opening for negotiations with the powers.

London, Aug. 28.—"Evidence has been received here," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Standard, "going to show that Gen. Yung Lu was the real author of the anti-foreign outbreak, the empress dowager, Prince Tuan and the others all having been persuaded by him to take an extreme attitude, while he stood aside and awaited developments."

IOWA STATE FAIR.

Opened Up at Des Moines with a Large Attendance—Great Number of Exhibits.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 28.—Three thousand people witnessed the formal opening of the state fair Monday, it being the largest number to witness a similar event in the history of the organization. The exhibits outnumber by 20 per cent. the previous records and the management predict that the attendance and cash receipts will exceed in amount those of any former year if the weather does not interfere. A noticeable feature is the remarkable stock exhibit, there being over 2,000 head on the ground, and the fat stock exhibit is especially fine, nearly all the big herds of country being represented.

News from Manila.

Manila, Aug. 28.—The official reports show the last fortnight's scouting to have had insignificant results. The United States transport Californian, which sailed from San Francisco July 17, via Honolulu July 27, for Manila, is now a week overdue.

The Washtenaw Times of Friday says in its editorial columns:

"The mudslinging attacks on Judge Newkirk are creating sympathy for him. Everyone knows they emanate from a personal grudge, and the majority of Americans resent an attempt of anyone to use them and their ballots merely to satisfy somebody's private revenge."

That is true, and it is a good thing to think of that such a spirit exists among the rank and file of the voters of Washtenaw county and will not allow the idle vaporings of a man with a grudge to prevent them supporting a man like Judge Newkirk, who has ever been just, upright, honest and fair in all his dealings, whether in public or private life.

When Senator Clark, the wealthiest mine owner in the United States, if not in the world, contributes $100,000 to the Democratic campaign fund and agrees to bear all the expenses of the campaign in his own state of Montana, it is pretty hard to persuade the people that the mine owners are not really the people who want the 16 to 1 issue carried into effect. Had some trust magnate or manufacturer given to the Republican national committee $100,000 what a howl there would have been from the other fellows.

The continued talk indulged in by the Democratic press of Michigan in regard to the disaffection of the German-American voters with the Republican party is all rot, and exists only in the vivid imagination and desire of the writers to see such a thing happen. And, they are even willing to do a little gratuitous lying to help such a thing along.

Half of the last British loan was taken by people in the United States, so that in place of this country having to work to pay interest to British holders of United States bonds, the process is reversed and the Britisher is now compelled to send money to this country to pay interest on his obligations.

There are over 30,000 bank depositors in Colorado now, an increase of nearly 100 per cent in four years. Perhaps this is one of the many valid reasons why McKinley will carry Colorado this time.

For a man who left the Republican party on account of the silver question the Hon. Charles A. Towne managed to say but little on the subject in his recent letter of withdrawal.

The betting in the east is stated to be three to one on McKinley—based, no doubt, on the hard and cold calculation that prosperity will win.

Sylvan Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats of the township of Sylvan will hold a caucus at the town hall, Chelsea, on Saturday, Sept. 8, at 4 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing 13 delegates to the county convention to be held at Ann Arbor, Sept. 12, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Dated August 30, 1900.

J. E. MCKUNE,
Chairman Township Committee.

LOCAL AND COUNTY ITEMS.

An undertaker in one of the eastern cities has introduced an automobile hearse and in his announcement in one of the papers he says: "The people are dying to ride in it."

The two names latest mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for judge of probate are J. H. G. Feldkamp, of Freedom, and Tracy L. Towner, of Ypsilanti.

The first meeting of the Business Men's Class of the Congregational church for the coming year will be held next Sunday at 12 m. The question for discussion will be "Would christian nations be justified in dismembering China in the name of humanity and civilization?" C. H. Kempf will open the discussion.

Washtenaw Times: In the botanical gardens on the campus there is a fine patch of tobacco, showing the plants in their natural state. They are covered with flowers and seed vessels. When raised for use the plants are topped. These plants on the campus show that tobacco can be cultivated as well in Washtenaw county as in Wisconsin. The great secret in raising tobacco is to cure it properly. It would pay the farmers in Michigan to investigate the raising of tobacco as it would be a good paying crop in comparison to wheat.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Stimson, the druggist.

LOCAL AND COUNTY ITEMS.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Vogel Sunday afternoon, a son.

There are 72 saloons in Washtenaw county this year as against 70 last year.

Miss Florence Collins, of Lyndon, will teach the fall term of school in Waterloo village.

Several Chelsea Pythians have been in Detroit this week to visit the national encampment.

Pump Arnold's circus-theatre exhibited here Friday evening. It is not on record that there was a very large attendance.

Next week Wednesday Rev. F. A. Stiles will go to Fulton to perform the marriage ceremony for a young couple.

R. A. Snyder had 54 men at work Thursday pulling onions on his marsh. His crop is ripening rapidly and will be a fine yield.

Rev. C. E. Conley, of Detroit, superintendent of state missions, will preach at the Baptist church, Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

E. A. Williams expects to move into the house he has purchased on Park street, now occupied by Andrew Congdon, in about 10 days.

Neither of Olivet college scholarships have yet been awarded. They have been offered to two young ladies, neither of them accepted, however.

The Eastern Star chapter from Manchester will visit Chelsea Friday evening, Sept. 14, and confer the degrees of the order for Olive Chapter, No. 108.

Miss Ella Barber is now engaged as bookkeeper for H. S. Holmes Mercantile Co. Bert Gerard will take a position behind the counter in the clothing department.

Ralph Holmes finished taking the school census Monday. There are 475 children of school age, that is between 5 and 20 years old, in Chelsea. This is an increase of 60 over last year.

Jay M. Wood has been appointed night patrolman in place of Bert Younger resigned. Jay is a good officer and will strictly enforce the duties of his position without fear or favor.

Four hundred elk teeth were sold in Spokane, Wash., recently for $1,000. The demands of the members of the Order of Elks and the growing scarcity have increased the value of the teeth.

The winter schedule of time for holding services at St. Mary's church will take effect next Sunday. It is as follows: Low mass 8 a. m., high mass 10:30 a. m., vespers and benediction 7:30 p. m. The week day masses will be sung at 8 a. m. beginning with Monday.

P. W. Shute, of Ypsilanti, has secured two thirds of the amount necessary to put in an acetylene gas plant at Manchester, and has the rest of the required amount in sight. And when they get it they'll all be sick of the vile smelling, stinky stuff before they have had it a year.

Prof. M. E. Cooley, of Ann Arbor, has been chosen to make an appraisal of the steam railroads of Michigan for the use of the state board of tax commissioners. He will have 35 or 40 assistants in this work which will be completed inside of 90 days. He is now busy selecting his men.

The musical given at the Congregational church Tuesday evening under the auspices of the sisterhood of the church can be classed as a great success. The body of the church was filled and the Endeavor room had a goodly number of people in it. The program by local artists was a good one and was thoroughly appreciated from start to finish, the encores being quite numerous. The young ladies cleared $35 as the result of their efforts.

Here's the latest swindle to catch the farmer with: "A land speculator comes along and offers a farmer a big price for part of his farm. The farmer accepts and $50 is paid down to bind the bargain, and the papers are to be made out at the end of a couple of weeks. Before the time is up along comes speculator number two and wants to buy the whole farm at a big price. Farmer bites and writes No. 1 offering him say $400 to let him off; No. 1 reluctantly consents to this. No 2 never shows up, and the farmer is out $50."

Manchester has a bowling alley.

A Fowlerville man has been fined $10 for allowing Canada thistles to go to seed on his place.

Tomorrow is sports day at Stockbridge under the auspices of Unadilla Lodge, No. 40, I. O. O. F.

An adjourned meeting of Columbian Hive, No. 284, L. O. T. M., will be held next Tuesday, Sept. 4. Initiation.

There were 35,000 veterans in the G. A. R. parade at Chicago Tuesday, the largest number since the army disbanded after the war.

Deward Same, of Cadillac, and Miss Minnie Merker, of Sylvan, have been granted a license to marry. Both the parties are deaf mutes.

Rev. D. R. Shier, of Manchester, was nominated for representative on the Republican ticket at the second district convention held at Saline Tuesday.

The union services next Sunday evening will be held at the Baptist church. Rev. F. A. Stiles will preach. It is the last union service for this season.

The Ann Arbor merchants who were not already closing their places of business at 6 o'clock p. m. have entered into an agreement to close up at 8 p. m.

Get out your slates and pencils, your text and copy books, and other educational paraphernalia, for Monday next marks the commencement of another year of school life.

Rev. Miles Whelan, D. D., an old time friend and pupil of Rev. W. P. Considine, will sing the high mass at St. Mary's church next Sunday morning, also preach the sermon.

Ex-Alderman Walter L. Taylor, of Ann Arbor, died at the University hospital Friday night at a result of overwork during the heated season. He was a tenor singer of well-known local repute.

A warrant for the arrest of William Wade and Chris. Reule has been issued by Justice Parker on complaint of Night Patrolman Jay M. Wood. The young men are charged with disturbing the peace by fighting in the alley back of the stores on the east side of South Main street Saturday after midnight.

Miss Lillian Volland, of Ann Arbor, a cousin of Charles Steinbach and who is well known in Chelsea and vicinity, died at the University hospital Monday night, aged 80 years. She had undergone an operation for the removal of three tumors on Friday and her nervous system could not rally from the shock.

Five-dollar silver certificates of the new design have made their appearance. The feature of the new note is a large typical Indian head in the center, with a blue seal and a large letter V with the word "Five" also in blue running in a curved line across it. As an artistic production this note is regarded as equal to any ever issued by the government.

Here are a few of the strange names found on the rosters of two fraternal insurance societies: Mrs. Annie Gotobed, Miss Nancy Jane Toothacher, and Miss Mary Washington Cherrytrees are members of the Royal Neighbors of America, the ladies auxiliary of the Modern Woodman society. The Hon. Gipe Wigger, Ole Mo, and Per Arp are members of the Modern Woodman society.

Manchester Enterprise: N. Schmid had an experience last Friday that furnished all the excitement he wanted for one day. He had his old family horse Ned, and a "Tommy Mac" horse hitched before a single buggy, one horse in the shafts and one out, and was on his way to the east part of town to hitch to a wagon. Some friends jollied him about his outfit and he spent about 20 minutes expostulating on the reliable qualities of both steeds and said he had no fear of driving them. Only a few minutes after there was a wild clatter of hoofs down Layher's hill and across the river, and Nate was making the drive of his life, with his son Natie clinging to him. Never since the time of Ben Hur did steeds make a more noble run, and never since that time did driver more skillfully guide his charges. Trees, fences and ditches were passed in safety and the excitement was over when all landed in a flower bed at the Werner home. No damage was done, but Nate's hair was still standing on end at last accounts.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her; and she writes, this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1. Guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Stimson's drug store.

THE NAVY VETERANS.

Great Parade of Men Who Manned Ships in the Civil War.

Seamen Who Fought with Dewey, Sampson and Schley Act as Their Escorts—Commander Shaw Makes an Address.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Mid lines of cheering thousands, under emblematic arches and fluttering ensigns of stars and stripes, the navy veterans of the '60s marched Monday, with escorts of honor, in their last great martial pageant of the waning century, across the years of which they have emblazoned so glorious a record. The hand of Chicago, with her throngs of visitors, was raised in loving salute for the scarred and serried ranks of the men who manned the ships of Farragut, Porter and Foote.

Escort of Honor.

Escorting the deep-water warriors of past days were the seamen who fought at Manila bay and Santiago, while the boys of the naval reserves marched as the sailors of the future. The heroes of river and sea of the civil war are but a small band now. Of the 132,000 men enlisted in the service in '61 only 2,000 were in line Monday. Few there were who did not wear upon their breast some medal for distinguished service.

The Parade.

It was not until after 11 o'clock that the line began to push out along Randolph street, with Chief Marshal J. R. Foss and staff in the lead. The different divisions fell in and the column was in motion. Rippling cheers marked the line of march until the column swung into Michigan avenue, passed under the fluted arch of the grand army into the court of honor past the reviewing stand and out through the gleaming white of the navy arch at Twelfth street, where the parade was dismissed.

Ovation for Ex-Prisoners.

Rivalling the ovations tendered the naval veterans was that accorded the men of the ex-prisoners of war association. The ex-prisoners and the naval veterans are in closer touch with each other than any other of the organizations growing out of the civil war. There were nearly as many of the latter organization as there were naval veterans in the parade.

Naval Arch Dedicated.

With imposing ceremonies, consisting of marching naval veterans, music by several bands, prayer and speeches by men high in the ranks of the Naval Veteran association and the Grand Army of the Republic, the big white naval arch at the south end of the court of honor in Michigan avenue was dedicated shortly after nine o'clock.

High Praise of the Navy.

Gen. Shaw, commander-in-chief of the grand army, said:

"The American navy has always been the admiration of all nations. In revolutionary times it made a deathless record; and in later struggles on the sea it led the world in brilliant actions. Paul Jones, Perry and Decatur had their worthy rivals in Farragut, Dupont, and it fell to Dewey, Sampson and Schley, of the Spanish-American war period, to make the history of American naval victories more glorious in the wonderful sweep of their almost marvelous sea triumphs. And the American navy has proved itself worthy of the American nation, so that to-day—as never before—the phrase, 'the army and navy' or 'navy and army' cause no irritation to the American soldier or sailor.

"In this commemorative hour, and on this historic occasion, there is little need of many words being spoken—for a naval parade of American seamen and veterans will soon pass beneath this arch and thus the living object lesson of heroic defenders of the stars and stripes in the sea and inland waters of our republic will be far more impressive than eloquence can possibly be.

"It affords me great gratification as commander in chief of the grand army to be thus honored in speaking briefly at this function of patriotism, in this western city, and amid the associations of this deeply interesting week.

Spanish War Boys.

As Gen. Shaw ceased speaking one of the veterans called for three cheers for the boys of '61. As they died away Gen. Shaw smiled at the younger fighters before him and asked for three cheers for the boys of the Spanish war. Every hat came from the heads of the older men as they showed their appreciation of the deeds of the boys. The young heroes blushed modestly as the gray-haired men lustily gave three raahs.

The Iron Brigade.

The leading affair Monday evening was the banquet of the Iron brigade at the clubhouse of the Athletic club. The speakers were Speaker Henderson, of Iowa; Senator Burrows, of Michigan; Gov. Mount, of Indiana; Gov. Scofield, of Wisconsin; Commander Shaw, of the G. A. R.; Charles G. Dawes, controller of the currency, and Gen. Edward S. Bragg, of Wisconsin. James Whitcomb Riley recited a poem.

Many Reunions.

Many regiments held reunions Monday in different parts of Chicago. Some of the soldiers had not seen each other since the war, and greetings between them were warm. Campaigns were fought over again and old stories were retold. The reunions seemed to bring youth back to the veterans again and many said they felt able to fight for their country again should occasion arise.

TRAGEDY IN ILLINOIS.

Attempt to Arrest a Woman Doctor at Gilman Causes the Death of Two Persons.

Gilman, Ill., Aug. 28.—Two men killed, three wounded—two of them perhaps fatally—one woman wounded and her residence burned, are the results of an all-night battle between a mob and Mrs. Dr. C. W. Wright, who was accused of the murder of Bessie Salter, the 16-year-old daughter of a citizen of Gilman.

THE DEAD—John Myers, laborer employed by Mrs. Dr. Wright. Michael Ryan, citizen serving as deputy constable.

FATALLY WOUNDED—Lawrence Ryan, brother of the dead man, wounded in abdomen.

Mrs. Dr. C. W. Wright, shot through right shoulder, bullet taking downward course.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED—Peter Lauer, member of the citizens' attacking party; shot through stomach.

About ten o'clock in the evening the first act of the tragedy was enacted. It was precipitated by the investigation of the coroner's jury into the death of Bessie Salter, a 16-year-old girl of Leonard, Ill., who died in Mrs. Wright's lying-in hospital Friday night and was taken to her home in Leonard under cover of darkness early Saturday morning. No coffin was procured. The girl was wrapped in an old blanket and piece of carpet, and buried.

After the jury had heard the evidence of Clarence Salter, the girl's father, the coroner came to the conclusion that it was injudicious to wait longer for Mrs. Wright's arrest, and a warrant was procured. It was placed in the hands of Constable Nilstead for service.

A number of deputies gathered upon the street, accompanied by Constable Nilstead. Mrs. Wright barred the door, and in forcing an entrance the constable encountered unexpected opposition. They broke the outer door open and entered the darkened rooms. Michael Ryan felt his way across the first room and was about to enter the door of the inner apartment, when a shot rang out, and he fell dead.

About three o'clock the family of Michael Ryan arrived. The dead man had been carried to the bushes near the house where he met his death. A mob of probably 250 people had gathered. Most of them were armed. The scenes of grief which followed the arrival of Ryan's wife and children fired the crowd with frenzy. They seized dozens of bundles of straw, saturated them with petroleum, piled them against the front and sides of the so-called hospital, and applied the torch. In a moment the place was a mass of flames.

Shot after shot rang from the upper windows, and George Willoughby, a local representative of the Standard Oil company, fell with a bullet in the left side. The next victim was Peter Hauer, a member of the attacking party. These casualties so angered the crowd that they volleyed the house as fast as they could load their firearms.

Contrary to expectations, no screams followed the progress of the flames and the mob began to think that the inmates of the burning house had been cremated. Suddenly, from a bunch of timber in the rear, several shots came in the direction of the mob. They were answered, a hundred to one, and the fire was quickly silenced.

Members of the mob rushed to the timber and in the dim light of the coming dawn found the body of John Myers, a blacksmith, who had been employed by Mrs. Wright, stretched in the death agony. He was shot in a dozen places about the head and shoulders, showing that he had been lying on his face, firing at his enemies, when he met death.

The mob immediately dispersed. It had been reported that there were three women in the house besides Mrs. Wright, but no signs of them have been found. The house was destroyed with its contents.

Mrs. Dr. Wright was about 50 years old. It is stated that she was formerly an actress. For some time she has been conducting a lying-in hospital on the outskirts of Gilman.

Gilman, Ill., Aug. 28.—The coroner's inquest over the body of Bessie Salter completed its investigation and held Mrs. Wright to the grand jury without bail. The intense excitement that prevailed all day has subsided and law and order is restored. The removal of Mrs. Wright to the Watseka jail seems to have annulled all mob talk and the law will probably be allowed to take its course.

Towne's First Talk.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 28.—Charles A. Towne opened the campaign in a lengthy address in the armory, in which he replied to the recent speech of Gov. Roosevelt delivered at St. Paul on the occasion of the national convention of the League of Republican Clubs, and arraigned the administration policy in the Philippines.

Says He Is Charlie Ross.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 28.—A tramp in jail for vagrancy in this city startled the recorder's court by asserting that he is Charley Ross, kidnapped from his parents at Philadelphia nearly 25 years ago. The man produces documents intended to substantiate his assertion.

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

Chicago Extends the Hand of Welcome to the Grand Army—President Cannot Attend.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Chicago extended the handclasp of welcome Sunday to the Grand Army of the Republic. The city greeted the great vanguard of the veterans, but the vast body of the still numerous though decreasing soldiers of the union is pouring in from all parts of the country.

Special patriotic services in all the churches ushered in the week of celebration and the other notable events of the day were the religious exercises afternoon and evening at the Coliseum.

President McKinley will not be here at all during the veterans' thirty-fourth reunion. The president sent a personal telegram to Commander in Chief Shaw. Previously the head of the G. A. R. had sent the following message:

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 25.—To the President: I hope you can see your way clear to be with your old comrades for at least one day. Everything arranged perfectly here.

ALBERT D. SHAW.

Commander-in-Chief, G. A. R.

The president's reply was as follows:

Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 25. Gen. Albert D. Shaw, Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R., Chicago, Ill.: I deeply regret that pressing public duties will prevent my attendance upon the thirty-fourth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Assure my comrades assembled that this is a sore disappointment to me, for I confidently counted upon joining them in their reunion, as has been my custom for many years. I want them to appreciate that only the most immediate and important business would interfere with my paying personal tribute to the veterans of the magnificent army of '61 to '65, whose devotion and sacrifice for country will forever be an inspiration to the American people. Their patriotic spirit still animates the republic. It led the volunteer armies which enlisted for the Spanish war to gallant service in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines and impels the brave men who under your comrade MacArthur are now maintaining authority in the Philippines, and those under your other comrade Chaffee also have carried to our legations and our citizens in China the shelter and protection of the flag. Convey to the members of the encampment my affectionate greetings and congratulations.

WILLIAM McKINLEY.

"I am sorry," said Commander in Chief Shaw. "The absence of the president brings the grand army to the front. The old soldiers sorrowfully accept his reasons for not coming as valid at this time. He is a comrade of whom they are very proud. It is a matter of great satisfaction to know that he is equal to the great demands of the Chinese situation. His diplomacy has shifted the world politics to Washington instead of away from it as in the past. His place under the circumstances is in Washington."

The court of honor and avenue of fame, extending from Jackson boulevard to Twelfth street in Michigan avenue, was illuminated Saturday night promptly on schedule time and presented a spectacle the entire length of the court that reminded many of some of the brilliant scenes witnessed here during the world's fair.

Duke d'Arcos, the Spanish minister, was the first of the distinguished grand army guests to arrive. He is accompanied by the duchess and Juan Riano y Gayangos, secretary of the legation. Gen. John C. Black, Hobart C. Chatfield-Taylor and Mrs. Taylor and Berthold Singer, acting Spanish consul, met the Spaniards at the station and escorted them to the Auditorium Annex, where they will be quartered.

The new Coliseum was dedicated Saturday night with a jubilee replete with brilliancy and enthusiasm. The hall begins its career with the opening festivities of the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. A dash of oratory was followed by an hour and a half of music, and scattered through the large audience were many veterans in blue.

Sunday evening the sacred song concert at the Coliseum assumed the nature of a patriotic revival. The girders of the great auditorium fairly shook when Maj. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles declared in his speech that "no human being now living will ever see the flag come down."

The Duke d'Arcos, Spanish Minister at Washington, received a round of applause which could have left no doubt in his heart that enmity between the two nations is dead. Miss Clara Barton, whose noble work in the Red Cross society is known all over the world, was cheered again and again, as was Gen. Shaw, commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The meeting was marked by the most patriotic demonstration ever witnessed in Chicago.

On counts made at the depots, Chairman J. J. Tobias, of the bureau of information, estimated the number of arrivals for Sunday up to midnight to be 90,000, of which 18,000 were veterans. Ten thousand people were assigned to private houses by Chairman J. A. McCartney, of the lodging house committee, and 21,000 were given free quarters in the school buildings.

Relief for India.

New York, Aug. 27.—The American National Red Cross announces that under the powers conferred upon it by the last congress it will at once begin active work for the relief of those suffering from famine in India. Headquarters for this branch of relief have been opened in this city.

A SOUTHERN WRITER.

As a Delinquent of Negro Life Mrs. Ruth McEnery Stuart Is Without a Rival.

The south has come to the front in a very marked way in recent years in the development of American literature. Some of the strongest and most enduring work of the past quarter of a century has been done by southern writers.

Among these writers of southern life has been Mrs. Ruth McEnery Stuart, of whom a recent writer has said: "It is true that the stormiest experiences of the war passed over her as a child; but its effects remained, and the situation augmented the sensitiveness of a mind peculiarly sensitive to mental impressions. The McEnery strain of blood has had ample time, in its three generations of southern life, to mingle with its Scotch-Irish clearness and directness of purpose and perception, the sympathetic, suave and kindly temperament of the warmer clime. The result in Mrs. Stuart is an ability to feel and to present every-day phases in a manner inimitable for truth, kindness, humor and pathos."

Those who have read Mrs. Stuart's stories know this to be true. Her negro types are characters toward which one finds one's self irresistibly drawn. She finds something wonderfully human and good in all of them. It is evident that Mrs. Stuart is a believer in the innate goodness of human nature. There is never anything morbid or misanthropical about her work. It fairly radiates good humor, and such writers are needed in an age when there is so much that is morbid and depressing in our literature. Who that has read her "Sonny" has not been made better by the cheery, sparkling humor of that book? It overflows with humor as delicate as it is delicious. And who that has read "The Widder Johnson" has not found himself moved to smiles for months afterward by the remembrance of the sly widow's cunning in her final matrimonial venture? This is one of the cleverest tales of negro character ever written, and it takes on a fresh charm when one hears it read by its author. Mrs. Stuart is one of the writers who read their stories well. Her imitation of the peculiarly soft, liquid notes of the negro are perfect and she interprets her stories as well as she writes them.

Mrs. Stuart does not belong to that class of literary women who are indifferent to dress or who do not know how to dress to advantage when they would. She dresses with exquisite taste and has a fine stage presence. She was born in Louisiana, but she now has a summer home in the Catskill mountains, while her winters are spent in New York city. She has a son in college to whom she is devoted with all the strength and warmth of her southern nature.

With true southern hospitality Mrs. Stuart always has a great deal of company, and she is one of the most agreeable of hostesses. There is a delightful lack of formality in her way of entertaining, due to her abundant good humor and her genuine kindness of heart. She is a true-hearted American woman as well as one of the cleverest of American writers.—Detroit Free Press.

Bran Jelly for Breakfast.

Bran jelly is a wholesome food which may take the place of other cereals. Cover two cupfuls of bran with cold water, let settle; then pour off all the water, and add three cupfuls of boiling water and stir well; place on the stove and boil slowly for two hours; then strain, return to fire, let come to the boiling point, add one teaspoonful salt; then pour into a mold and let cool. You will have a delicate jelly, and very wholesome. The siftings from graham or whole-wheat flour can be used for this jelly.—Rural New Yorker.

HOLDER FOR LETTERS.

Brand New Idea for a Present That Is Easily Made, Inexpensive and Useful.

Take a smooth pine board, 6x12 inches, and half an inch thick; cover it with a thin layer of cotton batting, and over that stretch a piece of gray blouse linen, fastening it with very small tacks on the back of the board. Then get some satin ribbon, half an inch wide, of any desired color, and place it on cross-cross, in the manner shown in the picture. Wherever the ribbon crosses, put in a small, brass headed tack. Then, over the back of the board nail on very smoothly and neatly a piece of blouse linen, to cover the board and the ends of the ribbon.

A PLAIN LETTER CASE.

bon, which, of course, must be carried well over the edges.

To hang it up, use broader ribbon of the same color as that used to cross off the face of the board; or a brass ring, with a screw attached, such as may be bought at any large hardware store, may be screwed through the linen and into the board at the top.

Thus finished, you have a card rack, or, if the crossing of the ribbon is not too close, a letter rack, that will be very useful if hung near a writing desk.

Another way to treat a board of the same dimensions is to cover it with cotton batting, and then with blouse linen, as first suggested, but instead of crossing it with ribbon, use a long piece of blouse linen (about 12 inches wide and a yard long), that will fold so as to make six shallow pockets, each an inch and a half deep, in which to stick cards. On the outside of the top pocket write in pencil "Monday," and then outline the word in colored "filo" silk. Let the other days of the week follow.

If a longer board is used as a foundation, there will be room for a broader pocket at the bottom, which should be marked "Letters." Three or four broad pockets might be made, instead of the six narrow ones. Of course the foundation board may be of any size or shape.

If more decoration is wanted, embroider at the top (as shown in the picture) the initials or the monogram of the person for whom the present is meant. If the pockets show a tendency to sag outward, two or three brass-headed nails (or possibly a stitch or two) will correct this fault. But the linen named has little elasticity, and if carefully made there will be no sagging at all.

If a much larger board is used and crossed off with ribbon, the result will be a charming rack, in which to stick photographs. For instance, if the board is first covered with a thin layer of cotton batting, then with a piece of white muslin, carefully tacked on (using the smallest sized, flat-headed tacks) then with flowered India silk, using green satin ribbon, the color of the leaves, to cross it off with, the result is an extremely pretty photograph holder, suitable for any boudoir. The muslin foundation is only necessary when India silk or any other very thin fabric is used.—Mary V. Worstell, in Brooklyn Eagle.

Pocketbook to Match Gown.

No woman can have too many pocketbooks, as the fad of this summer, to have everything to match about a costume, renders it desirable to have a purse to match every gown. Choose some pretty, delicate tint in the leather of the prevailing pastel shades, as gowns will follow the vogue in color.

COOL CURING ROOMS.

The Dairy Which Is Without Them Rarely Succeeds in Producing High-Grade Cheese.

One of the great obstacles to the proper curing of cheese and the enhancement of its price is poorly constructed curing rooms, which result in an unripe or badly cured article. The cheese factory should be so built that the curing room is as near impervious as possible to heat and air and on the ground floor. At a distance of 20 to 80 feet below the surface, the ground keeps the same temperature the year round, and this temperature is about four degrees higher than the average temperature for the year in that place. Pure air from 20 to 50 feet above the ground, passed through a deep underground duct, as illustrated, may be cooled and brought to an even temperature and utilized in the curing room. In northern Wisconsin the mean temperature for the year is about 40 degrees, so low that the utilization of this cold may be made of great value even in the hottest weather.

While there are various plans for the making of sub-earth ducts, the one illustrated herewith is simple and inexpensive. The duct should be placed at such depth as the soil-temperature may indicate. The outside end consists of an upright pipe (e) 20 to 50 feet high with a funnel, and a good sized hood 36 inches across. A vane extending to the rear turns the hood on a vertical axis so as to catch the air, similar as in the mechanism of a windmill. The ducts a and c are of brick and the top of duct e is also surmounted with brick to make a solid place for setting the pipe extension, as well as because of weather and soil conditions. If it is desirable to make openings for any purpose, in duct c d, this may be done as illustrated, or if the current of air is to be broken, it may be done by placing drain tiles in the duct so that the wind will pass through them, thus making a set of multiple ducts. The inlet to the curing room (a) is of brick. The flow of air should be regulated by a register. For a curing room of 400 square feet the shaft should be at least ten inches square, inside measurement.

In ripening, cheese emits certain odors and gases which may prevent a normal cure, unless the gases are removed. A ventilator must be provided, and as illustrated (o, t, f), should rise directly from the ceiling of the curing room, to above the roof. If only one ventilator is used, it should be placed at the end of the room opposite to that occupied by the ventilator. It should be at least ten inches square, inside measure, for a curing room of 400 square feet floor space, or 14 inches for a room of 1,000 square feet. Never make the mouth of the ventilator and the in-take funnel of the same height.—Farm and Home.

How to Preserve Varieties.
If a new variety of corn, melon, cucumber or tomato is to be preserved in their purity the plants of one variety should not be grown near another. A highly prized novelty of a melon will be ruined if other melons are grown within several hundred feet of it, or even a greater distance, as bees and insects carry pollen from one plant to another. The fact that varieties of corn will mix even when two or more kinds are in distant fields is well known. If seed is to be saved it is better to grow only one variety of each kind of crop and then select the seed from the most perfect specimens.

Taxing City Milk Dealers.
The question of taxing milk sellers in cities is one that is engaging the attention of more than one municipality. It is a general principle that every business that needs to be inspected should pay an extra tax in some form to enable the municipality to support the machinery necessary for the work of the inspection. In some cities the license fee system is in vogue, and each wagon pays a fee of from one to ten dollars per year. Certainly there is no product that needs to be inspected more than our milk, which is so largely used as food for children and invalids.—Farmers' Review.

BUFFALO TREE HOPPER.

Apple Growers Are Just Beginning to Realize the Extent of Damage Caused by This Insect.

Prof. A. E. Popenoe, of the Kansas experiment station, sends out press bulletin 68 in which he has the following to say on the Buffalo tree hopper: Numerous inquiries received by the entomological department of the Kansas experiment station from different parts of this and neighboring states, accompanied by specimens of apple twigs and branches showing the work of the Buffalo tree-hopper, lead us to believe that the apple-growing public is becoming awakened to the abundance of this orchard insect, though not aware of the method of avoiding the injury of its numerous punctures. The facts brought forward by correspondence with those who report the damage confirm the previously published deductions of this station, where the true nature of these injuries was first made known. Upon inquiry as to the condition of the injured trees during the previous August and September, it appears in each case that the trees were grown at that time in weeds and grass, cultivation having been suspended, for one cause or another, and the orchard weeds allowed to grow unchecked. Inquiry from the same reporters as to the amount of injury in orchards where cultivation was not thus suspended shows in such an almost entire immunity from the work of the pest. The inference is too plain to need special argument. Clean culture during the late summer, to keep the grounds free from weeds on which the young hoppers feed, will protect the young orchard from attack. When the trees are already badly punctured, the only thing that can be done is to cultivate generously the coming season, to keep the injured trees in the best of thrift, and to assist them in outgrowing the injury. It has been suggested by some that the injured branches should be pruned out and burned, thus reducing the number of the pests the next season, but if such a plan were to be put in practice, it would result in many cases in the removal of entire trees, no part of the small tree being exempt from attack. The eggs which are laid in August in the wounds in the bark, hatch the next May or June, and at the time when observation shows the insect to be emerging, it will be possible to destroy most of the tender young by a spray of kerosene emulsion at a moderate strength. So much reliance may be placed upon clean culture, however, that this spraying is not considered as necessary, though a practical method of destruction, if done at the right time.

A Monster Butter Factory.
The Glenorminster butter factory in Australia is probably the biggest thing of the kind in the world. The supply of milk in the flush for several weeks reaches the enormous amount of 165,000 pounds per day. It is also stated that some of the patrons furnish as high as 5,000 pounds per day; and the average is about 2,000 pounds; and these amounts are produced on farms of from 100 to 200 acres each. In the separating-room are 16 large separators of 400 gallons per hour capacity each, that when necessary can handle 6,000 gallons per hour.

Good Cows and Rich Food.
Rich foods will no doubt assist in the production of rich milk by providing the proper materials required, but it is natural for some cows to give richer milk than others, no matter what the quality of the food may be. Rich foods affect the quantity of milk, however, and especially when a variety is allowed. Good cows and rich food should be used and the profits will be larger.

Overfeeding Means Loss.
The importance of feeding only as much food as an animal will eat up clean at each meal may be demonstrated by the fact that a waste of only one pound of hay or grain per day for each animal amounts to nearly a ton each year for a herd of six cows. Give them all that they require, but nothing more.

THE DEWEY HOMESTEAD.

The above picture shows the house where George Dewey was born December 26th, 1837. It was occupied by the Dewey family until after the death of the Admiral's father. It then came into the possession of Captain Edward Dewey, who sold it to its present owner and occupant, T. R. Gordon, Esq., in the summer of 1899. Mr. Gordon moved it to its present site in the following February 1899, and has occupied it until the present time. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon are unfailing in their courtesy to the thousands who visit this shrine, the birthplace of Admiral Dewey. A recent letter from T. R. Gordon to the Peruna Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O., reads as follows: "It is with great satisfaction that I find myself able, after an extended trial to write you in this emphatic manner of the good your Peruna has done my wife. "She has been troubled with catarrh from childhood, and whenever she has a cold, or any unusual condition of the weather it was worse than usual, and seemed more than she could bear. The dropping in her throat at night prevented refreshing sleep, in fact, we had come to look upon it as incurable, and from the many remedies used in vain, we had reason to say: "We are thankful and happy to say that your "Peruna" has been of great benefit to her, and I confidently look for a complete and entire cure. High praise is not too much to bestow upon your remedy." T. R. Gordon. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for free book on catarrh.

BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any Blood Disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes so serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore throat, ulcers on the tongue or in the mouth, hair falling out, itching pains itching of the skin, sores or blotches on the body, eyes red and smart, dyspeptic stomach, sexual weakness—indications of the secondary stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old foggy treatment—mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time only to break out again when you are in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantee is backed by bank bonds that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our NEW METHOD TREATMENT for over 20 years, and no return of the disease. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure you, and make a man of you. Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers disappear; the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervousness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and sexual systems are invigorated; all drains cease—no more vital waste from the system. The various organs become natural and healthy. You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. We invite all the afflicted to consult us confidentially and free of charge. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hard-earned dollars. WE WILL CURE YOU OR NO PAY.

We treat and cure NERVOUS DEBILITY, SEXUAL WEAKNESS, EMISSIONS, SYPHILIS, GLEET, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES, and all diseases peculiar to men and women. Cures guaranteed.
