MANCHESTER CHAPTER, O. E. S.

Paid a Fraternal Visit to Olive Chapter
Which Was Much Enjoyed.

Forty five members of the Manchester
Chapter, O. E. S., drove over here Friday afternoon on a fraternal visit to Olive Chapter, No. 108. They arrived here by 6 o'clock or shortly afterwards and went at once to the Masonic hall. From there the whole company proceeded to the town hall where an elegant supper had been prepared. The four tables, which seated 150 people, were filled and all enjoyed to the fullest extent the good things provided.

The inner man satisfied they returned to the Masonic hall where the officers of Manchester chapter conferred the degree of the order on Miss Lulu Steger and Miss Florence Ward. The work was done in excellent shape, many features of it being especially commendable.

After the chapter was closed, cake and ice cream were served and a general season of visiting ensued, after which the visitors left for home pleased with their visit and leaving pleasant impressions with those they had visited.

Mission Festival at Rogers' Corners.

The annual mission festival in connection with St. John's church, Rogers' Corners, was held last Sunday two services being held, in the morning and afternoon.
At the morning service the congregation was not so large on account of the threatening weather, but at the afternoon service there was a large number present.

Rev. O. Schettler, of Albion, preached in the morning and gave a fine sermon full of deep, rich thought. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. Howe, a returned missionary from Western Africa, delivered a special missionary sermon which was very interesting. Rev. John N.umann, of Ann Arbor, also made an address.

The choir of the church rendered some special music at each of the services.
The collection amounted to $57.48. The ministers present were Revs. O. Schettler, of Albion, John Neumann, of Ann Arbor, Schoettle, of Manchester, Paul Irion, of Eckert, H. H. Greuter, of Saline. Rev.
Robert Schreiber, of Grand Rapids, was also present as a guest.

Prohibition County Convention.

At the mass convention of the Prohibitionists of Washtenaw county held in Ann Arbor Saturday, there were 15 people present. Despite the fewness of their numbers a full county ticket was placed in the field as follows:

Judge of probate, Lauren D. Carr, Ann Arbor; sheriff, Charles Boylan, Ann Arbor; clerk, James Murray, Saline; prosecuting attorney, Judge N. W. Cheever,
Ann Arbor; treasurer, Dr. Nell W. Gates,
Dexter; coroners, Wm. Druse, Augusta,
Charles H. Worden, Ann Arbor; surveyor,
Harry C. Deane, Ann Arbor.

The county committee will name two candidates for circuit court commissioners, providing that many prohibition lawyers can be found in the county willing to make the run.

Chelsea Power and Improvement Co.

Two weeks ago the Herald mentioned the fact that articles of incorporation had been filed with the secretary of state by the Chelsea Power and Improvement Co., with a capital stock of $10,000. The members of this company having faith in the future of Chelsea, believe that there should be some well regulated plan for the furtherance and maintenance not only of those industries at present located here, but those that may be established in the future, and have thought it best to organize a company for that purpose. It will be the object of the organization to be in a position to furnish power, light and heat for manufacturing purposes, also to encourage and assist in developing any desirable enterprise that may come under its notice.

At a meeting of the company held Monday the following directors were elected:
F. P. Glazier, A. W. Wilkinson, J. D.
Watson, C. E. Stimson, E. G. Hoag, A.
R. Welch, F. A. Wedemeyer, E. Keenan,
C. M. Davis, A. C. Pierce, G. E. Jackson,
B. McClain, T. G. Speer, Ben Huehl, P.
M. Broesamle.
The officers of the company elected by the board of directors are: President, J.
D. Watson; vice president, A. W. Wilkinson; secretary, E. G. Hoag; treasurer, F.

BIG STRIKE BEGINS.

An Almost Complete Tie-Up of Anthracite Coal Mines.

Result Exceeds Expectations of the Strike Leaders—President Mitchell Says About 112,000 Men Have Quit Work.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.—The greatest strike of mine workers in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania, which represent practically the hard coal output of the world, began Monday. According to President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, who is personally directing the strike from his headquarters at Hazleton, the success of the four days' effort to tie up the mines exceeded the expectations of the strike leaders. The hard coal region is divided into four great districts, the Lackawanna, Wyoming, Lehigh and Schuylkill regions. In the first two, representing nearly 90,000 men, the tie-up is practically complete. Only one mine employing a few hundred men, is being operated, and this the strikers say they hope to close soon. In the Lehigh region, the situation is a stand-off, about 8,000 of the 16,000 mine employes having quit work.

Principally because the union has comparatively little strength in the Schuylkill region, the workmen there have no decided grievance, as in other districts, and the strike was not general among the upward of 50,000 men employed. Indications, however, point to the closing to-day of some mines in the last named district that operated Monday, in spite of assertions of officials of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company and other companies operating the region that they will continue their collieries in operation. Nearly all the efforts of the strike leaders are being devoted to organizing the men in the weak Schuylkill and Lehigh regions, and their organizers and orators are redoubling their efforts. No violence worth mentioning has marred the first day of the struggle. Practically no progress has yet been made in the efforts of some of the clergy to bring about a settlement of the trouble through arbitration.

President Mitchell's Statement. President Mitchell Monday night gave out the following statement: "Information is received up to tonight that 112,000 mine workers are on strike in the anthracite region. Of this number 72,000 are in district No. 1, 30,000 in district No. 2 and 10,000 in district No. 3. Reports received are to the effect that large numbers of those who went to the mines today will join in the suspension to-morrow. We feel confident that the entire number of men employed in and about the coal mines of the anthracite district will be idle in the next few days. The men appear determined to continue on strike until their demands for justice have been acceded to. The number of men now out on strike exceeds that of any other industrial contest in the history of our country."

Each Side Confident. Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 18.—The great struggle between the anthracite coal miners of Pennsylvania and their employers was begun Monday. Each side is confident of winning and neither of the contending forces show any disposition to yield. With the exception of a trivial incident at No. 3 colliery, of the Lehigh Coal company, where a gang of boys compelled a mule driver to seek cover by throwing stones at him, the contest thus far has been entirely devoid of violence of any kind. The exact number of men who struck cannot at this time be told, as only estimates of the number of men who did not start work were made. Reports received by the United Mine Workers' officials from the entire anthracite region were to them most satisfactory. In this territory, known as district No. 7, there are 16,000 men employed in and about the mines. Of this number it is conservatively estimated that about 50 per cent., or 8,000 miners, obeyed the order of President Mitchell to quit work. Five thousand of these belong to collieries which did not work at all and the remaining 3,000 to mines which worked short handed.

The district south of this place, known as the South side, was tied up completely, with the exception of Coleraine, Beaver Meadow and Carson's washeries. In this territory the United Mine Workers are very strong. On the North side, the Upper Lehigh, Milnesville, Ebervale and Drifton, No. 1 collieries, employing about 1,500 men, are shut down; the mines at Lattimer and Pond Creek, employing 1,200 men, are working full, but every other mine in that big territory is working with badly crippled forces. Three of the Marik mines, over which there has been so much contention, worked all day with about 65 per cent. of their men. On the West side every colliery started up Monday minus its union men, except at the Hazle mines, where the union miners went to work in consequence of a misunderstanding.

In the Wyoming Valley. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 18.—Every mine in the Wyoming valley, with the exception of one, was closed Monday by the miners' strike. The exception was the colliery operated by the West End Coal company, at Mocanqua. The men there refused to go out, saying they were satisfied with the present condition of things. The total number of men idle in this valley is a little over 22,000.

BABIES PERISH.

Salvation Army Nursery in Cincinnati Burns—Six Lives Are Lost.

Cincinnati, Sept. 18.—A branch nursery of the Salvation Army at No. 403 East Front street burned Monday evening, and its occupants were imprisoned so that many were suffocated to death and others seriously injured. At 4:50 p. m. Walter Fisher, a bar-keeper in an adjoining saloon, discovered the fire and sent in a still alarm. On account of the cold weather a fire had been started in the stove for the little tots who are cared for there during the day while their mothers are engaged at work elsewhere. It is thought that this caused the fire, through some defect in the flues or other parts of the old tenement building of four stories. Most of the mothers knew nothing of the calamity until they were through with their day's work and were then hunting at the morgue for the dead or at the hospitals for the injured. At both of these places, as well as about the burned building, the scenes were indescribable.

The firemen rushed into the blazing mission to rescue women and children, but most of those on the upper floors were beyond hope. The patrol wagons dashed with all possible speed to the hospitals with those that were rescued and their cries were heard along the streets. All of the hospital physicians were called in and the nurses did their utmost to relieve those suffering from burns. The office floor was used as a church, the second as headquarters for the destitute and for cooking and the upper floors for the nursery. The women and children could be seen from these upper stories pleading for help when the stairways were enveloped in flames.

The fire was soon controlled, but not until many had died from suffocation and others were seriously burned. Early in the evening it was currently reported that a dozen were killed and as many injured but later all were accounted for, except five killed, two fatally injured and four seriously injured. The dead are: Myrtle Farrell, aged six; James Harkins, painter, aged 40 years; Herbert Harkins, aged four years, son of James Harkins; Rhoda Harkins, aged five months; Maggie Williams, aged three months; Edward Mullen, aged four years. All of the dead bodies were burned to a crisp and the charred remains of James Harkins were clasping what was left of his little son Herbert. The property loss was only $1,500.

AN OPEN SWITCH.

It Causes a Railway Disaster Near Muncie, Ind.—Two Men Killed.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 18.—Near midnight an east bound express on the Lake Erie & Western ran into an open switch on a curve this side of Red Key, crashing into a freight engine. Fireman McClellan was killed and Engineer Montague had both legs broken. Two unknown tramps were pinioned in the wreckage, one was killed and the other so badly hurt that he cannot talk intelligently. The engineer noticed the danger signal light, but says he thought it a signal on a freight train. The baggage car was wrecked and many passengers slightly injured. The freight men jumped from their engine and ran for safety. The engine was running 40 miles an hour.

SAYS HOWARD IS THE MAN.]

Witness Identifies the Prisoner as the Man Seen Running from State House.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 18.—Bowman Gaines, the most important witness for the prosecution in the Jim Howard trial, testified that Howard is the man he saw run out of the state house grounds and jump the fence immediately after the shooting of Goebel. Bowman Gaines was severely cross-examined by Col. Owens, but the witness insisted that Howard was the man he saw running out through the rear grounds of the state house.

Deputy Sheriff Stubblefield testified that Jim Howard told him he killed Goebel. Stubblefield was at Howard's house and they were intimate friends.

Six Drowned.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 18.—Six negroes lost their lives Monday night because they would not wait 20 minutes for a ferryboat. Their names are not known. They were laborers at the Seaboard Air line terminals across the river from the city. They were in a hurry to reach the city and embarked in a small flat-bottomed boat. When they were in mid-stream a steamer passed and a swell capsized the boat. The men were thrown into the water, six being drowned.

AFTER THE DOLLARS.

Dwellers in Mining Camps Have No Other Aim in Life.

True Picture of Life in Cripple Creek—Gambling Is Carried On Openly—A Veritable Inferno in Miniature.

[Special Cripple Creek (Col.) Letter.] MINING town or city is called a "camp," whether the population be 500 or 20,000. Cripple Creek has about 20,000 population, and the miners rarely dignify it with the title of "city."

Life in a mining "camp" is both picturesque and real. Here human nature is seen in its every phase—all sorts and conditions of people migrate to a camp to better their ill fortunes. Here may be seen humanity in its lowest stages, and types of the shrewdest of mankind—the speculator and the capitalist who is seeking the advantage of those possessed with less business ability, and who conducts his shady transactions so that he can just escape the state's prison. This business highwayman knows enough of the technicalities of the law to evade its grasp. There is also the legitimate business man, who invests his capital, as elsewhere, and conducts his affairs properly, and is an honor to the "camp." He, however, like most others of a mining camp, is here only temporarily, and takes little interest in affairs other than his own. There are few who have come to stay—all are fortune hunters. Many leave before the camp "plays out," and many others play out before the camp does.

The life of a mining camp, of course, depends upon the mineral to be found within its limits. When the gold and silver mines begin to "peter out" the exodus begins, and those who remain the longest lose what they have accumulated, as is seen in the history of other mining camps, where substantial brick buildings are tenantless—monuments of a former prosperity. No one with business sagacity expects a mining camp to last very long, unless it has surrounding natural advantages; and it is a peculiarity of nature that these are seldom found where rich minerals exist. Nature is chary with its favors, and rarely bestows a variety in any one locality.

Cripple Creek, the richest mining camp in the United States, may, however, prove an exception, and last longer than any other camp in the history of mining. Should the mines become exhausted within the present decade the camp can be turned into a summer resort. The elevation is 10,000 feet, the air pure and bracing, and the mountain scenery is magnificent. Yet, the climate is somewhat soporific, casting a lazy, sleepy spell over a person, which one does not seem to overcome, no matter how long he may tarry here.

Next to the mining industry the strongest hold of the "camp" is the gambling saloons. While the miners could exist without the gamblers, the gambling houses could not exist without the miners. There are about 10,000 miners in the Cripple Creek district. Of this number about 5,000 are "tributary" to the city of Cripple Creek. Each miner receives from two dollars and fifty cents to four dollars a day—eight hours constituting a day's work. The mines are worked by relays, or reliefs, of eight hours each, and the gambling houses are run on the same plan—they never close their doors, nor stop their games. And the mines never close down, except for repairs, and the furnace fires of the mills are ever burning.

"The miners average $90 a month each, and more than half of them lose the greater part of their earnings at the gambling tables. Many of them lose all, and then buy provisions for their families at credit prices. Others fail to pay their bills, and this hampers trade. The gambling houses are not only a detriment to the miners, but also to the merchants, because the gambling mania makes collections slow and uncertain. Some of the miners gamble away their checks as soon as received.

In some of the gambling houses is displayed the sign: "Checks cashed here." The checks for wages are cashed with faro checks, and the miner loses them before leaving the table. Before entering the gambling den the miner cashes his check at a counter where sits a hawklike fellow, something like a pawnbroker. He knows that the greater part of it will never return—that the miner will perhaps leave empty-handed.

There are 42 gambling tables in the city, most of them located in saloons, so as to bring custom into the barrooms, and the reverse. Some of the saloons have three or four tables—a variety of faro, roulette and keno. In some of the low resorts, run for negroes, are "crap" games, for the negro is more at home at that game than any other. The free zone known as "Poverty Gulch" is set apart for the negro element, and it has not its counterpart for wickedness in the United States—the slums of New York and the Chicago "levee" not excepted. The stranger who ventures into "Poverty Gulch" after nightfall is either very ignorant of this "darktown" section, or very imprudent. The gambling tables are assessed ten dollars each per month. There is an "unofficial" official who makes the rounds on the first of each month with a memorandum book, and says to each proprietor: "You are fined ten dollars for running this table last month." The fine is paid, and the gambler permitted to violate the law for another month, or so long as he pays the "fine." The proprietor is not arrested and taken into court; there is no record made of the

A "CAMP" SETTLER.

"fine," and there are no court proceedings whatever. It is a mere permit to violate a law. Of course, if the gambler does not pay he is arrested, and then the matter becomes of official record. It is about the boldest official recognition of crime and condoning of a felony known in any city. It is a defiance of law—a violation of the oath of office of the officials who sanction it. They claim that the "people" want gambling houses, and that it "helps the town." The business men who suffer thereby say differently. It is held that a mining "camp" must be "wide open," and that gambling cannot be suppressed. The saloons never close—their doors being a mere matter of form.

Everyone does about as he pleases, after the manner of the Israelites during the period when ancient Israel had no king. However, there are not as many murders here, proportionately, as in most other cities. The reason, perhaps, is that as everyone goes armed and is ready for any emergency, there is not much of a desire among them to try conclusions.

Crimes in this camp run mainly to robberies—both of the highwayman and the eastern type. Scarcely a night passes but some desperate men enter a store, saloon, or stop a pedestrian with "Hands up!" Sometimes they "hold up" a gambling table—about the only way to beat it. These highwaymen are seldom masked. As they do not intend to remain in camp after their "coup," they do not think it necessary. They are seldom pursued—it is very dangerous to hunt robbers in these mountains. The plain robberies are mainly confined to the disreputable dance-houses and wineroms, where visiting strangers are drugged and robbed with a facility unsurpassed by the eastern pickpocket. Sometimes the victims are sandbagged and thrown into the streets. In cases where complaints are made, some of the property is restored—generally about 50 per cent. The "mutual friends" must have something for their trouble, they are not here on a pleasure excursion. The dancehouses run all night, and that district is an inferno in miniature.

STORY OF A SONGSTER.

Since Death Took the Sweet-Throated Mocking Bird His Mistress Has Been Disconsolate.

Within a dimly-lighted room at Atlanta, Ga., where visitors trod softly, a mocking bird sang and the weary eyes of a woman turned to the songster gratefully. Age had silvered the hair of the woman, and the relentless grip of disease had fastened itself upon her, so that with limbs useless, she was helpless.

Thus she had lain for six years and thus each day the tiny songster had been her companion.

When the sun shone outside, its rays rarely penetrated to the room where the invalid lay, the mocking bird sang its merriest, and when clouds shut out the brilliancy of the sun, the limpid song, uninterrupted, but with a more melancholy strain, went on and cheered the aged hearer.

The woman was Mrs. James D. Reed. For six years she has been confined to her room in the boarding-house conducted by her daughter at No. 107 Marietta street. During all that time the bird, "Bob," had been her constant companion until to-day.

Now Bob is dead, and the aged invalid, robbed of the greatest joy that was left to her, is disconsolate and losing strength day by day.

In the boarding house this mocking bird was the pet of all. Miss Reed kept house for 14 years, and during nine years of that time "Bob" had been with her.

From the moment of the beginning of Mrs. Reed's illness "Bob" was transferred to the sick room, and he rarely left it. There his duty was to cheer the weary moments of the invalid's day, and this he did well.

Mrs. Reed, the invalid, is more than 70 years old. She is unable to move about, although sometimes she is lifted into a chair and placed beside the window, where with "Bob" she was happy. "Bob's" death is a great blow to her.

WITH BOB SHE WAS HAPPY.

"I used to sit for hours," she said, "and listen to him sing. He was the best singer I ever heard, and was a great companion to me. I will miss him sorely, I know."

Miss Maggie Reed, the daughter, who owned "Bob," is heartbroken. She wept when she asked about her pet.

"I never knew I would miss him so much," she said, "but he was great company and very accomplished. He could imitate any sound, and his notes were so soft and sweet that they took mother back to the scenes and times of her health and girlhood. I fear the results for her, for no other bird can replace "Bob."

Dainty Dessert for Supper.

A delicious dessert to serve with supper is made of pineapple jelly and whipped cream. Make the jelly in the usual way, but instead of placing it in a mold, put it into a bowl, and when it has set, take a stiff spoon and stir it till it looks like a mass of shaven ice. Place this high in a glass dish and then add the whipped cream when it has been sweetened and flavored to taste. Or the cream may be brought on to the table in some fancy dish by itself and a heaping tablespoonful of it placed upon the top of each dish of the jelly as it is served. The effect is exceedingly pretty, and it is a considerable addition to the beauty of the table as well as most appetizing.—Chicago Daily News.

Formula for Shampooing.

Melt a cake of pure olive oil soap in a quart of boiling water. When the soap is dissolved the result will be almost a jelly. Take of this jelly say two large tablespoonfuls and a small lump of common washing soda about the size of a filbert. First wet the hair thoroughly with hot water, then rub the shampoo mixture well into the roots. Rinse thoroughly in several waters.

STREET LIFE IN CAIRO.

Woman Traveler Considers Egypt's Capital the Most Picturesque City in the Old World.

Cairo is the most picturesque of cities. As one saunters along the native quarter about midday groups of Arabs eating the midday meal are passed at frequent intervals. They sit leaning against some garden wall, their feet drawn up till the knees are level with the chin, and brown earthen basins on the ground beside them hold the food. They delight in color—children of the tropics always do—and the basins have linings of brilliant green, purple of yellow enamel, in which the inevitable tomato gleams a vivid contrast. A favorite dish seems to be a kind of soup with finely chopped green vegetables. Into this all dip pieces of coarse bread. If the fingers go in at the same time, that is a trifle that escapes notice.

The fellah uses his home but little. He eats and frequently sleeps outdoors. He is independent of bed and covering, and sometimes, one would almost think, of sleep. The furniture is of the simplest description, the most conspicuous feature usually being a wooden box decorated with crude designs in red and yellow. In this are his copy of the Koran and other simple treasures. A large copper basin called a tish serves a variety of purposes, both lavatory and culinary. Some of the houses, however, are heartbreakingly European, with cheap woolen carpets, gaudy cretonnes and occasionally a stroke of genius in the way of tawdry vases with artificial flowers.

A Cairene wedding among the lower classes is a frequent and always interesting sight. It takes place at night. One's attention is attracted by sounds of clashing brass and the beat of drums. The wedding procession moves rapidly, a leaping, straggling crowd, within the midst the carts that contain the household goods of the pair about to be wedded. From the number of carts a pretty accurate guess may be made regarding the worldly estate of the bridegroom. Swinging lamps and torches held aloft throw a dull glare on the faces of the throng, and jests and songs that are considered appropriate to the occasion are heard at frequent intervals.

BOXES AND BUREAUS.

How to Sweeten Them by the Use of Sachets That Are Easily Compounded at Home.

A sachet of long lasting fragrance can be made to imitate the scent of verbenas by saving the peels of lemons that come into the household and mixing them with caraway seeds.

Take half an ounce of the powdered seed and half a pound of the powdered lemon peel. The peellings can be ground in an ordinary kitchen coffee mill. Mix the two powders well together, and over it all pour a mixture of 1½ drams of oil of lemon peel and three ounces of oil of bergamot. This makes a dainty powder for sachets to use in the bureau drawers, linen closets, hat boxes, handkerchief cases, etc. It is called the verberna sachet.

A rather expensive sachet, but one that well pays for the making, is composed thus: Oil of patchouli, one-half dram; oil of rose geranium, one-half dram; attar of roses, one-half dram; oil of sandalwood, one dram; oil of lavender, one dram; oil of cloves, one-half dram; oil of bergamot, 3½ drams; extract of musk, one-half dram; mix well and add to two drams of this compound one ounce of powderedorris root, one dram Tonquin beans and two ounces sifted pine sawdust.

This is a favorite sachet for veil rolls and shirt waist boxes. The perfume can be renewed by dropping occasionally a few drops of the scented oils on the sachets.—N. Y. Herald.

What They Wanted.

"William, those people next door want to borrow our cow while we are away."

"Well, that's all right."

"Yes, but they want us to lend them feed for her, too."—Chicago Record.

And Willie Knew.

Little Willie—Pa, is ma a microbe? Mr. Henpeck—Why, no, Willie. What makes you ask such a question? Little Willie—Well, the teacher told us that baldness was caused by a microbe.—Baltimore American.

Our Democratic contemporaries and the campaign orators of that party, including Mr. Bryan, are laying especial stress in their articles and speeches on the evil effects of expansion. One man who was a staunch advocate of Democratic principles and who is frequently quoted today as a good Democratic authority was Stephen A. Douglas. His views on expansion should have weight and interest at this time when the anti-expansion doctrine is being worked for all there is in it. Here is what Douglas said about expansion in a speech at Freeport, June 17, 1858, during his great joint debate with Abraham Lincoln:

"It is idle to say we have territory enough. Our fathers supposed we had enough when our territory extended to the Mississippi river, but a few years' growth and expansion satisfied them that we needed more, and the Louisiana territory, from the west bank of the Mississippi river to the British possessions, was acquired. Then we acquired Oregon, then California and New Mexico. We have enough now for the present, but this is a young and growing nation. It swarms as often as a hive of bees, and as new swarms are turned out each year there must be lives in which they can gather and make their honey. In less than 15 years, if the same progress that has distinguished this country for the last 15 years continues, every foot of vacant land between this and the Pacific Ocean, owned by the United States, will be occupied. Will you not continue to increase at the end of 15 years as well as now? I tell you, increase and multiply and expand is the law of this nation's existence. You cannot limit this great republic by mere boundary lines, saying: 'Thus far shalt thou go, and no further.' Any one of you gentlemen might as well say to a son of 12 years old that he is big enough, and must not grow any larger, and, in order to prevent his growth, put a hoop around him to keep him to his present size. What would be the result? Either the hoop must be rent asunder, or the child must die. So it would be with this great nation. With our natural increase growing with a rapidity unknown in any other part of the globe, with the tide of emigration that is fleeing from despotism in the old world to ask refuge in our own, there is a constant torrent pouring into this country that requires more land, more territory upon which to settle, and just so far as our interests require additional territory, in the north, in the south, or on the islands of the ocean, I am for it."

What was true when Douglas uttered the above words is equally true of today and the anti-expansion cry should have no more weight with the Democrats of today than it would have had with Stephen A. Douglas. The cry against expansion and militarism is a ridiculous campaign cry with no principle whatever underlying it.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

A feature of the annual report of the state land commissioner is the section devoted to the beet sugar industry. The report says that at the present time Michigan stands second as a beet sugar producing state. Last year the production was 84,000,000 pounds of beet sugar, although the season was a bad one for the culture of beets.

Lester Yost, of Ypsilanti, lost a pair of spectacles on the fair grounds at the recent race meeting in Ann Arbor. Starter Ode Russ announced the fact in a loud voice. The announcement was heard by Tommy McNamara, who with ready wit at once yelled back, "Please, tell Mr. Yost, that I have a pair of horses here that I would like to show him before he finds those spectacles."

Editor Carlton, of the Grass Lake News, is a regular water melon glutton, if one may judge by the following item taken from the columns of his last week's issue: "A watermelon a trifle smaller than a tobacco pail was found on our table a few days ago and very soon after was stored away in the editor's midriff. It was one of those 25-pound Will Crafts' brand. Life was also made very sweet by a similar contribution to the editor's mania for the plethoric melon fields of E. Ellis south of town.

Rev. Fred V. Hawley, for the past three years pastor of the Unitarian church, Jackson, has accepted a call to the Church of the Messiah, at Louisville, Ky., and will begin his pastorate there Nov. 4. Mr. Hawley went to Jackson from Brooklyn, Mich., and has been very successful in his ministerial work. The church to which he has been called is Dr. James Freeman Clarke's old church. The reverend gentleman is well and favorably known to many in Chelsea and other parts of Washtenaw county, by whom he is held in high esteem.

E. circuit, during which time he has been a resident in our village, has been appointed to Tipton, in Lenawee county. The Chelsea circuit has been all divided up. Sylvan Center is dropped, Lima Center is added to Dexter, and Waterloo with other work added is made one charge with Rev. A. F. Camburn as minister. In common, with his other friends, the Herald regrets to see Mr. Marsh leave Chelsea. By his quiet, manly, genial manner he has endeared himself to us all. He will leave for his new home next week.

THE STRICKEN CITY.

Estimates of Dead at Galveston Vary from 5,000 to 8,000.

It Is Said the Damage to Property by the Storm Will Reach $40,000,000—Liberal Responses to Call for Aid.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 17.—State Health Officer Blunt left here Sunday for Austin, where he will make a report to the governor concerning conditions in Galveston. It is said that this statement will estimate the mortality at 8,000 souls. Dr. Blunt was in Galveston several days and made a thorough investigation of the results of the storm.

Says Dead Number 5,000.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 12.—Mayor Walter C. Jones estimates the number of dead at 5,000, and he is conservative. Over 2,300 bodies have already been taken out to sea or buried in trenches. Other hundreds are yet to be taken from the ruins. These bodies are now all badly decomposed, and they are being buried in trenches where they are found. Others are being buried in the debris where this can be done safely.

Looters Shot.

The remnant of the force of regular soldiers who were stationed here—and it is a very small remnant—have joined the police in patrolling the city. Several persons have already been shot, it is reported. A soldier of Capt. Rafferty's battery, while patrolling the beach Tuesday morning ordered a man to desist from looting. The fellow drew a weapon and the soldier shot him dead. The soldier was attacked by four other men and he killed all of them. He had five cartridges in his rifle, and each of them found a victim. Other men have also been shot, but the details are not known nor can the exact number be ascertained, but it is probable that 25 were killed. Some of these were shot for failing to halt when ordered to do so.

Assistance Badly Needed.

The local relief committee sends out the following:

Near-by cities are supplying and will supply sufficient food, clothing, etc., for immediate needs. Cities further away can serve us best by sending money. Checks should be made payable to John Sealy, chairman of the finance committee. All supplies should come to W. A. McVittie, chairman relief committee. We have 25,000 people to clothe and feed for many weeks and to furnish with household goods. Most of these are homeless and the others will require money to make their wrecked residences habitable. From this, the world may understand how much money we will need. This committee will from time to time report our needs with more particularity.

Much Vandalism.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 12.—A horrible story is told by Dallas citizens who returned Tuesday night from Galveston. They declare that negroes and many white persons are hourly committing the most atrocious acts of vandalism. J. N. Griswold, division freight agent of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe, who was in that city during the storm, and had a narrow escape from death, said:

"Ears and fingers bearing diamonds were naked off with pocket knives and the members placed in the pockets of vandals. The bodies of women who wore fine clothes have been stripped of the last thread and left to fester in the sun. The residences left standing have been broken into and jewelry and silver plate stolen. I saw a negro woman carrying a large basket of silverware that was not hers. At Texas City I saw an old man, considerably under the influence of liquor. His pocket protruded a roll of bills as big as my arm, which he claimed to have found on the bay shore. Upon all hands this horrible work is going on. The offenders are generally negroes, although there are some white men who have demonstrated that they are sufficiently devoid of honesty and manhood to participate in these ghastly deeds. As soon as the storm subsided the negroes stole all the liquor they could get and, beastly drunk, proceeded with their campaign of vandalism. Troops are needed at once."

Hard to Compute.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—R. G. Love, manager of the Galveston News, sent the following statement at midnight:

"A summary of the conditions prevailing at Galveston is more than human intellect can master. Briefly stated, the damage to property is anywhere between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000. The loss of life cannot be computed. No lists could be kept and all is simple guess work. Those thrown out to sea and buried on the ground wherever found will reach the horrible total of at least 3,000 souls. My estimate of the loss on the island of the city of Galveston and the immediate surrounding district is between 4,000 and 5,000 deaths. I do not make this statement in fright or excitement. The whole story will never be told, because it cannot be told. Not a single individual escaped property loss. The property on the island is wrecked; fully one-half totally swept out of existence altogether. What our needs are can be computed by the world at large by the statement herewith submitted much better than I can possibly summarize them. The help must be immediate."

Loss Irreparable.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 12.—Col. W. B. Wortham, who has been at Galveston as the personal representative of Gov. Sayers to investigate and report on the true conditions, declares the city is wrecked for all time to come and that 75 per cent. of the residence and business portions is demolished. The vile odors arising from decomposing bodies and decayed vegetation render imminent the danger of a pestilence. Vandalism is rife, despite the efforts of the military and citizens' committees.

Beyond Recovery.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 13.—"I fear Galveston is destroyed beyond its ability to recover," is the manner in which Quartermaster Baxter has concluded his report to his headquarters at Washington. He recommends the continuance of his office only long enough to recover the office safes and close up accounts, and declares all government works are wrecked so restoration is impossible.

Damage Will Reach $40,000,000.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 14.—Estimates of the property damage due to the storm and flood in Texas, based on information supplied by Gov. Sayers, the managers of railway, telegraph and telephone companies, cattle men, cotton men, merchants and others, fix the total at $40,000,000. The final total is likely to go above these figures.

Stuper Shaken Off.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 15.—The city has finally lifted its head from beneath the weight of woe which has been pressing down, and from now on its rehabilitation will be sure, and if money is received it will be rapid. The first real attempt to clear away the great mass of debris piled along the beach front for a distance of several miles was begun Friday.

A Telegram of Protest.

Much attention has been attracted by the dispatch of Quartermaster Baxter to the department expressing the belief that Galveston has been hopelessly ruined. Congressman Hawley, the only republican member of congress from Texas, who was not in the city when the disaster occurred, but who has since returned, Thursday night sent the following telegram to the war department in reply to the dispatches of Quartermaster Baxter.

"Galveston, Tex., Sept. 13.—To the Honorable Secretary of War, Washington: While it might not be significant or worthy of notice, I have the honor to state that Quartermaster Baxter's telegram to the department general respecting Galveston is unworthy of a soldier and in no way represents the morale of Galveston citizenship and their determined purpose to restore their city. R. B. HAWLEY."

The storm-stricken people are profoundly grateful for the generous response of the world to their appeal for relief, and from a wish to be worthy of the aid extended to them they are speaking more hopefully of reconstruction.

Many Leaving the City.

The exodus from the city is heavy to-day and hundreds more are eager to go who are unable to secure transportation. Along the bay front there are scores of families with dejected faces pleading to be taken from the stricken city, where, in spite of every effort to restore confidence, there is a universal feeling of depression.

Opening Communication.

Assurances have been received by the railroads that they will do all in their power to reopen communication, and their present plan seems to be to concentrate all forces on the work of the reconstruction of one bridge. Crews are coming down the Santa Fe railroad from Arkansas and St. Louis with full equipments to restore the line. Local representatives of the Southern Pacific have had advices from headquarters to proceed with repair work without delay. Telegraph communication has been partially restored, the Western Union and Postal companies having reached the city with one wire. Large forces have been at work along the lines of both companies and connection with Galveston has been attended with many difficulties.

Business Houses Open.

A larger number of business houses than on Thursday are open and advertising their wares at no advance in the prices. Carts with disinfectants are going through the streets. The gutters are being covered with lime. Carpenters are having all the work they can do. The storm tore hundreds of roofs off, and the people who are living in topless houses are eager to obtain coverings so as to prevent the destruction of what they have saved if a rainstorm comes along. Thus far, however, the weather has been clear.

Lists Imperfect.

Lists of the living and of the dead are far from perfect. The identity of all who have been lost will never be known. The names sent out from here have been gathered with scrupulous care, but at the same time many errors are found in them.

The Known Dead.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 15.—The Post prints a list of 2,701 names of the Galveston dead, compiled from various sources, but believed to be authentic. There were hundreds of bodies burned, buried at sea and in the sand, of which no identification was possible; there were other hundreds who were buried on the beach of the mainland, few of whom have been identified. There are many bodies still in the ruins of Galveston, and scattered along the beach of the mainland and in the marshes, where they were thrown by the water. Some of these bodies have been sent 20 miles inland along small watercourses by the rush of high waters. Taking all things into consideration, there seems no longer any doubt that the number of dead will reach beyond the estimates of 5,000 which has been made by Mayor Jones, Maj. R. G. Love and other reliable citizens of Galveston.

All Very Hopeful.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 17.—Yesterday was a dreary Sabbath here. Services were held in the few churches made fit for use since the great storm. All day men and boys were at work clearing away the debris. Only a few dead were found during the day, and they were quickly buried, no attempt being made to identify them.

What a contrast! Last Sunday, gloom, desolation and despair prevailed in this storm-torn city. Now hope and determination have seized the people; they realize that the task before them is gigantic, yet with the generous aid that is flowing to them in a broad stream from all parts of the civilized world, and their own indomitable purpose, the sick and wounded will be healed, the destitute relieved and recuperation of Galveston will be speedy and the city will be rebuilt and placed on a more enduring foundation and her commercial career started anew. Such is the spirit displayed to-day by this grievously stricken people.

One can hear no complaining, no expression of want of confidence, but only of hope, zeal and determination, and this is exemplified by the vigorous enterprise visible on every hand. Work is being pushed under a systematic plan of operation that is rapidly bringing order out of chaos. The search and burial or cremation of the unfortunate victims within the corporate limits is being rapidly prosecuted by a large force in organized squads under military direction. Down the island and on the mainland the work of interring the dead is conducted with the same system.

City Well Protected.

Looting and the desecration of corpses have ceased since the military have assumed charge of affairs, and they are cooperating harmoniously with the civil authorities. Sheriff Thomas is in charge of the isolated district, and is directing interment and the recovery of property there. United States Marshal Grant has been given full authority by Gen. Scurry, and is directing affairs on the mainland, aided by a troop of rangers, who are ordered to make short work of looters and arrest all suspicious characters. The Rangers and the militia and civil guards stationed at Texas City and Virginia Point are under the direction of Marshal Grant. These are the two points of ingress into the city. He also has control over all the railways running into this city and all craft plying between Virginia Point and Texas City, and no one can embark or disembark at these places without his permission, unless having authority so to do from his superior officers.

The cleaning up and disinfecting of streets, stores and buildings goes bravely on and the sanitary condition of the down-town portion of the city has been greatly improved. Mayor Jones stated there would be no let up in the work until the entire city is cleaned and disinfected. Dry goods stores and clothing houses resemble great laundries and every available space is occupied with goods hung up to dry. Fortunately the weather is clear, hot and dry for this purpose.

In the Churches.

All churches in the city, either being wrecked or ruined, with one or two exceptions, Divine services were in most cases suspended. Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's cathedral in the morning and was largely attended. Father Kirwin preached an eloquent and feeling sermon, in which he spoke of the awful calamity that had befallen the people. After expressing sympathy with the afflicted and distressed, he advised all to go to work in burying the dead. That was their first duty; the next was to bring the names of the widows and orphans to the church and they could rest assured of the unfortunates being cared for. Father Kirwin said: "We will build a more secure, a larger, a better city here, and need never fear a repetition of the calamity of the century."

The keeper of the life saving station at the western extremity of the island got in Sunday. He reports the station gone and that a frightful scene of desolation exists there. He reports that 150 bodies were buried there; that the prairie and marshes are strewn with the carcasses of animals and reptiles and that the stench is stifling.

Dr. Truhart, chairman of the organization of physicians for the relief of the wounded and sick, states that there is absolutely no further necessity for trained nurses and physicians.

Thinks 8,000 Are Dead.

State Health Officer Blunt left here Sunday for Austin, where he will make a report to the governor concerning conditions in Galveston. It is said that this statement will estimate the mortality at 8,000 souls. Dr. Blunt was in Galveston several days and made a thorough investigation of the results of the storm.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Situation in the Business World as Reviewed by Dun—Effect of Galveston Storm.

New York, Sept. 15.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The tropical storm that devastated the Gulf coast, almost wiping out the city of Galveston and doing damage in other parts of the country, caused reduction in the volume of business at the south, and railroads in the Gulf region have probably not shown their maximum losses of earnings as yet; but even after such a catastrophe a recuperative power is shown. An added cause of hesitation in business is the order for a strike of anthracite coal miners. Otherwise the working force is resuming at this week, for operations are resuming at steel mills, and the Michigan-Penninsular car plant and the Deering harvester works have started up after seven weeks' idleness with 3,000 hands each. From many quarters of the west and southeast a better distribution of merchandise is reported in jobbing and retail circles."

"Wheat rose above 80 cents again, in the face of receipts for the crop year thus far 3,415,956 bushels larger than last year, while exports decreased 10,251,378 bushels, including flour. Reports of heavy rains in some sections and injury to the crop, with better inquiries by foreign houses, explain the advance."

"More orders are being received at the iron mills and prices are steady. In structural and finished material there is much business, and activity is becoming almost universal in the iron region. Steel rails are waiting for the agreement as to prices, which is expected to be reached next week. A reduction in keeping with other steel products is considered certain, and then the market will be on a settled basis. Some large makers favor $27.50 as the new basis and believe that nearly 2,000,000 tons would be ordered at that figure. Ship building was never more active, and a feature was a contract for a coal pier to be used in the export trade."

"Failures for the week were 126 in the United States, against 149 last year, and 10 in Canada, against 32 last year."

In 1858 he was made master; in 1861, lieutenant; in 1862, lieutenant commander; in 1870, commander; in 1881, captain; in 1894, commodore, and in April, 1897, rear admiral.

STORM IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

Great Destruction by the Gale—A Number of Lives Have Been Lost.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 15.—Tales of widespread destruction wrought by Thursday's gale continue to pour in. Six vessels were wrecked near St. Pierre and six in Placentia bay. It is also reported that four were lost in Renew's harbor, two in the straits of Belle Isle and four near Cape Bonavista. Other parts of the island have yet to be heard from, the telegraph wires to remote points being down. Thus far 14 lives are known to have been lost, and it is feared that the loss of life will prove to have been much greater when full information is at hand.

A Grocers' Trust.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 15.—A special to the Star from Salina, Kan., says: A number of wholesale grocers have been here for the past two days forming a syndicate to control the wholesale grocery business in Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and other western states. The syndicate will probably have a capital of $10,000,000, and will have its headquarters in Kansas City.

Fire at Port Huron.

Port Huron, Mich., Sept. 14.—Fire at noon Thursday destroyed the entire plant owned by the McMorran Milling company, the Port Huron & Northwestern Elevator company and D. McMorran & Co. The loss will reach $225,000, covered by insurance. One hundred and fifty thousand bushels of grain stored in the elevator is a total loss.

Population of East St. Louis.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The population of the city of East St. Louis, Ill., as officially announced, is: 1900, 29,655; 1890, 15,169. These figures show for the city as a whole an increase of 94,486, or 95.50 per cent., from 1890 to 1900.

FOUGHT WITH BOXERS.

Americans Victorious in a Recent Engagement—They Suffer No Loss.

Tientsin, Sept. 14, via Shanghai, Sept. 17.—A British signal officer reports a sharp engagement between a company of the Fourteenth United States Infantry and 2,000 Boxers at Mo Tao (Ma Tow?) on the road to Peking. The Americans made a gallant stand, and a detachment of Bengal Lancers near by hearing the firing, came to their rescue and charged the Boxers in the rear. The Chinese were routed, leaving 200 dead. The Americans had no casualties. The Germans report an engagement with a heavy force of Boxers west of Peking. The German loss is said to have been 20. Indications now point strongly to the withdrawal of all the powers from Peking to Tientsin.

In connection with the prediction by Sir Robert Hart that there will be further hostilities in China in November, it is understood that the British government is already considering the transfer of troops from South Africa to India in order to make it practicable to send more British troops to China. The military authorities consider the war in South Africa so far ended that troops may now be safely moved.

The Peking correspondent of the Daily News says that the assassin of Baron von Ketteler has been shot.

Peking, Sept. 11, via Taku, Sept. 17.—The allied generals were in conference four hours, the principal topic being how best to encourage the Chinese to return to work. It was agreed that looting should cease and that foraging parties should hereafter be accompanied by an officer who should give receipts for all supplies taken. The question of wintering at Tientsin was brought up with a view of ascertaining, if possible, the attitude of the Russians. Gen. Linevitch admitted that most of his troops would winter there.

SIX DROWNED.

Thrown Into the Water from a Boat Near Eau Claire, Wis., They Fail to Reach Shore.

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 17.—Eighteen men employed by the Northwestern Lumber company were crossing the pond above the mill dam on the Eau Claire river in a batteau early Saturday evening. A heavy gale dashed the waves over the side of the boat and swamped it. Eight men attempted to swim to shore, about a quarter of a mile distant, and six of them were drowned. The dead are: John McQuestion, Andy McQuade, John Leiter, Al Carr, Thomas Cameron and William Braybrock. Two swimmers reached the land exhausted. The ten men hung to the batteau and were rescued by another crew. Several of the survivors are nearly dead from exposure.

The bodies of five of the six men were recovered Sunday. Andrew McQuade's body was found at 10:30, and those of Thomas Cameron, William Praybrock and John Leiter at 11 a. m. John McQuestion's body was brought to the surface at 2:30. One thousand people were on the scene.

POPULATION OF SUPERIOR.

Wisconsin Town Makes Remarkable Gain in the Last Ten Years According to Census Report.

Superior, Wis., leads all other cities in the country as regards the percentage of increase in its population, so far as the returns of the census office show, and has graduated to the 25,000 class of cities. The percentage of gain is 159.46, the population being 31,091, an increase of 19,108 over 1890, when the population was 11,983. It will be seen that superior almost trebled its population.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The census bureau announces that the population of Oshkosh, Wis., is 28,284, as against 22,836 in 1890; an increase of 5,448, or 23.86 per cent.

The population of Newport, Ky., is 28,301, as against 24,918 in 1890; an increase of 3,383, or 13.58 per cent.

A TRAGIC FATE.

Capt. McQuestion, Fourth U. S. Infantry, Killed by a Private in the Philippines.

Washington, Sept. 17.—The war department has received information from Gen. MacArthur of the tragic death in the Philippines of Capt. Charles McQuestion, of the Fourth regiment of United States Infantry, the result of a wound by a private soldier. Gen. MacArthur's dispatch is as follows:

"Manila.—Adjutant General, Washington: Charles McQuestion, captain Fourth United States Infantry, died yesterday, Mangonone, Bacor, Cavite province, 12 p. m., resulting from gunshot wound caused by private soldier. Capt. McQuestion in a fit of temporary insanity attacked men of company. Shot one or more and was shot himself in self-defense. Further particulars when received."

Offer to Care for Kruger.

The Hague, Sept. 17.—The government of the Netherlands has telegraphed to Lourenzo Marques offering a Dutch warship to bring Mr. Kruger to Holland.

CHINA IS IN A HURRY.

He Asks That Conger Be Instructed to Begin Peace Negotiations at Once.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The desire of China to actually begin the negotiations for peace was evidenced Monday in a dispatch from Prince Ching, delivered by Minister Wu to the state department. The dispatch was dated at Peking, September 8, and in it Prince Ching states that he has been clothed with full authority, along with Li Hung Chang, to negotiate for peace. He expresses a desire to proceed in the matter and asks Minister Wu to submit a request to the secretary of state to send instructions to Minister Conger to begin the negotiations at once. It is probable that no immediate response to the request for instructions to Minister Conger can be given, as Prince Ching's request will have to be laid before the president and sufficient time given to consider the question of his credentials, as well as the desirability of proceeding at once.

M. Thiebaut, the French charge d'affaires, called on Mr. Adey Monday, and the status of Chinese affairs was gone over. It appears that Prince Ching's request that Minister Conger be instructed to proceed with the negotiations has been communicated also to the other powers, each being requested to authorize their several ministers to go on with the negotiations, at least in the preliminary stages. This may make necessary some discussion between the powers as to the desirability of acceding to the request, although there appears to be a rather general idea that there will be no immediate instructions to go on.

London, Sept. 18.—There is no additional news from China this morning. The Daily Graphic asserts that all the powers have accepted Li Hung Chang, and will probably accept Prince Ching as negotiators. It says also that the powers have agreed to insist that a central government, satisfactory to the powers, shall be established in China, and that full retribution shall be exacted for the attacks upon the legations.

BEGINNING TO LOOK HERSELF.

Street Cars Running in Streets of Galveston—Remarkable Progress Made in Restoring Order.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 18.—Galveston is beginning to look like itself again. Horse cars are in operation in the business part of the city, and the electric line and water service has been partially resumed. The progress being made under the circumstances is little short of remarkable. According to statements made by Gen. Scurry, Mayor Jones, Alderman Perry and others, there is equally good reason to believe that the progress of the work during the next week or so will be even more satisfactory.

Monday morning the board of health began a systematic effort to obtain the names of the dead, so that the information can be used for legal purposes and for life insurance settlements.

General Manager Polk, of the Santa Fe railroad, stated Monday that the bridge across the bay would be repaired sufficiently to permit of the passage of trains by Wednesday or Thursday at the very latest.

Sunday 107 bodies were recovered and cremated. Among them was a mother with a suckling babe tightly clasped to her breast. In this imperative necessity of the dispatch of the dead tragic scenes are witnessed that move the stoutest hearts. The number recovered and cremated Monday has not been reported as yet, but it will exceed 100 or more.

Partial census of 11 of the 12 wards in Galveston puts the death list by the storm at 15,000.

The President's Plan.

Washington, Sept. 18.—President McKinley's orders for the establishment of a government over the Philippines were made public Monday. They were issued April 7 last in the form of instructions to the Taft commission, whose members were charged with promulgating, September 1, a civil rule that should guarantee the fullest possible measure of freedom to all the islanders, safeguard their rights and separate church from state. They include the establishment of a civil government in which the natives shall take part so far as they show capacity to do so.

Official Vote of Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 18.—The complete vote in the recent state election for governor, the only contested office, was announced Monday officially. The total number of votes cast was 132,979, of which Jeff Davis (dem.), received 88,637; H. L. Rammel (rep.), 40,701; Abner W. Files (pop.), 4,411. Davis' majority, 44,295; plurality, 47,936.

A Fatal Explosion.

London, Sept. 18.—The British commander at Taku cables that a fagade party, engaged in destroying gunpowder at Tung Chow, has been blown up. Two British-Indian soldiers were killed. The wounded included 13 British-Indian soldiers, Capt. Hill and 11 British-Chinese soldiers and 11 Welsh fusiliers.

Not a General's Egg.

The freshness of eggs is carefully graded in this country, but our distinctions are surpassed in delicacy by those formerly in vogue among the British residents in India. A distinguished general once happened to stop in Calcutta. At breakfast the great man was served with boiled eggs. He took one, broke the shell, and dropped it with an air of disgust.

"Here!" he cried to his servant, "what do you mean by giving me a bad egg?" The man hurried to his master, and examined the egg with the utmost seriousness. "I entreat your forgiveness," said he; "but it's all a mistake. The stupid waiter has gone and brought you an aid de camp's egg by mistake."—Stray Stories.

WANTED TO TELL HER.

His Circuit Was Disconnected, But Love's Current Was Soon Flowing Smoothly.

"Millie!" The young lineman twirled his hat in his hands in an agitated manner and spoke in a voice that seemed to have a tendency to get away from him, says the Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Millie, the fact is, I—I—there's something I've been wanting to tell you for a long time, but I can't seem to fetch it. When you look at me like that, you know, it breaks me all up. I've been coming here so long that I oughtn't to be afraid, I reckon, but— you know how it is—or maybe you don't, either. I thought you're a little the liveliest wire I ever—I didn't think it would be so hard when I—"

Here he came to a dead stop. "Millie!" he exclaimed, in desperation, "I'm short circuited! I've burned out a fuse!"

"Jerry, are you trying to ask me to marry you?" "Yes!"

"Why, of course I will, you foolish boy!" And love's current flowed unobstructedly again, lighting up with its pure radiance the rose-embowered pathway that, etc., etc.

Improvement Reported December, 1897

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to tell you that I am improving in health. I am ever so much better than when I wrote before. I would advise all who suffer with female troubles to try your medicine."—Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, June 1, 1899.

W. G. Burchfield, of Texas City, Texas, formerly of Ann Arbor, was one of the sufferers by the tidal wave which did so much destruction in Texas, Sept. 8. In a letter to his son Sam Burchfield, of Ann Arbor, he writes very despondently as follows: "We were caught in the tidal wave on Saturday night and all our houses and everything we have on earth is gone. Nearly all the people here are drowned and Galveston is swept away. All our clothes and valuables are gone. The worst destruction is on our shore. The dead bodies on our beach are so thick that we can't count them, and they are badly mutilated. We cannot say what we shall do yet. There were some crackers and bread sent from Houston this morning. I have tried to persuade your mother and sister to go north. I am so old that I am afraid I cannot hold out."

Dr. Reilly as a Lecturer.
The Grass Lake News would like to see Rev. Chas. O. Reilly, D. D., of Adrian, secured as one of the attractions for a lecture course the coming winter and advocates it in the following flattering manner:

"Germaine Foster was in Chelsea Sunday and heard Rev. Chas. O. Reilly, D. D., of Adrian, preach at St. Mary's church. He said the discourse was earnest, profound and eloquent. If Grass Lake is to have a course of lectures the coming winter, the famous Adrian orator would prove a drawing card if his services could be secured. The reverend gentleman has magnetism, his thought is chaste and beautiful, and any topic he discusses is made to sparkle and glow as if touched by the wand of enchantment. He should be enrolled as one of the speakers if possible."
