MAKING UP THE BALLOT.

Supreme Court Will Decide Which Faction
Is Entitled to Place Under the Republican Vignette.

On Friday last the Washtenaw county board of election commissioners, consisting of Judge Newkirk, County Clerk Schuh and County Treasurer Mann, met in the probate office to arrange the position of the different tickets on the blanket ballot.
Mr. Schuh could not be present at the meeting so an adjournment was had until 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

At that time the board, which has a Democratic majority, placed the Democratic ticket in the first column, the Republican national and state ticket in the second column with blank spaces for the so-called Judson and anti-Judson county tickets lower down on the ballot and each side of the national and state ticket, the supreme court to decide which should have first place. The other tickets on the ballot to be arranged in their regular order. The board also declined to allow the names of A. J. Sawyer and George Rawson to appear on the ballot as candidates for the legislature because their certificates were not properly signed.

On Tuesday the supreme court granted an order requiring the board to show cause why the county ticket nominated by the so-called Judson convention should not go under the regular Republican vignette and also why the Republican column should not be in the first column on the blanket ballot.

The Antis were also granted the same kind of an order.

O. E. Batterfield represents the Judson-ites, Prof. J. C. Knowlton the Antis and Judge Babbitt the Democrats. The question is to be argued orally before the supreme court at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A SPLENDID AUDIENCE

Greeted Congressman Smith, Col. Thompson and Judge Newkirk.

The political ball opened in Chelsea
Thursday evening when Congressman H.
C. Smith, Col. B. M. Thompson, of Ann Arbor, and Judge H. Wirt Newkirk addressed a Republican meeting at the opera house. So many were there that the hall was filled to overflowing and standing room even was at a premium.

O. T. Hoover was chairman of the meeting and introduced as the first speaker H. Wirt Newkirk. The judge did not make a long speech, contenting himself with correcting some of the false impressions that the Morantites and their organ the Reporter have sought to instill into the minds of the people against him.
At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Newkirk received a regular ovation of applause.

The next speaker was Col. B. M.
Thompson, who is a gold Democrat. In a lengthy speech he defined the difference between the democracy of Thomas Jefferson and other distinguished Democrats and that of Mr. Bryan. He addressed himself more particularly to the Democrats present who might be thinking of voting for the Nebraskan because of the anti-expansion theories exploited by him. He pointed out that this was the first instance where territory had been acquired under a Republican administration. Most of the territory added to the United States had been under Democratic rule. His address was listened to throughout with much attention and he was warmly applauded at its close.

Congressman Smith devoted his attention to a discussion of the respective attitudes of the Republican and Democratic parties in congress on the trust question.

During the evening the Chelsea Band played several selections of music, one of them "The Smithsonian Two Step," a piece of music dedicated to the congressman by the author, the score of which was presented to the band by Mr. Smith.
The meeting closed with three cheers for McKinley, Roosevelt, Smith and the flag.

The "Rustlers" Won Out.

Yesterday the contest between the Hustlers and the Rustlers of the K. O. T. M. and L. O. T. M. ended, and last night
Chelsea Tent initiated its 300th member.
Several candidates were taken in last night and the balance will be initiated next Tuesday evening. It is said the Rustlers rusted the Hustlers so hard that they fell down before the rustling and will now have to hustle and get up the supper which is to be served next Wednesday evening, Oct. 31.

WHO WILL BUILD THE ROAD?

S. F. Angus Is Buying a Private Right of Way Through Chelsea.

The granting of a franchise to William
A. Boland last week by the common council seems to have had the effect of arousing all the dormant energies of the Hawkes and Angus people. Since Thursday last their right of way agent, George C. Cutler, of Pontiac, has been in Chelsea securing three months' option on a private right of way through the property on VanBuren street and westward from South Main street through private property, connecting with the rights of way in Lima and Sylvan already held by them. Mr. Cutler has had good success in his effort and has secured practically all the property needed.
Now it remains to be seen which will do business. The Hawkes and Angus men have franchises and rights of way from Ann Arbor to Jackson, but no franchise in either of those cities. Mr. Boland has franchises in Jackson, Grass Lake, Chelsea and Dexter, but no right of way or franchise in the townships or Ann Arbor.

Which will build the road? It is hardly likely that both parties will do so—that is, if they are wise. In any event we may expect to hear something drop very shortly, as a three months' option soon expires.

APPORTIONMENT OF TAXES

It Is Based on the Assessment Rolls as Returned by the Supervisors.

The apportionment of the state and county taxes as made by the board of supervisors gives the townships in this vicinity the following amounts to pay:

Sylvan—Valuation, $1,334,035; state tax,
$3,175; county, $1,011.64.

Lima—Valuation, $908,808; state tax,
$2,144.11; county, $689.19.

Lyndon—Valuation, $194,850; state tax,
1,177.74; county, $375.28.

Sharon—Valuation, $885,160; state tax,
$2,096.98; county, $671.24.

Dexter—Valuation, $592,710; state tax,
$1,410.65; county, $449.45.

Ann Arbor city will pay $23,815.75 as its state tax, and $7,582.16 county tax.

Ypsilanti will pay $9,403.03 state tax and $2,996.06 county tax. The total state tax for the county is $81,593.61 and the total county tax $26,000.

20th Michigan Infantry Reunion.

The 25th annual reunion of the old 20th
Michigan Infantry held at Ypsilanti last Thursday was a memorable occasion for the old boys of that famous regiment, one of whose companies was raised in and around Chelsea. One hundred and fifteen old veterans, a little over 10 per cent of the total strength of the regiment when it first marched from its rendezvous at Jackson, Sept. 2, 1862, were present, among them being the three survivors of the famous Minnis rifle and drum corps, who awakened old memories among the comrades as they marched through the streets playing familiar tunes. Those present from Chelsea and vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. G. J.
Crowell, Elijah Hammond and daughter
Miss Clara Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman and David Raymond, of Sharon, and others.

The day was spent in visiting one with another, a business meeting in the afternoon, and a banquet at 6 o'clock in the M.
E. church parlors, to which 240 people sat down. An enjoyable program of toasts speeches and music followed.

The next reunion is to be held at Ann Arbor in 1901. The officers elected are Norman D. Gates president, Conrad No. 1 secretary and treasurer, both of Ann Arbor. A history of the regiment is to be prepared and published.

Baptist Church Statistics.

At the meeting of the Baptist State Association held at Flint last week, the reports showed the state missions to be in an encouraging condition. Several churches that had received help are now self-supporting. The Woman's Home Missionary Society sent $1,636 to missionaries last year. Forty-nine pastors changed their field of labor, 24 moving out of the state and 24 coming in from other states; 18 resigned; 3 were deposed; 10 ministers were ordained; 3 churches were organized; 8 meeting houses dedicated, and 1,859 baptisms were reported. The membership in the state is now 43,305, a loss of 185 from last year, but final revision, it is believed, will make good the loss and show an actual increase.

The directors of the Lakeside creamery, at Grass Lake, declared a dividend of 7 per cent at their last meeting.

MADE HIS ANNUAL REPORT

Board of Regents of the University of Michigan Listen to President James B. Angell.

THE PAST YEAR WAS VERY PROSPEROUS

Calls Attention to Coeducation and Says Women Are the Equal of Men—Thinks They Will Generally Prefer to Be Teachers—Higher Standards in Departments.

[Special Correspondence.]

University of Michigan, Oct. 22.—President James B. Angell read his annual report at the October meeting of the board of regents held the 17th inst. Attention was called at the outset of the report to the prosperous year just passed through by the university. Dr. Angell said in part:

"The number of students has been greater than ever before. The addition to our resources furnished by the generosity of the legislature has enabled us to begin the construction of some much needed buildings and to prepare for the organization of some new departments of work."

"From our own state of Michigan we had 2,066 students, an increase of 132 over the previous year. They constitute nearly 40 per cent. of the whole. The great states of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and the Dominion of Wales, all send their sons and daughters to us in increasing numbers. Illinois has enlarged its representation from 228 last year to 354; Ohio, from 199 to 215; Indiana, from 113 to 129; New York, from 85 to 97; Iowa, from 84 to 94; and several other states proportionately. Our student population retains its cosmopolitan character in a remarkable degree. The educational value of this fact should not be overlooked. Not the least important contribution to the training of many a student is the knowledge gained in this microcosm. It tends to cure him of narrow provincialism and to comprehend in some measure the complex life into which he is to be ushered."

Coeducation.

Considerable attention was given to a discussion of the education of women. Last year there were 714 women enrolled in the several departments of the institution as follows:

Literature, science and the arts.....	634
Medicine and surgery.....	47
Law.....	5
Pharmacy.....	10
Homeopathic.....	7
Dental.....	9

Total.....714
This is 40 more than in the preceding year, the whole gain being in the literary department. The aggregate attendance in the professional schools was exactly the same as in 1898-99. The ratio of men to women in the university still remains as it has been, about five to one. But in the literary department the women are 47 per cent. of the students.

Education of Women.

Upon the subject of coeducation in general Dr. Angell said:

"The rapid increase in the number of women who are obtaining collegiate training is one of the striking educational facts of our time. Not only is the proportion of women to men in all of the so-called co-educational institutions rapidly growing, but the attendance upon the 'annexes,' such as Radcliffe and Barnard, and upon the colleges established exclusively for women, like Wellesley, Vassar, Smith and Bryn Mawr, is swelling so rapidly as to meet the capacity of those institutions to care for them. It is no longer the case, as in a large degree it was 20 years ago, that nearly all of the women in college were preparing themselves for teaching or some form of professional life. A considerable proportion of them are studying merely for the sake of culture which may enrich and adorn their lives. Whatever may prove to be their sphere of activity, it seems not improbable that before many years the number of college-bred women in this country will equal that of college-bred men."

* Women the Equal of Men.

"Thus far the theory that women ought to have or would desire an intellectual training essentially different from that usually prescribed for men has found but slender support. The elasticity afforded by the modern elective system, introduced into most American colleges and universities, seems to furnish a sufficient range for the wide diversity of choice. When left to themselves the women manifest the same variety in their tastes in their election of studies as the men. They have certainly shown no disposition to avoid what has been usually considered the most exacting and difficult branches and no lack of ability to master them. It appears, therefore, in the highest degree improbable that any fixed course which educational theorists may attempt to prescribe as the one course for women will be adopted by the better colleges."

"Our 30 years' experience in training women for professional work and our observation of their careers in life should fit us in some degree to judge of the inducements which certain professions offer to them."

Successful as Doctors.

"It is clear that a good number of women achieve success in the practice of medicine and a few in surgery. We could point to some excellent illustrations among our graduates. They have in this country generally overcome the opposition of medical societies to their entrance into the profession and often take a creditable part in the proceedings of such bodies. Some of them have gone as medical missionaries to distant lands, where women could not with propriety be ministered to by male physicians have rendered services of inestimable value to their sex. Others have filled with great usefulness responsible positions in prisons and reformatories for women."

"A certain number of women have also succeeded well in the profession of dentistry both in this country and in Germany. Especially has this been true of those who have made a specialty for caring for children during the periods of their first and second dentition, and also caring for mothers in time of special need."

"Some women have been graduated from the school of pharmacy and have found a general and remunerative career as pharmacists, but whether, owing to the discrimination of men in the business to employ women, or to the fatigue of the continuous labor in the office, not many remain in the occupation. Some enter the service of manufacturing chemists or are employed as pharmacists in hospitals or other charitable institutions.

Few Women Lawyers.

"The number of women in the law school is always small. Of those who graduate only a few engage much in the practice in court. Some study the profession for the express purpose of assisting their fathers in office work. A few have taken the course with the belief that a knowledge of law would make them efficient teachers of political economy, civil government and history in academies or colleges. It seems improbable that any considerable number of women will find it congenial or remunerative to follow the profession of law."

"Undoubtedly it will be true in the future, as it has been in the past, that the great majority of women graduates who pursue any profession will choose that of teaching. They will, of course, avail themselves of the pedagogical instruction which is offered to all who desire it. The employment in recent years of many college-bred women in our high schools has been an important factor in elevating the grade of work in these schools."

A Higher Standard.

After discussing the results of coeducation Dr. Angell took up the different departments. Attention was called to the changes in the entrance requirements for the literary, law and dental departments. In the literary department the changes were in the direction of greater flexibility, but in the others towards a higher standard.

During the past eight years graduate students have been received from other institutions to the number of 70.

During the year 12,273 volumes had been added to the libraries of the university. This made the total number of volumes 145,479.

The Summer Schools.

The summer schools for 1900 had been successful. The total enrollment was 404, about double that of any previous year. The students were more mature than those of former years. Among them were principals and superintendents of schools.

Of the 351 in the literary department 130 devoted their entire time to a single subject. Of the literary students, 57 were graduates of the university, 64 graduates of other colleges and universities; and 24 graduates of the Michigan Normal college.

A Valuable Gift.

A recent gift to the general library is "The Book of the Fair"—a historical and descriptive presentation of the world's science, art, etc., as viewed through the Columbian exposition at Chicago in 1893. The work is in ten sections, each of which contains ten engravings. The work received by the university is No. 12 of the author's edition. It was sold to the late Mrs. J. J. Bagley, of Detroit, and through her heirs reached the university library.

NEW FACTORIES.

Canvass Shows That 1,005 Have Been Started in Michigan in the Past Four Years.

Michigan's record of new factories during the last four years, as shown by a canvass just made by state officials, is 1,005, not one of which was in existence prior to January 1, 1897. At the time of the canvass these institutions were employing a total of 23,000 persons and their pay rolls aggregated $33,000 a day, or approximately $1,500,000 a year.

These new institutions are scattered all over the state, every county being represented in the enumeration. The most extensive among them are the nine beet-sugar factories and the several cement factories that are being operated. "One of the results of the increased avenues of employment is the great difficulty that is now being experienced by lumber operators in securing men for work in their camps, even though the wages offered are nearly 40 per cent. higher than four years ago."

Rural Free Delivery.

Congressman Fordney received information in Saginaw from the post office department that rural mail delivery routes have been allowed from Elsie, Clinton county; Byron, Shiawassee county; Ovid, Clinton county; and three from Mayville, Tuscola county, the service to begin November 1.

Will Need Much Money.

The state public school for dependent children in Coldwater will require $36,000 per year for current expenses, and in addition will ask for $21,200 for improvements, a new heating plant being one of the needs. There are 151 children in the school at present.

After Long Years.

After 28 years Horace Greeley Hurt has been given his degree of civil engineer by the University of Michigan. He had about completed his work in 1872. Since then he has become the president of the Canadian Pacific railroad. His home is in Omaha.

Additional Rural Delivery.

Additional rural free delivery service will be established on November 1 at Emmet, St. Clair county, with John Baile as carrier. Length of route, 33 1/4 miles; area covered, 33 square miles; population served, 635; houses on route, 141.

Weighted 500 Pounds.

Mrs. Nelson Cady, living three miles west of Metamora, died with dropsy at the age of 57 years. She weighed 500 pounds and the coffin was so large that the door casings had to be taken off in order to get it out of the house.

NEED MUCH MONEY.

Board of Managers of Soldiers' Home Call for $148,500—State Institutions Inspected.

A joint session of the state board of corrections and charities and the board of managers of the soldiers' home was held in Grand Rapids for the purpose of passing upon desired appropriations for the home for the next year. At the meeting the following statements were made:

The board of control of the home has matured plans which will call for the expenditure of $148,500 next year, and if they are approved by the board of corrections and charities that amount will be asked from the legislature. Of this amount $124,000 is for the current yearly support of the home, and is based, as in past years, on the sum of $155 per capita of the inmates. The remaining $24,500 is divided as follows: $15,000 for an addition to the woman's building, $1,500 for a new icehouse, $1,800 for a new barn, $3,400 for an addition to the present pumping station and new equipment for the same, $1,350 for a new 35-horse power engine and $1,500 for a new engine to be added to the present equipment.

The capacity of the woman's annex is at present inadequate to the demands made upon it, and the plans for next year include the addition of a third story to the building, with capacity for 40 more inmates, and the digging of a basement, in which will be located a kitchen, dining-room and laundry. At present the women are fed in the main dining-room and their laundry work is done in the main building.

The members of the board of corrections have just finished their annual inspection tour of the 15 state institutions and they report that all of them are more than crowded and that all of them are asking for comparatively large appropriations for additions to their capacity and for their running expenses. The Iowa asylum alone is asking for $125,000. It is quite likely that some of the amounts asked for by the various state institutions will be reduced at the meeting of the board, which is to be held next week, and the local home may be included in that list.

FEW FATALITIES.

In the Houghton County Mines Only Thirty-Six Lives Were Lost During Last Year.

Mine Inspector Capt. Hall has made his annual report covering Houghton county mines. During the year covering this report the number of men employed at the various mines was 13,971, an increase of 920 over last year. The fatalities were: Underground, 34; surface, 2; total, 36. Non-fatal accidents numbered 15.

The fatalities as apportioned among the several nationalities are as follows: Austrians, 5; English, 6; Finns, 16; Germans, 2; Italian, 1; Irish, 3; Scotch, 1; Polanders, 2.

The casualties in the Houghton county mines compare favorably with any of the European mines, and number less than a great many mines throughout the United States.

LAW SUSTAINED.

Cumulative Voting in Electing Directors Held to Be Legal by the Supreme Court.

The validity of the Michigan law permitting cumulative voting by shareholders in electing directors of corporations has been affirmed by the supreme court of the United States in a decision rendered in the case of Oscar R. Looker and others against the attorney general of Michigan, being an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of that state. The ground of appeal was that that provision of the Michigan law was unconstitutional because it impaired the obligation of a contract. The supreme court of Michigan held that it did not, and this judgment was affirmed by the supreme court of the United States.

LOSE THEIR HOMES

Indians Who Refused to Move Are Evicted at Burt Lake and the Houses Burned.

The Indians of the Indian village at Burt lake are homeless. The land which they lived on was sold for taxes two or three years ago and on October 4, 1899, they promised to go away in the spring if the writ of assistance granted by the circuit court was not served and they were allowed to stay. A few of them went away. The remainder were evicted the other day and their homes burned down. The men, women and children remained with their goods out in the rain one night. Some of the squaws are said to be over 80 years old. Some of the Indians have been county charges for years.

Confessed.

Deputy Sheriff Clark, of Kalamazoo, arrived home from Lincoln, Neb., having in his custody Charles Evanston, whom he arrested on the charge of robbing the United bank of Richland two years ago. Evanston confessed his participation in the crime. The Richland robbery was sensational and daring and $6,000 in cash and $40,000 in securities were stolen. Six men were connected with the job and four are now in the penitentiary.

Fell from a Steeple.

Louis Stumvoll was working on the tip of the steeple on the new St. Joseph church in Detroit when the derrick upon which he was standing broke and Stumvoll started on a downward plunge of 200 feet. He struck a beam 13 feet below, and hung suspended across it until an ambulance arrived.

FOR JUDGE OF PROBATE.

When a county is so fortunate as to have a good probate judge it should not permit politics to make a change in the office. Judge Newkirk, the present incumbent for Washtenaw county, is one of the best probate judges in this state. He is serving his first term and now asks the indorsement of the people for a second term. Out of 912 cases submitted to him during his term of office, not one case has been reversed by the circuit court. Only one, the Schermerhorn case, was appealed to the supreme court and that was sustained. No probate judge in Michigan can show a record superior in any way to this, for it is faultless. It has been the policy of several counties of the state to re-elect their judges of probate for succeeding terms when they have been found capable and efficient. In Wayne county, for instance, Judge Durfee has served on the probate bench for 24 years, and during that time the political complexion of the county has changed several times. The Herald does not suggest such a long term of office as that for Judge Newkirk, unless he proves worthy of it, but we do submit that it is a good business principle to keep a man in office who can show such a record. For the best interests of Washtenaw county Judge Newkirk should be re-elected.

When Mr. Bryan was speaking at Ann Arbor, Oct. 11, someone in the audience called out, "How about free silver?" Quick as a flash he replied, "We are in favor of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of sixteen to one without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation on earth." In the heat of the moment the campaign mask was dropped; from the fullness of the heart the mouth spoke, and he avowed the full truth, as men do sometimes when in their cups.

Despite the adverse circumstances that surround the Republican candidates in the county this fall Cassius M. Warner, of Ypsilanti, is making a gallant canvass for the office of sheriff. He is a brave and deserving man and would make a good and conscientious officer if elected.

If you should hear it reported that H. Wirt Newkirk has retired from the race for the probate judgeship, you can put it down as being a first class lie. There are those in Washtenaw county who wish most devoutly that such were the case, hence the lie.

Remember that when you vote for candidates for the Legislature you are also voting for your next United States senator.

Be sure to register. What is the use of enthusiasm before election day if when it comes you have not registered?

The Grass Lake News would like to see its town hall lose the air of backwoodsism that now characterizes it by having the old stoves and pipes removed from it and a good furnace substituted. He says "Stockbridge town hall is far in advance of ours, and even poor little Chelsea has also outstripped us in this regard." Bro. Carlton should not be so particular, the hall is in perfect harmony with the rest of the village.

Thursday, Nov. 1, will be the Feast of All Saints, a holy day in the Catholic church. Services will be held in St. Mary's church on that day at 6 and 10 a. m. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the Vespers of the day will be sung, followed by Vespers for the dead, and concluding

A new and profitable industry is said to have sprung up around the banks of ponds and small lakes. The common cat tail, which grows in profusion in the water's edge has become a valuable article and sells for a cent per pound. The cat tails have largely superseded wool, cotton and hair upholstery and are said to be admirable substitutes, while they cost far less than the materials mentioned. The demand far exceeds the supply and is increasing.

Rev. L. Koelbing received a call from a congregation in Illinois Oct. 6, which he accepted and Oct. 14 he resigned his pastorate of the Lutheran church here. During the time of his pastorate the membership of the congregations of both Chelsea and Dexter has increased, also that of the ladies' societies. Last winter the Chelsea congregation cleared up quite a large debt that had been a serious burden to them when Mr. Koelbing entered the pastorate here. The congregation regrets to lose Mr. Koelbing and so do the citizens of Chelsea, and all wish him unbounded success in his new field of labor.

They had been hired by ticket holders who wanted good seats to stay there and be the first ones to reserve them. They stayed there all day long. Some read books, others talked, and all ate popcorn on "Doc" Avery when a little fellow brought a basketful in for them. before 8 o'clock came the line was greatly increased until the sidewalk was blocked with eager ticket holders. Well, they all got their seats, and after all had gone several gentlemen went in and without any waiting got just as good seats as any in the house.

LOSS TO THE NATION.

Hon. John Sherman, the Venerable Statesman, Is Dead.

The Sad Event Occurred Just at Day-break on Monday in Washington—Proclamation by the President—His Career

Washington, Oct. 23.—Hon. John Sherman, former representative in the house, for a long term a member of the senate, and twice holding cabinet positions, died at his residence in this city at a quarter before seven o'clock Monday morning, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. His death had been expected for some days, and loving friends gave him their unremitting care and attention to the end.

Proclamation by the President.
The president Monday afternoon issued the following proclamation:

"DEATH OF HON. JOHN SHERMAN—By the President of the United States of America.

"A Proclamation—To the People of the United States: In the fullness of years and honors, John Sherman, lately secretary of state, has passed away.

"Few among our citizens have risen to greater or more deserved eminence in the national councils than he. The story of his public life and services is as it were the history of the country for half a century. In the congress of the United States he ranked among the foremost in the house and later in the senate. He was twice a member of the executive cabinet, first as secretary of the treasury and afterwards as secretary of state. Whether in debate during the dark hours of our civil war, or as the director of the country's finances during the period of rehabilitation, or as a trusted councillor in framing the nation's law for over 40 years, his course was ever marked by devotion to the best interests of his beloved land, and by able and conscientious effort to uphold its dignity and honor. His countrymen will long revere his memory and see in him a type of the patriotism, the uprightness and the zeal that go to molding and strengthening a nation.

"In fitting expression of the sense of bereavement that afflicts the republic, I direct that on the day of the funeral the executive offices of the United States display the national flag at half-mast, and that the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay in like manner appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of ten days.

"Done at the city of Washington this twenty-second day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-fifth.

(Seal) "WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
"By the President: JOHN HAY,
"Secretary of State."

The Statesman's Career.

John Sherman was 78 years of age. He was born at Lancaster, O., and when he was six years of age his father died. In the spring of 1837 he set out to do something for himself, and obtained the position of junior rodman with the engineer corps working on the improvements of the Muskingum river. When 19 he went to Mansfield to study law with a brother. He was prepared for practice before he was 21 and practiced law actively until he was elected to congress in 1854.

Sherman and Colfax happened to enter public life together. They were both delegates to the national convention in Philadelphia, which nominated Zachariah Taylor in 1848. During that summer Mr. Sherman was married to Miss Cecelia Stewart, the only daughter of Judge Stewart of Mansfield. He was president of the first republican state convention held in Ohio, which met in 1855 and nominated S. P. Chase for governor.

Mr. Sherman took his seat in the Thirty-fourth congress six years before the war. In the Thirty-fifth congress he made a number of able speeches and became much interested in the finances of the country. He was elected to the United States senate in 1861 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Chase.

Made Secretary of Treasury.

Mr. Sherman can almost be called the author and the founder of the financial policy of the republican party. President Hayes made Mr. Sherman his secretary of the treasury because he knew him to be the foremost financier of the age.

Returning to the senate on the close of his term in President Hayes' cabinet, Mr. Sherman took up the work of active legislation again, and for 16 years more was one of the leaders of the body in which he had previously spent other 16 years of usefulness.

Mr. Sherman again resigned from the senate in March, 1897, to accept the most important position in the gift of President McKinley, the secretaryship of state, from which he retired in April, 1898.

"While secretary of the treasury in President Hayes' cabinet Mr. Sherman set himself to the task of providing a redemption fund to meet the resumption demands on the date already fixed by the senate. He sold $50,000,000 of 4 1/2 per cent. bonds to the Rothschild syndicate at 109 1/2. The business of the country began to adjust itself on the assured basis of specie payments after January 1, 1879. During the four years he was at the head of the treasury department he refunded nearly $350,000,000 of the public debt, making a saving in annual interest of nearly $15,000,000 per annum.

UNITED STATES IN LINE.

Policy Identical with British-German Alliance Expressed in Note to France.

Washington, Oct. 23.—It is authoritatively stated that the United States government views with distinct favor the principles enunciated in the Anglo-German agreement relating to China, and that a formal response to that effect will be made at an early day to the invitation extended to this government to accept the principles of the agreement. The German charge d'affaires, Count de Quadt, had a conference with Secretary Hay Monday afternoon, presenting officially the text of the Anglo-German agreement, including the invitation to the United States to accept the principles therein recorded. Mr. Hay expressed his satisfaction at what had been done, saying he felt it to be in complete harmony with the policy this government had pursued, both as to the maintenance of unobstructed commerce in China and the territorial entity of the empire, and adding that a formal reply would be given in a day or two. Count de Quadt was gratified by these assurances, and left with the belief that there was such a harmonious understanding on the general principles involved that the concurrence of the powers was near at hand.

Before receiving the official invitation from Germany, Mr. Hay had been fully advised of the agreement, and had gone over it with care with the president. This was the more necessary, owing to the president's departure for Canton Monday night. The result of these deliberations is summed up in the statement that the government views the Anglo-German agreement with favor. It is also probable that some attention has been given to the draft of the American reply. It is likely to be in the form of a note of approval, rather than any formal adherence to the alliance, but this is said to be merely a matter of detail.

About the only serious question which has arisen as to the American reply was on clause three of the Anglo-German agreement. This states that in case of another power making use of the complications in China in order to obtain territorial advantages, German and Great Britain reserve the right to reach a preliminary understanding on the eventual step to be taken for the protection of their interests. This is open to the construction of being a threat against other powers, and there was no desire on the part of officials here to give American adherence to anything in the nature of a threat. It is probable that the American reply will not go beyond accepting the principle that German and Great Britain have a right to agree between themselves as to their eventual course. But there is not likely to be anything which will commit this government to accept the eventual agreement. In short, the third clause is interpreted to apply only to Germany and Great Britain, there being no invitation extended to other powers to join them in a preliminary understanding regarding the eventual step to be taken.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Although no formal answers have yet been received from the powers regarding the Anglo-German agreement, Count von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, has been assured by the diplomatic representatives here that their governments will readily accede to the agreement. This is not surprising, because, as a high government official pointed out Monday, the agreement contains only what had been declared in principle by each power involved in the present Chinese imbroglio.

The agreement, which may be considered as Count von Buelow's entree into his new office, is interpreted as another diplomatic victory for him. It is now asserted that the Russian ambassador to Germany, who was the first whom Count von Buelow told about the agreement—he giving him oral explanations tending to show that its point was not directed against Russia—gave assurances amounting to a declaration that Russia would join in the agreement.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The inspired organs declare in chorus that the agreement is not aimed at any power, and least of all Russia. They point out the importance of Great Britain's protection of the Yangtze region, where Germany's trade could be ruined unless the principle of the "open door" were maintained.

BANK ROBBED.

Burglars Blow Open the Safe of an Oregon Institution and Steal $3,000.

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 23.—A special to the Statesman from La Grande, Ore., says: The First national bank at Union was blown open Monday morning between two and three o'clock. Nitroglycerin was applied to the door of the vault. The shock blew open the doors, and broken particles passed through the front of the building. The robbers then appeared to have attempted to pry open the safe, but fled on the approach of citizens who had sounded the alarm. No arrests were made, although the men were seen walking away. The loss is about $3,000.

ELECTED SENATOR.

Former Governor Dillingham Chosen by Vermont Legislature to Go to Washington.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 19.—Former Gov. W. P. Dillingham was elected United States senator by the Vermont legislature Thursday. The choice was made on the third ballot, C. A. Prouty, one of the four republican candidates, having withdrawn and the democratic members who previously had voted for Seneca Hazleton having decided to support Dillingham.

Sold for Taxes.

New York, Oct. 20.—The plot of ground on which the historic monument erected at Tappan, N. Y., by the late Cyrus W. Field, in memory of Andre, the revolutionary spy, was sold Friday by Treasurer Randolph of Rockland county, for nonpayment of taxes. Since the death of Mr. Field the memorial has been neglected, and Friday it passed into the hands of George Dickey, of Nyack, who says that he will obliterate the historical memorial. The monument was unveiled October 2, 1879, and in April, 1882, an attempt to destroy it by an explosion of nitro-glycerin was made.

Murdered and Robbed.

New Bloomfield, Mo., Oct. 20.—A coroner's jury, called to investigate the death of Dr. C. M. Wright, whose body was found in the ruins of his drug store, which burned Thursday, has found that he was murdered and robbed and the building set on fire. The skull had been crushed. Money that was known to be in the store could not be found. Dr. Wright was 65 years old and a British subject.

Pleads Guilty.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 19.—Col. Harold A. Smith, assistant quartermaster general at the time the state was defrauded of $40,000 on a fraudulent purchase of military supplies, changed his plea in the circuit court Thursday afternoon to guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,200 or be confined in the county jail for two years. The fine was paid.

Indians in a Beef Deal.

Cannon Ball, N. D., Oct. 19.—The Indians have sold to the government over 1,500,000 pounds of grass beef this week at four cents per pound. The cattle were of fine quality and will net the Indians nearly $70,000.

TALKS OF THE STRIKE.

President Mitchell Says the Prospects for an Early Settlement Are Bright.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 23.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, in an interview, said that if all the companies will notify their employees that an actual advance of ten per cent. will be guaranteed till April 1, and that the sliding scale will be abolished, he believed the terms would be accepted by the mine workers.

President Mitchell said:

"The prospect of an early settlement of the coal strike is becoming brighter. Some of the operators have not yet posted notices signifying their willingness to fall in line either with the Reading company or with the proposition made by the Lehigh Valley company in the Hazleton region. If all of them notify their employees by posting notices or otherwise that an actual advance of ten per cent. will be paid each mine employee and guarantee its continuance until April 1, together with the abolition of the sliding scale, I believe that the terms would be accepted by the mine workers. The reduction in powder from $2.75 to $1.50 has confused the minds of the miners, but some of the operators have so fully explained how contract miners could receive the full advance of ten per cent. as well as all other employees that I believe that this obstacle can be overcome."

Although, as President Mitchell says, the outlook for an early settlement of the strike is bright, it is difficult to make a prediction as to when the end will come. Some of the coal companies are showing a disposition not to issue a second notice guaranteeing the payment of the ten per cent. increase in wages until April. Among these are the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and the Delaware & Hudson, the officials of which companies are reported to have declined to issue a supplemental notice. The labor leaders, however, hope that the companies will in some way make known that they will guarantee the payment of the advance until April 1.

President Mitchell appeared quite cheerful when he made the announcement as above, and his manner indicated that the time is near at hand when all the anthracite miners now on strike shall return to the mines. As soon as all the notices guaranteeing the payment of the advance until April 1 are posted, President Mitchell will call a meeting of the national executive board, at which it is believed the strike will be declared off.

The largest labor demonstration ever held in this city took place Monday, when nearly 7,000 miners paraded the streets. In a carriage at their head rode President Mitchell, who received an enthusiastic ovation all along the line of march. The thousands of miners accompanied by their families came to the city from every mining town in the region to view the parade. Besides the miners from this vicinity, there were 150 men in line who had tramped 18 miles over the mountains from the Panther Creek valley. They, with the McAdoo miners, who are famed throughout the coal fields for their perseverance in marching and closing collieries, were the heroes of the parade. Three bus loads of the marching women of McAdoo and 100 small breaker boys dressed in their working clothes and with lighted mine lamps in their caps were at the head of the line, immediately behind the carriages containing the United Mine Workers' officials. Many mottoes expressing the sentiments of the strikers were carried in the procession.

President Mitchell reviewed the parade at the end of the route, after which a mass meeting was held, at which President Mitchell was the principal speaker. He said the strike was in such a peculiar position that it was hard to outline just what the result would be. He believed the time was not far distant, however, when every mine would be in operation and that the men now had practically won the strike.

Wilkesbarre, Oct. 23.—Discontent among the striking miners of the Wyoming valley is growing and unless the strike is settled soon they will be hard to control. A majority of the men are willing and anxious to go to work, and if President Mitchell should call the strike off to-day, even with the powder question unsettled, he would receive more credit from his followers than to allow the contest to drag on with the chance of losing in the end. The strikers say they are well organized now and they can afford to wait awhile before demanding other concessions. But, in the opinion of many, a prolongation of the strike will mean only a repetition of history. They say the companies will starve the men out the same as they have in other strikes, and then when they do return to work it probably will be at the old wages and without the union back of them. Mayor Nichols, of this city, says trouble will follow if the strike continues. He is seriously considering a proposition to arm the police force with guns, so that they will be able to cope with a mob should they be called upon to quell a riot.

To Remove Wreck of the Maine.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Gen. Leonard Wood, governor general of Cuba, saw Secretary Long Monday and recommended that steps be taken to remove the wreck of the battleship Maine from Havana harbor, as it occupies a great deal of space which could be utilized to advantage. He said he thought the wreck would have to be taken up piecemeal instead of being raised as a whole.

MORE FORECASTS.

Estimates on the Result of the Election Come from Leaders of Both Parties.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Forecasts on the outcome of this campaign issued from both the republican and the democratic headquarters Saturday. While not given out by Chairman Jones, the democratic predictions have his indorsement, and, for that reason, they carry greater interest than any heretofore produced. It is the first time that he has consented to give any attention to detailed predictions. Having indorsed the subjoining tabulation, he goes on record as declaring that Mr. Bryan is sure of 272 electoral votes, that McKinley cannot lay claim to more than 116, and that there are 59 in the doubtful column. Should McKinley get all these they would do him no good. Here is the arrangement of states and votes that the democratic national chairman indorses:

Vice Chairman Henry C. Payne, of the republican committee, is the author of the republican forecast. It was made by him partly in reply to the foregoing democratic table, though, aside from that, Mr. Payne declares that his division of the electors is based upon entirely trustworthy reports from every state about which there is any room for argument. His estimate gives McKinley 294 electoral votes as certain, and on the claim that the republicans have an even chance of winning in Nebraska and Utah, he thinks the full strength of the president's electoral vote will not be less than 305. This may be increased by the addition of Colorado, Idaho and Nevada. With those McKinley's strength in the college would be 315.

Mr. Payne's forecast is as follows:

State.	Votes.	State.	Votes.
California.....	9	North Dakota.....	3
Connecticut.....	4	Ohio.....	22
Delaware.....	3	Pennsylvania.....	32
Illinois.....	22	Rhode Island.....	4

New Hampshire.....	4
New Jersey.....	10
New York.....	36

"We have an even chance with the democrats," said Mr. Payne, "of securing the electoral votes of Nebraska and Utah. These would bring the total up to 305." It will be noticed that in this estimate Mr. Payne includes the two electors, one each in California and Kentucky, that were counted for Bryan four years ago.

Mr. Payne classifies the other states as follows:

State.	Votes.	State.	Votes.
Alabama.....	11	North Carolina.....	11

RUIN BY A TORNADO.

Six People Killed and Much Property Destroyed Near the Texan Village of Lodi.

Atlanta, Tex., Oct. 22.—A tornado struck about half a mile west of Lodi and 15 miles west of here Sunday. The path of the tornado was 200 yards wide and the wind swept everything before it. One house in the center of its path, occupied by colored people, was destroyed, six people being killed outright, and three others are missing who are supposed to be dead. The cyclone traveled from the southwest to the northwest, crossing the Texas & Pacific railroad at Campbellville Spur, a lumber-loading station two miles north of Lodi. The lumber was carried away in all directions. It is feared further loss of life has resulted out in the country.

GAVE HELPFUL ADVICE.

When with Unreasonable People the Practice of Silence Is to Be Highly Commended.

"It would be positive impertinence for me to give advice to women old enough to be my mother, just because they happen to be poor," a young district visitor maintained, when reminded that she ought to exercise a moral and spiritual influence rather than be an almoner alone; "I shall not attempt it." Strong in a sense of commendable humanity, she knocked at a door which never failed to open and reveal an anxious, melancholy face. "Oh! come in, miss, come in," said the mistress, even more woebegone than usual; "I want your advice about the best way to manage my husband." Her visitor forgot her recent resolution and entered. "He is coming home to-day from the asylum," pursued her hostess, "and you could always manage him when he was here before, and I never could." "I never contradicted him, you know." "Do you think that was it?" inquired the poor woman. "Then, if you were me, you would not contradict him, even if he spoke that unreasonable that you could not bear it." "I am afraid that a person in an unreasonable mood would never listen to reason," said the younger and more educated woman. "Now, that is what I call sensible," remarked the perplexed wife. Thus encouraged, her youthful monitor amplified her text, and spoke of the Perfect Example who kept silent when unreasonable and wicked men would have provoked him to speak inadvisably. Her mind was so full of this incident that when she reached her home she mentioned the appeal for her advice. "So the poor woman wanted to know the best way to manage her husband!" said her mother. "What did you tell her out of your vast experience?" "I told her not to contradict him," answered the girl, humbly. "Most admirable advice," said her father. "You will be a useful person in the district as long as you preach it. Don't wait until you are married, my dear, to practice silence when you are with unreasonable persons. It is the best way of talking to them, as Paddy would say."—Quiver.

"COME IN, MISS, I WANT YOUR ADVICE."

TOPAZ IS MUCH FAVORED.

This Beautiful Gem Is Highly Prized by Fashionables at Present.

"Not the least beautiful of the many semi-precious stones for which there is always a large demand is the topaz," said a wholesale dealer in gems to a Washington Star writer. "The name topaz suggests only a yellow stone, yet there are light blue, brown and green varieties which are frequently sold as aquamarines. The genuine aquamarine may, however, be easily distinguished from a topaz, as the former stone more closely resembles the color of green sea salt. Besides, the topaz admits of a higher polish, and is extremely slippery to the touch. Strange to say, the yellow topaz when slightly heated, becomes pink; heated further, the pink grows paler, and by long heating it is entirely expelled, leaving the green colorless. The sherry colored or brown topaz is bleached in a very short time by the rays of the sun or strong daylight, and all the white topazes found in nature have been colored in this way. The topaz is found in granite rocks in Siberia, Japan, Peru, Ceylon, Brazil and Maine and in volcanic rocks in Colorado, Utah and New Mexico."

BRAVE NORMA DIORN.

Texas Girl Lassoes a Mexican Lion and Drags Home the Body of Her Prey.

The talk of this neighborhood is the daring exploit of Miss Norma Diorn in lassoing a full-grown lion and dragging home the body of her prey at the heels of the mustang pony. The Southern Texas Cattle association has presented Miss Diorn with a gold-mounted revolver, and has sent to the City of Mexico for the finest side-saddle "for the grittiest girl on a Texas ranch."

Old John Diorn owns a ranch and several thousand head of cattle. The ranch is located on the western plains of Texas, about the headwaters of the tributaries of the Guadalupe. He has three daughters who have been looking after his herd for several years. It is the boast of these girls that no mustang has ever been able to shake one of them from his back. They are fearless riders and can hurl a lariat with a precision that many a cowboy envies. Since the death of their only brother, Julius Diorn, who was killed by cattle thieves a few years ago, these young women have ridden after cattle, repaired windmills, killed wolves, and frequently branded calves. The story of Miss Norma's lion-killing is told as follows:

One Sunday morning not long ago Norma, who is the oldest of the three, started out on her pony to "ride" the wire fence" is making a tour of inspection miles from the house. "Riding a wire fence" is making tour of inspection to see that the wires are all up and the posts solid. As the girl started out she swung the belt of her Winchester over the gate-post, remarking that she was not going far and wouldn't need a gun. She was hardly out of sight before an immense Mexican lion sprang out in the road in front of the pony. The beast gave a few loud roars and then disappeared in the direction of a small bunch of cows and calves.

Starting her pony at full speed and yelling at the lion as she possessed the power in her voice to paralyze all wild beasts she rode straight toward the terror-stricken cattle, coming up with them just as the lion sprang upon the neck of a calf, crushing it to the earth.

The old-cows instantly charged the lion, and the mother of the calf gave him such an ugly thrust with her sharp horns that he was forced to relinquish his hold on his prey. The sight of the trembling, frightened little calf aroused the girl's ire, and, swinging her rope over her head, she rode at the lion.

The girl screamed at the lion and urged her pony to pursue him. The beast frequently looked back and snarled threateningly, but he failed to find courage enough to offer battle. Suddenly it occurred to the girl that there was no reason why she could not choke the lion to death. She swung her lariat over her head, and as the trained pony sprang forward dropped the noose about the lion's neck. The pony instantly braced himself on his haunches, digging his forefeet into the ground, and the lion turned a somersault, striking the earth with his head toward his pursuers. The girl hoped that she had broken the beast's neck, but he was only badly stunned, and the pain that he suffered seemed to increase his rage and courage.

Crouching and emitting a roar, he sprang into the air with all his strength, expecting to land on the pony's neck, and tear his pursuers to fragments. The agile little horse turned just in time to feel the claws of the lion grazing his haunches.

All western horses entertain a horror of those lions, for one of their tricks is to lie in ambush on the limb of a tree near where the horses are in the habit of drinking. From these hiding places they fall upon young colts and devour them. The Texas pony knows the Mexican lion, and he fears him more than all other enemies.

So instantly as the lion sprang forward the pony began to run. The rope was tense, and if she had wished to do it, the girl could not have unfastened the lariat from the saddle-horn. Moreover, she knew the chances were that if the lion was released in his state of rage he would tear the pony and her legs to bits. She leaned forward and urged her frightened mustang to do his best.

She reached the ranch gates at her home just as her sisters, accompanied by two young men of the neighborhood, were about to pass through it on their way to church. "There now!" their way to church. "There now!" she shouted. "I have roped and dragged a lion to death." Her speech of triumph was cut short by a warning scream from one of her sisters, who noticed that the lion was about to regain his feet, and renew the battle. One of the Texans sent a bullet through the monster's brain, and ended his career.—Marble Falls (Tex.) Correspondence St. Louis Republic.

THE TURN OF LIFE.

The Most Important Period in a Woman's Existence.—Mrs. Johnson Tells How She Was Helped Over the Trying Time.

Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying, and sometimes painful symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes, sending the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop for good, are only a few of the symptoms of a dangerous nervous trouble. The nerves are crying out for assistance. The cry should be heeded in time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. The three following letters are guaranteed to be genuine and true, and still further prove what a great medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women.

Mar. 12, 1897.
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been sick for a long time. I was taken sick with flooding. All my trouble seemed to be in the womb. I ache all the time at the lower part of the womb. The doctor says the womb is covered with ulcers. I suffer with a pain on the left side of my back over the kidney. I am fifty years old and passing through the change of life. Please advise me what to do to get relief. Would like to hear from you as soon as possible."—MRS. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON, Monclova, Ohio.

"I have been taking your remedies, and think they have helped me a great deal. I had been in bed for ten weeks when I began taking your Vegetable Compound, but after using it for a short time I was able to be up around the house. The aching in the lower part of womb has left me. The most that troubles me now is the flowing. That is not so bad, but still there is a little every day. I am not discouraged yet, and shall continue with your medicine, for I believe it will cure me."—MRS. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON, Monclova, Ohio.

April 13, 1900.
"I send you this letter to publish for the benefit of others. I was sick for about nine years so that I could not do my work. For three months I could not sit up long enough to have my bed made. I had five different doctors, and all said there was no help for me. My trouble was change of life. I suffered with ulceration of the womb, pain in sides, kidney and stomach trouble, backache, headache, and dizziness. I am well and strong, and feel like a new person. My recovery is a perfect surprise to everybody that knew me. I owe all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I would not do without your medicine for anything. There is no need of women suffering so much if they would take your remedies, for they are a sure cure."—MRS. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON, Monclova, Ohio.

When one stops to think about the good Mrs. Johnson derived from Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine, it seems almost beyond belief; yet it is all true as stated in her three letters published above at her own request. As a matter of positive fact Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of letters from women who have been safely carried through that danger period "Change of Life." Mrs. Johnson's cure is not an unusual one for Mrs. Pinkham's medicine to accomplish.

A Wonderful Offer to Women.

We have received word of a most remarkable offer which is to be made to women by The Delincoator, of New York.

Taking the fact that next year begins a new century, The Delincoator offers to distribute $17,500 among 1901 women. The plan is so cleverly arranged that a woman living in a small town or village, has just as good a chance to win one of these 1901 prizes as a woman living in a city—because the prizes are given for the number of subscriptions secured in a town in proportion to the population of that town, instead of being given simply to those who send the largest list of subscribers—which, of course, are most easily obtained in big cities. Another clever feature of the plan is, that all the cities and towns of the United States and Canada have been arranged in seven classes. The cities of the greatest population are grouped in Class 1, and as these cities are not very many, the prizes offered are twenty-eight; the highest prize being $500, and the lowest $5.00. The total amount of prizes given away in this class is $1,000. The remaining smaller towns and villages fall into six other classes, and as the number of towns in a class increases, because, of course, there are more small towns than large ones, the amount of prizes given away to a class increases, so that in Class 7, there will be $4,000 distributed among 601 winners.

Furthermore, to everyone who fails to win one of the 1901 prizes there will be paid an extra commission on subscriptions, provided they equal one out of every two hundred inhabitants of the town from which the contestant sends them.

This is altogether a very liberal offer, and one which the famous old Delincoator is well able to make good. From our point of view, we do not see why such an offer needs to be made by the Publishers of The Delincoator, for we believe it already has nearly half a million subscribers. Its strong hold upon the affections of American women has come in the past generation, from its practical advice about dress details and home matters.

We sell these shells regularly at 40 cents each. Retail jewelers ask 50 to 75 cents for such goods. They are exquisitely beautiful creations in high-grade silver plate. To further advertise our ware we will send one, postpaid, to every married lady who has not received one. This announcement should be cut out and returned to us with your request. During the hot weather men wish they were women and women wish they were men, each thinking the other has the best of it. A man can sit on the lawn, clad in a shirt and a pair of linen pants, and stick his feet up in the fork of a small tree. A woman can't or at least she shouldn't. But a woman can disport herself from morning till night in the mysterious, undefined and indefinite voluminousness of an airy mother Hubbard; a man can't.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents; guaranteed at Stimson's drug store.
