Oldest and strongest bank in Western Washtenaw. Owns and offers in amounts suitable for the investment of small savings and large sums

German Empire Government 3 1/2 per ct. Bonds in 200 mark, 500 mark and 1,000 mark bonds. Interest payable April 1st and October 1st each year. Interest coupons cashed at CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK. The above investment yields 4 per cent interest, while the U. S. Bonds yield less than 2 per cent. These bonds are appreciated by our German friends in view of the obnoxious tax law applying to real estate mortgages, rendering it more and more difficult to place money on farm mortgage loans within the state of Michigan that will pay more than 2 1/2 per cent after deducting taxes.

This Bank pays 3 per cent interest on Money deposited with it according to its rules.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY NOTES.

Both Companies Are Working for a Line From Ann Arbor to Jackson.

Present appearances would indicate that the Hawks and Angus people have stolen a march on Ann Arbor in the street railway matter. On Tuesday it was given out that they had secured options for a right-of-way through private property running around on the southwestern portion of the city from their line on Packard street to the Territorial road, which leads from that city to Jackson. If the common council grants them a franchise through Ann Arbor city, this idea will be abandoned, and the Detroit electric line will be extended west on Huron street to the Territorial road. If no franchise is granted, Ann Arbor will be practically on a spur of a road from Jackson to Detroit, the same as Dexter will be.

Messrs. Hawks and Angus have also secured options on franchises held by parties in Ann Arbor for the line from Ann Arbor to Jackson. There is missing a stretch of only a mile, and this can be covered by a private right-of-way, if they are forced to it.

It is said that Jackson will not grant a franchise to anybody but Mr. Boland. Either Messrs. Hawks and Angus will purchase a private right-of-way into that city or they will stop the road at Chelsea.

Mr. Jennings who secured the rights-of-way for the Ann Arbor-Jackson road was in Ann Arbor Monday looking up the titles to the properties, and if they are found to be perfect he will proceed to buy up the land at the purchase prices named in the option.

Mr. Griffin, the contractor who graded the line between Ypsilanti and Detroit, was also in Ann Arbor Monday looking for teams and has already commenced the grading of the Jackson line. If the weather remains favorable and enough teams can be had they expect to have the roadbed all constructed from Ann Arbor to Chelsea in three weeks.

A contract was let Friday by President J. D. Hawks to Barney & Smith, of Dayton, O., for the cars for the road. They will be 10 in number, each about 50 feet long and seating 56 persons. The cars will be of the latest pattern with all the improvements that have been suggested by experience and inspection of new cars, including toilet rooms, smoking apartments and card tables. The rails for the road have all been contracted for. The Westinghouse, Church, Kerr Co. will get the contract for machinery and will install the high tension system, with sub stations for reducing the voltage along the line. With this system it will be possible to operate the road with the power house at Ypsilanti and no new ones need be built. Cars will be running from Ann Arbor to Jackson by June 1.

In the meantime Mr. Boland has not been idle. His agents have been here and in this vicinity securing options for a private right-of-way between Dexter and Chelsea, and Chelsea and Grass Lake. He now has a gang of men at work on the right-of-way running out of Jackson to the eastward, and the work will be pushed with all possible expedition, four miles and over are already graded. The line will be carried eastward from Ann Arbor Detroit immediately upon the completion of the line between Ann Arbor and Jackson. Ultimately the Boland interests will control a continuous line from Kalamazoo to Detroit, including the water power at Allegan.

The next meeting of the Ann Arbor common council promises to be a warm one as both Mr. Boland and Messrs. Hawks and Angus will endeavor to get franchises through the city.

So there may be two electric lines through Chelsea after all.

Registration Notice.

To the Electors of the Township Sylvan, County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan:

Notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Board of Registration of the township above named, will be held at the town hall, within said township, on Saturday, November 3, A. D. 1900, for the purpose of registering the names of all such persons who shall be possessed of the necessary qualifications of electors and who may apply for that purpose. And that said Board of Registration will be in session on the day and at the place aforesaid from 9 o'clock in the forenoon, until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose aforesaid.

Dated this 16th day of Oct., A. D. 1900. By order of the Township Board of Registration, Geo. A. BEGOLE, Clerk of said Township.

FRANK A. STIVERS.

The Republican Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney.

But few young men in Washtenaw county are better and more favorably known among all classes of our citizens than Frank A. Stivers, the present candidate for prosecuting attorney on the Republican ticket. Judge Kinne has been heard to remark that Mr. Stivers stands among a very few of younger members of the Washtenaw county bar who will reach eminence in his profession. Mr. Stivers is careful and painstaking in everything which he undertakes. It does not matter whether his client is one who is the most honored and respected of our citizens or one who walks in the humblest spheres of life, they each receive his most careful, honest and untiring consideration. He has been known to accept and to diligently prosecute, many cases for the poorer classes when he knew in advance that if he received any fee at all it would not by any means compensate his labors. An examination of the records of the circuit court of Washtenaw county will disclose the fact that Mr. Stivers has, during the past few years, been actively connected with much of the more important litigation that has earnestly engaged the attention of the court. His practice has also extended to many important cases in the supreme court of the state. Mr. Stivers has been a member of the Washtenaw county bar for several years and since 1895 has been a member of the well known firm of Lehman Bros. & Stivers. Mr. Stivers has always been a Republican and while he has been actively engaged in the duties of his chosen profession he has found some time to devote to the welfare of his country. During the campaigns of 1892 and 1896 he delivered many speeches upon the issues of those campaigns in Ohio and Indiana. During the campaign of 1898 he delivered several speeches in Michigan under the direction of the state committee.

Mr. Stivers has never been an office seeker. Two years ago he was urged by many leading men in his party to then become a candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney but would not allow his name to be used. This year the nomination for this honorable office came to him unsolicited.

Mr. Stivers is a graduate of two departments of the university, the literary and law. During a considerable portion of his college course covering a period of five years he supported himself by his own labors. While he was a student he worked at many things to earn his expenses. A part of the time he carried on a job printing business in rooms over First National Bank and did the work himself assisted by a younger brother, also at that time a student of the University, while at the same time he was carrying full work in the university. During the latter years of his course in the university he became an agent for the New York Life Insurance Co., and by this means completed his college course, and the officers of that company have many times expressed their utmost confidence in his sterling worth and integrity. While in the university, in addition to his class room work and the outside labors in which he engaged, he took an active part in the oratorical and debating associations winning for himself much favorable comment both among his professors and student associates.

Mr. Stivers was born at Liberty, Ind., Sept. 6, 1868. His father is the publisher of the Liberty Herald, the leading Republican newspaper of that part of the state. He early in life learned the printers trade. After graduating in the high school he worked at his trade as a newspaper reporter for a few years before coming to the university.

If the voters of Washtenaw county see fit to elect Mr. Stivers to the responsible office of prosecuting attorney I am sure they will never have occasion to regret it and will always be able to point to his administration with pride and confidence. He is a young man of high and noble character, of a pure and upright life, and is worthy the respect, confidence and suffrage of all good men.

GOOD IMITATION OF SURF.

It Was Only the Housemaid's Broom on the Stairs, However.

"So you have gone out on the north shore to live, have you, old man?" said a North side young man to a friend who had gone with his family to Kenilworth to spend the summer, relates the Chicago Chronicle.

"Yes, we have taken a house for the summer close to the edge of the lake and I tell you it is bully, immense. It is great, for the old man has improved in health out there till he is getting as frisky as a schoolboy. He said before we moved that if he could only get where he could hear the surf when he woke up mornings that it would do him a world of good. The first morning after we got there he woke up about five o'clock and called out to mother, who was still asleep:

"Say, ma, do you hear that surf coming in on the shore? Isn't that the grandest thing you ever heard?"

"Ma protested that she didn't hear any surf and wasn't listening for any. Father sighed and went to sleep again, lulled by the music of what he declared was the surf. The door of his room was open and he simply heard the swish of our little housemaid's broom over the carpet downstairs. She gets up early every morning to do the front rooms and her broom makes the finest imitation of the surf you ever heard."

"Now, if he wakes up when it isn't sweeping day and kicks because there isn't any surf on ma just steps to the speaking tube in the next room and tells Martha to sweep up a little surf and father is soon asleep again."

To Mothers of Large Families.

In this workaday world few women are so placed that physical exertion is not constantly demanded of them in their daily life.

Mrs. Pinkham makes a special appeal to mothers of large families whose work is never done, and many of whom suffer, and suffer for lack of intelligent aid.

To women, young or old, rich or poor, Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., extends her invitation of free advice. Oh, women! do not let your lives be sacrificed when a word from Mrs. Pinkham, at the first approach of weakness, may fill your future years with healthy joy.

"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was not able to do my housework. I suffered terribly at time of menstruation. Several doctors told me they could do nothing for me. Thanks to Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine I am now well, and can do the work for eight in the family.

"I would recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with large families."—Mrs. Carrie Belleville, Ludington, Mich.

ST. VITUS' DANCE

Three great and complete cures effected by Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy.

Mrs. J. A. Ferre, who resides near 905 Main Street, Hartford, Conn., says:

"My daughter Lulu became very ill with St. Vitus' dance over a year ago. She became so bad that she lost the use of her right arm and side, and we thought at one time she would lose her speech. Her tongue was almost paralyzed, she was so bad she could not feed herself, but they did not do her any good. I did not find anything that would help her until I tried Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. She is now, by the use of this medicine, entirely cured."

C. H. Bailey, Esq., of Waterbury, Vt., writes:

"I am more than glad to write about my little daughter. Until a short time ago she had at ways been a very delicate child and subject to sick spells lasting weeks at a time. She was very nervous, and our family doctor said we could never raise her, she was so delicate and feeble. We tried many remedies but had the least good. We felt much anxiety about her, especially as no doctors could benefit her, and had great fear for her future. Learning of the wonders being done by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I determined to give it to her. She soon commenced to improve under its use, and rapidly gained in every respect. She eats and sleeps well, and her nerves are strong. The medicine has done wonders for her and it is the best we ever knew. I recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, to everybody."

Mrs. J. Learmonth, of 776 Broadway, South Boston, Mass., says:

"At ten years of age my daughter became affected with a nervous condition which soon developed into St. Vitus' dance. It was pronounced by the attending physician to be a very severe attack. The mouth would be drawn spasmodically far to one side, the hands and arms were restless and constantly twitching. Her limbs also were weak, her ankles bent under her so that it was almost impossible to walk. She was so nervous that she would scream almost like a maniac and then have fits of crying. After two months' treatment without a cure, I concluded to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Three bottles entirely cured her. She is now thirteen years old, and has been well ever since, and to-day is a picture of health."

WHITE HOUSE FIRES.

Twice the Executive Mansion Was on the Verge of Destruction.

saved by the Heroic Work of Gallant Firemen—President Johnson's Generosity to the Brave Boys.

[Special Washington Letter.]
THERE are only two of us who draw the maximum pension of $50 per month," says Calhoun Clark, one of the retired veterans of our city fire department. "This pension roll is kept up by the voluntary contributions of the firemen. For many years I gave up one dollar every month for the pension fund. The lowest pension paid is six dollars per month and the highest is $50, which amount I draw, and it gives me a competence."

The old gentleman will not discuss his career and his deeds of daring, but he is known as one of the bravest of the brave, a man whose career in the fire department of the national capital would fill a volume. He likes to talk about the fire department and its good work, but never about himself.

"It is not generally known nowadays that on two occasions the white house came near burning down," said Mr. Clark. "Both times the fires occurred during the administration of Andrew Johnson. In 1867 the white house stables took fire just before daybreak. Those stables were located on the ground just east of the white house and opposite the west entrance of the treasury department. They were brick stables, but the woodwork and the inflammable contents made a hot fire. We had a hard time that morning, for it was one of the coldest mornings I have ever known. I was driver of Hibernia Engine company, which was located three blocks west of the white house. The alarm was brought to us by a cavalryman, and we were very soon on the scene. In those days we did not have electric alarms, as they have now. Well, very soon after we came the Meigs and the Rucker engines with their firemen. All three engines worked hard that bitter cold morning. We prevented the conflagration from extending to the white house, but we could not save the stables.

"When our work was over we were all taken down into the basement of the white house and supplied liberally with coffee and other things to drink, and everything eatable that there was on the market was spread out for us and served to us in elegant style. We had an impromptu state dinner there that morning, and I never ate a meal that I enjoyed so much, because I was hungry and cold and in good condition to enjoy a meal. It was the greatest breakfast the firemen here ever had tendered to them, and, I guess, we were the only firemen in the world who were ever entertained at breakfast by the executive head of a nation.

"Col. William Dickson was chief engineer of the government fire department at that time. He is the man who was foreman of the star route jury, and who was for many years democratic national committeeman for government fire department, and we all returned to duty in the city fire department.

"The hottest fire I was ever engaged in fighting began at 10:40 a. m. September 18, 1877, in the patent office, in the model rooms on the Ninth and G street wing. That fire raged for two days and nights. Fire engines came here from Baltimore to help us, and they rendered good service. The fire lasted from Wednesday morning until Friday afternoon, and smoldered for some time after that. The heat was so intense and awful that firemen at the nozzle could only play on the flames for a couple of minutes at a time. Then they would retire almost roasted, and others would take their places. The steam engines kept puffing and blowing constantly and the water supply of the city was almost exhausted.

"All along G street the houses were in great danger. The Baltimore engines were worked for their protection. There was a large stable on that street which was in danger all of the time, and, if it had caught fire, that whole section of the city would have been in danger. The Baltimore boys protected that stable and adjoining buildings, and kept them saturated with water. The flying cinders fell on roofs which were wet enough all the time to put them out. The fire was finally stopped at the corner of Seventh and G street, checked, headed off and driven back. But it was the most terrific work that I ever experienced. The model-room of the patent office was practically eaten out by fire before we could get there with our nozzles. It was a tremendous loss to the government. We could do nothing to save the model-room, and it was all that we could do to save the building which is the home of the interior department.

"The other government department buildings have been free from fires, excepting the old navy department building on Seventeenth street. That fire occurred so long ago that I have forgotten the date. Besides, it didn't amount to much, for we put it out in a very short time.

"Did you ever hear of the burning of the Smithsonian institution? That occurred about dinner time in February, 1866, or 1867. Talk about cold weather! That was a hummer! We worked in snow a foot deep and with a blizzard of wind sweeping around us. We poured icicles on the fire. The water seemed to almost freeze as it left the nozzles. We had an awful time with the hose, too, for it was almost frozen. And if the water hadn't been running through it very fast it would have frozen in the hose. We saved the walls, but that was all.

"There were three other notable fires in which cold weather prevailed against us and our work. Wall's opera house burned down. It was on the corner of Ninth and Louisiana avenue, close to Pennsylvania avenue. The site has since been occupied by Ford's theater, and is now the common vaudeville playhouse. That was an awful night of hard work in winter weather.

"Then there was the burning of Lincoln's hall, the home of the Y. M. C. A. That fire occurred in midwinter and kept us hard at work all night, but it went up in smoke. Some of the firemen succumbed to the cold and were obliged to give up. There were many frozen fingers and toes and ears, and some of the men never recovered from the effects of the work of that night.

"In the winter of 1886 the National theater burned. We were all praying that no fire would occur that night, for it was blustery and cold—a sort of damp cold that penetrates even to the bones. But just after midnight we were called out, and we worked all night to save adjoining property. The theater was doomed when we got there. But it was on Pennsylvania, in the heart of the city, near two prominent hotels, and surrounded by business houses. We saved all of that property. But it was a night of exhaustion and terror to all of us on account of the weather.

"Well, I'm glad it is all over. But, to tell the truth, I really enjoyed the work, the excitement of it and the feeling that we were heroically endeavoring to save life and property for our fellow men. There is a great deal of pride in the breast of a true fireman. He feels that he is a public benefactor all the time; and let me tell you that I have seen many a fireman do deeds which would give him a hero's crown if done in battle."

THE OLD MUFFIN WOMAN.

College Girl Was Not Ashamed of Her Poor Mother, and Everybody Respected Her for It.

There was no girl better liked, but who kept herself more aloof from the other students, than Mary. Every girl knew she was paying her way through college, fitting herself that she might support her mother, a very old, and, some said, a lame woman. On Saturday she did mending for the girls, and through the week tutored them in German composition. She was kind to everyone, but shrank from any intimacies.

An old muffin woman, worn and bent, came to college every Wednesday and Saturday with her wares, which found a ready sale among the girls. She was a mystery to the girls, for, try as they would, they could never persuade her to talk. She was allowed to wander about the buildings, along the halls to the girls' rooms, and no midnight feast was considered complete without some of her muffins.

Late on a winter's afternoon, after she had sold all her muffins, one of the girls saw her coming out of Mary's room. The girls wondered at this, knowing that Mary was in another building going over some German composition. With a basket on her arm the woman wandered to the campus by her usual slow, uncertain step, and, sitting down by a tree, unfolded with tender fingers a worn silk muffin. Some of the girls who were watching her recognized this as one Mary had worn on snowy days. With trembling fingers the woman caressed the silk, and, folding it, put it in her bosom again. One girl then went up and spoke to her, and it was but a short time before a little group gathered. "I saw her come from Mary's room," said one, "and the scarf you all recognize."

Just then Mary came across the campus, and, seeing the girls, went toward them. As she came up to them the woman looked up appealingly, nervously fingering her dress while tears rolled down her cheeks.

After the girls had told that they had suspected the woman of stealing the scarf, Mary spoke up. "Girls," she said, as her voice was full of pain, "the handkerchief is not stolen. I gave it to her.

THE OLD MUFFIN WOMAN.

And, girls," she continued, taking the woman's hand in hers and putting an arm about her, "she is my mother."

Mary stayed through the college year. She was graduated with high honors and was voted to be one of the most popular girls in the class. Her mother never came again, and no one ever asked for Mary on Saturdays, for all knew that she was spending her day quietly in the little room in the village where her mother lived.—Eleanor G. Walton, in Ladies' Home Journal.

A New Relish for Meats.

Apple chutnee, an excellent relish for meats, is made by boiling together 14 large sour apples, two large onions and two good-sized garlics in one and a half quarts of cider vinegar. Rub them through a sieve. Steep four tablespoonfuls of mustard seed in vinegar to cover it and mash it fine. Add this, with one cupful of brown sugar, a half cupful of salt, four tablespoonfuls of ginger and a half pound of raisins, seeded and chopped fine, to the apples, onions, garlic and vinegar. Stir them together thoroughly and bottle as soon as they are cold.

Washing Linen in Hay Tea.

To wash a brown or gray linen skirt some one recommends soaking for a few hours in hay tea, afterward washing the skirt in the same water. If the cured hay is not at hand, a little grass cut even from the tiny square in front of a city house may be dried or used. Put the hay into a kettle of cold water and steep for an hour on the back of the fire. Strain and use the water first to soak and then to wash the skirt. The caution is given that the original color may be slightly altered, but all spots and stains will disappear and the skirt take on renewed freshness.

ODD WEDDING CUSTOM

Transplanted to the United States by settlers from the Ancient Kingdom of Hanover.

A curious wedding custom, a survival of the folklore of the fatherland, is found in the German settlement about Buckley, Ill., and in the townships farther east. When a young couple is to be married the elder brother of the bride starts out on horseback a few days before. He is called the "brautbeter"—literally the "bride inviter." If the bride have no brother, some other male member of the family takes the place. The summons of the "brautbeter" is just as effective in assembling the guests as the engraved invitations of society folk in the cities.

The "brautbeter" is a picturesque figure. In his invitation trip he is the recipient of many perquisites in money or gifts, which, by right of custom, are kept as his own. At every place where he leaves an invitation to the wedding the recipients are expected to give him something. The size of the gift is regulated by the circumstances of the receivers. It may be a piece of money, a bill or a coin or it may be only a ribbon or a trinket. However small, the present is invariably expected and given.

As the "brautbeter" receives his gifts he pins the bills to his clothing or hat, sews on the coins and ties the ribbons to his horse's bridle. As he progresses on his rounds the gifts are added one by one till his clothes are opulent with money and trinkets. The circumstances of the "brautbeter" are not taken into account. Every receiver of an invitation makes a gift in return, which becomes the property of the "brautbeter." Like going fishing, the returns from going inviting are uncertain. They may amount to only three or four dollars or run up to $14 or $15, as luck may have it. Of course the "brautbeter" is at the wedding and one of the best fellows there.

Old settlers in Buckley say the custom was transplanted from Hanover, whence most of the foreign-born population comes. Nobody knows the origin of the custom on the other side of the water. They cling to the custom as one of the precious institutions of the fatherland. The same custom is said to exist among Germans of Hanoverian birth in the northern part of Illinois.—Chicago Times-Herald.

MADAME BONAPARTE'S SCORN

She Preferred Hiding Under an Eagle's Wing to Hanging from a Gosling's Neck.

Writing of the romance of Elizabeth Patterson and Jerome Bonaparte, after the annulment of their marriage by Napoleon I., William Perrine, in Ladies' Home Journal, says that "toward her expatriated husband Elizabeth exhibited nothing but contempt—a contempt which in part she expressed for all Bonapartes, whom she condemned as a 'mean family,' excepting always the one who had ruthlessly torn Jerome from her. But of Napoleon she never ceased to speak reverently as a man of genius, whose relatives were unworthy the blood of the brilliant conqueror. She refused to accept from her husband as king of Westphalia the title of Princess Schmalcalden and a dower of 200,000 francs, and when Jerome professed not to understand why she rejected his offer and yet allowed a smaller pension to be bestowed upon her by his brother, the emperor, she sarcastically exclaimed: 'I prefer to hide under an eagle's wing rather than hang from the neck of a gosling.'

"Again Jerome exposed himself to her sneering reproach when, having proposed that she might have a home in Westphalia, she sent back the reply: 'Your kingdom is large, but not large enough for two queens.' It was only once that the disinherited couple saw each other again, and then no word passed between them. One day Jerome was walking with his new wife in the gallery of the Pitti Palace, at Florence, when Mme. Bonaparte came upon the scene. When he recognized her Jerome hurriedly whispered to his Catherine, as Elizabeth silently walked on: 'That lady is my former wife.' He took care not to tarry in the gallery, and the next morning left the city."

The average girl rather admires extravagance in a man until she marries him.—Philadelphia Record.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health from 77 observatories in various portions of the state for the week ended October 20 indicate that smallpox and diphtheria increased and cholera infantum and cholera morbus decreased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 197 places, measles at 9, typhoid fever at 192, scarlet fever at 69, diphtheria at 38, whooping cough at 12, cerebro spinal meningitis at 6 places, and smallpox at Houghton, Maple River, Mentor, Franklin, Escanaba, Center, Red Jacket and Turin.

Students Drowned.

Ward Wood and Miss Abbie Cronin, two students at the state normal school in Ypsilanti, were drowned in Huron river. Their bodies were recovered after a search of 16 hours. They left for a canoe trip. The boat cushions, paddle and Miss Cronin's hat were found floating down the river, but it was not until midnight that their friends learned of this fact and began to drag the river.

Boy Shot.

Harrold, the seven-year-old son of P. C. Taylor, local manager of the Bell Telephone company was found under a barrel in the rear of his father's store in Mount Pleasant, shot through the heart. He was last seen with two boys named Walker. Five revolver shells were found near him. The impression is that his death was accidental.

Michigan Banks.

A consolidated statement showing the condition of the 190 state banks, 83 national banks and three trust companies of the state at the close of business September 5 has been issued by Banking Commissioner Maltz. It shows a fine condition of the financial institutions.

Seek a Parole.

Friends of Clifford Hand, who is serving a life sentence at Jackson for the murder of Jay Pulver, the night watchman of the Hayes Todd mill in Ypsilanti, have started out with a petition for his parole. Hand was sentenced in January, 1894.

News Briefly Stated.

While temporarily insane Mrs. Louis Mills, of Essexville, gave her four-year-old daughter a fatal dose of laudanum, and then tried to end her own life in the same way.

The baby boy of Charles Behm fell from its mother's arms in Wyandotte and was killed by the fall.

The republicans have nominated John R. Corliss for congress in the First district.

the District of Columbia, and one of the most popular of our citizens. He was a brave man and a successful chief.

"The other time the white house was in danger was when the conservatory took fire. That, you know, is adjoining the west wall of the white house, and it was difficult to keep the fire from taking hold of the main building. But by hard work and careful attention to every detail of the work in hand we kept the white house from taking fire, and we saved a portion of the conservatory, too. But it was a close call for the white house.

"We were in the federal government fire department then. It is not generally known that the city government and the federal government each maintained a fire department during and after the civil war. But when Grant became president, and Sherman commander of the army, there was a great cry about retrenchment and reform. As a result of this clamor Gen. Sherman abolished the federal Register! Register! Register!

The prime question after all is, whether the country can stand prosperity or not.

The important business of supplying bread and butter for our tables will be affected by our votes.

The positive certainty of Republican success is now assured and it is only a question of the size of the majorities.

Register Saturday, Nov. 3, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., if you are not already registered and wish to vote next Tuesday, Nov. 6.

When you are marking your ballots next Tuesday don't forget to vote "yes" on the constitutional amendments. It is to the direct interest of every taxpayer to do this.

The men who are denouncing McKinley for imperialism and militarism now, were fuming against him two years ago as a peace-policy man who would stand any insults from Spain.

You will find the regular Republican county ticket directly under the national, state, congressional and legislative tickets. By putting a cross in the circle at the head of the ticket you will vote for McKinley and Roosevelt, Henry C. Smith for congress, Hugo R. Loeser for state senator, the several candidates for the legislature, H. Wirt Newkirk for judge of probate, John Kalmbach for clerk, Cassius M. Warner for sheriff, Frank A. Stivers for prosecuting attorney, and the balance of the regular ticket. Remember, the Democrats have the first column, the regular Republican ticket has the second column; it is a straight and good ticket, vote it.

Frank A. Stivers, for prosecuting attorney, would make a model officer if elected. Keen, alert and gentlemanly, he would be a credit to the county and to everyone of his supporters. His claims for the support of the voters are well set forth in the article on the front page of this paper, written by Prof. E. F. Johnson, of Ann Arbor.

If you want to vote for any particular man on the regular Republican ticket put a cross (X) in the square in front of his name and mark out the name of the man on your ticket who is running for the same office that he is. This is simple enough, and there need be no mistakes. If there is more than one name you want to cut, the same rule applies.

This is the last call for dinner in the dining car—in other words, our last chance to direct your attention to the honest claims of H. Wirt Newkirk to your votes for the probate judgeship. The mud thrown at him by his Moranite detractors does not stick to him and even the Democrats who are the most strongly opposed to him from a political standpoint, honestly admire him as a public official. Energetic in his business methods, faithful in the performance of the trusts reposed with him, clear-headed in his decisions, the kindly, large hearted, sympathetic friend of the widow and the orphan, he deserves and will receive the votes of all who believe in efficient administration of probate matters, irrespective of party or partizan feeling. Cast your votes for Newkirk, who, as A. J. Sawyer said, is "the best judge of probate Washtenaw county ever had."

Congressman Henry C. Smith has made a record for himself and his district in congress that is "second to none." His maiden speech in the house on the currency question attracted the attention of everybody. He has kept up his reputation, never getting on his feet to speak unless he has well considered his subject and condensed his remarks into the fewest possible crisp, terse sentences. He has made a mark in the house which will make him a strong central figure if he is returned as our representative. He is always on the alert to serve his constituents, whether it be to secure a rural mail delivery route, a pension for an old soldier, or any of the many things that a congressman is asked to interest himself in, and has never been known to turn a man down whether he belonged to the Republican party or not. He is a model congressman in every way and worthy of re-election.

WASHTENAW'S BALLOT.

The Positions the Several Tickets Will Occupy Upon It.

On Friday the supreme court handed down its decision relative to the position of the tickets on the Washtenaw county official ballots. It is as follows and the tickets will be found on the ballots in this order:

First Column—Democratic national, state, congressional, legislative and county tickets.

Second Column—Regular Republican national, state and congressional, legislative and county tickets.

Third Column—A blank space opposite national, state and congressional tickets. The Anti-legislative and county tickets are then printed parallel with the regular Republican legislative and county tickets.

Fourth Column—Prohibition ticket.

Fifth Column—Socialist Labor ticket.

Sixth Column—People's ticket.

On Saturday the supreme court granted the Antis a further order allowing them to use the Republican vignette over their county ticket, the same as heads the regular Republican national, state and county ticket.

If your children are fretful, peevish, and cross, mother the same, ditto the boss, it would seem proper to give 'em all Rocky Mountain Tea. 85 cents. Ask your druggist.

The Chelsea Telephone Co. is extending its line to Lima.

Horace Baldwin suffered a stroke of paralysis yesterday but is somewhat better today.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly in Chelsea and but few depredations were committed.

Ann Arbor Elks had an initiation and social session last evening. Some of the Chelsea members were present.

In future physicians called to attend coroners' inquests will only be allowed $3 by the county instead of $5, as has been done hitherto.

Congressman Smith and Gen. Duffield spoke to an Ann Arbor audience last evening. The congressman received a regular ovation.

James Killam lost a woolen lap robe on the Manchester road Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 31. Finder please return to Herald office and oblige.

The Maccabee Hustlers set up a bountiful oyster supper to the victorious Rustlers at the opera house last evening. About 300 sat down to the tables.

The people of the United States use more meat than the people of any other nation. England ranks second, and the other countries come far below.

Just received at C. Steinbach's a fine line of trunks, valises and telescopes. Also a magnificent line of fur and plush robes, the finest assortment ever seen in Chelsea.

The official announcement of the total population of the United States for 1900 is 76,295,220. Michigan's population is placed at 2,419,782 as against 2,093,889 in 1890.

Hon. P. T. Colgrove will address the voters of Chelsea and vicinity at the town hall this evening on the political issues of the day as seen from a Republican standpoint.

J. J. Raftrey has the contract to furnish the Chelsea Band with new trousers. They will be of dark blue cloth with a military braid stripe down the outside seams.

The state department at Washington has issued a proclamation by the president appointing Thursday, Nov. 29, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the nations in the hollow of his hand.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Guerin last evening, when their daughter Miss Myrtle Guerin was married to Mr. Gus. Bower. Rev. J. I. Nickerson performed the ceremony.

The resignation of Rev. Julius Klingmann, pastor of the Salem church, in Scio, has not been accepted by his congregation. He has, therefore, informed the Bay City congregation who gave him a call that he cannot accept.

The Northwestern Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Co. is the cheapest of the three mutual companies in this county. The assessments of the companies during the past year were: Northwestern Washtenaw Mutual, 15 cents per $1,000; German Mutual, 60 cents per $1,000; Washtenaw Mutual, $3 per $1,000.

Judge Kinne rung in a good one on Attorney Ez Norris, of Ann Arbor, the other day, when Ez asked him to adjourn court for five minutes so that he (Norris) could get a drink of water. In reality Norris wanted to interview a witness. The judge said "If Mr. Norris will be sure that he takes a drink of water, the court will adjourn immediately." Mr. Kinne evidently knows Norris' peculiarities.

Mrs. Lucinda Murray, of Saline, attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum, at Ann Arbor, Tuesday morning, because her mother did not divide up her property in her will, as Mrs. Murray thought she should have done. A physician and promptly administered antidotes relieved her stomach and her mother altered her will and relieved her mind, so now she rests easier all around.

The opening number of the People's Popular Course on Monday evening was greeted with a packed house. Every seat was filled. The Rotund's Ladies' Orchestra, of Detroit, gave a pleasing and popular program which was well received. The singing of Master Frank Kels, the soprano soloist of Christ church, Detroit, was the best feature of the program and so pleased the audience that he was requested to favor them with a second appearance.

Manchester will be satisfied with nothing but the best in electric railroads when its turn comes, to judge by the following from the Manchester Enterprise: "In discussing the question of granting a franchise to one or both of the electric railway lines west of Ann Arbor, there is much talk of 'running a spur to Manchester.' We don't want a spur. What we want and what we will work for when the proper time comes, is a through line."

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sager, of Sylvan, on Saturday, a son.

Any one wishing stocking feet can procure them at the Baptist fair, Nov. 21.

Miss Ethel Cole entertained a party of girl friends at a Hallowe'en party last evening.

The Standard Oil Co., of Ohio, has conveyed to the Standard Oil Co., of Indiana, a parcel of land in Chelsea, for $125.

Nothing has yet been heard of Thomas S. Beals who is charged with forging Andrew Boyce's name to a note for $250.

The Chelsea Telephone Co.'s exchange will be open until 12 p. m. on election night, next Tuesday, Nov. 6, to receive returns.

Don't forget that you can get election information from the Chelsea Telephone Co.'s exchange up to 12 o'clock next Tuesday night.

A large Hallowe'en party of young people were assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Begole last evening and had a royal good time.

The prayer meeting at the Congregational church tonight at 7:30 o'clock will be a union service to which members of all the churches are cordially invited.

The Ladies' Guild of the Congregational church will serve supper at the parlors of the church next Wednesday evening from 5 o'clock until all are served. All are invited.

A hickory pole 129 feet long was raised Friday at Pleasant Lake. Nearly all of the Democratic candidates from the county were present; several of them made short speeches.

The condition of Miss Annie Bacon, who is seriously ill with typhoid fever at Coldwater, is somewhat improved. Mrs. Bacon went to Coldwater Monday to stay with her daughter.

If your name is not on the town register, be sure and see that it is put there between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., Saturday, Nov. 3. That is, if you want to vote next Tuesday.

"It may not be generally known," said an insurance agent, "that every one who uses a gasoline lamp without securing a permit invalidates his insurance policy. The fire insurance companies have a committee that passes on lamps and while many are reasonably safe some are not. A permit for a gasoline stove is not sufficient. There must be a permit for the lamps. If this is not done some one will suffer."

Six Frightful Failures.

Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen, of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, including coughs, colds, la grippe, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free at Stimson's drug store.

An Insult to the Board.

Washtenaw Republican: By a vote of 28 to 3 on last Friday the county supervisors awarded the printing of their proceedings to the Chelsea Herald, its bid of $2.28 a page being the lowest offered. That the board was justified in so doing the Republican has not the slightest doubt. This is the ill-natured comment made up on the board's action by the Argus, the thin skinned representative of Ann Arbor's Printing Trust, whose bids were too high to get the job.

"The proceedings of the Washtenaw board of supervisors will be printed in an obscure paper near Jackson county this coming year. The board decided this in order to save $20. Wonder what they did that they are so ashamed of that they don't want the whole county to know about."

Not one of the newspapers published by the Trust made other mention than the above of the job it did not get. The item is a direct insult to every member of the board of supervisors as well as to our friend Mingay of the Chelsea Herald, whose years of hard service upon the Argus when it was in its better days should have assured him better treatment.

We thank Bro. Pearson for so kindly taking up the cudgels in our behalf, but we adhere to the opinion formed when we first read the spiteful little item, that if Mr. Beakes, the managing editor of the Argus, had been at home, no such an item would ever have appeared in its columns.

O, beauty! what a powerful weapon thou art. The bravest men fall at thy feet. No wonder women take Rocky Mountain Tea to prolong that joyous spell. Ask your druggist.

ROUT OF FILIPINOS.

Insurgents Continue Their Attacks on Americans.

Driven Back in One Engagement with Heavy Loss—Our Troops Forced to Retire in Another Skirmish.

Manila, Oct. 29.—A civilian launch towing a barge loaded with merchandise near Arayat was attacked by a force of 150 insurgents under David Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth infantry. The American troops on hearing the firing turned out in force before the boat could be looted and captured. Fagin, who holds the rank of general among the insurgents, has sworn special enmity toward his former company. Of the 20 men he captured a month ago seven have returned. One was killed in a fight, his body being horribly mutilated. Fagin sends messages to his former comrades threatening them with violence if they become his prisoners. It was Fagin's men who captured Lieut. Frederick W. Alstaetter, who is still a prisoner.

Enemy Driven Off.

While scouting near Loooc, a detachment of the Twentieth and Twenty-eighth regiments, under Capt. Beigler, were attacked by 400 insurgents armed with rifles, under the command of a white man whose nationality is not known to the Americans. The insurgents for the most part were entrenched. After a heroic fight Capt. Beigler drove off the enemy, killing more than 75. The fight lasted for two hours. Capt. Beigler and three privates were slightly wounded, and two of the Americans were killed.

Forced to Retire.

An engagement took place October 24 between detachments of the Third cavalry and the Thirty-third volunteer infantry, numbering 60, and a force of insurgents, including 400 riflemen and 1,000 bolomen. The fighting was desperate. Finally, under pressure of overwhelming numbers, the Americans were compelled to retire on Narvican. Lieut. George L. Febiger and four privates were killed, nine were wounded and four are missing. Twenty-nine horses are missing. A number of teamsters were captured by the insurgents, but were subsequently released. The enemy's loss is estimated at 150.

Gen. Hall's expedition, with a force of nearly 800 men, through the mountains to Binonganon, province of Infanta, in pursuit of the insurgent General Cailles, although it discovered no trace of the enemy, encountered great hardships on the march. Twenty Chinese porters died, and 40 men were sent into hospital. After stationing a garrison of 250 men in Binonganon and visiting Polillo island, off the coast of Infanta province, Gen. Hall and the rest of his force embarked there on the transport Garrone.

Reports from Gen. Young's district show a daily increase of insurgents there, owing to the fact that recruits are going thither from the towns.

While a detail of the Thirty-third volunteer infantry was returning from Bangued on rafts, it was fired upon by insurgents. Sergt. Berdsteller being killed and two privates wounded.

BANK ROBBED.

Robbers Blow Open a Safe in a Wisconsin Town and Escape with About $2,000.

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 29.—One of the most daring bank robberies in the history of the state occurred early Saturday morning at Prairie du Sac, a small town near Baraboo, Wis. The Prairie du Sac bank, at that place, was entered, the safe blown open by means of dynamite and its contents looted. The robbers secured $1,500 in silver and about 300 in gold coin, besides several valuable checks. In all about $3,000 was stolen. While there is but little trace of the thieves, it developed that there were three of them, and it is further believed that they left town by means of saddle horses, heading for the north. The explosion of dynamite was so loud that it woke several persons who lived near the bank, and it was but a short time before they were awake and realized what had happened. They did not dare to oppose the burglars, who were, from all appearances desperats and fully armed. As soon as the crowd could get together however a posse was formed and they started in pursuit of the thieves.

Kruger's Plans.

Brussels, Oct. 29.—The Transvaal agency announces that Mr. Kruger will arrive at Marseilles on the Dutch cruiser Gelderland November 11 or November 12. He will have apartments at the Grand Hotel de Noailles, where he will receive several French, Dutch and Belgian delegations. Mr. Kruger will proceed to The Hague without stopping at Paris, and after expressing his thanks to Queen Wilhelmina for Dutch hospitality on board the Gelderland he will appeal to the powers to intervene in the South African settlement on the basis of "Article 3 of The Hague convention."

A CALL TO GIVE THANKS.

President McKinley Issues His Annual Thanksgiving Day Proclamation to Nation.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The state department Monday issued the following:

"By the President of the United States of America.—A proclamation.—It has pleased Almighty God to bring our nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country through all its extent has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant seas and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been marvelously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people.

"Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all the people of the United States, at home or abroad, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed-time and harvest, for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies, and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation, and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this 29th day of October, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-fifth.

"WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

"By the President: John Hay, Secretary of State."

A PARTIAL RESUMPTION.

Miners Return to Work Where Satisfactory Agreements Are Made by Operators.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 30.—Operations were resumed Monday morning at a majority of the collieries in the Hazleton district and they will be continued in full blast for the next two months. The strike is still on at the mines of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal company located at Audenried, Honey Brook and Green Mountain. One of the officials of the company said Monday morning that the company had informed the men that it would abolish the sliding scale and agree to pay the ten per cent. increase until April 1 and they did not know why they refused to report. The mine workers claim that they want a written guarantee in this respect.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 30.—Over 5,000 mine employes in the Lackawanna valley refused to return to work Monday morning because the companies for which they had mined coal failed to comply with the terms of the miners' convention.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 30.—When the colliery whistles blew Monday morning 15,000 men and boys between Trevorton, this place and Mount Carmel reported for work. The only collieries idle are Henry Clay, Excelsior and Corbin. They will be in operation in a few days.

DISASTROUS WRECK.

Breaking of a Switch Rod Causes an Accident in Montana—Seven Lives Lost.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 30.—A Helena (Mont.) special to the Dispatch says: Northern Pacific train No. 4, east-bound, was partially wrecked at De Hart, Mont., eight miles from Big Timber, at 11:15 Sunday night by the breaking of a switch rod. Seven passengers were killed and several injured, as follows:

DEAD—W. C. Reifenrath, of Helena; Dr. Lester Pendleton, of Mount Hope, Wis.; Ed Eastman, of Raymond, S. D.; Dr. C. C. Harthorn, of Livingston, Mont.; Miss M. S. Tracy, of Bozeman, Mont.; two unknown women.

The injured: Walter Nelson, of Dickinson, N. D., left and right sides bruised; Miss Lucy Carpenter, head, side and arm bruised; Mrs. Jacob Hugh, of Marietta, Mich., left foot and side bruised; Maria Tracy, of Bozeman, Mont., sister of M. S. Tracy, who was killed, wrist and arm bruised; M. J. Sweeney, of Butte, Mont., slight injury to right arm; Erick Pendleton, brother of Lester Pendleton, slight; Ed Gray, traveling freight agent of the Omaha railway, foot bruised; M. A. Deldrick, engineer, slight injury in the hand; George Hubbard, sheriff of Yellowstone county, left arm and leg broken; a dozen others were less seriously injured.

VICTIMS OF AN EARTHQUAKE.

Fifteen Persons Killed at Caracas, Venezuela—President Castro Is Injured.

Caracas, Venezuela, Oct. 30.—At 1:46 a. m. Monday Caracas was visited by a severe earthquake. Fifteen persons were killed and many others injured. Great damage was done to buildings, including the Pantheon and the churches. The United States legation was badly damaged, but all the occupants escaped unhurt. President Castro, who leaped from a balcony on the second floor of the government house, had one of his legs broken.

WILD SCENES IN LONDON.

Heroes of South African War Welcomed Home—Streets Filled with a Frenzied Mob.

London, Oct. 30.—The City Imperial volunteers, who arrived at Southampton from South Africa Saturday, on the British transport Aurania, reached here by train, marched through London, along streets packed by thousands, and received a tumultuous greeting. Such a demonstration was probably never before evoked for such a small body of volunteers.

The march was broken by stoppages at the site of Temple Bar, where the Lord Mayor, Sir Alfred Newton, welcomed the return of the regiment he originated, at St. Paul's cathedral, where there was a short thanksgiving service, and at the Guild hall, for the civic reception. After the usual loyal toasts Lord Wolseley, responding for the "imperial forces," read the following telegram he had received from Queen Victoria:

"Please assure the city of London imperial volunteers that I heartily share in those feelings of joy and thankfulness which have been evidenced in the enthusiastic welcome accorded them to-day. Tell them with what pride and satisfaction I have received the unvarying reports of their soldier-like conduct during the dangers and hardships of a trying campaign. While joining in the happiness of the many relatives and friends who celebrate the home coming of their dear ones, I deeply sympathize with those who look in vain for them, who, alas no longer stand in the ranks of their comrades. I, also, myself, have to grieve over the loss of a dear and most gallant grandson, who, like so many of your companions, has served and died for his queen and country."

After an eight hours' march, broken by a sermon at St. Paul's cathedral by the bishop of Stepney and a speech by Lord Mayor Newton at the Guild hall, the volunteers sat down to a course dinner at the headquarters of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of London, where Lord Wolseley and many other notable persons received and addressed them.

The list of casualties among the welcoming multitud was longer than that of the whole corps in its 26 engagements in South Africa. Partial returns from the hospitals and police stations indicate that more than 200 were badly hurt, three and possibly five being killed outright.

There were 4,000 police and 22,000 troops on duty along the line of march, but they were unable to manage the crowds. Women and girls fainted and were trampled underfoot. Stands overloaded with sightseers fell in. Twelve persons out of 30 who were riding on top of a mail wagon whose wheels gave way had their bones broken. Two children were killed. A man who was leaning over the parapet of the roof of a four-story building lost his balance and fell upon a group of women, killing one and hurting two others, but walked away himself apparently uninjured. Many of the soldiers on the line of march were hurt in combats with the crowds. Altogether London had a wild day, with much fun, and, unfortunately, a deal of grief in many households because of the accidents.

Indeed, the only surprising feature is that the casualties were not twice as numerous, for when night fell the streets of London would have done credit to the commune. It was a scene of unchecked saturnalia that met the eye. Fighting and swearing throngs fought vainly among themselves for the right of way. Half an hour was needed to make a hundred yards' progress along the Strand, and the feat could only be accomplished at the risk of life or limb.

The night was a repetition of "Mafeking night," without the redeeming excuses of that celebrated orgy. London was turned over to the worst elements of its population. Women were insulted, kissed or thrown down with impunity in street fights. Pursued by the sweet will of inebriate brawlers from the sidewalks, they streamed along historic thoroughfares, shouting, sobbing and brandishing peacock feathers with inane depravity. Many of them offered no exception to the rule of drunkenness. Babes in arms could frequently be seen. Countless different uniforms of soldiers of the empire, regulars, volunteers and colonial, added vivid color to an extraordinary spectacle, the like of which was never witnessed in any American city.

In justice to the heroes of the demonstration it should be said that few of them participated in the night's celebration. Indeed, they seemed to be almost forgotten in the general desire to take advantage of the opportunity of unbridled debauch and the defiance of all law, order and decency.

More than a thousand persons were treated by the ambulance corps, although in most cases the injuries were not serious. There were, however, many cases of serious injuries, and it is not unlikely that there will be other deaths. Two men fell from a scaffold on a building in Finsbury-Circus and both were killed.

Carlisle Outbreak.

Madrid, Oct. 30.—A conflict between 24 armed Carlists and a detachment of gendarmes occurred Sunday near Badalona. The chief of the Carlists was killed and another man was wounded. Three Remington rifles were captured. The band retreated in the direction of Moncada, pursued by cavalry and infantry.

MAKING PROGRESS.

Foreign Envoys Adopt French Note as Basis of Discussion in Peace Negotiations.

Paris, Oct. 30.—The Havas agency here received the following from Peking: "The foreign envoys have held further meetings, and the French note has been accepted in principle as the basis of discussion. Li Hung Chang has informed the legations of the poisoning of the Yu hsia. A company of French troops sent for a day's march west of Peking to rid a district that was reported to be infested with Boxers, killed eight rebels, took one prisoner and captured a mitrailleuse. The international column now returning from Pao-ting-fu, is purging the villages en route. The armed population is being punished and all arms are destroyed."

A Shanghai dispatch says China opened negotiations by proposing to pay an indemnity of £40,000,000 and to imprison Tuan for life.

London, Oct. 30.—Lord George Hamilton, secretary of state for India, has received the following dispatch, dated October 22, at Pao-ting-fu, from Sir Alfred Gaselee: "I have appointed an international commission to inquire into the murder of the missionaries and railway officials, with a view of fixing the responsibility." In a dispatch dated Pao-ting-fu, October 24, Gen. Gaselee says that, in pursuance of instructions from Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, the British troops will return to Peking and Tientsin, reaching their destinations about November 6. After reporting regarding the operations against the Boxers, Gen. Gaselee concludes with a statement that he expects to reach Peking himself October 31.

Paris, Oct. 30.—The Chinese minister here cabled to Emperor Kwang-Su urging his majesty to return to Peking, pointing out that his so doing would very greatly facilitate the peace negotiations.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Secretary Hay has transmitted to England and Germany the reply to the joint agreement to maintain the open door in China, acquiescing in its terms except as to the third article, which is held to concern the two contracting parties alone.

ALVORD ARRESTED.

The Embossing Note Teller of New York Bank Placed in Jail at Boston.

Boston, Oct. 30.—Cornelius L. Alvord, Jr., the absconding note teller of the First national bank in New York city, who is charged with stealing $700,000 from the bank, was arrested here Monday afternoon by Chief Inspector William B. Watts, of this city, and Detective Armstrong, of New York, in an ordinary lodging house at the corner of West Newton street and Burlington avenue. When arrested Alvord, who knew Detective Armstrong, stated that he was glad the suspense was ended, and was willing to go back to New York without papers. He sat down on the bed and smoked a cigar, and was only dressed in his underclothes at the time. He afterward dressed quickly, and, packing a few underclothes in a bag, stated he was ready to go. A hack was called, and he was driven to police headquarters, and, after being measured and photographed under the Bertillon system, was taken to New York on the five o'clock train.

When asked what he had done with the money, he said: "Well, $700,000 is a whole lot of money, but it goes easy." In referring to horse races he said he had backed horses, but never on race tracks, and had owned fast horses himself. He said he had lived his life, and had taken life to its full, at the rate of $50,000 a year or more. He said he would not make any fight, would throw up his hands, take his sentence, and after that was over, would come out in the world again. He said he knew he would be unable to secure bail, and that he had nothing with which to make restitution. On being searched at police headquarters only a few dollars were found in his pockets, which he was allowed to keep. He sent a telegram to Lawyer Gardner, in New York, asking him to meet the train when it arrived in New York.

EXPIRES IN TWO YEARS.

Labor Leader Urges Activity Towards Securing Passage of New Chinese Exclusion Act.

New York, Oct. 30.—"The Chinese exclusion act will expire in 1902. Unless we are on the alert Chinamen will pour in among us, and the country will be filled with cheap Chinese labor."

Chairman James Maguire, of the Central Labor union, made this announcement before a meeting of that body. His remarks created a sensation.

"I wish to give this timely warning," continued the chairman, "so that laboring men and women throughout the United States shall take measures to have another exclusion bill passed. Visit your congressman and see how he stands on the question. Put him on record."

The meeting resolved to call the attention of all trades to the exclusion act.

STRIKE CALLED OFF.

Men Are Officially Ordered to Return to the Mines—News Causes Great Joy.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 26.—The mine workers' strike has been declared off against all companies which have complied with the strikers' demands, and the strike will be continued against those companies which have not granted the Scranton convention's demand. The strikers will return to work Monday at the places where the tie-up is ended.

There was much rejoicing here when the announcement was made that the coal strike was at an end in so far as concerned the collieries where the conditions demanded by the miners had been complied with. The news spread quickly and soon telegrams began to arrive at headquarters. Most of them were from local union officials congratulating President Mitchell on the successful ending of the contest.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 26.—The bulletin announcing the ending of the great miners' strike was received here with the greatest enthusiasm by all classes. The news had been expected, and large crowds collected in front of the newspaper offices. When the bulletin was posted there was a look of satisfaction on every face. Business men in particular were much pleased that the conflict had come to an end. There are some individual operators who have not posted notices. It is said they are holding back until they get a better carrying rate from the big coal companies. The Lehigh Valley company agreed to the original ten per cent. increase, but has not posted notices yet giving the additional 2½ per cent. per car, as agreed to by the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Delaware & Hudson, Lehigh & Wilkesbarre and some of the other big companies. It is estimated, however, that by Monday operators controlling 90 per cent. of the output in the Wyoming valley will have agreed to pay the full ten per cent. demanded by the miners.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 27.—The termination of the anthracite coal miners' strike is not yet general, several of the operating companies having failed to post notices granting the increase which the men demand, and on the acceptance of which the great majority of the 142,000 men who engaged in the struggle will return to work Monday, but nevertheless the whole anthracite region is filled with joy.

Sues a Senator.

Washington, Oct. 27.—A suit for $50,000 damages for breach of promise against United States Senator William V. Sullivan, of Mississippi, was filed in the District of Columbia supreme court Friday afternoon by Mai Lucy Leeton, of Oxford, Miss. The plaintiff in her affidavit alleges that she, "an unmarried woman at the request of the defendant, undertook and promised to marry him, and the defendant undertook and promised to marry the plaintiff, which he withheld cause or right has refused to do."

Engineer Drops Dead.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.—John McMahon, an engineer of the special train bearing Richard Yates, republican candidate for governor of Illinois, from Vermont, Ill., to White Hall, stepped down from the engine as the train pulled into the station at Beardstown Thursday and fell over dead. McMahon was a resident of this place, and is survived by his wife. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of heart trouble.

University Celebrates.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Very interesting exercises in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Vanderbilt university were held Tuesday in the Gospel tabernacle. Addresses were delivered by President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale, and Chancellor Kirkland, of Vanderbilt, and the presentation of Kissam hall, the gift of W. K. Vanderbilt, followed. An elaborate musical program was rendered.

Decision Against Dowdlett.

Mansfield, O., Oct. 25.—Judge Campbell Wednesday dismissed the application at petitioner's cost in the habeas corpus case of the Dowdlett deacon Kessler, holding that Kessler was not illegally deprived of liberty, but placed himself in the hands of the officers. The judge said Kessler was at liberty to go where he sees fit. The deacon went to Chicago on noon.

A Valuable Nugget.

New York, Oct. 26.—The biggest nugget of gold ever received at the assay office in Wall street, according to Superintendent Mason, arrived Thursday from a mining company in British Columbia. It was consigned to the New York agents of the Bank of Montreal. The nugget contained a fraction over 753 pounds of the solid yellow metal, and is valued at $154,000.

The Seal Catch.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.—During the season just closed 34 sealing schooners took 16,000 skins in Behring sea, which is 8,000 less than taken by 23 schooners last year. The spring schooners took 16,517 skins on the coast, bringing the total for the season up to 32,517. Only 55 branded seals were killed in Behring sea.

Still More Counterfeiting.
The Secret Service has unearthed another lot of counterfeiters and secured a large quantity of bogus bills, which are so cleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being spurious. The great value are always selected for circulation, notably Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, which has many imitators but no equals for disorders like indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and general debility. RUIN BY EXPLOSION.

Disastrous Fire Occurs in New York City.

Chemicals in Burning Drug House Explode—Ten Big Buildings Demolished—Loss, $1,500,000—Thirty Lives Probably Lost.

New York, Oct. 30.—As the result of a small fire several successive explosions of chemicals occurred in the wholesale drug house of Tarrant & Co., at Warren and Greenwich streets, Monday and blew down a dozen buildings and badly damaged a score of others. The loss of life is not known, but from all sources of information it is gathered that there are perhaps the bodies of 30 persons in the ruins, though because of the hot debris and the slowness of moving it no body had been removed up to midnight. The disaster was one of the most terrible that has ever occurred in this city and rivals the Windsor hotel fire in its appalling results, though in loss of property it will be worse. Chief Croker, of the fire department, said that the loss is fully $1,500,000.

The action of the tremendous catastrophe was more vivid and awful than the city has seen for a long time. Buildings fell in on themselves or toppled over on others, iron girders were thrown yards away, smashing through great walls, whole structures fell into the streets on piles so that the line of thoroughfare could not be marked out, huge splinters of iron, steel and wood were flung into the streets and into the buildings clean through the walls, where they buried women and men, people walking through the streets were knocked down and dangerously injured by timbers, glass and steel, horses were thrown down, wagons, windows, store fronts and all sorts of property for blocks in every direction were wrecked and damaged. There are 35 persons reported missing and 100 men, women and children are on the list of the injured. Chief Croker said that no firemen had perished in the fire, all his men having been accounted for.

Buildings Wrecked.
The buildings which were destroyed or wrecked were:

Seven-story brick and stone structure—the basement and first story, part of third and fourth to the seventh story, occupied by Tarrant & Co., wholesale druggists; sixth story partly by the F. T. Witte Hardware company, and the second and part of the third by Breitenbach & Co., manufacturers of patent medicines. Fifty persons were employed in the building.

Seven-story brick building, occupied by Eppens, Smith & Weinman company, coffee-roasting house.

Five-story brick building, occupied by Locke & Conklin, produce dealers; Douglas & Co., cheese; Kahn, bakers' supplies, and Hopping & Campfield, broomsticks and broom straw.

Six-story brick, occupied by Aller, dried fruits; fifth floor, Haven's Drug and Spice company; fourth floor, vacant, and second, Flake & Co., lemons and oranges; first and part of sixth, fruit dealers; first, Pedora & Xenells, lemons and oranges; basement, Cuneo, fruit dealers.

Five-story brick, used as a hotel.

Five-story brick, occupied, second to fifth floor, by the Morris Jackson Flag company; basement by Hart & Co., butter and cheese.

Five-story brick, occupied by Shiegly, second-hand printers' materials; fourth floor, O'Keefe & Shiegly, printers; third, Morris Jackson Flag company; basement and first floor, Boerne, butter and eggs.

Four-story brick, unoccupied.

Four-story brick, occupied from basement to the fourth floor by Behrman, produce, and part of the second and third by Kornathers, storage and screens.

Four-story brick, occupied by Ernst, saloon; Hesse & Ohs, apples; Granalto, bananas.

Five-story brick, occupied by Hartman, embossing and stamping cardboard factory, third, fourth and fifth floors; second, Koerber Nutt Bread company; first, Lifschitz, cigars; Italian barber; Rosenberg, saloon in basement and first floor, and also in the basement a carpenter shop and a Chinese laundry.

Origin of the Fire.

Of the origin of the fire no exact information is yet to be had. The flames were first seen on the third or fourth floor of the building at the northwest corner of Warren and Greenwich streets, occupied by Tarrant & Co. It is possible that the fire resulted from imperfect insulation of electric light wires, but it is the opinion of Fire Chief Croker and Commissioner Scannell that carelessness among chemicals was the cause of the fire. Although the city regulations against the storing of chemicals are of the strictest kind, Commissioner Scannell made the special charge that Tarrant & Co. had paid no heed to the law and had placed in storage chemicals and explosives far exceeding the legal limit.

The Loss of Life.

Outside of a few who were injured in the streets, the loss of life by the fire and explosion must have occurred in the Tarrant building mainly, and possibly in the other buildings destroyed by the fire. The number of persons in the Tarrant building was estimated to be in the neighborhood of 50. Secretary Allen, of the company, said that there were 45 employees, and he thought all got out with the exception of one. People who saw the fire declared, however, that more must have been lost.

The only person known to have been killed up to eight o'clock Monday night was a man who died in one of the hospitals from the result of an injury received in the street.

Fate of His Ligaments.

"Yes," said Mrs. Brown, "my son Thomas has had an awful time playing football. But Tom's quite a hero. He wrote me all about it. He said the professor at his college told him he had only three ligaments in his leg. Then three ligaments are what hold the foot onto the leg. Well, Tom says that a year ago he braked his first ligament, that's the outside one, in playin' the game with Purdoo. Then in playing the Shampan university he broke the second ligament right short off. And just last week in playin' with some college from Indiana he braked the third ligament, and now there ain't anything on aith holdin' that foot on except skin."—Chicago Tribune.

A Noted Knight Templar Owes His Health to Peruna.

Colonel T. P. Moody, a prominent Knight Templar, is well known in every city in the United States west of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Jeweler's Auctioneer. In the city of Chicago as a prominent lodge man, being a member of the K. T.'s and also of the Masons. The cut shows Colonel Moody in the costume of the Oriental Consistory Masons, 32nd degree.

Colonel T. P. Moody, of Chicago, Had Catarrh Twenty-five Years and Was Cured by Peruna.

In a recent letter from 5900 Michigan avenue, Chicago, Ill., Mr. Moody says the following:

"For over twenty-five years I suffered from catarrh, and for ever ten years I suffered from catarrh of the stomach terribly. I have taken all kinds of medicines and have been treated by all kinds of doctors, as thousands of my acquaintances are aware in different parts of the United States, where I have traveled, but my relief was only temporary, until a little over a year ago I started to take Peruna, and at the present time I am better than I have been for twenty years.

"The soreness has left my stomach entirely and I am free from indigestion and dyspepsia and will say to all who are troubled with catarrh or stomach trouble of any kind, don't put it off and suffer, but begin to take Peruna right away, and keep it up until you are cured, as you surely will be if you persevere.

"My wife, as many in the southwest can say, was troubled with a bad cough and bronchial trouble, and doctors all over the country gave her up to die, as they could do nothing more for her. She began taking Peruna with the result that she is better now than she has been in years, and her cough has almost left her entirely. The soreness has left her lungs and she is as well as she ever was in her life, with thanks, as she says, to Peruna. Yours very truly,

T. P. Moody.

Catarrh in its various forms is rapidly becoming a general cure. An undoubted remedy has been discovered by Dr. Hartman. This remedy has been thoroughly tested during the past forty years. Prominent men have come to know of its virtues, and are making public utterances on the subject. To save the country we must save the people. To save the people we must protect them from disease. The disease that is at once the most prevalent and stubborn of cure is catarrh.

If one were to make a list of the different names that have been applied to catarrh in different locations and organs, the result would be astonishing. We have often published a partial list of these names, and the surprise caused by the first publication of it to all people, both professional and non-professional, was amusing. And yet we have never enumerated all of the diseases which are classed as catarrh. It must be confessed, however, to see even this partial list drawn up in battle array is rather appalling. If the reader desires to see this list, together with a short exposition of each one, send for our free catarrh book. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

DON'T BE DUPED

There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of Webster's Dictionary. They are being offered under various names at a low price.

By dealers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers. Announcements of these comparatively worthless reprints are very misleading. They are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, while they are all Reprint Dictionaries, phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which was sold for about $3.00, and which was much superior to those imitations, being a work of some merit instead of one Long Since Obsolete.

The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only meritorious one of that name. It bears our imprint on the title-page and is protected by copyright from cheap imitation. As a dictionary lasts a lifetime will it not be better to purchase the LATEST AND BEST, Webster's International Dictionary of ENGLISH, Biography, Geography, Fiction, etc. Size 10x12 1/4 x 4 1/4 inches.

This Book is the Best for Everybody. STANDARD AUTHORITY of the U. S. Supreme Court, all the State Supreme Courts, the U. S. Government Printing Office and of nearly all the Schoolbooks. WARMLY COMMENDED by College Presidents, State Superintendents of Schools and many other eminent authorities.

Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Recently abridged from the International and next to it the best for the family and student. Size 7x10 1/2 x 3 1/2 inches.

CELEERY KING

NATURE'S CURE

It Makes Restful Sleep.

Sleeplessness almost invariably accompanies constipation and its manifold attendant evils—nervous disorders, indigestion, headache, loss of appetite, etc. To attempt to induce sleep by opiates is a serious mistake, for the brain is only benumbed and the body suffers. Celeery King removes the cause of wakefulness by its soothing effect on the nerve and on the stomach and bowels.

Celeery King cures Constipation and Nerve Stomach, Liver and Kidney diseases.

FOR AND AGAINST ICE.

Americans are noted for their devotion to ice-water and the Englishman looks in undisguised horror at our habit of drinking quarts of the cold fluid when we are warm and tired. It is taught when a child that awful consequences follow washing in very cold water or drinking cold water when he is hot. Also he has a deadly terror of draughts. Naturally he cannot understand how we escape with our lives.

An Englishman who went out to Australia—which shares with us a fondness for getting cool—relates how he discovered it was the habit of his friends to play tennis when the thermometer registered 100 degrees in the shade and then rush off for an icy-cold bath and a draught of ice-water. They never seemed the worse for it. We see the same thing done here every day. The Australians, he also found, particularly the women, after dancing, hunt up draughts to sit in to cool off.

We call it ice cream. To the English it is known as cream ice. Just when or where it was invented is the question many people have tried to solve. In the beginning of the century it was almost unknown in England, though well known in Naples and Sicily, where the cream was artfully made into copes of peaches, apples, apricots and such dainties, much as we have them to-day made in molds.

There is one famous instance in support of the English against the American opinion on the subject of taking cold baths when you are very hot, for it removed from the earth in the city of Babylon, at the age of thirty-three, one of the greatest men that ever lived, Alexander the Great, who died of fever brought on by bathing in the river when he was very hot. This was unfortunate, because he would doubtless have gone on to conquer China as he conquered the rest of Asia, and this might have saved several European powers half their present anxiety.

PERSONALS.

J. J. Raffrey was in Detroit on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Prendergast are spending today in Detroit.

Mrs. VanBerg, of St. Johns, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Fred Budd.

E. J. Raffrey, of Cleveland, O., visited his brother J. J. Raffrey Tuesday.

Miss Genevieve Young, of Lyndon, left today for St. Joseph's academy, Adrian.

The Misses McKernan will leave for Jackson next Saturday to attend business college.

Prof. and Mrs. W. W. Gifford spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Lyndon.

Mrs. Budd, of Laingsburg, visited her son Fred Budd and wife and other friends in Chelsea the past week.

Mrs. Lizzie Helen and son, of Jackson, spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Schatz, the past week.

Dixon Burchard, of Detroit, is spending the week with his sister Mrs. Abner Spencer. He will leave for Oakland, Cal. to make his future home there about Nov. 15.

Lyndon.

Miss Genevieve Young is attending St. Joseph's academy, Adrian.

There have been no political speeches made by either party in Lyndon this campaign.

There are still a few lots of beans to thresh. It is too wet for threshing and bad on beans in the stack.

Owing to the scarcity of help most farmers have considerable work to do yet before they are ready for winter.

John Cunningham, of Jackson, visited his sister Mrs. John Clark and family last week and enjoyed a couple of days' hunting.

James Burden, the Gregory stock buyer, was through here last week and bought considerable stock in the central and west part of town.

The young people had a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young on Friday evening. They report a very pleasant and enjoyable evening.

Highway Commissioner M. Hankard has done some very commendable work in grading the hills west from the Greening farm, also in grading the road in the Collins district.

Will Fox had the misfortune to lose his fine hunting dog the other day. The dog started up a coon near Duffy's lake. The coon took to water, the dog followed and grappled with him in the water. The coon got on the dog's head and kept him under water till he drowned.

We pray thee, heed him not who asketh thee to take something, said to be the same as Rocky Mountain Tea made by the Madison Medicine Co. 35c. As your druggist.

WIT AND HUMOR.

A rather "tall" tale comes from Glenfarg of the British Isles. While a number of ladies and gentlemen were enjoying a short spin recently a hare bounded into their midst and, quite bewildered, leaped into the arms of a lady member of the party and ensconced itself in her dress. The young lady let go her grasp of the handlebar of her machine and instantly the hare and its partner rolled on to the grass at the roadside.

The world would run more easily with a universal tongue. Witness the case of the American army nurse in Cuba who did not know Spanish. One day, just before hostilities had come to a definite end, she was startled by the unexpected visit of her Cuban laundress. The woman was intensely excited. The Cuban's hands seemed to speak of wounded men butchered and nurses cut to ribbons. The nurse was frantic. She must know the worse. In the hospital was an officer very ill with typhoid fever. She knew he understood Spanish. Only in a matter of life or death would she disturb him, but this was obviously a matter of life and death. The sick man turned his head on the pillows. "She says," he whispered feebly, "she says the stripes in your pink shirt waist have run, and she doesn't know what to do with it."

A Wonderful Offer to Women.

We have received word of a most remarkable offer which is to be made to women by The Delineator, of New York.

Taking the fact that next year begins a new century, The Delineator offers to distribute $17,500 among 1901 women. The plan is so cleverly arranged that a woman living in a small town or village, has just as good a chance to win one of these 1901 prizes as a woman living in a city—because the prizes are given for the number of subscriptions secured in a town in proportion to the population of that town, instead of being given simply to those who send the largest list of subscribers—which, of course, are most easily obtained in big cities. Another clever feature of the plan is, that all the cities and towns of the United States and Canada have been arranged in seven classes. The cities of the greatest population are grouped in Class 1, and as these cities are not very many, the prizes offered are twenty-eight; the highest prize being $500, and the lowest $5.00. The total amount of prizes given away in this class is $1,000. The remaining smaller towns and villages fall into six other classes, and as the number of towns in a class increases, because, of course, there are more small towns than large ones, the amount of prizes given away to a class increases, so that in Class 7, there will be $4,000 distributed among 601 winners.

Furthermore, to everyone who fails to win one of the 1901 prizes there will be paid an extra commission on subscriptions, provided they equal one out of every two hundred inhabitants of the town from which the contestant sends them.

This is altogether a very liberal offer, and one which the famous old Delineator is well able to make good. From our point of view, we do not see why such an offer needs to be made by the Publishers of The Delineator, for we believe it already has nearly half a million subscribers. Its strong hold upon the affections of American women has come in the past generation, from its practical advice about dress details and home matters.

Nervous, Weak Men.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are annually swept to a premature grave through EARLY INDISCRETION, EXCESS, AND BLOOD DISEASES. If you have any of the following symptoms consult us before it is too late. Are you nervous and weak, despondent and gloomy, specks before the eyes with dark circles under them, weak back, kidneys irritable, palpitation of the heart, bashful, dreams and losses, sediment in urine, pimples on the face, sunken eyes, hollow cheeks, careworn expression, poor memory, lifeless, distrustful, lack of energy and strength, tired mornings, restless nights, changeable moods, weak manhood, stunted organs, premature decay, bone pains, hair loose, sore throat, etc.? Our New Method Treatment will cure you.

MEN'S LIFE BLOOD

Nothing can be more demoralizing to young and middle-aged men than emissions at night or secret drains through the urine. They unfit a man for business, married life or social happiness. No matter whether caused by evil habits in youth, natural weakness, or sexual excesses, our New Method Treatment will positively cure you. CURES GUARANTEED. NO CURE, NO PAY.

No Names Used Without Written Consent.

W. A. Muir, of Lima, O., says:—"I was one of the countless victims of early vice at 15 years of age. The drains on my system were weakening my brain as well as my sexual and nervous system. For ten years I tried scores of doctor's electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, in fact, contemplating suicide when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. E. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured seven years ago—am married and happy. I heartily recommend Drs. E. & K. to my afflicted fellow men."

Before Treatment After Treatment

We treat and cure Varicocela, Emissions, Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, Unnatural Discharges, Self Abuse, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases of Men and Women.

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT. PRIVATE. No medicine sent C. O. D. No names on boxes or envelopes. Everything confidential. Question list and cost of treatment, FREE.
