CLEVER BURGLARS.

They Made a Big Haul at Stockbridge and Escaped East via Chelsea.

Stockbridge was again visited by burglars Friday night and this time the fellows cleaned up from one store several times more than was got from all the stores visited the first time. C. E. DePuy was one of those visited the first time and he was the lone victim of Friday night's exploit.

There were four men who did the job, and they laid their plans well. They took supper at Gregory and from there went to Stockbridge. The Maccabees had some doings in the village that night and it was quite late before things had settled down quiet enough for them to commence operations. They went first to the barns of Jay Asquith and Jay Backus, who live opposite each other, and hitched up a horse and rig at each place. The rigs were left in the barns and the doors were closed, then the burglars went off to do the job. At one of the two places where they got the rigs, they were seen by some one of the family hitching up, but they thought it was one of the boys returning home from the dance at Munith that night.

The safe in Mr. DePuy's store was blown open and from it was taken nearly $600 worth of jewelry and $43 in money.
The jewelry consisted of 180 gold rings, 40
gold watch cases, 20 watch movements, and 5 complete watches. Their plunder secured the burglars returned to the barns, got out the rigs and drove to Chelsea.

They arrived here 10 minutes too late to catch the 5:20 a. m. train going east and were obliged to wait around until the 7:15 train came along. Many people noticed them but their true character was not suspected. The ticket agent sold them tickets to Wayne. When they arrived in Chelsea they left the horses tied and carefully blanketed near the creamery, where they were found some hours later by Ed.
Moore.

On the train the four men were seen to go to the dining car where they had breakfast, and this circumstance was more noticed on account of their somewhat shabby appearance. But when a telegram was received and search made on the train for the fugitives they were nowhere to be found. They had disappeared from sight like a dissolving view and up to the present no clue of them has been found.

RAILWAY REORGANIZATION.

Electric Railway Interests that Have Been Merged Into One Company.

The Detroit, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor &
Jackson railway filed articles of incorporation at the secretary of state's office Wednesday last week, with a capital stock of $2,600,000. The state's franchise fee of more than $1,300 was paid by Henry A.
Haigh, attorney, of Detroit.

The new road will absorb the Detroit,
Ypsilanti & Ann Arbor railway, the Ypsilanti & Saline Electric Railway Co., and the Detroit & Saline Plank Road Co., and will run an electric line from Detroit to Jackson with 100 miles of roadbed. The board of directors of the new corporation are: J. D. Hawks, S. F. Angus, Alfred
Russell, Henry A. Haigh and Obadiah Bingham.

Died of Typhoid Fever.

Charles Miller, the youngest son of Mr.
and Mrs. Christian Miller, of Sylvan, died Friday evening of typhoid fever in his 29th year. Up to Jan. 7 he was a guard in the Jackson prison, and at that time he was given a lay off as he did not feel well. He came to his parents' home and was taken down with the disease that caused his death. The funeral services were held at his parents' home Monday afternoon and the remains were interred in the German M. E. cemetery. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Katherine and Olive Lodge, No.
156, F. & A. M., had charge of the services at the grave. Mr. Miller was also a member of the Chelsea tent of Maccabees, the Modern Woodmen and B. P. O. Elks, of Jackson. All three bodies sent representatives to the funeral. Besides his aged parents he leaves a wife, also one brother John Miller.

& Chicago Traction Co. were received by Secretary of State Warner Monday. The company has an authorized capital of $4,000,000 and its object is declared to be the construction of a railroad from Detroit to Chicago, as well as the building of lines in such villages and cities of Michigan and Illinois as may be deemed necessary to carry out the purpose of organization.

The incorporators are P. H. Flynn, John McCarty and F. C. Cochran, of New York city; Isaac W. Maclay, of Yonkers; George J. Carr, of Montclair, N. J.; W. A. Boland, of Grass Lake, and W. A. Foote, of Jackson, each of whom owns 20 shares of stock. Boland and Flynn each hold 55 shares as trustees.

The officers of the company are W. A.
Boland, of Grass Lake, president; P. H.
Flynn, of New York, vice president; W.
A. Foote, of Jackson, secretary; Fred
C. Cochran, of New York, treasurer.

Death of Green Johnson.

Green Johnson, an old and highly respected resident of Dexter township and later of Chelsea, died at his home on Middle street, in this village, Monday.
He was born in New Lisbon, Otsego county, N. Y., Aug. 13, 1828, and came to Michigan with his parents when six years old. He received the greater part of his education in the district schools, and followed the business of a farmer all his life until declining years compelled him to retire, when he came to live in Chelsea.
He was married Feb. 1, 1860, to Miss Cynthia W. Ferguson, of Ann Arbor, who, with five children, Charles, David,
Albert E., Fred A., Mrs. Marietta W.
Watts and Mrs. Ella W. Hays, survive him.

The funeral services will be held at the Congregational church tomorrow morning at 10:30 a. m., and will be conducted by Rev. C. S. Jones. There will be no services at the house on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Johnson. Burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Hospital for Consumptives.

A bill for the establishment of a state hospital for consumptives has been introduced in the legislature. It carries an appropriation of $60,000 to build it and a budget of $4,000 to maintain it. By the terms of the bill its establishment is entrusted to the state board of health and the regents of the University of Michigan are empowered to appoint a medical and surgical staff of five members, one of whom shall be a professor of hygiene and bacteriology, and to fix their salaries.
Residents of the state will be received free of charge and poor persons will be supplied with clothing, etc., by the county in which they reside. Provision is also made for receiving non-residents,
the charges to be fixed by the regents.
Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania already have such hospitals.

A Birthday Surprise.

There was a very pleasant surprise at the home of Mrs. C. S. Warren last Thursday evening. It being the anniversary of her birthday, her relatives, neighbors and friends walked in and took possession of the house, completely surprising her. The evening was passed very pleasantly in playing pedro and checkers, telling stories, and having a good time generally. About 11 o'clock the company was marched to the dining room where about 40 sat down to a bountiful repast. It was into the wee small hours when the party took their departure, leaving a beautiful rocker, as well as several other useful presents, and wishing Mrs. Warren many happy returns of her birthday.

NEW MAP FOR MICHIGAN

Prof. Russell, of the University, in Favor of Hurrying Up the Federal Topographical Survey.

TASK BEEN GOING ON TWENTY YEARS.

What the Map for This State Would Demonstrate—Would Be of Great Value for Many Purposes—Cost of the Proposed Work and Where the Money Will Go.

[Special Correspondence.]
University of Michigan, Jan. 28.—Prof. Israel C. Russell, head of the department of geology, is strongly in favor of the bill before the legislature making an appropriation to hurry forward the topographical survey being made by the federal government. In speaking of the matter recently he went into the details in full. Among other things he said:

"The United States geological survey is engaged in making a topographical map of the United States to serve as a basis for its geological work. This great task has been actively carried on for about 20 years and approximately one-third of the area of the United States, exclusive of Alaska and the more recent acquisitions, has been surveyed. To complete the work at the rate it has been progressing during the past few years will require at least half and possibly two-thirds of the present century.

A Topographic Map.
"The map of Michigan that is desired is one showing the relief or topography as well as other natural features, such as streams, lakes, marshes, shore lines, etc., and all artificial or culture features, such as towns, houses, bridges, roads, railroads, highways and many other improvements. The relief of the surface, as hills and valleys, are shown by what are termed contour lines and the finished map will be a contour map. A contour line is one drawn on a map so as to pass through all points having the same elevation. The interval between the lines usually varies according to the scale of the map. On a map drawn to the scale of one mile to an inch, the contour interval adopted by the United States geological survey is, in general, 20 feet. On such a map the shape of a hill 100 feet high above the neighboring valley would be indicated by five lines which are related to each other on a reduced scale in the same way that they would be if they could be actually marked out on the hill and viewed from above.

"The proposed topographic map of Michigan when completed will be drawn to the scale of one inch to a mile, with contour intervals of 20 feet and be issued in sheets measuring about 17 by 14 inches. The culture features, such as towns, houses, etc., and the lettering, will be in black, the streams, lakes, etc., or the hydrography in blue, and the contours in brown. Possibly as the work progresses the scale and contour intervals will be varied to suit local needs.

Uses of Proposed Map.
"The value of such a map as has just been described to the engineer is shown by the fact that with it in hand a profile can be made in a few hours of a proposed railroad line or canal extending across the state if desired, without the engineer having to see the ground, which will be as serviceable in choosing the preliminary location as a special preliminary survey costing many thousands of dollars. Not only would the map be of great value in choosing the routes for railroads, trolley lines, canals, highways, aqueducts, etc., but permit of the projection of all possible lines between any two points within the state and permit of an estimate being made of their relative cost and desirability without the expenditure of a dollar for field work.

"With a good topographical map in hand an engineer can select the most desirable sites for dams, city reservoirs, the location of factories, make a general plan of the best sewerage system for a town, or locate drainage ditches such as are so largely used in the southern peninsula of Michigan. In these respects also a topographic survey would save its cost in less than ten years.

Furnish Starting Points.
"During the field work incident to the topographic survey of the state, monuments would be placed at a large number of places, the positions of which would be determined by accurate angulation, and these and other monuments at an average distance apart of about six miles would have the elevation above the sea determined by spirit levels, permanently recorded on them. These numerous points, the horizontal and vertical relations of which would be accurately determined and recorded on the map, would furnish starting points for such more detailed surveys as might be required. All local surveys would thus become a part of a definite system.

Indispensable to Manufacturers.
"To the manufacturer a topographic map is practically indispensable, as it enables him, without expense and in the course of a few minutes, to determine the relation of the various raw materials he uses and the best place to locate his works in reference to market and other geographical conditions. Nowhere is this better shown than in connection with the growing cement industry in Michigan. With a topographic map in hand one can readily plot the location of various marl and clay deposits, and the source from which coal or other fuel is to be drawn, and having all lines of transportation on the same sheet, as well as the position of the town where his finished product will be used, can decide on the commercially best local position for his proposed factory. Many illustrations of the use of such a map as Michigan needs, where large sums of money have been saved in the manner indicated, might be instanced did space permit.

Valuable for Education.
"Among the many uses of a topographic map of the state, which is but another way of saying a knowledge of the country in which we live, is in connection with school and college work. The study of geography in all its varied phases—political, commercial, physical, biological, etc.—should begin at home. This would be rendered possible if a good topographic map were available, but is now scarcely practicable. The value of a map of Michigan in our schools and colleges cannot be computed in dollars, but is great from the educational point of view. Not only would it be of direct value in the study of geography, but its beneficial influence would be far-reaching and cumulative in many other lines of study, as geology, botany, political economy, and all commercial studies.

"Our forestry commission need such a map as a basis for their work; one of the most important phases of which, the reforestation of the formerly timber-covered regions, is now claiming attention. In the endeavor to restore the lumber industry of the state, a map of the at present forest-covered, burnt, waste and agricultural lands is indispensable, as it is also in planning for the protection of the forests, villages, etc., against fire.

Cost of Proposed Survey.
"The plan of cooperation between the national survey and the states is for a state to appropriate sufficient money to pay one-half of the actual field expenses of the survey, and the national survey to furnish the other half, as well as defray all expenses for instruments, office work, drafting, engraving, etc. In reality the states availing themselves of this plan pay not over one-third of the total expense and obtain a map at about one-sixth of what it would cost in case they made independent surveys. The reason why the national survey can do this work much cheaper than a state can do it is because it has a large corps of trained men, all necessary instruments, etc., ready at hand, and does not need to again go through the experimental stage of organizing.

"The cost of the surveys that have been made in the states which have cooperated with the United States geological survey, in the manner outlined above, is as follows: Massachusetts, $12 per square mile; Connecticut, $10.50 per square mile; New Jersey, ten dollars per square mile. The estimated cost of the survey of Ohio, now under way and for which the state has appropriated $25,000 for the present year, is seven dollars per square mile.

"The cost of field work in the proposed survey of Michigan, as estimated by the director of the United States geological survey, would be six dollars per square mile, or a trifle over one cent per acre. The state contains about 59,000 square miles, of which about 1,500 in the Iron region has already been surveyed. The total cost would, therefore, be about $345,000. One-half of this would be paid by the federal government, making the cost to the state $172,500, or approximately half a cent per acre. The work could be most economically done with a total annual expenditure of about $40,000, making the cost to the state $20,000 per year for eight or nine years.

Where the Money Will Go.
"The survey would be done under the direction of the United States geological survey, and no account taken of the cost of general administration. The chief of parties would be detailed from the permanent topographic corps of the national survey, but assistants and all unskilled labor would be engaged in Michigan. All the money furnished by the state and an equal sum supplied by the national survey would be expended in the state. Employment would be given to many of our local surveyors, college students and farmers' boys. All food supplies, wagons, tents, etc., would be purchased here. In short, the money that the survey would cost would be distributed in part in every township in the state." R. H. E.

FITTING TRIBUTE.

Message Sent by Governor Bliss to the Michigan Legislature on Queen Victoria's Death.

Gov. Bliss sent the following message on Queen Victoria's death to the legislature:

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives—Gentlemen: I place before you officially the announcement of the death of Victoria, queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and recommend that formal expression be made of the sorrow which Michigan feels, and of the sympathy which the people have with the English nation over the loss of their truly great ruler.
The queen was a woman whose example as wife and mother is a model for the homes of the world. Her life and deeds are epitomized in her true womanhood. I do not feel that words of mine can add anything to her fame, for mankind has carved her name deep in the eternal tablets of history. During her long reign she has stood for peace, and war has ever been a dreaded thing. With all the power at her command she has held aloft the light of civilization, and all nations have been made better because of her presence on the English throne.

I have directed that the capitol flag be displayed at half mast until after the funeral ceremonies, and because of her death, I recall for the present the invitation to a reception in the executive parlors, Thursday evening, January 24.
Very respectfully,
AARON T. BLISS,
Governor.

Peculiar Story.

At Williams' camp, near Hagerman lake, 16,000 or 15,000 feet of green logs were destroyed in a peculiar manner. While skidding logs one of the men picked a small balsam stick out of a nearby fire and placed it under the logs in order to level them up, not dreaming that the small balsam firebrand would set the green timber on fire. When they returned the next morning nothing was to be seen but a pile of ashes where the logs were left the previous night.

Marquette in Luck.

An unknown benefactor has informed the library trustees that they could draw on him for $5,000 to be used in the erection of a new library building for Marquette. This is the third donation of $5,000 for that purpose, and now $18,000 in cash is available, in addition to a lot given by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Longyear. The present library building may be sold to complete the building fund. The projected building will be the finest in the small cities of Michigan.

Going West.

A party of young men is being organized in Berrien county to go into the state of Washington and take up government land. They believe there are more opportunities in the west than in Michigan. The party will leave Benton Harbor on February 12 and will number about 15. Fred Ferguson, W. M. Hill, Dan Eisler and John Eisler are at the head of the movement.

The world to him seems a place of mist, peopled with ghostly beings, whose flitting to and fro about their daily tasks serves but to irritate him. He sneers at healthy amusements, and finds no comfort or pleasure in life.

He is sick and he does not know it. He drags about, and therefore thinks he is well. He is despondent and peevish, and weak, and he does not know that there are merely signals—some from the stomach crying for aid—others from the nerves beseeching strength—still others from the great life-current—the blood—moaning that it is so impeded and clogged with impurities that it cannot move.

He, and all others like him, will find immediate relief in Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. This is just what it was intended for. It never fails to make weak men strong and vigorous, puts new life, vim, strength, power and energy into them.

Dr. Greene's Nervura is New Life, Hope and Strength for Weak Men.

Mr. JOHN D. SMITH, electrician for the Thompson-Houston Electric Co., of Lynn, Mass., says:—"When a man has been sick and is cured, it is his duty to tell others about it, that they, too, may get well. Three years ago I had been working almost night and day, could not (at regularly) and got only a few hours sleep at night. No man can stand that long, and I soon began to be prostrated. I could not sleep when I tried, and my food would not stay on my stomach. I was in a terrible condition, and was much alarmed. I went to doctors, but they did me no good. Learning of the wonderful good done by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I determined to try it. It cured me completely of all my complaints. I eat heartily and sleep well, thanks to this splendid medicine. I believe it to be the best remedy in existence."

Dr. Greene's Nervura is the One Great Restorative Which Cures.

Dr. GREENE, 85 West 14th St., New York City, is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He has remedies for all forms of disease, and offers to give free consultation and advice, personally or by letter. You can tell or write your troubles to Dr. Greene, for all communications are confidential, and letters are answered in plain sealed envelopes.

A CRY FOR HELP.

Result of a Prompt Reply.—Two Letters from Mrs. Watson, Published by Special Permission.—For Women's Eyes Only.

To MRS. PINKHAM, LYNN, MASS.:

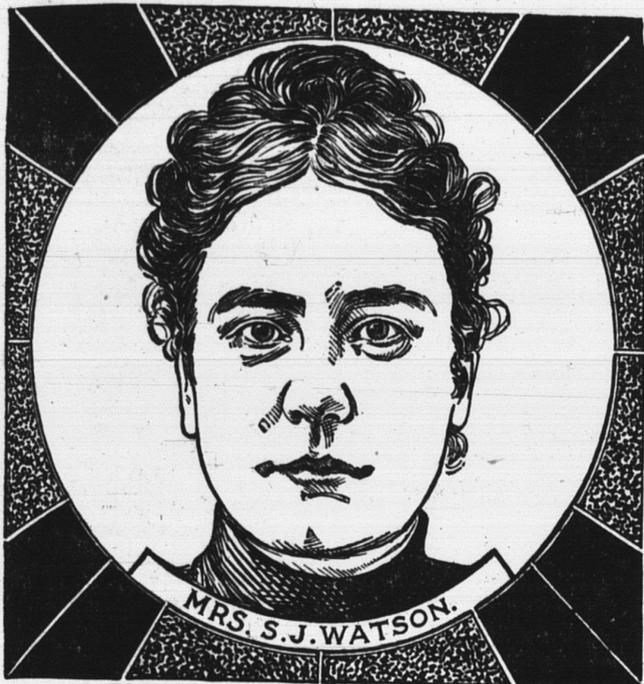

March 15, 1899.

"DEAR MADAM:—I am suffering from inflammation of the ovaries and womb, and have been for eighteen months. I have a continual pain and soreness in my back and side. I am only free from pain when lying down, or sitting in an easy chair. When I stand I suffer with severe pain in my side and back. I believe my troubles were caused by over work and lifting some years ago.

"Life is a drag to me, and I sometimes feel like giving up ever being a well woman; have become careless and unconcerned about everything. I am in bed now. I have had several doctors, but they did me but little good.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been recommended to me by a friend, and I have made up my mind to give it a fair trial.

"I write this letter with the hope of hearing from you in regard to my case."—Mrs. S. J. WATSON, Hampton, Va.

November 27, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to acknowledge to you the benefit that your advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have done for me.

"I had been suffering with female troubles for some time, could walk but a short distance, had terrible bearing down pains in lower part of my bowels, backache, and pain in ovary. I used your medicine for four months and was so much better that I could walk three times the distance that I could before.

"I am to-day in better health than I have been for more than two years, and I know it is all due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I recommend your advice and medicine to all women who suffer."—Mrs. S. J. WATSON, Hampton, Va.

This is positive proof that Mrs. Pinkham is more competent to advise sick women than any other person. Write her. It costs you nothing.

DECISION HITS THE CANAL.

Supreme Court of United States Rules Against Sanitary Board and State of Illinois.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The United States supreme court Monday rendered an opinion in the case of the Chicago drainage canal, overruling the demurrers filed in the case by the state of Illinois and the Chicago drainage canal district board. The proceeding was brought by the state of Missouri against the state of Illinois and the drainage board, the end sought being to prevent the use of the canal because of its supposed pollution of the drinking water of St. Louis. The effect of the decision is to sustain the contention of the state of Missouri. The opinion was handed down by Justice Shiras. The chief justice and Justices Harlan and White united in a dissenting opinion.

In his opinion, Justice Shiras cited the original bill and the demurrer in the case. Then taking up the case he said that two questions are presented in it. The first of these was:

"Whether the allegations of the bill disclose the case of a controversy between the state of Missouri and the state of Illinois and a citizen thereof within the meaning of the constitution and the statutes of the United States which create and define the original jurisdiction of this court," and the second: "Whether if it be held that the allegations of the bill do present such a controversy, they are sufficient to entitle the state of Missouri to the equitable relief prayed for."

Chief Justice Fuller read the dissenting opinion, holding that the jurisdiction of the supreme court could only be invoked in cases in which it appears that states are in direct antagonism and that this is true in this case. He also said that it was "difficult to conceive what decree could be entered in this case which would bind the state of Illinois or control its action."

Judge Springer immediately asked leave to file separate answers of the state of Illinois and the sanitary district to the bill of complaint of the state of Missouri. Leave was granted and the answers were filed at once, having been fully prepared in anticipation of the decision given Monday.

The opinion of the court has not been written and will not be in print for several days. The decision of the majority was given for the stated reason that the bill for an injunction disclosed on its face a cause of action on the part of the state of Missouri against Illinois and the sanitary district.

As a result of the decision the case will be tried in Washington instead of Chicago. It is not expected that it will come up again before next fall.

THE ARMOUR MILLIONS.

Estate of the Late Provision King Valued at $15,000,000—How It Is Divided.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Fifteen million dollars is the estimate put upon the fortune left by the late Philip D. Armour in a petition for letters testamentary, filed in the probate court Monday. The will, which was filed for probate Monday, divides the estate between his widow and his son, J. Ogden Armour, except that two sons of P. D. Armour, Jr., are to be paid $2,000,000 each in installments. Armour institute, it is understood, was provided for by liberal donations of real estate before the death of its benefactor.

It is estimated that Mr. Armour has given away $30,000,000 during his lifetime and that the total value of the property held by the Armour family to-day is $40,000,000.

TAKES A NEW TACK.

Mrs. Nation Visits State and County Officials and Pleads with Them for Help.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 29.—Mrs. Carrie Nation on Monday invaded the office of Gov. Stanley in his chambers in the capitol building, and for a solid hour arraigned the chief executive of the state for his failure to close the saloons of Kansas. Then, in turn, she visited the offices of Attorney General Goddard, County Attorney Nichols and Sheriff Porter, and demanded of each that they close the saloons. The only consolation she received was when the governor said that if Mrs. Nation would get the prosecuting attorneys of the different counties to put the joint keepers in jail he would use his power as governor to keep them in, and would see that they were not pardoned out.

SIXTEEN DROWNED.

Steamer Holland Parts Amidship While Entering the Harbor at Rotterdam.

Rotterdam, Jan. 29.—The steamer Holland, from London, was wrecked at the northern pier, while entering Nieuwaterweg, at the entrance of the River Maas, Monday. The captain and six men have been saved. It is feared that 14 members of the crew and four passengers were drowned.

Later, it became known that the Holland had parted amidships and that 16 of those on board of her had been drowned.

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP.

Released by Pe-ru-na—Congressman Howard's Recovery—Congressman Geo. H. White's Case.

La Grippe is epidemic catarrh.—It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper. The masses and the classes are alike subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable.

Have you the Grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy American to read "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some hideous giant with awful Grip had clutched us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster.

Pe-ru-na for Grip.

Mrs. Dr. C. D. Powell, President of Epworth League, also President of Loyal Temperance Legion, writes from Chehalis, Wash.:

"I have used several remedies in cases of severe colds and la grippe, but none I consider of more value than Peruna."—Mrs. Dr. C. D. Powell.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus.

After-Effects of La Grippe. Miss Emma Jouris, President Golden Rod Sewing Circle, writes from 40 Burling street, Chicago, Ill., as follows:

"This spring I suffered severely from the after-effects of la grippe. As the doctors did not help me I bought a bottle of Peruna."—Miss Emma Jouris.

Congressman Howard's Letter.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen—"I have taken Peruna now for two weeks and find I am very much relieved. I feel that my cure will be permanent. I have also taken it for la grippe and I take pleasure in recommending Peruna as an excellent remedy to all fellow sufferers."—M. W. Howard, Member of Congress.

La Grippe Leaves the System in a Deplorable Condition.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barbers' Union, writes from 15 Western Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:

"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over.

"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. Now my head is clear, my nerves are steady, I enjoy food, and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."—L. D. Wallace.

Grip Causes Deafness.

Mrs. M. A. Sharick, chaplain G. A. R. Woman's Relief Corps, writes from Fremont, Wash.:

"When la grippe was the prevailing illness in this Western country I was laid up the whole winter, I partially lost my hearing, and had a very bad case of catarrh of the head and throat.

"I read of Peruna, tried it and had my hearing restored and catarrh cured. I cannot speak too well of Peruna."—Mrs. M. A. Sharick.

La Grippe Cured in Its First Stage.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City Barracks of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah:

"Two months ago I was suffering with a severe cold that I could hardly speak. "Our captain advised me to try Peruna, and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."—Clarice Hunt.

Congressman White's Letter.

Tarboro, N. C.

Gentlemen—"I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—Geo. H. White, Member of Congress.

Remained in Feeble Health After Cured of La Grippe.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer Independent Order of Good Templars, of Everett, Wash., writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe I continued in a feeble condition even after the doctor called me cured. My blood seemed poisoned. Peruna cured me."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

THE CHELSEA HERALD

T. W. MINGAY, Editor and Proprietor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY
for $1.00 per year strictly in advance.

as second class matter.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1901.

An open winter is a very pleasant thing, in its way, but when it comes bearing the grip in its arms, it is not so much appreciated.

It is stated that with the advent of Edward VII to the throne of England, Mrs. Maybrick may become a free woman, as the king has made no secret of the fact that he favors her pardon.

Queen Victoria did not break the record for long reigns, as is generally stated. Louis XIV reigned 72 years in France. Even deducting his minority, while his mother was regent, he reigned for two years longer than the late queen.

It is thought that the death of Queen Victoria will kill the Nicaragua canal bill in congress until next session. Great Britain will probably be too busy to attend to the treaty until after it is too late for congress to act on the bill.

If Senator Nichols' bill to create two additional supreme court judgeships and to increase the term of office from 10 to 14 years should pass, it would mean that Judge E. D. Kinne would be almost sure to be one of the new men.

Edward VII will have a much harder proposition to face than his mother had. The Kaiser, for instance, was far more considerate of the wishes and feelings of his grandmother than he is likely to be of those of his uncle. And so with other monarchs.

The Kansas saloon question is adding greatly to the joy of the nation. Saloons are absolutely forbidden in Kansas, but they flourish exceedingly, nevertheless. Mrs. Nation has accordingly taken the law into her own hands and proposes to break up both the system and the saloon.

Director Roberts of the mint, advocates the coinage of all the silver bullion and the silver dollars owned by the government into silver small change. He says the country cannot get enough of it. That's the most sensible idea for getting rid of the unwieldy silver dollars that we have ever present scarcity of small silver change.

No one can help feeling sorry for the late Queen Victoria. For a woman so peace loving as she, to have seen her country embroiled, against her wishes, in a filibustering war with a tiny power, and to see well on to 200,000 troops, superbly equipped, held at bay by that insignificant spot of territory for more than a year, with little prospect of any speedy end, must have been about as bitter a thing as can be well imagined.

Electric Railway Notes.

Stockbridge Sun: Commercial men pronounce our proposed electric road from Chelsea to Lansing by way of Stockbridge to be the best route yet.

The Hawks-Angus electric railroad people were paying off at Chelsea Saturday for the right of way purchased by them in the vicinity of Francisco.

The spile driver belonging to the Hawks-Angus road is at work at the creek opposite John Bagge's farm, where a bridge will have to be put in place.

A franchise has been granted through Putnam, Webster and Dexter townships to the Ann Arbor and Lansing Electric railroad to be run from Ann Arbor via Portage and Pinckney to Lansing.

At a meeting of the Mason common council Monday night, the Lansing & Southeastern Electric Railway Co were granted permission to run their tracks through the city. The franchise allows them to use the principal streets.

The Ann Arbor Courier speaking of electric line franchises in that city, says: "The Boland company has so far shown a disposition to do what is right, and so long as it continues in that frame of mind it may expect the city to do the square thing."

The grading for the Boland road between Chelsea and Grass Lake is nearing completion. Two gangs of men have been kept at work for the last month and have lost only one day on account of the storm. It will take but a few more days to make the roadbed ready for the ties. The rails are spiked nearly to Michigan Center. Cross wires for the trolley are up as far as Jackson Junction. Contractor Emmons still has a number of teams at work on Page avenue, Jackson, drawing ballast for the road.

The Detroit & Chicago Traction Co. (Boland's line) has been granted permission by Railroad Commissioner Osborn to cross the Michigan Central lines in the vicinity of Jackson. Only one crossing at grade, however, and that over a spur track, is permitted. The traction company must construct two expensive overhead bridges 22 feet above the track, one on Francis street, Jackson, and the other east of Michigan Center. The Michigan Central, the commissioner decides, must also lower its tracks three feet at the Francis street crossing.

The Jackson Patriot says: Mr. Jennings of the Hawks-Angus project was in Jackson Friday. Hawks & Angus some time ago purchased land of Phoebe E. Ballard, of Leoni, through which land the Michigan Central passes. It is here, not more than 50 rods from the point that the Boland road proposed to cross overhead the Michigan Central by a steel bridge, that the Hawks-Angus interests have projected a crossing, which on account of hills on either side of the Michigan Central, may be done at a minimum expense. It is stated that Mr. Jennings has engaged barn room of Mrs. Ballard for 20 teams and that work for grading for the crossing will begin at once.

Hill with misappropriation of her property which he held in trust. After a trial in the circuit court which lasted a week, Judge Kline on Tuesday decided the case in favor of Mr. Hill.

Experiments with aluminum as a substitute for paper are now under way in France. It is well known that the paper used today in the manufacture of books is not durable. It is now possible to roll the aluminum into sheets four thousandths of an inch in thickness, in which form it weighs less than paper. By the adoption of suitable machinery these sheets can be made thinner and can be used for book or writing paper. The metal will not oxidize, is practically fire and water proof and is indestructible by the jaws of worms.

New pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, dollars and double eagles, all bearing the stamp of the first year of the new century, are daily pouring from the chutes beneath the coin dies in the mint. It wouldn't be possible now to have coined any money stamped 1900, even if the president himself wanted it. On New Year's day, after the regular custom, and by law, all of the 1,200 dies which were used last year in stamping United States coins at the Philadelphia mint were destroyed, and on the next day the money was made with brand new dies.

Quite a number of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Eisenman last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Edith Schlecht, Mrs. Eisenman's sister. Miss Hattie Burg and the Misses Florence and Mabel Eisenman also rendered some fine selections on the guitar and mandolin. After a most enjoyable evening all adjourned to their respective homes wishing that Miss Schlecht might soon visit Chelsea again.

Congressman Henry C. Smith has introduced a bill in congress providing for the appointment of four boards of 12 commissioners each at a salary of $7,000 each to fix the freight rates in the country. The bill provides that six of each board shall be railroad men and six shippers, and they shall hold office for life. The bill is voluminous and has been referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. There is no hope for a report in this congress.

The deed given by Herman Oversmith to his brother in 1899 was set aside Thursday, by Judge Kinne, on the ground that Herman was incompetent at the time the deed was given. The case came up over the refusal of the Washtenaw Mutual Insurance Company to pay fire losses on the property, the deed given by Herman not having been certified to the company when made, as required by the rules. Now that the young man has been declared mentally incompetent, the insurance company will be obliged to pay the loss.

Senator Goodell has introduced a bill in the legislature for redistricting the state. Should it become a law it would take Washtenaw out of the second district and put us in the sixth district with Livingston, Oakland and Macomb, and the townships of Northville, Livonia, Redford, Greenfield, Hamtramck, Grosse Pointe and the fifteenth and seventeenth wards in the city of Detroit, county of Wayne. Population, 193,890. This district would be Republican by about 2,800 majority. Hillsdale would take the place of Washtenaw in the second district.

A janitor in a northern Michigan school threw up his job the other day. When asked what the trouble was he answered: "I'm honest and I won't stand being s'urred. If I find a handkerchief or a pencil about the school I hang it up. Every little while the teachers or some one who is too cowardly to face me gives me a slur. Why a little while ago I saw written on the board, 'Find a common multiple.' Well, I looked from cellar to garret and I would not know the thing if I met it on the street. What made me quit my job? Last night in big writing on the board it said: 'Find the greatest common divisor.' Well I says to myself, both them darned things are gone now, and I'll be blamed for swipin' 'em, so I quit."

The tobacco trust declares that the use of cigarettes has decreased 30 per cent during the last year. That would be good news, if true, and we would like to see the other 70 per cent knocked off and the pernicious little paper articles done away with entirely. But the truth of the matter is, that while the sales of the manufactured "coffin nails" have decreased, their use has not. For now every kid who uses cigarettes carries his packages of tobacco and rice paper, and makes them himself.

The address by Rev. C. S. Jones at the Congregational church last Sunday evening on "The Passing of Queen Victoria," was listened to by a large congregation. Although during her reign England was several times plunged in war it was always a source of grief and care to the queen. In closing he made a strong appeal to American womanhood to be queens of the home, store and office, in fact queens wherever they might be found.

THE NEW SOVEREIGN.

Formal Oath of Office Taken by the King.

In Obedience to His Dead Mother's Expressed Wish He Assumes Title of Edward VII.—His Address.

London, Jan. 24.—At the meeting of the privy council the king took the title of Edward VII., king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and emperor of India.

Thinking, at the accession ceremony, wore a military uniform. His brief speech was delivered with great earnestness and was quite extemporaneous. It is expected it will be published later, in official form.

Proclamation Signed.

The proclamation of the accession of his majesty was signed by the princes present, the duke of York first, then the duke of Connaught, the duke of Cambridge, Prince Christian,

KING EDWARD VII.

the archbishop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor, the lord mayor and the other representatives of the city of London.

The King's Speech.

The following is the full text of his majesty's accession speech:

"Your Royal Highnesses, My Lords and Gentlemen: This is the most painful occasion on which I shall ever be called upon to address you. My first and melancholy duty is to announce to you the death of my beloved mother, the queen; and I know how deeply you and the whole nation, and, I think, I may say, the whole world sympathize with me in the irreparable loss we have all sustained. I need hardly say that my constant endeavor will be always to walk in her footsteps. In undertaking the heavy load which now devolves upon me I am fully determined to be a constitutional sovereign in the strictest sense of the word, and so long as there is breath in my body to work for the good and amelioration of my people.

"I have resolved to be known by the name of Edward, which has been borne by six of my ancestors. In doing so I do not undervalue the name of Albert, which I inherit from my ever-to-be-lamented great and wise father, who, by universal consent, is, I think, deservedly known by the name of Albert the Good, and I desire that his name should stand alone.

"In conclusion, I trust to parliament and the nation to support me in the arduous duties which now devolve upon me by inheritance and to which I am determined to devote my whole strength during the remainder of my life."

It is learned that the king assumed the title of Edward VII. at the express wish of his mother.

Edward's Reply to McKinley.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Following is the text of the reply which the president received from King Edward VII. in answer to his message of condolence on the death of the queen:

"Osborne, Jan. 24.—The President, White House, Washington, D. C.: Am most grateful for your kind sympathy in the irreparable loss which the nation and I have sustained. I felt convinced that it would be shared by you and the American people.

"EDWARD, R."

First Message to Parliament.

London, Jan. 26.—Both houses of parliament, Friday afternoon, received identical messages from the king and voted condolence with his majesty on his bereavement and congratulation on his accession to the throne.

The lord chancellor, Lord Halsbury, and the speaker, Mr. William Court Gully, read the message in their respective houses. It was as follows:

"Edward Rex: The king is fully assured that the house of commons will share the deep sorrow which has befallen his majesty and the nation by the lamentable death of his mother, the late queen. Her devotion to the welfare of her country and her people, and her wise and beneficent rule during the 64 years of her glorious reign, will ever be held in affectionate memory by her loyal and devoted subjects throughout the dominions of the British empire.

Funeral Day Fixed.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 25.—It has been decided that the funeral of the queen will take place at Windsor castle February 2. The body of the late queen will be removed from Osborne house February 1. It was the expressed desire of the queen that the funeral should be military in character.

May Become Field Marshal.

London, Jan. 26.—The Daily Chronicle, in the course of an editorial on the "threatening aspect of Russian policy in China," refers to the report that Emperor William will be appointed a field marshal of the British army, and says: "We hope the report is correct. A German alliance is one we cannot afford to throw away. Who can tell how soon we may need its prestige if not its active cooperation?"

LIEUT. MABEL C. HUNT.

A Bright Salvation Army Lassie, Who Knows How to Keep Her Corps in Good Health.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 28, 1901 (Special).—The Pacific Coast Division of the Salvation Army, whose noble work in the interests of fallen humanity has done so much for this western country, has its headquarters in this city. One of the brightest and most enthusiastic workers is Lieut. Miss Mabel Clarice Hunt. Everyone knows how these devoted people parade the streets day or night, exposing themselves to all kinds of weather, that no opportunity may be lost of rescuing some poor unfortunate from sin and suffering. In some cases, their recklessness in thus exposing themselves has been commented upon as almost suicidal. Their answer to such criticisms invariably is their unflinching faith in the Divine injunction to "do right and fear not." Lieut. Hunt explains one of the means she employs to keep her "Soldiers" in good health, as follows:

"I have found Dodd's Kidney Pills of great value in cases of Kidney and Liver Trouble and Diseases contracted from severe colds. Several of our ladies and lassies have been repeatedly exposed to cold weather and rain, and have spoken for hours out of doors, often with wet feet and chilled to the marrow. As a consequence of this exposure, Pulmonary Trouble, Rheumatism and Kidney Disorders often ensue. In such cases, I always advise Dodd's Kidney Pills, for I have noticed better results, quicker relief, and more lasting benefit from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills in such cases, than from all other medicines I know of combined. They cleanse the blood, regulate the system, and destroy disease."

A medicine which can do what Lieut. Hunt says so positively. Dodd's Kidney Pills do is surely worth the attention of all who suffer with any form of Kidney Trouble, Rheumatism, or Blood Disorders.

HUNTED WITH THE KING.

A Benton Harbor Man Spent Several Days with Edward When He Visited This Country.

John F. Banyon, of Benton Harbor, is perhaps the only resident of Michigan who has been on hunting and fishing trips with the new king of England, Edward VII. During the visit of the prince of Wales to this country he was entertained for several days at the Road Knight farm in southern Illinois, whither the prince had gone in quest of good hunting.

At the farmhouse during the prince's stay was Banyon, then a young man of about the same age as the prince. The two youths became very "chummy" and went on hunting and fishing expeditions the same as any two boys might have done. When the prince left he presented his companion with a watch charm, which Banyon yet wears.

MARRIES HIS NURSE.

A Cuban War Hero United to the Woman Who Cared for Him While He Was Sick.

Frank Twigg, a soldier in the Cuban war, twice wounded in the battle of El Caney and who after the war had a hard fight with yellow fever, was married to Miss Nora Scheer, of Geneva, Ind., at Emergency hospital, in Detroit. After recovering from the yellow fever Twigg went to his home at Geneva, Ind. Soon afterward he was taken with typhoid and for six weeks Miss Scheer, who was his sweetheart before he went to war, nursed him. Twigg then became bugler on the revenue cutter Fessenden. Miss Scheer became a victim of a terrible hip disease and was sent to the hospital in Detroit, where she now is.

A dangerous operation was declared necessary and Twigg wished to have a husband's right to be present and nurse her. Rev. C. B. Allen performed the ceremony, the bride sitting up in bed. Bride and groom are each 25 years old.

PAYS HIS BOARD.

The Way a Bay City Girl Has of Squaring Things with a Man Who Owes Her $1,000.

Several weeks ago Miss Mary Baker secured a judgment of $1,000 for slander in the circuit court in Bay City against John Allard. Since that time the defendant has shown no disposition to pay. As a result a body warrant was issued for his arrest, and he is now boarding with Sheriff Kinney at the county jail, his board being paid by Miss Baker, who is determined to get the money or punish her alleged defamer. Allard occupies a room on the third floor of the jail, and declares he will remain where he is until the time expires, which will be six months.

Miss Baker and Allard worked on the Williams sugar-beet farm west of the city, and she alleges that Allard told stories reflecting on her to some of the other men, and she sued him for $5,000.

BRANDY DROPS.

Anti-Saloon League Warns Lansing Confectioners That Their Sale is a Violation of Law.

The Anti-Saloon league, through its officers located in Lansing, has notified the local manufacturers and dealers in confectionery that the sale of brandy drops is not only a violation of the liquor laws of the state, but in contravention of the law prohibiting the giving of liquor to children. It is claimed that a large per cent. of brandy is contained in the drops, which are widely sold, and that they create an appetite for liquor in the young. The state secretary says that unless the sale of the drops is stopped prosecutions will be commenced, although he apprehends that the notice given by the league will be sufficient to drive them out of the market.

Female Reformatory.

The Ionia reformatory legislative committee will recommend that the reformatory buildings on the south side of Grand river be made the reformatory and that the buildings on the north side of the river be turned into a female reformatory. The expense of removal will be $47,000, but $4,000 a year will be saved in maintenance expenses to the reformatory. If the plan should be adopted by the legislature the Detroit house of correction would lose its female state prisoners. A number of women's clubs favor the proposed move.

Urge Stringent Fishing Law.

The Michigan Game and Fish Protective league at its annual meeting in Lansing decided to ask the legislature to enact a law fixing a license fee of one dollar from all residents of Michigan, and three dollars from nonresidents for fishing in any of the waters of the state; and a license fee of one dollar for shooting birds, two dollars for birds and deer, and a nonresident hunters' license of $25. Another bill indorsed by the league absolutely prohibits the use of nets of any description in any of the waters of the state.

POTATOES AND BEANS.

Michigan Is Now Producing Them on Old Pine Barren Land and Industry Is Growing.

The development of lands from which the pine timber has been taken into vast potato fields and bean farms has reached a point where a large and growing market is supplied by the former sandy woodlands of the Michigan peninsula. A few years ago a vast area of land along the Grand Rapids & Indiana railway was covered with partly burned trees and stumps. Today thousands of acres of this land produce potatoes which have found a market in many states. The bean industry has also assumed important proportions, until the product has a market which reaches over a dozen western states and is retarded in further western extension only by the cheaper freight rate of the California product.

Mr. Harwood, a bean buyer at Plainwell, says the acreage has been increased and that the industry now extends through three tiers of counties, reaching across the state, beginning with Ottawa, Allegan and Van Buren, large quantities of beans being raised in these three counties and in Kent, Kalamazoo and Barry. The product is known as pea beans, producing in some counties 20 bushels to the acre. The price at present averages about $1.40 per bushel for screened beans. As indicating the wide latitude from which orders for this Michigan product comes Mr. Harwood received within a few hours of each other orders from Arkansas City, Kan., and Winchester, Va.

CLAIMS SHE WAS DUPED.

A Girl Returns Broken-Hearted to Her Home in Benton Harbor After a Brief Honeymoon.

Miss Lillian Hittell, who recently married Lewis Kirby, has returned broken-hearted to her home in Benton Harbor after a short honeymoon, having discovered while in Kendallville, Ind., it is alleged, that Kirby has at least another wife living and perhaps more.

While in the Indiana town Bertha Carle notified the police that Kirby was her husband, and produced papers setting forth that fact. Miss Hittell also produced her claims, and while the two women were comparing notes Kirby escaped. The police are instituting a search for him, and claim he has several wives scattered throughout Michigan and Indiana.

Kirby, whose stage name is Hutchins, visited St. Joseph with the Royal concert company, and at a swell social function met Miss Hittell, who was a guest. She was strangely drawn to the musician and a week later eloped with him.

TRIP TO WASHINGTON.

Special Train Will Take Governor Bliss and His Party to the Inaugural Ceremonies.

Quartermaster General Kidd has completed arrangements for the train that will carry Gov. Bliss and party to the second McKinley inauguration. A Pullman car will leave Lansing, attached to the Pere Marquette train, at 1:45 p. m. Saturday, March 2. At Detroit another Pullman and a baggage car will be attached and the train will leave for Toledo at 6:35. It will leave Toledo at 9 o'clock and arrive at Alliance at 3:10 Sunday morning. At this point the Michigan club special will be attached to the governor's train and accompany it to Washington. Pittsburgh will be reached at 3:50 a. m. and Altoona at 9. Here breakfast will be served and dinner will be had at Harrisburg at 1 o'clock. The train will reach Washington Sunday afternoon at 4:30. As will be observed the trip will be made over the Pennsylvania system.

Will Prosecute Him.

District Attorney George C. Covell, who has returned to Grand Rapids from Traverse City, says that Millionaire Wright, who was let out on parole and pardon by Gov. Pingree, has not yet returned to his old haunts and it is believed he has gone to Wisconsin. Covell says as soon as the six months' parole expires another warrant will be issued for Wright's arrest on the charge of murder, and that the prosecution will be pushed with vigor.

Divorce Record.

County Clerk Cunningham has practically completed his report to the secretary of state of the divorce business in the circuit court in Jackson for the year 1900. At the beginning of the year there were 82 cases pending and during the year 118 petitions for divorce were filed. Seventy-nine decrees were granted, two refused and five cases were withdrawn or otherwise disposed of. There were pending January 1, 1901, 114 cases.

Free Rural Delivery.

The post office department has authorized the establishment of rural free delivery service at Swartz Creek, Genesee county, with E. G. Caldwell as the carrier. The length of route is to be 25 miles, the area covered by him being 32 square miles, and the population served, 913. The system is to go into operation February 15.

House.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 22.—In the house bills have been introduced increasing the amount of land that can be held by real estate corporations to three acres; making all cities, townships and villages primarily liable for the payment of damages for the care of persons sick with disease dangerous to the public health; making it optional for boards of supervisors to incorporate; taxing palace and sleeping car companies at 2 1/2 per cent. of gross receipts; exempting state and municipal bonds from taxation.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 23.—The house yesterday passed a bill appropriating $40,000 for a Michigan exhibit at the Pan-American exposition. Bills were introduced to prohibit the killing of quail for five years; to set aside delinquent state tax lands for forestry purposes and appropriate $35,000 for experiments in this line; to appropriate $200,000 for a sanitarium for the treatment of nervous and kindred diseases; to prohibit the manufacture and sale of imitation butter; to appropriate $250,000 for the support of the soldiers' home.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 24.—Bills were introduced in the house yesterday providing for the taxation of building and loan associations issuing preferred stock; the taxation of all royalties; for the establishment of a consumptive hospital, and to prevent the use of the flag for advertising purposes, and to put an end to hasty marriages of nonresidents at St. Joseph and Benton Harbor.

The legislature adopted a resolution of condolence on the death of Queen Victoria, in response to a special message submitted by Gov. Bliss recommending such action. In addition to ordering the capitol flag half-masted, Gov. Bliss recalled invitations which had been issued for a reception in the executive parlors.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 25.—In the house bills have been introduced providing for a $40,000 appropriation for a women's building at the Kalamazoo asylum, and providing that all state institutions shall buy their supplies through the state board of corrections and charities, which will advertise for bids.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 29.—In the house yesterday Mr. Gordon introduced an anticigarette bill and Mr. McFarlane gave notice of a bill to protect the lives of baseball umpires. A bill to prohibit bicycle riding on sidewalks was introduced by Mr. Gordon.

Michigan G. A. R.

Lansing, Jan. 26.—Department Commander Allen, of the Michigan G. A. R., has received an inquiry from the city of Denver as to whether the Michigan department will go to Denver or to Cleveland to attend the National G. A. R. encampment, both cities claiming the meeting. As it is understood here the executive committee of the national organization decided that the encampment would not be held in Denver because the railroads had failed to make the desired rates for the occasion, and Commander Allen will probably follow the instructions of the national commander and take the Michigan delegation to Cleveland, as fixed upon by the executive board.

Discuss Schools' Needs.

Escanaba, Mich., Jan. 26.—At Friday's session of the Upper Peninsula Educational association 430 teachers were present. At the morning session O. R. Anderson, of Marquette, on "The Value of Ideas in Education." The association passed a resolution favoring the adoption of manual training in all the public schools.

WOMAN IN POLITICS.

A Twentieth Century Argument by the President of the Woman's Republican Association.

Long before the twentieth century shall have passed women very generally will have found out that civil government is the most comprehensive form of human association, and therefore the most effective human agency for protecting human rights and promoting human happiness.

Women will know that the ordinary instincts of maternity and the higher intellectual and spiritual purposes of motherhood may be hindered or may be helped by the caprices of rulers and the will of governments, and that according to the measure of woman's concern for her child and for her family and for her own development she should desire to be put in the most influential relation to government.

The fathers, brothers, husbands and sons of women will then scorn or pity the men of to-day, who base their estimate of woman's value to the government on her supposed physical weakness, her claimed mental inferiority, and the supposed limitations of her femininity.

A hundred years from now government will have emerged from the dominance of materialities; the dream of doctrinaries that the golden rule should reign in law as it now does in morals will then be realized; the full stature of manhood shall have been so far attained that the incident of sex will not differentiate the exercise of political activities and the discharge of political duties.

Woman's present relation to government—"politics" is government in action—is a practical contradiction of the declarations of constitutional liberty. Woman is taxed, but not represented; she is governed without her consent.

Many women so keenly feel the humiliation of their political status that they submit to the oppressions of a man-made government simply because they must. They obey it under protest. They choose to have no politics until they have their "rights." Other women, through selfishness or ignorance, hug their personal comforts to their hearts. They either do not care for others' good or do not know how politics touch the home and the woman and the child in it.

MRS. J. ELLEN FOSTER.
(President Woman's National Republican Association.)

Other women believe that ours is the best government under the sun—that American manhood is of the highest type yet developed; that American standards for woman, though not ideal, are the noblest yet produced; that under this government and in the civilization of which it is a part woman possesses wider opportunity for personal development and for pure and happy family life than in any other land.

The best women, those of widest information and deepest study, serve the government as best they can under the limitations which men put upon them. They do not one whit resign their claim to larger opportunity and higher service; they are conscious of the injustice of their present relation to politics; they believe that at the close of the twentieth century these distorted views of political ethics relating to women will have passed away, and that the republic shall then be established on the sure foundations of equal justice to all.

For myself I beg to say that, keenly as I feel the injustice which the limitations of my political status impose, I'd rather be a woman citizen of the United States in the twentieth century—though disfranchised—than be a queen under any other flag.—J. Ellen Foster, in Chicago Times-Herald.

A Queer New Combination.

Three tablespoonfuls of freshly made Japan tea with a pinch of nutmeg is the latest suggestion in the way of additions to apple pie. The combination is said to produce an "indescribable flavor."

GETTYSBURG HEROINE.

Monument to Be Erected in Memory of Jennie Wade, Who Gave Her Life for Soldiers.

The Women's Relief Corps of Iowa has decided to erect a monument in Gettysburg, Pa., to honor the memory of Jennie Wade, the heroine of the battle of Gettysburg. For the past 37 years this little grave has been unmarked, save for a small stone. The monument will probably be erected in the spring, and will be dedicated July 3, 1891, the thirty-eighth anniversary of the battle.

Jennie Wade was, at the time of the famous battle, only 20 years of age, and many of her old friends who are still living here recall her as a noble and generous-hearted girl. The first and second days of the battle she spent in carrying water to the soldiers on the firing line and helping to care for the sick and wounded.

Early in the morning of July 3, 1863, she was busy in the kitchen getting wood to heat the old-fashioned brick oven to bake bread for the soldiers. While thus employed she was called to the kitchen door, and as she went there was the whirr of a bullet from a sharpshooter's rifle and the brave girl dropped dead, shot through the heart.

On the evening of the same day, while the smoke of the battle still hung over Gettysburg, she was buried by the soldiers she had so ably assisted. Her coffin was one that had been prepared for a confederate colonel who had also died that day.

Every year on Memorial day her grave is decorated with flowers and American flags.

MAID CAUGHT A BURGLAR.

How a Discreet New York Servant Adroitly Brought the Police Patrol.

A rather curious method of burglar catching was resorted to by an ingenious maid servant recently in New York. While in pursuit of her household duties the maid noticed a man's foot inside the clothes closet. She did not scream, neither did she jump at the door, nor shut it with a bang; instead she took a broom and began to sweep that corner of the room near the closet. Her approach was gradual, and the sweeping was done so naturally that it would not have aroused the most suspicious burglar. At last the broom brushed the door gently, but hard enough to close it to the fraction of an inch. With five or six more gentle sweeps that closet door was shut and almost latched, which she at length succeeded in doing by gently pressing her arm against it.

As the telephone in her house was so near the closet that the burglar would be able to hear her if she called for assistance, she bethought herself of another plan. In the back yard some telephone linemen were at the time making repairs on a wire that runs to another house in the block. She went out and spoke to them. They promptly tapped a wire, attached a testing instrument and called up one of the downtown exchanges, which in turn called up police headquarters. From there the call was sent to the police station nearest the house and two policemen were sent around and got the man.

Popping Corn at Twilight.

Corn popping at twilight at the big fireplace in the hall, over the furnace fire or the comfortable kitchen range is one of the unending delights of a winter afternoon. With a stock of well-dried popcorn, a long handled popper, a new, bright tin pan, a salt shaker, and, if liked, a dish of melted butter, not alone the younglings, but children of a larger growth, will find abundant occupation and gustatorial delight.

Serving a Cabbage Salad.

Cabbage salad as an accompaniment to a fish or oyster course is sometimes served in lemon cups. The lemons are cut in two, the contents removed and the cabbage replaced. On the top of each cup just before sending to the table put a little mayonnaise with a powdering of finely-cut red and green peppers.

How to Make Turkey Pie.

Turkey pie is made in a similar way to chicken pie. First boil the turkey in the form of a stew then put into a deep baking dish, cover with rich paste, leave vent holes for the steam to escape and bake. The stew must be hot when put into the baking dish, so that it will cook evenly in the oven.

DON'T BE DUPED

There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered under various names at a low price.

By dealers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers.

Announcements of these comparatively worthless reprints are very misleading. They are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, while they are all Reprint Dictionaries, phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which was sold for about $5.00, and which was much superior to these imitations, being a work of some merit instead of one Long Since Obsolete.

The Webster's Unabridged Dictionary published by our house is the only meritorious one of that name. It bears our imprint on the title-page and is protected by copyright from cheap imitation. PRINCESS BECOMES Clementine, daughter of King Leopold, Has Taken the Veil.

A dispatch from Brussels says: Society circles here are not surprised at the announcement that Princess Clementine, daughter of King Leopold of the Belgians, has taken the veil. It is said that she wanted to do so two years ago, but the king dissuaded her. Now she is fully determined to become a nun.

The princess, who is 25 years old, is very dignified and has long been noted

PRINCESS CLEMENTINE, for her devoutness. A few years ago it was reported that she was engaged to her cousin, Prince Albert of Belgium. It was also stated that she would marry Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and then the crown prince of Italy was named as her prospective husband.

Princess Clementine is a sister of the unfortunate Princess Stephanie, widow of Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria.

A Question of Gallantry.

Opinions seem to differ as to the constituents of gallantry. A while ago the newspapers were full of rumors to the effect that General Joseph Wheeler was to marry Mrs. George William Childs of Philadelphia. Finally Mrs. Childs announced that she had no intention of marrying any one. Thereupon General Wheeler said that he had remained silent because he thought it would be ungallant for him to deny that he would like to marry the Philadelphia widow. Now a similar rumor connecting the names of Mrs. George M. Pullman of Chicago and Gerard Barry, a portrait painter of this city, has been printed this week, and as soon as it appeared Mr. Barry sent a note to all the newspapers declaring that there was no truth in the report.

Mr. Barry and General Wheeler do not seem to agree on what gallantry is. It would be interesting to know which standard appeals more strongly to the women, for they are the court of last resort on matters of this kind. Does every woman want a man to treat her as if he would like nothing better than to be her husband? Or did women once like this, and have they got over it now that they are descending from their pedestal and competing with men in business life? It is with truth called the incomprehensible sex, yet I cannot help feeling that the attempt to comprehend it is worth the effort of men. That is why I should like to know what the women think of the relative gallantry of the soldier and the painter. —Brooklyn Eagle.
