A CHARMING ENTERTAINMENT

Given by a Club of Ladies to a Sister Club of Ladies.

The Chelsea Bay View Reading Circle was delightfully entertained at the spacious home of Mrs. J. Bacon, Monday evening, April 23, by the Ladies' Research Club. A charming program was given consisting of a piano duet by Mesdames J. E. McKune and Geo. P. Staffan; vocal solo, Mrs. L. T. Freeman; piano solo, Miss Mabel Bacon, and a violin solo by Miss Bessie Ready, of Ann Arbor, all of which was finely rendered and thoroughly enjoyable.

A burlesque on some of Shakespeare's characters was presented, and to say it was very entertaining is expressing it mildly. It was rich in humor and entirely out of the ordinary. The characters were represented by Miss Rogers as Cleopatra; Mrs. H. L. Wood, Shylock; Miss Mamie E. Fletcher, Macbeth; Mrs. F. Wedemeyer, Lady Macbeth; Mrs. F. Roedel, a witch; Mrs. G. E. Hathaway, Romeo; Miss May Creech, Juliet; Mrs. J. D. Watson, Desdemona; Miss Webb, Hamlet; each lady acting her part in a most creditable manner.

This was followed by a most courteous invitation to the dining room which was beautifully decorated with pink and white, cut flowers and potted plants being lavishly used. Here was served a dainty four course banquet, the fifth course, coffee, being served in the parlors.

One had to be a partaker of this part of the program to fully appreciate its delicious and tasteful qualities.

What needs more word?

Count the clock.

'Tis time to part.

Farewell to you; and you; and you.

If we do meet again we'll smile indeed;

If not, 'tis true this parting was well made."

He drove to Chelsea with his wife to see her father who is very ill, and on the Sunday previous to his death was taken with pleuro-pneumonia. He gradually got worse until death came on Friday morning. His remains were taken to Manchester for interment Sunday.

Mrs. James Shanahan died at her home in Lyndon, Sunday, after a lingering illness, aged 35 years. She had been ill since the birth of her child two months ago, with but slight hopes of her recovery at any time. Besides her husband and two children, her mother, one brother, William Kelly, and two sisters, Mrs. James Hagen, of Detroit, and Miss Mary Kelly of Chelsea, survive her. The funeral services were held at St. Mary's church yesterday morning. The deceased lady was a member of the L. C. B. A. and her death was the first to occur since the foundation of the order in Chelsea. The ladies attended the funeral in a body.

Mortimer M. Campbell, a veteran of the war of '61-'65, died at his home on West Middle street, Saturday morning, aged 57 years. He was out at Cavanaugh Lake on Tuesday pruning trees. Wednesday he was taken sick with pleuro-pneumonia and he grew rapidly worse, an affection of the heart with which he had been long afflicted, adding to the serious complications that existed in his condition. He realized his extreme sickness and told both his wife and son some time before he died, that his end had come. Mortimer M. Campbell was born at Bologna, New York, Nov. 25, 1844, and at the age of 8 years moved to Sylvan, where he resided most of his life until he moved to Chelsea. He enlisted in the civil war July 26, 1862, and served during the war, receiving an honorable discharge at its close. He was married to Miss Anna M. Heselschwerdt Nov. 26, 1865, who with two sons William M. and Herman A., survive him.

George Fish, aged 23 years, son of Charles Fish, of Sharon, died at his father's home Tuesday afternoon after a sickness of a year's duration, of valvular disease of the heart. # New England Women

Have an Abiding Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

After years of struggle to attain and merit public confidence, with a firm and steadfast belief that some day others would recognize in us the truth, good faith, and honesty of purpose which we know we possess, what a genuine satisfaction it is to succeed, and to realize the uplifting influence of the merited confidence of a vast army of our fellow beings.

Thus stands the Pinkham name in New England, and all over America, and nowhere is the faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound greater than in New England, its home. Merit, and merit alone, can gain this.

ORGANIC INFLAMMATION.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was troubled very badly with inflammation of the bladder, was sick in bed with it. I had two doctors, but they did me no good. A friend gave me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it helped me. I have now taken three bottles of it, and I am entirely cured. It is a God-send to any woman, and I would recommend it to any one suffering as I was. I think, if most of the women would take more of your medicine instead of going to the doctors, they would be better off. The Compound has also cured my husband of kidney trouble."

MRS. MABEL GOOKIN,
Box 160, Mechanic Falls, Maine.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

"For two years I suffered from nervous prostration, the result of female weakness. I had leucorrhoea very badly, and at time of menstruation would be obliged to go to bed. Also suffered with headaches, pain across back, and in lower part of abdomen. I was so discouraged. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and concluded to give it a trial. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham, and received a very nice letter in return. I began at once the use of her Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and am now feeling splendid. I have no more pain at monthly periods, can do my own work, and have gained ten pounds. I would not be without your Vegetable Compound. It is a splendid medicine. I am very thankful for what it has done for me."—Mrs. J. W. J., 76 Carolina Ave., Jamaica Plain, Mass.

If Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure these women—why not you—you cannot tell until you try it. If you are ill, and really want to get well, commence its use at once, and do not let any drug clerk persuade you that he has something of his own which is better, for that is absurd. Ask him to produce the evidence we do.

GIVE UP PROPOSED PLAN

Regents of University of Michigan Abandon the Idea of a Large Science Hall.

MAY ERECT LABORATORY BUILDING.

Student Ill with Disease That May Be Bubonic Plague—Professors May Go Elsewhere—A New College Paper—Inaugural Ball—Other Notes of General Interest.

[Special Correspondence.]

University of Michigan, April 22.—The board of regents at the meeting held April 17 practically gave up the idea of erecting a $300,000 science hall. The expenses of the institution have increased so rapidly that it has been impossible to lay aside enough funds to start the building. At present the plan seems to be to erect a laboratory building at a cost of about $80,000 and then to remodel the present medical building so that it will be more valuable for laboratory purposes. The new laboratory will be arranged for the work in bacteriology and in histology.

Bubonic Plague Patient.

Charles B. Hare, the medical student from Pawnee City, Neb., who is in the contagious ward of the hospital sick with a disease that has many of the symptoms of bubonic plague, commonly known as the black death, is improving rapidly. He is now able to be up and around the ward. It is generally conceded that he became infected while experimenting with the germ cultures in the bacteriological laboratory. His chum, James G. Cumming, of Oil City, Pa., who went to the hospital with him to act as nurse, has escaped without taking the disease. This is owing to the preventive measures adopted. Drs. George Dock and James R. Arnell, who were inoculated with "haffkin" bubonic plague germs which have been killed by heat, are both ill, though not seriously.

The guinea pigs which were inoculated with cultures made from the blood of Charles B. Hare are still alive, although their death has been expected for some days. If they survive it will indicate that Hare had the disease in a very mild form.

Likely to Lose Professors.

The board of regents is having his spring troubles regarding professors' salaries. It is reported that no fewer than six have offers from other institutions at increased pay. Compromises will be made with some of the six; others will be let go.

Football Game for Christmas.

Arrangements are nearly completed for two football games on the Pacific coast for the Christmas holidays. Contests will be had with the elevens representing the University of California and Leland Stanford university. One will be played Christmas day, the other New Year's day. This will be the first time that a University of Michigan team has gone as far west as the Pacific coast.

A New College Paper.

It is reported in newspaper circles that a new daily is to be started next fall to rival the University of Michigan Daily. It is to be called the 'Varsity News. The promoters, it is stated, have considerable available capital to start the enterprise. This is an old, old story. Few college papers have had a life extending over a dozen years. A faction becomes dissatisfied with existing conditions, a new paper is launched, both starve for awhile, then comes a consolidation, absorption or a failure of both. Sooner or later prestige passes to some new venture. The University of Michigan Daily has been fairly long lived, and so long as it continues under its present management will undoubtedly hold the lead, regardless of rivals. It was started September 29, 1890, and consequently is now in its eleventh year. The only one of the eight other publications now living that dates its founding back of that of the Daily is the Bulletin, issued by the Students' Christian association. This was started as the Monthly Bulletin in February, 1880.

An Inaugural Ball.

Invitations are out for the first annual University of Michigan Daily inaugural ball. This is given by the board of editors of the Daily to the friends of the paper. Only the leaders in college activities and a few of the more prominent members of the faculty have been invited. Among those included are the captains and managers of the athletic teams, the senior class presidents, the managing editors of the college publications and the correspondents for the New York, Chicago and Detroit papers. The programmes for the event are to be miniature University of Michigan Dailies, with blue pencils attached.

Colored Students Play Ball.

The colored students of the university recently defeated the colored boys of Ann Arbor in a baseball game. The town boys were outclassed at every point. The score was 12 to 23.

Goodar was a school teacher, much liked and prominent in society.

State Railroad Commissioner Osborn has ordered the Grand Rapids & Indiana and the Muskegon, Grand Rapids & Indiana railway companies to reduce their passenger rates to 2½ cents per mile. The earnings of these roads last year reached $2,000 per mile, which, under the statute, brings them within the 2½-cent classification.

HIS WIFE IS GONE.

A Lynn Farmer Secures One Through a Matrimonial Bureau, But She Soon Leaves Him.

William Streeter, of Lynn township, a farmer about 50 years old, who lives with his mother on a farm, read an advertisement in a matrimonial journal where a lady of accomplishments and property, etc., wanted a husband, etc. Streeter answered the ad. last fall, and about the time the snow was leaving this spring he left Michigan and went to Kansas City, where he was quietly married to Mrs. Ella Richardson. The bride and groom soon after came to Michigan and located on the farm. It took considerable money to keep the new wife in appearances, and really more than Streeter had anticipated.

A letter came from a son of the lady requesting her to come at once to Kansas City and assist in straightening up some property matters. It is alleged that the trip would cost $150. Streeter, the bride and the money started for Capae to take the train, but after arriving in Capae the bride disappeared and Streeter has not seen her since. She hired a livery, drove back to the Streeter home, secured her trunk and valuables, went to Yale for the train, but was too late, so drove to Emmet. Streeter is now living alone.

AN INDIAN MOUND.

A Cadillac Resident Uncovers One That Contained Some Very Interesting Relics.

D. McConville has uncovered an Indian mound in Taylor's grove, near Cadillac. The relics found in the mound consisted of a pipe, fish spear, several arrow heads of excellent workmanship, a very large quartz spear-head, beaver teeth and stag spikes.

The remains of two warriors were in the mound, together with weapons and other implements. It is claimed that the presence of the teeth and deer spikes means that their owner was a chief—the former being his necklace and the latter a part of the head dress. The spear or harpoon is made from a piece of bone, nearly flat, with projecting barbs on one side and straight on the other. It was in excellent condition, although the bones of the skeleton crumbled at the touch. The pipe is a good specimen of the red man's skill and the blackened and burned bowl showed much use and evidence of having been smoked at many councils.

MADE A FORTUNE.

Judge Holden, of Saginaw, Struck It Rich in a Mining Venture in Canada.

Judge Lawson C. Holden, who left Saginaw for the Soo after all his fortune had been swept away by the big fire of May 20, 1893, has struck it rich. About three years ago, when there was a mining craze in what is known as the Michipicoten district in Canada, not far from the Soo, Judge Holden borrowed $25 and engaged a prospector. The outlook was excellent and the judge borrowed $300 more. With this claims were located, four others were induced to take an interest and the syndicate secured about 1,500 acres of land. Finally a corporation known as the Rock Lake Mining company, capitalized at $3,000,000, was formed, and not a dollar's worth of stock is on the market. The mine is said to be proving a veritable bonanza. The company now has $37,000,000 worth of copper in sight, and those on the inside say that Judge Holden's one-fifth interest in the mine is worth $5,000,000.

ENTERED A PROTEST.

Gov. Bliss Against Policy of Giving Immediate Effect to Bills When Not Necessary.

Gov. Bliss has sent a message to the legislature protesting against so-called "snap" legislation. He says:

"It was clearly the intent of the framers of the constitution that laws should not be given immediate effect unless in the judgment of the legislature, there were conditions existing which might be construed in the nature of an emergency. If this were not true, a two-thirds vote of the members elected would not have been made obligatory."

"To interject a new law without notice into the working of those already on the statute books is hardly to be defended unless required by an emergency. I urge a return to the practice contemplated by the constitution, giving immediate effect only to such measures as are absolutely necessary. In legislation of a semi-emergency nature, fix a day far enough ahead when the act shall take effect to allow the law to be digested and permit its machinery to operate with as little friction as possible. All other acts, in my judgment, should not take effect until the time contemplated by the organic law of the state."

To Elevate Criminals.

Warden Chamberlain, of Jackson prison, has been visiting prisons in the east. He says that it is noticeable that where effort is made to develop the individuality and encourage improvement of the prisoners they have a better appearance than where the strictest discipline prevailed. The old-time lockstep, zebra-striped clothing and shaving of head have been generally abolished, and methods tending to the reformation and moral elevation of the criminal population seem to be in the ascendancy.

Now Everything in the Stores Is for Summer

All the Spring Materials Have Been Sold or Otherwise Disposed of

the Summer Fashions

HERE are a few little points about summer fancies that were given to me by a dressmaking friend in New York. They are worth considering:

"Tell your readers to have a bolero jacket made for summer wear," she said. "They are sure to be worn all through the summer season, for that is the verdict of Paris. They will be worn quite short, descending but two or three inches below the arms and forming a straight line round the figure, or far longer—that is to say, reaching almost to the waistline—but still allowing the waistband to be visible at the back between them and the skirt. They are made long in front and frequently pointed, and are shown less often accompanied by chemisettes than waistcoats, which have close-fitting fronts. Many of such waistcoats are fashioned in white cloth or flannel, in which an allover design is stamped out; they are lined with colored silk forming a transparent, and are very pretty."

"Tell them also to use velvet ribbon and lots of it. They can scarcely get too much. Black velvet ribbon, in graduated widths is one of the very approved modes of decoration for transparent flowered materials, and later on flounces will be so employed in the composition of the skirts that an effect as bouffante and extensive as that lent by the old-fashioned hoop will be given these fragile costumes."

"Above all else tell them to be careful of the accessories. It is a season of accessories, and never before did the little things play so important a part in our fashionable wardrobes. One of these accessories that are necessary is the fan. The short sleeves to our gowns make them so. The same sleeves make the long glove, the long mitt necessary. In fans, the hand-painted affair or a daintily decorated Japanese one are to be the favorites."

"But there are other accessories equally important. Among these are fancy jeweled pins for the throat, as well as the many artistic pieces of neckwear with jeweled clasps to hold the velvet ties, jeweled ends for ribbon ties to match the belt with similarly jeweled ends—all of these are interesting and attractive articles, especially suited to the designs of the gowns of the coming season."

"Applications of lace, like ribbons, can hardly be overdone. They are one of the most fashionable methods of decoration in a season devoted to elaborate decoration. Lace applications may be had in a countless number of designs, but a new lace trimming consists in square applications of that fabric. They form a sort of frame as the interior is absent. They are sold ready woven in that shape and cover a space wardrobes each year to meet the demands of each season thought only of these spring gowns. But scarcely had Easter Sunday afforded an opportunity for displaying these new spring costumes when the whole display in the stores were changed, and we now have summer. There is the customary early rush for materials and novelties that marks the beginning of preparations for each new season, and when it is over the fashionable women will be provided, and the woman whose purse is not so well supplied with money will have something to copy in less expensive materials and trimmings, and if she is a bright woman she will get something quite as charming in its way, even if not quite so fine, as her more fortunate sister has secured at many times the price.

In this display of new summer materials are fancy crepes, wool poplins, grenadines and the very thin zephyr silks. All of these make delicate, soft shimmering dresses, and appear in plain surfaces, or delicately embroidered effects, all in self colors. Lace insertions, lace medallions and lace flounces, both narrow and the medium wide, are being used on summer costumes in white, ecru or black.

Etons and blouse effects with long basque ends will be much worn if one can judge by the store displays in which they predominate. They are made with balloon or paquin sleeves.

Of the pretty summer models there is an elaborate crepe gown in a light shade of gray, trimmed with old ivory tinted lace. The skirt is corded all the way around, and in shallow scallops down the front, with wee gold buttons. Reverlike points are turned back at the foot to display a petticoat of plisse chiffon. The bodice is in large box plaits from a yoke of velvet, trimmed with lace applique. The plaits are drawn in at the waist line to form a shirred gathered effect girdle. Paquin sleeves with lace cuffs and puffing of white chiffon.

Another of the pleasing summer gowns is of zephyr silk in a tone of parma mauve trimmed with broad insertions. The skirt is made with several tiny tucks directly down the front, and a shaped flounce having the tucks at the hem, and headed with lace insertion. The bodice is in vee tucks, with bands of insertion on each side. A vest of silver tissue which shimmers out softly through a veiling of finer lace, thus making an effective background for a little cravat of black velvet. The sleeves are tucked at the top in a V shape, with a finish of insertion, and are bell shaped at the wrist with the insertion to finish.

Of the summer tailor gowns a smart one is of wool poplin in a delicate mauve. It has a gracefully hanging skirt with a deep embroidered band of black velvet and gold, this extending from the hem in front to half way up the back. It has a bolero jacket, with standing collar and paquin sleeves. The bolero and sleeves are bordered with narrow bands of the embroidered trimming. A very wide pointed belt, and the puff of the sleeve of the same embroidery.

of about six inches, the frame itself being from two to 2½ inches broad, both edges of which are scalloped. These are applied on skirts a little above the hem, or as panels at the sides, in which case they are graduated in size. The square space left in the center is crossed by two or three bands of narrow ribbon fastened in the center by a small bow or gold buckle."

Now Everywhere Is the Summer Gown Displayed

DURING the days of Lent there was but little shown in the New York stores but the spring garments, and the women who must provide themselves with at least four new

Electric Railway Notes.

Work of grading on the Boland line near Ann Arbor is proceeding fast. Ties are being distributed and rails spiked in many places.

Dexter Leader: The D., Y., A. & J. Co., expect, if no unforeseen delays occur, to have their line in operation between Ann Arbor and Jackson, by July 4.

The Grass Lake News says West Main street in that village swarms with men and teams at work on the Detroit & Chicago electric line, and the surveyors have placed the grade stakes along Main street.

Thos. E. Barkworth, of Jackson, has filed a petition in the supreme court on behalf of the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co., to test the authority of the railroad commissioner in making crossing between electric and steam railroads. The decision will affect the right of the commissioner to prevent grade crossings at Augusta and Kalamazoo.

W. A. Boland, W. A. Foote and Mr. Frazier, of the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co., were in Ann Arbor Saturday and discussed matters pertaining to their electric road very freely with a Washtenaw Times reporter.

Mr. Boland emphatically declared that by July the distance from Ann Arbor to Jackson will be completely covered. He holds contracts calling for the machinery and materials for the construction of the entire road and sees no obstacles which may arise to prevent its completion.

"Few changes have been made," said Mr. Boland, "from the route as planned originally, according to the council's grant. We are building a road that the city wants."

W. A. Foote said to the same gentleman: "We have the road in ship-shape to Michigan Center, and a car has been run over that section of it. Railroad crossings have been delayed owing to the fact that the railway committee have not approved the construction as yet. Track is laid as far as Grass Lake and two gangs of men are working between Grass Lake and Chelsea, and within one month after cars are running to the former place they will run to Chelsea."

"Every tie to be used between Jackson and Ann Arbor is either on the ground or on cars on the way to the scene of construction, and our contract calls for 21,000 tons of rails each month."

Mr. Foote was asked whether the power would all be furnished from the Jackson power house for the stretch from Jackson to Detroit.

"Possibly another plant will have to be built," said he. "I rather think 75 miles will prove rather too long a haul."

Yesterday there were rumors in Ann Arbor that a big deal was on in which New York middlemen were acting to consolidate the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co.'s interests and those of the D., Y., A. & J. Co. In opposition to these rumors W. A. Foote, of Jackson, secretary and manager of the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co.'s project, denies any knowledge of the reported move to consolidate the Boland and Hawks-Angus interests between Ann Arbor and Jackson. He says he had a long talk by telephone with Mr. Boland, who is in New York, yesterday morning, and that gentleman gave no intimation of any such arrangements. He characterizes the whole rumor as the biggest kind of a fake.

Further proceedings in the legal contest over the John Staphish estate have commenced with the filing of a bill of complaint by Lehman Bros. & Stivers, in behalf of the numerous heirs of the deceased man who reside in and about Chelsea and Dexter, to recover from Mrs. Clara Staphish, of Dexter, what they claim is their share of the estate.

The suit brought against Richard and Floyd Reason as bondsmen for Tot Reason, a Pinckney saloonkeeper, by Mrs. Martin Armstrong, of Lyndon, for damages for the death of her husband who was frozen to death a year ago last February, while under the influence of liquor sold to him by Tot Reason, was settled in Howell Thursday. The first weekly crop report of the Michigan weather bureau for the current year, issued Tuesday, says the season is very backward, and that while wheat is in fairly good condition it is very uneven throughout the state. Old meadows are in good condition, and the ground is in good shape for newly sown clover seed.

Washtenaw Times: The carelessness of ministers in returning marriage licenses may cause trouble for some good dominies in Washtenaw county. A penalty of a fine of $100 is provided for those not making prompt returns. Clerk Philip Blum has received notice from the auditor-general that licenses Nos. 4248, 4263, 4300, 4310, 4351, 4370, 4379 and 4447 are missing. In No. 4273 the date is wanting. In No. 4336 no birth place is given. Mr. Blum is forced by law to insist upon full returns.

Although spring has hardly opened great complaint is already made of the wanton destruction of birds by boys armed with Flobert rifles and other weapons. Robins and other birds are found with their wings and legs broken, fluttering helplessly about, which have to be killed to end their misery. There is a state law against this destruction of the birds which are so useful in keeping down the insect pests. Marshal Woods is determined to try and enforce the law and hereby gives notice to offenders against this law that he will make arrests without fear or favor in future. There is also a village ordinance prohibiting the use of firearms, Flobert rifles, etc., within the village limits. We would suggest to the marshal that a rigid enforcement of this ordinance would materially stop the cruel killing of the birds.

The encampment of the state troops will this year be held at Gull Lake.

The Haywood brothers, who have sung in concert on various occasions in Chelsea, have struck it rich in Texas, and are the owners of a leased oil well property for which they have refused an offer of $2,500,000.

Stockbridge Brief: Little Hazel Ives, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lute Ives of this village, was playing around a bonfire last Saturday, when her dress caught fire, and the quick work of one of the neighbors is all that saved her life.

The post office department has issued the ukase that unless the roads where free rural mail delivery routes are established are kept up in good shape the service will be stopped. This should have the effect of improving the condition of some of our country roads.

The firm of Kempf & Co., lumber, grain and coal dealers, has been dissolved. The business will be carried on as before by the Wm. Bacon-Holmes Lumber, Grain & Coal Co., with Wm. Bacon as manager. The firm just dissolved was started by C. H. Kempf over 40 years ago.

The reunion of the members of the members of the 31st regiment, Michigan volunteers, will be held at Ann Arbor May 17, and Co. A is making elaborate preparations to entertain them. Twelve companies will be present from Jackson, Detroit, Ann Arbor, Lansing, Monroe, Mason and Ypsilanti.

At the commencement exercises of the Detroit College of Medicine and Surgery, to be held at the Detroit opera house this evening, 26 diplomas will be issued, two of which are to women. Among the names of the graduates appear those of two Washtenaw county boys, E. Burton Kellogg, of Chelsea, and James E. Curlett, of Dexter.

Grass Lake News: Henry Hoffman, of Waterloo, was the victim of a peculiar accident one day last week. While carrying a pail of feed to his hogs he stumbled and fell, throwing the swill all over himself. Immediately the whole drove of hogs pounced on him, and if he had not been discovered it might have fared hard with him.

Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Jones entertained the members of his Sunday school class of boys and their girl friends at the Congregational parsonage Thursday evening. The entertainment took the form of a "cobweb" party and the skillfully laid out cobweb was the source of a great deal of fun and merriment. Howard Brooks was the first one to get his tangle unraveled and wound, and was awarded the prize. During the evening ice cream and cake were served.

The concert given at the Congregational church Friday evening by Messrs. Robbins, Briggs and Brown, of Ann Arbor, was a great treat from a musical standpoint, but the attendance was by no means what it should have been. Instead of the church being well filled, there were not over 100 people present to enjoy the excellent program. Mr. Robbins and Mr. Briggs, respectively, have fine tenor and baritone voices, which filled the house with melody. Mr. Brown's accompaniments on the piano were admirably played. The program as given in last week's Herald was carried out in full.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 1½ boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was as sound and well as ever." For eruptions, eczema, tetter, salt-rheum, sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. Glazier & Stimson will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

REACHES MILLIONS.

Enormous Losses by Floods in the Eastern States.

Cities and Towns Are Inundated—Railroads Suffer Severely—Several Lives Reported Lost.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 22.—The most widespread and destructive storm, from a material point of view, has passed. It has left a zone of ruin 200 miles in diameter. It was unusual in that it possessed so many different features. Cities 70 miles from Pittsburgh were tied up by one of the worst snowstorms ever known. While the snowfall was from 18 inches to three feet deep, which is not extraordinary, the snow was so wet that it clung in weighty masses to shade and fruit trees and electric wires and poles, bearing them to the earth. It settled on steam and street railroads like wet sand, stopping all traffic and making pedestrianism a feat for only the most hardy. The fall was so heavy and spontaneous in some places that the residents declare it seemed like the bursting of a snow cloud. A few miles away from these unfortunate towns were municipalities in just as dire straits from rain, but with speedier prospect for relief, as the rain will run off faster than the snow can melt, yet here traffic was practically suspended. Water overflowed and washed out railroad tracks and hillsides came down and buried the rails. In addition, nearly every town on the Ohio river between Pittsburgh and Wheeling was in darkness Sunday night. Electric light plants or their wires are damaged and the gas in the mains is generally turned off. In previous floods this precaution was not taken and the result was explosions with loss of life and property.

Little Loss of Life.

A remarkable feature of the storm is that but few fatalities directly attributable to this cause have been reported. A railroadman caught in a wreck caused by a landslide and the death of an old woman from shock are the only ones known so far. There may be others, but as communication is cut off from many populous places it will be the end of the week before the total can be footed up.

Damage Is Enormous.

The money loss is just as difficult to foot up. It may reach $3,000,000. The railroads think they have lost $1,000,000. The loss of wages to the army of workers in manufacturing plants up and down the rivers will mount up to $500,000 and the repairs to plants will be a large sum. The damage to stores, stocks, residences and furniture in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and towns and cities down the Ohio will probably reach $500,000. The telegraph companies have suffered severely, but cannot yet compute their losses. In addition there is the enormous indirect damage caused by the almost complete suspension of trade. What that amounts to no one can determine exactly, and estimates simply reflect the conservative or radical character of the computer.

At Other Points.

The report from Rochester, Pa., is that the Ohio has overflowed its banks and a considerable portion of the city lying south of the Fort Wayne railroad tracks is submerged. The river is still rising and a steady downpour of rain continues. The loss to the various manufacturing plants located along the river front will be heavy. Extra forces of men are patrolling the railroad tracks on the lookout for landslides.

At Beaver Falls, Pa., the damage by the flood and storm was considerable and several squares in the north end of the town were converted into a lake at Ninth avenue, Twenty-second, and Twenty-third streets, and the houses stood in two and three feet of water.

At Atiaganna about 20 houses were wrecked by the flood.

Reports from up-river points received at Pittsburgh up to ten p. m. are meager, but for the most part are encouraging. Oil City is the only point on the Allegheny river where the water is rising.

Dam Bursts.

Chester, Mass., April 22.—The Flood Hollow dam in Middlefield gave way about six o'clock Sunday night, letting loose the water in the big reservoir, which rushed with terrific force into the west branch of the Westfield river, sweeping everything before it and submerging the greater part of this town. No lives were lost, but great damage has been done, the extent of which it is impossible now to estimate. The huge timbers of the dam were hurled into the foaming current and went in one great crashing mass on toward Chester. Two quartz mills at Flood Hollow, barns and outbuildings were swept along in the torrent. At Bancroft, the station for Middlefield, the Boston & Albany stone bridge was carried away, together with 600 feet of tracks. It will probably be two days before trains are running. Chester presents a desolate sight. The electric light station is submerged and the town is in total darkness. Houses are flooded and the streets are filled with timbers from the dam.

A DESPERATE DEED.

David Creech, an Elderly Capitalist, Shoots His Young Wife on the Street in Jackson.

David H. Creech, a capitalist, aged 70 years, and for 50 years a resident of Jackson, shot his wife on the street, firing four bullets into her head, neck and mouth while he held her fast with his left arm about her waist. Mrs. Creech is 40 years old and was married to her would-be murderer 12 years ago. Previously she had been his housekeeper. They lived unhappily, and all blame is laid upon the husband. Three years ago Mrs. Creech left her home, began proceedings, and after several futile attempts to live together again was granted a divorce, with a portion of the property and custody of the two children. The supreme court affirmed the divorce, and the shooting was the result.

Mr. Creech was arrested and a second loaded revolver was found on his person. He said he shot his wife and intended to kill himself and "end it all," as she "had ruined him and taught his children to hate him." The lock of the loaded revolver would not work and the hammer was at half-cock.

STUDENTS EXPELLED.

Albion College Co-ed and Her Admirer Ordered to Go Home and Not to Return.

Two Albion college students, a co-ed and her "steady company," according to the announcement made at chapel by Acting President Samuel Dickie, have been requested to pack their books and depart for home, to remain away permanently, as a result of repeated violations of the college social regulations.

This action is the first of a number of expulsions which the college authorities promise to make unless there is an abrupt check in the violations of the social rules which have become so frequent during the past few years.

Dr. Dickie, in announcing the expulsions, made a final plea for reforms in the social life of the college which should more thoroughly protect the good name of the students as individuals, the student body as a whole and the college as well. His remarks were pointed with great earnestness and were received seriously by the students.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE.

Franchise Asked for a Road from Chicago to the Marriage Belt in Michigan.

The St. Joseph city council has been asked to grant a 50-year franchise to the Chicago, St. Joseph & Southwestern Michigan electric railroad. The road will run from Chicago to St. Joseph—90 miles—and will pass through the towns of Hammond, Pullman, Kensington, Michigan City, New Buffalo, Sawyer, Bridgeman, Stevensville, Lincoln, Glen Hill, etc. There is at present a road in operation from Hammond to Chicago. The right of way for almost the entire way has been secured, and at some points the road has been staked out for a considerable distance.

The backers of the company are H. T. Clark and J. P. Barthoff, of Cleveland, and others. Work will begin as soon as construction gangs can be organized. The road will cost $2,000,000, and it is guaranteed in the contract that the cars will run every 15 minutes between Chicago and St. Joseph.

COLLEGE FOR SALE.

Adventists Will Combine Industrial Training with Schooling Under the New Deal Proposed.

The Seventh Day Adventists delegates to the national conference have decided by unanimous vote to sell the college in Battle Creek and buy fruit farms on the lake shore and erect new cottage buildings. They will do this to combine industrial training with schooling and will give students a chance to earn their own living. They will raise fruit on a large scale and open several other industries.

The sanitarium association will purchase all the college buildings in Battle Creek and establish a medical college under the leadership of Dr. Kellogg. Five hundred students are now attending school in Battle Creek.

Cut Pine on State Lands.

State Land Commissioner Wilkey and his deputies have uncovered extensive trespasses on state lands in Montgomery county by prominent Alton lumbermen and less extensive depredations by poor settlers. Several hundred thousand feet of white pine and cedar have been cut in the aggregate, and the trespassers will be required to settle with the state for the value of the timber. Prosecutions are likely to follow.

A Valuable Bustle.

Last fall about $500 worth of money and jewelry belonging to Mrs. Martin Meredith mysteriously disappeared in Saginaw. The other day boys playing in the yard of the old Meredith residence found the valuables in an old bustle they were using as a football. Mrs. Meredith now lives in Detroit.

THE WORST IS OVER.

Waters in the Swollen Rivers Are Receding.

The Flood Situation at Pittsburgh Is More Hopeful—Losses, However, Will Approximate $2,000,000—Men Drowned at Marietta.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 23.—The flood is over. Notwithstanding the fact that early in the day there was every evidence of a renewal of the high water, the announcement can be made authoritatively that there is not the least danger of another rise at this point nor above for the present, but towns on the Ohio river below here are not yet out of danger because of rains in the valley Sunday night and Monday. All up-river points report the rain and snow having ceased and the rivers falling. The Ohio registered 19.8 at the dam here at seven o'clock and falling. Forecaster Frank Ridgway says it would require a steady downpour of rain for 24 hours to check the fall, and from present indications such a thing is not likely.

Losses Will Reach $2,000,000.

A look over the ground after the flood shows that the losses will be fully as great as was estimated Sunday. In and about Pittsburgh it will probably take $1,000,000 to pay the total cost of the injury to property by the water and by landslips. Add to this the great loss to the railroads and manufacturing plants up and down the rivers in this immediate vicinity, with the loss in wages to the workmen, and the total will not fall far short of the $2,000,000 mark. The work of cleaning up is going on everywhere in the flooded district.

At Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, April 23.—The stage of the river here at six o'clock Monday night was 51 feet, and rising at the rate of two inches per hour. This means 53 feet at six o'clock this morning, when trains will be shut out of the Grand Central depot. The Big Four, Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, Illinois Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Queen & Crescent and other lines using that station have already arranged to use the Fourth and Eighth street stations to-day, and there is every indication that they can run into the Grand Central station again on Thursday. None of the other railways will be shut out of their regular depots.

Hard on Crops and Fruit.

The flood is not as bad as in a dozen former years and much below the records of 1897 and 1898 and those of 1883 and 1884. The former floods were earlier, when the weather was cold, causing much distress among the homeless people. While this flood is not so hard on the people that are driven from their homes it is much harder on the crops and fruits that are well advanced. The property loss in the rural districts cannot be estimated. It will be very large. The homeless people will not be kept away from their houses as long as they were during former floods, which in some cases have lasted as many weeks in the winter as this will continue days in the spring.

At Other Points.

At Newport and Dayton, Ky., very many people have been driven from their homes. The waterworks of Newport are unable to do any more pumping, but the reservoir is full and no trouble is expected during the short duration of the flood.

At Huntington, W. Va., the Ohio is 54.3, rising an inch per hour. A steady rain fell Monday throughout the central and southern portion of the state. Most all of the tributaries of the Ohio river are falling slowly.

The situation is still serious up the river, notably at Ripley, Maysville, Aberdeen, Portsmouth, Hanging Rock, Ironton, Ashland, Cattlettsburg, Huntington, Point Pleasant, Pomeroy, Marietta, Parkersburg and smaller places between Wheeling and Cincinnati. The crest of the flood is below Wheeling and the further down stream it gets the lower is the rate of rising.

At Marietta it is reported that there has been almost a panic in the rural districts and the smaller towns of Washington county along the river, where there is no telegraph service and no warning was had of the sudden rise. There was no loss of life outside of Marietta, where three were accidentally drowned Monday while out in boats. A great portion of Marietta is under water and hundreds of acres in the country are covered. Hundreds of families have been driven from their homes to seek shelter on higher grounds.

At Hinton, W. Va., the entire upper portion of the city is submerged. Seven houses were swept away and many others washed from their foundations. No loss of life has been reported.

At Steubenville, O., over 250 families were rendered homeless by the high waters. Manufacturing plants have been suspended and will not be able to start for several days. Much damage is also reported at Mingo Junction, Aliquippa, Brilliant, Warrenton and Portland.

Conscientious by Degrees.
It is well to be thankful for small mercies. Such is the opinion of a man from whose pocket was stolen a purse containing $25. Some months later he received this letter: "Dear Sir: I told you my money. Remorse nags my conscience, and I have sent you $5. When remorse nags again I'll send you some more."—Tit-Bits.

Demand for More Battleships.
When the Secretary of the Navy recently demanded more battleships, Congress considered his recommendations favorably, and authorized the construction of several powerful warships. Protection is what our seaports require, and fortifications will not adequately supply this. Defense against all disorders of the digestive organs, such as dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, rheumatism and nervousness, is adequately afforded by that efficient remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. ## Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
