The mail matter deposited in these boxes will be collected each day by the mail carriers. The boxes, which are the regulation cast iron boxes of the mail service, will be placed as follows:

At the corner by St. Thomas' church, in Freedom.

At Kingeder and Bollinger's corner, south of Jerusalem.

At the schoolhouse near O. F. Laubengayer's, in Sylvan.

At a point near Thomas Heim's, in Sylvan.

At Boos' corners, in Sylvan, 4 1/2 miles northwest of Chelsea.

Circuit Court Doings.

The May term of the circuit court commenced Monday. There are 77 cases on the docket, divided as follows: Criminal 19, issues of fact 35, chancery (first class) 3, chancery (fourth class) 20. Among the chancery cases are nine divorce suits.

All the criminal cases were disposed of Monday. Peak and Taylor, the two colored burglars, were sentenced to seven and four years at Jackson prison respectively. Four men who were charged with receiving stolen property were turned over to Justice Doty. Ernest Paul, whose saloon was open on a Sunday, was let off by paying costs, it being his first offence. The case against Alice Mahorter, Josephine Sharp and Harold Howe for "touching" Frank McMillan for his gold watch was settled. The rest of the cases went over the term.

A Quiet and Pretty Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Eisele, of Lansing, and Miss Agnes Wade was solemnized in St. Mary's church, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. Rev. W. P. Considine, pastor of the church, celebrated the nuptial mass. The young couple were attended by the brother and sister of the bride, George and Beatrice Wade. There were a goodly number of their friends present to witness the interesting ceremony. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Wade, after the ceremony. A number of pretty and useful presents were given to Mr. and Mrs. Eisele by their friends. They left on the 9:15 a. m. train for Lansing, where they have gone to housekeeping in a home which Mr. Eisele had all ready furnished.

Epworth League Anniversary.

The anniversary services of Chapter No. 1845, Epworth League, will be held at the M. E. church next Sunday. The exercises will open with a sunrise prayer meeting at 6:30 a. m. sharp, led by Miss Olive R. Rogers; at 10:30 a. m. the usual church service will be held with sermon by the pastor; at 6:30 p. m., there will be a devotional service, of which Miss Vera Glazier will be the leader; at 7:30 p. m., the anniversary address will be delivered by Rev. J. I. Nickerson. The Congregational and Baptist churches will forego their services in the evening and will attend the M. E. church.

Mt. Olivet Cemetery Improvements.

Over $100 worth of rose bushes and shrubbery have been put out in Mt. Olivet cemetery this spring. The oval in the center of the cemetery has had a great many of the bushes planted around it, and the walks have been nicely gravelled by the superintendent. It is the intention of Rev. W. P. Considine to have a large cross, 20 feet high, erected in the center of the oval this summer and he is now in correspondence with the manufacturers about it. The cross will have a stone base at the four corners of which will be urns to hold creeping and flowering plants

Shudders at His Past.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Maun, of Levanna, O., "my three years of suffering from kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivaled to regulate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Glazier & Stimson. Only 50 cents.

St. Mary's Library Catalogue.

Grass Lake News: We have received a copy of the catalogue of St. Mary's library at Chelsea, and have examined it with all the more interest as the general public are welcome to draw the books and take them to their homes for perusal. The volumes in this library are over 1,000 in number and are by such authors as Louisa M. Alcott, Jane Austin, William Black, James G. Blaine, Charlotte Bronte, Wm. Carleton, the Irish author; J. Fennimore Cooper, E. Maurice Crawford, Charles Dickens, Maurice F. Egan, George Elliot, Gen. U. S. Grant, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Washington Irving, Samuel Lover, Edward Bulwer Lytton, Justin McCarthy, Wm. H. Prescott, Maurice Thompson and scores of others. Of course, works constituting the cream of literary thought in our tongue are offered and additions thereto are constantly being made.

This project of Rev. Fr. Considine is greatly appreciated by the people of Chelsea and vicinity, all classes of whom are availing themselves of this liberal and gratuitous means of becoming acquainted with the history, biography, poetry and best works of fiction with which the library is nicely furnished. It would be of quite a benefit to the public if other churches would emulate St. Mary's example. The catalogue is from the Chelsea Herald press, and is a most creditable piece of typography.

Resolutions.

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to break our circle and remove from our midst our sister, Margaret Shanahan;

Therefore, be it resolved, that we as members of the L. C. B. A., St. Mary's Branch, No. 410, do hereby desire to express our deepest sympathy in the loss of one of our dear members; that we most sincerely sympathize with the family in their late bereavement, and trust that our loss may be our heavenly Father's gain;

Resolved that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days; and, be it further resolved, that these resolutions be entered upon our records and a copy of the same sent to the sorrowing ones, also published in our local paper.

To Avoid Freckles.

The best advice in connection with this subject is to say "wear a sun bonnet," and if in doubt whether a sun bonnet can be made attractive and pretty in contrast with the old head-burying abomination of years ago, every woman preparing to go to the country should look at the June Delineator and examine the dainty sun bonnets that are shown there both for grown ups and children.

Pharmacy Department.
The department of pharmacy devoted a day on April 30 to a study of the manufacturing works of Nelson, Baker & Co., of Detroit. The students, with members of the faculty, made a careful examination of the appliances and methods of pharmaceutical production in use in these works, the house liberally granting every opportunity to learn the details of operation upon a large scale.

Won the Prize.
Carroll L. Storey, of the university, won the eleventh annual contest at Iowa City, Ia., of the Northern Oratorical league. Bertram G. Nelson, Chicago, was second, and Otto Brackett, Iowa, third. The winner secured a prize of $100 offered by Frank O. Lowden, of Chicago. Mr. Storey's oration was entitled "The Minister Plenipotentiary," and dealt with Henry Ward Beecher's speeches in England in 1863, in which he revealed to Englishmen the cancerous system of American slavery.

The Law Library.
The law library contains the reports of every state in the union, the reports of the federal courts, the English, Scotch, Irish and Canadian reports, together with such collateral reports as the Law Journal Reports, the Scottish Law Reporter, the Irish Jurist, the Irish Law Times, the English Ruling Cases, the Law Times Reports, the Weekly Reporter, the American Decisions, the American Reports, the American State Reports, and the Lawyers' Reports Annotated, as well as several series of cases upon particular branches, such as the American Probate Reports, the American Electrical Cases, the American and English Railroad Cases, the American and English Corporation Cases, etc. Of several of the more important series one or more duplicates are to be found in the library. It also contains an extensive collection of treatises and text-books, both English and American, and copies of the statutes of many of the states, and also of the United States. New reports, as they are issued, are added, and new text-books and treatises are provided with sets of selected and leading cases and of legal periodicals. The Journal of Jurisprudence, Edinburgh; the Law Quarterly Review, London; the American Law Review, Magazine, the Albany Law Journal, the Central Law Journal, the Judicial Review, the Green Bag, and others are regularly taken and kept on file.

Contributions to Museum.
The museum of pharmacognosy is indebted to the pharmaceutical house of F. Stearns & Co., of Detroit, for a specimen of civet horn from Abyssinia and a bamboo joint partially filled with gamboge from Cambodia.

The civet horn is used to contain a secretion of the civet cat, used in the manufacture of perfumery. The bamboo joint, which is partly filled with gamboge, illustrates the native methods of collecting the gamboge juice and preparing it for commerce.

Want Them Again.
The lectures in the special course in commercial pharmacy are solicited to be given again at the meeting of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical association, and also for publication in the pharmaceutical journals. The course has been given so far by the speakers invited without interruption and with much interest.

A Rotary Tube.
A rotary tube for grinding Portland cement has been added to the equipment of the laboratory of chemical technology. The apparatus, although it is of laboratory size, is modeled after the larger machines used in the factories. It was a gift to the university from the Bonnot company of Canton, O.

Visited Cement Plants.
During the April recess Prof. Israel C. Russell, of the department of geology, visited the various cement plants of the state in order to collect data for a report to the federal government on the cement industry in Michigan. The report will be completed by July 1.

A Portrait.
A portrait in sepia of Rev. Andrew Ten Brook, who was librarian during the years 1864-77, was recently added to the collection of portraits of librarians in the librarian's room. Rev. Ten Brook was a member of the first faculty as professor of moral and intellectual philosophy during the years 1844-51.

New Requirements.
New requirements for the bachelor of arts course are all in the freshman year. They comprise six hours of English and eight hours each of any one of the following electives: Greek, Latin, French, German, history, mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology. This makes 30 hours of required work. This leaves 90 hours of purely elective work.

These new requirements go into effect at the beginning of the next college year and the degree of A. B. will be given to this year's senior class.

OUTLINES HIS POLICY.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Snow Will Adhere to That Pursued by His Predecessor.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Snow has issued a bulletin in which he announces that he will continue the policy of his predecessor. Agents of manufacturers and jobbers who live outside the state will be treated as directly responsible for adulterated goods sold by them. Manufacturers, jobbers and distributors who live in Michigan will be held strictly accountable for their sales to retailers and other dealers.

Retailers must, however, assist the department by furnishing full and frank statements as to adulterated goods in their possession, and furnish it with the necessary proofs to establish the liability of the source of their purchases, or the retailers themselves will be held and considered willful violators of the law.

BIG PEACH CROP.

Conditions Are All Favorable for the Heaviest Output Ever Known at St. Joseph.

Within the past few years the possibilities of St. Joseph and vicinity as a fruit raising section has been fully demonstrated and southwestern Michigan now leads the far-famed California in the production of all fruits. The prospects are that the coming season it will have the heaviest output of fruit ever known in the United States. Conditions all through the winter have been highly favorable and the farmers are preparing to reap their golden harvest. The fruit in the vicinity runs mostly to peaches. Within the past few years the Michigan peach has gained a reputation second to none in the world.

State Seal Unauthorized.

Secretary of State Warner has had his attention called to the fact that school diplomas for country schools have been sold in Michigan to which is attached a facsimile of the great seal of the state. It is understood that these diplomas, which are issued to pupils completing a prescribed course of study in the country schools, have been sold by a publishing house in many counties of the state. Of course, the representation of the great seal of the state on these diplomas is wholly unauthorized.

Goes to Reform School.

Nellie Raymond, alias Florence Oulette, who stole jewelry worth $125 from Mrs. Albert Maitland, was tried in the Marquette county circuit court, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to the Marquette industrial school for girls until she is 21. Bernard Garbino, of Negaunee, aged 17, who stole revolvers and knives from Sawbridge's store, was sentenced to 30 months in the Marquette prison. Garbino holds a reform school record.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Department Commander Allen, of the Michigan G. A. R., Issues a General Order on the Subject.

Department Commander Allen, of the Michigan G. A. R., has issued general orders with reference to Memorial day observances. The orders say: "Comrades are reminded that it becomes their duty and honor to fittingly observe the solemn and impressive ceremonies of the occasion.

"Post commanders are enjoined to make proper arrangements for the observance of the day, and to see to it that so far as possible every mound that marks the resting place of a soldier or sailor of the army and navy is visited and remembered with a suitable floral offering.

"Let the Women's Relief Corps and all patriotic women, the sons and daughters of veterans, all veterans of the civil war and of the more recent conflicts, together with the school children and all civic organizations, be invited to participate with you in the duties of Memorial day.

"Post commanders and all officers of the posts are requested to use their best efforts in directing the minds of their fellow citizens to a proper observance of the 30th of May as a day sacred to the memory of men who were instrumental in enabling the business man of to-day to enjoy the benefits that he calls his privileges. Let there be a proper effort made to dispense with any attempt to make the day one of sport and amusement only.

"Post commanders are requested to arrange, as far as practicable, for an observance by all churches on Sunday, May 26, of an appropriate service commemorating the soldier and sailor dead of our country, and it is earnestly desired that with their colors at the front every grand army post in this department will attend some such memorial service in a body on the Sabbath next preceding Memorial day.

"In accordance with the action of the thirtieth national encampment, it is ordered by the department commander that Lincoln's Gettysburg address be read in connection with memorial services."

WET WEATHER.

Farm Work Has Been Delayed According to the Report of the Weather Bureau Director.

The weekly crop bulletin issued by Director Schneider, of the United States weather bureau, says:

Farm work has been delayed somewhat by wet weather. Winter wheat, rye, meadows and grass have improved during the week, but pastures are starting very slowly, and, as yet, afford very little fodder. Seeding is well advanced in the lower peninsula and has begun in the upper; some spring wheat has also been sown in the upper peninsula. The cold, wet weather which prevailed last week was detrimental to the germination of early-sown oats, but very little rotting has been reported so far; in the extreme southern counties oats are now germinating nicely and showing above ground. Flooding for corn is quite general in all central and southern counties. Early potatoes are being planted and garden ground prepared. Correspondents, without exception, report fruit buds in a very promising condition.

New Railroad Deal.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad has a considerable force of men at work repairing the track of 92 miles between Channing and Ontonagon, and is rushing the work. The stretch is now used but little, only one mixed train being run daily. It is thought that the St. Paul people will try to enter into close connection with the Copper Range railroad at Mass City.

Taken to Prison.

Van Zant, Westbrook and Bisbing, the three men who had an all-day's fight at Farmington with officers early in March, have been taken to Marquette to serve long terms of imprisonment on the charge of assault with intent to murder. Van Zant and Bisbing kept their nerve, but Westbrook broke down, and wept.

Saloon Did Not Open.

A new building on the Kawkawlin road, three miles from West Bay City, owned by Severin Jean, in which a saloon was to have been opened, caught fire in a mysterious manner and was totally destroyed. The owner suspects that it was set on fire.

Band of Its Own.

The state military board has issued an order authorizing the independent battalion of the national guard to recruit a band of not to exceed 20 pieces. The battalion includes two companies at Jackson and the Mason and Adrian companies.

AN ENGLISH ROMANCE.

True Story of a London Cabman Who Married a Rich Girl and Won Army Commission.

Basil Longwood awoke one morning to find that he was a pauper. His elder brother, upon whom the title had descended and who had been named as his guardian to care for his property and give him an income each year, was a hopeless bankrupt. Investigation showed that were the estate sold it would pay but a small amount of the debts that the brother had incurred, and that the patrimony which Basil's father had left him had been squandered.

Not a single farthing of the fortune which Basil had once thought his own could he claim. His brother had not only brought ruin upon the family name, but disgrace as well, and to none of his former friends would Basil go for help.

Basil went to London, and for weeks sought some sort of employment. He could find nothing. Finally, when he was almost starving, he had an opportunity to get a situation as driver of a handsome cab, and accepted at once.

For four years he drove the cab. He had become somewhat embittered and he refused to battle with destiny. He said to himself that fate had conspired to drag him down from his high position, and he would submit.

One day, while driving in a street running into Hyde Park, a phaeton drawn by a pair of gray horses and driven by a young girl came crashing into his cab, and threw him to the pavement. He was picked up and carried into a drug store, where it was found he was badly hurt. The young woman who had driven the phaeton that had caused the accident, sat by him and expressed her sorrow for the unfortunate cab driver.

When Basil was taken to the hospital the young woman called upon him there. Every day she came and brought flowers and fruit and everything that could add to Basil's comfort. She would sit by his bedside by the hour and read to him from the books that he loved.

It was some time before he found courage to ask her name. When he did it made him the more unhappy. She was Isabelle Varness, the daughter of the baronet. Basil could only think of himself as a cabman, and never for a moment would he permit himself ever to speak to Isabelle of love.

But one day while he was asleep and the girl was sitting by him waiting for him to awake, she bent down and kissed him on the forehead.

THEIR FIRST MEETING.

Basil's eyes opened. The girl flushed crimson, and would have run from the room, but he caught her hands, and before he was well aware he had told her the story of his love, and she had confessed that she loved him and had loved him for a long time, and that her great fear had been that his pride would prevent him from telling her the things that were in his heart.

So when Basil was able to leave the hospital he and Isabelle were married. Then the problem of the future had to be faced. He was determined not to throw himself upon Isabelle's people. But he could no longer drive a cab. He read the call for volunteers for the imperial yeomanry, and Isabelle smiled through her tears as he left her to go to South Africa with his regiment. For a valor at Ladysmith he was promoted and received his D. S. O., and later on his commission and a place in the regular service.

And Isabelle now rejoices that she once nearly murdered a cabby.

Dainty New Lunch Sandwich.

A new and appetizing sandwich for the lunch basket or the five o'clock tea is made by chopping dates or figs very fine, moistening with hot water and lemon juice and spreading on thin slices of bread. A sprinkling of finely-chopped nuts or nut butter completes the filling.

EMPRESS JOSEPHINE.

Chateau of Malmaison, Where She Lived, to Be Preserved by the French Government.

No place in Paris is more historically interesting than the estate of Malmaison, which is intimately and charmingly associated with the great Napoleon and Empress Josephine. The chateau of the beloved empress sits in the center of a large park, and the grounds and the buildings have been bought by the state as national property, to be preserved as a show place and an object of enlightenment to the masses.

The estate was bought by Josephine de Beauharnais in 1798, and the romantically located grounds afforded Josephine and the future great conqueror their first trysting places. The early and the happiest days of their married life were spent there, and a giant cedar that stands behind the chateau marks the spot where as youthful lovers they played tag, with kisses for forfeits. It was there, too, that the emperor's crown was first offered to Napoleon.

The royal couple seldom visited the home of their courtship and early happiness during the glorious days of the empire, but after her divorce the humiliated empress sought seclusion in this restful retreat, where she died five years later. A year afterward, upon his return from Elba, Napoleon passed a night at the chateau, planning for his last disastrous campaign. Queen Hortense received him affectionately at the home of her mother, perhaps the only woman the great conqueror ever really loved. The last five days of his liberty were also spent there. After the battle of Waterloo and abdication of the throne he returned to Malmaison, whence he was taken to his lonely exile on St. Helena, a saddened and ambition-crushed man.

After the property was sold by Josephine's heirs, it passed through many changes of proprietorship. At various times the chateau has been a point of attack by foes, having been sacked by the Prussians, bombarded by the Germans and besieged by other foreign invaders. Naturally it was allowed to fall into neglect and decay, but it is now being restored, redecorated and refurnished in exactly the same style as when it was occupied by Napoleon and Josephine.

In the neighboring village of Reuil is the grave of Empress Josephine, which is marked by a beautiful white marble monument. The empress, arrayed in her court robes, is represented in a kneeling posture.

Queen Hortense, after the death of her son in the Romangues, went to visit Malmaison, but was refused admission without a ticket, the property being then in the hands of a Swedish banker. It was presented to the state by the present owner, Mr. Osiris. The work of restoration has only just begun, and the chateau is not yet open to public inspection. Josephine's bed-chamber, like all the other rooms, will be draped as she herself draped it, and the colors and ornamentations will be copied from the originals, and the little iron chest in which she kept her jewels will stand at the head of the royal bed, as it stood many years before.—Detroit Free Press.

Extremely Delicate Scales.

The most delicate pair of scales in the United States are in the treasury department's bureau of weights and measures. So delicate are these scales that they will weigh accurately a ten-millionth part of a gram. They are so sensitive that the warmth given off the body of a person approaching them near enough to open the glass case or to shift the weights would expand the balance arms and produce an appreciable error in the results. Therefore they have been so constructed that they may be operated at a distance of 20 feet. The readings are made through a small telescope.

How to Keep Brass Bright.

To half a pint of methylated spirit add half an ounce of shellac. Let it stand a few days in a tightly-corked bottle and give it a shake occasionally. Then pour off the clear liquid and use it to paint lightly over your brass after cleaning. It evaporates very quickly, so must be kept well corked. If possible, the brass should be warm when it is applied.

English Are Fond of Tea.

In 1840 English people used 1 pound 3 ounces of tea a head. This has grown to 5 pounds 14 ounces.

starting in the feet or ankles comes from a weak or diseased heart—a heart that cannot keep up the circulation. The blood then settles in the lower limbs where the watery portions ooze out into surrounding tissues causing bloat and swelling. The heart must be strengthened and built up before the dropsy can be cured to stay; and the best of all heart medicines is Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I had palpitation, shortness of breath, pain in heart, swelling of feet and ankles, hungry spells and was confined to my bed and easy chair. A few bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure made me well."

Electric Railway Notes.

The D, Y., A. A. & J. track is now expected to be ready for the rolling stock by July 4.

Thus far there has been spent in the construction of the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co.'s line, between Detroit and Jackson, in the neighborhood of $400,000.

Dexter Leader: The Detroit & Chicago Traction Co. has taken up nearly all the options on land between Dexter and Ann Arbor, and is closing contracts as rapidly as possible.

All the men who were at work on the D., Y., A. A. & J. railway in and around Chelsea were sent eastward Tuesday. The men did not know where they were going and the bosses would not say.

The remodeled power house of the D., Y., A. A. & J. railway, at Ypsilanti, will be double the size of the present one when completed. It will include the present power house and will be 89x180 feet over all. There will be four batteries of two boilers each to run the plant.

The Jackson & Urban Traction Co. (Boland system) started line cars to Michigan Center, four miles east of Jackson, Saturday. The bridge material arrived Friday for the overhead crossing at Michigan Central tracks, so cars are promised to run to Grass Lake by June 1.

With only four improvised cars running to Michigan Center Sunday from Jackson, the electric railway people carried over 3,000 passengers, and many more were disappointed. Nine new cars, each capable of seating 90 passengers, have been ordered for this run, and part of the order may arrive this week. It will be June 1, however, before the permanent equipment will be in running shape.

At the meeting of the Ann Arbor common council Monday evening, a communication from J. D. Hawks, of the D., Y., A. A. & J. company, was read, saying the road was now completed to the city limits and asking that the location of the electric road on Jackson avenue and West Huron street be designated by the council. The matter was referred to a committee which reported at a special meeting held last night and the company can now go ahead with the work.

MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE.

Daily Summary of the Proceedings in Senate and House at the Forty-First Session.

Lansing, Mich., May 1.—The distinguishing feature of the senate yesterday was the passage of three bills the confessed purpose of which was to take from Mayor Maybury the control of the police, public works and parks and boulevards of Detroit by providing for the appointment by the common council of three heads of departments. Other bills have been passed to detach Calhoun county from the Fifth judicial circuit and make it the Thirty-seventh circuit; for uniform systems of accounting by county and city officers; to amend the general election law so as to provide separate ballots for constitutional amendments.

Lansing, Mich., May 2.—The senate committee on finance and appropriation has reported favorably the appropriation bill for the home for the feeble-minded. A resolution was passed calling upon the attorney general to give it a written opinion as to whether or not the state tax commission can force taxpayers to answer questions upon its tax blanks when such questions are not specified in the present general tax law.

Lansing, Mich., May 3.—The senate yesterday passed the Humphrey bill which provides such restrictions to govern the sale of intoxicating liquors by drug stores as to practically require druggists who sell liquors to take out a saloon license. The window display of liquors is prohibited. Other bills were passed exempting from taxation shares in foreign corporations owned by citizens of Michigan; providing for the survey of certain islands by the state land commissioner; providing a salary of $1,500 a year for the secretary of the senate and chief clerk of the house.

Lansing, Mich., May 7.—The senate transacted little business of importance.

Lansing, Mich., May 2.—The Detroit bonding bill has been passed by the house and given immediate effect after striking out that section permitting the exemption of special assessments in computing the bonding limit. The conference committee on the railroad tax bill held two fruitless sessions and adjourned until next Tuesday.

Lansing, Mich., May 4.—The house yesterday struck out all after the enacting clause in the bill to prohibit pharmacists from working more than ten hours in every 24; a bill was agreed to which permits reputable persons to carry concealed weapons by taking out a license from the chief of police or sheriff. A DOCTOR THIS TIME.

Portland, May 6.—Dr. E. A. Rose, a practicing physician, formerly of Yates Center, Kan., was on what everyone supposed was his death bed. He had Diabetes, and six of his brother doctors were in attendance and consultation at his bedside. They had done everything that medical skill could suggest to save his life, but they were at last reluctantly forced to tell him that he must prepare for death.

His aunt had been summoned to his dying bedside. After the doctors had given her nephew up, she insisted that as a last resort, he be given a treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

From the very first dose, the tide turned in his favor. His life was saved, and he is hale and hearty to-day.

This case and its cure has amazed the physicians, and is the sensation of the hour. It is interesting to note that while many others are being cured by this great discovery in medicine, the physicians themselves are among the first to benefit, and that while the simpler and more prevalent forms, such as Rheumatism, Sciatica, Bladder and Urinary Trouble and Female Weakness disappear before it, the more malignant forms, such as Bright's Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy, which have always been regarded as incurable, are yielding just as easily.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are fast superseding all other treatments for Kidney Disease, and as nearly all human sickness and suffering has its origin in the Kidneys, the use of this wonderful medicine is becoming almost universal.

"Don't Speak to me."

All manner of extravagant expressions are possible when a woman's nerves are overwrought.

The spasm at the top of the wind pipe or bronchial tubes, "ball rising in the throat," violent beating of the heart, laughing and crying by turns, muscular spasms (throwing the arms about), frightened by the most insignificant occurrences—are all symptoms of a hysterical condition and serious derangement of the female organs.

Any female complaint may produce hysterics, which must be regarded as a symptom only. The cause, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which acts at once upon the organ afflicted and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms.

Mrs. Lewis Says: "I Feel Like a New Person, Physically and Mentally."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For years I had ovarian trouble and suffered everything from nervousness, severe headache, and pain in back and abdomen. I had consulted different physicians, but decided to try your medicine, and I soon found it was giving me much relief. I continued its use and now am feeling like a new person, physically and mentally, and am glad to add one more testimonial to the value of your remedy."—MRS. M. H. LEWIS, 2108 Valentine Ave., Tremont, New York, N. Y.

Writing to Mrs. Pinkham is the quickest and surest way to get the right advice about all female troubles. Her address is Lynn, Mass. She advises women free. Following is an instance:

Mrs. Haven's First Letter to Mrs. Pinkham.

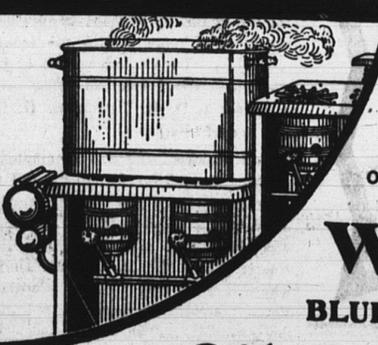

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I would like your advice in regard to my troubles. I suffer every month at time of menstruation, and flow so much and for so long that I become very weak, also get very dizzy. I am troubled with a discharge before and after menses, have pains in ovaries so bad sometimes that I can hardly get around, have sore feeling in lower part of bowels, pain in back, bearing-down feeling, a desire to pass urine frequently, with pains in passing it; have leucorrhoea, headache, fainting spells, and sometimes have hysteria. My blood is not in good condition. Hoping to hear from you, I am," MRS. EMMA HAVEN, 2508 South Ave., Council Bluffs, Iowa, (June 8, 1899.)

Mrs. Haven's Second Letter.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for what your medicine has done for me. I suffered for four years with womb trouble. Every month I flowed very badly. I got so bad that I could hardly do my work. Was obliged to sit or lie down the most of the time. I doctored for a long time, but obtained no relief. I began using your remedies—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier, Sensitive Wash and Liver Pills—and now feel like a new woman."—MRS. EMMA HAVEN, 2508 South Ave., Council Bluffs, Iowa. (Feb. 1, 1900.)

$5000 REWARD Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have, from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank, of Lynn, Mass., $5,000, which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonials are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writers' special permission.—LYDIA E. FOUND IN THE RIVER.

Bodies of Victims of Fire at Jacksonville Discovered.

Fleeing from Fierce Flames They Jump into the Water—Latest Estimate Places the Loss at $10,565,000.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 7. — The body of Harry Bonnetheau, a real estate dealer, was recovered Monday morning from the St. Johns. Mr. Bonnetheau's wife and son are supposed to be in New York city.

The bodies of two negroes were also recovered. All are victims of Friday's disastrous fire. There are many rumors of loss of life, but owing to the departure of thousands of people from the city it will be impossible for several days to verify the reports unless the bodies are found.

The newspapers have been asked to print numerous notices of inquiry regarding the whereabouts of missing people.

Late Estimate of Losses.

An estimate on the total loss by the fire as given out by a former tax collector Monday afternoon is as follows:

Public buildings, $1,058,000; stores, north side of Bay street, $495,000; stores, south side of Bay street, $880,000; stores, Forsyth street, $405,000; stores, Main street, $309,000; residences, prominent, $778,000; residences, 1,500 small, $2,000,000; residence personal effects, $2,300,000. Stocks of goods in stores, $1,530,000; stocks in 200 smaller stores, $550,000; street railways, $30,000; pavements, $100,000. Total, $10,565,000.

The river is being watched, everybody believing that the water will give up its dead on the third day. This indicates that many people believe that the fire drove bewildered men and women into the river. It is impossible to ascertain who is missing, as thousands have left the city.

Many Lost in River.

S. A. McCottery, who was employed at the Gardner shipyards, almost lost his life in trying to save the people who rushed down Market street to the river when the flames were at their fiercest. He says he succeeded in getting 20 persons across the river, but as many more were either burned to death or drowned at the pier.

"I had no idea the shipyard was in danger," said Mr. McCottery. "I was trying to save my tools as the fire was being blown to the east and away from the docks. Suddenly the flames shot across the yard with the wind from the west right behind them. I knew then everything was going. I fled from the building that was burning over my head."

"On the pier I saw a crowd of people. I am positive that 40 is a low estimate of those I saw. Of this number I saw only the 30 I carried across. There was absolutely no way of escape for them."

"After I had carried my boat half way across the river I heard many cries and shouts that seemed to come from the smoke at the pier. I know many were lost at that moment, for the flames were on all sides and the river in front."

Thousands of people worked Sunday and Sunday night. The firemen have not been relieved, because the debris is still burning and streams of water are being poured into the flames and embers all the time, night and day.

On every telegraph and telephone pole that was not destroyed linemen were at work. The trolley company has a large force of men at work, hanging feed wires and clearing the tracks, where the street was sufficiently cool, so as to establish cars as soon as possible. It will be several days before a car can pass into East Bay street. The number of military companies in the city to prevent vandalism is ten. A battery of guns is also in position at the corner of Bay and Market streets. These latter guns were rescued from the burning armory in which much of the equipment of the Jacksonville troops were lost.

INDIANA VOTES.

Towns and Villages of the Hoosier State Elect New Officials.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 7.—Elections were held in the villages and towns of Indiana Monday. The election generally was devoid of exciting interest, and in most of the towns where the elections were hotly contested local issues were at stake. Many citizens' and independent tickets were in the field. A light vote was polled almost generally throughout the state. Hazleton and Patoka elected entire democratic ticket; democrats at Dana elected majority of trustees, marshal and clerk; Versailles elected republican marshal, but balance ticket went to democrats; citizens' ticket successful at English and Crothersville; republicans carried Newport; Grosport elected three democratic councilmen, clerk and marshal, republicans one councilman and treasurer; Morris-town and Spiceland went republican; Rossville elected entire democratic ticket; republicans carried Pendleton; Michigantown, democratic; republicans at Kirklint elected clerk and five councilmen; all town officers of North Judson democrats except marshal and one councilman; Monon elected entire democratic ticket; Jonesville, Elizabethtown, Hartsville, Hope all went democratic; Nashville elected five democrats and five republicans.

Satisfied with His Hair.
Recently an old fellow with long chin whalers drove slowly up to McRobert's barber shop in McMillan street, near Kemper lane, Walnut Hills, and anxiously scanned the sign "Tonsorial Artists."
He alighted from his wagon, entered, unwrapped a long woollen comforter from about his neck and was soon planted in the depths of a chair.
McRoberts came at him, clipper in hand, and he opened his mouth wide.
"Set up straight!" commanded the barber, "if you want your hair cut."
"I don't want no hair cut," exclaimed the man in the chair; "I've got tonsillitis, an' I want my tonsorsials cut. I seen your sign: 'Tonsorial Artists,' an' I jest dropped in."
The astonished barber turned in his bewilderment to clear his throat before answering and swallowed a half pint of lather in a cup, mistaking it for water.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Career and Character of Abraham Lincoln.

An address by Joseph Choate, Ambassador to Great Britain, on the career and character of Abraham Lincoln—his early life—his early struggles with the world—his character as developed in the later years of his life and his administration, which placed his name so high on the world's roll of honor and fame, has been published by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway and may be had by sending six (6) cents in postage to F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill.

A Confidence Between Members.

"I understand," said one member of the legislature, "that the senator whom we recently elected was beset by footpads and robbed in Paris."

"Dear me!" answered the other member of the legislature. "Those Frenchmen have such a brutal and direct method of getting a man's money away from him."—Washington Star.

Can't Sleep?

Did you ever have that feeling of oppression, like a weight on your chest, or a load of cobblestones in your stomach, keeping you awake nights with a horrible sensation of anxiety, or tossing restlessly in terrible dreams, that make the cold perspiration break out all over you? That's insomnia, or sleeplessness, and some unfortunates suffer with it night after night, until their reason is in danger and they are on the edge of going mad. The cause of this fearful ailment is in the stomach and bowels, and a Cascaret taken at night will soon bring relief and give the sufferer sweet, refreshing sleep. Always insist on getting CASCARETS!

The humorous and unusual experiences in the life of a metropolitan clergyman are told by the Rev. David M. Steele, of New York City, who has just written about "Some People I Have Married," for the Ladies' Home Journal. Mr. Steele declares that the prospective bride is always nervous until the time for the marriage ceremony, when she is calm and collected. The groom is exactly the reverse; always cool until he comes to face the clergyman, when his nerves invariably give way.
