THE W. B. SMITH WILL CASH.

Its Provisions Will Be Hotly Contested by His Nephews and Nieces.

The contest over the will of William D. Smith, of Dexter, by the terms of which he left his estate of $12,000 unreservedly to his housekeeper Martha French, commenced in the probate court Friday. The contestants are Robert A. Smith, Grace Peterson, Alice Hewitt and Maud J. Smith, and they are contesting the will on the ground that it was made under the undue influence of Martha French.

The will was made June 1, 1897, four years ago. Attorney James T. Honey, of Dexter, drew the document which was witnessed by himself and Dr. E. F. Chase, Mr. Smith's medical attendant. Both gentlemen were put on the witness stand and testified that Mr. Smith was of sound mind and under no restraint whatever when he made the will. Dr. Chase further testified that Mr. Smith could not be influenced. It was on Dr. Chase's advice that Mr. Smith made the will, as he was suffering from a disease that might cause his death at any time.

An operation was performed on Mr. Smith June 7, 1901, two days prior to his death. Before the operation was performed Mr. Smith gave Miss French a check for $3,000 on the Dexter Savings Bank, which was transferred to Miss French's account after banking hours that day. Dr. Chase, in his evidence, testified that in giving the check to Miss French just before the operation, Mr. Smith, foreseeing the contest that would occur over his will, said to her: "Martha, I am going to give you this check of $3,000 so that you can defend my will if they make any contest, and if I live to get to Dexter I will make it $5,000 instead of $3,000."

The further hearing of the case was adjourned until Sept. 3.

HELD UP THE DEPUTIES.

Hoboes Got the Drop on Sheriff Gillen's Men and Took Their Guns Away.

Deputy Sheriffs Fred Gillen, Bert Gillen and George Fischer, of Ann Arbor, went out Tuesday afternoon to arrest three hoboes who were suspected of having robbed a railroad car at Howell. They overtook the fellows near the ice houses west of the M. C. depot and demanded of them where they came from. The hoboes allowed it was none of their business and whirled around on the astonished officers, who suddenly found themselves looking into the muzzles of revolvers. The tramps took away the guns carried by two of the deputies. Bert Gillen grappled the fellow who tackled him and both went into the river, but the third tramp poked his gun in the officer's face and ordered him to let go. Only two of the deputies had revolvers, and the hoboes got the drop on them so that they could not use them.

Four hoboes, including one who wore patent leather shoes, were picked up at Stockbridge yesterday. Deputy Fred Gillen went there today to see if they include the three who held up the officers.

DEATH OF T. J. FALLEN.

An Old Resident of Chelsea Passes Away in Detroit.

Timothy J. Fallen, an old and well known former resident of Chelsea, died in Detroit Thursday, after a brief illness, of congestion of the brain brought on through becoming overheated. Mr. Fallen was born in county Roscommon, Ireland, in 1835. He came to America with his parents in 1849 and the family settled in Lyndon. He learned the carpenter's trade and after his marriage to Miss Rose Young he came to Chelsea to reside and worked here at his trade for 30 years. In 1888 he went to Detroit to live and had been there since that time. Mrs. Fallen died in 1890. Five children survive him, George, of Pittsburg, Pa., Thomas M. and Arthur, of Wheeling, W. Va., Edward and Josephine, who live with their grandmother Mrs. Thomas Young, of Lyndon. The remains were brought here Saturday. The funeral services were held at St. Mary's church, Rev. W. P. Conside officiating. Interment was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Electric Railway Notes.

Eleven carloads of steel and three carloads of poles for the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co.'s line have been received at Dexter.

It is expected to finish the grading of the Detroit & Chicago Traction Co.'s line between Chelsea, Dexter and the Scio township line this week. Ten wheel scrapers and from 40 to 50 teams are at work.

The Jackson and Suburban Traction Co. has voluntarily raised the pay of its motormen and conductors from 15 cents to 17 1/2 cents per hour. The company is arranging a park at Michigan Center for the use of the public.

The Boland syndicate are hustling things in the vicinity of Plymouth. There arrived there for them this week 700 tons of steel rails, and large quantities of ties. They recently purchased a five-acre tract of land near the power house for storage purposes.

The Detroit & Chicago Traction Co. is desirous of changing the route of its line through the north side of Ann Arbor. Instead of going up the steep hills on Broadway, it would like to skirt round the hill by way of Mill street. The residents along Broadway object to any such change, but there are many others who would like to see the change made.

One of the Detroit dailies speaking of the sale of the Detroit, Rochester, Romeo & Lake Orion electric railway and the Detroit, Utica & Romeo line to the Everett-Moore syndicate, says as follows: "The sale of the above two electric roads to the United Railway of Detroit leaves only one line running into that city that has not yet been purchased, and that one is the Detroit, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor & Jackson line. This line is under an option and it is understood that Everett and Moore and Hawks & Angus have an understanding as to the terms of the sale. The Boland line which has franchises for entrance into Detroit, it is understood, will not join the consolidated company under any consideration."

The Detroit & Chicago Traction Co. has asked the township of Springwells to amend the franchise granted by it to the Detroit, Plymouth & Northville road, which has been acquired by the Traction Co. The company wants the provision of the franchise wherein the company was to establish lights at road and street intersections stricken out; also that portion of the franchise making it obligatory on the part of the company to give transfers to any other railway in the township. It was also asked by the company that two more months be given to start the work on the tracks and that the company be given the right to run through cars through the township. The board set July 24 as the date when the requests will be considered.

BIG STRIKE BEGINS.

Employees of Big Steel Plants Obey Orders to Quit Work.

It is Estimated That 74,000 Men Are Out, and the Number Will Be Swelled to Much Larger Proportions.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 16.—Reports received from all sources connected with the great strike of the steel workers indicate that the members of the Amalgamated association had matters well in hand and that the strike order was generally obeyed. Telegrams from various points where the mills of the American Tin Plate company, the American Steel Hoop company and the American Sheet Steel company are located, told of the shutting down of these plants in large numbers. In many cases the plants had been shut down by the first strike order which affected the sheet steel and the steel hoop companies only. The last order brought out all of the union plants of the American Tin Plate company with the single exception of the new mill in Monessen, which is still running. At the Amalgamated association headquarters it was stated that the figures given out Saturday night regarding the number of men who would be actually idle in the mills of the three companies had been proven correct. This number was placed at 74,000.

Fifty-four or 55 plants of the three steel companies against which the initial movement is directed were closed Monday.

If a settlement of the trouble is not speedily reached the order for suspension of work will unquestionably be extended to members of the association throughout the United States, directly affecting 300,000 men.

Will Be Costly.

The stationary firemen, actuated by a grievance entirely apart from the steel workers', have decided to strike to-day, and this will enforce idleness upon 450,000 men in the coal regions.

If the differences between employe and employer are not therefore settled without delay it is estimated that a few weeks from now will find 1,000,000 men unemployed. The cost of such a strike is conservatively placed at $3,000,000 a day.

Pittsburgh But Little Affected.

The strike, although one of the greatest that has been declared in recent years, will affect Pittsburgh but slightly. Despite the fact that this city is, and for years has been, the recognized industrial center of the world, President Shaffer's action in calling the men of the American Sheet Steel, American Tin Plate and American Steel Hoop companies out on strike, will have but little bearing on the commercial life of Pittsburgh.

This is a peculiar fact, but it is nevertheless true. Of the 74,000 men idle, 2,500 are in Pittsburgh, 800 in Allegheny and 1,500 in McKeesport.

President Shaffer has it in his power to close many more Pittsburgh mills, but it is not thought that he will do anything of a radical nature until he is compelled to.

Reports Show Extent of Strike.

Reports received at Amalgamated headquarters:

Every steel hoop plant in Pittsburgh excepting the William Clark's Sons company is idle, and all the sheet mills have closed down. Only one tin plate mill in this district is in operation. The Labelle tin plate works and the Aetna-Standard plant at Bridgeport, O.; Cambridge (O.) plant and Greenville (Pa.) works are all shut down. The Aetna-Standard company employs 3,000 men and the Cambridge company 800 men, and they are all out.

At Newcastle, Pa., 1,200 amalgamated tin workers are idle, and when stocks now on hand are used up the other employes will have to quit and 3,500 will be idle.

There are practically no new developments in the strike situation at the Wellsville (O.) plant. All the men employed in the mill except 15 have joined the Amalgamated association. Orders were given to start the works at one o'clock Monday morning, and the fires were not enough men reported for duty to man a single crew. The effort to run the mill has been abandoned for the present.

New Philadelphia, O.—Three hundred and fifty employes of the New Philadelphia rolling mill are idle. The Amalgamated association lodge with 200 members is resolved to stand by Shaffer.

Carnegie, Pa.—No attempt was made to start work at the Charters steel works in Carnegie, as the mill is well organized, about 200 of the employes belonging to the Amalgamated association.

Scottsdale, Pa.—All departments of the Scottsdale and Old Meadow rolling mill at this place are running full and there is every indication that they will continue to run for an indefinite period. The officials here have little fear that the personal agreement entered into by the men will be broken.

Johnstown, Pa.—Now that the great strike is on it has developed that considerably more than half of the 12,000 employes of the Cambria Steel company in this city are members of the Amalgamated association, the mass of them being members of Pittsburgh lodges. The Cambria mills are non-union and it was believed until Monday that they would not be affected by the strike. Prominent steel workers here say, however, that if President Shaffer calls on the men here to go out the entire plant of the Cambria company will be tied up.

McKeesport, Pa.—There was no excitement in McKeesport on account of the strike. W. Dewees Wood and the United States Tin Plate plants are idle and no attempt was made to resume work at either plant during the day. The men are looking for an early settlement.

Supreme Court Sustains the Foot-Ease Trade-Mark.

Justice Laughlin, in the supreme court, Buffalo, has ordered a permanent injunction, with costs and a full accounting of sales, to issue against Paul B. Hudson, the manufacturer of the foot powder called "Dr. Clark's Foot Powder," and also against a retail dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making or selling the Dr. Clark's Foot Powder, which is declared, in the opinion of the court, an imitation and infringement of "Foot-Ease," the powder to shake into your shoes, now so largely advertised and sold over the country. Allen S. Olmsted, of Leroy, N. Y., is the owner of the trade-mark "Foot-Ease," and he is the first individual who ever advertised a foot powder extensively over the country. The decision in this case upholds his trade-mark and renders all parties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease" advertising, in placing upon the market a spurious and similar appearing preparation, labeled and put up in envelopes and boxes like Foot-Ease. Similar suits will be brought against others who are now infringing on the Foot-Ease trade mark and common law rights.

SEASONABLE SUGGESTIONS.

The pain resulting from the sting of a bee may be instantly relieved by applying a small piece of raw onion to the affected part.

Persons who are troubled with prickly heat will experience great relief if the parts affected are dusted over three or four times a day with common rye flour.

A glass of milk to which has been added a raw egg beaten light, a little sugar and grated nutmeg will relieve the physical exhaustion so often experienced in warm weather.

Tan may be removed from the face and hands by mixing magnesia in soft water to the consistency of paste, which should then be spread on and allowed to remain for a minute or two; then wash off with castile-soap suds and rinse in soft water.

WONDERFUL CASE IN INDIANA.

Buck Creek, Ind., July 15th.—Mrs. Elizabeth Rorick, of this place, had Rheumatism. She says: "All the doctors told me they could do nothing for me." She was very, very bad, and the pain was so great that she could not sleep at night.

She used Dodd's Kidney Pills, and she is well and entirely free from pain or any symptom of the Rheumatism.

"Are you still using Dodd's Kidney Pills?" was asked.

"No, I stopped the use of the Pills some time ago, and have not had the slightest return of my old trouble. I am sure I am completely and permanently cured."

Many in Tippecanoe County, who have heard of Mrs. Rorick's case and her cure by Dodd's Kidney Pills, are using the Pills, and all report wonderful results.

VISIT THEIR ALMA MATER

Graduates and Former Students of the University of Michigan Come Sight-Seeing.

FIND GREAT CHANGES HAVE BEEN MADE

Regents Hold Their Monthly Meeting and Transact Business—Plans for a Graduate Course in Medicine—Other Notes and Comments of More or Less Interest.

[Special Correspondence.]

University of Michigan, July 15.—The past week, except for the large number of visitors, was a quiet one. In the literary department work was continued but three days, Wednesday and Friday being given to those who desired to attend the annual meeting of the National Educational association and instructors attended one or more sessions of this meeting, as did also a large number of the students. The work in the medical and law departments was continued, regardless of educational meetings.

The Visitors.

The visitors of the week were mostly from the Detroit meeting. Graduates and former students who had not been on the campus for five, ten and twenty years, finding themselves so near as Detroit, could not resist the opportunity to visit their alma mater. They walked over the campus and noted the buildings that had been erected since they were students; they visited University hall and saw the great Columbian organ; they went to the museum, to the art gallery and the gymnasium. Once in the gymnasium they discovered some room or corner of the campus which had not been changed since their departure and were glad to find that the great institution had not entirely outgrown them in its forward march.

Regents' Meeting.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of regents the bids for the erection of the new medical building were opened. The contract, however, was not let, owing to the fact that the bids were so differently made out that it was almost impossible to determine which was the lowest. All bids were referred back to the contractors, with the request that they be made out to conform to the specifications. Among the other matters disposed of was the ordering of two large light pressure boilers for the power house. The past winter it was a hard tug to generate steam when a long cold spell came. The new boiler will relieve the difficulty for the next season. The regents also appointed an instructor in forestry for next year.

Graduate Course in Medicine.

The professors of the homeopathic department are planning for a graduate course in medicine to be given during the latter part of October and the early part of November. The special work will be largely clinical in character. It will be of such a nature as to prove valuable to the physician who has been out of college for some years, but is anxious to learn the very latest methods employed in operating.

Goes to Minnesota.

Prof. William H. Munson, who has charge of the work of biology in the summer session in the literary department, has accepted a position in Minnesota university for next year. For the past nine years he has been connected with Hillsdale college. He is an alumnus of this institution and has been connected with the summer sessions for some years past.

Will Visit Vienna.

Dr. Royal S. Copeland, of the homeopathic department, is preparing to attend the great international medical meeting in Vienna. He sails in less than a week and will be absent for the remainder of the summer. Before returning he will visit England.

R. H. E.

Warm Welcome.

After serving two years with the Forty-seventh volunteer infantry in the Philippines, Samuel Darr and Ira Robinson reached Hudson, 40 days after leaving Manila. Both young men live in Medina township and enlisted at Adrian in 1899. Their return was the cause of a happy demonstration at their country home, everybody turning out to welcome them.

First in the County.

At the annual school election in North Muskegon, Miss Tillie Moran was elected a member of the school board. Miss Moran has been a teacher in the North Muskegon schools for several years and is the first woman to be elected to this office in Muskegon county.

Distributing Manuals.

The Michigan Manuals for 1901 are being distributed by the secretary of state as fast as delivered from the bindery. The book contains the usual information and is a valuable one. Thirty thousand was the order given the printers for this year's delivery, 2,000 less than last year.

BIG JOB FOR CLERKS.

Examination of Delinquent Tax Registers Will Keep Them Busy for the Next Six Months.

Half a dozen clerks in the auditor general's office will have a busy time for the next six months. Their work will consist in an examination of the delinquent tax registers for the several counties of the state for a period of 60 years. Every description of land that has ever been returned to the auditor general for nonpayment of taxes must be examined, and the fact noted whether or not moneys paid by the purchasers in cases where the property was redeemed by the owner have ever been restored to the payer.

The action has been made necessary by the enterprise of D. W. Closser, of Ann Arbor, who was formerly a clerk in this department, and who has made an examination of a large number of the registers of more recent dates and has sent out postal cards to persons having credits on the books offering for a compensation, generally about 25 per cent. of the amount due, to furnish the data necessary to prove up the claim and collect the money.

CARRIED OFF HIS SONS.

Chicagoan Kidnaps Them from Their Mother in St. Joseph and Whereabouts Are Unknown.

Mrs. Andrew Countryman, who has made her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Brunt, in St. Joseph, has lost her two children—Albert, aged eight years, and Lawrence, aged five—who are believed to have been taken by their father. In 1892 Rachel Van Brunt was married to Andrew Countryman, of Chicago. They moved to Chicago, where they lived happily until last October, when, owing to domestic troubles, they separated. Mrs. Countryman returned to St. Joseph with the children, while the husband remained in Chicago, where he has been employed in the Union stock yards for years. On the morning of July 4 the two children were playing in front of the grandparents' residence at breakfast time. They disappeared. The same afternoon the children were seen with their father at the Pere Marquette depot by James Van Brunt, brother of Mrs. Countryman. It is now believed the father returned with the children to Chicago by rail.

FINDS A NEW HOME.

Battle Creek Adventist College to Enter Berrien Springs Despite Village's Opposition.

After several months' negotiations, and at one time a flat refusal by the village board to allow the institution admittance into the town, the Battle Creek college has succeeded in locating in Berrien Springs by the purchase of the Frank Richardson and the Garland farms of 204 acres. When completed the new college will be the largest in southwestern Michigan. The grounds have a natural slope toward the St. Joseph river, and cannot be equaled in the state. The new buildings will accommodate 1,500 students. The college is of the Adventist denomination. The reason of the removal from Battle Creek is that the present college is too small.

GROWS PEARLS IN CLAMS.

A Buchanan Chemist Has Discovered a New Process Which He Claims Is Successful.

Walter Voorhees, a chemist at Buchanan, on the St. Joseph river, has discovered a process by which he takes clams from the river, inserts between the shells a hard foreign substance, returns the shells to the water and in the course of time produces pearls of fine quality and great perfection of shape. From three to five years are required for the process. He has over 200 clams now at work, and expects to very largely increase the number. Mr. Voorhees shows pearls that have resulted from his process.

After the Druggists.

The Bay County Medical society is after some of the druggists of the Bay counties, whom they charge with practicing medicine in opposition to the sobriety registered practitioners. The society has voted to have circulars printed and sent to every druggist in the county to the effect that the practice will not be allowed any longer, and will not be discovered will be reported to the board of health and prosecutions started.

Sent to Reform School.

In the circuit court at Traverse City Jennie Hammett, a 15-year-old girl, was sentenced to the reform school at Adrian. The girl lived in Kingsley and was neglected by her people, who allowed her to shift for herself. Her offense was obstructing the track of the G. R. & I. railroad. She placed iron G. R. & I. railroad, she placed the coupling pins on the track, causing the derailing of an engine of a passenger train and a narrow escape from a serious disaster.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Supreme Court Says Children Cannot Be Kept from School Because They Are Not Vaccinated.

The question of the right of a school board to exclude pupils from school if they are not vaccinated was passed upon by the supreme court in the case of George R. Matthews against the Kalamazoo board of education. Matthews procured a mandamus from the circuit court compelling the board to permit his children to attend school, and the action of the circuit judge is sustained by the supreme court, which says that the rule of the board practically compels vaccination, since the law compels children to attend school. The court says if the rule was that during the prevalence of smallpox in Kalamazoo the pupil could not attend school unless vaccinated, a different result would be reached, but as these epidemics never last very long, the standing rule of the board that no person unless vaccinated can attend school at any time is beyond the power of the board to prescribe. The question has never been raised in Michigan before, and two of the justices, Long and Grant, were in favor of sustaining the board's action. The prevailing opinion, by Judge Moore, says the legislature has provided who shall and who shall not attend school, and it has nowhere undertaken to confer power on school boards to change the conditions. The court holds that temporarily, during an epidemic, the board may exclude persons temporarily who have not been vaccinated, but this cannot be done where no epidemic of contagious disease exists or is imminent.

FINDS GOLDEN CRUCIFIX.

Workmen at Frankfort Digs Up Relic Supposed to Have Been Buried with Body of Marquette.

Great excitement prevailed in Frankfort over the finding of a golden crucifix by a workman at the new hotel. The crucifix, which is 11 inches in length, the cross, five inches at arms, is mounted on a base two inches square, is heavily plated with gold and believed by some to have been the property of Father Marquette, said to have been buried in Frankfort 225 years ago.

History states Marquette was buried four streams south of Little Traverse bay, otherwise Betsay river, which forms the harbor at Frankfort. The crucifix is of French origin. It is now in possession of Charles Hoertz, who has expressed his intention of sending it to the Kent county historical collection at Grand Rapids. This find is regarded as corroborative of the claim that a skull unearthed in Frankfort some time ago is that of Father Marquette.

BODY IDENTIFIED.

St. Joseph Young Woman Recognizes Corpse of Former Sailor as That of Her Fiance.

A body that was taken from the lake at East Tawas has been identified by Miss Louisa Heigler, of St. Joseph, as that of her fiance, George A. Scott, who was drowned on the Baltimore May 24.

Miss Heigler formerly lived in Chicago, and after keeping company with Scott for a year and a half became engaged to marry him the night before he sailed on the Baltimore. They were to have been married this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, the parents of the sailor, formerly lived in Chicago, but are now residents of Detroit.

Honors to Dead Heroes.

That Port Huron's dead volunteer soldiers of the Spanish-American war are not forgotten was manifested by the beautiful service of the unveiling at the Guards' armory of the pictures of five of the heroes who were the city's first offering on the country's altar. Those whose memory was thus honored were J. Charles Phillips, Fred G. Cuykendall, Clark W. Washburne, William Ross and Herbert Darr, whose lives were sacrificed in the Cuban campaign.

Explains His Absence.

Millionaire Charles W. Wright, who was paroled by Gov. Pingree, reported at the governor's office. The occasion of his first visit demonstrated his high sense of duty. Under his parole he was not permitted to leave the state, but recently he was called to Wisconsin by the death of his brother. He made his visit as short as possible, and upon his return promptly notified the governor of what he had done.

Raising Mink.

Otto Frohner, a well-known painter in Muskegon, has established a unique industry at his home on Terrace street. It is a mink farm. Mr. Frohner has three mink and intends adding others. If the venture proves a financial success the farm will be much enlarged. Mr. Frohner secured his mink from some trout fishers who captured them. The fur of the animals is valuable.

YOUNG GIRLS OF COREA.

Their Education Consists of the Ordinary Domestic Accomplishments and Nothing Else.

Marriage does not bring happiness to girls in Corea any more than to those in other parts of the far east. When young a girl is allowed a freedom which is denied her later, and it is not till she attains the dignity of being a mother-in-law that she begins to enjoy life again.

The daughter of a Corean house is of little consequence, while a son is of great importance, and his advent into the family circle is always welcomed with joy. When very young the boys and girls play together, but when they reach the age of eight or ten a great distinction is made. In the families of wealth, where none of the women of the family are obliged to do any of the housework or toil in the fields, the daughters are secluded in the part of the house reserved for the women, into which no men are allowed to enter. Their brothers dwell in the men's apartments, where they are free to do what they please.

Education in Corea is provided to a certain extent for the boys and young men, but it is almost an unheard-of thing for a girl to be allowed to learn anything outside of the purely domestic accomplishments. The girl is a mere chattel; she is not even considered a unit of society. As an illustration of how far this idea is carried it is interesting to note that the girl has literally no name. When she is a mere child a surname is given to her for convenience, but when she marries she gives it up and merges her identity in that of her husband. Her parents call her by the ward or district in which she contracted her marriage; her parents-in-law call her by the name of the village from which she has come. Later on, when she has children, she is named the "Mother of So and So."

It is safe to say that the small Corean girl does not appreciate the blessings of her childhood until she grows up. That many of them are capable of a much broader existence has been proved by some women missionaries in southern Corea who have made experiments in their education. They built a bungalow in the midst of the old city of Fusan, and lived right among the people, learning to know them in their homes. It was not long before their attention was attracted to the pitiful case of a little orphan girl, and they decided to take her in and care for her. Soon they heard of others, and the little band increased until it numbered seven or eight. They hired native teachers, both men and women, the latter giving the children lessons in sewing, cooking, and all the other branches of industry with which Corean custom demanded that they should be familiar, and the former teaching reading and writing in both Corean and Chinese.

This was a great innovation, and the result of it was watched with great interest. The little girls proved themselves quite unhandicapped by the suppression which their sex had undergone for centuries, and learned with greater facility than the small boys. They developed many lovable traits of character, the most distinctive of which was their thoughtfulness of each other.

In Corea there is a special dress for every particular occasion, and the little girls who correspond to our bridesmaids are clothed in a way fearful and wonderful to behold; but their everyday dress is simple and hygienic enough to meet with the approval of the most ardent dress reformer. In appearance the girls and women of Corea are often attractive. Their black hair grows very thick, their eyes are bright and intelligent, and their rather swarthy cheeks are tinged with a color which may be artificial, but is often the sign of robust health. —N. Y. Tribune.

MODEL CHINA CLOSET.

Some Excellent Suggestions for the Safe-Keeping of Cut Glass and Delicate Porcelains.

The china-closet in many houses is built into the wall. This disposes of location. Home-makers have to accept the goods and the ill the landlords provide, but wherever located it is imperative to have good shelves and plenty of them. Very many built-in closets have shelves much too far apart. But it is sometimes possible to make the high shelves answer by putting screw hooks all over the undersides and hanging there cups and mugs, little pitchers, etc. Hang the saucers against the wall back of the cups by means of flat wire china racks. There may be a double or even a treble row of the racks. In filling them study colors as much as possible. With saucers of various sizes put the biggest at the bottom, unless such placing ruins the closet color-scheme.

Well arranged, and full of handsome wares, a china-closet is among the best ornaments of a dining-room. Tint the walls to match the general tone of the room, or else cover them with a very thin, hardwood veneer, accurately fitted and tacked in place with the smallest-sized brads. Varnish the veneer, and keep clean by weekly wiping with a soft cloth wrung very dry out of tepid water.

Leave the shelf surfaces plain and cover them with linen, cut to fit, and ornament with a line of drawn work. Heavy butchers' linen is best, though the soft-toned art linens may be effectively used. Set one shelf apart for glasses, preferably the upper one. Cut the linen for it twice the shelf width, hem it all around, then double it. Thus there is a light pad all over the shelf. It can be kept as fresh as the single covers, and will safeguard glass.

With a crowded glass shelf, put down small pieces first, inverting them, then turn bigger pieces over them, taking care that they do not touch. But before risking a big bowl thus upon its own margin, it is well to test it, and see if it presses equally all around. The slightest inequality may mean destruction.

Pressed glass and colored glass may be piled together with comparative impunity. But if when the pile is jarred any piece in it gives out a harsh rattle, it is wise to recast it. The rattle portends breakage, since it shows that something presses unevenly. Slender-stemmed wine glasses look pretty tied in clusters of three, the stems crossed and suspended by bright ribbons from screw hooks in the top. They need not hang low enough to menace other things. Claret jugs can be likewise hung, and other flat things may go in racks across the back. In that case the back needs a padded linen, like the shelf proper. Test hanging things by setting them swinging, so as to make certain they will not strike anything else.

Keep plates carefully sorted, and piled size and pattern together. Give big platters room upon the lowermost shelf. If it is not properly grooved, tack strips of lath along it, and cut the linen for it wide enough to go in and out. Stand the platters on edge, the biggest next the wall, graduating them toward the front. With a very high shelf space they look prettier on end, the highest in the middle, and getting lower toward the ends. Hand-some covered dishes are best set in a row in front of the flat ones. Use judgment and an eye for color in all placings. A small, clear yellow bit against a background of dull blue illumines everything around it.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty, of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was yellow jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by Glazier & Stimson, druggists.

FEW GREEKS IN GREECE.

Most of the Present Inhabitants of That Country Are of Slavonic Origin.

Greece died because the men who made her glory had all passed away and left none of their kin, and therefore none of their kind. "Tis Greece, but living Greece no more," for the Greek of to-day, for the most part, never came from the loins of Leonidas or Miltiades. He is the son of the stable boys and scullions and slaves of the day of her glory, those of whom imperial Greece could make no use of in her conquest of Asia.

"Most of the old Greek race," says Mr. W. H. Ireland, "has been swept away and the country is now inhabited by persons of Slavonic descent. Indeed, there is strong ground for the statement that there was more of the old heroic blood of Hellas in the Turkish army of Edhem Pasha than in the soldiers of King George, who fled before them three years ago." King George himself is only an alien placed on the Grecian throne to suit the convenience of the outside powers, which to the ancient Greeks were merely factions of barbarians, says David

THE OHIO PLATFORM.

Mr. Bryan Points Out What Appeals to Him to Be Mistakes of Its Builders.

Lincoln, Neb., July 16.—In extended comment on the platform adopted by the Ohio democratic convention, W. J. Bryan criticizes the convention for its failure to reaffirm the Kansas City platform and for what he regards as the weakness of some of the planks it did adopt. Mr. Bryan insists the convention made a mistake in making himself (Bryan) an issue, and says:

"Mr. Bryan is not a candidate for any office, and a mention of him might have been construed by some as an endorsement of him for office. The vote should have been upon the naked proposition to indorse the platform of last year, and then no one could have excused his abandonment of democratic principles by pleading his dislike for Mr. Bryan."

Referring to the platform, he continues:

"The convention not only failed, but refused to indorse or reaffirm the Kansas City platform, and, from the manner in which the gold element has rejoiced over this feature of the convention, one would suppose that the main object of the convention was not to write a new platform, but to repudiate the one upon which the last national campaign was fought."

"The gold papers assume that the convention refused to adopt the Kansas City platform because it contained a silver plank. If so, it would have been more courageous to have declared openly for the gold standard. If the gold standard is good it ought to have been indorsed—if bad, it ought to have been denounced. To ignore the subject entirely was inexcusable."

"The money question is not yet out of politics. Every session of congress will have to deal with it. Republicans declare that it is dead, but they keep working at it."

Mr. Bryan commends parts of the platform, especially those referring to state and municipal affairs. He indorses the nominees of the convention and urges their support.

Referring to the senatorial fight and the reported candidacy of John R. McLean, he says:

"Did the leaders ignore the money question in order to please those who bolted? Or does Mr. McLean want to be left free to affiliate with the republican financial questions in case of his election?"

He concludes as follows:

"If any of the Ohio democrats feel aggrieved because the reorganizing element of the party triumphed at the convention let them not visit their disappointment upon the state ticket, but rather see to the nominations of senators and representatives who will select a trustworthy senator. Let them see to it also that the state platform is made at the primaries next time rather than at the convention."

DEADLY THUNDERBOLT.

Lightning at Newcomerstown, O., Kills Three and Injures Two Other Persons.

Columbus, O., July 16.—A special to the Ohio State Journal from Newcomerstown, O., says: During a heavy storm Monday afternoon lightning struck a straw shed on the farm of Mrs. C. McMacklin, about one mile north of town, instantly killing Mrs. James Huff, her daughter, Mrs. Thornton, and the latter's four-year-old daughter. Mrs. Huff's daughter Myrtle, aged 16, and another child of Mrs. Thornton, aged about seven, were seriously injured. The party had been blackberrying and took shelter during the rain under the shed. The shed was knocked down by lightning and the entire party was buried under the chaff and straw for two hours or more, until some parties near by were attracted by calls for help from those who escaped death.

VOLCANO SPREADS DEATH.

Eruption on Island of Java Causes Loss of Nearly a Thousand Lives.

Tacoma, Wash., July 16.—Oriental advices give details of a terrible destruction of human life which occurred in northern Java last month by a sudden and terrific outburst of the volcano. Kiloet. For 50 miles around all the coffee plantations and other estates were destroyed by showers of ashes and stones, together with great streams of lava and hot mud. Several hundred natives and a number of Europeans perished.

The lava also consumed the superintendent of the estate and about 25 coolies. Many coffee estates in the neighborhood were destroyed. The country around was strewn with corpses.

Ambassador White's Plans.

Berlin, July 16.—The Kleine Journal prints a letter from United States Ambassador White to the editor of that paper, in which Mr. White says he will go to the United States in September to visit his family. Whether or not he will remain in Berlin, he writes, depends upon various considerations, particularly the status of certain questions between Germany and the United States, which, doubtless, will occupy the reichstag at its next session.

Couldn't Pay Its Debts.

Boston, July 16.—A petition in bankruptcy was filed Monday by Stephen M. Marshall, secretary of the Tenth congressional republican district committee of 1898. The debts of the committee are shown to amount to about $800. This is the first time since the passage of the new bankruptcy law that a campaign committee's debts have found their way into a bankruptcy court.

IN THE WORLD OF LETTERS.

"Magic and Religion," Andrew Lang's latest book, just published, is a volume of essays on subjects already familiar to those who follow Mr. Lang's writings.

Grand Duke Karl Alexander of Saxe Weimar, as a young man, saw a great deal of Goethe. Shortly before his death he dictated his recollections, and they will be published by the Goethe society.

Mrs. Voynich, the author of "The Gaffly" and of the new novel, "Jack Raymond," is married to a Russian refugee who escaped from Siberia after some extraordinary adventures. It is not generally known that Mrs. Amelia Barr's eldest daughter is the wife of Kirk Munroe, the popular author of juvenile books. Mrs. Munroe is said to very much resemble her mother in personal appearance.

An Emphatic Touch.

The man who lives in a flat and is often annoyed by the violent piano playing of his otherwise agreeable neighbor of the floor below remarked to his wife the other day: "That Smith downstairs would make an elegant carpet beater."

"Why?" asked his wife. "Oh, he has the regular carpet beater's touch," replied her husband.—N. Y. Times.

The Bright Side. "It is said that lobsters will be extinct in 25 years," remarked Hiland. "Oh, well," replied Haket, who is very fond of lobster, "let us not worry about it. Let us look on the bright side. We may all die before that time."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

LAMP CHIMNEYS.

Made in This Country by Millions Annually For Home Use and Export.

"The lamp chimney," said a man acquainted with the trade, "seems a simple sort of thing, but there are not many things of more common use the world over, and in the aggregate the number sold is enormous. In this country there are 12,000 men and boys employed in making lamp chimneys, and the chimneys produced number millions annually. The greater number are now made west of the Alleghany mountains in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, where the majority of the glass works of the country are located,
many of them in the natural gas regions.

"The first glass works in the country were established in Boston, and formerly the glass making industry was principally in the east. Now there are not nearly so many glass factories here as there once were.

"One not familiar with the business might be surprised with the great variety in which lamp chimneys are made.
Lamps are made in these days in very great variety by many makers, and of course there are made chimneys suitable for all of them. There is one American lamp chimney maker who, counting sizes and styles, produces 600 varieties. Among the great variety of chimneys made there are some that are of common use everywhere, and then there are some that are specially suited to demands in this or that part of the country and are not in demand in other parts.

"Lamp chimneys are not only made in far greater variety than formerly, to fit perfectly every sort of lamp, but they are also made better than ever. In fact, lamp chimneys have advanced with everything else. But enormous and increasing as the production is, the demand scarcely keeps pace with the increase in the population, this being especially true of cities in which gas is more and more used and here in New York, for instance, by users through slot gas machines, which have some influence on the sale of lamp chimneys.
Still the number of lamps used here is enormous. There are plenty of people burning gas, for instance, who have as well three or four lamps, and the number of people here who use lamps alone for the purpose of illumination is very great. There are used in New York and its vicinity millions of lamp chimneys annually.

"There are received in this city from western manufacturers for domestic consumption I suppose about four carloads of chimneys weekly, running from 1,500 to 2,000 dozen chimneys to the car. These are sold to jobbers, who distribute them through their trade to customers in the city and hereabout and to customers at greater or less distances away. Perhaps half of these chimneys or rather more are used in the city or within 50 miles of it. To the chimneys thus brought here are to be added those produced here, the eastern chimneys being made chiefly for the local trade and for export.

"We import a few lamp chimneys of the cheapest and of the best grades, the cheap chimney from Germany and the costlier from France, but these imports cut only a small figure in the total consumption, and we export lamp chimneys in great quantities. We send very few to Europe, though we do sell them some of our best chimneys. But outside of Europe we sell lamp chimneys everywhere. We come into competition in some parts of the world with the Germans, who make chimneys very cheaply, but our exports are increasing, and we send chimneys, as I said, everywhere—to Mexico, the West Indies, South America, South Africa, China—in fact, to all lands in which lamps are used, all around the earth."—New York Sun.

Brought to Reason.
He was out walking with a young lady who had a decided antipathy to cigarettes, but not being aware of her prejudice he lighted one of the little rolls and began smoking with great gusto, inhaling the fumes deep into his lungs and then blowing great rings up at the moon, which gazed tranquilly down on his folly.

Offended by his presumption, she said, with dangerous urbanity:
"Do you know, I can read fortunes in cigarette smoke?"

"Indeed!" exclaimed the unsuspecting youth. "Perhaps you'll condescend to read mine."
"Oh, certainly, if you wish it."
Then she gazed up in the air at the delicate blue wreaths of smoke. She hesitated, evidently puzzled about something.

"I am undecided which of two things is to befall you," she admitted. "Your fortune is not so easily read as I fancied it would be."
"What are the two things?"
"Why, I can't determine whether you are marked out for the lung disease or lunacy," was the answer. "Cigarettes have such diverse effects on people of your temperament."

A moment later the cigarette lay glimmering in the gutter, and the fortune teller was listening to her escort's embarrassed apologies. — Memphis
