A LARGE APPORTIONMENT.

The Schools of Washtenaw County Get $25,699.80 from the Primary School Fund.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Delos Fall on Monday distributed among the schools of the state the largest sum of money ever distributed by the department of public instruction. The amount was $1,530,799.20, and Washtenaw's share of the bunch was $25,699.80. The cause of such a large amount being available for distribution is the increase in the specific taxes collected and placed to the credit of the primary school fund.

Of the amount apportioned to this county the townships in this section receive as follows: Dexter, 186 children, $309.60; Freedom, 418, $877.80; Lima, 277, $581.70; Lyndon, 223, $468.30; Sharon, 285, $598.50; Sylvan, 651, $1,867.10. The apportionment is made on the basis of $2.10 for each child between the age of 5 and 20 years.

Nothing Competes With Them.

The best is not only the cheapest but the best is the only thing that is permanently satisfactory. This applies to talking machines with as much force as to anything that goes to make up the sum total of daily life. The new High Speed Moulded Records made by the Columbia Phonograph Company, pioneers and leaders in the talking machine art, are far superior to any records that were ever produced. They have great volume and are smooth, natural in tone and artistic. No desirable quality is lacking and by the moulding process of record making the harshness and metallic quality which marred the earlier records is thoroughly eliminated. No records can compete with them. Price: 50c each, $5 per dozen. Write for catalogue. Ask about the new reproducer. The Graphophone and Columbia Records were awarded the Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition of 1900.

The Columbia Phonograph Co., 238-240 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, headquarters for graphophones and talking machine supplies of every kind, will send you catalogues on application.

Jackson K. of P.'s Visited Chelsea.

Last Thursday evening 42 of the Jackson Knights of Pythias came to Chelsea to make a fraternal visit to Chelsea Lodge, No. 194, and confer the third rank on a candidate. After the work was over an adjournment was made to the Maccabee hall where the Lady Maccabees had spread a delicious and toothsome supper. In all 87 persons set down to its enjoyment, among them being three from Ypsilanti and two from Marshall. After supper speeches were given by Henry Edwards and Rev. Mr. Forkell, of Jackson. Geo. A. BeGole was toastmaster. The work done by the Jackson boys was excellent and was much appreciated by those who witnessed it.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith, of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50 cts. at Glazier & Stimson's drug store.

North Lake.

Wm. Brown has moved from Howell to his mother's farm at North Lake. The winter term of school began last week Wednesday with Miss Kate Barnum as teacher.

Henry V. Heatley, who was at the U. of M. hospital being treated for an abscess, has returned home much improved.

Wm. Heatley, who has been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Heatley, returned to Minneapolis, Minn., Friday, where he is procurator for the Sisters of Charity.

Charles Sanford, of Manchester, remembers the first gubernatorial election held in Michigan in 1837. The voters came in wagons and wood-shod sleds. The balloting was made in the old-fashioned way. The successful candidate was Stevens T. Mason, who was inaugurated in the capital at Detroit. The letters sent to friends in York state were written on paper ruled by hand, the paper folded and addressed on the blank side, and sealed with a wafer, the recipient paying the postage—25 cents.

Lyndon.

H. S. Barton went to Lansing Tuesday to attend the meeting of the National Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young are rejoicing over a little daughter who was born Sunday, Nov. 2.

Miss Kate Collins, after a week's vacation, resumed her teaching again at the Center school.

Peter Gorman has a new bean thresher and is turning off jobs of bean threshing at a pretty lively gait.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Boyce left last Monday to spend some time with friends in Owosso and vicinity.

Daniel Prendergast and wife, of Durand, visited his brother P. Prendergast and family Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Cunningham, of Chicago, who has spent the past summer with her daughter Mrs. John Clark, returned to that city recently.

S. G. Palmer fell from the platform of the elevator in Gregory the other day across the edge of his wagon box and fractured two of his ribs.

Mrs. Anthony Breitenbach, of Green Bay, Wis., who came here to attend the funeral of her mother Mrs. Margaret Moran, returned home last Monday.

Runciman & Cooper are very busy with their new corn husker and seem to be doing very satisfactory work. If it were not for the corn husker many fields of corn would stand out over winter as it is impossible to get the help to husk it by hand.

Dick Clark had the misfortune to lose one of his fine span of black horses Monday. His son Charles had gone to draw home some wood and had driven the team behind the woodpile. While loading the wood on the wagon two dogs he had with him began barking at a squirrel, this frightened the horses and they ran away. They had not gone far when they struck a tree and one of the horses had his back broken. The animal had to be shot. It was valued at $125.

The ladies of Eureka Grange will give a social Wednesday evening, Nov. 19, at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark. Mrs. W. J. Howlett has donated a quilt which will be drawn for on the occasion. Other forms of amusement will also be provided. The fact that it is to be held at the Clark home is a sufficient guarantee that a good time may be expected and a large crowd will be present. The proceeds of the social are to go towards paying for the organ recently purchased for the grange.

Eureka Grange, No. 2, initiated 14 new members at its meeting Friday evening of last week, Nov. 7. John Collins, a charter member and one of the organizers of this grange away back in 1872, was present and gave a very interesting talk on grange matters past and present. Mr. Collins now lives at Lansing and is a member of Capitol Grange of that city. Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English, of Lafayette Grange, were also present. Mrs. English presided at the organ recently purchased from the Ann Arbor Music Co. At the close of the meeting a lunch with hot coffee was served. The grange now has between 70 and 80 members.

Waterloo.

Miss Lizzie Hammack opened the winter term of school at this place Monday.

Jacob Rommel has been having some repairing done to his mill and a new roof put on his house.

Miss Sarah Gorton will teach the winter term of school in the Palmer district where she has already taught four successful terms.

Miss Maggie Conway, of Sylvan, has been engaged to teach the winter and spring terms of school in the McIntee district.

Geo. H. Foster & Co., of Chelsea, have put down a rock well for Mrs. W. Beeman, which is 219 feet deep. The water comes up to within seven feet of the ground.

George Runciman and Delancy Cooper have a new Plano corn husker which weighs over 7,000 pounds. They bought it of A. G. Faist, of Chelsea. With John Breitenbach furnishing the power with his threshing engine, they are doing all kinds of business these days.

Complete revised lists of the dead and injured victims of the explosion of fireworks in New York city show that 12 persons were killed and about 80 injured. William B. Albrecht, of Bayonne, N. J., is dead from a broken spine, the result of a football game. Robbers blew open the safe of the Tampa state bank at Herrington, Kan., took $3,800 and escaped. Joseph Farrow and Marion Gun shot and killed each other in a street duel at Grandin, Mo. George Vest, Jr., aged 42, son and private secretary of Senator Vest, of Missouri, died suddenly in Washington. Prof. George Hausmann, aged 75 years, one of the best known pomologists in the United States, died at Napa, Cal. The Delaware & Hudson railroad has been bought by the Pennsylvania and New York Central companies for $80,000,000. In its annual report the civil service commission urges that congress provide for the reclassification of the entire departmental service. President Roosevelt spent his first day at his desk in the new executive offices adjoining the white house. The annual report of General Miles praises the work of the army and says its personnel was never better. The coal strike arbitration commission members separated till Nov. 14, when hearing of testimony will begin at Scranton, the miners' side to be heard first. Eight men were drowned, three vessels driven ashore, and practically every lighter on the Nome beach in Alaska was wrecked in a storm. There were 148 business failures in the United States during the week ended on the 7th, against 191 the same week in 1901. The exchanges at the leading clearing houses in the United States during the seven days ended on the 7th aggregated $2,241,864,029. The increase, compared with the corresponding week of last year, was 10.9. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade says that trade and industry are making steady progress, reports from all sections of the country containing evidences of wholesome development. The secretary of the treasury has discontinued the acceptance of state and municipal bonds as security for public deposits. Colorado railroads will require a doctor's certificate from sick persons after December 1 to avoid carrying contagious diseases. Earthquake shocks are said to have been felt in Hancock and Houghton counties in Michigan. The Grand opera house, one of the leading playhouses at Nashville, Tenn., has been destroyed by fire. Judge John H. Baker, of the United States district court of Indiana, has resigned. Burglars wrecked the safe and robbed the post office at Culver, Ind., of $1,000 in stamps. Eleven Cuban children imported for instruction in a school at Point Loma, Cal., have been ordered sent back by the New York immigration officials. Adj. Gen. Corbin in his annual report favors a return to the old army canteen, saying it is conducive to sobriety among the soldiers. Henry Watterson predicts a victory ahead for democrats if old leaders are shelved. Bryan he regards as sufficiently dead, and he comes out as favoring Arthur Pue Gorman, of Maryland, for president.

Burglars broke into Scheffer Bros. store at Sigourney, Ia., and stole $800 worth of silk and $300 worth of furs. Nellie Corcoran, who for 20 days lay in a mysterious state of coma in St. Vincent's hospital, New York, is dead. At Forest, O., James Young wounded Marshal John Handehg, who attempted to arrest him, and when pursued by a crowd, thrust the muzzle of his gun into his mouth and blew off his head. A man and two boys were drowned in White Fish bay, near Alpena, Mich., by the capsizing of a sailboat. Fearing separation and hardship, and with the certainty of the poorhouse before them, George Clark and his wife deliberately bound themselves together with straps and threw themselves into the Oswego canal at a lonely spot three miles from Syracuse, N. Y. The extensive plant of the Keystone Driller company was almost totally destroyed by fire at Beaver Falls, Pa. The loss will be fully $100,000. An Indianapolis grand jury has been instructed to investigate an alleged coal dealers' combine. Compared with ten years ago, exports from the United States show a gain of nearly 200 per cent. Composer Mascagni has been arrested in Boston upon complaint of his managers, who are seeking a judgment for $8,000. Harry Wilfred Dupuy, a Yale senior, whose automobile killed Dittmas Thorpe Munroe, of New Haven, Conn., is said to have paid the heirs $5,000 in settlement. State Superintendent of Insurance Yates filed suits against 21 fire insurance concerns in Illinois on the ground that they have not complied with the law. The J. P. Morgan interests took $4,000,000 of unsalable bonds of the United States Shipbuilding company to save the Trust Company of the Republic, of New York, from failure. President Roosevelt's annual message will be ready by December 1. The election results will be treated as endorsing his policy and demanding that campaign promises be fulfilled. Congress will be urged to consider the trust question with a view to legislation against evils. A permanent tariff commission is to be advised. I. O. Perry, a Boston negro boy, identified Alan G. Mason as the man who gave him Miss Clara A. Morton's watch to pawn after the latter's murder. Mason denies ever seeing Perry before. Superintendent Egan, of the Great Northern railroad, who disappeared on Tuesday while hunting near Belton, Mont., is still missing, and friends suspect train robbers have abducted him. The tracks are patrolled by a locomotive while search is being made by railroad employes. The snow is three feet deep. The railroads of the country face a car famine of grave proportions, threatening seriously to interfere with the enormous business now being transacted. Large equipment orders have been placed, but the manufacturers are unable to meet the demand for cars and locomotives.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Roswell Beardsley, of North Lansing, who was the oldest postmaster in point of service in the United States, having held that position 74 years, died at his home in Ithaca, N. Y., at the age of 93 years. Prof. Robert C. Kedzie, dean of the Michigan agricultural college and inventor of the kerosene safety test, died at Lansing, aged 79 years. Mrs. Sadie M. Jones died in Binghamton, N. Y., at the age of 102 years. Returns show that the republicans made a clean sweep in Montana in the recent election for the first time in ten years. John J. Sampson, said to have been the sole survivor of the "Cardiff giant" fraud, is dead at his home in Chicago. Sampson was one of three men who carved the statue. It is said the originators of the scheme made $20,000 out of it. President Roosevelt will remain neutral in the speakership contest.

FOREIGN.

Count Bóni de Castellane, husband of Anna Gould, has been unseated by the French chamber of deputies on charges of irregularities in his election. Mrs. Annie O'Mahoney is the first woman in Ireland to be imprisoned under the crimes act. French government arbitrators in the coal strike decided not to raise miners' wages. A bill has been introduced in the French senate making dueling a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment. Emperor William was given a cordial reception on his arrival in England. He reviewed at Shorncliffe camp the First Royal dragoons, of which regiment he is honorary colonel in chief, and afterward was welcomed at Sandringham by representatives of the royal family. After one of the most exciting incidents in the history of the northwest, the Doukhobor fanatics have been forcibly entrained, loaded in cars like cattle, and sent back to their northern villages.

In Honduras Manuel Coriella has been elected president. It is shown by the general report of the census of Ireland, which is just out, that nearly one-half of the female population is unmarried. The census shows the population of Ireland to have decreased since 1891 by some 248,000. Thirty-three Irish nationalists are serving or waiting sentence under the coercion act. LATER. Fire damaged the new East river bridge in New York to the extent of about $1,500,000, and five men are supposed to have been drowned. The United States supreme court will take a recess from next Monday until December. The remainder of the Pennsylvania troops which have been on guard at Hazleton have returned to Philadelphia. The gold output in the Yukon this year will aggregate $12,000,000. The open season for deer shooting has begun in Wisconsin. Scores of hunters are already in the woods and six deaths have occurred as a result of accidents. Crop reports by the department of agriculture show an increased yield per acre of corn, potatoes, tobacco and apples. The corn crop is estimated at 2,542,516,000 bushels. President Roosevelt left Washington for a two weeks' trip through the south. Government control of wireless telegraph stations in the United States is urged by Rear Admiral Bradford in his annual report. President Castro of Venezuela made a triumphal entry into Caracas after having put the rebel armies to flight. General Crozier, chief of the army bureau of ordnance, reports a new musket completed and tried with satisfactory results. Senor Sagasta and the entire Spanish cabinet tendered their resignations to King Alfonso. Panama canal negotiations are halted, the administration finding difficulty in bringing about a satisfactory treaty with Colombia. The British steamer Elingamite was wrecked on Three Kings island and ninety-six persons were missing. John Mackenzie Bacon, the scientist, and Stanley Spencer, the aeronaut, crossed the English channel from the Isle of Man to Scotland in a balloon. Former Banker E. S. Dreyer's penitentiary sentence has been upheld by the federal supreme court in Chicago, after six years' legal fight. Admiral H. C. Taylor in his annual report says the navy is short 577 officers. Maj. Gen. Chaffee and Vice Gov. Wright reached San Francisco from Manila on the transport Sumner, which was nearly sunk by a typhoon. Gen. Chaffee declared pacification nearly ended. MINOR NEWS ITEMS. John Jacob Astor, of New York, has given to the public his 17 years' monopoly of marine turbine propellers. Reed Smoot, Mormon apostle and candidate for the Utah senatorship, denied in a Salt Lake interview that he is a polygamist. Prof. McAlister, of the Palestine Exploration society, reported finding the site of the ancient city of Gezer, captured by Joshua. A new Canadian transcontinental railroad will be built from Quebec to Port Simpson. It will be 248 miles shorter than the Canadian Pacific. Ladrones on Leyte island killed a presidente suspected of friendship to Americans and his wife, abducted their children and burned the town. Four separate efforts to form combinations of passenger steamer business out of Chicago are said to have miscarried for lack of sufficient cash. Stephen M. Griswold, bank president, ex-state senator and churchman, will soon complete 50 years as an usher in Plymouth church, Brooklyn. The sealing schooners Annie Painter and C. D. Band have arrived at Victoria, B. C., from Behring sea, the former with 435 skins and the latter with 515. The report of Gen. Greely praises the usefulness of the automobile in the signal service, but says he has found difficulty in getting suitable machines. Secretary Shaw is expected to ask congress for a repeal of the law forbidding that national bank note circulation be retired in excess of $3,000,000 monthly. Henry Brock, for many years the proprietor of the Congressional hotel, located adjoining the capitol grounds, died in Washington. He was well known to public men. Portia Washington, daughter of Booker T. Washington, has been dropped from classes at Wellesley college, the reason alleged being failure to pass in music. The captain of the British barkentine Florence B. Edgett, his wife, nine sailors and the ship's goat, reached New York after sailing 1,400 miles in an open boat. A hurricane wrecked their craft.

PRESIDENT'S ITINERARY.

Mr. Roosevelt Leaves Washington for a Two Weeks' Trip Through the South. Washington, Nov. 11.—President Roosevelt left Washington Monday night to be absent nearly two weeks. He was accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou and his physician, Dr. George A. Lung, of the navy. There also were a corps of servants and secret service officials with the party. The party left Washington on a special train via the Pennsylvania railroad at 12 o'clock, and will arrive in Jersey City early this morning. At noon to-day he will attend the exercises dedicatory of the new Chamber of Commerce building. In the evening the party will be the guests at the banquet given by the New York chamber of commerce. The president will deliver a speech at the banquet. At midnight the president and his party will leave New York on a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad for Memphis, Tenn., going by way of Pittsburg, Cincinnati and Louisville, and arriving at Memphis on Thursday morning. From Memphis the president will go to Mississippi on a bear hunt as the guest of President Fish, of the Illinois Central railroad. He will be absent on the hunt five days. No itinerary of that part of the trip is made public. Indeed, it would be impossible at this time to indicate, even approximately, the route to be followed by the president after he leaves Memphis. The president will return to Memphis on the morning of Wednesday, the 19th inst., and during that day and evening will participate in the celebration in honor of Gen. Luke Wright, vice governor of the Philippines. He will deliver a speech on that occasion. At midnight on the 19th the president and his party will start for Washington, arriving there on the morning of Friday, the 21st inst. That day will be spent there. On the morning of the 22d the president will go to Philadelphia to attend the exercises of Founders' day, returning again to Washington on the morning of the 23d inst.

IS NOT A CANDIDATE.

Mitchell Says He Would Not Accept Presidency of Federation of Labor. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—The following telegram is self-explanatory: "Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 9, 1902.—W. B. Wilson, 1103 Stevenson Building, Indianapolis, Ind.: Replying to your inquiry concerning the use of my name by the press as an aspirant for the presidency of the American Federation of Labor, I desire to say that I am in no way responsible for the circulation of these rumors, and while it is the duty of every man to serve the cause of labor in any position in which he can be most useful and while I appreciate the honor of being mentioned for this office, I firmly believe that I can be of more real service in my present position, and if any attempt is made to present my name for the presidency of the American Federation of Labor at the New Orleans convention, you will favor me by saying that under no circumstances would I accept the election. "JOHN MITCHELL."

KILLED IN A MINE.

Skip Overturns and Two Men Fall to the Bottom of the Shaft. Morristown, N. J., Nov. 11.—Two miners were killed Monday evening at the iron mines at Mount Hope, by falling down a shaft 200 feet deep. Five others had a narrow escape. The seven were in a skip and were being hoisted out of the mine when their day's work was over. When part way up the skip overturned. Five of the men managed to leap to the sides of the shaft and grasp the supporting beams. The other two, whose names have not been learned, missed their hold when they jumped and fell to the bottom of the shaft.

Collector Removed.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Julian H. Bingham, collector of internal revenue for the district of Alabama, has been removed from his office, and Joseph O. Thompson appointed to succeed him. The change was made as a result of a political condition which recently arose in Alabama. Colored republicans were excluded from participating in the republican state convention and Collector Bingham was held responsible, at least in a measure, for their exclusion. Postmaster General Payne said that his removal in no wise reflected on Mr. Bingham's integrity or ability.

One Reply Received.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Carroll D. Wright, recorder of the anthracite coal strike commission, has received one of the replies of the coal operators to President Mitchell's statement filed with the commission. The replies will not be made public until copies have been furnished Mr. Mitchell.

A PERMANENT FEATURE.

First Assistant Postmaster General Says Rural Free Delivery is Fixture of the Service. Washington, Nov. 11.—The annual report of Robert J. Wynne, first assistant postmaster general, urges the delivery establishment and its future necessities, the recommendation for $12,635,900 in the estimates for that purpose is reasonable. The amount is an increase of a little more than $1,000,000 over the current fiscal year. The advisability of erecting public buildings for the establishment of branch post offices in cities is discussed, and the plan is indorsed as economical to the government. The report says the establishment and extension of pneumatic tube service will make it necessary to secure permanent sites for stations in the large cities. The report says an effort has been made to equalize the salaries of clerks in first and second-class post offices by promotion of low-salaried but efficient clerks. At the larger first-class offices clerks are not now working in excess of eight hours a day, but it is impracticable in existing conditions to give clerks in the smaller offices eight hours continuous service. An effort is being made to reduce their hours to a fair basis. In the city delivery service a plan is proposed whereby in larger cities sub-carriers shall receive at least $30 a month, and in the smaller cities $25 a month. Sub-carriers cannot now count on a fixed income. The rural free delivery system, the report says, has become a permanent feature of the postal service and the service has increased the postal receipts and improved conditions wherever it has been put in operation. No deficiency, it is said, will be created by this service. It will be left to congress to say whether establishment of routes already laid out shall be hastened and the installation of routes in course of investigation expedited. Additional appropriations must be made for this purpose. It is recommended that congress make provision for a leave of absence, with full pay, for rural carriers not to exceed 15 days in a fiscal year. Extension to rural carriers of power to receive and register letters has proved so acceptable a public benefit that it is proposed further to increase their usefulness by adding, under proper regulations, an extension of the money order system to rural routes. Rural carriers are now empowered to receipt for money orders. It is intended, after the first of January next, to empower them also to pay money orders at the residences of known patrons of the routes. The maximum fee for a money order ($100) is 30 cents. It is recommended that the maximum be reduced to 25 cents, with proportionate reductions wherever the amount exceeds $50. STIPULATION PRESENTED. United States Supreme Court to Take Up Chicago Drainage Canal Case. Washington, Nov. 11.—In the United States supreme court Monday a stipulation for the taking of testimony was presented in the case of the state of Missouri vs. the state of Illinois, involving the right of the Chicago drainage canal to discharge its waters in the Mississippi river. The stipulation was signed by the attorneys representing both states, and it provides for the appointment of a commissioner to gather the evidence. Frank S. Bright, of the Washington bar, son of Former Sergeant-at-Arms Bright, of the United States senate, was appointed by the stipulation as commissioner, and it is agreed that the taking of testimony shall begin on December 1, next. The plaintiff is to have four months for the presentation of its case, and the defense four months in which to make reply. After this each side is to be given 15 days for rebuttal and sur-rebuttal. DISASTER AT SEA. British Steamer is Wrecked Off Coast of New Zealand—Ninety-Six Persons Missing. Melbourne, Nov. 11.—The British steamer Elingamite, bound from Sydney, N. S. W., for Auckland, has been wrecked on Three Kings islands. Forty-one of those on board the steamer were saved and ninety-six are missing. Troops to Leave. Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 11.—The remainder of the First regiment, eight companies, which have been kept here since the other companies left for home, will return to Philadelphia to-day. The order was for four companies to return to Philadelphia and the other four to remain on duty in this locality, but the miners and owners of the individual mining operations in this section reached an agreement on their differences, and it was then concluded to release the entire eight companies of the regiment and permit them to return home.

The Late Models in Sleeves and Skirts

SLEEVES have so much to do with the making or marring of an otherwise fashionable and attractive gown that much thought should at all times be given to them. It is no longer necessary to mar the beauty of a gown merely because there is no choice in the matter of appropriate sleeves, for there are half a dozen or more different varieties that Dame Fashion allows us for selection and many variations in each different mode.

The large sleeves are bound to hold their own through this season, but the puffiness is all below the elbow with a decidedly close effect above. Many of the evening sleeves are elbow length with frills for a finish. These frills fall long at the back and short in the inside of the arm.

As the illustration shows even better than words can tell of the variety in sleeves I will devote the words to something about the styles in skirts. There are rumors that our skirts are to be cut on entirely different lines, dating back 50 years, when there was very little fullness anywhere between the hips and the hem. This sort of skirt has to be short, and is never graceful, so it is well to remember that it is one thing to lead a horse to water and another to make him drink. After the pretty skirt models of to-day nothing ugly or ungraceful will be accepted without a protest.

The yoke skirt is one of the most popular models, the yoke fitting the hips as closely and carefully as possible. But fashion is varied enough to suit every fancy and the accordion-plaited skirt has blossomed out again to add another mode to the list.

This style is not confined to very thin materials either, since street gowns of walking length are made in this way, and of any fancy or plain wool material you may choose to have. The skirt is cut circular, of course, and then plaited, a hem finishing the edge. It is hung over a drop skirt.

You see shirrings, cordings, plaitings and tucks galore in the thin fabrics; but an accordion plaited skirt in clumsy wool materials is a novelty, indeed. In strong contrast is the gored skirt in seven, nine or eleven gores, with close fitting habit back.

The evening skirts of net show ruffles again with fine tucking above the flounces, and so it goes, every conceivable fancy in skirts being in actual use.

In general outline they are close around the hips with a generous flare around the feet, for this is the form women have found to be most graceful and becoming. But the tendency for change is in the air and a change is bound to come sooner or later.

The mere fact of shortening a skirt lessens the flare to some extent and shorter skirts for street wear are the correct thing. The skirt which rests on the ground about two inches is the popular one for dressy street costumes while the plainer gowns just clear the ground.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Plays Host to a Madman.
A man carrying a big knife in one hand walked into the office of Justice Jackola at Calumet and introduced himself as J. Picpout Morgan. He said he had just arrived in his yacht after a tour of the world, had settled the coal strike and, although a money king, was the friend of the people. The judge felt nervous, realizing that the man was insane, and in fear and trembling carried on a conversation for an hour until an officer came in and took the lunatic to jail. The prisoner is a sailor named Murphy, who had been left at Hancock because of his mental condition.

Congressmen Elected.
Following is the roster of the Michigan delegation to the Fifty-eighth congress. All are republicans except in the First district: Alfred Lucking, First district; Henry C. Smith, Second; Washington Gardner, Third; Edward L. Hamilton, Fourth; William Alden Smith, Fifth; Samuel W. Smith, Sixth; Henry McMorran, Seventh; Joseph Fordney, Eighth; Roswell P. Bishop, Ninth; George A. Land, Tenth; A. B. Darragh, Eleventh; H. Olin Young, Twelfth.

Death of a Pioneer.
Dominick Murray, aged 82 years, who died at Mackinac Island, was a pioneer of the island. For 17 years he was sheriff of Mackinac county, when its territory extended from the most eastern point of the upper peninsula to the Menominee river. This period of his official career included the early 60's and the stirring times when the Mormon troubles on the Beaver islands, which at that time were in Mackinac county, were at their height.

Michigan Post Offices.
The gross receipts at the post offices in Michigan during the last fiscal year were $3,798,271, according to the report of the fourth assistant postmaster general. This an average annual expenditure of $1.52 for each man, woman and child in the state, based on an estimated population of 2,493,611. The number of post offices of all classes in the state was 2,019, of which 216 were presidential and 1,803 were fourth-class offices.

Health in Michigan.
Reports to the state board of health from 69 observers in various portions of the state indicate that during the past week typhoid fever, pneumonia and measles increased and scarlet fever and cholera morbus decreased in area of prevalence. Consumption was reported at 226 places, measles at 18, typhoid fever at 91, whooping cough at 20, scarlet fever at 63 and smallpox at 19 places.

Prison for Life.
Archie Woodin, who murdered Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gulick, his wife's parents, and then shot his own baby daughter October 16 at Mount Pleasant, has been sentenced to Jackson prison for life. Woodin's wife had left him because of his cruelty to her and had filed papers asking for a divorce. Woodin charged his wife's parents with causing the trouble.

Tax May Be Increased.
It is unofficially stated in connection with the meeting of the state board of railway assessors in Lansing that the increase in taxes to be paid by the railways under the new valorem system tax will amount to $1,000,000 or even more. Last year's specific tax fund from which the school money is apportioned amounted to about $1,500,000.

More Rural Delivery.
Two additional rural free delivery routes have been established at Fowlerville, Livingston county. They are 4 1/2 miles long, cover an area of 50 square miles and serve a population of 1,444. The star route has been discontinued, and the office at Iosco supplied by rural carrier.

Deeded to the State.
Auditor General Powers has deeded to the state 8,500 acres of delinquent state tax lands in the townships of St. Helens and Richfield, Roscommon county. These lands will be subject to homestead entry upon application to the state land commissioner.

News Briefly Stated.
The striking students at the agricultural college in Lansing have returned to their recitations in pursuance of an armistice agreed to by the faculty.

After penning his wife an affectionate farewell note consigning to her care their two babies, John Rottler, a Grand Rapids merchant, shot and killed himself. Business trouble was the cause.

A jury at Grand Rapids awarded Mrs. Charles J. Lewis $2,500 damages for the death of her husband, who died from injuries received while being initiated into a secret society.

Auditor General Powers has deeded to the state about 8,500 acres of tax lands in Roscommon county which will be thus made subject to homestead entry.

Way of the Unworldly.
Mrs. Pingey—I don't see how you can manage to go to church three times on Sunday.

Mrs. Bland—I do it simply by doing no work of any kind on the Sabbath. I think it positively wicked for women to stay home and cook dinners for their husbands on Sundays.

Mrs. Pingey—I suppose, then, you have a cold lunch at noon?

Mrs. Bland—Oh, dear, no. I always take dinner at Mr. Bland's sister's. She's a splendid cook, and she always tries to do her best on Sundays. —Boston Transcript.

A Landlord in Gloom.
Wife—Who was that you called?
Husband—One of my tenants came to pay his rent.

"Did he pay it?"

"Yes."

"Then why do you look so gloomy?"

"He didn't say a word about wanting five or six hundred dollars' worth of repairs."

"What of it?"

"That shows that he's going to leave." —N. Y. Weekly.

No Cause for Complaint.
"I really shall have to leave this hotel," said the weary man to the proprietor. "There is a baby in the next room to mine, and he cries all night."
"I don't see why you should complain," said the proprietor. "His father and mother have him in the same room with them, and they haven't said a word." —Tit-Bits.

Cold Comfort.
Unsuccessful Suitor—Am I so very obnoxious to you?

Miss Freezem—No; I can imagine circumstances under which I might clasp my arms about your neck very gladly.

"Thank Heaven! Under what circumstances?"

"If I were drowning, and you were near." —N. Y. Weekly.

Possibly True.
Mamma (to a friend who is lunching with her)—I don't know why it is, but I always eat more when we have company than when we're alone.

Tommy (helping himself to third piece of cake)—I know why it is—'cause we have better things to eat. —Brooklyn Life.

An Advantage.
"Wealth has its embarrassments."
"Yes," answered Mr. Cumrox with a sigh. "It's a great advantage to a man to be able to say he must stay at home and work instead of being dragged around from one fashionable resort to another." —Washington Star

The Real Danger.
"I'm quite nervous about facing your father to-night when I ask him for your hand."
"You needn't be afraid when you're facing him. It's when your back is turned that you want to look out." —Chicago American.

Different Standards.
The price of coal will take a turn, and downward start to creep; And what last year would have seemed dear This winter will seem cheap. —Washington Star.

ONE ON PAPA.
Papa (reading the bad reports of his children in school)—It is awful that we should have such stupid children.

The Boy—But, papa, where should the smartness come from in our family? —Megendorfer Blaetter.

Revised Version.
Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the milkman's and the grocer's
Bank accounts expand. —Somerville Journal.

Wise Father.
"Thought your dad wasn't going to send you back to college?"
"Yes, dad did kick on the expense, but I threatened to stay at home and help run the business, and he decided college would be cheaper." —Detroit Free Press.

Dressed for It.
Mrs. Clubber—How did you vote at our club election?
Miss Newgirl—Why, in my gray tailor-made and hat with the pink feathers. —Chicago American.

Help.
"Well, sir," said the proprietor, "what can I do for you?"
The humble clerk looked at the floor, and after hesitating a moment said very meekly:

"Winter is coming on, Mr. Hard-digger, and I have four children to support, and I have come to see if you will please—"

"Oh, yes. Certainly. If I hear of anybody that wants to adopt a few, I'll send him around. Good-day. Never hesitate to call on me personally when things don't go right." —Chicago Record-Herald.

When Hollo Saw the Pigs.
I think that God made little pigs,
Not for the pork man's trade,
But sent them here upon the earth
So footballs could be made. —N. Y. Times.

SHE KNEW.
Mr. Moper (ending a very uninteresting story about himself)—And all that long, dreary time, you cannot possibly imagine how much I bore!
She (wearily)—Oh, yes, I can indeed! —Punch.

An Awful Fate.
Full many a mortal, young and old,
Has gone to his sarcophagus,
Thro' pouring water icy cold
Adown his warm oesophagus. —Chaparral.

Well Qualified.
"You have called in response to our advertisement?" said the patent medicine man.

"Yes; you want a man who can write your advertisements, I believe?" said the serious-looking caller.
"That's what we want. What experience have you had?"
"I've been a writer of fiction for 12 years." —Yonkers Statesman.

Wearry of It.
He—I wish our social standing was more exclusive.

She—But, gracious! we're getting there. We're regular attendants at the opera and all the small functions and—

He—That's just it. I wish we were so swell that we didn't have to do all that. —Philadelphia Press.

A Fair Exchange.
Editor (Squashville News)—See here, Mr. Dolan! You delivered me a load of hay for the six years' subscription you owed for my paper.

Mr. Dolan—Oi did!
Editor—Well, my horse won't eat that hay, b'gosh!
Mr. Dolan—Well, my goat won't eat your paper, be gobs! —Puck.

His Form Book.
"You say that little scrap book has cost you hundreds of dollars!"
"Yes," answered the sad-eyed youth. "But there is nothing in it except a lot of tabulated horse race information."
"That's all. It's an edition de hard-luck." —Washington Star.

Not So Bad.
First Boarder—Don't you think you get less to eat in this house than any place you were ever in?
Second Boarder—Why, no. It's very good.
"Um. As a matter of curiosity, where did you come from?"
"A sanitarium." —N. Y. Herald.

Delicately Put.
She was describing an exciting incident.
"I completely lost my head," she said.
"If you are as careless of yourself as that," he returned, "perhaps you would be willing to spare your hand." —Chicago Post.

A Convenient Creed.
"I will give you a breakfast if you will saw this wood."
"I'm sorry, lady, but my political principles won't let me do it."
"What do you mean?"
"I'm not a believer in reciprocity." —N. Y. Times.

Johnny's Idea.
"How would you define 'exercise,' as distinguished from 'work'?" asked the teacher.
"Exercise," answered Johnny, "is work you like to do and work is exercise you don't like to do." —Chicago Tribune.

Fashionable Furs and the Winter Coats

THE squirrel skin, it seems, had a past, not a discreditable but a distinguished past, and was about the sixteenth or seventeenth century regarded as a rare and costly fur, and worn only by great lords and ladies, and was forbidden by the paternal legislation of the times to the lower orders. However, the infinite resources of Siberia were afterwards discovered, and gradually these skins became so easily obtainable that by the nineteenth century squirrel was, save for linings of cloaks and pelisses, virtually abandoned. However, the wheel of fortune, or rather of fashion, brings many unforeseen things to pass, and it has brought distinction once more to the little squirrel's door. If it had no other attractions, its beautiful tone of gray would be sufficient in itself.

For evening coats I like the paler gray tones, and squirrel can have no more effective contrasting accessory than the white and black of tailed or miniver ermine, and for the very good reason that gray, being in itself a color produced by mixing white and black, its proper accessory is this "broken" blending of white and black. In gray, black and white are "fused"; in the ermine effect they are "broken" one into the other, and "broken color" is the "fused color's" most effective contrast; whilst on the other hand fused color is also good on broken color, though not so pronouncedly successful. For example, black and white silk on a gray frock is more strikingly effective than gray on a black and white silk frock, wherein lies a truth of universal application in the politics of color.

I saw a tailor costume the other day with coat basque so long that the coat was almost a tunic, and all that showed of the skirt below was the shaped flounce at the foot. Does this foreshadow the tunic costume with fur borders and braid motifs? Perhaps it does.

Meanwhile I was also pleased with a coat and skirt of a lesser length basque that I saw the other day carried out in zibeline with strappings of race cloth, and another thing of recent make I also liked was an evening coat of mastic-toned cloth and lace coat with an effective threading through with the lace of black velvet, with tasselled ends. ELLEN OSMONDE.

When Woman Votes.
"Mrs. Ballotbox has a presidential bee in her bonnet."
"Well, that will make it an expensive piece of millinery." —Puck.

Pain

From Inflammatory Rheumatism

Would Have Killed Our Son.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills Saved Him.

"We began to use Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills six years ago. My wife had liver trouble and a neighbor gave her some of your liver pills to try, after which we bought a bottle of them and my wife used them until cured. Since then I have used them and I must say that I have never used any pills that gave me the satisfaction these have. We also use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with greatest satisfaction. Three years ago our son Harry had inflammatory rheumatism. He had suffered so much that I believe if we had not given him Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills which relieved him almost instantly he would have died. I am always glad of the opportunity for praising Dr. Miles' Remedies."—James Evert, Alton, Ills.

"I was afflicted with neuralgia for years and never found any permanent relief till I began using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure cure for headache and neuralgic pains. Only this morning I recommended them to a friend with a severe headache and in a half hour he came into the store smiling. The headache was gone. We use them in the family and find them excellent for the women folks. This high altitude makes them very nervous. Grandma says I should tell Dr. Miles she could not live here were it not for the Anti-Pain Pills that she takes occasionally."—L. B. Morris, Helena, Montana.

The Michigan Equal Suffrage Association wants a bill passed to exempt all women from taxation until they are allowed the privilege of the ballot. That's only fair, if they pay taxes they should have a voice in saying how the taxes shall be spent.

Secretary of War Root says that trusts are only weeds in the garden of prosperity. He says they should be eradicated, but care must be taken not to destroy the entire garden. Very few are they who will not agree with Mr. Root, and most people are of the opinion the trusts are very obnoxious weeds at that.

Invalids must have a certificate from a physician before they can get on a train in Colorado after Dec. 1. The certificate must say that the bearer has no contagious disease. This action is taken to prevent the spread of contagious diseases, particularly consumption, and thereby protect passengers who desire relief from the presence of consumptives.

In an open letter to the Ann Arbor newspapers defining his position towards the University of Michigan, to which he pledges his loyal support, Senator F. P. Glazier says: "It will be my earnest endeavor to represent faithfully the interests of all the state institutions in the 10th senatorial district as well as the interests of all my constituents regardless of party or creed."

Free rural mail delivery will cost high for some years to come, but the people must have it. According to the annual report of August W. Machen, general superintendent of the service, the annual gross cost of a complete rural free delivery service will approximate $24,000,000. The remaining 700,000 square miles not now covered by rural free delivery service, according to the report, will require the employment of 26,000 or 27,000 carriers in addition to those now employed, making the entire force of carriers when the extension of the service is completed within the next three years 40,000. After this extension is completed the annual rate of increase in the appropriations is expected not to exceed 8 or 9 per cent, the rate maintained in other branches of the postal service.

Wrinkles are smoothed away by its healing touch. Brain tired and depressed people will find a cure in Rocky Mountain tea. 35c. Glazier & Stimson.

Carl Plowe, of Francisco, a former student in the Chelsea high school, was in the grand stand at Chicago which fell during the Michigan-Wisconsin game Nov. 1. He escaped without injury.

The editor's wife sets things to right, and he writes things to set. She reads what others write, and he writes what others read. She knows more than he writes, and he writes more than she knows.

Miss Jennie Shoemaker, the reader at the concert to be given by the Men's Club of the Congregational church tomorrow evening, is one of the best readers on the stage today. You should not fail to hear this concert.

Dr. Robert C. Kedzie, for 40 years professor of chemistry at the Agricultural College, Lansing, died Friday, aged 79 years. Dr. Kedzie was the last remaining member of the first medical class that graduated from the U. of M.

Edward, the little son of George H. Nordman, of Lima, fell on a stub while turning out the cows, one day last week, cutting his knee badly. Dr. Lee sewed and dressed the cut. The little fellow had both bones broken in the same leg last spring.

The Herald is in receipt of a souvenir of the National Grange meeting at Lansing, Nov. 13 to 20. The National Grange has been held west of the Alleghenies but four or five times in the past 36 years of its existence and is not likely to come to Michigan again in 25 years.

The Rev. C. S. Jones will give another one of the series of sermons on "The Home" next Sunday evening at the Congregational church. Miss L. Annie Bacon will sing. There will also be a duet by Mrs. L. T. Freeman and Floyd Ward, and special music by the choir.

The preacher who can preach to please every hearer, the editor who can write to please every reader, and the dressmaker who can please every woman, also the merchant who pleases every buyer, are all dead and wearing wings in heaven.

About 80 ladies and gentlemen, Macabee friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Geddes, surprised them Monday evening at their home just north of the village, it being the 21st anniversary of their marriage. A delightful evening was spent by all, during which refreshments were served. The company left a handsome rocking chair a reminder of their visit.

They are going to have a social over at Iron Creek next week that is bound to rake in the pennies. If you go it costs you a penny, if you don't go it costs you a penny. If you have curly hair you are fined a penny, if you have straight hair you are fined a penny, and if you have no hair at all it's just the same. They are bound to get the pennies anyhow.

A minister in a nearby town on a recent Sunday surprised his audience by reading the following notice from the pulpit: "The regular session of the Donkey club will be held as usual after the services. Members will line up just outside the door, make remarks and stare at the ladies who pass, as is their custom." But they didn't that Sunday.

The big 700 feet long bridge for the Boland road at Albion is completed all but the riveting and painting of the steel work. It spans the Kalamazoo river, one street, the tracks of two railroads and considerable intervening space. At its greatest elevation it is 35 feet high. The longest span is 135 feet.

Stockbridge Lady Macabees had a literary contest among themselves, the losers to furnish a supper for the winners. When the eventful night came the supper was served in four courses, as follows: 1st, water; 2nd, dried apples, and the 3rd, to add strength to the occasion, was onions. After the third course a fine supper was spread to which all did ample justice.

The W. H. M. S. of the Congregational church have packed and sent away two barrels of warm clothing to the Brewer Normal School, Greenwood, S. C.

The D., Y., A. A. & J. Co. have recently completed a sidetrack into their new freight house at Ypsilanti. On trying to run a car into the house it was found that the doorway lacked 18 inches of being high enough for it to go through; and now the track, new cement sidewalk, etc., will have to be torn up in order to lower the track, as the door now extends to the joists of the ceiling and cannot be made any higher.

An exchange has discovered that the moon gets full, but she goes on shining; the rain drops but it gets up again; the stars shoot, but do not kill; the willows weep but never shed a tear; night falls but doesn't break; day breaks but doesn't fall; the fly swallows and the swallows fly; the bees buzz and so do the girls.

The old 2 cent stamps will soon be a thing of the past. A new stamp is being designed to take their place which will still bear Washington's picture, but made from a different design. Draped American flags with wreaths of laurel leaves in the lower corners, and the general balance of text and artistic effect, together with the remarkable excellence of the mechanical work, will make this the finest postage stamp ever produced.

The People's Popular Course opened most auspiciously last evening with a lecture by Eugene V. Debs. The subject nearest Mr. Debs' heart is the wage earner and the relations between him and capital, and his splendid address dealt mainly with that question. Mr. Debs' view of the future of labor and capital is a highly optimistic one and if it is only partially realized it cannot but make everybody happier and better. The lecture was listened to most attentively by all and was warmly applauded.

The double track being built by the Michigan Central railway between Marshall and Jackson is completed to the Jackson city limits. The new track will be ready for traffic in two weeks.

Dr. G. W. Palmer has had the old Congdon house moved from the place where it has stood for so many years just northwest of the cemetery to a lot on the east side of Madison street, and is having it fixed up into a comfortable home.

Ann Arbor lodge of Elks is planning to build a temple and has already made a start towards raising the funds. A big minstrel show is to be given on the evenings of Nov. 24, 25 and 26, the proceeds of which will go towards this object.

The annual Thanksgiving supper of St. Mary's parish will be given at the opera house, Wednesday evening, Nov. 26. The ladies of this church are noted for the fine suppers they always provide and the one coming will be no exception to the rule. Everybody is invited. Adult tickets, 25 cents each; children, 15 cents.

The November meeting of the Western Washtenaw Union Farmers' Club will be held next Thursday, Nov. 20, with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Burkhart, at their home on Jefferson street, Chelsea. On this occasion the ladies will be relieved of the trouble of serving the dinner as the gentlemen will furnish and serve it and will even wash the dishes.

It is intended to further increase the usefulness of the rural mail delivery by adding, under proper regulations, an extension of the money order system to rural routes. Rural carriers are now empowered to receipt for money orders. It is intended, after Jan. 1 next, to empower them also to pay money orders at the residences of known patrons of the routes.

Miss Lella H. Farlin, Miss Minnie M. Davis and Miss Katherine Lindenschmidt, who will give the musical part of the program for the entertainment at the Congregational church tomorrow evening, Nov. 14, need no introduction to Chelsea people. They have been heard here before and were highly appreciated. Last Sunday's Detroit Free Press spoke of the two latter in the highest terms of praise. Go and hear them.

At the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Speer, on Railroad street, Tuesday evening, in the presence of the immediate relatives Miss Lulu E. Speer was married to John Larne, of Detroit, by Rev. E. E. Caster. After the ceremony light refreshments were served. Several pretty and useful presents were given the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Larne will live in Detroit where Mr. Larne, who has just got back from serving Uncle Sam in the regulars in Alaska, has secured employment.

The first of a series of chokolatieres to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church is being held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Colton this afternoon. The object of these chokolatieres is to assist in the raising of a fund with which to purchase a new organ for the church. These gatherings will afford the ladies of the village and vicinity a chance to meet together socially, exchange ideas and visit in a general way at a very small cost to each one. At the same time the sum total will go towards a good object. Over 200 invitations were sent out for the event. Chokolatieres have been quite a factor in the social life of some of the larger cities for a long time and the ladies who have them in charge here will see to it that they are equally successful in Chelsea.

Luck in Thirteen.

LOFTY TOWER AFIRE.

Spectacular Conflagration in New York City.

False Work on the New East River Bridge Burns—Debris Hurlled Into River, Stopping Traffic—Loss More Than $500,000.

New York, Nov. 11.—The new East river bridge, in process of construction between New York and Brooklyn, was damaged to the amount of at least a half million dollars Monday night by a fire that for four hours raged 335 feet in the air, on the summit of the great steel tower on the New York side.

Owing to the enormous height of the tower it was impossible to reach the fire with any apparatus in the fire department, and the flames, after devouring all the woodwork on the top of the tower, seized on the timber false work of the two foot bridges suspended from the main cables, burning away the support until nearly a million feet of blazing lumber fell with a mighty splash into the stream.

River Traffic Stopped.

The fall of the foot bridge carried away scores of the lighter cables and guys, which trailed in the water, rendering it necessary for the police to stop all traffic up and down the river. The Fall River steamer Puritan and several other craft had narrow escapes while running the gauntlet of fiery brands that fell in showers from the burning bridge. The fire was the most spectacular conflagration that has ever been seen in New York.

Top of Tower Ablaze.

The fire started in a tool shed, and from this spread to the great timber framework. Within five minutes after the first discovery of the fire the whole top of the tower was in a blaze. Then the footbridges fell, carrying with them many tons of bolts, rivets, nuts and tools. At that moment the Brooklyn fireboat was just below the bridge, and a heavy steel beam fell on her, breaking her rudder and sending her drifting helplessly down the stream. Sound steamers and all other up-river navigation was stopped.

Hurled Into the River.

Daniel Brophy and his brother John, of Montreal, A. P. McBride and an unknown man were at work on the tower when the fire started. While they were helping the firemen to haul up the hose the framework on which they stood collapsed and the two Brophys and the unknown man were hurled into the river. McBride saved himself by catching a piece of projecting steel-work. The other three men were thought to have been killed, but at midnight it was officially announced that they had been accounted for. While the fire was at its height a party of firemen were cut off at the base of the tower where they were exposed to a torrent of brands and red-hot pieces of steel. They were rescued after several had been severely burned. Brands from the tower set fire to the big storehouse of the Pennsylvania Steel company on the bridge. It was entirely consumed and the contents were hurled into the river, together with two hoisting derricks on the platform.

Only Tower and Cables Remain.

It was 11 o'clock before the flames had devoured everything combustible, leaving only the steel tower and the four great 18½-inch steel cables stretching across the river. These cables were recently completed, save for the steel sheathing, and it is feared that they have been badly damaged by the intense heat. Should it be necessary to replace them the labor of two years would be lost. Chief Engineer Martin, in charge of the bridge construction, said that of the four steel saddles, weighing 34 tons, on the top of the tower, three were red-hot but were undamaged. Of the four cables resting on the saddles two he found would have to be partially replaced by splicing.

THREE ASPHYXIATED.

Widow, Her Son and a Boarder Are Found Dead in Their Home in New York City.

New York, Nov. 11.—Sarah Frost, a widow, Henry Frost, her son, and James Kiley, a boarder, were found dead from inhaling illuminating gas in their apartments in West Thirty-seventh street Monday. The rubber tubing of a gas range had accidentally become detached during the night.

Study American Industries.

New York, Nov. 11.—The party of 30 Englishmen now in this country with Alfred Moseley to study American industrial development will leave New York at 8:40 a. m. on Thursday next. Their first stop will be at Schenectady, where the locomotive building plant and electrical works will be visited, and then the party will proceed to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Washington, and Philadelphia, returning to New York in time to attend the meeting of the Civic Federation on December 8.

MORE OFFICERS NEEDED.

Admiral Taylor, Chief of Bureau of Navigation, Says This Is the Cry of the Navy.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The most crying need of the navy according to the annual report of Admiral H. C. Taylor, chief of the bureau of navigation, is more officers to man our warships. He declares that the preparations now going on for the mobilization of the fleet for the winter maneuvers in the West Indies has brought the department face to face with the critical condition due to lack of officers, which, he says, has reached such a point as to be dangerous to the efficiency of the fleet. He says that the number of officers on our ships is less than the number on board the ships of other navies although, as a matter of fact, our ships require more officers than the ships of other navies because we are compelled to man our vessels with green crews, having little or no knowledge of sea life. He submits a table showing that the present needs of the naval service require 1,600 officers, while the number on the navy list, including midshipmen after graduation, is only 1,023, or 577 short. This table is based upon the lowest possible number of officers needed on our battleships, 17, against an average number of officers for similar ships in foreign navies of 33 in England, 26 in France and 20 in Germany. He figures that the vessels now authorized by congress, but not completed, will require 498 additional officers, to which is to be added 25 per cent. for officers sick or on shore duty and 160 for casualties during the next four years, or a total for the vessels now building of 783. This number added to the present shortage, 577, will give 1,360. The graduates from the naval academy during the next four years will be 355, leaving a total deficit July 1, 1906, of 1,005, not counting officers for auxiliaries who would be required in the event of hostilities. In addition to the increase of midshipmen provided for by the last congress, Admiral Taylor, therefore, recommends a further increase of one midshipman for each member and delegate in the house and each senator, one from the District of Columbia and ten annually at large. He also recommends that the number of lieutenant commanders be increased 30 lieutenants (senior grade), 50 lieutenants (junior grade), and ensigns 350.

HORRIBLE CRIME.

Seventeen-Year-Old Girl Assaulted and Murdered—Arrest of a Suspect.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Anna Mitchell, 17 years of age, employed by Capt. Adrian W. Mather, at Loudonville, three miles from Albany, was murdered some time Sunday night. She left her employer's house early in the evening to visit her parents, whose home is about a mile distant. Her body was found Monday in a field in the rear of Capt. Mather's home, with the head crushed in. No weapon of any kind was found near the body. An autopsy revealed the fact that Miss Mitchell had been criminally assaulted before the murder was committed. Her skull was fractured and the entire left side of her face was shockingly cut and mashed, apparently with a club. There was also a hole above the right eye the size of a silver dollar. Detectives Nolan and Wilson, of the Albany detective force, have lodged in the central police station Fred Krapp, a farmhand, charged with the crime.

SCORES LABOR UNIONS.

President Eliot, of Harvard, Denounces Them, and Praises the "Strike Breakers."

Boston, Nov. 11.—Before the Economic club of Boston at their banquet Monday night, President Eliot, of Harvard, denounced the labor unions of the country as opposed to the education of young men, and what he termed "their fight against the development of manly instincts." In closing, he characterized the strike breaker or "scab," as he called him, as "a good type of the American hero." President Eliot's objection to the labor unions, was, he said, that the object of the union seemed to be work as few hours as possible, produce as little as possible during that time and to receive as much money as possible for the service given. This attitude was in effect nothing more than a constant fight against the development of manly instincts.

A Heroic Action.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 11.—John Perew dove 50 feet and rescued a drowning man here Monday. John Dugan fell from a boat at the Pittsburg Coal company's plant. Perew was at work on the machinery, 50 feet above the water. Dugan was going down for the third time. Perew sprang and cleared the boat. He seized Dugan just in time. The men were hauled on board, the water was pumped out of Dugan and he revived.

ON ITS OWN MERITS.

The Second Pie Was One That Would "Go Down" Without the Maker's Praise.

A young man who spent his summer vacation on a Maine farm says that new instances of the thrift and shrewdness of his landlady are constantly thrusting themselves upon his attention, relates Youth's Companion.

One day a wagon load of unexpected relatives descended on the farm, and the mistress was, as she afterward frankly said, "put to it" to provide enough food for dinner. She brought forward among other things an apple pie, which seemed to the boarder far inferior to the pies she usually made. But when she served it she spoke of her reputation as a pie-maker.

"They do say at the sociables that nobody's pies quite come up to mine," she remarked, with a beaming smile; "and apple pies are what you might call my specialty. I've often been asked for the receipt, but I tell 'em it's knack and judgment does it, not rule."

The pie disappeared and then, when her guests were not as hungry as they had been, she brought forth a second pie, flaky of crust and luscious to the taste.

"Why, Aunt Mary," said the youngest of the party, a boy of 12, "I think this pie's ever so much better than the other, and you haven't said a word about it!"

His aunt looked at him without so much as a twinkle in her eyes.

"This one will go down without praising, I reckon," she said, gravely.

It Made a Difference.

A man of literary aspirations who had his way yet to make in the world wrote a poem, which he submitted to his wife before sending it out for publication. "Why, Henry," she said on looking it over, "you have made 'hundred' rhyme with 'onward.' 'That's all right," he replied; "Tennyson did it." "Yes," rejoined his wife, "Tennyson could do such a thing, but you can't, Henry."—Chicago Chronicle.

"Yes, stranger, they hatched out frozen chickens."—Chicago Daily News.

A Surprised Physician.

A dying patient recovers through the interposition of a humble German.

Chicago, Nov. 15. Some weeks ago Dr. G., a very reputable and widely-known physician, living on C Street, was called to attend a very complicated case of Rheumatism. Upon arriving at the house he found a man about forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame dangerously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knees and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed, and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The weight of the clothing was so painful, that means had to be adopted to keep it from the patient's body.

The doctor saw that his assistance would be of no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door, weeping. Almost immediately the grief-stricken ones were addressed by an humble German. He had heard of the despair of the family, and now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. The poor wife applied this remedy. The first application eased the patient very much; after a few hours they used it again, and, wonder of wonders, the pain vanished entirely! Every subsequent application improved the patient, and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after, he was indeed surprised.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. MAY HAULE, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

Case No. 49,073. Mrs. M. Isted of 1077 Strand Street, Galveston, Tex., who is proprietor of a boarding house at that address, numbering among her boarders a dozen medical students, says: "I caught cold during the flood of September, 1900, and it settled in my kidneys. Despite the fact that I tried all kinds of medicine and was under the care of physicians, the excruciating twinges and dull aching across the small of my back refused to leave, and trouble with the kidney secretions began to set in. From then, ordinary Anglo-Saxon fails to describe the annoyance and suffering I endured. The fearful pain through my body, loss of appetite, loss of sleep, consequent loss of energy, and, finally, an indication of complete dissolution compelled me, from sheer agony and pain, to either lie on the floor and scream, or forced me into spasms. On such occasions my husband called in a physician, whose morphine treatment relieved me temporarily. I grew weaker and thinner, and so run down physically that nothing was left but skin and bone. All my friends, acquaintances, and neighbors knew about my critical condition, and on one occasion I was reported dead and they came to see my corpse. At last the doctors attending me held a consultation and agreed that if I did not undergo an operation I could not live. Preparations were made, a room selected at the city hospital, and they even went so far as to have the carriage brought to the door to carry me there. I don't know why, but something told me not to go, and I absolutely refused. Now I want the reader to grasp every word of the following: A friend of ours, a Mr. McGaund, knowing that my kidneys were the real cause of the entire trouble, brought a box of Doan's Kidney Pills to the house, and requested me to give them a trial. I had taken so much medicine that I was more than discouraged, and had little, if any, faith in any preparation. However, I reasoned if they did not do me good they could not possibly make me worse, so I began the treatment. After the third dose, I felt something dart across me like a flash of lightning, and from that moment I began to improve. The pain in my back and kidneys positively disappeared, the kidney secretions became free and natural. At present I rest and sleep well, my appetite is good, my weight has increased from 118 to 155 pounds, and my flesh is firm and solid. My friends actually marvel at the change in my appearance. Words cannot express my own feelings. I am not putting it too strongly when I say I have been raised from the dead. I am satisfied that had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills, taken when they were, I would have been either lying in the Lake View Cemetery, or an invalid for the balance of my life. I will be only too pleased to give minute particulars of my case to any one calling on me, not, of course, out of idle curiosity, but if they really have kidney complaint and want to know what course to pursue to get relief."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Isted will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

President Roosevelt's Message Is Nearly Completed.

A Forecast of His Views on Trusts, Currency Reform and Tariff—Attitude as to Cuba is Unchanged.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The Tribune's Washington special says: President Roosevelt has his annual message to congress so far advanced toward completion that the single week which will remain before the assembling of congress after his return to Washington on November 23 will be sufficient for its completion and printing. Although the contents of President Roosevelt's message will be kept secret until it is forwarded to congress, enough is known as to the way in which some of its topics will be treated to enable a forecast of these features to be made.

No Change Toward Cuba.
That there has been no change in the attitude of the administration on Cuban reciprocity will be made apparent, but whether the message will urge legislation or will promise the transmission of a Cuban reciprocity treaty to the senate probably will depend upon the progress that may be made in the next two weeks toward the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty.

Probable Action on Trusts.
Interest in the forthcoming message is largely centered in what the president may have to say on the subject of trust regulation. The president will urge congress to consider this subject carefully, with the view to the enactment of legislation which will regulate the trusts without endangering the industries in which they are engaged.

The message probably will refer to the strike in the anthracite mines and to the progress being made toward an adjustment of the difficulties between the mine workers and the mine owners.

Will Urge Reciprocity Treaty.
There will be nothing in the message favoring the abandonment of the principles of protection, but this will not prevent him from recommending the reduction, by direct enactment or by reciprocal agreements with foreign nations, of rates of duty which may no longer be needed for purposes of protection. It has been announced by a member of the cabinet that the message will favor such reductions, and that it will also urge the creation of a permanent commission which can at all times give expert consideration to the needs of the government and of the varying interests, thus enabling it to make recommendations to congress which will save the committees charged with the preparation of revenue laws a good deal of labor and insure a more intelligent framing of such laws.

Views on Currency Reform.
Closely allied to the question of revenue is the subject of currency and banking reform. Secretary Shaw is heartily in favor of the establishment of a system of asset banking which would give greater flexibility to the national bank currency of the country, and would enable the banks themselves to tide over many periods of monetary stringency, in which they must now appeal to the treasury for help. If the president does not specifically recommend such legislation in his message he probably will call the attention of congress to the recommendations of the secretary of the treasury.

To Ask Increase in Navy.
The message will indorse the recommendations which Secretary Moody will make in his annual report for the increase and improvement of the navy. President Roosevelt has never lost an opportunity to insist that the United States should have the best navy in the world in proportion to its size. His recommendations will not only look to continuing the policy of building fighting ships of the highest efficiency and the provision of officers and men to man them, but will also refer to the necessity of thorough training of officers and men, and to have the value to the service of maneuvers such as those which were carried on off the coast of New England last summer and those which are about to begin under the direction of Admiral Dewey in the Caribbean sea.

Donkhorobers Coraled.
Minnedosa, Man., Nov. 10.—After one of the most exciting incidents in the history of the northwest, the Donkhorob fanatics have been forcibly entrained, loaded in cars like cattle, and were guarded by a large detachment of mounted police, who were kept busy preventing the guarded Russians from throwing themselves from the car windows. A military special of ten coaches left here with the army at ten o'clock and unloaded it the Yorkton early to-day. The mounted police will drive the Donkhorob to their northern villages, ending perhaps the most remarkable experience in Canadian history.

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN ARE SLOWLY DYING FROM CATARRH

Miss Katherine Dauter.

Pe-ru-na Cures, That is Why the People Like It.

All the Advertisements in the World Could Not Make Pe-ru-na as Popular as It Is.

Miss Margaret Donnelly, 21 Webster Place, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Pe-ru-na was recommended to me about a year ago for catarrh with which I had been troubled nearly all my life, but which had given me serious trouble a few months before I took Pe-ru-na. In two weeks my head cleared up, I did not have headaches, and in a short time felt perfectly well."—Margaret Donnelly.

Margaret Donnelly.

Miss Jennie Driscoll.

November Colds Should Not Be Allowed to Develop Into Chronic Catarrh.

Pe-ru-na Cures a Cold Promptly and Permanently.

"I am glad to recommend Pe-ru-na as it has done so much for me. I had been a great sufferer from catarrhal colds until I was urged to try Pe-ru-na, and I am happy to say that it has entirely cured me. I shall never be without it and most cheerfully recommend it to others who are afflicted as I have been."—Katherine Dauter, 239 13th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Most people think the success of Pe-ru-na depends upon the use of advertisements. Undoubtedly the advertisements help some. But by far the greatest number of people who hear of Pe-ru-na, have their attention called to it by a friend.

Some one gets cured of chronic catarrh by Pe-ru-na. After he is certain of his cure, he is sure to recommend it to his friends. Friend recommends it to friend and the news spreads from tongue to tongue.

All the advertisements in the world could not make Pe-ru-na as popular as it is. Pe-ru-na cures. That is the reason people like it. Pe-ru-na cures a very stubborn disease. That is why everyone recommends it. Pe-ru-na cures chronic catarrh after all other remedies fail, which explains why neighbor recommends it to neighbor. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh permanently, and this way has gained a life-long friend.

People who have been cured by Pe-ru-na many years ago have been eager to recommend Pe-ru-na to their friends ever since. This is the way Pe-ru-na is advertised. It advertises itself. Its merits are its chief advertisement. Once cured of so distressing and exasperating a malady as catarrh, it becomes the duty of every one to pass it along; to call the attention of those who are still victims, to a remedy that rarely fails to cure.

Beware of Cheap Imitations of Pe-ru-na—Be Sure That You Get Pe-ru-na.

There are no substitutes for Pe-ru-na. Allow no one to persuade you that there is something just as good. The success of Pe-ru-na has tempted many people to devise cheap imitations. Beware of them. Be sure that you get Pe-ru-na. Miss Jennie Driscoll, 870 Putnam ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I heard so much in praise of Pe-ru-na as a specific for catarrhal affections that when I found myself with a bad case of catarrh of the head and throat Pe-ru-na was the first thing that I thought of. And my convictions were not wrong, for in a few weeks after using Pe-ru-na systematically I was entirely rid of this aggravating and distressing disease, catarrh.

"If people knew how efficient Pe-ru-na was for this trouble they would not hesitate to try it. I have all the faith in the world in it, and have never known of a case where the person was not cured in a short time."—Jennie Driscoll.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

He Lost.
A Quaker city gossip tells this story of a young man who apologized for being late at a dinner party: "Awfully glad to see you, Mr. Blank," said the hostess. "So good of you to come. And all the way from New York, too! But where is your brother?" "I am commissioned to tender his regrets. You see, we are so busy just now that it was impossible for both of us to get away, and so we tossed up to see which of us should come," said the young man. "How nice! Such an original idea! And you won't." "No," said the young man, absently; "I lost."—Pittsburg Bulletin.

COUNTY GLEANINGS.

Cider is selling at 8 cents a gallon in Manchester.

Unadvised ladies are preparing for a church fair to be held Dec. 1.

Revival meetings are to be held at the Methodist church in Manchester soon.

Henry Sager, of Francisco, had 150 pounds of pork stolen from his cellar recently.

The Rural Telephone Co. has been putting in some taller and stronger poles at Stockbridge.

Jacob Weber, of Freedom, has made over 4,000 barrels of cider at his mill so far this season.

The Sunday schools in the townships of Waterloo and Henrietta held a convention at Munith Sunday.

Jonathan McGee, of Ypsilanti, the colored man who claimed to be 116 years old, died Saturday after three months' illness.

The German Lutheran society at Francisco, shipped 5,000 pounds of farm produce to the orphans' home at Detroit Oct. 31.

Washtenaw county farmers who have been experimenting in feeding their hogs with partly decayed potatoes now wish they had not done it, as many of the hogs have died.

Miss Edith Skidmore, daughter of Clinton Skidmore, of Stockbridge, died Thursday, Nov. 6, of consumption, aged 22 years. She had been a school teacher for several years.

Manchester Herald: Theo. Ulrich's barn in Freedom burned Wednesday morning, Nov. 5. Three horses, a quantity of hay and other things were burned. One of the horses burst the barn door open and escaped.

John Crane has bought the plant of the Ypsilanti Commercial from George B. Kenny, who purchased it in connection with the sale of the Ann Arbor Printing Co.'s effects, and will run a job printing office in Ypsilanti.

Ed. Hoxie, of Wampler's Lake, was fined $50 and costs by a Jackson justice for killing a deer out of season on his premises. It is said by some to be the deer that escaped last year from Thos. Birkett's farm near Dexter.

The grand lodge of Oddfellows of Michigan is desirous of obtaining a site, containing from 50 to 100 acres of land, near Ann Arbor, on which to locate an Oddfellows' home. The site must be donated, and $200,000 will be spent in erecting buildings, etc., upon it.

The Livingston County Mutual Telephone Co. is a newly incorporated concern with $10,000 capital divided into 200 shares of $50 each. The headquarters of the company will be at Pinckney and it is conducted on the same principles as the Chelsea Rural Telephone Co. One share of $50 gives its holder a telephone with free use of all the company's lines. The running expenses of the company will be met by money received from line service and rentals.

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dempseytown, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c. at Glazier & Stimson's drug store.

Over twenty-three hundred patients were received at the University hospital, University of Michigan, during the year ending June 30, 1902. The exact number was 2,307. Of these 1,353 were males, and 954 females. Classified according to conjugal condition, 1,163 were married, 962 single, and 182 widowed. This is the first time for some years that the number of married has exceeded the number of single. Three hundred and eighty-six of the total number were housewives, 156 farmer's wives, 359 farmers, and 206 University of Michigan students.

In a little over six years the bindery in connection with the library of the University of Michigan has more than paid for itself. The cost of the plant was $715.90. Since it was established, $11,371.58 has been paid for wages, and $8,181.24 for material. This makes the total expenditures $15,268.72. The present value of the plant and the material on hand is estimated at $1,200, and the value of the work done by the bindery is estimated at $15,263.59—a total credit of $16,463.59. This gives a balance of $1,194.87 in favor of the bindery, after paying for itself.

The Youth's Companion in 1903.

During 1903 the Youth's Companion will publish in 52 weekly issues 6 serial stories, each a book in itself, reflecting American life in home, camp and field; 50 special articles contributed by famous men and women—travellers, essayists, soldiers, sailors, statesmen and men of affairs; 200 thoughtful and timely editorial articles on important public and domestic questions; 250 short stories by the best of living story-writers—stories of character, stories of achievement, stories of humor; 1000 short notes on current events, and discoveries in the field of science and industry; 2000 bright and amusing anecdotes, items of strange and curious knowledge, poems and sketches.

This is what the Youth's Companion offers its readers during 1903. And the quality of it is fully equal to the quantity. It is edited for the entire family. The busiest people read it because it is condensed, accurate and helpful.

Its weekly summary of important news is complete and trustworthy. Its editorial comment on political and domestic questions is non-partisan; it aims to state facts in such a way that the reader can use them as the basis of an intelligent opinion. Its weekly article on hygiene is of the utmost value for preserving the health of the household. It reflects on every page the wholesome, industrious, home-loving, home-making side of American life—the life of noble aims and honorable ambitions.

A full announcement of the new volume will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address on request. The new subscriber for 1903 who sends $1.75 for the new volume at once will receive free all the remaining issues for 1902, including the Double Holiday Numbers, also the Companion Calendar for 1903, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.
