

As a wonder, the two-minute trotter lasted just about that long.

"An artistic swindle" is impersonal, but it involves one of more artistic swindlers.

It would be a weak kind of patriotism that could not survive if deprived of the toy pistol.

Mme. Melba refuses to be interviewed by reporters. Must be afraid of striking a false note.

Every man has his price, but most of us are able to remain ostensibly honest because we can't get it.

The day still may come when the American trotting horse will be used to set the pace for automobile races.

Sometimes the man who proudly wears a campaign button in his coat lapel has to fasten his suspender with a nail.

You can never make a woman believe that the grocer who stops to admire the baby is giving her short weight.

It is reported that the recording angel having charge of the New York political books is suffering from writer's cramp.

Probably a considerable part of the expenditure of $1,336,000 for target practice in the navy is required for new targets.

The Senate has been compelled to hesitate in deciding some vexatious questions. But "is marriage a failure" is not one of them.

It will pay you to be just as economical with coal this winter as you were a year ago, even though there may be no necessity.

Chile takes this occasion to invite public attention to several excellent bargains in battleships only slightly used and as good as new.

Rev. Anna H. Shaw declares that the daughters of the Revolution are nonexistent, but, after all, isn't that lovely woman's privilege?

It is a fine assumption of courage and sangfroid which the Canadians are now giving, considering that nobody is holding Algy Sartoris.

A couple who had been married on top of the Montebello, June 9, came down to earth on June 6, Nov. 10, and other couples who had been wedded.

Santo Domingo's people are determined that they will be no longer ruled by a person of the name of Wosy GH, and who can blame them?

If the Princess Radziwill gets that $7,000,000 from the estate of Cecil Rhodes, Charles M. Schwab might show her where she could invest it.

Most of the strike troubles are confined to Spain and the United States. Maybe this is a punishment to the two countries for warring with each other.

Miss Ellen M. Stone has managed to restrain any impulse she may have had to write a flattering obituary of Sarefof, the Macedonian insurgent leader.

From Sir Thomas' willingness to give up the cup races it must be inferred that being called a jolly good fellow is not quite so effective a jolly as had been supposed.

Never mind Ann. The Memphis Commercial-Appeal says: "There is a girl over in London who has twelve different personalities. What kin is she to Joe Chamberlain?"

Japan and Russia continue to deny that they are anything but the best of friends, but no soldier or sailor on either side would find it prudent to ask for a leave of absence.

Two boys, 7 and 5 years old, have just traveled from Scotland to Seattle alone. It's a great deal easier to check a child on a railway than it is sometimes to check a child at home.

The report that a hen 26 years old is on exhibition at Budapest is probably true. At least we are sure that the hen is as far away as Budapest, or our landlady would have purchased it by this time.

That Canadian statesman who suggests that Uncle Sam is trying to get the north pole preparatory to annexing Canada deserves fame as the first man who has discovered a practical use for the pole.

H. B. Marriott-Watson, who says the American woman is a destroyer of civilized society, should stick to straight fiction in the form of the novel. There is no demand for fiction in the diluted form of the critical essay.

Bishop Potter severely condemns the one-child family and expresses deep pity for that "most unfortunate" child. By the way, why don't some of these propounders of the race suicide theory specify about what would be the happy medium?

MICHIGAN NEWS

CONTRIBUTIONS FROM SPECIAL CORRESPONDENTS
THROUGHOUT THE STATE

BOARD REFUSES TO SPREAD TAX

Trouble Between Township Trustees and Drain Commissioner.

There is trouble between the supervisors and the drain commissioner of Livingston county, and the matter has gotten into the courts. A long drain was constructed by the county drain commissioner through the townships of Chocoma and Conway at a cost of $22,000. The board refused to spread the tax on the two townships, and the commissioner is at a loss what to do. The supervisors have been ordered by the circuit court to show cause on why they should not spread the tax.

BLIND MINERS MAKING BROOMS

Calumet and Hecla Company to Provide for Blind Men Employees.

To provide for blind men who have lost their sight as a result of mining accidents the Calumet and Hecla Mining company has established a broom factory at Hancock, where blind men are now receiving instructions, and are steadily becoming proficient. The instructor, blind himself, is C. H. Van Ettee of Coopersville, Mich., a graduate of the Michigan School for the Blind at Lansing. The company is footing all bills.

Damages for Motorman.

A jury in the Circuit court at Lansing has rendered a verdict of $100 damages against the city of Lansing in favor of Wheeler Mumford, a motorman on the Lansing street railway, who was arrested by city officials for attempting to run the company's cars when the street railway system was deemed to be in a dangerous condition. The court held that while the railway company was maintaining a nuisance the arrest of the motorman was without authority.

To Clear Tax Rolls.

The supervisors of Montmorency county have adopted a resolution to rebate 75 per cent of all county and township taxes delinquent under certain other conditions. Their contention is that by so doing the rolls will be cleaned up and future taxes be paid, but it looks to be discrimination against those who were foolish enough to pay their taxes when they became due.

Train Strikes Handcar.

A handcar was run over on the Grand Trunk with a driver thinking it was a train. It is the little handcar that was run over. John Schable left Monday morning for New York city where he will take a boat for Germany, returning in the where he got married. Both men were seriously injured and Cousin died shortly after.

Roller is Too Heavy.

The steam road roller, recently purchased by the city, has arrived at Manistique, but an unlooked for complication has arisen. Owing to its weight the roller cannot be taken across the iron bridge that connects the east and west sides. It will be necessary to load the roller on a car and have it transferred over the railroad bridge.

Hard Times.

The Crystal Falls police court is complaining of "hard times." Heretofore, during the good times, when a "drunk and disorderly" was picked up he generally got out cash enough to pay his fine and costs, but all that has been stopped now. They all take the days and the jingle of the coin in the cash box is a rare sound.

To Cut Off Saloons.

The Montmorency council is now considering an ordinance which will make a considerable reduction in the number of saloons in the city. It provides that only after two-thirds of the property owners within 500 feet in every direction from the proposed saloon location have given their consent will a license be granted.

Return to Native Land.

Many of the foreigners thrown out of employment by the closing of upper peninsula iron mines are returning to their native lands. Steamship agents report outgoing traffic unusually heavy from all sections of the iron mining region, and bankers a material withdrawal of deposits, manifestly for transfer abroad.

Burglar is Kind.

Some weeks ago a Traverse City man's house was burglarized and among the articles taken was a certificate of deposit on a local bank. Realizing that he could not cash it, the obliging burglar, instead of tearing up the paper, brought it back and slipped it under the door of the owner's house.

Cruel Humor.

Someone, for a Halloween "joke" cut off the tail of a cat at Grand Blanc. The villagers are indignant, and if the brute can be located he will be given something that will radically change his ideas of humor.

Masons to Lay Cornerstone.

By Dec. 1 it is expected the work on the new courthouse at Flint will be far enough advanced so that the cornerstone may be laid. The ceremony will be conducted by the Michigan grand lodge of Masons.

FINEST KAOLIN IN THE WORLD

Product Mined in the Copper Region is Almost Pure.

It is not generally known, perhaps, that the copper district possesses other mines than those producing the red metal. However, in Ontonagon county, for instance, the production of kaolin has attained considerable proportions and given work to no inconsiderable number of men. The mineral is taken out in blocks and piled up to dry. It is nearly white when the moisture has been evaporated and consists of a fine, smooth, powder-like clay. Kaolin as ordinarily found has to be refined, but the Ontonagon product is so pure that it is shipped without being put through the usual washing process.

Church Windows Are Broken.

The windows of the Methodist church at Charles were broken by stones hurled from the outside. Pieces of glass and one of the stones struck members of the congregation. Rev. C. H. Rutledge has begun a crusade against the local saloons and the stone throwing is thought to be the result. The village has offered a liberal reward for the capture of the offenders.

Builds Model of Plant.

At an expense of $1,800 the Pioneer Iron Company of Marquette is having a model of its new furnace constructed for exhibition. The entire plant, stack, stoves, chemical retorts and kilns will be shown. The furnace, which has not been in commission a year, is the largest charcoal iron plant in the world, and represents an expenditure of a million dollars.

Babe Is Unhurt.

A woman about 25 years old, with an infant in her arms, jumped from a Grand Trunk passenger train near Emmet. The woman was badly bruised in her fall and rolled over several times, but managed to retain her hold on the baby. The baby seems to have escaped without injury. The lady thought the train was passing through Emmet and she did not want to be carried by.

Wind Robs Woman.

While on the streets at Benton Harbor Mrs. Ray Hemingway, on opening her purse, had all her money switched away by the wind. Mrs. Hemingway had drawn several months' savings from the bank and was carrying it in her purse. Margaretta Koppier Mary Koch, Nina Schnaitman, Lena Schwicklerath, May Stieglitz, Beulah Turner and Wm. W. W.

postmaster, who disappeared several weeks ago, leaving behind him a note saying he had committed suicide, has returned home. His wife gave birth to twins a few days ago and when Grundy learned the news he hustled home from Two Rivers, Wis., where he had been in hiding.

Rolling Logs, Injure Man.

R. Badlong, driving a logging train near Honor was caught under rolling logs and severely injured internally. Besides being frightfully crushed, the logs rolled down a 25-foot embankment. Several other men were carried down, but escaped uninjured.

Veteran Justice.

"Judge" Vanderberg, a justice of the peace at Menominee, has officiated in that capacity for the past thirty-three years. He was one of the first justices elected in that city and is booked to continue in office as long, evidently, as he desires.

Rebuilding Quincy.

Work has been begun upon the new brick buildings which are to take the place of the wooden structures on Quincy's main business street which were burned some weeks ago.

Plan Theater.

Plans have been drawn for the proposed new theater at Sault Ste. Marie, and efforts are now being made to interest capital in the project.

Salting Station.

A salting station will be established at Bad Axe next year. Two hundred acres of cucumbers will be contracted in the vicinity of the village.

Start Library at Lansing.

The cornerstone of the new Carnegie library building at Lansing has been laid. The new building will cost $35,000.

Hunting Licenses.

The demand for deer hunters' licenses in Marquette county this fall is a record-breaker. Up to the opening day of the season over 1,600 had been issued in that county alone. Last year the number at the corresponding date was 1,200.

New Management for Hotel.

The Bailey Hotel, the leading hotel at Ionia, has passed into the hands of Henry Peterlin of Grand Rapids, and Henry Nibbelink of Detroit, who have already taken charge.

PROTECTION FOR LUMBER MEN

Companies Refuse to Allow Hunters to Shoot on Their Lands.

The I. Stephenson Lumber Co., of Wells, has issued a peremptory injunction that no hunters will be allowed to hunt or fire guns in the woods in the vicinity of the camps of the company, and any hunters found hunting on lands in the vicinity of the camps will be prosecuted. The lumber companies of the upper peninsula are forced to do this in order to protect the lives of their men from careless hunters. A number of woodsmen were accidentally shot last year.

Church Reform.

Rev. Dudley Powers, the new rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Flint, created something of a sensation at his first service. "What you need here," he said, "is a place where you can go. You need a parish house—a place where, with the church's influence about them, young men can go and enjoy themselves; where they can smoke, if they care to; where they can play billiards and smoke at the same time. It would be better than a beer-smelling barroom, and the young men would think so."

Seeks Cheap Land.

An eastern man who evidently needs to learn something about the value of good farming land writes as follows to a Cassopolis real estate dealer: "One hundred and sixty acres of all tillable smooth, level; clear of all rock, hard pan, hills, bluffs, gullies or ravines; black, rich loam soil. Must be located in good farming section where good crops can be raised to perfection with a chance for failure. Am willing to pay $10 per acre for such land if you will furnish railroad fare for myself and family."

Cars Are Scarce.

Hay and bean shippers at Portland are being held up by the railroads, which refuse to furnish cars to transport their commodities to market. It is said orders have been issued forbidding the placing of cars for either of these commodities, the purpose being to take out the apples and potatoes first, as they are in the perishable class. Eastern cars are used for hay shipments largely and these cars are being used in the eastern territory, crops all over the country being large.

Favors Saloonkeeper.

A saloonkeeper at Big Rapids, Mich., who was charged with selling liquor to a minor, Judge Palmer, before whom the case was heard, roasted the anti-saloonist in proper style for his action, which he characterized as spite work, and let the saloonkeeper off as lightly as he could under the law.

No Site for New Hotel.

Mayor Woodworth, who is much interested in securing for Bay City a new hotel, says he has three men who will put up $25,000 a piece, but that no site can be secured. He says there is no trouble in getting capital, but attempts to secure options at reasonable prices met with failure, property owners boosting prices the minute they learned what was wanted.

Buy 60,000 Acres of Land.

The Cleveland Cliffs Iron company has purchased from the Manistique Lumber company 60,000 acres of land lying in one unbroken tract, in Alger, Luce and Schoolcraft counties, for $165,000. The timber on the land is spruce and hardwood, the pine having been cut. It will be used for pulp wood and charcoal.

Guilty of Manslaughter.

John T. Farrell, who shot and killed George Temple at Stittsville last June, was convicted at Lake City of manslaughter and immediately sentenced to from seven and a half to fifteen years' imprisonment at Jackson. The shooting was the result of a quarrel in a saloon where Farrell was a bartender.

Cordwood Is in Demand.

There isn't a stick of cordwood to be had in Calumet, and people in the habit of using wood for fuel are in distress. The famine will not be relieved until there is enough snow to make good hauling for heavy loads.

Policemen Obey Orders.

The police commission at Lansing ordered the policemen to enforce the law requiring the use of lights on bicycles at night, and one of the first offenders gathered in was a member of the commission.

Farmer's Mistake.

A Reading farmer planted a lot of broom corn seed for sorghum. Last week he cut it up and took it to mill to have his syrup made, and there learned that it was broom corn instead of sorghum. It was soiled for broom making and no good for syrup.

Farmer Does Well.

Last spring William Luckert bought a farm at Eau Claire, and this fall his apple crop alone sold for enough to pay two-thirds of the purchase price of the farm.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS:

To the Senate and House of Representatives.

I have convened the congress that it may consider the legislation necessary to put into operation the commercial treaty with Cuba, which was ratified by the senate at its last session and subsequently by the Cuban government. I deem such legislation demanded not only to our interest, but by our honor. We cannot with propriety abandon the course upon which we have so wisely embarked. When the acceptance of the amendment was required from Cuba by the action of the congress of the United States, this government thereby definitely committed itself to the policy of treating Cuba as occupying a position as regards this country. It was provided that when the island became a free and independent republic she should stand in such close relations with the United States as to come within our system of international policy, and if necessarily followed that she must also to a certain degree become included within the lines of our domestic policy. If Cuba as Cuba is, it would not be possible for this country to permit the strategic base of the island by any foreign military or naval power. It is therefore certain limitations have been impressed upon her financial policy and that naval stations have been conceded by her to the United States.

The negotiations as to the details of these naval stations are on the eve of completion. They are so situated as to be of great importance to the United States. The idea that there is the intention ever to use them against Cuba, or otherwise that for the protection of Cuba from the assaults of foreign foes and the better safeguarding of American interests in the waters south of us. These interests have been largely increased by the consequences of the war with Spain and have been further increased by the building of the isthmian canal. They are both military and economic. The granting to us by Cuba of the right of transit through the canal, of the utmost importance to the United States, and is proof of the good faith with which Cuba is treating the United States. She has made great progress in her independence and has established a republic of the new world. She is a loyal and obedient ally, and she is entitled to like treatment by us. The treaty submitted to you for approval, secures to the United States the advantages as great as those given to Cuba. It is a treaty of friendship and good will, which is capable of great expansion, which is especially important to the development of our export trade. It is a treaty which is a guaranty of the good faith of our nation towards her young sister republic to the south, and which will be a source of mutual benefit and well-being to both. We are knit to her by the ties of the blood and the courage of our soldiers who fought for her in war; by the memories of our wisdom and integrity of our administrators who served her in peace and who started her on her way to independence; by the fact that we must help her on her way to independence. We must help her on her way to independence. We must help her on her way to independence.

The foregoing considerations caused the negotiations of the treaty with Cuba to be of a friendly character. They now, with equal force, support the legislation by the congress to supply the terms of the treaty. It is necessary to the success of the treaty to enact such legislation as will come promptly near a reputation of the pledged faith of the nation. A treaty which is a guaranty of the good faith of our nation towards her young sister republic to the south, and which will be a source of mutual benefit and well-being to both. We are knit to her by the ties of the blood and the courage of our soldiers who fought for her in war; by the memories of our wisdom and integrity of our administrators who served her in peace and who started her on her way to independence; by the fact that we must help her on her way to independence. We must help her on her way to independence. We must help her on her way to independence.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
White House, Nov. 10, 1903.

AMUSEMENTS IN DETROIT

Week Ending November 11.
DETROIT—Saturday Matinee at 2. Evenings at 7.30 and 9.30.
LUTHER—Matinee, Wed. and Sat. 2.50. Evenings 10.30 and 12.30. "The Middleman."
WHITNEY—Matinee 10.30 and 12.30. Evenings 7.30 and 9.30. "The Middleman."
COMET—Theater at Grand Rapids—Afternoon 2.30. Matinee 10.30 and 12.30. Evenings 7.30 and 9.30. "The Middleman."

MARKETS.

Live Stock.
Detroit—Cattle, Mich. cows and steers $12 to 15.50 each, veal calves $3.50 to 5.00 per cwt.
Hogs—Cows and pigs $12 to 15.50 each, light to medium hogs $12 to 15.50 each, heavy hogs $12 to 15.50 each, pigs $12 to 15.50 each.
Poultry—Cocks $12 to 15.50 each, hens $12 to 15.50 each, ducks $12 to 15.50 each, geese $12 to 15.50 each.

Grain.
Detroit—Wheat: No. 2 red $1.15; No. 2 white $1.10; No. 3 red $1.05; No. 3 white $1.00; No. 4 red $0.95; No. 4 white $0.90; No. 5 red $0.85; No. 5 white $0.80; No. 6 red $0.80; No. 6 white $0.75; No. 7 red $0.75; No. 7 white $0.70; No. 8 red $0.70; No. 8 white $0.65; No. 9 red $0.65; No. 9 white $0.60; No. 10 red $0.60; No. 10 white $0.55; No. 11 red $0.55; No. 11 white $0.50; No. 12 red $0.50; No. 12 white $0.45; No. 13 red $0.45; No. 13 white $0.40; No. 14 red $0.40; No. 14 white $0.35; No. 15 red $0.35; No. 15 white $0.30; No. 16 red $0.30; No. 16 white $0.25; No. 17 red $0.25; No. 17 white $0.20; No. 18 red $0.20; No. 18 white $0.15; No. 19 red $0.15; No. 19 white $0.10; No. 20 red $0.10; No. 20 white $0.05.

Chicago—No. 3 spring wheat 75¢; No. 2 spring wheat 70¢; No. 1 spring wheat 65¢; No. 4 spring wheat 60¢; No. 5 spring wheat 55¢; No. 6 spring wheat 50¢; No. 7 spring wheat 45¢; No. 8 spring wheat 40¢; No. 9 spring wheat 35¢; No. 10 spring wheat 30¢; No. 11 spring wheat 25¢; No. 12 spring wheat 20¢; No. 13 spring wheat 15¢; No. 14 spring wheat 10¢; No. 15 spring wheat 5¢; No. 16 spring wheat 0¢; No. 17 spring wheat 0¢; No. 18 spring wheat 0¢; No. 19 spring wheat 0¢; No. 20 spring wheat 0¢.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

A Brief Chronicle of All Important Happenings

SCOTCH FROM PANAMA.

The U. S. battleship Maine has arrived at Colon.

Gen. Reyes, Holguin and Ospina, leaders in Colombia, have been sent to Panama on a peace mission to try to induce the isthmians to return to the Colombian federation. The privileges of a United States warship have been offered to Gen. Reyes to reach Panama should he so desire.

The president's yacht, Mayflower, has arrived at Panama with Rear Admiral Walker, who is to investigate the situation for the president; Rear Admiral Cogan, who is to take command of the United States fleet on the Atlantic side, and Consul General Ingles. The latter was given an enthusiastic reception by the Panamanians. The Hamburg-American line steamer Scotia, which arrived off Colon on Sunday and which was believed to have on board the Colombian Gen. Reyes, had among her passengers a number of prominent Colombians who formed a peace commission from the department of Bolivar, but Gen. Reyes was not on board.

The revenues of the new republic if economically administered promise to meet all expenses. These revenues consist of the 10 per cent ad valorem duty on imports, slaughter house taxes, liquor licenses and similar sources of income, as well as the fair yearly sums derived from those holding a monopoly of the tobacco business, from the gambling privileges at Panama and Colon and from the lottery.

Strange Finds of Stolen Goods.

Several hundreds of dollars worth of plunder was found in the streets and alleys of Bellefontaine, O., Sunday morning, and the police attribute it to the search which has been inaugurated by the Big Four railway into the wholesale thefts of merchandise from cars between Bellefontaine and Indianapolis, and which has resulted in the arrest of a half dozen conductors, brakemen and switchmen at Indianapolis.

The police think that the plunder was brought during the night by railroad employees, and dumped about over town to avoid suspicion from other quarters. In the lot of goods found there were shoes, shirts, suitcases and almost every sort of merchandise.

New Find of Jesus' Words.

Biblical students are greatly interested in the archaeological discoveries of Dr. Bernard Grenfell, who has unearthed certain papyri buried in a Ptolemaic necropolis, south of Cairo. These papyri consist of a collection of sayings of Jesus Christ, and are apparently addressed to St. Thomas. Because of the fact that they are at variance with accepted texts, much discussion has been fomented. Dr. Grenfell at a meeting of the Egypt Exploration fund today, made public some of the documents. They are in general introduced with the words, "Jesus saith."

The ends of the lines are in most cases obliterated. One of the sayings reads: "Let not him that seeketh ease from his search; he will find and when he reaches the kingdom he shall have rest."

Daring Escape.

Four prisoners escaped from the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus by climbing to the roof of a cell block, through a ventilator, and sliding down a rope made of strips of leather belting, to the lawn in front of the prison. The escape of the prisoners was a daring one. The cell block from which they made their exit is in the front of the big prison, and the men dropped to the ground beneath a window in the warden's office, where the lights were burning brightly. A trust prisoner, seated at a desk near the window, saw the last man, who fell before he reached the end of the rope, limp away in the darkness. The alarm was given and a posse of prison guards, armed with Winchester, immediately started in pursuit.

Dowle to Build Another Zion City.

"I have just received an offer of 4,000,000 acres of land on which to build another Zion City, but the site must be kept secret at present," said John Alexander Dowle, speaking to his followers in Shiloh tabernacle, Zion City, Sunday. "What is more," Dowle continued, "I have an offer of 10,000 acres of land within thirty-five miles of New York city for the same purpose. That does not look as if our New York trip failed, does it?"

"I am going abroad January 3 after men and money," he said. "When I get back in June I will have planned a number of Zions. Then all Zion will start its work for building up Jerusalem."

Professional beggars are being driven out of eastern cities like New York, Boston and Philadelphia, by the Charity Organization societies. Hundreds of the worst characters have been photographed for identification. St. Louis is said to be the objective point of most of the exiles.

The sensational sermon preached by Rev. E. A. Silwood at Wilmington, Del., in which he justified the lynching and burning of George White, the negro who ravished and murdered Miss Helen Bishop last June, has been taken up by the presbytery and Rev. Ellwood will be tried on January 10.

Capt. Hobson has lost a gold medal studded with diamonds and worth $1,000, which had been presented to him by a southern society. It was in a purse of his sister Margaret, who was attending another sister in a New York sanitarium, and purse and all disappeared. Hobson has asked the police to find his trophy.

Broke Kitchener's Leg.

Lord Kitchener, commander-in-chief of the British forces in India, was with a serious accident while alone home from a country house near Simla, India. As he was passing through a tunnel his horse became frightened and collided with a wall. One of Lord Kitchener's legs was broken in two places. Some time afterward, coolies passing through the tunnel found the commander-in-chief lying there helpless and brought him to Simla. He is now reported to be doing well.

The Queen Mother to Quit Spain. It is rumored that the queen mother has decided to leave Spain and settle in Austria. She will probably go with the next two months. Her departure is due to the frequent quarrels with King Alfonso, who charges her with meddling in state affairs with a reactionary result, causing a growth of Republican sentiment in the country. At the recent local elections, nearly 1,000 Republicans being elected.

Forty Men Were Killed. Thirty-nine negroes and one white man were killed and 23 others injured in a rear-end collision on the Illinois Central road at Kentwood, eight miles from New Orleans. The local white people picked up two carloads of negro section hands and was waiting at the Kentwood switch for the late northern express train to pass it from the north. The train, going at forty miles an hour, crashed into the rear of the local train and the two coaches filled with negroes were demolished.

Plunder Gang in Alaska. Col. Marvin Grishy, formerly commander of Grishy's "rough riders," arrived in Washington from Alaska. He comes to refute the charges of plunder against him as United States district attorney for Alaska. Grishy says a number of officials in Alaska are organized into a gang for personal profit. He refused to join them and the charges were then trumped up.

Colombia Said to Be Sending Troops. Gen. Plaza, president of Ecuador, who called to President Marroquin of Colombia, sympathizing with him in the recent events on the isthmus of Panama, has received a reply from Gen. Reyes, Cabeleros, Ospina and Holguin are marching on Panama with a large army to subdue the isthmians.

CONDENSED NEWS.
A midwinter blockade along the whole Pacific coast from British Columbia to southern California has resulted from a fierce snowstorm which has prostrated all telegraph service and tied up railroads.

Smugglers at Boston have impounded Uncle Sam to the extent of $200,000, through collusion between them and employees of the customs office. This is the report of special treasury officers.

William B. Ash was arrested at Buffalo for the alleged theft of $2,000 in cash and papers and jewels valued at $3,250, from Charles N. Rapp Rapp's attorney located Ash in his quietude and he agreed to waive extradition.

Practical Jokers took a horse belonging to Mrs. Green, a Longmeadow widow, out of the stable, and while she was trying to trace the thief, they were taking it into her parlor. When she returned from her husband's found her parlor a wreck.

Philip Deliver, felon at the Harry E. Colburn, Williamsburg, was arrested only when the daughter of a house he was supposed to be looking after, admitted that he was her father and had come to see her.

William F. Peasey, of Bradenton, Pa., finding his wife in conversation with John Beardsley, stepped up to the latter and cut his throat. Beardsley had been expecting trouble and was carrying a revolver, but before he could use it he fell dead.

Dazed by blows struck by her who had insulted the young woman he was escorting, Rudolph Ludwig drew a revolver in Chicago and fired two shots. Both struck Frank Sanders, his companion, who was struggling with the crowd, and inflicted two fatal wounds.

Roland B. Molnau cannot recover

SCENES ON CHICAGO STREETS DURING STREET-CAR STRIKE

Table of Employees' Demands.

1. Wages—(a). Crows on electric cars 28 cents an hour.
- (b). Cable train runs, $2.80 a day; trailer conductors, $2.40 a day.
- (c). Overtime at rate of time and a half.
2. Operation—(a). Work day not more than 11 hours nor less than 10.
- (b). All day runs to be ten hours straight.
3. Arbitration—Grievances to be adjusted by an arbitration board comprising a company arbitrator, a representative of the union, and a third man selected by the two.
4. The Closed Shop—All employees to be taken into the union at the expiration of a forty-five day probation period.
5. Recognition of Union Officials—The company to receive officers of the union and committees when questions and grievances shall arise, also to allow officers leave of absence.
6. Penalty for Unjust Suspension—The company to reimburse any union man upon reinstatement if suspension is proved unjust.
7. Days Off Allowed—The company to allow men to register a week in advance for days desired off.
8. Pay for Injuries—The company to pay for medical attendance and all time lost owing to injury on duty.

At all labor disturbances with which police authorities have to cope, street car strike is the most dreaded. The passage of the vehicles through the streets gives opportunity for the sympathies of the strikers and the non-striker element actively to display their antipathy toward a corporation which they consider unfair. In the mob surrounded it. Frightened by the show of violence, Waterhouse is said to have abandoned the grip and taken to his heels. Braley was struck on the head with a stone and suffered a scalp wound. The train was drawn back to the barns by the wrecking wagon.

The crew of the fifth train out suffered most severely. William Watson was on the grip car and Conductor Harlow Orton was in charge of the trailer. The men had fought their way through the mob at Fortieth street and had run a gauntlet of strike sympathizers the entire distance to the southern terminus of the line, and were on the return trip, when a mob surrounded them at Forty-eighth street. It is understood that a plug in the cable him most," pursued the child. "He was my chum." "Ah! That makes it very hard," said Sir Henry. There was a long pause and then the little fellow asked earnestly: "Will you be my chum now?" "So they swore eternal friendship."

Current Runs Ferryboat.
A ferry is plying across the Mississippi river a short distance north of St. Joseph, which is described as something unique. It is not run by wind, steam or electricity, but solely by the force of the river's current. Its proprietors call it a "trolley ferry."

A steel cable is passed across the stream over the boat. This cable passes through the stationary pulleys on the deck. By means of these pulleys and the cable the boat is held so that the current of the river strikes it at an angle of about 45 degrees, and

SERIOUS EVIL OF THE DAY.
A Tendency to Exaggeration Becoming All Too Common.
Exaggeration is one of the most serious evils of the day. It is common in all the walks of life, people not being willing to see what is actually before their eyes, but permitting their imaginations to enlarge and extend their view frequently to the limit of the mental horizon. Few will deny its deleterious effect. Rumors on each side of the ocean for which there is no reasonable basis throw the country into a state of unhealthy anxiety and do positive harm at times of a serious character. Very recent events have strikingly illustrated this. It is the vogue, or it is a temporary evil which has seized upon the public, and there does not appear to be any remedy except to let it run its course like any other epidemic and pass away.—Baltimore American.

Substitutes for India Rubber.
Gutta-joolong is a material which is utilized as a substitute for and in conjunction with india rubber. It is a product of the East Indies, chiefly of the island of Borneo, and in the form in which it is imported is described as "whitish in color, looking something like marshmallow candy, smelling strongly of petroleum and oxidizing on exposure to the air, becoming hard." The same description says: "It is not a substitute for gutta-percha or india rubber, but is used chiefly as a filler in manufacturers of india rubber gum and gutta-percha." Its importation has increased from 6,500,000 pounds in 1899 to 14,000,000 pounds in 1903.

AFRICAN LAKE GOES DRY.

Scientists Much Puzzled Over Peculiar Happening.
Lake Shirwa, which has covered a considerable area of country to the south of Lake Nyassa, in Africa, ever since that region has been known to white men, has now dried up completely and local opinion leads to the theory that it has vanished for good. Still, it would scarcely be advisable for settlers to attempt the creation of any garden cities or other establishments anywhere on the bed of the old lake, which might fill up again at any time. Men drive their buggies and ride their horses along the soft, sandy beds of the Australian rivers in times of long drought, but when the rains come the river steamers resume their old places on the newly flushed streams. It is very odd that this great Shirwa lake should vanish so completely without any assignable reason and apprehension is felt lest something of the kind will happen to Nyassa or Tanganyika.

FLAG OF REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

The first upper square, to the left, is blue; the first lower square, to the left, is white, with a blue star in its center. The second upper square is white, with a red star in its center, and the second lower square is red.

FOR NEW YORK BEAUX.

Sample of Luxury Demanded in the Modern Babylon.

Another detail of luxury has been added to New York life. The barber shop, with its boot-cleaning stands, its chiropractist's stall and manicure cozy corner, has been found insufficient to meet the demands of the beaux of this modern Babylon. Four gentlemen's gentlemen, or valets, as they were known in the good old days, saved their money in private service and have opened a shop uptown in the middle of the theater district. A man who is not looking at his best can go into their place and for 25 or 50 cents come out looking as prim as a new pin. If he is caught in a rain-storm downtown during the day the gentlemen's gentlemen's shop will take care of him if he steps in on his way to the club or to dinner, black his boots, trim his hair, and see what we can do for him.

CATS CAUSE DIRE DISASTER.

Electric Sparks From Their Fur Blow Up Gas Tank.

"Can electric sparks from a cat's fur blow up a gas tank?" is a question presented by an explosion in the cat and dog "dispatch" in the shelter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at New York. The "dispatch," which is a steel cage charged with gas from the street main, contained ten or twelve cats that had been thrown in to be asphyxiated, when it blew up as employees were dumping another basketful of cats into it.

GRANT'S PEACE LETTER FOUND

Lost Epistle Accepting Presidential Nomination Restored.

The historic letter of Gen. Grant accepting the nomination to the presidency and ending with "let us have peace" has been found among some waste paper at Hartford, Conn. The letter, dated May 29, 1868, was addressed to Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, president of the National Union Republican convention. After Gen. Hawley went to Washington as senator the letter disappeared and was believed to have been lost.

HUNTER IN HARD LUCK.

Englishman Unknowingly Conflicts With Maine Game Laws.

Walter Keith Elliott, who represents himself as an English gentleman and soldier of fortune, came into Bangor, Me., from the woods, got drunk and was robbed. In court next morning he said he had been killing deer for men in a lumber camp, having slaughtered nineteen in twenty-one days. This was just seventeen deer over the legal limit and Elliott was astonished to learn that he was subject to a fine of $40 for each of the seventeen. The court dealt with it as a wholesale offense and let him off with a fine of $400. Being unable to pay, he went to jail for thirty days. Elliott appears to be a man of some consequence and was very indignant when taken to prison.

Memorial Left by Patriot.

While cutting a roadway near New Haven, Conn., last week Alexander Fraser discovered a relic of more than usual interest. He was removing a number of large stones that formed a part of the wall which extended along the side of the road, when he found a boulder that bore on its under side in large letters the words, "Liberty 1776, N. M." As the date coincides with the time of the signing of the declaration of independence, the inscription, it is thought, was cut in the stone by some liberty-loving patriot of that period.

Money Scarce in New York.

Recent disturbances in Wall street have had disastrous effect on New York society, many of those who have had to foot the bills finding themselves uncomfortably cramped. The usually brilliant Astor ball was a failure. A few weeks later it was seen that society was keeping to its country places, ostensibly because it had gone in for outdoor sports, but in reality from motives of economy. The theaters are suffering badly and there is a poor prospect ahead of the opera season.

City Railway's Reply to Demands.

1. Wages.

Increase not possible. Reason: Advances given a year ago; no corresponding increase in business during the year to warrant further advance.

2. Operation.

Refused on ground that the company could not enter into any agreement that would hamper or restrict it in the performance of its duty to the traveling public.

3. Arbitration. Accepted.

4. Closed shop.

Refused on the ground that it would give the union "complete and absolute control of the selection, employment, retention in service, and discipline of all employees."

5. Recognition of Union Officials. Accepted.

6. Penalty for Unjust Suspension.

Answered with the statement that "the company will not unjustly suspend or discharge any man."

7. Days Off Allowed.

Accepted insofar as it does not interfere with the company's services.

8. Pay for Injuries.

Refused with the statement "the company will not undertake so extensive an insurance scheme."

Six-Year-Old Chum of Irving.

When Sir Henry Irving was staying lately at Manchester, England, the 6-year-old son of William Mollison of Sir Henry's company strayed into his rooms one afternoon. Invited to make himself at home and take some refreshment, he consumed a pear and a bottle of lemonade with apparent satisfaction. Then, gazing steadily at his host, he said: "I do miss Phil May," referring to the artist who died recently. "So do we all," said Sir Henry, gravely. "Yes, but I miss Advised Turtle Soup.

A noted dealer in paintings was talking about the late George Innes, the landscape painter.

"Innes entered my shop one day," he said, "as I was studying a very old canvas. The varnish on this canvas had chipped, and the figures had become shrunken. I called one of my assistants and told him that the picture had better be revarnished."

"We want to bring those figures out," I explained.

"All right, sir," said the young man. "What varnish shall I use? Copal or mastic?"

"If you want to bring out the figures," Innes interposed, "use turtle soup."

City Railway's Reply to Demands.

1. Wages.

Increase not possible. Reason: Advances given a year ago; no corresponding increase in business during the year to warrant further advance.

2. Operation.

Refused on ground that the company could not enter into any agreement that would hamper or restrict it in the performance of its duty to the traveling public.

3. Arbitration. Accepted.

4. Closed shop.

Refused on the ground that it would give the union "complete and absolute control of the selection, employment, retention in service, and discipline of all employees."

5. Recognition of Union Officials. Accepted.

6. Penalty for Unjust Suspension.

Answered with the statement that "the company will not unjustly suspend or discharge any man."

7. Days Off Allowed.

Accepted insofar as it does not interfere with the company's services.

8. Pay for Injuries.

Refused with the statement "the company will not undertake so extensive an insurance scheme."

Curious Lake.

In the center of Kildine, an island in the North Sea, is perhaps the most curious lake in the world. The surface of its waters is quite fresh and supports fresh water creatures; but deep down it is as salt as the greatest depths of the sea and salt water fish live in it.

Was a Salt Lake Long Ago.

Some remarkable salt formations are found extending for thirty miles along the Virginia river in Nevada. The salt forms mountains of crystal and is so pure and clear that fine print can be read through a foot of it. This region was evidently once occupied by a great salt lake, as close by are some wonderful wells, one of which, seventy-five feet in diameter, contains water so intensely saline that a person bathing there will float like a cork.

AFRICAN LAKE GOES DRY.

Scientists Much Puzzled Over Peculiar Happening.
Lake Shirwa, which has covered a considerable area of country to the south of Lake Nyassa, in Africa, ever since that region has been known to white men, has now dried up completely and local opinion leads to the theory that it has vanished for good. Still, it would scarcely be advisable for settlers to attempt the creation of any garden cities or other establishments anywhere on the bed of the old lake, which might fill up again at any time. Men drive their buggies and ride their horses along the soft, sandy beds of the Australian rivers in times of long drought, but when the rains come the river steamers resume their old places on the newly flushed streams. It is very odd that this great Shirwa lake should vanish so completely without any assignable reason and apprehension is felt lest something of the kind will happen to Nyassa or Tanganyika.

FLAG OF REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

The first upper square, to the left, is blue; the first lower square, to the left, is white, with a blue star in its center. The second upper square is white, with a red star in its center, and the second lower square is red.

FOR NEW YORK BEAUX.

Sample of Luxury Demanded in the Modern Babylon.

Another detail of luxury has been added to New York life. The barber shop, with its boot-cleaning stands, its chiropractist's stall and manicure cozy corner, has been found insufficient to meet the demands of the beaux of this modern Babylon. Four gentlemen's gentlemen, or valets, as they were known in the good old days, saved their money in private service and have opened a shop uptown in the middle of the theater district. A man who is not looking at his best can go into their place and for 25 or 50 cents come out looking as prim as a new pin. If he is caught in a rain-storm downtown during the day the gentlemen's gentlemen's shop will take care of him if he steps in on his way to the club or to dinner, black his boots, trim his hair, and see what we can do for him.

CATS CAUSE DIRE DISASTER.

Electric Sparks From Their Fur Blow Up Gas Tank.

"Can electric sparks from a cat's fur blow up a gas tank?" is a question presented by an explosion in the cat and dog "dispatch" in the shelter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at New York. The "dispatch," which is a steel cage charged with gas from the street main, contained ten or twelve cats that had been thrown in to be asphyxiated, when it blew up as employees were dumping another basketful of cats into it.

GRANT'S PEACE LETTER FOUND

Lost Epistle Accepting Presidential Nomination Restored.

The historic letter of Gen. Grant accepting the nomination to the presidency and ending with "let us have peace" has been found among some waste paper at Hartford, Conn. The letter, dated May 29, 1868, was addressed to Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, president of the National Union Republican convention. After Gen. Hawley went to Washington as senator the letter disappeared and was believed to have been lost.

HUNTER IN HARD LUCK.

Englishman Unknowingly Conflicts With Maine Game Laws.

Walter Keith Elliott, who represents himself as an English gentleman and soldier of fortune, came into Bangor, Me., from the woods, got drunk and was robbed. In court next morning he said he had been killing deer for men in a lumber camp, having slaughtered nineteen in twenty-one days. This was just seventeen deer over the legal limit and Elliott was astonished to learn that he was subject to a fine of $40 for each of the seventeen. The court dealt with it as a wholesale offense and let him off with a fine of $400. Being unable to pay, he went to jail for thirty days. Elliott appears to be a man of some consequence and was very indignant when taken to prison.

Memorial Left by Patriot.

While cutting a roadway near New Haven, Conn., last week Alexander Fraser discovered a relic of more than usual interest. He was removing a number of large stones that formed a part of the wall which extended along the side of the road, when he found a boulder that bore on its under side in large letters the words, "Liberty 1776, N. M." As the date coincides with the time of the signing of the declaration of independence, the inscription, it is thought, was cut in the stone by some liberty-loving patriot of that period.

Money Scarce in New York.

Recent disturbances in Wall street have had disastrous effect on New York society, many of those who have had to foot the bills finding themselves uncomfortably cramped. The usually brilliant Astor ball was a failure. A few weeks later it was seen that society was keeping to its country places, ostensibly because it had gone in for outdoor sports, but in reality from motives of economy. The theaters are suffering badly and there is a poor prospect ahead of the opera season.

City Railway's Reply to Demands.

1. Wages.

Increase not possible. Reason: Advances given a year ago; no corresponding increase in business during the year to warrant further advance.

2. Operation.

Refused on ground that the company could not enter into any agreement that would hamper or restrict it in the performance of its duty to the traveling public.

3. Arbitration. Accepted.

4. Closed shop.

Refused on the ground that it would give the union "complete and absolute control of the selection, employment, retention in service, and discipline of all employees."

5. Recognition of Union Officials. Accepted.

6. Penalty for Unjust Suspension.

Answered with the statement that "the company will not unjustly suspend or discharge any man."

7. Days Off Allowed.

Accepted insofar as it does not interfere with the company's services.

8. Pay for Injuries.

Refused with the statement "the company will not undertake so extensive an insurance scheme."

Curious Lake.

In the center of Kildine, an island in the North Sea, is perhaps the most curious lake in the world. The surface of its waters is quite fresh and supports fresh water creatures; but deep down it is as salt as the greatest depths of the sea and salt water fish live in it.

Was a Salt Lake Long Ago.

Some remarkable salt formations are found extending for thirty miles along the Virginia river in Nevada. The salt forms mountains of crystal and is so pure and clear that fine print can be read through a foot of it. This region was evidently once occupied by a great salt lake, as close by are some wonderful wells, one of which, seventy-five feet in diameter, contains water so intensely saline that a person bathing there will float like a cork.

AFRICAN LAKE GOES DRY.

Scientists Much Puzzled Over Peculiar Happening.
Lake Shirwa, which has covered a considerable area of country to the south of Lake Nyassa, in Africa, ever since that region has been known to white men, has now dried up completely and local opinion leads to the theory that it has vanished for good. Still, it would scarcely be advisable for settlers to attempt the creation of any garden cities or other establishments anywhere on the bed of the old lake, which might fill up again at any time. Men drive their buggies and ride their horses along the soft, sandy beds of the Australian rivers in times of long drought, but when the rains come the river steamers resume their old places on the newly flushed streams. It is very odd that this great Shirwa lake should vanish so completely without any assignable reason and apprehension is felt lest something of the kind will happen to Nyassa or Tanganyika.

FLAG OF REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

The first upper square, to the left, is blue; the first lower square, to the left, is white, with a blue star in its center. The second upper square is white, with a red star in its center, and the second lower square is red.

FOR NEW YORK BEAUX.

Sample of Luxury Demanded in the Modern Babylon.

Another detail of luxury has been added to New York life. The barber shop, with its boot-cleaning stands, its chiropractist's stall and manicure cozy corner, has been found insufficient to meet the demands of the beaux of this modern Babylon. Four gentlemen's gentlemen, or valets, as they were known in the good old days, saved their money in private service and have opened a shop uptown in the middle of the theater district. A man who is not looking at his best can go into their place and for 25 or 50 cents come out looking as prim as a new pin. If he is caught in a rain-storm downtown during the day the gentlemen's gentlemen's shop will take care of him if he steps in on his way to the club or to dinner, black his boots, trim his hair, and see what we can do for him.

CATS CAUSE DIRE DISASTER.

Electric Sparks From Their Fur Blow Up Gas Tank.

"Can electric sparks from a cat's fur blow up a gas tank?" is a question presented by an explosion in the cat and dog "dispatch" in the shelter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at New York. The "dispatch," which is a steel cage charged with gas from the street main, contained ten or twelve cats that had been thrown in to be asphyxiated, when it blew up as employees were dumping another basketful of cats into it.

GRANT'S PEACE LETTER FOUND

Lost Epistle Accepting Presidential Nomination Restored.

The historic letter of Gen. Grant accepting the nomination to the presidency and ending with "let us have peace" has been found among some waste paper at Hartford, Conn. The letter, dated May 29, 1868, was addressed to Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, president of the National Union Republican convention. After Gen. Hawley went to Washington as senator the letter disappeared and was believed to have been lost.

HUNTER IN HARD LUCK.

Englishman Unknowingly Conflicts With Maine Game Laws.

Walter Keith Elliott, who represents himself as an English gentleman and soldier of fortune, came into Bangor, Me., from the woods, got drunk and was robbed. In court next morning he said he had been killing deer for men in a lumber camp, having slaughtered nineteen in twenty-one days. This was just seventeen deer over the legal limit and Elliott was astonished to learn that he was subject to a fine of $40 for each of the seventeen. The court dealt with it as a wholesale offense and let him off with a fine of $400. Being unable to pay, he went to jail for thirty days. Elliott appears to be a man of some consequence and was very indignant when taken to prison.

Memorial Left by Patriot.

While cutting a roadway near New Haven, Conn., last week Alexander Fraser discovered a relic of more than usual interest. He was removing a number of large stones that formed a part of the wall which extended along the side of the road, when he found a boulder that bore on its under side in large letters the words, "Liberty 1776, N. M." As the date coincides with the time of the signing of the declaration of independence, the inscription, it is thought, was cut in the stone by some liberty-loving patriot of that period.

Money Scarce in New York.

Recent disturbances in Wall street have had disastrous effect on New York society, many of those who have had to foot the bills finding themselves uncomfortably cramped. The usually brilliant Astor ball was a failure. A few weeks later it was seen that society was keeping to its country places, ostensibly because it had gone in for outdoor sports, but in reality from motives of economy. The theaters are suffering badly and there is a poor prospect ahead of the opera season.

City Railway's Reply to Demands.

1. Wages.

Increase not possible. Reason: Advances given a year ago; no corresponding increase in business during the year to warrant further advance.

2. Operation.

Refused on ground that the company could not enter into any agreement that would hamper or restrict it in the performance of its duty to the traveling public.

3. Arbitration. Accepted.

4. Closed shop.

Refused on the ground that it would give the union "complete and absolute control of the selection, employment, retention in service, and discipline of all employees."

5. Recognition of Union Officials. Accepted.

6. Penalty for Unjust Suspension.

Answered with the statement that "the company will not unjustly suspend or discharge any man."

7. Days Off Allowed.

Accepted insofar as it does not interfere with the company's services.

8. Pay for Injuries.

Refused with the statement "the company will not undertake so extensive an insurance scheme."

Curious Lake.

In the center of Kildine, an island in the North Sea, is perhaps the most curious lake in the world. The surface of its waters is quite fresh and supports fresh water creatures; but deep down it is as salt as the greatest depths of the sea and salt water fish live in it.

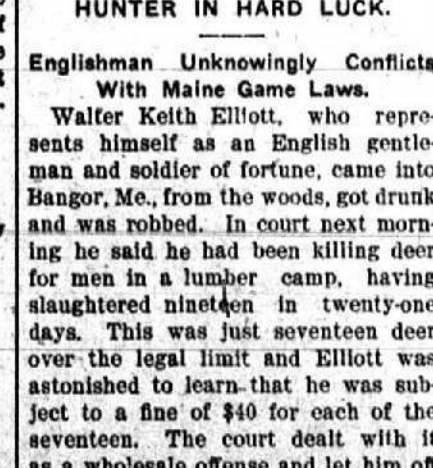

Was a Salt Lake Long Ago.

Some remarkable salt formations are found extending for thirty miles along the Virginia river in Nevada. The salt forms mountains of crystal and is so pure and clear that fine print can be read through a foot of it. This region was evidently once occupied by a great salt lake, as close by are some wonderful wells, one of which, seventy-five feet in diameter, contains water so intensely saline that a person bathing there will float like a cork.

AFRICAN LAKE GOES DRY.

Scientists Much Puzzled Over Peculiar Happening.
Lake Shirwa, which has covered a considerable area of country to the south of Lake Nyassa, in Africa, ever since that region has been known to white men, has now dried up completely and local opinion leads to the theory that it has vanished for good. Still, it would scarcely be advisable for settlers to attempt the creation of any garden cities or other establishments anywhere on the bed of the old lake, which might fill up again at any time. Men drive their buggies and ride their horses along the soft, sandy beds of the Australian rivers in times of long drought, but when the rains come the river steamers resume their old places on the newly flushed streams. It is very odd that this great Shirwa lake should vanish so completely without any assignable reason and apprehension is felt lest something of the kind will happen to Nyassa or Tanganyika.

FLAG OF REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

The first upper square, to the left, is blue; the first lower square, to the left, is white, with a blue star in its center. The second upper square is white, with a red star in its center, and the second lower square is red.

FOR NEW YORK BEAUX.

Sample of Luxury Demanded in the Modern Babylon.

Another detail of luxury has been added to New York life. The barber shop, with its boot-cleaning stands, its chiropractist's stall and manicure cozy corner, has been found insufficient to meet the demands of the beaux of this modern Babylon. Four gentlemen's gentlemen, or valets, as they were known in the good old days, saved their money in private service and have opened a shop uptown in the middle of the theater district. A man who is not looking at his best can go into their place and for 25 or 50 cents come out looking as prim as a new pin. If he is caught in a rain-storm downtown during the day the gentlemen's gentlemen's shop will take care of him if he steps in on his way to the club or to dinner, black his boots, trim his hair, and see what we can do for him.

CATS CAUSE DIRE DISASTER.

Electric Sparks From Their Fur Blow Up Gas Tank.

"Can electric sparks from a cat's fur blow up a gas tank?" is a question presented by an explosion in the cat and dog "dispatch" in the shelter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at New York. The "dispatch," which is a steel cage charged with gas from the street main, contained ten or twelve cats that had been thrown in to be asphyxiated, when it blew up as employees were dumping another basketful of cats into it.

THE CHELSEA STANDARD

An independent local newspaper published every Thursday afternoon from its office in the basement of the Turnbull & Wilkinson block, Chelsea, Mich.

BY G. O. STIMSON.

Terms:—$1.00 per year; 5 months, 50 cents; 3 months, 25 cents.
Advertising rates reasonable and made known on application.

Entered at the postoffice at Chelsea, Mich., as second-class matter.

18 YEARS IN CHELSEA

Sunday Was an Anniversary of Rev. Fr. Considine's Pastorate in the Local Parish—The Day Happily Remembered.

Rev. Fr. Considine, Sunday, celebrated the eighteenth year of his pastorate in this parish. The occasion was happily remembered not alone by his appreciative parishioners but also by a goodly number of his clerical brothers who were with him on that day at the rectory. The esteem in which he is held by his people was finely attested by the many beautiful flowers and other mementos that were sent in.

Father Considine was educated at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Borgess of Cincinnati. He began his pastoral work assisting Rev. Dr. Savage but was soon appointed to his first charge at Northfield where he remained about two years and was then transferred to this place where for the last eighteen years he has labored efficiently to the end of increasing the influence of his church and gaining throughout the time in the respect of everyone in the community regardless of the cleavage line of religious faith. That he will continue the same effective labor in his field in the hope and confident expectation of all. The Standard extends congratulations upon the marking of so significant an anniversary.

A SERMON IN IT

The Comment of an Aged Man as to His "Falling Sight Ought to Set Us to Rededicating the Time."

"Yes I am pretty well, but I can't see much, any more, and this is the first time Congress has been in session since I was old enough to read that I have not followed their doings," was the recent comment of an octogenarian, well known in Chelsea.

The remark is quite a sermon in itself. Very few readers now a days follow carefully the deliberations of Congress or any other similar body. The time was when such matters were the feature of both daily and weekly papers, and it was read and discussed intelligently and politics were a part of everyday life and men were not so easily satisfied because of the manner in which they discussed the matters of national importance. Now however politics receive but little attention when men meet in town on Saturday or at the auction and if the matter does come up one partisan hurls at the other some stock phrase, of a more or less cynical nature, about the "grafting" of the "other fellows," and a rejoinder of the same kind comes back, and there the matter ends.

We read the papers now a days because they amuse and excite a passing interest in this that or the other thing but not to post ourselves in what we ought to know. Maybe the Government will be conducted in the best manner possible without the rank and file giving the subject any serious consideration but it once was not thought to be so.

ALLEN KELLOGG.

A quiet home wedding took place November 10, at which the contracting parties were, Wm. C. Kellogg, Milan, Mich., and Miss Maude H. Allen, of Detroit. Rev. Dr. S. W. Horner, pastor of the Martha Holmes Memorial church of Detroit and a personal friend of the bride's family, officiated in the presence of the immediate relatives of both families.

Mr. Kellogg who is a son of Chas. Kellogg of this place, is a bright, young attorney in Milan, with fine prospects for the future.

Miss Allen, the eldest daughter of Willis Allen, Detroit, has a wide circle of friends, as was evidenced by the beautiful gifts which were sent in honor of her marriage.

Among the out-of-town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellogg, Nate Kellogg, Lewis Kellogg, of this place, and Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg will be at home to their friends after December 1 in their new home on County street Milan.

There was a sound like a clap of thunder the other day as the atmosphere closed in behind a man of Chelsea as he shot over to the postoffice to reclaim a misdirected invitation he had just mailed to a little, six-months-old miss to attend a baby party at his house. The mistake lay in the fact that the invitation had been put in the care of a young man who bears the same name as her father but is distinguished by a different given name and the fact that he lays claim to no such honors as papa—he only brought his bride to town into this summer. As it was certain he could not deliver the goods the haste of the one in error is readily explained.

Roosters for sale by Bacon Cooperative Co. at bottom prices.

Standard ads bring results.

MICHIGAN DOWNS HARVARD

A Boy From This Neck of the Woods Played on the Dartmouth Team Last Saturday.

The Jackson Citizen has the following to say concerning a college football player from the vicinity of Grass Lake, "Football enthusiasts are surprised at the victory Dartmouth achieved over Harvard Saturday. Comparing the size of schools and the great reputation held by Harvard, it is certainly up to Dartmouth to rejoice. Apart from this it has some local interest, inasmuch as their right tackle, Turner, is well known in this county, having been the coach for the Grass Lake team of base ballists last year. Turner was a farm hand employed by W. A. Boland, at Gray Tower, Grass Lake, and how he attained a place on Dartmouth's team is a credit to him and a suggestion to other boys. He had attended a school in Ohio and there developed a longing to win honors at an eastern college. He went to Dartmouth at the opening of the term and while pursuing his studies helped the football team, and to him largely is attributed the great credit for a victory unprecedented in the annals of football.

The victory is all the more surprising when it is taken into account that the Harvard team has been playing good football and for them to go down before a small school like Dartmouth is placed to the good work of Turner, who is regarded as a first class athlete, and is withal a young man of modest pretensions and a general favorite wherever he is known.

"Grass Lake can claim some distinction from this incident at least, and Turner's many friends will rejoice to hear of his fame."

EDITH SPAULDING.

Miss Edith Spaulding whose death and burial were mentioned in last week's issue of The Standard was born February 25, 1869. Her girlhood days were passed at her home here and then she went to Olivet College where she pursued the scientific course and was graduated in 1894 with the degree of B. S.

She then began teaching and held a position in the schools of St. Joseph, Mich., for three years. At the end of that time she began special preparation along the line of kindergarten work in a training school in Indianapolis. She went to Grand Rapids in 1901 and remained there in the Baxter street school until her untimely death. The Grand Rapids Evening Press in its issue of November 12th, speaks of her as an educator with a high sense of duty and says that she was a woman of noble character. It is the hope of the Standard that she will be remembered as a woman of noble character.

John Schaub left Monday morning for New York City where he will take part in the German-American Congregational body which meets in 1895.

Rev. C. S. Jones of the local Congregational church, who knew her well, has the following to say of her character:

"She was an earnest and conscientious student and as a teacher in the public schools had the esteem and respect of all who knew her wherever she taught. Her genial and sunny disposition made her a place in heart of her friends leaving such an impression on those with whom she came in contact as made them desire to live nobler and better because of her friendship.

"Although busy with school work she found time to teach in the mission Sunday school of Grand Rapids and in our church work was a faithful and devoted Christian.

"A great lover of nature and flowers her last request was she might be taken home and buried 'neath the apple blossoms."

Decidedly the hit of the social season to date was the party given yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Watson in honor of their daughter Clarice who celebrated her first birthday anniversary. Miss Clarice's guests numbered 12, and all were of such an uncertain age to the unpracticed of The Standard's representative that the estimate of 12 months average is only a rough guess.

Those present were Misses Dorothy Weber, Ruth Welch, Marion Steinbach, Eleanor Dancer, Florence Penn, Helen Porter, Josephine Walker, and Miss Foster of Grass Lake. The young gentlemen were Masters Harold Tomlinson, Glen Brooks, Foster of Grass Lake and Robert Comstock of Ypsilanti. These young people were privileged to bring their mothers with them and did so without exception. Details as to the refreshments are not at hand but undoubtedly dilute warm milk, Mellins Food on the half shell, a pure of Nestle's Food or Imperial Granum and Castoria for desert if necessary. Miss Clarice was remembered by her young friends with many nice presents. It was altogether a very successful affair.

The "Sweet" Concert Company will be at the town hall Monday evening November 23. They have an open date on that evening after filling an engagement at Jackson and have decided to give this place the benefit. The company consists of nine persons and all are artists in their particular lines, and ensemble they make up an orchestra of fair proportions and with guitars and mandolins resolve themselves into what they choose to call the "Yacht Musical Club." Their Master Artie Crowell, aged 71, is said to be the prince of jugglers and batonists.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Wirt Ives was Sunday in Ann Arbor. J. G. Hoover was in Detroit Sunday. A. H. Brenner was Sunday a Lansing visitor.

Tommy Wilkinson was Sunday in Detroit.

Mrs. M. Brenner of Ann Arbor spent Friday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mungay spent Sunday in Detroit.

Miss Anna Conaty will leave for Detroit Thursday.

Julius Paine of Jackson spent Saturday at this place.

H. G. Prettyman of Ann Arbor was in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roedel visited Sunday in Ann Arbor.

George Webster made a business trip to Jackson Monday.

Fred Mapes and Wm Benton were Sunday in Plainfield.

W. W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor was a visitor here Tuesday.

J. N. Merchant of Battle Creek was a Chelsea visitor Sunday.

George Speer of Battle Creek spent Sunday with his parents.

Dr. R. M. Speer of Battle Creek visited relatives here Saturday.

W. G. Kempf of Hillsdale visited relatives and friends here Wednesday.

Mrs. U. H. Townsend was Sunday the guest of her daughter in Ypsilanti.

Edith Boyd visited Mr. and Mrs. W. Zinke of Dexter the first of the week.

Mrs. Amelia Heber and daughter Minnie were Ann Arbor visitors Sunday.

Misses Bertha and Minnie Schumacher were Sunday the guests of Ann Arbor relatives.

James Speer and daughter Hazel were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Larnee of Jackson Sunday.

Mrs. L. Glover and daughter Lula of Chelsea were visitors at Chas. Kellogg's the first of the week.

Miss Pauline Barg was the guest of Miss Mary Etienne of Jackson several days of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Querin were Sunday in Albion as the guests of their daughter Mrs. Chris Bauer.

Mrs. Q. Jefford, and Mrs. Ralph Stone and little daughter Ruth of Detroit were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMillen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bailey and daughter of Manchester were at the L. T. Freeman home Sunday. Miss Cynthia Bailey remained for several days.

Margaretta Epler Mary Koch Nina Schnallman Lena Schwolkerath May Stiegelmaier Beulah Turner

Fire Fatalities.

There were in England last year 1,654 inquests on children who were burnt to death. In 1,425 of these cases there were no fireguards.

For Pleasure Trips.

Nine hundred and fifty thousand carriages and other vehicles for pleasure purposes are made and sold yearly in the United States.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, for a sample free.

Be sure that the picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y.

and in all drug stores.

YOUR NEIGHBOR'S DOINGS

YOUR NEIGHBOR'S DOINGS

AS SEEN BY
The Standard's Correspondents.

WATERLOO.

The new saw mill began operations Tuesday.

Arthur Glenn of Puckney visited at L. L. Gorton's the first of the week.

School began Monday for the winter term with an enrollment of 30 scholars.

Harry Rhinehart and Nora Hurst of Dausville spent Sunday with Anna Rummel.

Mrs. Wm. White of Medina is the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rummel this week.

NORTH LAKE.

Miss Mary Deering is this week in Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Whallan visited R. S. Whallan Sunday.

Miss Henrietta Sweetman of Dayton, Ohio is taking care of her sister Mrs. J. Reilly.

About fifteen from here attended the Hineckly-Schultz wedding at Chelsea Wednesday evening.

Rev. Gordon will preach a Thanksgiving sermon Thursday evening November 26 at the church.

The Aid Society will give a Thanksgiving social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Daniels, Friday evening, November 27. There will be several guessing contests. Everyone is invited.

SYLVAN.

Mrs. Lewis Hayes visited at William Eisenbeler's Thursday.

Orson Overacker of Bunkerhill was the guest of Howard Fisk Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dann of Chelsea spent Sunday at Howard Fisk's.

Mrs. James Hagan of Detroit visited at D. Helm's the first of the week.

Mrs. C. Heeselschwerdt and daughter spent Sunday with Waterloo relatives.

Mrs. Jacob Walz and Lewis Walz were guests of Mrs. L. Hayes last Wednesday.

Miss Katherine Heeselschwerdt who has been spending the summer at Schenk's has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hayes and son Herman attended the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. Frey of Norvill last week.

EAST LANSING.

Chelsea buyers offer today, the following prices:

Wheat, red or white 80

Oats 35

Rye 51

Barley, per hundred 1 00, 1 10

Beans 33 to 1 40

Clover seed 5 50

Live Beef Cattle 21 to 24

Veal Calves 65

Live Hogs 4 00

Lamb 3 to 65

Chickens, spring 68

Fowls 67

Potatoes $5 to 40

Cabbage, per doz 1 00

Apples, shipping, barrel 121

Apples, drying, bushel 30

Onions 16

Butter 22

Eggs 22

As Represented.

Nagsby—How do you suppose that landlady of ours can have the face to advertise "fine board?"

Wagsby—I don't know unless it is because she serves sawdust for breakfast food.—Baltimore American.

A Woman's Handkerchief.

A faddish handkerchief has a little pocket in one corner, with a buttoned flap, to hold carfare. The heavy silk or linen ones are sometimes affected by bicyclists.

Frequent Offenders.

Seventy-two per cent. of the 45,000 women who annually pass through British prisons have been convicted at least once. Seven thousand of them have been convicted 20 times or more.

Live in the Dark.

In New York, at the lowest possible average, 500,000 people live in rooms which are dark and without any window or ventilation.

Try Standard want ads

Chelsea Greenhouse.

CARNATIONS!

CARNATIONS.

ELYRIA CLARK, Florist,

Phone connection Chelsea, Mich.

J. G. Palmer of Norvill visited at C. C. Dorr's Monday.

The L. H. M. S. met with Mrs. A. L. Holden Wednesday.

Misses Clara Reno and Ethel Smith spent Sunday at Iron Creek.

Messrs Edgar and Ashley Holden have purchased a new crop hucker.

ALLISON KNEE

Manufacturer of

CHOICE CIGARS!

Every cigar with my brand will be manufactured from the best tobacco grown and all are warranted to give satisfaction.

TRY A HIGHBALL

Wholesale Department—Winn's Jewelry Store.

Fred Treat and family have moved in the Robinson house near Francisco.

Mrs. T. Helm of Sylvan and Mrs. Hagen of Detroit were in town Monday. The Epworth League held their meeting at A. L. Holden's last Friday evening.

Mrs. VanArnum who has been visiting at her son's B. G. VanArnum has returned home.

Mrs. Joseph Schmidt who has been visiting here is now spending sometime in Sylvan.

There will be a box social on Friday evening of this week at the home of Ed. Rowe for the benefit of the South Sharon Epworth League.

FRANCISCO.

George Scherer was Tuesday at Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Preston was Sunday in this vicinity.

Mrs. Henry Notten spent a few days of this week at Jackson.

Miss Martha Musbach and Herbert Harvey were Sunday in Munnith.

Harry Kenney of Grass Lake was the guest of his brother Jay, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Weber have been for several days at Whitmore Lake.

Mrs. J. J. Musbach and daughter Fannie have been to Jackson for a day.

Miss Ella Noon of Michigan Center is the guest of H. H. Lammers and family.

Mrs. Wm. Hutchcroft of Petrolleum, Canada is visiting her sister Mrs. Chris Kaiser.

Mrs. Henry Riemschneider of Port Huron is the guest of her mother Mrs. John Miller.

Mrs. A. E. Cook and daughter of Sharon were guests of Mrs. Fred Mensing Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Shelly of Grass Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Taylor Sunday.

The Cavanaugh Lake Grange will hold their regular meeting November 24 at the Dwight hotel.

Miss Nellie Mallon of Grass Lake was the guest of Mrs. B. C. Whitaker the first of the week.

Misses Emma, Berth and Mary Feld and brother Henry of Jackson spent Sunday with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beatham and family of Stockbridge passed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scherer.

There will be a social at the home of Fred Kalmbach Thanksgiving evening November 26. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

THE MARKETS.

Chelsea buyers offer today, the following prices:

Wheat, red or white 80

Oats 35

Rye 51

Barley, per hundred 1 00, 1 10

Beans 33 to 1 40

Clover seed 5 50

Live Beef Cattle 21 to 24

Veal Calves 65

Live Hogs 4 00

Lamb 3 to 65

Chickens, spring 68

Fowls 67

Potatoes $5 to 40

Cabbage, per doz 1 00

Apples, shipping, barrel 121

Apples, drying, bushel 30

Onions 16

Butter 22

Eggs 22

RUBBER

Into our store and see our large line of Rubber Footwear. Here are a few Special Prices:

Child's spring heel rubbers, size 7 to 10½, 80 cents per pair

Misses' spring heel rubbers, size 12 to 3 35 cents per pair

Youth's rubbers, size 12 to 3 35 cents per pair

Ladies' rubbers, size 8½ to 8 40 cents per pair

Men's light rubbers, size 6 to 11 60 cents per pair

Men's heavy rubbers, size 6 to 11 70 cents per pair

Men's self acting rubbers, size 6 to 11 75 cents per pair

Men's first quality, Huron's, rubbers, size 6 to 11 $1.35 per pair

Men's snag proof, Huron's, rubbers, size 6 to 11 $1.50 per pair

Men's felt and rubbers, good quality $2.25 per pair

Men's felt and rubbers, better grade $2.50 per pair

Men's 8 inch leather top Itaska $2.75 per pair

THANKSGIVING DAY OPPORTUNITIES.

The Thanksgiving Dinner, less than two weeks away, is an event for which every housewife prepares with unusual care. Throughout the whole country the careful buyers are on the lookout for the finest food products obtainable for this annual feast.

One secret of successful merchandising is the persuading of a prospective customer to try an uncommonly good quality of any article. It is a better beginning than is a first sale of a cheap article at a special low price. "Quality is remembered after price is forgotten" is an old and true saying—so old that experience has proved it. No one denies that trade built up on quality is more satisfactory to both buyer and seller than is "job lot bargain" dealing.

Our Supply of Good Things to Eat is Most Complete

New California walnuts 20c pound
New almonds, imported 20c pound
New mixed nuts 15c pound
Selected queen olive 15c, 25c and 40c bottle
Stuffed olives 10c and 25c bottle
Nut meats of all kinds, fresh and sweet

MINCEMEAT GOODS

Choice spy apples 50c bushel
New seeded raisins 12c pound
Cleaned sultana raisins 14c pound
Cleaned English currants 10c package.
Extra large cleaned currants 12c package.
Boiled cider, quarts 20c.

Pure ground spices with the essential oils all left in; our ground spices are better than you can buy anywhere else in Chelsea, try them, and convince yourself.

New citron, orange and lemon peel must be the best, if you would have your baking a complete success. We recommend

THE FLOUR

The Roller King brand at $2.50 per hundred pounds
Henkle's Bread Flour at $2.50 per hundred
Jackson Gem, warranted at $2.20 per hundred Pillsbury's Bakers patent at $2.50 per hundred

COFFEES

Our brands are surpassed by none. We have the largest stock and the greatest number of varieties, all of them good values for the money. Most popular of all is our famous Standard brand, Mocha and Java. A perfect blend of No. 1 Mocha and Java with the finest grades of Mexican and Central American coffees grown. It is a favorite at 25c pound.

Charm Java at 35c pound

Seal brand Mocha and Java 38c pound
South Sea blend at 25c pound

A very fine line of good coffees at 13c, 15c and 20c pound

FRUITS

Large ripe bananas 20c dozen
Some not so good at 10c and 15c dozen

Fancy Malaga grapes 20c pound

New York state Catawba grapes 25c basket
Florida oranges, russet or bright, at 30c and 40c dozen

Finest 6 crown layer figs 20c pound

Good layer figs 10c per 1 pound package

New Malowee dates at 10c pound

Imported layer raisins 20c pound

VEGETABLES

Fresh, crisp golden heart celery
Hothouse lettuce, Hubbard squash, yellow rutabaggas and Jersey sweet potatoes

Sweet wrinkled peas 15c can

Early June peas 10c can

Finest canned corn 13c can

OYSTERS

Try ours and get Oysters. Not water.

Standards 24c can

Selects 30c can

Standards in bulk 30c quart

Finest Elsie Full Cream Cheese 16c pound

Large late Howe cranberries at 12c quart

TO SATISFY YOUR GROCERY WANTS GO TO

Freeman Bros.

F. P. GLAZIER, President. O. C. BURKHART, 1st Vice Pres.
W. M. P. SCHENK, Treasurer. F. H. SWEETLAND, 2d Vice Pres.
JOHN W. SCHENK, Secretary.

Chelsea Lumber & Produce Co.

Sell all kinds of roofing. Winigas B asphalt roofing, Three-ply black diamond prepared roofing, Big B line.
White pine, red and white cedar shingles, brick, tile, lime, cement.
Farmers' market for all kinds of farm produce.

See our Fence Posts before you buy.

Get our prices—we will save you money.

Yours for square dealing and honest weights.

Chelsea Lumber & Produce Co.

Office, corner Main street and M. C. R. R.

LOCAL EVENTS

OF THE PAST WEEK FOR THE STANDARD'S READERS.

The big Gorman auction is in progress this afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Roedel will give a "thimble party" Saturday afternoon.

It is reported that turkeys are scarce. They are not so scarce as they will be.

Congressman Charles E. Townsend is looking well after second district interests even in the extra session.

Ed. Holmrich and R. J. Beckwith completed a very fine job of interior decorating in the Lutheran church at Francisco.

Miss Sadie Speer was called in to Detroit yesterday for examination as a railroad telegrapher and passed the examination successfully.

Married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Dr. Caster at high noon, Sunday, Miss Nellie Gardiner of Waterloo to Louis E. Taylor of Lyndon.

Joseph Remnant, of Jackson, and Miss Elizabeth Murphy, of Chelsea, will be married November 24, in the church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hamilton of California were Sunday guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. McColgan's. Mr. Hamilton is Mrs. McColgan's brother.

It is expected that the Rev. A. G. Newberry of the East Chatham Baptist church, N. Y. will be here and give the Thanksgiving sermon in the M. E. church.

The pumpkin pie social of Methodist Sunday school at Adam Kalmbach's afforded a fine time for all who attended and the financial results were satisfactory.

The rooms in the Staffan block formerly occupied by Dr. A. L. Stegar have been rented to a party from Ann Arbor who will in the near future open a dental office.

Several of this place were so inoculated with the football fever last week that they are planning to see the Michigan-Chicago game in the Windy City, Thanksgiving.

The managing editor of Hearst's Chicago Examiner recently asked to exchange with The Standard. We are still in a quandary as to whether or not it was a complement.

Regular meeting of Columbian Hive next Tuesday evening, November 24. Refreshments will be served after the initiation. The ladies husbands are invited after 9:00 p. m.

Advertisers and all having anything for the next issue of The Standard will please bear in mind that the paper will be published Wednesday instead Thursday. Get your copy in early.

Comment on the proposition of raising the pay of rural mail carriers seems to be everywhere favorably commented upon; and especially is this true of the local papers throughout this section.

A correction should be made with regard to the statement made last week to the effect that R. F. D. Carrier Whipple has carried the mail three and a half years; it should have read two and a half.

Freeman Bros. have shown their business sagacity by engaging Miss Pauline Burg to assist in the store. And, too, this is a step in the right direction for Pauline judging from the way her predecessor has gone.

O. C. Burkhardt's auction which was given such wide notice in The Standard, in spite of being once postponed on account of unfavorable weather was on Tuesday largely attended and a very satisfactory sale resulted.

An investigation of the Weather Bureau as well as of the Postal Department is a tip to republican managers. The great mass of the plain people will stand for December weather at this time in November.

The latest dispatches relate that turkeys about to suffer the extreme penalty have been moved up to the death cell and there stoically await the inevitable end. The historical ax, rather than the gallows and electrocution, will be used.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Tillie E. Girbach to Conrad Lehman. They will be married at St. Paul's Evangelical church at twelve o'clock, noon, November 24. They will later be at home to their friends after December 15.

The mammoth spools on which the electric cable for the Boland road is wound, are evidently used over and over for sending electric transmission cable to different parts of the country. One spool had pasted on it a bill announcing a foot ball game of Emporia college, at Emporia, Kansas.

James Prendergast, of Durand, father of Patrick Prendergast, of Lyndon, and brother of Mrs. August Neuburger, of Chelsea, was stricken with paralysis last Saturday. His condition is critical. His son was called to Durand Saturday, and returned Monday.

At a season of the year when most men have ceased to trouble about their expensive Panamas Uncle Sam begins to have trouble with his. He will wear it even in zero weather if he can satisfy the people it is the real thing instead of the Colombian pattern.

I. Vogel, treasurer of the Gorman Workmen's Society, Friday of last week, received a check of $500 from the head office of that society to pay the death claim of the late George Barthel. The local society also paid the widow an additional $100 from its own funds.

This week Saturday closes the Rummage sale. Some good bargains in warm clothing yet on hand. Ladies and children's jackets, wrappers, waists, skirts, boys and men's coats, vests, hats, caps, and shoes besides miscellaneous goods. Come while the opportunity lasts.

Attention is again called to the supper to be given at the town hall Wednesday evening, the 25th. Other than the attractions mentioned in last issue Rev. Fr. Considine tells The Standard that there will be a short program and perhaps Lawyer Henigan of Jackson will speak.

On the first Sunday of Advent, November 26, by order of Pope Pius X a collection will be taken up in every Catholic church in the United States for the Catholic University at Washington. Bishop Foley's letter was read last Sunday in the church of our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

The L. C. B. A. celebrated the anniversary of their organization Thursday November 19 at their hall. A musical and literary entertainment was given by Mr. Burg, Garrett Conway, the Misses Burg, Conway and Clark. Progressive pedro was played and delicious refreshments were served.

St. Mary's Literary Club held its regular meeting at the Conway home west of town Tuesday evening. An enjoyable and profitable time, a fine supper and music are reported. Mrs. Dennis Hayes of Detroit was the guest of the club. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Miss Mabelle McGuinness.

The marriage of Miss Janet Pyper formerly of Unadilla but now of Redmond, Washington, to Mr. George V. Greger of North Bend, Washington is announced as having occurred on November 9 in the parlors of the Grand Western hotel, Seattle. They were married by Rev. M. A. Mathews of the first Presbyterian church of that place.

Someone was suggesting a new form of insurance last week. The plan suggested was to insure tickets to football games against bad weather. However, the real crank doesn't give a rap about the weather. It is doubtful if any place out side of Ann Arbor did proportionately better than Chelsea in turning out to the Michigan-Wisconsin game. One special car was filled and many others went on other cars.

Bishop Foley, of Detroit as usual has requested the public observance of Thanksgiving Day in all the churches of his diocese. High Mass will be celebrated in the church of our Lady of the Sacred Heart by the pastor Rev. Father Considine at 9:30 a. m. The prayer for Civil Authorities and Litany of the Saints will be recited after Mass, and the Te Deum will be sung by the entire congregation.

A local circle of the Royal Circle, a fraternal beneficiary order will be instituted in Forester's hall, Chelsea, before the close of November. James Lylo of Cleveland, Ohio, a special deputy has been here for the past week, and has secured thirty applications. The Royal Circle admits both sexes to equal membership, and is noted for its social and ritualistic features. It has a strong state organization in Michigan.

LaFayette Grange will hold an open meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English Friday November 27 1903. Mrs. F. D. Saunders of Rockford, Mich., lecturer of the State Grange will be present and will speak both in the morning and afternoon. There will be recitations and songs by the North Lake Euroka and Cavanaugh Lake Granges. Primary election law will also be discussed. Dinner will be served promptly at noon. Come early and enjoy the whole program.

Changes in the time schedule of Michigan Central trains which went into effect November 15 give this place one more train east. Number 36 or the Atlantic express now stops on signal. At 8:45 a. m. and 10:52 p. m. stop on signal as usual. Train number 8, Detroit night express, east bound arrives 12 minutes earlier than formerly or at 5:38 a. m. The night train which arrived at 11:05 now comes at 10:52 as announced above. The west bound morning train also arrives a quarter of an hour earlier or at 5:45 a. m.

For high grade carving sets go to Bacon Cooperative Co.

GRAND DISPLAY.

Ladies' Suits, Cloth Coats, Cloth and Plush Capes, Fur Jackets, Skirts, Misses and Children's Coats are now on Sale.

Fashionable city garments with from one-third to one-half the fashionable city prices clipped off. If you buy a ready-to-wear garment at our store this season you'll surely be in the swim and won't need to put your pocket-book entirely out of business.

Every one of the garments we show is New York City tailored by the largest manufacturers in the business. We have therefore the stylish garments and the perfect fitting garments and the artistic tailored garments made from the most popular fabrics known to the trade.

YOU WILL BE SURPRISED WHEN YOU SEE THE DISPLAY AND HEAR THE PRICES

We have ladies' new box coats at $5.00, $7.50, $8.50 and $10.00.

This cut shows our $12.00 ladies coat made from extra heavy all-wool Kersey Cloth, with guaranteed satin linings. Look at the style. Look at the workmanship. Where can you find its equal for the money? All colors, black, castor, red, blue and tan.

Ladies' suits at $9.00, $11.50, $14.75, $16.50, $18.00 and $20.00.

Ladies' Skirts at $2.00, $2.75, $3.25, $3.75, $4.50, $6.50, $8.00 and $9.50.

Ladies' Cloth Capes at $4.50, $7.58, $9.00, $12.00 and $15.00.

Ladies' Plush Capes at $5.00, $6.50, $7.50 and $12.00.

Come and look. We have what you want at lower prices than you must pay at other places.

W. P. SCHENK & COMPANY.

See advertisement on first page.

and see what we can

We have a many Over nt them her

$ $ $ SAVED

BY BUYING

UNDERWEAR, GLOVES AND MITTENS, RUBBER GOODS AND HOSIERY

—OF—

J. S. CUMMINGS.

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods and Staple Groceries.

We pay the Highest Market Price for Butter and Eggs

 ALL STEEL HAMMERS 35 CENTS. *****

NEW STORE.

Everybody is invited to come and see our NEW STORE and learn our plan of operating it. We are receiving new goods every day, and we shall be headquarters for

Stoves, Hardware, Paints and Oils, Crockery, etc., and our system of ONE PRICE to all will appeal to you as being the only right way to sell goods and our Prices will always be the LOWEST.

BACON Co-OPERATIVE Co.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY OF CROCKERY.

 BENCH WRINGERS $3.00. *****

STYLISH MILLINERY

My stock of up-to-date Millinery embraces all the leaders in and our Novelties consists of all the latest and best offered this season.

PATTERN AND TRIMMED HATS

You are cordially invited to call and examine the fine hats.

MARY HAAB.

A TALE OF TWO THANKSGIVINGS

As Thanksgiving approaches each year Don Antonio is wont to tell the following story—a story of two Thanksgivings in one year, the last Thanksgiving of pastoral California and the first recognition in the westland of the Thanksgiving of the American. The story runs in this wise:

"Before the Gringo came" California had a Thanksgiving day of its own, although no governor's proclamation or presidential edict dignified it with such official title. It was indigenous to the country, and was especially suited to California's climatic conditions and to her religious history. What time more reasonable to give thanks than just after the harvest had been gathered, and what day more appropriate than the 4th of October, fete of St. Francis d'Assisi—St. Francis, whose sons had rescued the country from tribal darkness; St. Francis, to whose special protection were confided the missions of Alta California!

Early in the morning of Oct. 4, 1845, a picturesque procession approached the old church at Monterey. From far and near each ranchero brought in a heavy vehicle drawn by oxen and heaped high with corn and beans and melons.

As the vehicles and walkers came nearer, the bells of the church rang out a glad welcome to its loyal children. Then the assemblage knelt down on mother earth and each heart echoed the prayer the reverend padre curved mouth. He did not want to love a Californian, nor, in fact, any other woman at present. Love would interfere with his ambitions.

Yet he answered the call of the eyes and his lips learned more readily to converse. As a slave to his conscience he had told Carmencita that he had come to this country to make his fortune, and that, it once gained, he would return to his own land.

"Oh, it is that the climate does not suit you, senor?"

"The climate is all right, but—"

"It is the people. You do not like us?" and the dark head went up in the air.

"You know I like you, but—"

"But when you go back to your own land, senor—"

"I'll never go back. Your land shall be mine, or you will go with me."

"But your fortune, senor?"

"Fortune does not matter. Nothing matters but you. I want you, you, Carmencita. Promise to marry me. Promise," and he held her close.

"Let me go. Let me go. When you make your fortune, senor, then I will marry you. No, no, senor. I'll never marry a poor Americano. My own countryman is different. We do not care for money. You are different. Look at Eulalia Gonzales. She married a poor Americano, and now she has to work, work, work, and save and never have any comfort. All because her husband wants to save money. No. You make your fortune and then you may go home or you may marry cret which they withheld from their own sons.

On the Monday previous to Thanksgiving Rodgers had to start on a trip to the vicinity of Santa Cruz, that would keep him away until Thanksgiving day itself. In his absence the preparations for the ball went on.

Thanksgiving night arrived, the ball began, and yet Rodgers had not returned. About 10 o'clock, the voices around the entrance announced his arrival. He seemed almost excited. He explained that he had had difficulty in crossing the Salinas and that he had rushed for fear of being too late for the ball. "As he does not dance, that would be a pity," Ramon Castro murmured to a neighbor.

During the following dance, Rodgers telegraphed to Carmencita's watchful eyes. When the music began she slipped out and met him in the moonlit courtyard. "Hold up your head," he commanded, and then he twined strings and strings of pearls around her slender neck. Then he caught her to him. "You are mine. It is Thanksgiving and you are mine."

"But, senor, where—"

"Don't ask anything. You promised if I brought you wealth you would be mine. Promise me you will sail with me in the White Wings to-morrow. The captain can marry us at sea, and at my home you will have happiness you never dreamed of here. Promise me. Promise—"

But why that sudden pause in the

MY LOST YOUTH.

By LONGFELLOW.

Often I think of the beautiful town
That is seated by the sea;
Often in thought go up and down
The pleasant streets of that dear old town,
And my youth comes back to me.
And a verse of a Lapland song
Is haunting my memory still;
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

I can see the shadowy lines of its trees,
And catch, in sudden gleams,
The sheen of the far-sounding seas,
And islands that were the Hesperides
Of all my childish dreams.
And the burden of that old song,
It murmurs and whispers still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

I remember the black wharves and the slips,
And the sea-tides tossing free;
And Spanish sailors with bearded lips,
And the beauty and mystery of the ships,
And the magic of the sea.

And the voice of that wayward song
Is singing and saying still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

I remember the bulwarks by the shore,
And the fort upon the hill;
The sunrise gun, with its hollow roar,
The drum-beat repeated o'er and o'er,
And the bugle wild and shrill,
And the music of that old song
Thrills in my memory still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

I remember the sea-fight far away,
How it thundered o'er the tide!
And the dead captains as they lay
In their graves, overlooking the tranquil bay,
Where they in battle died.

And the sound of that mournful song
Goes through me with a thrill:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

I can see the breezy dome of groves,
The shadows of Deering's Woods;
And the friendships old and the early loves
Come back with a sabbath sound, as of doves
In quiet neighborhoods.
And the verse of that sweet old song,
It flutters and murmurs still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

I remember the gleams and glooms that dart
Across the school-boy's brain;
The song and the silence in the heart,
That in part are prophetic, and in part
Are the longings wild and vain.
And the value of that fitful song
Sings on, and is never still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

There are things of which I may not speak;
There are dreams that cannot die;
There are thoughts that make the strong heart weak,
And bring pallor into the cheek,
And a mist before the eye.
And the words of that fatal song
Come over me like a chill:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

And now I visit the dear old town;
The native air is pure and sweet,
And the trees that o'ershadow each well-known street
As they balance up and down,
Are singing the beautiful song,
Are singing and whispering still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

And Deering's Woods are fresh and fair,
And with joy that is almost pain
My heart goes back to wander there,
And among the dreams of the days that were,
I find my lost youth again.
And the strange and beautiful song,
The groves are repeating it still:
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

Why They Went Astray.

A Buffalo clergyman is bemoaning the loss of three trunks, and might, if he were a layman, curse the stupidity of a station master up in Franklin County, Me. It seems that the reverend gentleman when returning from the Rangeley Lake region was in a hurry to catch his train. He had but a few minutes, and approaching the much-befuddled and perspiring agent pointed out four trunks and said: "Here! Give me checks for these four."

"Where to?" gasped the agent, who was a new man.

"Buffalo," replied the cleric. "With tremendous hand the agent detached four checks, wrote 'Buffalo' on one of them and thrust the four plain checks into the minister's grasp. But the trunks never arrived. One came along all right, and the officials are hunting for the other three.

It seems that the new man, being in a hurry, made out one check all right, and wrote 'Ditto' on the others.

How a Champion Athlete is Made.

It is an interesting fact that our champion all-round athlete, Ellery H. Clark, is, first of all, a worker in the ordinary business life of his community. Athletics are with him an amusement. He is not a bunched-muscle athlete and does not believe in apparatus, and therefore his accomplishments are possible to most men. It was not the mere mechanical operation of muscular force, so many movements to the right or to the left, that won the championship. He won because his muscular action was dominated by a strong mind, because it was will to concentrated effort, as he said, to exert "every atom of strength in a grand explosion" that wins not only on the athletic field, but in every field.

As Mr. Clark himself puts it, it is not the training, but the development of muscle, not the diet that counts; it is the mode of life.—Everybody's Magazine, for October.

Value of Honey as Food.

The best way to cure children of the injurious candy habit is to make pure honey fresh from the hive, or properly extracted from the comb, a regular feature of their diet. Not only candy, but humps of sugar, sweet cakes and too much jam are bad. Pure honey is good.

Honey is more easily assimilated than many "predigested" foods. It is a concentrated food and furnishes the same elements of nutrition as starch and sugar, imparting warmth and energy.

Honey is a valuable medicine, and has many uses. It is excellent in most lung and throat affections and is often used with great benefit in place of cod liver oil. Occasionally there is a person with whom it does not agree, but most people can learn to use it with beneficial results.

Children who have natural appetites generally prefer it to butter. Honey is a laxative and sedative, and in diseases of the bladder and kidneys it is an excellent remedy.

The Two Broom Makers.

Henry Clews, the well-known banker, was talking about a business condition of which he disapproved. "Such a state of affairs," he said, "reminds me of the business of the two broom makers of Jersey City. Didn't you ever hear about those two broom makers?"

"Mr. Clews smiled. Then he went on: 'They were rivals in business, and in their hatred of each other they cut rates until both were selling at starvation prices.'

"One day they met on the street, each with a load of brooms on his back. They frowned at each other, and then the man with the smaller load said:

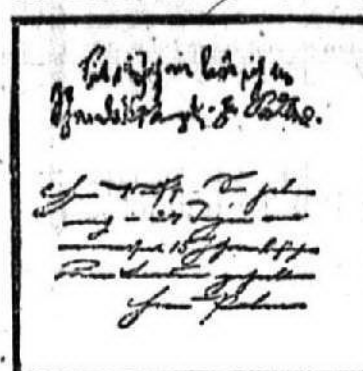

"'How is it,—tell me how it is,—that you can sell brooms cheaper than me, when I steal my broom corn?'

"I," said the other, 'steal my brooms ready made.'"

REMEDY FOR WRITERS' CRAMP.

German Said to Have Treatment Which is Successful.

Herr Julius Wolff of Berlin recently discovered an effective remedy for the singular malady known as writer's cramp. Seeing clearly that it was a nervous disease, he applied himself to the task of restoring the shattered nerves, and this he now accomplishes in almost every instance by deftly rubbing and massaging the parts affected. The remedy has been thoroughly tested in the presence of eminent German physicians, and their approval of it is unqualified. Herr Wolff explained his method of treatment in all its details, and as a result several persons are now trying to use it. It is a singular fact, however, that hardly one has succeeded thoroughly, and, according to a German medical journal, the reason is because, while anyone can learn to massage properly, no one is likely to become in a short time as expert in this special line as Herr Wolff. In the accompanying picture are shown two specimens of writing, both of which were written by the same person—one while his right hand was nearly paralyzed with cramp and the other after he had recovered from the disease.—New York Herald.

Chivalrous Turkish Brigands.

A rather amusing instance of brigandage is recorded from the town of Konitza, in Epirus, Turkey. A bridegroom, with his family and men friends, was proceeding with violins, fies and other musical instruments, according to the custom of the country, to bring away the bride, when, half way, they found themselves beset on all sides by armed brigands, who, at the gun's muzzle, compelled the surrender of every farthing of money and every article of jewelry they possessed, even to the nuptial ring. The coup being quite successful, the booty large, as the family was well to do, and there were many handsome wedding gifts and personal jewels, the brigands entered into the spirit of the occasion, returning the nuptial ring and coins equivalent to forty cents per head, in order that the bridegroom and his friends might not cut a too humiliating figure at the nuptial merrymakings. Then, with many good wishes for the future happiness of the bridal pair, the robbers retired.

Molar Carrot.

This specimen of a carrot resembles very much a molar in the human mouth. You will notice four distinct carrots, also one in miniature. This is truly one of nature's freaks.—New York Herald.

Too Heavy a Weight.

A correspondent writes to the London Country Life: "Many years ago one man bet another that he could not move an ordinary brick tied to the end of a cord two or three miles long. I forget which. A straight and level road just outside Chichester was selected for the trial; the brick was not moved and the man lost his bet for a large amount. It was stated by some one present that the brick, although weighing only about seven pounds, would, from a distance of two or three miles, represent a dead weight of nearly a ton."

Women Newspaper Vendors.

Scattered along Park Row, New York, there are about a half dozen women who sell newspapers. In the procession of a half-million which passes daily during business hours there are thousands who prefer to buy their papers from them. A sentimental consideration makes many steady customers.

He Might Have Done It.

"Do you think it's true that Nebuchadnezzar ate grass?"

"Why not? Lots of people eat these health foods and seem to get along."

Coin in Circulation.

There is over $100,000 in half-dollars, quarters, dimes, nickels and cents in circulation, about $80,000,000 in silver dollars, $75,000,000 in one dollar bills and $45,000,000 in two dollar bills.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Mrs. Pare, wife of C. B. Pare, a prominent resident of Glasgow, Ky., says: "I was suffering from a complication of kidney troubles. Besides a bad back I had a great deal of trouble with the secretions, which were exceedingly variable, sometimes excessive and at other times scanty. The color was high, and passages were accompanied with a scalding sensation. Doan's Kidney Pills soon regulated the kidney secretions, making their color normal and banished the inflammation which caused the scalding sensation. I can rest well, my back is strong and sound and I feel much better in every way."

For sale by all dealers, price 25 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Queer Street Names.

Many British towns have distinctive and interesting names for their streets. London's Cheapside and Aldwych are more than matched by oddities many times stranger. Bootham is a street in York, and Bitchergate in Carlisle, Norwich is assertive of class distinction in Gentleman's Walk, and Shrewsbury may stand almost at the head of a list of peculiarities with its street labeled Dogpole, which may or may not be related to Newcastle's Dogleap Stairs; but then Newcastle has Pudding Chare, and what may that signify?

Less Than 12 Hours to Hot Springs, Ark. Via Iron Mountain Route.

The new train which was inaugurated November 8th, leaving St. Louis 8:20 p. m., and arriving Hot Springs 8 a. m., makes the run in less than twelve hours, which beats all previous records between these points. Returning train leaves Hot Springs 7:30 p. m., arriving St. Louis 7:15 a. m. Thoroughly up to date equipment. For tickets and further information write any agent of the Iron Mountain Route, or H. C. Townsend, general passenger and ticket agent, St. Louis.

COOL IN FACE OF DANGER.

Woman's Presence of Mind That Fought the Burglar.

According to a San Francisco exchange a lady whose husband had gone out for the evening was about to retire for the night with her infant child when to her amazement she perceived the foot of a man beneath the bed. Instead of calling for assistance she coolly went to the child's cot and sat and sung till the little one went to sleep. Two hours then remained before her husband came in. He was surprised to find her waiting up, but when his wife handed him an envelope saying, "You might run and post this," the cause of her waiting was revealed. Instead of a letter the following was written on the envelope: "A burglar is under the bed; run fetch the police." The husband returned in a few minutes with a policeman and the man was arrested. The burglar had no idea that the lady knew he was there until the policeman pulled him out.

A Story With a Moral.

A parrot and a dog were left in a room together. The parrot, out of mischief said to the dog, "Sit him." The dog, seeing nothing else, went for the parrot and tore out about half his tail feathers before he escaped to his perch. The parrot, after looking himself over and reflecting a little said: "Well, you talk too much." There are many people, old and young, who would do well to remember this story.

AN OLD TIMER.

Has Had Experiences.

A woman who has used Postum Food Coffee since it came upon the market eight years ago knows from experience the necessity of using Postum in place of coffee if one values health and a steady brain.

She says: "At the time Postum was first put on the market I was suffering from nervous dyspepsia and my physician had repeatedly told me not to use tea or coffee. Finally I decided to take his advice and try Postum and got a sample and had it carefully prepared, finding it delicious to the taste. So I continued its use and very soon its beneficial effects convinced me of its value, for I got well of my nervousness and dyspepsia."

"My husband had been drinking coffee all his life until it had affected his nerves terribly. I persuaded him to shift to Postum and it was easy to get him to make the change for the Postum is so delicious. It certainly worked wonders for him."

"We soon learned that Postum does not exhilarate or depress and does not stimulate, but steadily and honestly strengthens the nerves and the stomach. To make a long story short our entire family have now used Postum for eight years with completely satisfying results as shown in our fine condition of health, and we have noticed a rather unexpected improvement in brain and nerve power. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

Increased brain and nerve power always follow the use of Postum in place of coffee, sometimes in a very marked manner.

Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Pilgrims' Hall, Plymouth, Massachusetts.

voiced—the prayer of thanksgiving to St. Francis for the harvest of the past year and of petition that he continue his care by sending early and bountiful rains.

When the banner had been escorted back into the church and deposited at the left of the altar the congregation surged out and a merry scene ensued.

With chatter and exclamations and infectious laughter, the people moved about in ever-changing groups. No one was greeted more warmly than Don Thomas Larkin, who took this opportunity of introducing to the people from the country his latest protegee, Alvin Rodgers. The old Californians accepted the newcomer warmly, as was their habit. "The friend of Don Thomas is a friend of mine. My house is yours whenever you wish to visit it."

The stranger accepted all degrees of friendliness with the same imperturbable calmness, and finally attached himself to the group in which the Diaz family were chattering.

As the vans started, the population of Monterey scattered to its homes, accompanied by all the country people who could possibly remain over for the evening's festa. Ramon Castro joined the Diaz group, but had to content himself with walking with one of the sons, while Senor Diaz marched Rodgers off just behind Carmencita and Francisca.

The old senor had taken a fancy to the young American. In the two weeks since Rodgers' arrival he had invited him to his home every day. With the exception of the father and Carmencita, the Diaz family felt uncomfortable under the cold blue scrutiny of the stranger; but, as Californians, they did not withdraw their hospitable attentions. Carmencita, feeling the disapproval of her family, showered favors upon him. And he—well, at first he came to practice speaking Spanish, and later, he came because he could not keep away. The brown eyes haunted him when away from their presence—now mischievous, now daring, now languishing, now sparkling, but always impelling him to gaze into them—into them and on the softly curved cheek and petal me, if Ramon has not been before-hand."

"He'll never be before-hand: I'll get the fortune, and you, too."

"Oh, but only this day Ramon has asked my father that he may marry me on the 8th of December, his fete day and the Virgin's."

"December! So near! But this is only October, and November comes between. There are other fete days besides his. This is your Thanksgiving. My country has a Thanksgiving in a few weeks. Then I'll either have riches or definite promise of riches. Then I'll claim you. That will be my Thanksgiving."

As merry voices were heard calling, "Carmencita, Cita," he whispered, "Promise me. Promise and seal your promise so, so, so."

Her affirmative answer was smothered and they turned to greet their seekers.

His employment with Larkin took him to the different ranches and even as far north as Pueblo de San Jose. Here old Don Palomares, in extolling California over Mexico, said:

"Oh, yes, senor, Mexico has her silver mines. But who can say that California has not greater riches? Perhaps the old padres can tell of gold fields that the old Indians knew about."

"No, senor. The reverend padres never divulged any such information. They had seen how the Indians of Mexico were enslaved to work in the mines, and how avarice, awakened by the desire for silver, had corrupted the white man. So why introduce a great curse here in this land of content, where God sends all that is needed and where his children live in peace and in his spirit?"

After this Rodgers cultivated the acquaintance of the different priests on his routes, the padres of Monterey, of the Pueblo de San Jose and of the missions of San Jose and Santa Cruz. His eyes, always stern, grew colder and keener, and his manners, always implying superiority, did not tend to win him personal friendship. However, as a stranger and a protegee of Larkin, the padres extended their hospitality to him—their hospitality, but nothing more. It was not likely that they would confide in a foreigner as a music. The silence made them both start. Then from the windows thundered: "That Americano, Rodgers, Dog of an infidel. He murdered the padre of the Mission de Santa Cruz and stole the strings of pearls from the virgin." Carmencita shivered herself out of his arms as the piercing tones inside continued: "Sancho, the Indian, saw him while hid in the sanctuary. He came to tell us, but the Americano had several hours' start. Now he's here. Where is he?"

A howl for blood went up as the whole company jumped for the doorways. The cry roused Carmencita. "Come," she breathed, and, seizing his hand, led him running through the nearest exit. Half a block down the street they were before their pursuers perceived them. Then shots filled the air. At the corner they made a swift turn and ran directly to the bay. Carmencita jumped into an old boat. Rodgers followed and unmoored it. He seized the oars and made some distance from the shore. The pursuers reached the beach. Some fired wildly, but others boarded a boat and continued after them. It was inevitable that they be taken. Carmencita crept along the boat to his side and put her arms around him. "It was my fault, my sin. You did it for me. I love you. I love you!" The oars were dropped. His arms inclosed her. "Don't let them take us," she whispered. He suddenly stood erect, with her still in his arms. Then one bound and the waters had closed over their bodies. They never again reached the shores of Monterey, nor has the sea ever again given up the treasured pearls.

When he finishes his story, old Don Antonio always leans back and sighs.

"You see why it is I do not appreciate the American Thanksgiving. There always returns that picture of the first time we celebrated it."

"Did the padres know of the gold fields? Who can tell? If they did, they were wise to withhold the information. You see how much harm the desire for gold works."

"Is it true? Well, I was one of the pursuers."—Katherine A. Chandler in San Francisco Call.

THE PROMOTION OF THE ADMIRAL AND OTHER SEA COMEDIES

By Morley Roberts Author of "The Colossus," "The Fugitives," "Copyright, 1909, 1910, by The Curtis Publishing Company, Copyright, 1909, by L. C. Page & Company, (Incorporated.)

(Continued.)
"What is this?" asked Capt. Blaker mildly, yet with a savage eye. "Mr. Simpson, what do you mean by allowing your authority (and mine delegated to you) to be disregarded?"

"Sir—" said Mr. Simpson, and then the admiral turned on him. "Hold your infernal tongue, sir," he roared. "And, sir, if you are the master of this vessel, as I suppose, I require you to put a bout for San Francisco. I am a British admiral, sir; my name is Sir Richard Dunn."

"Oh, you're an admiral and you require—" said Blaker. "Wa! I do admire you look like an admiral; the water-front is full of such. Take that, sir."

And the resurgent old Adam in Blaker struck the admiral with such unexpected force that Dunn went heels over head off the poop and landed on Simpson. The mate improved the opportunity by kicking him violently in the ribs. When he was up, he spoke to the admiral again.

"Now, you lunatic, take this here half of twine and go and overhaul the gear on the main. And if you open your mouth to say another word I'll murder you."

And though he could not believe he was doing it, Sir Richard Dunn crawled aloft and did what he was told. He was stunned by his fall and the hammering he had received, but that was nothing to the utter and complete change of air that he experienced. As he overhauled the gear he wondered if he was an admiral at all. If he was, how came he on the mainmast-yard of a merchant ship? If he wasn't, why was he surprised at being there? He tried to recall the last day of his life as an admiral, and was dimly conscious of a late evening somewhere in San Francisco at which he had certainly taken his share of liquor. A vague sense of having been in a row oppressed him, but he could recall nothing till he had been yanked out of his bunk by that truculent devil of a mate then patrolling the poop.

"I must be mad," said the admiral.

"Now, then, look alive there, you dead crawling cat," said Mr. Simpson, or I'll come up and boot you off the yard. Do you hear me?"

"Yes, sir," said the admiral quickly, and as he put a new mousing on the clipboards of the mizen-topmast-stay-trippling-line block, he murmured, "I suppose I never was an admiral after all. I don't seem to know what I am." And the hardest nut among the admirals of the Active List wiped away a tear with the sleeve of his coat as he listened to the sacred Commination Service with all its blessings, intoned in a down-east twang by the emcee Mr. Simpson.

"He's crazy," said Simpson to the second greaser. "Say he's an admiral. I've had the Apostle Peter on board, and a cook who said he was St. Paul, but this is the first time I've run against an admiral before the mast."

"Does he look like it, sir?" asked Wiggins laughing.

"He looks the toughest case you ever set eyes on," said Simpson. "But you'd have smiled to see the way the old man slugged him off the poop. And yet there's something about him."

And the admiral did not answer. He looked at Knight with a gloomy, introspective eye.

"Mind your own business," he said, when the question was repeated.

And Knight gave a full pannikin of tea at him. This compliment was received very quietly, and the admiral rose and went on deck.

"Takes water at once," said Knight; "he ain't got the pluck of a mouse."

But the admiral went aft and interviewed Mr. Simpson.

"May I have the honor of speaking to you, sir?" he said, and Simpson gasped a little, but said he might have that honor.

"Well, sir, said Sir Richard Dunn, 'I don't know how I got here, but here I am, and I'm willing to waive the question of my being a British admiral, as I can't prove it.'"

"That's right," said Simpson. "Ah, I'll have you sane enough by-and-by, my man."

The admiral nodded.

"But I wish to have your permission to knock the head off a man called Knight for me."

"I'm willing to let him try, sir," said the admiral. "He have a pannikin of tea over me just now, and I think a thrashing would do him good and conduce to the peace and order of the vessel."

"Oh, you think so," said Simpson. "Very well, you have my permission to introduce peace there."

"I thank you, sir," said the admiral. He touched his hat and went forward. He put his head inside the fo'c'sle and addressed Knight:

"Come outside, you bully, and let me knock your head off. Mr. Simpson has been kind enough to overlook the breach of discipline involved."

And Knight, nothing loth, came out on deck, while Simpson and Wiggins stood a little way off to enjoy the battle.

"I'd like to back the admiral," said Wiggins.

"I'll have a level five dollars on Knight," said Simpson, who remembered that he had, on one occasion, found Knight extremely difficult to reduce to pulp.

"Done with you," said Wiggins.

And in five minutes the second mate was richer by five dollars, as his mates carried Knight into the fo'c'sle.

"I don't know when I enjoyed myself more," said Simpson, with a sigh—"even if I do lose money on you. While it lasted it was real good. Did you see that most beautiful upper cut?" And the right-handed cross-counter that finished it was just superb. But I'll have to speak to the victor, so I will."

And he addressed the admiral in suitable language.

"Don't you think, because you've licked him, that you can do any flag when I'm around. You done it neat and complete, and I overlook it, but half a look and the fast letter of a word of sass and I'll massacre you myself. Do you savvy?"

And the admiral said: "Yes, sir."

He touched his cap and went forward to the fo'c'sle to enter into his kingdom. For Knight had been "top-side joss" there for three voyages, being the only man who had ever succeeded in getting even one payday out of the California. The principle on which she was run was to make things so hot for her crew that they skipped out at New York instead of returning to San Francisco, and the fresh crew shipped in New York did the same when they got inside the Golden Gate.

"I understand," said the admiral, as he stood in the middle of the fo'c'sle, "that the gentleman I've just had the pleasure of knocking into the middle of next week was the head bully here. Now I want it thoroughly understood in future that if any bullying is to be done, I'm going to do it."

All the once obedient slaves of the deposed Knight hastened to make their peace with the new power. They fairly crawled to the admiral.

"You knave fight," said one.

"I knew it just as soon as you opened yer mouth," said another. "The tone of yer voice argued you could."

"It's my belief that he could knock the stuff out of Mr. Simpson," said the third.

"'Twould be the best kind of fun," said another admirer of the powers that be, "for Blaker would kick Simpson in here and give the admiral his job right off. He's got religion, has Blaker, but he was an old packet right himself, and real 'bucko' he was, and believes in the best men belin' aft."

And the admiral did not answer. He looked at Knight with a gloomy, introspective eye.

"Mind your own business," he said, when the question was repeated.

And Knight gave a full pannikin of tea at him. This compliment was received very quietly, and the admiral rose and went on deck.

"Takes water at once," said Knight; "he ain't got the pluck of a mouse."

But the admiral went aft and interviewed Mr. Simpson.

"May I have the honor of speaking to you, sir?" he said, and Simpson gasped a little, but said he might have that honor.

"Well, sir, said Sir Richard Dunn, 'I don't know how I got here, but here I am, and I'm willing to waive the question of my being a British admiral, as I can't prove it.'"

"That's right," said Simpson. "Ah, I'll have you sane enough by-and-by, my man."

The admiral nodded.

"But I wish to have your permission to knock the head off a man called Knight for me."

"I'm willing to let him try, sir," said the admiral. "He have a pannikin of tea over me just now, and I think a thrashing would do him good and conduce to the peace and order of the vessel."

"Oh, you think so," said Simpson. "Very well, you have my permission to introduce peace there."

"I thank you, sir," said the admiral. He touched his hat and went forward. He put his head inside the fo'c'sle and addressed Knight:

"Come outside, you bully, and let me knock your head off. Mr. Simpson has been kind enough to overlook the breach of discipline involved."

And Knight, nothing loth, came out on deck, while Simpson and Wiggins stood a little way off to enjoy the battle.

"I'd like to back the admiral," said Wiggins.

"I'll have a level five dollars on Knight," said Simpson, who remembered that he had, on one occasion, found Knight extremely difficult to reduce to pulp.

"Done with you," said Wiggins.

And in five minutes the second mate was richer by five dollars, as his mates carried Knight into the fo'c'sle.

"I don't know when I enjoyed myself more," said Simpson, with a sigh—"even if I do lose money on you. While it lasted it was real good. Did you see that most beautiful upper cut?" And the right-handed cross-counter that finished it was just superb. But I'll have to speak to the victor, so I will."

And he addressed the admiral in suitable language.

"Don't you think, because you've licked him, that you can do any flag when I'm around. You done it neat and complete, and I overlook it, but half a look and the fast letter of a word of sass and I'll massacre you myself. Do you savvy?"

And the admiral said: "Yes, sir."

He touched his cap and went forward to the fo'c'sle to enter into his kingdom. For Knight had been "top-side joss" there for three voyages, being the only man who had ever succeeded in getting even one payday out of the California. The principle on which she was run was to make things so hot for her crew that they skipped out at New York instead of returning to San Francisco, and the fresh crew shipped in New York did the same when they got inside the Golden Gate.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

His Favorite.
"What is your favorite hymn?" asked the man who was writing an article about captains of industry.

"Man wants but little here below," replied Mr. Dustin Stax.

"Is that—an exactly appropriate sentiment for a promoter of combinations?"

"No, I don't intend to take it personally. It is intended to apply to the other fellows."

The Question.
A man told three like this morning to save a dollar, and then put up the money.

He—I'm sure I can marry any girl I please.

She—Yes, but could you please any?

Knew What She Wanted.
"I didn't know Miss Passay was interested in municipal matters."

"She isn't, either."

"Well, I saw her pay fifty cents yesterday for a book on the 'Best Methods of Filtration.'"

"Yes, poor old girl. She thought it was 'Flirtation.'"

Easily Proved.
"The man who tries to convince a woman in an argument," said the sage of Sageville, "is a fool."

"But how may I obtain the proof of that assertion?" asked the very young man.

"By asking any woman," said the modern Solomon.

Deduction.
Miss Cutting—"Then you are an agnostic?"

Cholly Smallhead—"I never said so."

Miss Cutting—"No; but you said you only believed what you could understand.—Judge."

Glad He Wasn't.
A little French girl has become the pet of her father's regiment. Her father was called up for service as a reservist in the Third engineers at Arras, and being a widower, he arrived carrying his little daughter, who, he said, had no one but himself to care for her. The colonel gave orders that the little one should be provided for and the soldiers have christened her "the daughter of the regiment."

The Deadly Mosquito.
The mosquito which injects yellow fever with its proboscis bites by day as well as by night, and is called the day or striped mosquito. It is found chiefly in cities, where it breeds in any chance receptacle of water. The eggs are laid in standing water, and, although the receptacle may dry up, the eggs do not desiccate, but will hatch as soon as it again contains water. The larvae resemble those of other mosquitoes, and are readily killed by a kerosene film on the surface of the water.

Vaseline.
Everybody knows the great value of this remedy in the household, but everybody does not know that the imitations of it, which some second class druggists dishonestly palm off on their customers, have little or no value. That should be understood by the public, that it is not a mere question of comparative value between Vaseline and the imitations, but that the imitations do not effect the wonderful healing results of the world renowned "Vaseline," and that they are not the same thing in the same way. Besides this, many of the imitations are harmful, irritant and not safe to use, while true Vaseline is perfectly harmless.

Perfect safety therefore lies in buying only original bottles and other packages put up by the Vaseline Manufacturing Co. Attention is called to their Capsicum Vaseline advertised in another column.

Jerry—"Is the world getting better?" Jack—"It is getting wiser; I have an awful time trying to borrow money."

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children.
Successfully used by Mother Gray, nurse in the Children's Home in New York, cure Constipation, Feverishness, Bad Stomach, Coughing Disorders, move and regulate the bowels and destroy Worms. Over 30,000 testimonials. At all Druggists. Sample FREE. Address: A. S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N.Y.

Those Dear Girls.
Phyllis—"I want you to know that I don't stand on trifles."

ARTIST KEPT FUR MANTLE.

Valuable Fur Garment a Reward for Successful Duplicité.

The late artist, Hans Canon, once painted a Russian prince in a magnificent fur mantle, which took his fancy so completely that he endeavored to hit on a plan by which he might retain possession of it. On sending home the portrait he omitted to return the garment and to the letter requesting him to do so he made no reply. One day, when looking out of a window, he saw the prince coming toward his house. Hastily slipping into the garb, Canon sat down in an armchair near the fire. The prince, who had come for his coat, started on seeing Canon groaning and trembling at the fireside. "What is the matter with you?" he asked. "Oh," groaned Canon, "I don't know what it is, but I feel so weak and wretched, and I cannot get warm. Two days ago my brother died of smallpox and I am a bit nervous about myself." The artist kept the coat.

The Value of Nitrogen.
The chemists of the agricultural department have shown that ability to fix the nitrogen, which is infinitely abundant in the air and apply it to the worn-out fields of the world, will enable mankind to cultivate what is practically virgin soil forever. The only available nitrogen is the nitrate of soda beds in the rainless strip between the Andes and the Pacific, which is owned or controlled by the Chileans. This nitrate is a product of guano, there being no rain to dissolve it out. A plant at Niagara Falls is taking nitrogen from the air by electrolysis, but not yet in commercial quantities.

The Doctor's Statement.
St. John, Kan., Nov. 16.—This town has a genuine sensation in the case of a little boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McBride. Dr. Limes, the attending physician, says:

"Scarlet Fever of a very malignant type brought this child very near to death and when the fever left him he was semi-paralyzed in the right leg and right arm. He also lost hearing in his right ear, and his mind was much affected."

"His parents tried another treatment for a time and when I was recalled I found that he was having spells very like Epilepsy and was very bad and gradually growing worse. I advised the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills and in a short time the child began to improve. Inside of a week the nervous spasms or epileptic seizures ceased altogether."

Mr. and Mrs. McBride have made a sworn statement of the facts and Dr. Jesse L. Limes has added his sworn statement saying that Dodd's Kidney Pills, "residents of Lincoln County, Kansas," recommended the observance of such a day after victory.

It is hard to believe in a clean religion in a dirty church.

Piso's Cure for the common cold, influenza, croup, whooping cough, etc. See what we can do for you.

We have a many Over Don't Worry

No use to make yourself miserable worrying about what to eat or when to eat it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

aids digestion, keeps the stomach and bowels in perfect condition. Ask your druggist.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO., Monticello, Ill.

WET WEATHER COMFORT

There is no satisfaction keener than being dry and comfortable when out in the hardest storm.

YOU ARE SURE OF THIS IF YOU WEAR WATERPROOF OILED CLOTHING

MADE IN BLACK OR YELLOW AND BACKED BY OUR GUARANTEE

WATERPROOF OILED CLOTHING

WITH NERVES UNSTRUNG AND HEADS THAT ACHE

WISE WOMEN BROMO-SELTZER TAKE

TRIAL BOTTLE 10 CENTS.

OUR HOLIDAY PRICES

AN ANECDOTE OF GLADSTONE.

Demonstrating His Concern for the Amenities of Life.

In his life of Gladstone Mr. Morley quoted a quaint letter written by the premier to Lord Granville in 1886 after the former's Irish home rule policy had alienated most of the peers of England. There was to be a dinner in honor of the queen's birthday, and the Prince of Wales was to come and to bring Prince Albert Victor with him. "But," wrote Mr. Gladstone, "his position would be very awkward if he comes and witnesses a great nakedness of the land." Could Lord Granville help by persuading dissentient peers to put in an appearance for this occasion only? Mr. Morley, with perhaps the suspicion of a smile between the lines, records that "the prince was unable to be present and so the great nakedness was by him unseen."

How's This?
We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Proprietors, Toledo, O.

When a chronic liar tells the truth he always feels called upon to produce evidence in support of his statement.

Ask Your Druggist for Allen's Foot-Ease.

Some reserve is a debt to prudence. No freedom and simplicity of conversation is a debt of good nature.—Ebenston.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Those who weary in well-doing are those who do the least of it.

Carpet can be colored on the floor with PUTNAM FADELESS DYES.

Many a man is flattered who is not worthy of being praised.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Stir up a man's wrath if you want his candid opinion of you.

If you wish beautiful, clear, white clothes use Red Cross Ball Blue. Large 2 oz. package, 5 cents.

It is hard to believe in a clean religion in a dirty church.

Piso's Cure for the common cold, influenza, croup, whooping cough, etc. See what we can do for you.

We have a many Over Don't Worry

No use to make yourself miserable worrying about what to eat or when to eat it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

aids digestion, keeps the stomach and bowels in perfect condition. Ask your druggist.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO., Monticello, Ill.

WET WEATHER COMFORT

There is no satisfaction keener than being dry and comfortable when out in the hardest storm.

YOU ARE SURE OF THIS IF YOU WEAR WATERPROOF OILED CLOTHING

Mrs. Rosa Adams, niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A., wants every woman to know of the wonders accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot tell you with pen and ink what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me, suffering from the ill peculiar to the sex, extreme lassitude and that all some feeling. I would rise from my bed in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed, but before I used two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began to feel the buoyancy of my younger days returning, became regular, could do more work and not feel tired than I had ever been able to do before, so I continued to use it until I was restored to perfect health. It is indeed a boon to sick women and I heartily recommend it. Yours very truly, Mrs. ROSA ADAMS, 819 12th St., Louisville, Ky."—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham. She will understand your case perfectly, and will treat you with kindness. Her advice is free, and the address is Lynn, Mass. No woman ever regretted having written her, and she has helped thousands.

AT BED TIME I TAKE A PLEASANT MERE DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and bowels and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called "Lime Tea."

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE

All druggists sell it. Write to Lane's Family Medicine Co., 17 State Street, New York City.

CAPSICUM VASELINE

A substitute for and superior to mustard or any other plaster, and will not blister the most delicate skin. The pain-relieving and curative qualities of this article are wonderful. It will soothe the toothache at once, and relieve headache and neuralgia. We recommend it as the best and safest external counter-irritant known, also as an external remedy for pains in the chest and stomach and all rheumatic, neuritic and sciatic affections. A trial will prove what we claim for it, and it will be found to be invaluable in the household. Many people say "it's the best of all your preparations." Price 15 cents, at all druggists or other dealers, or by sending this amount to us in postage stamps we will send you a tube by mail. No article should be accepted by the public unless the same carries our label, as otherwise it is not genuine. CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO., 17 State Street, New York City.

$811,000,000.00

Is Colorado's Mineral Production to date.

WE ARE ON THE GROUND and will advise you as to the BEST MINING ENTERPRISES.

Send for our weekly Market Letter which tells you about them. IT'S FREE.

THE J. R. YOUNG COMPANY, Mining Investments, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Members Colorado Springs Mining Exchange.

SAVE 1/2 YOUR FUEL

It is now wasted up chimney. Our Economy Radiator saves you fuel at 1/2 price for 10 years. RADIATOR CO., 25 Farnace St., Rochester, N.Y.

Everything strictly fresh and in class shape. Give a call.

LUNCHES SERVED

A full line of home-made Candies hand. Please give me a call.

WILLIAM CASPARE

Try Standard want ad

Strength and vigor come of fully digested. "Force," a ready-to-eat wheat and barley food, adds no bulk but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

Did you ever hear tell of the old "If you have not got the goods back to the woods"? The goods Knee's High Ball elicits.

Try a 3 pound sack Tip-Top wheat 10 cents.

Then he would hear his path
"Che-e-e," which seemed to be a protest against our unkindness allowing him to be hungry. So my went out to the wood with some and sitting down on a fallen tree, tied softly in imitation of his own v
In a moment he came to her side, although ravenously hungry, took food as gently as a canary. From time he has been a source of conti pleasure.

ERNEST HAROLD BAY

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

hide, Calf skin, Dog skin, or any other kind of hide or skin, and let us tan it with the hair on, soft, tight, odorless and moth-proof, for robe, rug, coat or gloves.

But first get our Catalogue, giving prices, and our shipping tags and instructions, so as to avoid mistakes. We also buy raw furs and skins.

THE CROSBY FUR COMPANY,
110 Mill Street, Rochester, N. Y.

maps, rates, routes and other information at once told. W. Steinhoff,
Passenger Agent Wisconsin Cent.
Saginaw, Mich. (W. S.)

F. T. Barnum's old saying to people like to be humbugged is or altogether true. The longer world needs the Water it gets.
he wise to a good cigar if you try Eligh Ball.

Just the thing for results. S want ads.

where. T. F. HOLDEN, mfr., 1544 1/2
E. W. DANIEL
 NORTH LAKE'S
AUCTIONEER
 Satisfaction Guaranteed, No charge for Auction Bills.
 Postoffice address, r. f. d. 1, Gregory, N.
 Merrimen's All-Night Workers m morning movements easy.