VILLAGE NOMINATIONS.

Two Tickets in the Field in Chelsea for Next Monday's Election.

The Citizens' caucus held in the basement of the town hall Tuesday evening was largely attended and the best feature about the attendance was that it was entirely voluntary, proving that the taxpayers were interested in seeing a ticket put in the field.

The caucus was called to order by Tom W. Mingay, and on motion he was chosen as its chairman. J. W. VanRiper was on motion chosen as secretary. On motion the chairman appointed as tellers James Taylor and Ed. Beissel. The following ticket was then nominated by acclamation:

President—George P. Staffan. Clerk—William D. Arnold. Treasurer—John S. Cummings. Trustees—John A. Palmer, Tom W. Mingay and John P. Foster.

Assessor—William Bacon. On motion the chairman appointed as committee for the ensuing year Henry H. Fenn, Geo. A. Beagle and R. D. Walker.

The Workingmen's caucus was held at the town hall Tuesday evening. Jas. S. Gorman called the meeting to order and then called A. W. Wilkinson to the chair. Bernard Parker was chosen as clerk. The chairman appointed Fred Wedemeyer and W. R. Lehman tellers. The following ticket was put in nomination:

President—Frank P. Glazier. Clerk—W. Henry Heselshwerdt. Treasurer—Wm. F. Riemschneider. Trustees—Orin C. Burkhart, Wm. J. Knapp and Adam Eppler. Assessor—Daniel C. McLaren. The committee appointed for the ensuing year was Jas. S. Gorman, H. D. Witherell and Fred Wedemeyer.

Home Wedding at North Lake.

Wednesday, March 2, at 12 o'clock noon, Miss Rose Glenn and Mr. Floyd Hinkley were quietly married at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glenn, Rev. George W. Gordon officiating. No invitations were sent out on account of the ill health of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn. Mrs. Matie Griffith, of Chelsea, and Miss Blanche Glenn, of Gregory, were present as witnesses and helpers, also little Ralph Glenn and Golden Griffith. Rose is the last of six that lived to grow up to leave the parental care, but not home, as for a time at least they will live in a part of the old home. They took a short trip to Detroit and returned the next day on account of cares at home.

North Lake.

Ernest Cooke is now busy moving to the Twamley homestead.

F. A. Burkhart and wife and Mrs. H. M. Twamley visited here Saturday.

F. A. Glenn and wife have moved from the Hill farm back to Fred's old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Dutton, of Plainfield, were here visiting their parents last week.

John Webb and wife visited here Thursday last and attended the sale for an hour or two.

Mr. Buck, on the S. O. Hadley homestead, sold his personal property at auction last Tuesday.

There will be a social at Mr. Gilbert's on the Webb place, north of the lake, on Friday evening.

John Witty is getting able to be around a bit now. Last week he sold his old family driving horse for $50.

Our new presiding elder was here on Sunday and pleased all who were privileged to hear him for the first time.

Mrs. W. H. Glenn is fast recovering from a severe cold on the lungs and is now able to be about the house.

Every other man in the community has bought or is wanting to buy a horse. What has made this scarcity in horses?

The cold of the past few weeks has so reduced the wood piles that the sawing machine will be a welcome sight. Some are using coal.

The sale at B. C. Glenn's last week was well attended and to all appearances it went off satisfactorily, all the articles offered being disposed of.

Your correspondent has been laid up by the grip for eight days of late and it has left him so weak the pencil feels heavy and living is a burden.

Ernest Cooke has moved to his new home, formerly known as the Twamley homestead, were we all welcome him and his better half to a long and happy life and much good fortune.

R. S. Whalian and Floyd Hinkley went to Gregory Saturday last and Floyd bought a young horse and brought home with them. Mr. W. wanted to buy one a little larger and went out again Tuesday.

Otis Webb, now a machinist in Jackson, made a pleasant call here last Saturday on his way home to Unadilla to make a short visit to his parents and some one nearer and dearer, or will soon be, or my guess goes high.

Monday evening a few of the neighbors met at the home of Geo. Webb to meet Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney who start home in a few days. On account of sickness they missed visiting in many places where they would have been very welcome. They are good company and full of life and good cheer.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sweeney, of North Dakota, visited here. It is about 12 years since they were married and went to Dakota on their wedding journey. Mr. S. has not returned to his old home until now. They went there poor in pocket but full of grit, and now are well supplied with the useful, with good health, and are fully convinced from experience that Dakota is the place for new beginners who are not afraid of a few privations for the first year or two. They now enjoy good society and all the comforts of older settled countries. Mr. Sweeney tells the young men to go west, until they get a start in life at least.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of La Grange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 35 cents. Sold by Glazier & Stimson, druggists.

Important News From All Parts of Michigan

Happenings of the Week Chronicled Briefly For Happening of the Week Chronicled Briefly For Busy Readers

The Flood in Monroe.

Tuesday evening the ice gorge at Sisters' island, in the River Raisin, gave way and the flood poured in on the city of Monroe doing great damage. Before the gorge carried away at the island, lowering the water, the high water mark of four years ago was exceeded by 18 inches. As an example of the flood's fury, there lies, unbroken, in the center of the street, at Navarre and Front streets, a huge ice cake, 60 feet square and 4 feet 3 inches thick. When the water receded this piece was one of many left stranded about the city. For four miles above the city the river is practically free from ice. But there are still 30 miles of solid ice further up stream, liable to cause more trouble when the break-up comes. Before the water broke through the upper ice barrier, the whole river part of Monroe was afloat. At 8 o'clock, with a roar like thunder, the jam gave way before the terrific pressure, and in 15 minutes the flood fell six feet. In the wild rush that followed ice floes battered against houses and stores, carried away porches and small structures, threatened to sweep the bridges, but rolled on, leaving them shaking on their foundations. As the wall of ice and water struck the Navarre street jam there came another roar, and that gorge also carried away, and the town was saved. The terrific storm of hail and lightning added to a scene of horror never before beheld here. Below the ice is still gorged and a large portion of the country west of town is submerged.

Gogebic Office Holders.

For a county of only 16,000 people Gogebic, no doubt, leads the list in the state in official salaries. The regular list is as follows: Mine inspector, $1,500; sheriff, per annum, $1,500; judge of probate, per annum, $1,500; county clerk, per annum, $1,500; county treasurer, per annum, $2,000; prosecuting attorney, per annum, $1,800; three poor commissioners, per annum, $1,400; janitor, per annum, $720; total, $11,920. So-called extra compensation and salaries are: Circuit judge, $1,000; tax attorney, $600; deputy clerk, $900; deputy treasurer, $900; two deputy sheriffs, each $720, $1,440; county physician, $1,200; sheriff, for boarding prisoners, per annum, $2,500; total, $8,350, making the grand total $20,400.

Goes to the State.

Judge Hosmer, of the Detroit circuit court, blasted the hopes of surviving members of the old Detroit fire department and the heirs of former members by deciding that the funds in trust should revert to the state. He says the association was a public charity with a public function of extinguishing fires, and therefore the money left should not be for private distribution. There is about $21,000 in the fund, and after legal and other expenses are paid there will be between $10,000 and $15,000 left for the state.

Kill the Robins.

"Death to the robin" is the cry of the Michigan Horticultural society. Prof. Hedrick, of the M. A. C., read a paper before that body in the Lansing convention in which he declared that the red-breasted singer should be a game bird and its slaughter legalized at any and all times. He declared that the bird has become a pest and that the fruit crops are suffering as a consequence of the sentiment expressed for the chirper. There was only one champion of the robin in the convention, and he claimed that the bird was a good worm destroyer.

A Century Old.

The oldest woman in the copper country, Mrs. Salome Schmitt, of Hancock, has just celebrated her 100th birthday and promises to live for some years to come. She is in good health, and aside from defective sight and hearing, has none of the infirmities of old age, being unusually active for her years. She makes her home with a married daughter, Mrs. Schmitt was aged 72 when she emigrated from Germany, where she was born and lived up to that time.

Using Old Stumps.

Thousands of acres of pine stump lands in the northern part of Newaygo county are being taken up by speculators with a view to the production of turpentine, wood alcohol, etc. It is said that a cord of stumps boiled five days will produce 16 gallons of refined turpentine, 30 gallons of tar and 30 bushels of charcoal. It is also stated that a plant running one retort produces monthly 40 gallons of turpentine, 180 gallons of tar and 180 bushels of charcoal.

Burned to Death.

Mrs. Solomon Nideau, a widow, aged about 60 years, residing four miles north of Monroe, was burned to death Saturday night. She lived alone in her house, and it is presumed that in her efforts to extinguish the flames her clothing caught fire. The house was completely destroyed.

A Lansing Man Stole a Blanket to Cover a Horse and was Arrested.

Receiver L. E. Wood of the defunct First National bank of Niles, has been instructed by Comptroller Ridgley to wind up the bank's affairs within six months. The receiver will pay a 5 per cent dividend within two weeks, making 75 per cent for depositors to date.

Mrs. Cyrus G. Luce, the wife of the venerable ex-governor, was in Bronson last week to aid in the celebration of the 95th birthday of her father, Ira Brown. In spite of his extreme age Mr. Brown is in good health, although weak with the weight of many years. He is a pioneer of Michigan, having located in that section in 1831.

STATE NEWS NOTES.

Muskegon faces water famine. Hay sells for $12 per ton in Hesperia. Michigan has over 500,000 cows on farms. Field mice are injuring fruit trees at Watervliet. Falling tree crushed both legs of Jesse Hays, of Acme. Western Michigan orchards are being ruined by San Jose scale. Fruit growers in Berrien county are worried over a scarcity of help. Hancock has a fire engine which has been in commission over 30 years. Paul Topp, South Grand Blanc, was shot through the ear while hunting. A Port Huron youth stole $20 from his mother's pillow while she slept. The Charlotte postoffice will be moved, after being in one location 36 years. Canadian Indians crossed Lake Superior on the ice and camped on Black River. Last year the Westphalia creamery manufactured over 111,000 pounds of butter. Fred H. Smith, a Soo brakeman, had both legs cut off by a train; Death followed. Land and railway companies are endeavoring to colonize upper peninsula counties. Mrs. E. A. Blackman, of Hillsdale, was seriously burned by cleaning lace with gasoline. A Menominee family is dangerously ill from eating poisoned biscuits made from stale flour. The proposition to bond Grand Rapids $200,000 for school extension will be settled by people. A movement is on foot to double the capacity of the Grand Trunk shops in Port Huron. Capt. Bartlett, Dayton, the first white child born in Berrien county, is hale and hearty at 74. Lenawee county will submit the question of local option to the voters at the spring election. The burned business district of Coleman will be rebuilt with brick and cement structures. The wildest storm of the winter raged Wednesday night in the copper district, with a heavy fall of snow. Charles Canfield, of Hillsdale county, is seriously ill from blood poisoning resulting from a horse bite. Will McGill, a Leslie farm hand, was kicked in the face by a horse. The bones of his lower jaw were broken to splinters. Gov. Bliss will call an election in Jackson county to nominate a successor to Judge Peck, the election to be held on April 4. Marquette has never been so completely snowbound since March, 1899, as it was last week. All traffic was stopped. Michigan railroads earned $3,674,776.83 in January, 1904, a decrease over the same month in 1903 of $171,688.64, or 4.44 per cent. The printing plant of the Wynkoop, Hallenbeck & Crawford Company in Lansing was burned Tuesday morning. Loss, $25,000; no insurance. The proposition to bond Bronson for a sum not to exceed $18,000, with which to establish a water works plant, will be voted upon at the spring election. Mrs. Almira Austin, convicted of polygamy, was sentenced in Port Huron to the Detroit house of correction for from two years to two years and six months. Clifford E. Gilbert, of Jackson, 3 years old, is dead from eating strychnine tablets. Lewis Crosby, a neighboring child, ate some of the poison, but recovered. Nine-year-old Turner D. Turner, of Porter, while playing with a calf, was hooked in the eye. The injury was so serious that it was necessary to remove the eye. J. N. Merrifield, 60 years old, of Coldwater, was struck by a train and his head cut off. He was walking on the tracks and being deaf did not hear the train. Because of the frozen condition of the ground Sexton Mark Huston was unable to dig a grave in an Owosso cemetery in time for a funeral Saturday, so the burial was postponed to Sunday. Edith, the 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeLisle, of Flint, was poisoned by eating canned tomatoes prepared for supper. Only the prompt action of a physician saved her life. Mayor Wood ordered the Niles opera house closed until extensive repairs are completed. The mayor also ordered Bullard's hall, the only other playhouse in town, closed for the same reason. The Jackson street railway service is held-up as the result of the township treasurers of Leoni and Grass Lake levying upon the rolling stock of the Jackson & Suburban Traction Co. for $5,500 unpaid taxes. Eighty acres of land have been given to the University of Michigan to serve the needs of the department of forestry. The gift was made by Regent Arthur Hill, of Saginaw. George Atkinson, who came to Lansing from Laingsburg a few weeks ago and who is employed in the Olds gasoline works, fell from a high scaffold Monday and is now in a serious condition from paralysis. Stanley Hicks, a Talmouth farmer, left a big fire in the stove when the family went to spend the evening with a neighbor. On his return he found the house and contents destroyed. There was no insurance.

Harry Levers, well known throughout the upper peninsula as "Lord Harry," died in Iron Mountain after a prolonged illness. He was 60 years of age, was born in Wales and is said to have been a Welsh nobleman. Sylvester Snow, of Liberty township, aged 35, is dead as a result of injuries received in an accident on his farm. He was felling trees when a limb fell, crushing his skull. He walked 80 rods to his home before he collapsed. Roy Gillett, a Lapeer boy with troupe F. Fourth cavalry, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., writes his parents here that orders have been received for the company to prepare for immediate departure for the Philippines. The proposal to bond the Pontiac school district for $30,000 for a new high school to be built in the central part of the city was overwhelmingly defeated at the special election. Of the 592 votes cast, 454 were against the proposition. Isaac Wheeler and his wife were buried in the one grave at Flushing Wednesday. Both died within nine hours of each other from pneumonia. Mr. Wheeler in the morning and Mrs. Wheeler in the afternoon. Each was about 65 years of age. The state board of health reports show that typhoid fever is 274 per cent more than usually prevalent in the state, and Secretary Baker further notes that the larger number of reports are from cities or towns having a general water supply. Bert Fenton, the Brookfield farmer who shot his employer, John Unterkircher, the night of December 26, pleaded guilty in circuit court. He was given an indeterminate sentence by Judge Smith at Ionia for a term of not less than one or more than two years. Simeon Slater, an old farmer, of Lapeer, who has been insane for several years, became violent during the critical illness of his wife. Mr. Slater is very deaf and he has a mania for pulling at his ears. One is severed almost entirely from his head, and he presents a pitiful sight. Prof. Allen, the Palmyra astrologer, is again seeing things, the most important of which is the finish of President Roosevelt. He says either Hearst or Cleveland will be the next president, and that according to the horoscope, the fortunate star of the Republican party is growing dim. The state military board has decided that the next encampment of the state militia will be held in Michigan. The board are sore on the government camp in Kentucky, the general sentiment being that the maneuvers there were not of such a nature as to prove instructive to the state militia. The ice in Lake St. Clair, two feet thick at most points, began to break up Sunday, and quantities floated down the river during the day. The river is clear of solid ice between Belle Isle and Sandwich point, and reports from the Flats indicate that the St. Clair river ice is beginning to break up. Because her husband jokingly accused her of taking a dollar from his pocket, Mrs. Lee Carlisle, aged 23, of Lansing, swallowed a dose of carbolic acid. The husband discovered what she had done when she asked him to kiss her good-by. He hastily summoned a physician, but she was beyond help and died in a few minutes. Will J. Johnson, 24 years old, a nurse at the Battle Creek sanitarium, has married Mrs. J. W. Sam, a rich woman of Houston, Texas. Mrs. Sam is 51 years old. Johnson nursed Mrs. Sam's first husband at the sanitarium and after he died Mrs. Sam bought Johnson an automobile, gave him plenty of spending money and finally married him. There is in Menominee at least one man whose interest in the eastern war is greater than the average person in this country. This is Simon Melkman, a Russian Jew fruit peddler. Melkman was for a number of years a member of the czar's forces, irregular Cossack cavalry of Asiatic Russia, and lived with the rest of the Cossacks in tents on the steppes. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cady of Benton Harbor, have just received $16,000 in exchange for a farm in Idaho, which they thought of very little value. Fifteen years ago Mr. Cady was teaching in Idaho and he met and loved the girl who, however, married a man named Whitney. When she married Cady began the study of law. Upon his graduation, her husband having died, Cady married Mrs. Whitney. Mrs. Cady was left by her husband a ranch in Idaho, which to their surprise, has now become a valuable fruit farm.

Harry Levers, well known throughout the upper peninsula as "Lord Harry," died in Iron Mountain after a prolonged illness. He was 60 years of age, was born in Wales and is said to have been a Welsh nobleman. Sylvester Snow, of Liberty township, aged 35, is dead as a result of injuries received in an accident on his farm. THE NAMELESS QUEST.

Hushed was the restless call of the sea,
While the gulls flew far and the sun
Sank low,
And a ghost of a ship sailed in to me
On a waft of the softest winds that blow,
She sailed from the dim and magic west
And she was the ghost of "The Nameless Quest."

Well I know the day when that ship set sail,
With her snow-white decks and her spars a gleam,
Her crew raised a song and a cheery hail
From her friends on shore caught her fair a-beam,
She was bound to the dim and magic
West,
And she was the ghost of "The Nameless Quest."

They alone who sailed her out can tell
Where she was bound, why she ne'er came back;
But I, who was one who wished her well,
Have seen her ghost on the homeward
tack,
She sailed from the dim and magic
West,
And she was the ghost of "The Name-
less Quest."

MILLINERY AND MYSTICISM

By CAPTAIN F. STUDLEY

There are dressmakers, and there are Worths! Milliners—and my charming friend, Madame Cloux!

I wondered how the piquant, well-informed little dame had succeeded in her new venture, having removed from Denver to San Diego. "Our House," the most exclusive firm of high-class imported millinery in the United States, considered her its most appreciative buyer.

A stroke of luck had made me junior partner of "Our House." Madame Cloux had not heard the news—I intended to conceal it until I was quite sure the impression she had made on me as a mere traveling representative, could bear the test of a fresher comparison with the original.

Madame Cloux,
Imported Millinery,
Summer Opening.

Such was the card. Now was the best time to see her at her very best-receiving. How she could receive!

Many of her millionaire patrons most often have envied her manner—it was perfect; and none of them could have suspected the existence of her other manner, that of delicious diablerie. Once, in Denver, by accident I had called on a "summer opening." Carriages lined the street in front of her residence, and "buttons" took my card. Now—no! not a single carriage. Yet by the artistic style of the entrance (and omen of omens—an orange-shrub at the door, with blossoms I knew at once it could have been composed by no one but her.

I entered, Madame Cloux was on the verge of tears, yet she laughed heroically; soon gesticulating tragically, and declaiming wildly, (with her dainty suspicion of an accent), she explained:

"Oh, Mr. Adam, I make one grand mistake. I think the Coronado hotel is filled with the wealthy ladies! I catch them all in holiday pleasantry. They see the creations! They cannot resist! I make money! Oh, Mr. Adam, I am fallen!"

"My dear Mad—"

"I am, I am! And my pedestal falls with me, broken—my heart it, too, is breaking. See! (waving frantically) the pictures! There 'La Florida,' seventy dollars; observe 'La Vierge'—one hundred and twenty; regard 'Satanella,' the dream in scarlet chiffon, only fifty! And no one, no one as much as opens the door to admire. Ah! why did I ever leave my dear Paris! I have been going down, down, ever since I bade it farewell! First one thing and then another until I

"I got into the street and to my room. 'Change your condition' buzzed in my ears. I fell asleep and awoke in the morning with 'Change your condition.' I sprang off my cot, took my coat and trousers and rolled them into a vicious bundle and kicked it through the window; then my eye fell on my grip, and in a second more, it too, was in the alley.

"Change my condition, ha! ha! Anything else? Two books, my boots, a pocket comb and my tooth brush.

"Now, I have changed my condition! When the landlady knocks, let her send for the police. What do I care? But the landlady never came near.

"At last a knock at the door—I had left it unlocked. Come in! A former chum walked in.

"Hello, Adam. Have been chesing you all over—have a position for you. What's the matter? Are you sick?"

"No, but I've changed my condition." I yelled.

"Can't you get up?"

"Of course I can." With that I arose and confronted him.

"Where are your clothes?" he stammered.

"Pitched them out there to change my condition."

"Presently my friend realized that if it was a joke it was a desperate joke of a desperate man. The poor fellow was so affected he burst into tears.

"You've got to get out of this."

"Hurriedly the good fellow left me, and returned soon with a whole outfit in 'Our House,' to better my fortune in California where I was well known. It had never entered my con-have lost all my fortune. Soon I am penniless—then I go hungry one day—two days—I cannot live, I—"

"Hush! It is but too recently I have been through all that—even to contemplating—! Listen; just in time I learned how to change the condition. In San Francisco a year ago, I arrived one night, sick and weary. A series of fatal losses had overtaken me from the moment I had resigned my position in 'Our House,' to better my fortune in California where I was well known. It had never entered my consciousness that another position would be difficult to procure. Failure after failure, coupled with a heavy setback of grippe, nearly broke my spirit. Anything in the way of work I would have taken, but it seemed there was always a hundred ahead of me.

"At last, one Sunday morning, I realized I had just fifteen cents, and on Monday morning my landlady would request her week's rent—after that the deluge! Hunger alone compelled me to rise and go out at night into the drizzling fog. A flaring light attracted me as I was creeping back to my lodging, and a placard in front of one of the minor balls read thus:

Lecture and Test Meeting:
How to be Successful!
Admission free.

"Light, warmth—for an hour at least, seemed to be provided. I cannot describe the scene, nor the people,

"When things are out of order, forcibly change the condition."

nor anything, for I have nothing but a memory of dreary misery, until I seemed to wake up just as the professor was saying: 'Change your condition. Now, my good people, what would I do if a series of catastrophes overtook me?

"Do you think I would allow it to go on? No, indeed! I would forcibly change the condition. Say you are always unsuccessful in a certain room—take a cane and thrash the very air until you have changed the condition. Do not fear. You can never succeed until you have forcibly changed your condition."

"At last, one Sunday morning, I realized I had just fifteen cents, and on Monday morning my landlady would request her week's rent—after that the deluge! Hunger alone compelled me to rise and go out at night into the drizzling fog. A flaring light attracted me as I was creeping back to my lodging, and a placard in front of one of the minor balls read thus:

Lecture and Test Meeting:
How to be Successful!
Admission free.

good friend looked the more did it affect my resistibilities. I laughed immoderately. Finally I stood up in my changed condition, promising the good fellow to meet him later that evening.

"I left the room looking bright—even swagger. Seized with another almost uncontrollable fit of laughter, I heavily jostled a man in passing.

"Why, is it not—?"

"Yes, it is—Adam! Changed my condition! Ha, ha!"

"Glad to hear it!"

"He coaxed me to dine with him. He insisted upon being my banker pro tem. He put me up to a thing or two on 'shorts.' A legacy from a distant aunt followed. I quadrupled it in a week. Made a present to my friend-in-need of a house and lot. Bought myself in as junior partner to 'Our House,' in which capacity you see me.

"My dear Madame Cloux, now you've got the secret. When things are out of order, forcibly change the condition. When next a lady comes in, do not hope and pray she will purchase, but go behind her, shake your fist at her, and decidedly say in your mind: 'Here, you take that hat, take it.' There will be a difference."

A carriage at that instant drove up. "The lady to practice on," said I. "Now send me word without fail. I wish to know the result. Success."

This was my little ruse to get a note from her, for how can a man propose when he does not know the lady's given name. She had always been just 'Madame Cloux.' Night came, and a dainty note:

"Dear Mr. Adam—She was a cross old thing, so I go behind her; I shake my fist; I say forcibly in my mind, 'Take that hat.' I forget that the plate glass mirrors disclose all to the lady. She screams 'murder.' My assistant, in spasms, falls into the window and crushes the creations, breaking the window, too. I go back to my Paris to-morrow, before it's too late for 'Yours sincerely,

"EVA CLOUX."

Eva! Eva! No, no, she cannot go to Paris. We were made for each other. She must, she shall be Mrs. Adam, and we will live in Paradise.

DIKE BUILT AGES SINCE.

Remains of an Earthwork Evidently Constructed in Prehistoric Times.

The Western states and territories contain many evidences that this continent was once peopled by a race well advanced in the arts of civilization. The fish slipped from his grasp and went off with a black stripe down its sides, and the name of "haddock."

But all fishermen are liars.—Portland Oregonian.

Lion Taming for Girls.

Lion taming is a respectable occupation for girls, says the Paris high court, and emphasizes its decision by adding that a young lady may be fittingly brought up to the business.

This decision was the outcome of an action by Vicomte de Vesins, from whom his wife, a daughter of the millionaire cigarette paper manufacturer Abadie, had obtained some years ago a divorce, the decree giving her the custody of her two children.

The countess took to lion taming, performing mostly in Germany, and the count applied to the court to have the custody of a daughter who assisted her mother entrusted to him, on the ground that a menagerie was not a suitable place for a young lady.

After several years' litigation the mother, who is at present performing near Bona, on the Rhine, has gained the verdict.—New York Journal.

Shad and Porcupine.

In the woods of Keewauwin there once roamed a very discontented porcupine. He was forever fretting. He complained that everything was wrong, till it was perfectly scandalous, and the Great Spirit, getting tired of his grumbling, said:

"You and the world I have made don't seem to fit. One or the other must be wrong. It is easier to change you. You don't like the trees, you are unhappy on the ground, and think everything is upside down, so I'll turn you inside out and put you in the water."

This was the origin of the Shad.—Ernest Thompson-Seton, in The Century.

Cornered and Killed Lynx.

A lynx was brought into Northfield, Vt., which was killed by Alvin Smith and John W. Getty near the William Plastridge farm. It measured four feet from tip to tip, but was not very fat. Smith and Getty saw the animal in the road. They jumped off their sled and armed with sled stakes chased the wildcat until they cornered it, and then batted it over the head. For more than three years a wildcat has frightened many people, and it is thought that this was the one. The bounty on lynx is $5.

Informal Postal System.

In certain parts of Sweden, where the most absolute confidence is reposed in the honesty of the people, a very informal postal system is in vogue. As the mail steamer reaches a landing place a man goes ashore with the letters, which he places in an unlocked box on the pier. Then the passerby who expects the letter opens the box, turns over the letters and selects his own, without being questioned by anyone.

Calf Stabled in a Squash.

It is said that a California farmer living near the city of Los Angeles recently raised a squash of such enormous dimensions that it was used as a stable for a calf. A hole was cut in one end large enough to put the animal inside and another made in the other end allowed its head to protrude. The weight of the squash was estimated at between 200 and 250 pounds.

THE ODD CORNER

Leap Year Wooing.

If men won't woo, and marriage is still somewhat out of date,
Is thus the unskilled maid may do
Who craves the wedded state;

"Dear boy," she'll say, "are you aware
This year's forefex is leap,
When 'tis my privilege to knock
Conventions in a heap?"

"So, know the friendship we have had
Was just to pass the time,
And now I find my thinking roves
To ties far more sublime."

"Indeed, your many qualities
Suggest a double home,
From all whose sweet partnerships
My heart would never roam."

"Too sudden! Why, you must have seen
I meant to say this thing;
And . . . after you have kissed me,
We'll go and hunt the ring."

Since men won't woo and marriage is a trifle out of date,
The happy leap year comes again
To boom the wedded state.
—The Spinster.

Cats and Finnan Haddies.

A Third Street grocer, from whom a housekeeper ordered a finnan haddie, felt it his duty to warn her to keep it out of the reach of cats, and mentioned the fact that a woman had been asking to have stray cats impounded because one had stolen a haddie from her. The grocer said the cat was not to blame, as finnan haddies possessed a magnetism for cats they could not resist. He produced, in proof of his statement, a fragment of a haddie, and said that the night before he had put a cover on his box of haddies and had placed a heavy weight on it, but in the night the store cat had succeeded in pushing aside the cover and had eaten nearly a whole fish. As haddies are rather an expensive food for cats, he was advised to train his cat to live on peanuts, which are cheaper and are consumed by cats with avidity, when they become accustomed to them.

The finnan haddie is a corned and smoked haddock, a fish with a black spot on each side and a black stripe extending to the end of its tail. Down East fishermen say that the spots were caused by Satan, who, having grasped the original fish of this kind with a finger and thumb, exclaimed: "Ha! Diek. I have you now."

The fish slipped from his grasp and went off with a black stripe down its sides, and the name of "haddock."

Fourteen Were Killed.

Fourteen persons are believed to have been killed, about a score injured and several are missing through the collapse of the steel skeleton of the Hotel Darlington, in New York, Wednesday. The building was 13 stories and was located at 57 west Forty-seventh street. The steel framework had been erected as far as the eleventh floor and the structure was swarming with iron workers, masons and laborers when, without an instant's warning, the upper floor sagged and collapsed, and the whole structure fell with a crash that was heard for blocks and shook all the buildings in the vicinity. A portion of the steel frame fell upon the rear of the Hotel Patterson, on west Forty-seventh street, crushing in the wall of the dining room and killing Mrs. Ella Lacey Storrs, wife of Frank Storrs, a wealthy resident of Rye, Westchester county, as she was sitting at luncheon.

The Canal Funds.

The treaty with Panama having been ratified and the titles to the property found correct the secretary of the treasury has called on the depository banks of New York city to deposit 20 per cent of their government holdings in the sub-treasury, the money to be turned over to J. P. Morgan & Co. as the financial representative of the republic of Panama, on account of the Panama canal purchase. This 20 per cent will aggregate about $8,000,000 and the remaining $2,000,000 will be taken from the sub-treasury. The secretary will call on all the special depository banks to forward to designated depository banks in New York 20 per cent of their holdings on or before March 25. This will result in a deposit altogether of about $30,000,000. The remaining $20,000,000 will be supplied by the treasury itself.

The President's Decision.

President Roosevelt has decided that he cannot be a guest of the Republican party at the "under the oaks" semi-centennial celebration at Jackson, Mich., July 6. He has also declined to attend the opening of the world's fair in St. Louis. The chief executive believes the most dignified course for him to pursue is to stay at home during the campaign.

CHIN WHISKERS HID SCARS.

Explanation for Capt. Gibbons' Luxuriant Hair Growth.

Capt. Gibbons had a habit of wearing chin whiskers. I had always thought this was due to the fact that they were more becoming, but I learned the reason to be otherwise. It seems that his chin and throat were scarred and these scars are thus explained:

On one of the ships which he commanded there was a mutiny of the crew one morning on the high seas, which he promptly started to quell. The sailors were too many for him, however, as he was unarmed, and they soon had him down on the deck, bound and gagged with a long knife across his mouth. It was this knife that produced the wounds whose scars the captain carried the remainder of his life concealed beneath the beard. While thus bound and gagged a lady passenger came to him and cutting the bonds handed him a loaded revolver. With this weapon he soon had the crew at his feet and the ringleaders were placed in irons.—Lewis-ton Journal.

A Physician's Advice.

Yorktown, Ark., March 7th.—Dodd's Kidney Pills must not be confounded with the ordinary patent medicine. They are a new discovery, a specific for all diseases of the Kidneys and have been accepted by physicians only after careful tests in extreme cases. Dr. Leland Williamson, of this place heartily indorses Dodd's Kidney Pills "as a remedy for the various forms of the diseases of the Kidneys, pains in the back, soreness in the region of the Kidneys, foul-smelling urine and cloudy or thickened condition of the urine, discharges of pus or corruption. Gout, Rheumatism, Inflammation and Congestion of the Kidneys and all kindred complaints." Continuing he says:

"I could mention many cases in which I have prescribed Dodd's Kidney Pills with success. For instance, Mr. Robert Weeks, farmer, malaria, haematuria or swamp fever three times, kidneys weakened, continual pain and soreness in back, which made him very nervous, had a little fever and sometimes chills. Urine changeable, but generally very high-colored; an old chronic case who had taken much medicine with little effect. After taking Dodd's Kidney Pills about six weeks he was entirely cured and had gained fifteen pounds in weight. The last time I saw him he was the picture of perfect manhood."

WESTERN CANADA'S RESOURCES.

Farming Very Successful.

By Western or Northwest Canada is usually meant the great agricultural country west of Ontario, and north of Minnesota, North Dakota, and Montana. Part of it is agricultural prairie, treeless in places, park like in others, part is genuine plains, well adapted to cattle ranches; part requires irrigation for successful tillage, most of it does not. The political divisions of this region are the Province of Manitoba and the territorial district of Assiniboia, Saskatchewan, Alberta and Athabasca. At present, however, the latter is too remote for immediate practical purposes.

The general character of the soil of Western Canada is a rich, black, clay loam with a clay subsoil. Such a soil is particularly rich in food for the wheat plant. The subsoil is a clay, which retains the winter frost until it is thawed out by the warm rays of the sun and drawn upward to stimulate the growth of the young wheat, so that even in dry seasons wheat is a good crop. The clay soil also retains the heat of the sun later in the summer and assists in the early ripening of the grain. It is claimed that cultivation has the effect of increasing the temperature of the soil several degrees, as well as the air above it.

Western Canada climate is good—cold in winter, hot in summer, but with cool nights. Violent storms of any kind are rare. The rainfall is not heavy. It varies with places, but averages about 17 inches. It falls usually at the time the growing crops need it.

The Department of the Interior, Ottawa, Canada, has agents established at different points throughout the United States who will be pleased to forward an Atlas of Western Canada and give such other information as to railway rate, etc., as may be required.

That agriculture in Western Canada pays is shown by the number of testimonials given by farmers. The following is an extract made from a letter from a farmer near Moose Jaw:

"At the present time I own sixteen hundred acres of land, fifty horses and a large pasture fenced containing a thousand acres. These horses run out all winter and come in in the spring quite fat. A man with money judiciously expended will make a competence very shortly. I consider in the last six years the increase in the value of my land has netted me forty thousand dollars."

To hold fast upon God with one hand and open wide the other to your neighbor—that is religion.—George MacDonald.

Grip

Brought On Sciatic Rheumatism. Nervous Prostration Followed. Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back Health.

"I was laid up during the winter of 1903 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La-Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had two of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health. I am better than for years. In fact am entirely relieved. I can say with a clear conscience that it was Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine that restored me to health. When the pains of sciatic and rheumatism were most severe I secured almost immediate relief by the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Remedies to many people."—Fred Myers, Redfield, S. D.

"I was taken with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder; with such heavy oppressed feeling in my chest that I could hardly breathe. I had palpitation so bad and my heart would throb so that it would shake my whole bed. I also had a weak, all-gone feeling in the region of my heart. My doctor treated me for liver and stomach trouble but I failed to receive any benefit until a friend recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. I used both and one box of the Anti-Pain Pills. I believe I am completely and permanently cured."—Mrs. J. W. Golding, Noblesville, Ind.

THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1904.

The published report of the secretary of the electric light and water works plant shows the total receipts to have been $7,032.91, and the disbursements as follows: Paid to village treasurer $6,360, to the Chelsea Savings Bank $30.75, leaving a balance on hand of $642.16. It then makes a showing of a supposed balance in favor of the plant of $2,371.81. In all this report not one word is said about the expense of operating the plant. No item of the treasurer's report tells what it was paid out for, but a conservative estimate made from it shows that there was paid out by the village for operating the plant as follows: For coal and supplies $4,675.22, for freight on coal and supplies $1,912.74, labor $2,555.34, interest on unpaid bonds $2,050, making a total of $11,293.30. Deduct from this the two items paid out by the secretary to the village treasurer and the Chelsea Savings Bank of $6,390.75, and it leaves a balance against the plant of $4,902.55, instead of $2,371.81 in favor of it. Going a little further it is seen that this balance claimed by the report in favor of the plant, is almost wiped out by their own figures. The report made March 1, 1903, claimed cash and supplies on hand, and due for water and lights, the sum of $2,253.57, only one item of which, the cash on hand $451.07, appears at all in this year's report. This leaves a balance of $1,802.50, to which add $520.00 for coal now on hand, paid for by the village treasurer, and you have $2,322.50, which wipes out all but about $40.00 of the balance claimed by the report to be in favor of the plant. If you do not believe these figures are correct take a few minutes and figure it up for yourself.

The ticket nominated at the citizens' caucus is a good strong one and should commend itself to the taxpayers and voters generally. With one exception every person on it has had experience in the office for which he is nominated and this fact should carry additional weight with it.

George P. Staffan, the nominee for president, was village president during the year 1899-1900 and his administration of affairs was the best that the village has had in years. His aim and that of his colleagues was to economize, keep down the expenses and pay up the debts that had accumulated, instead of increasing the expenditures and running deeper into debt.

William D. Arnold, for clerk, John S. Cummings for treasurer, John A. Palmer and John P. Foster for trustees, and William Bacon for assessor have all had experience in the several positions for which they are nominated and were good and efficient officials.

The only nominee who has had no experience is Tom W. Mingay, the editor of the Herald, who is nominated as one of the trustees. But if the voters elect him he will endeavor by faithful and honest endeavors on behalf of the village to make up for this deficiency.

A. J. Sawyer, jr., of Ann Arbor, has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination of prosecuting attorney of Washtenaw county on the Republican ticket. Mr. Sawyer is the first candidate for a county office the Herald has heard of, unless it be the hint dropped the other day that Fred M. Freeman, of Manchester, would be a receptive candidate for the nomination of probate judge.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GREAT STAGE MECHANISM.

Much interest has been manifested concerning the mechanical methods of the thrilling chariot race employed in Klaw & Erlanger's stupendous production of General Wallace's famous religious spectacle, "Ben-Hur," which is to be presented at the Detroit Opera House, Detroit, Mich., for the week beginning Monday evening, March 14, and ending Saturday evening, March 19, with special matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

In this great arena contest the spectator sees eight horses galloping at break-neck speed and straining every muscle to gain the advantage in the race within the amphitheatre. Behind each quartet of horses is a human chariot. The wheels revolve rapidly; the chariots lurch and sway and the flaming beribboned garments of the drivers flutter behind them, adding intensity to the realism of the scene. The illusion is still further increased as the interior wall of the amphitheatre moves along and the dust flies in swirling clouds beneath the crushing hoofs of the horses and the rumble of the chariots are distinctly heard.

PERSONALS.

Miss Olla Waackenhut spent Friday and Saturday in Jackson. B. C. Pratt, of Toledo, spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle Geo. E. Davis. Miss Linna Runciman, of Marshall, spent Sunday with her parents James Runciman and wife, of Sylvan. Miss Luella Buchanan, of Detroit, spent the past week with Mrs. W. S. Hamilton and other friends here. Jacob Hummel and daughter Miss Genevieve spent Friday in Ann Arbor, the guests of John Kress and family. Miss Nellie C. Maroney returned home Saturday from her spring visit to the wholesale millinery houses in Detroit. Miss Myrta Weber, of Sylvan, spent a few days of last week with her cousin Miss Libbie Kress in Ann Arbor. H. G. Porter, of Unadilla, was in Chelsea Tuesday and yesterday acting as one of the appraisers of the machinery of the Chelsea Mfg. Co. Limited. J. G. Hoover and wife went to Battle Creek yesterday to visit their daughter Mrs. Fannie Crawford and family. They will also visit relatives in Galesburg while they are away. A. C. NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Many cases of measles are reported Stockbridge. Pinckney has another industry in the shape of a broom factory. Lenawee county will vote on local option at the coming spring election. Jacob Weber, of Freedom, will build an addition to his barn this season. Geo. Askew, of Jackson, will work the A. P. Burtch farm in Sharon the coming season. Grass Lake has ten cases of German measles, all of them young people in the high school. Hon. Henry C. Smith, of Adrian, will deliver an address in Jackson on St. Patrick's Day, March 17. The name of the Hay & Todd Co., of Ypsilanti, has been changed to that of the Ypsilanti Underwear Co. Webster farmers have organized a local union of the American Society of Equity with 30 charter members. John Heller, of Grass Lake, has rented Geo. W. Bohne's farm near Francisco and will work it the coming year. Jay Davis, a minor, has commenced a damage suit against Henry Koathe, claiming $500 for an alleged assault committed Feb. 4 in Freedom.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following are recent real estate transfers in this vicinity: Jacob Bahmiller and wife to White Portland Cement Co., Lima, $1,800. Christopher McGuire et al to West Michigan Portland Cement Co., Lima and Dexter, $1. Michael Schenk and wife to John M. Mack, Sharon, $1. Twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lammers, of Grass Lake, Monday, Feb. 23. If they live their birthdays will not occur very often.

The funeral of Mrs. Fred Eisenman, of Freedom, who died of Bright's disease Feb. 28, aged 69 years, was held at the church at Rogers' Corners Wednesday, March 2. Governor Bliss has issued an order to the secretary of state to cause a special election to be held in Jackson county the first Monday in April to elect a successor to the late Judge Erastus Peck. Fred April's barn in Pittsfield was struck by lightning during the thunder storm Wednesday night of last week, and with the hay, grain and tools it contained was destroyed. It was insured in the German Farmers' Mutual for $850 and $800 on the contents. Ten different farmers' telephone companies in and around Stockbridge have consolidated their several lines so as to have better service and management. All the lines will be centered in one office in charge of an operator. A switchboard of 100 wire capacity will be installed. Stockbridge's new gas plant seems to be out of whack to judge by the following item: "Word has been received from Dr. G. Cothran, stating that he expects to be here in a short time to commence work in repairing and again starting the gas plant. This will be welcome news to those who have their houses and business places piped." An Ann Arbor hardware man, a German, bought a large bill of goods of an Irish salesman the other day. The Irishman invited his customer out to take something. When the glasses were brought the Irishman asked permission to give a toast, which, without waiting for consent, he fired as follows: "God bless all people—and once in a while a Dutchman." The merchant is yet puzzled to know where the compliment comes in. Mayor Arthur Brown, of Ann Arbor, recommended to the common council Monday night that an ordinance be passed that no person can obtain the right to engage in the liquor traffic without first obtaining a license from the council, and that the council have the right to reject any application where the conduct of the applicant or the past reputation of the place is such that the public safety requires the rejection of the same. The matter was referred to the city attorney and prosecuting attorney.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, on the 25th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four. Present, Willis L. Watkins, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the Estate of William F. Hatch, deceased. On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of George W. Palmer, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to William F. Schenk, or to some other suitable person. Thereupon it is ordered that the 23rd day of March next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Court in the City of Ann Arbor, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Chelsea Herald, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing. [A true copy.] WILLIS L. WATKINS, Judge of Probate. LEO L. WATKINS, Register of Probate.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

There is only one ticket in the field at Grass Lake for the charter election next Monday.

March has two full moons this year. This is something very unusual and occurs about every 25 years.

Abner Spencer has just finished the erection of a new frame barn 16x24 feet with 14 feet eaves on his premises on Railroad street.

The annual meeting of the Michigan Schoolmasters' Club will be held at the State Normal College at Ypsilanti, March 31 and April 1 and 2.

Ed. Gorman, carrier of rural route No. 3, now drives a handsome covered mail wagon, the interior of which is very handily arranged for his business.

Michael McGuire, of Dexter township, has been drawn to serve on the grand jury in the United States court for this district at Detroit. The jury will convene April 19.

The H. S. Holmes Mercantile Co. has purchased the stock of the Chelsea Dry Goods & Shoe Co. and will inaugurate a clearing out sale at the store in the Staffan block next Saturday.

Next Saturday, March 12, is registration day. Do not neglect to register between the hours of 9 a. m. and 8 p. m. if you wish to vote at the village election next Monday, March 14.

The Welch Motor Car Co., capital $50,000, has been organized by Arthur Pack and Geo. S. Hodges, of Orchard Lake, and A. R. Welch, late of the Chelsea Mfg. Co., to manufacture automobiles in Pontiac.

Next Thursday, March 17, being St. Patrick's Day, a special service will be held at the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart at 8 a. m., with Benediction after mass. The junior choir of the church will have charge of the music.

Mrs. Emma E. Bower, of Ann Arbor, great record keeper of the Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, has been invited to read a paper before the coming congress of women at Berlin, Germany, on "The legal position of women."

Frederick Vogel, jr., of Scio, well known in Chelsea, died at his home there after an illness of several weeks, aged 44 years. His funeral was held at the Scio church yesterday morning. A widow and one daughter survive him.

At a meeting held Wednesday evening the Junior Star baseball club elected the following officers for the ensuing year; President, D. C. McLaren; vice president, Glenn C. Stimson; treasurer, George A. BeGole; secretary and manager, Wirt McLaren.

At the meeting of the Washtenaw Pomona Grange with the Scio Grange yesterday 150 people representing 10 subordinate granges. The grangers were not in favor of the county raising $30,000 to build a contagious hospital at Ann Arbor, thinking it a needless expense.

Last Saturday S. L. Gage sold to Ernest Elssasser, of Dexter, a span of matched gray mares 7 and 8 years old, for which he received the handsome price of $400. At the same time he sold a mare colt coming two years old to Mr. Smith, of Dexter, for which he received $80. It pays to keep good horses and Mr. Gage has always had some of the best.

Remember the address on "A trip to Rome and Ireland, and audience with Pope Leo XIII," by Rev. W. P. Considine and the musical program by Miss Mary Dunn, of Detroit, Mr. Louis Burg and Master Garrett Conway, at the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart next Thursday evening, March 17 (St. Patrick's Day). It will be well worth going to hear.

Auctioneer Geo. E. Davis dropped into the Herald office last Thursday morning, after the thunder and hail storm of the previous night, with the question "I wonder what they were doing at the peat works last night? Every now and then something would go bang! bang! bang!" It was the echoes of a vigorous horning given Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wenk by their country friends that evening after their marriage, and the reports came from the firearms used on the occasion.

Geo. Hindelang and family have moved into part of Chauncey Hummel's house, on Orchard street.

The price of wheat has dropped from $1.08, which was paid for it a couple of weeks ago, to 92 cents per bushel.

Wm. J. Bryan will speak in University hall, Ann Arbor, next Saturday, March 12, on "The Value of an Ideal."

Two weeks from Sunday will be confirmation at St. Paul's Evangelical church. Rev. A. Schoen reports a class of 6 boys and 14 girls to be confirmed.

A. R. Welch and family shipped their household goods to Pontiac Monday and left for that place the same afternoon, where they will make their future home.

Rev. Thos. P. Brown, a Redemptorist father, of Detroit, will officiate at the high mass and preach next Sunday morning at the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

The financial report of the village for the past year is given on the last page of this paper. It deals with the expenditure of over $19,000 and is well worthy your careful attention.

Several carloads of hard coal have been received in Chelsea during the past week and distributed around among those whose supplies of the black diamonds were exhausted, or just about exhausted.

The Ladies' Guild of the Congregational church give a supper at the church tomorrow (Friday) evening from 5 o'clock until all are served, to which everybody is invited. Admission 15 and 10 cents.

Horticulturists claim that the robin is a pest and its slaughter should be legalized at any and all times. They claim the fruit crops, particularly cherries, are suffering as a consequence of the sentiment expressed for the red-breasted chirper.

Harry McManus, who lives a mile west of Dexter, was cleaning a revolver Monday when it was accidentally discharged and the bullet struck his father, James McManus, in the face, passing through his head and causing a wound which resulted fatally.

There were in all of the libraries of the U. of M. at the close of the last year, 174,740 volumes and 3,300 pamphlets. Of these, 139,002 volumes and 3,000 pamphlets were in the general library; 20,170 volumes were in the law library; 12,621 volumes and 230 pamphlets were in the medical library; 1,783 volumes were in the dental library; and 1,764 volumes and 70 pamphlets were in the library of the homeopathic college.

The great Lafayette and his own big company, one of the biggest sensations in vaudeville will be seen at the Athens Theater, Ann Arbor, next Monday evening, March 14. This organization, numbering 53 people, including first-class band and orchestra, is conceded to be one of the most unique, novel and entertaining as well as the most expensive of its kind in existence. The lion, "Majesta," is said to be one of the handsomest specimens that has ever been imported to this country. The vaudeville features are of the finest, and the great Lafayette is the acme of perfection in his chosen profession.

Probate Order.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, on the 25th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.
 Present, Willis L. Watkins, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the Estate of William F. Hatch, deceased.
 On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of George W. Palmer, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to William F. Schenk, or to some other suitable person.
 Thereupon it is ordered that the 28th day of March next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Court in the City of Ann Arbor, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.
 And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Chelsea Herald, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.
 [A true copy.] WILLIS L. WATKINS, Judge of Probate. LEO L. WATKINS, Register of Probate. 32

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A number of the lodge advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned their advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstrual periods. I am most grateful."—NETTIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will hold your letter in strict confidence. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a writer's experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free.

Fair Will Be Gorgeous

The following eloquent and poetic description of the beauties of the coming Louisiana Purchase Exposition is from the pen of Mr. H. H. Murchall, an official of the Missouri Pacific Railway, at St. Louis:

Where a wilderness of forest trees but a few short months ago, lifted their whispering branches to the Heavens; where the native wild flowers of "gentle breath and hue" bloomed in bewildering profusion; where the pretty squirrel disported himself in the most becoming manner, eyeing askance the venturesome person who chanced to stroll into his preserves, there now greets the eye the beautiful buildings of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. Nature has been supplanted by the art of man in so short a time as to make one almost incredulous that so much could have been accomplished.

A renowned French author has said that from the origin of things, down to the Fifteenth century, the intelligence of a nation, that is to say, its religious and artistic tendencies, habits, customs and traditions, found expression in its architecture. Monuments of stone were the books of the people. The very life of society was woven into the great arches, columns, pylons, colonades, facades of the solemn yet beautiful architecture of the period referred to. But with the advent of printing, architecture was dethroned. It ceased to symbolize all the arts and to be the great book of humanity. The source of its inspiration was gone; printing supplanted it rapidly. As a means of education people chose the lighter, but more enduring medium of expression of thought, viz., the printed book, which they knew would find its way sooner or later into every home, even the most humble. Thus the book "Architecture" with its stone pages died a lingering death, and the book "Paper," with its printed thought came into existence. Yet could this eminent writer step into the grounds of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition a few months hence, he would find reincarnated in its palaces that lost soul of architecture which went out with the Fifteenth century.

Space will not permit of a detailed description of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, so let us leave it asleep today under a mantle of soft, feathery snow—the same peaceful refreshing sleep that brings to the rose stamens and vigor to unfold its wondrous sweet-scented petals to the morning and gladden the smiling landscape. For when the first breath of Spring blows from the Southland, that sleep will have ended and the bewitching Goddess of the Louisiana Purchase will stand forth in all her regal splendor with her flowing creamy robes shimmering in the sunlight, her fair broad brow garlanded with flowers, her lustrous starlike eyes lifted to the Heavens and stretching out her beautiful arms to the four corners of the earth, she will beckon all people to her feet. Aye, and they will come in tens of thousands to drink in that matchless grace, beauty and purity which, distilled from all the centuries that have passed, and caught up by the magic hand of time, have been lavished upon her.

Felt He Was Deceived

I was talking with the agent of a tombstone factory when a passenger with a mourning band on his hat entered the carriage and took a seat in front of us.

It might have been a minute before the agent took from his bag a photograph of a 12-foot monument and passed it over with this remark:

"This is my line of business. I see you have met with a sad bereavement."

"Yes."

"Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble. Given your order yet?"

"No."

"Was the deceased a man or a woman?"

"A woman."

"Sorry—very sorry. They cometh up like a flower and are cut down. Here is something in Scotch granite which is our specialty. Any one walking through a cemetery stops at sight of it. It is not only a work of art, but is accepted as proof that the one who erects it will ever grieve."

"I don't think I should care for that," replied the stranger.

"Then take this broken column in Vermont marble. Man, dieth and wasteth away, and we make this in three different sizes. When I am walking through a cemetery and come to a broken column, I say to myself: 'Now, here is a man who dearly loved his dear, departed wife, and will never marry again.'"

"I don't care to look at your samples just now. A few months later I may do something."

"Grief too recent, eh? Well, that's as one feels, you know, but I generally get my best orders right away. Indeed, it is the fashion now to erect a tombstone as soon as possible. Wouldn't want anything cheap would you?"

"Not so very."

"I can give you something as low as $25; but, of course, I couldn't guarantee it. Was the late deceased the partner of your bosom, so to speak?"

"No, she was my mother-in-law."

"And where—where do her mortal ashes rest, if I may be so bold?"

"In the middle of the Atlantic Ocean."

The agent sighed heavily and growled:

"Sir, I've lost three of 'em and had no end of trouble; but I'll be hanged if I am mean enough to put a mourning band on my hat and travel around to deceive and disappoint a chap trying to make an honest living on 30 per cent. commission. It isn't honest. It isn't square."

Coal in Russian Empire

It was not until the discovery of petroleum in southern Russia that the presence of extensive coal beds in that region was suspected by geologists. Since that time it has been clearly shown that European Russia, to say nothing of Siberia, possesses one valuable coal field in her southeastern provinces, through which the River Donetz runs, a field which yields fuel of excellent quality. Thirty years ago the output did not exceed 100,000 tons; last year it was 9,000,000, and this is only half the possible amount. Strange to say, the home demand does not rise to even this small quantity and the Mining Association of South Russia is considering whether it cannot compete with English coal in the ports of the Mediterranean. There is small hope of their doing anything of the kind, but if the czar's government would give its 120,000,000 subjects peace, an economical administration and a rational fiscal system 18,000,000 tons of coal would be too little—plus the petroleum of Baku—and not too much even for southern Russia.

South Russia coal is shipped from the port of Mariupol, on the Sea of Azov. That set has lately exhibited a somewhat rare phenomenon. Its waters are shallow and for several days, dating from Dec. 15, they receded under the influence of strong winds to such an extent that at Taganrog the bed of the sea was visible for several miles. A late eminent Canadian geologist, Sir W. Dawson, after inquiries on the spot in Egypt, believed the passage of the Red Sea—more correctly the Bitter lakes—by the Israelites was explained by the action of similar persistent high winds. Sir William when in Egypt in 1884 was of opinion that the locality of the crossing could be identified.

Another extremely valuable mineral resource of southern Russia is the deposit of manganese ore found immediately to the south of the Caucasus mountains—the richest in the world. The seam extends over eighty-five square miles and is computed to hold some 240,000,000 tons of ore. Of this amount about 3,000,000 tons have been excavated—but not for Russia. The empire is content with about 8 1/2 per cent, while Great Britain, the largest buyer, takes over 36 per cent, Holland 29 and the United States nearly 15 per cent. As of their wheat, hemp, petroleum, coal, so of their manganese, the Russian motto is "Nou nobis solum."

Fading of the Laurel

Dear not, O son, that glory once attained
Will last forever, spotless and unstained;
Neglected laurel speedily grows dry;
Unwatered, soon 'twill wither up and die.

Not Fame's mere works can make Fame
Stand alone; stand only on the remembrance
Nor keep its name on the remembrance
stone;
It needs a hand to visit day by day,
To cut the weeds and brush the mold away.

Fame is a fabric delicate and frail,
Cracked by a breath and shivered by a gale;
No height too great from which it may not fall;
A word may jar it from its pedestal.

Deem not that thou hast risen over men
So high that naught can pluck thee down again.

Just His Line.
"Suppose I should get out of a job?"
said the walking delegate.
"Then you could be a professional bowler," assured the friend.
"Why, so?"
"You could make so many strikes."

Who stands the highest on the social walls
Shall strike the earth the hardest when he falls.

Plant thou thy mem'ry in the human heart,
Marked by some sculpture of diviner art:
Leave deeds of love to clear away the grime
And grave anew thy name through changing time.

Thus shall thy glory and thy fame endure
Upon the earth, immaculate and pure;
Time then shall serve but to enhance thy deeds—
And Mem'ry's hand shall clear away the weeds.

—Lowell O. Reese, in San Francisco Bulletin.

HOW TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN ESCAPED DREAD CATARRH BY USE OF PE-RU-NA.

Catarrh Robs Women of Health and Beauty. Pe-ru-na Makes Women Healthy and Beautiful.

Miss Amanda Johnson, Fairchild, Wis., writes:

"I think I must have been troubled with catarrh ever since I was very young, aggravated each time I caught a cold. This did not prove sufficiently serious to be obnoxious until last winter. Then my head and nose were so stopped up that I felt I must do something. Pe-ru-na was recommended to me by a friend. I used it for four weeks and found to my relief that it cured me. I have not had a bit of trouble since. My head is clear, and I can safely affirm that Pe-ru-na cured me."—Miss Amanda Johnson.

Miss Amanda Johnson, Fairchild, Wis., writes:

"I write to tell you how much Pe-ru-na benefited me. For a number of years I had pain in my head around my eyes, and I thought it was because my eyes needed treatment, so I went to an oculist and had glasses fitted to my eyes and wore them for some time, but felt no relief whatever. In fact, I felt worse than before, and came to the conclusion that the trouble was not with my eyes, but with my head and that it must be catarrh. As so many of my friends had used Pe-ru-na with benefit for this trouble, I thought I would try it. I was not sorry that I did so, for in a short time I began to improve, and in four weeks my eyes were in splendid condition, my general health was much improved and all the catarrh of the head was gone. I was glad to get rid of this trouble and am glad to endorse such a good medicine as Pe-ru-na."—Miss Amanda Johnson.

Miss Flora Hauser, 1033 S. New Jersey Street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I think I must have been troubled with catarrh ever since I was very young, aggravated each time I caught a cold. This did not prove sufficiently serious to be obnoxious until last winter. Then my head and nose were so stopped up that I felt I must do something. Pe-ru-na was recommended to me by a friend. I used it for four weeks and found to my relief that it cured me. I have not had a bit of trouble since. My head is clear, and I can safely affirm that Pe-ru-na cured me."—Miss Flora Hauser.

Many a girl has regained her faded beauty, many a matron has lengthened the days of her comely appearance by using Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na produces clean mucous membranes, the base of facial symmetry and a perfect complexion.

The women have not been slow to discover that a course of Pe-ru-na will do more toward restoring youthful beauty than all the devices known to science.

While it is true that Pe-ru-na cures catarrh wherever located, yet it is advisable for everyone to use Pe-ru-na as a preventive and not wait until catarrh has fastened itself in some part of the system.

Pe-ru-na acts quickly and beneficially on the inflamed mucous membranes lining the different organs of the body. Thus it will cure catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Hundreds of Women Cured by Pe-ru-na of Annoying Catarrh.

DR. HARTMAN has probably done more than any other physician toward popularizing a means of escape from the facial deformities, such as watery eyes, twisted nose, offensive breath, dry cracked lips, due to the ravaging effects of catarrh.

He has made chronic catarrh a life-long study. His remedy, popularly known as Pe-ru-na, is the most famous remedy for catarrh in existence.

Probably there is not a man or woman, boy or girl, within the bounds of the United States that has not heard of Pe-ru-na. By far the largest majority have used Pe-ru-na.

The multitude of people that have been cured of chronic catarrh by using Pe-ru-na can never be known.

If angels fear to tread where fools rush in they should use their wings.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE, Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902. For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.
