Junior Stars Lost Their First Hard Game After an Exciting Contest. Honors Even Between McCain and Wood.

The Junior Stars mixed in with their strong rivals the Plymouth Juniors last Friday and went down to their first defeat. However, the beating was not one that in any sense tends to discredit the Stars, for the game on both sides appears to be pretty near the professional order. Honors were about even between the pitchers, as each allowed five hits and struck out nine men. Wood issued four passes and McCain but two. While it was first of all a pitchers' battle yet the ball was hit frequently enough to permit of some fine fielding. Most everyone had a chance. For Plymouth Bentley starred at second and also at the bat. In left field Paul Bacon was all his old time self and took in a hard one down by his shoestrings after a hard run in. Chelsea scored in the seventh and ninth. The first score was tallied by McCain. He was given four bad ones and went to first. When he attempted to steal, the ball was thrown through the Plymouth man at the second sack and McCain raced home. The next run came in the ninth. Rathbun made a hit and stole second and came home on Tonerrey's error at first. Plymouth's first run came in the fourth when two were out. Riggs hit to McGuinness who threw to Rogers who muffed the throw. The runner stole second and scored on Bentley's hit. The Stars were one run to the good when the last half of the ninth opened. Two were soon gone and the Chelsea boys began to pack up their bats and the game along with it. Then Riggs made a hit followed by one by Bentley over McLaren and Riggs scored. The Stars were blanked in their half of the tenth. For Plymouth John McLaren bunted. Reed threw wild to first. Baker next got a hit. Tonerrey popped up a fly but it was muffed by McGuinness because of the high wind. Smith followed with a hit which drove in J. McLaren with the winning run. The score:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
 Plymouth... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 - 3 5 4
 Errors--Tonerrey, Riggs, Bentley, McGuinness, Rogers 2, Raffrey, Reed, Stolen bases--Plymouth 3, Stars 5.
 Double play--McGuinness to Raffrey.

ATHENAEUMS CLOSING ATTRACTION

Francis Wilson, the greatest comic opera star living today, will appear Friday, May 20, in Jackson where he will close the Athenaeum season. He appears in Ermnie. It is the opera in which he made his reputation and has been pronounced the best comic opera ever written. Not alone does Wilson and his funny legs appear but he brings with him just such a company as supports him when playing in New York city. Among his supporters are to be Marguerite Sylva, Jossie Bartlett Davis and half a dozen others of equal eminence. Manager Porter of the Athenaeum says this engagement is the most notable worthy ever attempted in Jackson and he wants his Chelsea patrons to know about the event. If you have been saving your coin to see something just as good as is going in London or New York then see Wilson in Ermnie.

WHEN THE SPRINGES

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marlon, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Glazier & Stimson.

Showing What's Doing in All Sections of the State

The movement to form rifle clubs in our various States deserves encouragement.

The Philadelphia Press is leading an admirable movement which has the backing of many of the clergymen of the State against the immoral and fraudulent features of the average county fair as it exists in that commonwealth.

An Iowa woman is charged with sending poisoned candy by mail to a woman in South Dakota, who died from eating it.

Baltimore has begun the giant task of remodeling its street lines in the burned area, with wider thoroughfares and city ownerships of the water front as the central features.

Considering the fact that some girls at a Beaver (Pa.) college were sent to a murder trial in the course of their training in social science, can anybody doubt the immense importance of sociology?

Andrew Carnegie has lately made it clear, in a public address, that a professional man, even poorly paid, may readily get more out of life than the money grubber does.

The Chicago officials refused to allow Sir Henry Irving to use a calcium "spot" light in the impressive vision scene in "The Bells."

The Chicago officials refused to allow Sir Henry Irving to use a calcium "spot" light in the impressive vision scene in "The Bells," and the great Englishman showed his vexation by making a speech to the audience.

Mrs. Stearns' Death. Mrs. Paulina L. Stearns, wife of Hon. Justus S. Stearns, candidate for governor of Michigan, died Thursday evening after an illness of less than three weeks.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Stearns returned from the south, going to Chicago for treatment of a supposed malarial disorder. Physicians there offered her no hope whatever, and she came home to die.

Mrs. Stearns was 54 years old, having been born Nov. 24, 1849, at Conneaut, O. She was married in 1868 to Justus S. Stearns and came to Ludington in 1876.

A School Boy Suicided. Willie Wardell, aged 13, of Bay City, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a .32 caliber revolver in the Michigan Central yards Tuesday evening.

Incendiaric Work. A number of incendiary fires have aroused the Menominee police to action. The saloon building of Theodore Monard burned this week, and but for the barking of a dog Monard and his son would have perished.

Forest Fires Raging. Extensive damage is being done in the upper peninsula by forest fires. If rain does not come in a day or two the losses will be enormous.

Republic's Loss. Fire in Republic Wednesday afternoon caused a loss estimated at $100,000. The property destroyed was the business block of the Republic Co-operative society, and the business houses of Munson & Peterson, J. O. Utberg, the Republic Store Co., Utherg's residence, the home of Dr. E. E. Lamb, the South Shore depot and four warehouses.

Prof. R. H. Kirtland, who has been superintendent of the Flint schools for the past three years, has been elected superintendent of the public schools at Menominee.

The National Slack Coverage association elected J. T. Wylie, Saginaw, Mich., president at its convention in Cincinnati. The convention will meet in Detroit next November.

Neighbors of William Lyons, of Lennon, believe that the young man came to his death on Saturday night, April 25, by means of foul play, and will ask the authorities for an investigation.

THE TROUBADOUR OF SPRING

From out his castle girded fast By hosts in steel arrayed...

MY LADY DISDAIN

From the German of Hans Bethge

My Lady Disdain was a brilliant, queenly southern girl...

They rode along wearily until they came within sight of a pretty little cottage...

An old woman was there and was kneeling in sobbing prayer beside the bed...

A dead body, the corpse of what had been a handsome dark-complexioned man...

"The wound I have received I shall carry to the grave."

And when at last you take my hands And call my name in mimicry...

"Oh, forgive all such women, indeed," said Lady Disdain...

Gabrielle rode home in the moonlight, sad and silent...

She flung herself into the engagement with Gervase Trenchard...

But My Lady Disdain said: "Mr. Valmy, when last we met I spoke in a manner which wounded you..."

"Can I heal that wound, Mr. Valmy? For I have changed since then—or, if I have not changed, I know my true self at last."

At the eastern extremity of the canal the difficulties which a sailing vessel may expect to encounter will arise from a superabundance of wind rather than a lack of it.

The Aspen Tree. The little aspen tree stands high Upon the hill that guards the lane...

Swearing by Proxy. Now that the golf season is on, the following true story of a Brookline clergyman is appropriate:

Gen. Lew Wallace is 77. Gen. Lew Wallace, the hoosier "soldier, diplomat, author," to whom a loving cup was presented recently by literary friends of the west...

Marquis Ito a Proficient Linguist. Marquis Ito, the Japanese statesman, is described as an indefatigable reader of European and American literature.

TYPES REPRESENTED AT CONVENTION OF SOCIALISTS

LOOK FOR PRINCE'S VISIT.

Gustaf of Sweden and Norway Soon to Be in America. It is probable that Prince Gustaf, crown prince of Sweden and Norway, will visit Minneapolis the same day on which the male chorus of Lund university gives its concert there.

Whitney's House is Sold. The residence of the late W. C. Whitney, corner of Sixty-eighth street and Fifth avenue, New York city, has been bought by James Henry Smith for something over $2,000,000.

Plans Smith Family Reunion. The Smith family, not specifically, but generally, will assemble in Louisville this fall, if the plan of John Cabell Smith, a wealthy Kentuckian, is concurred in by the Smiths at large.

Self-willed Heir to Throne. There has been so much talk of late regarding Emperor William's health that the subject is likely to be matter of moment in the fatherland for some time.

Not Debate—Just Language. The late Speaker Reed was once encountered by a friend in an uptown hotel late in the evening while the house was in the throes of a terrific tariff debate.

LITTLE RESPECT FOR DEAD.

South American Countries Have Primitive Burial Customs. Havana's cemetery is typical of the burying places of all Spanish-American countries.

JUDGED BY HER COOKING. Among the Russian peasants a bride's character is judged by the dinner she cooks on her wedding day.

Thomas Carlyle's Rebuke.

Thomas Carlyle once took Richard Monckton Milnes to task for not securing government aid for Tennyson.

On the Heights. So high above the other things We boastfully "the mountain" named it.

Nervousness in Animals. Cases of death of animals from "nervous upset" are not uncommon, and are found among very different classes of mammals.

He Would Have to Swim. A carpenter in a Scotch village, to oblige the local undertaker, who was ill, went to screw down a coffin lid.

Irregularity in the Punishment. There are two boys who manage to be rather unruly in school, and their teacher was so exasperated one day that she ordered them to remain after hours and write their names 1,000 times.

IT IS AWFUL TO MOVE

The Standard This Week Is Half In One Place and Half In Another—But the Paper Was Printed in Its New Home.

The Standard and all those connected with it are in thorough sympathy this week with all the housewives who are moving or even cleaning house—it does not make much difference which.

Yes, we are moving just as we said we would be. The type was set up and all the other preparatory work done this week in the old quarters but the Standard was really issued this week from its new home to which place the press has been moved and installed.

Just at present the Standard is in a very chaotic condition but we are beginning to see our way through and when we are settled we want all friends of this paper to come in and look around.

MISS STEINBACH'S GRADUATION RECITAL

Largely Attended by Both Chelsea Friends and Those of Ann Arbor—Difficult Program Rendered.

About fifty of the particular friends of Miss Helene Louise Steinbach of Chelsea's gifted young organism, with a crowd of Ann Arborites, were gathered in the University hall last Wednesday afternoon, to enjoy her graduation recital, after completing a four year's course of instruction on piano and organ at the hands of the efficient faculty of the University School of Music.

The following is the program of the recital: Fantasia and Fugue in G minor, Bach; Pastorale, Schumann; Sonata No. 1 in D minor, Beethoven; Marche Nuptiale, Fauré; The talent, skill and good taste displayed by Miss Steinbach in the rendering of this difficult program on the great Columbian organ showed that she was richly worthy not only of her diploma, but of the high standing she has already gained, both in the estimation of her friends and of her instructors.

Congratulations at the close of the recital were warm and hearty, some of which were emphasized by beautiful and costly presents. All who know Miss Steinbach wish her abundant success in her chosen calling, and will be greatly disappointed if she does not win it.

FESTIVAL BEGINS TONIGHT

The much talked of May Festival given annually by the University school of Music begins today. Yearly it is becoming more and more appreciated by people of this vicinity who are planning to attend this year in increased numbers.

Without doubt the programs of Friday and Saturday evenings will be the most popular. Friday evening is given the Dream of Gerontius in which the whole choral union participates and is the same production which they will sing at the exposition in St. Louis.

Saturday evening the great grand opera Carmen will be rendered in concert form which by many is considered fully as interesting when presented in the traditional stage form. The music, too, while that of grand opera is nevertheless such as may be enjoyed by anyone whether or not trained to classic music.

Three passenger coaches passed through here this morning attached to the early morning train going east. In these coaches was crowded a large immigrant party from Kansas. They are bound for some point near Bay City where they will take charge of a large beet sugar farm this summer. They have their transportation free and are to be taken back home next fall.

The Methodists have arranged to give an exceptionally fine entertainment at the town hall Saturday evening. The entertainers are known as the DeMoss Lyric Bands and there are seven of them. They are soloists and they are also performers upon most every known instrument. They comprise a small orchestra that in turn resolves itself into a cornet band. They are also bell ringers and the banjo and the mandolin and the organ are all instruments on which they render a popular program.

AN INSULT RESENTED.

The Detroit Tribune Makes Scurrilous Comment on Washtenaw Republicans' Resolutions and the Ann Arbor Times Makes Reply.

Immediately following the republican county convention at Ann Arbor the Detroit Tribune went to a considerable pains to insult the republicans of this county and their representatives. In reply the Ann Arbor Daily Times printed the editorial which is here subjoined which aptly and forcefully repels the charges made by the Scipp's organ.

The republicans of Washtenaw made a grave mistake at the recent county convention in not having invited the editor of the Detroit Tribune to be present and advise what measures and policies would and what would not be orthodox. That paper is sorely distressed because the largest, most representative and most honorable convention of the past twenty years in this county was not under its guidance. Because of the failure to consult, the paper pronounces the resolutions dishonest and inconsistent.

Who authorized the Tribune to arrogate to itself the right of censorship we are not advised, and we question whether the large body of gentlemen assembled here on Tuesday will take kindly to a lecture from a source not altogether well grounded in republican faith.

What one wonders when reading the criticism of the Washtenaw convention in the Tribune of yesterday is how one individual can know so much. There were men in that convention, a number of them, who voted for John C. Fremont and there were many more whose hairs have silvered with age and whose devotion to republican principles is just as firmly rooted as is that of the men who followed the lead of the Pathfinder in 1846, and then, too, there were young men who have been attracted to the republican party by the splendid record of good accomplished which it has to its credit. All these men, old and young, from city and country, some three hundred of them, the Tribune very squarely charges with betrayal of trust because in their wisdom they have chosen to endorse a primary law and at the same time commend and urge the candidacy of Hon. Frank P. Glazier for state treasurer.

There is a wide difference of opinion as to how far this proposed primary law should go. The Tribune and some other metropolitan papers, if we understand their position, would abolish all conventions and have the people vote direct for all candidates. This would mean, as we interpret it, that the metropolitan press would be in the market to introduce would-be candidates to the people of the state at a stipulated price per line. Such papers want primary reform and want it had from the business office standpoint.

There are others and, as we believe, the great majority of republicans in Washtenaw and other counties of the state, who would be glad to have a primary law which would rigidly protect the purity of the election of delegates to all conventions by direct vote and who would not object to having local, county and legislative candidates chosen in the same manner. But these republicans are not aiming at the assassination of the republican party. They would preserve at least the county, district and state conventions where party policies could be devised and party enthusiasm aroused. We can readily see that papers of the class in which the Tribune trains, which have no party predilections and no fixed political principles would have no use for the processes which maintain party organization but we fail to understand why republicans who have a regard for party should accept advice from papers or people who have given aid and comfort to the enemy in many a hard fought battle. The Tribune is doing a splendid work in stimulating republicans to do honor to the semi-centenary celebration but it entered upon the work with its breath yet foul from the effort to fasten upon the country the policy of free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and it is for free trade always. Few republicans will claim that it has advocated any party policy in common with republicans for many years. That is why republicans prefer the Free Press and that is why the republicans of Washtenaw are wondering by what right it assumes to question their integrity as republicans or to advise them as to their duty as such. So far as we have been advised the Tribune's criticism is regarded as both intemperate and hypercritical and a gratuitous insult to the republicans of the county.

The following are the resolutions passed by the republican county convention to which reference is made in the above editorial.

The republican party of Washtenaw county at this, its first convention of the presidential year, and charged with the duty of assisting in the initiatory work that shall culminate in the election of the next president of the Republic, do declare as follows:

- 1. It is our firm belief that the management of the public interests during these many years under laws enacted and carried into execution by the republican party has been such as to have brought the greatest good to the nation and peace and prosperity to its citizens.
2. That in Theodore Roosevelt the people have found a president whose wisdom has been equal to the many crises met, and under his leadership the Republic has gone from strength to strength in glory and power.

3. We so firmly believe the platform soon to be adopted in Chicago by the chosen representatives of the party that produced a Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Roosevelt, will be so patriotic and true in the enunciation of republican principles and policies that we adopt it in advance as a platform of this convention.

4. While recognizing that this convention is called for the purpose of selecting men to formulate a platform and choose a standard bearer upon national issues only, yet as republicans we deem it our privilege to express our hope and belief of the republicans of this county that the coming state nominating convention will adopt a clear resolution favoring a primary election law.

5. That as a component part of the second congressional district of Michigan, we endorse and commend the splendid course of Congressman Charles E. Townsend and again express our faith in his ability to ably represent the second congressional district of Michigan again in the lower house of congress.

6. Having full confidence in the great business ability and integrity of our fellow citizen, Hon. F. P. Glazier, we cordially endorse him for the office of state treasurer and take pleasure in presenting his name to the republicans of Michigan for nomination of that highly responsible office.

The Best Brown Paint. Ground-up mummy makes a brown of a certain rare color that nothing else can give. It is on account of the asphaltum in the mummy that this is so. The Egyptians wrapped their dead in garments coated with asphaltum of an incomparably fine and pure quality. This asphaltum, as the centuries passed, impregnated the tissues of the dead themselves. It turned them into the best paint material in the world. Being exceedingly expensive, it is used only by portrait painters in depicting brown hair.

Not Satisfied with One. On the South African ostrich farms it is no uncommon thing to see a male bird strutting about followed by three or four broods, all of different sizes. When the incubating process is completed the cock bird leads his young ones off, and, if he meets another proud parent, engages in a terrific combat with him. The vanquished bird retires without a single chick, whilst the other, surrounded by two broods, walks away triumphantly.

Mice as Musicians. A well-known Continental scientist declares that he has often heard mice sing. He says the "music" generally begins about sunset. One evening he noiselessly opened a cupboard, and observed for about half a minute the movements of the throat of a mouse, which he says emitted a song like that of the wren, though, of course, nothing like so shrill, the snout being elongated and held up in the air as a dog does when it howls.

Making Life a Burden. The Bayanzi, who live along the Upper Congo, have a strange custom which makes life a burden to their married women. Brass rods are welded into great rings round the necks of the wives. Many of these rings worn by the women whose husbands are well-to-do weigh as much as 30 pounds, and this burden must be carried by the wives as long as they live.

Shooting Stars. We should think of shooting stars as solid shot about the size of a cherry or cherry-stone, each of them flying with 100 times the speed of a bullet as far as the orbit of Uranus, and returning to the earth's distance from the sun three times in a century, unless it strikes our atmosphere, and is burned up in a flash, says the American Inventor.

Emblematical of the Union. In some private grounds in Kent there has long stood an interesting memorial of the union of Scotland and England. It consists of a Scottish fir and an oak growing close together, and mingling branch with branch. The trees, it is stated, were planted in 1707 expressly to commemorate the union of the two sister realms.

Looking After the Birds. The Audubon society in North Carolina has branches in eight towns and cities, including Raleigh and Wilmington. It has 280 members, who pay five dollars each per year. The society employs men on the coast at $45 to $50 a month to look after violations of the law against killing birds.

Waves Travel Faster Than Wind. Waves travel faster than the wind which causes them, and in the Bay of Biscay frequently, during the autumn and winter in calm weather, a heavy sea gets up and rolls in on the coast 24 hours before the gale which causes it arrives, and of which it is the prelude.

For Heavier Rails. The German Reichstag has made an appropriation for heavier rails and ties for the Berlin-Zossen railway, upon which the widely advertised high speed electric trains failed a year ago because the track was too light.

Curious Insurance Idea. A French (feminine) writer suggests that every couple before marrying should compulsorily insure the future of their children. She suggests one cent a day would be a sufficient premium.

The idea that there would be nothing doing in the dramatic line from the time Uncle Tom's Cabin left town until it came again was quickly dispelled. Almost before Eliza got across the ice a bill poster was in town putting up paper announcing that Ed. Anderson would be here tonight, Thursday, May 12, and offer us that tremendous and realistic picture of big doings, known as "The Midnight Flyer." Their advertising makes it out to be an awfully thrilling show and even the hair of bald headed men will stand on end in its grave. These thrilling thrills will cost 15, 25 and 35 cents, according to one's distance from the footlights.

Strange Fact. It is known that a person hunting in the winter time should be careful not to run the muzzle of his gun into the snow, less the end of the bore become filled with snow and the gun burst when fired. While the snow would be almost infinitesimal in weight, it would have to start instantly into motion, at the rate of perhaps a third of a mile a second, when the powder is ignited. While it may be hard to realize it, more force would probably be required to accomplish this result than the strength of the gun barrel could stand, and the barrel would rupture under the strain.

Herman Benter has completed his work at Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and returned to Chelsea last week. He is now in the employ of the Chelsea Savings bank, having taken the place made vacant by the retirement of Miss Vera Glazier.

The Ypsilanti Evening Press, the new daily of the east end of our county, has at last dropped into the Standard sanctum. In spite of the long delayed call this paper intends to make an exchange visit because the new comer has every appearance of being in every way worthy to be on our visiting list.

The Ann Arbor Argus in its Monday's edition tells of a citizen of that place who has a flock of chickens just hatched, one of which has a perfectly formed but unnecessary third leg growing where the tail ought to be. That is good, but The Standard can point to a little behind hand as the fate of some people.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's church held their yearly meeting at the home of Mrs. Adam Faist last Friday afternoon. The old officers were re-elected, and four new members were added. The society has about $600 in the treasury, having added about $200 the past year. At the conclusion of the official business a fine supper was served.

Elvira Clark, whose advertisements in The Standard always remind the reader that there is something doing in the plant and vegetable line, is again planning expansion. She has arranged to build a "forcing house," the glass roof of which will require 5,000 lights of glass 12x12. It ought to gather in a lot of sunshine.

The Golden entertainment at the town hall Tuesday evening was a success. For some years past so called educationists have been "considerably" in disfavor as "entertainers" but Mr. Golden did considerable to restore favor. Even if not better as an impersonator than some others his selections at any rate had the merit of being highly interesting.

W. A. Boland has been in town, since our last publication day, accompanied by a gentleman from New York and together they inspected the so-called Boland properties in this vicinity. It is surmised that these gentlemen were here to look after the protection of their franchise which doubtless remains operative by a very narrow margin. Some profess to see in this visit the forerunner of the early resumption of work on the line in question, but so far as can be discovered Mr. Boland never dropped a word to that effect. It is undoubtedly he finds it very difficult to raise funds for paralleling a road already in operation with well known rate cutting propensities.
