A CHELSEA HOME WEDDING.

Dr. Samuel Schultz, of Coldwater, and Miss Anne L. Bacon United.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Bacon on East Middle street at high noon Saturday, March 18, when their eldest daughter, Miss Anne L. Bacon, was united in marriage to Dr. Samuel Schultz, a prominent physician of Coldwater. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion. In the parlor where the ceremony was performed the decorations were in green and white, with a bank of white lilies and marguerites where the bridal party stood.

Promptly at 12 o'clock noon to the strains of the Lohengrin "Bridal March," played by Miss Mabel Bacon, the bride leaning on the arm of her father and preceded by her little brother John Bacon, who acted as ring bearer, carrying the wedding emblem in a white rose, descended the staircase and marched to the parlor. They were met there by the groom and Rev. C. S. Jones, who performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Thos. Holmes, D. D., and proceeded to their station, where the beautiful ring service was used in the nuptial ceremony, the bride being given away by her father. Prior to the ceremony Miss Pullen, of Coldwater, sang two pretty selections "The Four Leaf Clover" and "My Dream of You."

Following the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Schultz received the congratulations and good wishes of the 75 guests present, most of whom were relatives and half of them from out of town.

In the spacious dining room which was decorated in yellow and green with daffodils and ferns, a dainty three course luncheon was served, the dining room being presided over by Miss Mabel Bacon, assisted by the Misses Enid Holmes and Ethel Bacon, of Chelsea, and Miss Leona Belser, of Ann Arbor.

The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful and embraced hand painted china, cut glass, solid silverware, linen, pictures, etc. The groom's gift to his bride was a brooch of pearls and diamonds.

Dr. and Mrs. Schultz will be at home in Coldwater after April 25.

Was for Once Surprised.

Rev. E. E. Caster, D. D., has always prided himself upon being able to find out any plan for surprising either himself or his good wife before the social event transpired. Monday night, however, the reverend gentleman met his Waterloo, when by invitation of his daughter, the Ministers' Club and their wives gathered to help him celebrate his birthday.

The doctor's face was a study when he walked into his home, to find already there his brother ministers whom he had left not 15 minutes before at the club in another part of town. A bountiful supper was served at which the doctor presided. Much merriment was caused when an elaborately decorated birthday cake was brought in for the doctor to cut and serve. After supper the company was for an hour royally entertained by anecdotes and a display of many curios gathered during Mr. Caster's foreign travels. The guests departed with many expressions of good will for the host and his family.

J. D. Ryan Will Run for Auditor.

J. D. Ryan, the nominee for county auditor on the Democratic ticket, has reconsidered his determination not to run and will stick on the ticket.

Mr. Ryan's final decision to run is due to the pressure brought to bear on him by citizens, irrespective of party, who put it up to him in an argument that it is his duty to stand for election.

"I will consent to run on these conditions," said Mr. Ryan. "I will ask no man to vote for me and I do not want a word said against my opponent. I will make no personal canvass."

A LYNDON WEDDING.

In Which Two Popular Young People Were the Participants.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Runciman, in Lyndon, Wednesday evening, March 15, the contracting parties being Miss Miriam E. Hammack and Mr. Emory D. Rowe. The bride was attended by Miss Ella Monroe, of Waterloo, and Mr. Della Goodwin, of Chelsea, acted as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Hicks, of Grass Lake.

The bride was prettily attired in white silk mull and carried a spray bouquet of white carnations. Miss Monroe was also dressed in white silk mull and carried pink carnations. Mr. Wm. J. Brietenbach and Miss Myra Clark received the guests.

The house was tastefully decorated in pink and white. Promptly at 8 o'clock as Miss Edna Runciman played Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party descended the stairs and took their places beneath a beautiful arch of lace and flowers, where the ceremony was performed. During the period of congratulations Miss Runciman fittingly rendered the selection, "Constant Devotion." After this a bountiful wedding supper was served. The presents were numerous and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their friends. "The Fireside Club," of which the bride and groom are members, presented them with a beautiful oak library table.

Among the forty guests who were present were Dr. and Mrs. A. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bott, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Rowe, Mrs. McCloy and daughter Nellie, of Stockbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Rowe and daughter, of Grass Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Riethmiller, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rowe and son Claire; Mrs. Iza Downer, of Chelsea; Miss Delia Walz, of Munith; Miss Florence Collins, of Ypsilanti; the Misses Lizzie Breitenbach, Nellie Walsh, Susie and Mabel Rowe, Messrs. Arthur Walz, Eddie Cooper, Lawrence Quigley, George and Floyd Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowe will shortly go to housekeeping on the McCloy farm in Stockbridge.

Had a Good Time.

The March meeting of the W. W. U. Farmers' Club was held with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mapes at their home on Jefferson street, Friday, March 17. It was a good meeting and was well attended, everybody seeming to be glad to see and be out in the beautiful weather of the day.

After the usual good dinner and period of visiting, Howard Everett, president, called the meeting to order and the program was proceeded with. The roll call and quotations were well responded to. The question "How should we be protected against adulteration in our food supplies?" was to have been opened by C. M. Davis. In his absence Rev. G. W. Gordon took it up and handled it very well considering he did it on the spur of the moment. It was discussed by S. A. Mapes, Rev. C. S. Jones and Truman Baldwin. A recitation by Mrs. H. Everett and a reading by Mrs. S. A. Mapes followed, and then Mrs. Caster gave a good paper on "Is the religious training of our children being neglected in the home?" It was discussed by Rev. and Mrs. P. M. McKay and others. After singing "America" the company left for their homes well pleased with the day's outing.

EX-GOVERNOR CYRUS G. LUCE PASSED PEACEFULLY AWAY SATURDAY.

WRECK ON THE ANN ARBOR

THE INGHAM COUNTY JAIL, STEEL LINED, SEEMS EASY OF EGRESS.

FATHER PERISHES IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE SON IN BURNING HOUSE.

Conscious almost to the last, Cyrus G. Luce died Saturday morning at 8:39 o'clock at his home in Coldwater. He had been hovering on the borderland of life and death several days, and Mrs. Luce and their four children were all present when the final summons came.

Though descended from the best New England and southern stock, Cyrus G. Luce was a product of the stern school of pioneer life in the early days of the west, and throughout his long and active career he showed the beneficial effects of his early training. In the many public offices he was called upon by the people of his county and state to fill he was never found wanting, but left behind him in each a record of service well and fearlessly performed. When he retired from public life some years ago it was with the regard and high esteem of the entire state, and to the end of his life he retained—as he merited—these feelings of confidence and respect.

Ex-Governor Luce was born in Windsor, O., July 2, 1824, afterwards lived in Ontario, Ind. Later he purchased a tract of new land in the township of Gilead, Branch Co., Mich., and turned his attention to its development into a home. This he occupied soon after his marriage to Miss Julia A. Dickinson in August, 1849. Here they lived until the death of Mrs. Luce in 1882, their union being blessed by the birth of five children. During this period Mr. Luce took a deep interest in public affairs and in the success of the Republican party and he was chosen many times to offices of a public nature.

Three Killed, Eight Injured.
An accident, the result of another a short time before, resulted in the death of one man and the injury of several others on the Ann Arbor railroad Saturday morning. The accident happened near Mesick, and Fireman John Doyle, of Jackson, was the man killed, while two others were fatally and eight seriously injured. They are: Jensen, P. J., conductor, fatally.

Kress, Christopher, lost both legs, will die.
Velt, Albert, engineer, Mt. Pleasant, lost one leg.
Bennett, Irving, freight fireman, badly scalded.
Rowles, Elmer, section man, scalded, dangerous.

Mesick, John, leg mangled, scalded.
Frisbie, Roy, Leonidas, scalded.
Speier, Paul, Mesick, arm broken.
Masila, W. P., Cadillac, lacerated, bruised.

Heinsbarger, Henry Chicago, passenger, severely bruised.
Early in the morning a freight train had been thrown into the ditch four miles north of here through spreading rails. The engine was unscathed and with the crew aboard started back. A flagman who had been sent back to warn north-bound passenger train No. 7 of the wreck, failed to stop it and the freight engine and train came together on the curve at full speed.

The injured were removed to a vacant store in Mesick and six physicians from neighboring towns summoned to attend them.

Broke Jail.
Four more prisoners escaped from the Ingham county jail Friday night, after beating Sheriff Wm. A. Steele into insensibility. This is the fourth escape from this bastille in eight months, although the interior was recently lined with plate steel to prevent prisoners cutting or digging their way out. The steel, however, was no barrier in this case. The four men who got away are all from Lansing, and are as follows: Charles E. Miller, aged 33, awaiting sentence for forgery, to which he had pleaded guilty; Martin Goins, serving a sentence of 20 days for jumping a board bill; Lucius C. Mosher, awaiting trial on a charge of criminal assault; Frank Jordan, 18 years old, awaiting sentence for burglary. Sheriff Steele went to lock up seven men who were in the corridor, shortly after 9 o'clock. Suddenly three of them pounced upon him from behind, bore him to the floor and pounded him into unconsciousness. The trio and another then grabbed the keys and made a rush for the door. Mrs. Steele attempted to bar their way out, but was swept aside as the fellows ran out into the darkness and disappeared.

Couldn't Save Him.
After rescuing his wife, son and daughter from their burning home on the farm of G. L. Dimmick, five miles north of Owosso, Hiram Soules, aged 56, perished in the flames despite frantic efforts of his family to save him. Soules and his 14-year-old son Clifford slept upstairs, while his wife and daughter slept downstairs. Soules awoke early in the morning to find the house all aflame. He rushed downstairs and hustled his wife and daughter through their bedroom window in their night clothes. Then he returned upstairs for the boy, who leaped through the window to the frozen ground. Soules started down the stairs, but stumbled and fell headlong into the midst of the flames. There was only one safe way he could have been reached—through the front door, but this had been nailed up for the winter to keep out the cold.

It is just about one year ago that Coleman suffered severely from fire and another heavy loss was inflicted by a blaze which broke out about 10 o'clock Wednesday night in the Deal bakery and burned all frame buildings in the Commercial House block. The loss will reach $20,000, with small insurance. The only building saved was the cement block of George F. Gorton, but it was badly damaged.

Prosecuting Attorney Martin has stated his conviction after a searching investigation that there is no proof of foul play in the case of young William S. Goodspeed, who died in Flint so suddenly the evening of March 8. No motive has been shown for any attempt at murder, and if Goodspeed was really poisoned there is nothing to show it was done intentionally. The prosecutor says he will take no further action until he has something on which to base a belief that the boy was murdered.

WAR NEWS

KUROPATKIN IS HARSHLY DISMISSED IN DISGRACE.

A MOMENTOUS WAR EPOCH

OYAMA SAYS HE WILL ENTER HARBIN ON APRIL 10TH.

THE CAPTURE OF VLADIVOSTOK IS PREDICTED BY THE 1ST OF JULY.

Russian Army Divided.

After leaving Kalyan, Gen. Linewitch is believed to have divided his army, the main portion clinging to the railroad and the other falling back along the Mandarin road, which runs to Kirin, it being impossible to leave the latter open to the Japanese lest they then be able to creep up on the left flank. At the same time it is recognized that a separation of forces is always attended with the danger of giving the enemy an opportunity to concentrate and fight the army in detail. Some military men of St. Petersburg believe that Linewitch will try to hold the line from Kirin to Changoun, 120 miles north of Tie Pass. The first corps, composed of steady troops from St. Petersburg and formerly commanded by Gen. Meyendorff, is co-ordinating the retreat, which the war office declares is proceeding in an orderly fashion.

Complete details of the losses at the battle of Mukden are not yet available at the war office, but the reports thus far received indicate that 120,000 men were killed, wounded or made prisoners and that about 80 field guns were captured. Almost every siege gun, it is affirmed, was removed.

Harbin and Vladivostok.

Kuroki's advance guard has reached Mian Huakou, on the Kirin road, about twenty miles northeast of Tieling, while the Japanese western flanking column is almost at Chantutu to the west of the railroad on the Mandarin road. Both Kuroki and Nogi, who commands the western columns, are pushing their troops toward the railroad, with the idea of cutting off as great a proportion of the Russians as possible. The heaviest fighting since Mukden is in progress at Kai Yen, portions of several Russian corps having been brought to bay there and being practically cut off from retreat in any direction. This is the news of the operations in Manchuria received here today, partly from official and partly from unofficial, but reliable sources.

Oyama's dispatches, so far as they have been made public, indicate that there is a constant addition to his list of prisoners, as isolated parties of Russians are picked up, and that a number of guns and large quantities of munitions and stores have been captured since the fall of Mukden and Tieling. It is predicted that both Harbin and Vladivostok will either be in Japanese hands or invested beyond the hope of relief before the 1st of July.

How far or how rapidly Field Marshal Oyama will be able to continue the pursuit remains to be seen, but the Chinese at Harbin expect him there April 10 and if this opinion proves to be founded on a Japanese proclamation many persons in St. Petersburg, remembering the fulfillment of Oyama's assurance regarding the occupation of Mukden March 10, will be inclined to accept three weeks as the limit.

A Momentous Epoch.

The view of the war in France is that peace prospects, although recently considered bright, now seem to have disappeared. The officials say this is due mainly to Japan's insistence that Russia shall sue for peace, whereas Russian pride prevents her from taking the initiative. Therefore it is believed that the war will be indefinitely prolonged with the prospect of a steady series of Japanese successes above Mukden. Japan's approach to Siberia is considered one of the momentous epochs of the war and as marking the first Japanese possession of Asiatic territory hitherto held by a European power. The effect of Japan's advance to Harbin will be to control the Trans-Siberian railroad and the entire sweep of eastern Siberia, including Vladivostok. It is said that this possession of Russian territory may prove an important factor in support of Japan's claim for a money indemnity.

Will Continue War.

The Russian government declares the war will be pushed with energy, even if the entire army of Linewitch is captured by Oyama and the Japanese all eastern Siberia. More armies will be raised at once. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's orders to try issues with Vice-Admiral Togo have not been canceled, preparations for the mobilization of a new army are continuing, and the finance department is busy with measures to provide necessary funds.

A writ of habeas corpus seeking the release of Johann Hoch, the multi-bigramist, was withdrawn in court at Chicago. Counsel for Hoch stated that the reason for the withdrawal was that there was apparently nothing to gain by the writ. Hoch was present during the proceedings.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Senator Jones has introduced a bill calling for an appropriation of $50,000 for the erection of a reformatory for women. The measure does not specify where the institution shall be located, but Senator Jones wants it put up somewhere in St. Clair county. Representative Elchhorn, of Port Huron, has a similar bill in the house.

The bill providing for a bounty of 2 cents a head on snarrows was passed by the house. It applies in only those counties whose boards of supervisors vote for it.

The house military committee has reported favorably the bill to double the annual appropriation for naval reserves, in order that three new divisions may be formed and that two cruises may be arranged for on the Yantic. There is talk of forming new bodies of reserves at Bay City, the Soo and on Lake Michigan. The bill, however, must still go to the committee on ways and means.

Senator Brown's primary election bill for the whole state will probably be introduced early next week. It will provide for the direct election of delegates to state conventions and for uniform caucus days, but the people are not under its terms to vote directly on the nomination of any state candidate. One of the most interesting features of the bill will be a provision that elections must be closed on primary days as they are now supposed to be on election days.

At the session of the house Monday evening the nomination of Speaker Master for circuit judge of the Ninth circuit was observed by handclapping and a resolution expressing high esteem, etc. As speaker Master will vacate his present position in case he is elected circuit judge, there is already some speculation as to his successor in the chair of the house. In this talk the name of Representative George Lord, of Detroit, is being used a great deal, as he retired from the race at the beginning of this session with the good will of Master's friends.

Another bill to amend the general liquor law has been introduced by Representative Stockdale, of Allegan. It provides that all druggists who sell liquor must pay the same tax as saloonkeepers.

There is a provision in a bill introduced by Representative Jerome, of Detroit, that liquor shall not be sold in drug stores.

Representative Beal, of Ann Arbor, has a bill which provides that the pharmacy board shall be appointed from the membership of the State Pharmaceutical association and requires a high educational qualification for applicants for certificates. The Jerome bill makes no such restrictions as to the members of the board and is more liberal as to the education necessary for druggists.

A bill introduced by Representative Fairbanks, of Mason county, would appropriate $15,000 for the completion of the psychopathic ward in the hospital grounds of the U. of M. and for the appointment of a "pathologist of the state asylums for the insane and associate professor of neural pathology."

Representative Duncan Wayne, of Bradford, Midland county, introduced a joint resolution Tuesday afternoon to move the seat of the state government from Lansing to Detroit.

"Detroit is the natural capital of the state," said Mr. Wayne. "All railroads and street railways lead to Detroit. Get on any railroad, and you can reach the metropolis. Hotel accommodations, living accommodations, recreation, everything is superior in Detroit. I think the joint resolution will pass the house."

Representatives Gordon, of Marquette, and Turner, of Michigan, declare in favor of change.

The title and text of the resolution follow:

"A Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment to Article II of the Constitution of the State.
Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the state of Michigan, That the following amendment to the constitution of this state be and the same is hereby proposed, that is to say, that Article II of said constitution be amended to read as follows:

"Article II—The seat of government shall within three years after the adoption of this amendment be located at Detroit, county of Wayne."
Then follows the provision to submit the matter to the people in the fall of 1905. The resolution, if carried out, would take effect about 1908.

The sum of $2,000,000 at least may be cut from the appropriations asked this year by the state institutions by the senate committee on appropriations composed of Senators Smith, Doherty, Lindsay, Jenks and Hayden. All warmly support Gov. Warner's economy policy. The appropriation bills now before the senate total $2,218,044.07. Two years ago $6,956,717.80 was appropriated and the amount this year might be cut down close to, if not below, those figures. "One million dollars," said Chairman Smith, "can be cut out without leaving our seats." A $450,000 addition to the capital is asked for $250,000 for a prison twine plant, and $40,000 for buying White Cloud hospital and sanitarium. Fads and extras will be cut down and we will save $2,000,000."

An increase of $30,000 a year in salary alone is the modest contribution of the four state normal schools in the line of "economy," and these increases have been approved by the state board of education.

Considerable ill-feeling is manifested in congress over the failure of the senate to pass the pure food bill. Its untimely death is ascribed to the whiskey trust, otherwise known as the "hotbed in bond."

The body of William Barney has been found, frozen stiff, in his shanty near Houghton lake. He lived alone, and was one of the oldest residents of the section. The coroner decided he came to his death from heart disease.

A hurricane swept over the Irish and English coasts during Wednesday night, and it is feared that many disasters have occurred. The telegraph lines are broken at many points. The lifeboat stations are busy and shipping everywhere is seeking shelter. Numbers of minor wrecks, accompanied by loss of life, have been reported. Terrific seas are running.

LATE NEWS

MRS. READER PROMISES THAT SHE WILL AS-FOUND THE COUNTRY.

SECRETARY HAY'S COLLAPSE

SPECIAL SESSION OF THE SENATE IS OVER AND NOTHING DONE.

BY PEABODY'S RESIGNATION COLORADO HAD THREE GOVERNORS IN A DAY.

Mrs. Reader Is Angry.

Mrs. Ella Rawles Reader, the young Alabama woman, who says that she prevented a civil war in Peru, was almost concluded an agreement with the president of Santo Domingo for that republic for several years, end to negotiations by arranging a treaty with the West Indian government, declared today that she has not yet revealed everything she knows concerning the alleged American-Dominican plot, and that when she publishes documents and facts in her possession the country will be astounded.

Mrs. Reader says that she has negotiated innumerable great international arrangements and that is the first time she has failed. And she is angry. She says that she would have succeeded and would today be a Dominican fiscal agent if some one had not betrayed her secrets to President Roosevelt and thus led to the fiasco which cost her much money and her first failure as an international agent.

Peabody Resigned as Agreed.

The bargain made by leaders of opposing Republican factions of Colorado to take the governor's chair from Alva Adams and to seat in Lieut.-Gov. Jesse F. McDonald, permitting James H. Peabody to be in for one day, was carried to a conclusion Friday afternoon.

In fulfillment of the agreement which he made before the general assembly decided the gubernatorial test in his favor, Gov. James H. Peabody resigned the office in which he was inaugurated Thursday afternoon. His resignation, of which W. S. Patton, of Colorado Springs, had been custodian since it was written, was filed in the office of the secretary of state at 4:20 p. m. Friday. John Cowie, secretary of state, immediately certified Gov. Peabody's resignation and Lieut.-Gov. McDonald was sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Gabert. There was no further ceremony.

Gov. Adams was ousted and Peabody installed by the general assembly about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon and Gov. McDonald sworn in before 5 p. m. Friday. In a space of less than twenty-four hours Colorado had three governors.

Secretary Hay Very Ill.

John Hay, secretary of state, collapsed on the White Star pier, New York, shortly before noon Saturday. He was going aboard the steamer Cretic for a Mediterranean trip, sailed on the Cretic, nevertheless, very sick man, the necessity being imperative of his seeking a long rest.

That Mr. Hay's health is seriously impaired has been concealed from the public, and every effort was made to keep secret the name of the ship which he was to sail. His name did not appear on the passenger list, but he did not reach the pier until after the advertised hour of sailing.

The illnery of the secretary of state calls for a trip lasting six weeks but it may be extended. If his health is not improved by his vacation, it is considered probable that he will be compelled to retire from the cabinet. But if he shows even a trace of improvement, it is said he will remain at the head of the department of state.

No Santo Domingo Treaty.

The special session of the senate was at 3:30 Friday afternoon with day. All of the nominations sent were confirmed, with the exception of five, the most important of which was that of Judge James Wickham, who succeeded himself as judge of the trial court of Alaska. Several important treaties were ratified beyond these matters no legislative business was transacted.

Most of the session was devoted to the Santo Domingo question and consideration of a treaty under which it was proposed that the United States should take over the control of the financial affairs of the Dominican government in order to pay its indebtedness. Democratic opposition prevented the ratification of the treaty.

Senator Hawley Dead.

Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, for twenty-four years United States senator from Connecticut, died at 1 o'clock Saturday morning at his residence in Washington, D. C. He came peacefully after a stupor lasting with slight interruption last Wednesday afternoon. At his bedside were his three daughters and Mrs. Hooks, for a long time the nurse to the committee on military affairs of the senate. The remains will be taken to Hartford, Conn., for interment.

Mrs. I. B. Happy, Pittsburg, Mo., divorced because her husband refused to W. G. Austin for $1 per week the first ballot ever voted by a her of his race in the United States is dead in El Paso, Ill.

Lawrence, Mass., has the unique strike in history. The "chasers," employed by the state city to clear the parks of the nest brown-tail moths, want $3 a day instead of $2.50.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develop into nervous prostration. Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nervine brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"During the past winter I had two attacks of La Grippe which left me very weak, and in bad condition. I was so nervous I could not sleep. My wife, after trying different remedies, went for a doctor. The doctor was out, and a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and she brought home a bottle. I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my head. After taking a few doses of Nervine the pain was not so severe, and I slept. I am now taking the second bottle, and am very much improved."

HENRY M. SMITH, Underhill, Vt.
Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1905.

Primary reform seems to be getting a black eye in the house of legislature at Lansing to judge by the past three days' work. Well, that is no more than was expected from the machine, the members of which seem bound to work out their own destruction.

Congressman Townsend says: "An extraordinary session of congress will be held this autumn, and the rate bill will surely go through at that time; there is no question about that. The senate will not be able, then, to deliver up its plea that 'it hasn't got time.'"

Keep Monday, April 3, as a marked date on your calendar and in your memory. That is the day on which a supreme court judge, two regents of the University and a member of the state board of education are to be elected, also three members of the county board of auditors and the usual township officers.

The caucus situation in Sylvan is changed this spring. Both caucuses are held on the same day, and heretofore it has been the custom to hold the Republican caucus first and the Democratic caucus an hour later. This year the situation is reversed and the Democrats will hold their caucus at the town hall, Saturday, March 25, at 2 p. m., and the Republican caucus will be held at 3 p. m. What's in the wind, now?

Tecumseh News: If all the bills in the state legislature, for new boards, should become laws, it would increase the state of cials 253 and cost $100,000 per year. Isn't it pretty near time for the people to sit down hard on this sort of political grafting?

There is not the least doubt but that it is "time for the people to sit down hard on this kind of grafting," the real question is, will they do it? The political grafters seem to have a hypnotic influence over the average voter which prevents him seeing his own interests in the proper light.

By the death of Cyrus G. Luce, Michigan has lost one of her most distinguished men. For many years he occupied different offices of public trust and filled them all honestly and capably. As governor of Michigan for two terms his administration was thoroughly straightforward and businesslike. For many years he was a prominent figure in the state Grange. He leaves behind him a record of service well and fearlessly performed. Mr. Luce was in his 82nd year.

Sylvan Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats of the township of Sylvan will meet in caucus at the town hall on Saturday, March 25, 1905, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating township officers and to transact such other business as may properly come before them.

Dated March 20, 1905.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Sylvan Republican Caucus.

The Republicans of the township of Sylvan will meet in caucus at the town hall in the village of Chelsea, Saturday, March 25, 1905, at 3 o'clock p. m. (local time), to nominate officers to be voted for April 3, 1905, and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.

Dated March 20, 1905.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Lyndon Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats of Lyndon will meet in caucus at the town hall, Lyndon, Saturday, March 25, at 2 o'clock p. m., to nominate township office.

"Ben Hur" in Detroit.

Arrayed in all its splendor, "Ben Hur" will inaugurate a week's engagement at the Detroit Opera House on Monday evening, March 27. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Of all the spectacular productions of modern times, none has been credited with so long a run of prosperity as this great and popular dramatic romance. "Ben Hur" is today crowned with a record of nearly 1,700 performances in a little over 5 years, and has been seen by more than three and a half million people. In all this period of marked prosperity a Sunday performance has never been given. No play in the history of the stage admits of the massive scenic setting that "Ben Hur" does.

Reviewing "Ben Hur" as a play, it is one of the most stirring and impressive stories ever given to the stage, and while the keenest admiration and astonishment have been manifested for the marvelous scenic and mechanical effects that are unfolded in its enactment, the impression that lasts and lives, and that which has been responsible for the wonderful success record, is the beautiful, fervent and highly dramatic story, so forcibly and truthfully told with its endowment of grand music supplied by Edgar Stillman Kelley.

The advance sale of seats opens Thursday morning, March 23, at 9 o'clock. Manager Whitney, of the Detroit Opera House, announces that all out-of-town orders, if accompanied by cash or money order, will be filled as soon as the regular box office sale opens. During the engagement of "Ben Hur" in Detroit all railroads entering the city will make special excursion rates.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that after marriage many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." The Bank Drug Store sells and guarantees them at 50¢ a bottle.

Garrett Conway Goes to New York.

Master Garrett Conway, Chelsea's boy singer with the wonderful soprano voice, has accepted an offer to go to New York City and sing in one of the most prominent churches in that city, for which he is to receive $15 a Sunday and all his school expenses. Garrett is between 13 and 14 years of age and has not long to sing in the soprano class. Prof. R. H. Kempf, of Ann Arbor, his musical director, says of him:

"The boy has the finest voice I ever heard come from a lad. He takes 'high C' with ease and has a range of a little over two octaves. The voice is sympathetic, strong and of a rich quality. He has not long to be in the soprano class and I do not want to stand in the way of him availing himself of so good an opportunity as is presented and I advised him to accept it. We will try and induce the New York people to allow Garrett to remain here until after Easter."

If we were to announce that you could get this paper for the price of three beers, every descendant of Adam would know that it meant 15 cents. But if we were to say that it would be sent for the price of a hymn book, half of them wouldn't know whether we had raised the subscription rate or were giving the paper away.

At the recent teachers' examination in Jackson county, one question in theory and art of teaching relative to what constitutes subjective and objective teaching was answered thus: "Subjective teaching is teaching for money, and objective teaching to help the student." The question of what constitutes the double duty of a teacher was answered in this form: "Taking care of the school yard and teaching the scholars."

At a meeting of the Congregational church and society held Tuesday evening Rev. C. S. Jones' resignation as pastor was read and accepted and permission was given him to terminate his pastorate whenever he saw fit. The board of trustees, C. H. Kempf, W. J. Knapp, C. M. Davis, S. A. Mapes, L. T. Freeman and D. C. McLaren, were appointed the committee on supply to fill the vacant pastorate. Mr. Jones will not terminate his pastorate until the last Sunday in April when the year he agreed to remain with the church will be up.

A joint freight rate has been established by the three electric railroads between Detroit and Kalamazoo—the Detroit, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor & Jackson railway, the Jackson & Battle Creek Traction company and the Michigan Traction company. The new service does not mean that freight cars run solid through from Detroit to Kalamazoo, but the connections are so close that even with the transfer of freight, it is said that a faster freight service between these towns, or between Detroit and Kalamazoo, has in consequence been inaugurated. It is a service midway between freight and express.

A union of the American Society of Equity was organized at the Dexter town hall Tuesday evening, March 14, with eleven charter members. Deputy-president K. H. Wheeler installed the following officers: President, Thos. McQuillan; secretary, Robt. Gardner; treasurer, R. S. Whalian. It was decided to hold the charter open until after the next meeting to give all who wished a chance to join as charter members without being initiated. Rev. W. F. Morrison was appointed chairman of the committee on entertainment and announced an excellent program for the next meeting. Regular meetings are held every Thursday night.

He was surprised at how the sore healed. I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itching of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the symptoms commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I can truly recommend your treatment with all my heart. You refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish."

New Silks For All Women

It has been remarkable how few Silks made in America were any good at all. So many Silks, sold by all dealers, are being sold on their appearance only, wearing qualities are not being considered in any way by either the seller or buyer.

We now have on sale a Silk made by the Wyndham Silk Co. that

Will not crack, split,
shift, pull or fade. . .

This Silk positively is all and everything a good silk should be if the wearer will give it any chance at all.

We now have all qualities in stock in blacks and most colors, priced

$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75.

The D. Y. A. A. & J. limited cars now make flag stops at Dexter road and Sylvan road to take on or let off passengers.

There will be a special meeting of Olive Lodge, No. 156, F. & A. M., next Tuesday evening, March 28, for work in the third degree.

Mrs. Wm. Rheinfrank has sold her house on Park street, now occupied by Chas. Samp, to N. S. Jones, who will occupy it as his family home.

The Miller Sisters will have their annual spring opening of trimmed and ready-to-wear millinery Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31.

The senior class of the high school will have a social at the Woodman hall, Friday evening, March 24, at 7:30 o'clock, to which a cordial invitation is extended.

Howard M. Cook, of Gregory, son of Mrs. L. Cook, of this place, fell on a buzz saw Monday of last week, while helping cut wood, and cut a gash in his arm that took 10 stitches to close up.

On account of the changes being made in the Bank Drug Store building Dr. Schmidt has had to move his office. He is now located in the Steinbach building on West Middle street, on the ground floor.

The Democratic caucus for the township of Lima will be held at the town hall Tuesday afternoon, March 28, at 2 o'clock. The Republican caucus will be held at the same place Wednesday, March 29, at 2 o'clock.

Next Sunday morning the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Congregational church. The rite of baptism will be administered and several received into the church fellowship at that time.

Tommy McNamara not only sells horses by the pound, but also buys them. He bought one of William Trolz, of Grass Lake, the other day, for which he paid 10 cents a pound. The horse weighed upward of 1,000 pounds, at that.

The only teachers from Chelsea to receive certificates at the recent teachers' examinations were Miss Idalene Webb and Mrs. Florence Bachman Howlett renewals of first grade certificates, and Miss Lillian Skinner a third grade certificate.

The sleet storm of Sunday put the car service on the D. Y. A. A. & J. hors de combat in bad shape. All the cars were off their scheduled time and it took the special car due here from the east at 1:59 p. m., 35 minutes to come from Finkbeiner's switch in Lima. The car was then over an hour late.

Jas. H. Boardman, of Jackson, well known to many in this place, died very suddenly of apoplexy Saturday evening, March 18, aged 54 years. The funeral services were held at the Elks' temple, Jackson, Tuesday afternoon, the deceased being an enthusiastic member of that order. The funeral address was delivered by Congressman Charles E. Townsend.

The biennial convention of the Second District Christian Endeavor Union will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday in the Free Baptist church at Hillsdale. The C. E. Society of this place has appointed Miss Ruth Barch and Miss Anna Walworth as delegates. Rev. C. S. Jones, president of the district, will deliver an address on Tuesday evening upon the subject "The Christian's Mission."

A rally of all the Sunday schools in Chelsea will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday afternoon and evening, at which papers will be read and discussed, addresses made and other things of importance carried out. E. E. Calkins, of Ann Arbor, the president of the County Sunday School Association, will be present. At 6 o'clock p. m. a union meeting of the young people's societies of Chelsea will be held with the Epworth League.

The Michigan Central railroad company will build a new water tank at Grass Lake this summer.

H. S. Holmes has rented his farm in Lima to Michael Icheldinger, who will work both his own farm and it.

Miss Mary Haab will on Friday, March 31, and Saturday, April 1, have on exhibition a fine display of spring and summer millinery of all kinds.

The annual free seat offering at the Methodist church last evening was a great success. The chicken pie supper was a fine one and the handsome sum of $270 was realized.

Fred Godding, of Eaton Rapids, under whose direction the play "The Minister's Son" was put on at the opera house a few weeks ago, was married recently to Mrs. Easterday, of Jackson.

E. E. Brown, editor of the Grass Lake News, was elected president of that village at the charter election without opposition. Now, we'll see Grass Lake make a move for electric lights and water works.

One editor says: "The more experience we have in the business of editing a newspaper the more we become convinced that it takes more brains to keep things out of the paper than it does to put things into the paper."

"Ah, there isn't so much difference between me and Eve," said a pert little miss the other day, who was compelled to wear her big sister's cast-off skirts. "How is that?" said her mamma. "Why," she replied, "Eve had to wear leaves and I have to wear leavings."

The Whittling Club of the Congregational church held its first outdoor athletics last Thursday. George Walworth, though but 11 years old, bids fair to become a great athlete. In the running broad jump he scored 10 ft. 6 in., and in the standing broad jump 6 ft. and 2 in.

The Ypsilanti Press tells of a loyal hearted 7 years old boy, who was asked by a neighboring woman what a certain caller on his mother wanted. The answer she got was, "That's none of your business, or mine either," and he declined, even after requests, to answer the question.

The case of Chas. Kendall vs. Chas. H. Kempf, administrator, was settled Thursday by Judge Kinne issuing a decree giving the heirs certain sums out of the $2,244 remaining in the hands of the administrator, paying the attorney fees and administration expenses and giving the plaintiff the remaining $607.60.

E. V. Barker, who kept a baker's shop here for a year during 1899-1900, and his wife have come into the lime light of publicity at Homer, where they now live, in a very sensational way. Last week Barker had his wife and a baker who works for him arrested on a charge of adultery. The couple have been discharged by the justice on this count, and now Mrs. Barker has filed a bill for divorce from him charging a conspiracy on his part to blacken her good name and get rid of her without her being able to get her share of the $4,000 she has worked hard to help him accumulate.

I dropped lightly to the floor again, sat upon the stool and resumed my thoughts. Time 'tis said passeth as quickly as a weaver's shuttle. Under some circumstances I could mention no doubt, but that day after receiving the message time crawled.

I watched the fading away of those last faint rays of light with intense satisfaction. Then I again mounted the stool and again looked abroad. Night had drawn her mantle over the land—not even a star gleamed in the sky.

I listened to hear sounds outside my door, knowing my father must soon come with my evening meal. Yes, I had not long to wait ere I heard the shuffling footsteps of the man. He clanked his keys and gave out an apologetic sniff, the usual thing, as he neared the door of my cell. The key moved hardly in the rusty hole, was turned with a doleful sound, half shriek half groan, the door moved back.

"A little oil on the hinges, sirrah," I said, "would render it not so grating on the nerves. Faugh! Is this the food to serve a gentleman?" I added as I picked up the loaf of bread from the floor where he had set it together with a jug of water. My supper! I ordered him to take it away.

"This is the usual prison fare," he sniffed; "if you want better you can pay for it." Then he backed toward the door.

Now the old rascal had drained me as dry as any goblet of sparkling wine was ever drained by horseman, and, as I had bought and paid most liberally for every meal I had eaten since I had entered the doors of this beastly place, this was adding insult to injury. Knowing this, he dared place before me bread and water. It broke the camel's back.

"Out of my sight, you miserable renegade," I cried starting up.

I waited for the cue from him.

"His Majesty demands an audience with you, gracious sir," he said, bowing low before me. "He grieves that through some mistake you have been put to such dire distress."

"Say no more," I replied. "I am as ever at his service."

Again he bowed, and I that knew his every expression caught the flicker of amusement in his eye.

"The horses are waiting, sir," he continued. "His Majesty expects you at Whitehall. He does not like to wait."

"My cloak and sword, sirrah," I commanded. "I am all of a muck from your filthy cell."

"Here they are, sir," the jailer answered as he took them from the boy. "This not my fault," he whined; "I only obey orders."

"Fault or no fault, out of the way scullion," ordered Gil.

So without any ado we passed the humbly bowing apologetic fool and went down the corridor and steep flight of stairs of the prison to the street door, which he opened.

In a circle at the entrance to the prison, bending in their saddles sat our men of Long Hunt. It was dark—few links about. I saw Torralne who held Buncie, my horse, by the bridle, lean back and with his sword strike a link out of the hand of a man who would be too curious. Before it was extinguished I recognized the man on the horse next to him. It was Pat, my linkman.

On the outskirts of our circle another circle had formed. It was composed of the common lag of the town, the usual rabble that congregated when there was anything out of the ordinary going on.

It was dark in our immediate ring, but light enough in the outer one. In its midst I saw, heard, and recognized our old friend, the pett constable of the White Swan inn, and so did Gil. It did not need his whispered word.

Truly he was a man of iron. It had cold upon him, he was many pounds lighter and his moon-like face was haggard.

While away he had left Pat to keep guard at the prison and find out which cell I occupied. This the man was able to do with a little judicious questioning. He was also to watch the movements of the arch fiend, Chief Justice Lord Jeffreys; not an arduous task, for that lord delighted in having his movements chronicled. Everything favored him. When the linkman met the party coming from Long Hunt at the edge of Drury Lane—a meeting place previously decided upon—he told them that Lord Jeffreys was to pass through Epping Forest in a few hours. They posted there in hot haste to await him, while Pat was left to try and acquaint me with the fact that they hoped to effect my release. How successful he was in this you know. My lord came all unconscious of the plot on foot. His attendants were with little effort overpowered. Then my lord, who deemed the men of Long Hunt highwaymen and surely a fiercer looking lot one would travel far to find), was soon compelled to sign the paper for my release. If he felt any of that terror with which he was wont to inspire poor creatures hauled before him, it wiped out some one's debt.

They carried him some distance away from his men, and left him bound and tied in a lodge, knowing it would be hours before he would be discovered. It seems in that particular their plans had miscarried, else the constable had not appeared upon the scene.

I laughed heartily, but I noticed that Gil did not echo it. Moreover all through our talk he seemed preoccupied—something was wrong—for Gil loved to be pitted against obstacles—it was as the very breath of his nostrils—and this little episode had been too satisfactory for him not to feel elated at its outcome. Had he not met his old friend the pett constable and had he not gone down before him?

"What is it, Gil," said I.

"Bad news, my lord," he replied.

"What?" I cried.

"Yes, your father is dead," he softly answered. "Ere I had hardly begun my journey I met a man coming from Long Hunt with the sad news."

"When did he die?" I asked.

"The night you were arrested," he replied.

"Did you see him?" I questioned.

"Yes," he said. "God rest his soul. I stopped long enough for that and only that. He lies in state in the chapel. Master Basil prays over him day and night. Your father left with him his last messages for you."

"We will go on to-night," I said.

"But you are tired—will you not drop back and rest?"

"Not I," he replied.

I saw as he stretched out his legs and could scarce forbear a groan at the pain, how sore and weary he was, but I knew better than to insist.

I sat with my back to the door. I had been intent upon my supper and the tale of my release, in both of which I had taken an equal relish until hearing of my father's death I had lost both. I pushed back my chair from the table and leaning back sat thinking sadly. The men had stopped their chattering, knowing the cause of my depression. Too late, he had died unknowing! In the land where he had gone, I wondered, if all things were made clear to him.

I was aroused from my reverie by an exclamation from Gil. I turned toward the door at which he was staring. In its entrance stood Rosemary Allyn, Lady of Felton.

Her eyes were wide and dark with excitement. Her hair was blown into wet tendrils about her face. She was flushed from exertion.

"I am come to tell you, sir," she said, "that before twenty minutes shall have passed the King's Blues will be here."

Preaching to the Deaf.

He that hath ears, let him hear, and he that is deaf can now hear by telephone, and has no excuse for staying away from church. A clergyman in Stratford, Conn., has a number of deaf persons in his congregation. He found that, curiously enough, they could understand what was said to them by telephone. So he set up a telephone apparatus on his pulpit, and ran wires to a pew near the front of the church. There sit the deaf, holding receivers with a light handle like that of a telephone. This deaf pew, however, is not necessary. Telephone connection will be made between the pulpit and any pew. A great boon to the really deaf, but rather vexatious, perhaps, to the persons who are so deaf that they can hear all the jokes at a theater perfectly well, but cannot follow the sermon.

"With the Procession." Everybody's Magazine.

To the Point.

For many years a traveling pedler named Luce has been a well known character in the country towns of New England. His route lies mostly within Maine and New Hampshire, where he sells, needles, pins, soap, extracts, etc., and is always a welcome guest at the isolated farmhouse where he calls. Unlike most itinerant pedlers he is a man of few words.

Last winter while driving down one of the long hills of North Conway his horse becoming frightened, ran, finally bringing up at the foot of the hill with an overturned cart, beneath which lay the unfortunate owner, unable to extricate himself from the wreck. A mountaineer approaching asked, with typical brevity, "Fright?" "No," responded the Yankee, "Luce."—Harper's Weekly.

TWO MEN AT ONE SPADE.

Method of East Indian Coolies Divides the Labor.

At hill stations in the Himalayas, India, coolies are employed unceasingly in the care of the snake-like roads which wind round and round the sides of the hills. Their method of working provides a novelty to one accustomed to the methods of laborers at home. When digging, two men work at one spade, a rope being attached to the lower end of the wooden shaft, and pulled by one crotle to assist the other in lifting after the latter has filled the spade. The work is done very rapidly, so much so, indeed, as to justify the employment of two men at one spade; but it has a decidedly comical appearance, and reminds one of a clock work toy.—Pearson's Weekly.

Buy on Credit in China.

Foreigners in China buy nearly everything on credit, giving signed "chits" for every purchase, the reasons being their unwillingness to load themselves down with silver or native coin, while paper money fluctuates too much.

An Ex-Sheriff Talks.

Scott City, Kan., March 20th.—(Special.)—Almost every newspaper tells of cures of the most deadly of kidney diseases by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism and Bladder troubles, in fact any disease that is of the kidneys or caused by disordered kidneys is readily cured by this great American remedy.

But it is in curing the earlier stages of kidney complaint that Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing their greatest work. They are preventing thousands of cases of Bright's disease and other deadly ailments by curing Kidney Disease when it first shows its presence in the body.

Speaking of this work Ex-Sheriff James Scott of Scott County, says: "I have used eight boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and must say that they are just the thing for Kidney Disease. We have tried many kidney medicines but Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best of all."

Beer in the United States.

The production of beer is now more than half a barrel for every man, woman and child in the United States.

FACE LIKE RAW BEEF.

Burning Up With a Terrible Itching Eczema—Speedily Cured by Cuticura.

"Cuticura cured me of a terrible eczema from which I had suffered agony and pain for eight years, being unable to obtain any help from the best doctors. My scalp was covered with scabs and my face was like a piece of raw beef, my eyebrows and lashes were falling out, and I felt as if burning up from the terrible itching and pain. Cuticura gave me relief the very first day, and made a complete cure in a short time. My head and face are now clear and well. (Signed) Miss Mary M. Fay, 75 West Main St., Westboro, Mass."

Poverty in English Metropolis. One out of every four persons who die in London dies "on public charity."

To Keep Weight Down.

If you wish to keep your weight down, don't drink water at meals. Take tea and coffee. Rise early, walk at least five miles every day, and don't take a nap after exercising. Sleep eight hours only, and on a moderately hard bed. Shun fresh or hot bread. Fleec from potatoes, peas, macaroni, olive oil, cream, alcoholic drinks, sweets and pastry.

A Secret.

It is often very desirable to know how to seal a letter so that it cannot be opened without betraying the fact. Steam or hot water will open envelopes closed with mucilage and even a wafer. A hot iron or a spirit lamp dissolves sealing wax, an impression in plaster having been taken of the seal. By the combined use of water and sealing wax, however, all attempts to open the letter otherwise than by force can be frustrated. All that is necessary is to close the letter first with a small moist wafer and to pierce the latter with a coarse needle (the same applies to mucilage), whereupon sealing wax may be used in the usual manner. This seal can neither be opened by dry heat nor by moisture.

What "So Long" Means.

"You may have wondered, perhaps, how the slang expression, 'so long,' came to be so generally used," said a Columbia college lecturer the other day. "It is usually used in closing a conversation, and is simply a form of good-by. The Norwegians brought it to this country. In that land of the midnight sun, 'sa laeng' is a common form of farewell. It means the same as the 'au revoir' of the French. Among the early settlers in America were many Norwegians, and the phrase was picked up from them. They pronounce it with the 'g' softened and accompany it by a wave of the hand."

But Did Joseph Know?

Joseph T. Buckingham of Boston, one of the best writers and grammarians of his time, said that "not one scholar in a thousand ever received the least benefit from studying the rules of grammar before the age of 15 years."—Lyons Item.

SEEDING IN PROGRESS IN WESTERN CANADA.

Mild Weather is Bringing Thousands of Settlers.

The splendid yields of wheat, oats and barley produced by the farmers of Western Canada and the excellent prices received for the same, have been the means of giving an increased interest throughout the United States. As a result the inquiries made of the Agents of the Canadian Government have nearly doubled over those of the same period last year. Railroad companies are putting on increased carrying capacity to meet the demand made upon them for carrying passengers and freight. Everything points to a most prosperous year. There is room for hundreds of thousands additional settlers, much new land having been opened up for settlement this year.

It is quite interesting to look through the letters received from the Americans who have settled in Western Canada during the past few years, and considering how few there are who have not succeeded. An extract from a letter written by Mr. Geo. M. Griswold of Red Deer, Alta., formerly of Grover, Montana, written on the 2nd of January is as follows:

"I am located 1½ miles from a beautiful lake 10 miles long, where there is church, school, 3 stores, creamery and two postoffices. The fine stock, both cattle (cows and steers) horses, hogs and sheep are rolling fat, grazing in pasture to-day, just a little snow, hardly enough for good sleighing, as we just had a Chinook which has melted the roads and laid bare the fields and pasture. There are fine wheat, oats, barley and flax raised here, also winter wheat and timothy hay for export to British Columbia. This is a mixed farming and dairy country. This is the right time to get a foothold in the Canadian West, as it was some years ago in the United States. We are free from wild gumbo and alkali here and have fine, clear soft well and spring water at a depth of from 5 to 25 feet, and lots of open overhanging springs."

Telegraphic advices from Medicine Hat say that seeding has commenced at Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and other points. At the former place the temperature moderated gradually until on the 19th the maximum was 45 and the minimum 26. Thermometer readings since then have been as follows: 20th, 47 and 38; 21st, 51 and 34; 22nd, 56 and 39; 23rd, 43 and 40; 24th, 43 and 26.

During the last few days in February considerable ploughing was done near Lethbridge. P. A. Pulley, a recent arrival from Montana, ploughed and harrowed fifteen acres, and E. Lallibor about the same amount. Rev. Coultter White has also been harrowing his farm. All report the ground frost free and in excellent condition. Bricklaying has also begun in town. At Hartney further east on the 25th February the sun was warm and bright, wheeled carriages were in use and the plowed fields look as if they are ready for the press drills. There is every appearance that spring has arrived, but farmers do not wish to be deceived by appearances and consequently have not commenced to use their bluestone and seed wheat.

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

Is it any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

ORDERED UP HOME RUNS.

When the Chemistry Professor Paralyzed the Professional Coach.

Eddie Ashenback, one of baseball's best comedians, dropped into the Cleveland training camp down at Atlanta the other day and told this story.

"I was coaching the University of North Carolina ball team in 1902," remarked Ash, "and I was out with the squad one day when the professor of chemistry came over with a note book full of advice. He was an officious animal and handed me all kinds of wise tips how to run a team. Finally he walked up with this:

"Oh—I say—coach!"

"Yes, professor," said I, "what is it?"

"When you get a man on each corner of the bases—have the bases quite occupied, as it were—I wish you would instruct the batter to knock the ball over yonder," and he pointed to a bunch of weeds four and a half miles away. If it was a foot. Ordering up home runs like ham and eggs or a bottle of beer.

"I thought he was joking at first until I saw he meant it. 'Have I got to do this and hold my job?' I asked him. 'If I have what times does the next train leave?"

"Well, before I got through I had to compromise and agree to have the trick turned every other time."

Mamma's Company Voice.

"Who is that in the parlor, Nellie?" asked the little sister.

"Nobody but mamma and Fred," replied Nellie.

"Oh, yes, there must be someone else," rejoined the little girl, "for mamma has her company voice on."

It was a little squib under the heading of "Fun," which a member of the family read aloud from the paper. The circle about the table who heard it smiled and one said, "That's a good joke." But a more thoughtful member turned it over in her mind. She was the mother, and she admitted to herself that it was more than a joke—that in many instances it was sober truth. It came home to her heart with great significance, for she acknowledged to herself that "the company voice" was entirely too often put on when in the presence of those outside the home circle. We wish to appear at our best before those whose good opinions we desire to gain. But with those who love us how often we speak in irritable, harsh, quick tones.

Facing the Facts.

I'd be quick to seize Wedlock's fond blisses. Were I not so by poverty cursed, True inside that "on coffee and kisses" We could live very well at the first. But to quite catch her view I'm unable. Though I know, were I pushed to the wall, I could surely provide for our table. If coffee and kisses were all.

Perhaps in my views I'm archaic, Unromantic and lacking in dreams; But this "love in a cot" grows prosaic. No odds how attractive it seems. For a purser, suite, royal of burlesk, No cash to provide can I call. Though a home I feel sure I could furnish. If coffee and kisses were all.

There'd be carpets to buy, chairs and pictures, Hall portiers, fanciful vases; Rugs, curtains of lace, rods and fixtures, And what's more unromantic—a stove! How I wish it were right, Puer's contention. For marriage, whatever might befall, Would be easy as drawing a pension. If coffee and kisses were all. —Roy Farrell Greene

Had Big Game in Net.

When Gov. Gen. Treppoff of St. Petersburg was chief of police in Moscow, before the establishment of the state liquor monopoly, he was told from the highest quarters to suppress the orgies at popular resorts in the town. A few days later the police raided the principal restaurants after midnight and the next morning Gen. Treppoff asked of his august master directions for the prosecution of one member of the imperial family, two judges of the high court, a mayor and deputy mayor, several generals and many women well known in Moscow society, who, among others, had been arrested in the "cabinets particulieres" of the great restaurants of the town. The matter ended there.

Something as Good.

A lady who is a lover of books entered a book store in Detroit.

"Have you the last Literary Digest?" she asked.

The clerk was a young woman, and evidently a novice at bookselling.

"I'll see," she said, and presently returned to say the magazine wanted was not in stock.

"I'm very anxious to get a copy," said the lady.

"I'll look again," said the obliging clerk, and in a few minutes returned.

"I'm sorry, but the last copy has been sold. But I have something here that I think will do as well"; and she handed the amazed customer a copy of "What to Eat and How to Cook It"—Detroit Free Press.

"Put the Hellum Aport."

It adds to the impressiveness of a pulpit discourse to dwell at some length on certain points; but this sometimes has been overdone.

An earnest preacher who, in warning sinners against the rocks of ruin, had brought up the favorite illustration of a ship in imminent danger of going to pieces on a reef, was prolonging the horror of the scene, demanding what must be done, etc., when he was interrupted by an impatient sailor among his listeners with:

"Put the hellum aport, you lubber, and luff!"—The Sunday Magazine.

Liquid Air.

Dr. Maxim Boyd states that the first pint of liquid air which Prof. Dewar made cost about $4,000 and was the largest quantity then made. To-day, eight years after, it is possible to manufacture one litre (nearly two pints) for about 50 cents.

PE-RU-NA CONQUERS CATARRH THE WORLD OVER.

The Population of the Earth is 1,400,000,000.

One Million Die Annually of Catarrh.

PERUNA has been successfully introduced in CANADA, MEXICO, WEST INDIES, AFRICA, and the ORIENT.

ALL over the world Peruna is known and used for catarrhal diseases. The Peruna Girl has traveled 'round the globe.

Her face is familiar everywhere that civilization reaches.

Universally Praised.

From Africa to Greenland, from Manchuria to Patagonia, the face of the Peruna girl is familiar and the praises of Peruna as a catarrh remedy are heard.

Successful in North and South.

Peruna crossed the Equator several years ago, to find in the Southern Hemisphere the same triumphant success that has marked its career in the Northern Hemisphere.

A Standard.

It cures catarrh by eradicating it from the system.

Permanent Cure.

It obviates the necessity of all local treatment and its relief is of permanent character.

Without a Peer.

No other remedy has so completely dominated the whole earth as Peruna.

In every tongue.

In all languages its glowing testimonials are written.

In all climes the demands for Peruna increase.

PERSONALITY OF "AUTOCRAT."

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes Described by One Who Knew Him.

Mrs. Rebecca Harding Davis writes of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes: "Physically, he was a very small man, holding himself erect—his face insignificant as his figure, except for a long obstinate upper lip ('left to me,' he said one day, 'by some ill-conditioned great-grandmother'), and eyes full of a wonderful fire and sympathy. No one on whom Dr. Holmes had once looked with interest ever forgot the look—or him. He attracted all kinds of people as a brilliant, excitable child would attract them. But nobody, I suspect, ever succeeded in being familiar with him. I remember one evening that he quoted one of his poems, and I was forced stupidly to acknowledge that I did not know it. He fairly jumped to the bookcase, took out the volume and read the verses, standing in the middle of the room, his voice trembling, his whole body thrilling with their meaning. 'There!' he cried at the end, his eyes flashing, 'could anybody have said that better? Ah!' with a long in-drawn breath of delight as he put the book back."

Millions of vegetables.

When the Editor read 10,000 plants for 10c, he could hardly believe it, but upon second reading finds that the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., than whom there are no more reliable and extensive seed growers in the world, makes

1,000 fine, solid Cabbages, 2,000 rich, juicy Turnips, 2,000 blanching, nutty Celery, 2,000 rich, buttery Lettuce, 1,000 splendid Onions, 1,000 rare, luscious Radishes, 1,000 gloriously brilliant Flowers,

ALL FOR BUT 15c POSTAGE, providing you will return this notice, and if you will send them 25c in postage, they will add to the above a package of famous Berliner Cauliflower. [W. N. U.]

A Word From Australia.

Walter H. Woodward, Bomadier Royal Australian Artillery, Hobart, Tasmania, writes:

"I suffered for several years with a distressing condition of the head and throat, caused by continual colds.

"My head and nostrils were stopped up most of the time and there was a discharge, and my sense of smell was affected badly.

"After two weeks use of Peruna I found this condition quite changed, and so I continued to use this remarkable medicine for over a month.

"I am very glad to say that at the end of that time I was cured and felt in fine health generally, and am pleased to give Peruna my honest endorsement."

From Hawaii.

Prince Jonah Kahanianole, delegate in Congress from Hawaii, writes from Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I can cheerfully recommend your Peruna as a very effective remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble."

A Cuban Minister.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, writes from Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. It is an excellent strengthening tonic, and is also an efficacious cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."—Gonzalo De Quesada.

From All Quarters of the Globe.

We have on file thousands of testimonials like those given above. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast number of grateful letters Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving from all quarters of the globe in behalf of his famous catarrh remedy, Peruna.

Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

This has made LION COFFEE the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Two Cancers Removed.

Chronic Diseases of Lungs Cured in Six Months by a Prominent Jackson Physician After Seven Other Physicians Failed to Give Relief.

R. P. D. No. 6.
Jackson, Mich., Jan. 17, 1905.
My wife was very sick with throat, lung, stomach and heart trouble for five years. She could not speak above a whisper for many months and she expected that she would die every day. Everything she ate disagreed with her, and her throat and mouth were a regular running abscess for months. She was very weak and terribly emaciated. We tried several of Jackson's and other cities' reputable physicians, but none of them gave her relief. I had about lost all hope of her ever recovering, when I took her to Dr. Wilkinson, 25 Dwight Building, Jackson, Mich., last March, when she began to improve at once. He had her comfortable in a few weeks, and in six months he had cured her completely. It has been three months now since she took any medicine, and she has gained forty pounds in weight and is strong and hearty. She eats everything she wants, and no exposure affects her. In this case, at least, Dr. Wilkinson has cured one that several other doctors pronounced incurable.

CANCER CURED.

R. P. D. No. 4.
Grass Lake, Mich., Feb. 2, 1905.
I had two cancers on my face—one on chin and one on left cheek—for five months. The one on my chin was as large as a silver dollar. I failed to get relief elsewhere so I called on Dr. Wilkinson, of Jackson, Mich., Dec. 21, 1904. He removed two large cancers, and today the wounds are completely healed up for the first, and the indications are now that I am completely cured.
