COSTS $2,741 EACH DAY.

Asylums-There Are 5,594 of Them, at 49 Cents a Day for Each.

Few people realize what it costs the the state institutions, and most people, when they hear the figures, are greatly surprised. Figuring on the exact number of insane patients who are state charges in the six different state asylums today, the state is put to an expense of $2,741.50 daily for their main-

The rate of maintenance per day for each patient is decided annually by the joint asylum boards, under the old law. At the last meeting of these boards it was figured that 49 cents each day would cover the cost of maintenance of each insane patient dependent upon the state. The sum total for each institution must be made to cover all running expenses of the asylum, with the single exception of clothing for the patients, which is generally furnished by their

At present the 5.594 patients are divided among the state asylums as follows: Michigan asylum for the insane, at Kalamazoo, 1,635; Eastern Michigan asylum for the insane, at Pontiac, 1,223; Northern asylum for the insane, at Traverse City, 1,226; state asylum for insane criminals, at Ionia, 305; Upper Peninsula hospital for the insane, at Newberry, 610; Home for the feeble minded and epileptie, at Lapeer, 595.

It is a curious fact that in some of these institutions patients are cared for at 49 cents per day who are a weekly expense to the state of $20 or more, because of the expensive treatment they require and the constant care. These are, of course, extreme cases that tend to bring up the average rate. Under the law passed by the last legislature, the rate of maintenance will hereafter be decided by the joint asyum boards, acting in conjunction with the board of state auditors, and their estimates will be subject to the governor's veto. It is expected that the rate decided upon next year will be some what higher than 49 cents. Owing to the difference in coal supplies required and transportation rates on material, the northern asylums are both ends meet at 49 cents per day.

TO SET DEED ASIDE.

Helen A. Raywalt McNicol, of Dexter, by her solicitor, J. W. Bennett, has filed a bill to set aside a deed she gave to her brother, William H. Field. and Irene, his wife, November 4, 1895. She alleges that at the time she gave the deed she was "in very feeble and infirm health and her life was frequently despaired of, and that her mind was Bank Drug Store. greatly weakened and enfeebled by reason of her suffering and sickness, and that she was entirely incapacitated and unable to transact any business of any nature whatever, and especially to care for her interests and property rights in the manner in which they should have been tended to." TWO WOOL LESSONS. The great demand for wool in this country during the last few months is evidenced by the fact that the imports for the fiscal year ending June 30 will probably amount to nearly 250,000,000 pounds. The home output has practically all been taken at prices in excess of any obtained in recent years, and still the demand is not fully satisfied. Coupled with the strong wool situation, from the growers' viewpoint, is the fact that lambs and sheep have brought high prices for slaughtering purposes. Indications are that these conditions will become tolerably permanent. The demand for wool should never be much less than it has been this year, and the taste for lamb and mutton is on the in- $7,500. creese. These facts should be all the inducement necessary for the upbuilding of a great American sheep and lamb industry. There is no reason why this country, with its vast pasturage, should import any wool whatsoever, except

GOOD ROADS.

Now that road working is the order of the day, a few words on the subject may not be amiss. What makes good roads? First of all thorough drainage, even to clearing the sides of all brush that keeps the sun and wind from drying up the roadbed. Next make the roadbed high, and wide enough for teams to pass. Secure a good bed by leveling and rolling, then put all the labor allotted in hauling clay and gravel, or just gravel if it is properly mixed with lime as it is here. Five years ago this was begun here and you will travel many miles and not find as good a roadbed as these rules carried out have resulted in.

If the land owners don't stir them selves soon in this direction they will soon find themselves paying a heavy road tax in hard dollars, as it would take all now allotted to pay men to manage the work, and an equal amount

Get a move on, and in five years you will find yourselves passing through the country with ease and pleasure, as can be proven by a visit to the good road on Maple avenue. Let the good work go forward.

Yours for honest road work by the property owners, W. H. G.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris says he has received confirmation of the report that the czar has decided to take formal steps through Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador, to arrange an armistice. But reports from Washington show that suggestions for an armistice have not been received with absolute favor by either Russia or Japan. Quite an advantage over the other in the diplomatic sparring that is going on now, and among those in touch with the situation it is regarded as unlikely that definite arrangements for an armistice will be concluded-even if they should be concluded at all-before the formal meeting of the plenipotentiaries of the two powers.

As heretofore noted, there is serious apprehension that unless a temporary suspension of hostilities be arranged, a great battle may be precipitated, the result of which might wreck completely the pending peace negotiations. It was expected confidently that an announcement of the names of the envoys of the two powers to the Washington conference be made by the end. of last week; but, as a matter of fact, the negotiations have not progressed in the least since Tuesday. That both their representatives at the conference is quite certain, but each government, for reasons of its own, declines to make formal announcement of them. Peace negotiations have come to a dead halt on account of the illness of Count Lamsdorff, the Russian minister for foreign affairs. It is explained, officially, that nothing but that the negotiations merely have | mortgages. been suspended temporarily.

The liberal press greets the demise of the far eastern committee with a howl of exultation as being the final blow to the policy which led to the present war.

Scenes in Lodz.

The Russian-Polish city of Lodz presents a sickening scene of blood and death as a result of last week's riots. The trouble began on Tuesday, the 20th, after the funeral of the victims of the conflict between troops and terrorists the previous Sunday. The Christians were permitted to bury their dead, but the Jews were prohibited from doing so and the people secretly interred the bodies of the Jews at night, which exicted indignation and terrorists riots were initiated Thursday. These modifications are relied on to head of the threatened boycott of American goods by the Chinese. The president's decision to order a less rigid enforcement of the law indicates that there is at least a marked difference of opinion between him and Secretary Metcalf, who has charge of immigration, and there are indications of rather serious friction between them. Mr. Metcalf is from California, where the sentiment against the Chinese is strongest, and the president thinks he is thinking more of the interests of the section from which he comes than of the interests of the whole country.

Two freight steamers, the Linden and City of Rome, were sunk in a collision off Tashmoo Park at 4 o'clock Friday morning, and the steward and his wife, of the former vessel, were drowned. The City of Rome, which was bound down with a cargo of ore, went down immediately after the collision, about 50 feet from the Tashmoo Park dock, and the Linden, which was bound up with a coal cargo, kept on her way up to Russel island, where she went down in the middle of the channel. The crews of both boats succeeded in getting away in their yawls, with the exception of the Linden's cook and his wife, who are reported missing. The accident was caused by the suction of a big propeller bound up which made the Linden veer around and crash into the City of Rome. A large hole was torn into the bows of both steamers.

Sayaji Roo Known as Rockefeller of India.

It is believed that Sayaji Roo, the rajah of Baroda, is the possessor of wealth equal if not superior to that of John D. Rockefeller. He was educated in an English university and his people are well governed. Much of clous stones. His wife owns the most famous diamond necklace in the world. It is worth $12,000,000 and is made up of 200 stones, each the size of a hazelnut. She also has a collarette of 500 perfect diamonds, none less than twenty carats. In the treasure chamber is a carpet four square yards in surface, made up entirely of ropes of diamonds, pearls and rubies. It required $4,-000,000 worth of gems and three years of labor. The long corridors of the palace are lined with marbles and onyx of incalculable value. The palace is steam heated and electric elevators are placed at frequent intervals. Bronzes, paintings, statuary, all imported, and worth many millions of dollars, are scattered throughout the royal dwelling.

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier first made Mr. Tarte minister of public panies, nine in the United States, one subsequently arose and Mr. Tarte nes is his recreation, taking place of works. Differences of political opinion retired. He now devotes himself exclusively to his profession as a journalist and sits in the reporters' gallery of the Canadian house of commons. He recently remarked: "I am happy and prospering in my own legitimate newspaper line. I am free to do and write what my brain and conscience dictate. The salary of the governor general would not tempt me to shoulder again the burden of a ministerial portfolio." Mr. Tarte was at one time the chief organizer of the Canadian conservative party, but he transferred his services to the liberals, with whom he is now out of touch.

BARRIE'S LIFE OF SUCCESS.

Novelist Has Known Few of the Ordinary Struggles.

Mr. Barrie has recently passed his forty-fifth birthday. It is some twenty years ago that he went to London to win fame and fortune by his pen. Speaking of the early days of his career at a banquet recently Mr. Barrie his vast riches is in the form of pre said: "I wrote and asked the editor who had printed 'Thrums' if I should come to London, and he said no, so I went, laden with charges from my mother to walk in the middle of the street (they jump out on you as you are turning the corner), never to venture forth after sunset, and always to lock up everything-I who never locked up anything except my heart in company." Mr. Barrie's career reads like a romance. Going to London with a few manuscripts in his pockets and countless stories in his head, against the advice of his publisher, at 30 he was one of the most popular novelists of the day at 40 one of the most successful damatists.

ODD MOMENTS OF VALUE.

George Westinghouse Finds Little Need for Recreation.

George Westinghouse of Pittsburg, who has been chosen to act as trustee in the Equitable society's affairs, controls fifteen great manufacturing comhorses and picture galleries, which other hard-worked millionaires find necessary to rest their tired faculties. As an inventor he takes high rank. On one occasion, while engineering a large financial movement in New York city, an idea for a mechanical device suggested itself. As soon as possible he took the train for Pittsburg, busying himself while en route by drawing a sketch of the proposed invention, On reaching his destination he drove to one of his factories and, placing the drawing in the hands of a master workman, said: "Make that." The machine proved to be a great success.

Value of Hard ork.

All the records of history and all the facts of common experience support the statement that men do not dio of hard work, but that hard-working men who shun dissipation and avoid all waste of vitality live the longest. It was said of William Pitt that he died of old age in his fortyseventh year, worn out, not by hard work, though he worked hard, but by by inattention to his health and by unphilosophic worry and chagrin. President Roosevelt to-day in his fortyseventh year displays the exuberant energy of youth, not because he leads an easy life, but because, while working harder probably than any other officer of the government, he pays, as he has always paid, close attention to his health, and avoids the means of weakness and debility.-Boston Globe.

MEN OF BUSINESS RECOGNIZE ADVANTAGES OF ACETYLENE.

Famous Summer Hotel, the Grand Union of Saratoga, Has Installed This Best of All Artificial Lights-Means Increased Comfort and Saratoga, June 27.—The very name, "Saratoga," brings to every mind health-giving springs, unsurpassed hotels and beautiful drives. It than a thousand authentic instances for health, or are simply taking a vacation.

> The Grand Union, the largest summer hotel in the United States, set among green trees with its long wings enclosing a court with fountains and flowers, grass and trees, music and light, is throughout the season thronged with guests. With the progressive spirit always shown by its management, the Grand Union has again added to its attractiveness by introducing acetylene gas to make still more brilliant the evening hours. The genial proprietors believe in furnishing their guests with the best of everything, and now, after investigating and finding that Artificial Sunlight can be had, they have installed a complete acetylene gas plant to produce it, and have connected upwards of six thousand acetylene burners in and about the house and grounds to this little gas plant.

Like many discoveries of recent years, which are coming into popular favor, acetylene, one of the most rethe house. Shred him of all of his high, and Paul Oval about 19 inches, light is needed and the necessary apparatus can be understood and operated by anyone.

The generator in which Acetylene is produced by the automatic contact of carbide and water might be termed a gas plant, as it performs all of the functions of a city gas plant. The acetylene generator can be purchased for a few dollars and in any size, from one adapted to furnish acetylene to ten or a dozen burners for a cottage, up to the large but still simple machine such as is now furnishing Acetylene for six thousand burners in the Grand Union.

Outside of large cities the use of Acetylene is quite common. The owner of the country home now demands running water, gas and other conveniences which a few years ago were considered as luxuries, and acetylene gas has met his requirements, and gives him a better and cheaper light than is ordinarily furnished in cities.

It is well known that rooms lighted with Acetylene are more comfortable, because cooler, and more healthful because the air is not vitiated.

Perhaps the earliest protection to trees in the colonies was in Massachusetts, for in 1637 Watertown was moved to pass a vote at town meeting "to mark the shade trees by the roadside with a 'W' and fining any person who shall fell one of the trees thus marked eighteen shillings," says Mrs. Charles F. The big increase came in the local a ts, of which seventy-five more were signed than two years ago.

The French government contributes to the encouragement of agriculture by giving prizes and medals for stock and implements annually in the twelve districts into which the country is divided, and by giving a prize of $10,000 in money and a silver cup worth $600 to the owner of the best farm in one of six or seven departments contained in each of these twelve districts. In 1861 the prizes given for cattle amounted to over $80,000, of which $13,000 was bestowed on Shorthorns and $0,000 on Shorthorn crosses; $17.144 was given in prizes for sheep, and $7,260 for pigs $21,600 was bestowed in prizes for wellkept or improved farms and the men employed thereon.

Combination among farmers for th insurance of cattle is a noteworthy feature of agricultural economy in Belgium. In 1901 there were 729 mutual nsurance societies numbering 67,000 members, who owned 108,000 cattle imong them. That there are real advantages in belonging to such societies would appear from the rapidity with which they increase when the nature of heir operations is understood. In the province of Luxembourg at the begining of 1900 there was not one cattle isurance society; by the end of 1901 here were thirty-three; during 1901 o fewer than thirty-seven mutual soties for the insurance of horses and ven for the insurance of goats. The worst weather during the whole trip was in the Straits of Magellan, where for three days thick and foggy weather was experienced. Outside Cape Pillar, in the Pacific, more rough weather was run into, but the Atlas and her tow met with no serious trouble. Not a single vessel was sighted after leaving the straits, and the Atlas and her tow were not even in communication with each other. The Atlas is a tank steamer, and left New York with 15,000 barrels of fuel oil in her hold. All but 5,000 barrels of this cargo was used for fuel on the way. The barge left New York with 21,000 barrels, or 1,255,000 -gallons of naphtha, in addition to several thousand barrels of fuel oil that was consumed on the way in operating her steam steering gear and winches with which she is provided.

Marylard, received the resignation of John Jay of New York from the American commercial commission abroad, Mr. Jay being the colleague of Benjamin Franklin and John Adams and Mr. Jefferson, then a member of the congress from Virginia, was elected to the vacancy.

It was at a time when Mr. Jefferson was emerging from the one great sorrow of his life, the loss of Mrs. Jefferson, and the stricken statesman gladly accepted a mission which would take him away from his desolated home and give him such engrossing public work as could not fail to prove beneficial in the end. So he speedily arranged his home matters his $9,000 salary in advance, and with his eldest daughter, Martha Jefferson. then a young girl of ten years, the future president proceeded leisurely eastward in quest of a ship that was bound for a French port.

Renunciation is Necessary for Genius in Literature.

Why is so much of our present literary output so unrelated to literature, so depressingly banal, so devoid of distinction, power and vitality? Is the answer merely that greatness is rare in all ages, and this chances to be a period of exceptional sterility? Or is it the result of the marked vulgarity of prevailing ideals? Not only our writers measure success by popularity, but the trend of criticism itself is to magnify the importance of a wide appeal. A high degree of excellence has of Buddhism, gives an interesting account of the revival of this ancient re ligion. The study of the Pali, it says has revealed to educated men in the Western world the hidden stores of Buddhism, which soon began to exert a constantly growing influence on ground prepared by the philosophy of Schopenhauer. This revivification of Buddhist ideas reacted powerfully on the Orient, and newly founded societies, schools and newspapers in Buddhist Asia are proving that fresh vigor has found its way into the old tree. The revival is especially noticeable in Ceylon and India.

Its Agricultural Industries Make Country Self-Sustaining.

Though manufacturing industries have had a remarkable growth in Japan during recent years, agriculture still maintains its own as the leading source of wealth. The oriental country can feed its own inhabitants and does not have to keep its eyes upon the graneries of other nations. To the fact that the country is mainly agricultural some eminent Japanese statesmen have attributed its ability to continue a long and gruelling war. DIVORCE AMONG THE RICH.

Idleness a Great Cause of Matrimonial Disagreements.

In the shocking cases of perfidy absence of strenuous, compulsory occupation is in itself a temptation to crime. The idle man or woman, whose sole interest in life is in the pursuit of pleasure inevitably becomes sated with its different forms. All of the ingenuity which can be expended upon inventions of new sorts of food, new ways of serving, new entertainment, really avails little. After all is said and done a banquet is only a banquet, a cotillon is only a cotillon, and even operas and theaters after a few years begin to seem strangely and dully alike. A new emotion, a new sensation-something which money can not buy-this becomes the only fresh and desirable thing on earth .-Leslie's Weekly.

Criticism of American Girls. Lady Helen Forbes, in an English woman's periodical, has been considering "how superior a product the American girl is to the American man.' But going further, she spoils this statement by adding that this "product" is 'educated for conquest." At the age when the European girl is thinking of dolls and chocolates the American girl, she says, is taking a connoisseur's interest in her dress and personal appearance, and while her European contemporary is still "plunged in shyness in my condition, and within a and gaucherie" she is "dreaming not so much of lovers as of husbands."

Then we get swill from hotels and boarding houses, meat scraps from butcher shops, decayed vegetables and fruits from grocery stores, wood ashes from private houses and manufactories-all of these things go into the compost heap in lay-

Over the meat scraps and bones w sprinkle phosphoric acid, and manage so that the bones are well buried in ashes or lime. Occasionally we get a dead dog, or horse, or sow, or fish offal into the heap, taking care that such things are deodorized in order to avoid bad sanitary conditions. In that way, when fall comes on, we have a com-County Surveyer Allen of Ypsilanti post heap that is worth many dollars, and besides that we have done a good ate disease. It is easy for any gardener who lives near the city to gather up these things, and as soon as people find out he will do it he will have plenty Of the two hundred and seventeen of calls and need not spend any time

In the fall, after the weather gets cool, it is a good plan to shovel or fork over the heap and thoroughly mix all of the ingredients together. In doing this, if the heap appears to be heavy and soggy, a few barrels of unslaked lime, gypsum or phosphoric acid may be worked into it with fine results.

The following spring this compost may be scattered over the garden and plowed under, or it may be used for planting squash, cucumbers, cabbage, cauliflower, or any other crop that re quires rich ground. We simply dig a hole and throw two or three spadefuls into the opening. A little earth is mixed in the hill and the seed or plants put into the mixture. The result will always pay liberally in the case of most any crop.-Ex.

Neuralgia And Other

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stabbing, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness. Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

"For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules, until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.
