

The Chelsea Star Herald

VOLUME XIX. NO. 4.

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1907.

WHOLE NUMBER 940

The Chelsea Savings Bank

Presents the following figures for your thoughtful consideration:

Capital,	$100,000.00
Surplus and Profits,	$102,503.15
Total Resources, over	$1,000,000.00

To Thoughtful People looking for a safe place to keep their money, or transact their banking business, these figures mean MUCH.

The CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK is the OLDEST and STRONGEST BANK in western Washtenaw county.

Our Capital and Surplus is over three times greater than any other bank in western Washtenaw county. Our Board of Directors are men of known business ability and integrity, men who have made a success of business, by fair and square business methods, which is evidenced by the fact that they pay more taxes on real estate and personal property than the Directors of any other Bank in Washtenaw county.

Money to Loan on Good Approved Security.

We solicit your Banking business and guarantee prompt, honest and courteous treatment.

THE CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK.

OFFICERS.

FRANK P. GLAZIER, President.
W. J. KNAPP, Vice President. JOHN W. SCHENK, Vice President.
THEO. E. WOOD, Cashier. P. G. SCHABLE, Assistant Cashier.
A. K. STIMSON, Auditor. GEORGE A. LEHMAN, Accountant.

Sweet, Juicy Oranges.

We have just received a shipment of oranges which are sweet and juicy at from 17c to 50c per dozen.

Canned Vegetables	Dried Fruits.
3 can corn, 25c	Prunes, 6 pounds 25c
Good peas, per can 10c	Prunes, large and meaty 2 pounds 25c
Small wax beans, per can 15c	Peaches, pound packages 20c
Good tomatoes, per can 10c	Heinz mince meat, per pound 15c
Lake shore pumpkin, 3 cans for 25c
Chief brand of sugar corn, per can 15c	Fish and Sardines.
Spinach, can 15c	Family white fish in 8 pound pails 55c
Heinz tomato soup 18c can for 15c	Mackerel, each 10c
Baked beans, plain or with tomato sauce, 3 cans 25c	Best imported sardines, per can 15c to 30c
	2 cans red salmon 25c

BROOMS.

We claim to have the best brooms in town at from 20c to 40c.

AT THE BUSY STORE OF

FREEMAN BROS.

SALOONIST PARKER LOOKS PROSPEROUS

Bound Over to the March Term of the Circuit Court for Trial on the Charge of Running a Gambling Room.

"Doc" Avery, "Onion" Snyder and "Senator" Witherell Would Not "Incriminate" Themselves.

The following was taken from the Ann Arbor Daily News of February 26: Chelsea was enlightened yesterday in many things, and among them was the presence, the condition and the customs in vogue in Saloonist Parker's gambling den, which occupied the upper room over his saloon.

So far as can be seen, this double business was Parker's chief means of support, and to judge by Saloonist Parker's appearance at the trial, it was a good means and fairly lucrative. Indeed, Mr. Parker was well clothed and well supplied with good gems of the first water, one of which flashed defiantly from his shirt front and another from his hand as he listened to the testimony advanced. In fact, Saloonist Parker showed every evidence of having risen to a point of affluence during the dozen years in which he has maintained his illegal gambling business, which communicated with the outer world only through one little door at the foot of the stairs which opened into the bar-room. Yes, Saloonist Parker is certainly in easy circumstances in direct contrast to those in which he came to Chelsea.

Further, Chelsea was enlightened as to a "kitty," which is a slot in the table through which the chips which represent good, hard earned dollars are sometimes dropped when a "rake-off" isn't played.

Catherine Girbach was first sworn and testified that she owned and rented the entire building to John B. Parker. Harold Glazier, Dr. A. L. Steger, Martin Wackenhut and Frank Leach all testified to having been in the upper room over the saloon kept by Parker; that the room was used for gambling and that drinks were served from the saloon below, sometimes by Saloonist Parker himself. The testimony showed the presence of a "kitty," of poker chips and that a "banker," from whom the chips were purchased, was in attendance and that a "rake-off" was sometimes kept by the house when the "kitty" was not played. It was further shown that the drinks were sometimes paid for in money and sometimes in chips and that the chips went into the "kitty" which went to the house.

Conrad Lehman, who is also a saloon keeper in Chelsea, was sworn and said that he had seen Saloonist Parker in the room. He testified to the fact that chips were generally bought of the banker and that after the playing was over these chips were cashed in and that the players did not always have as many chips when they cashed in as when they started. He said they always kept what they had at the finish, however.

Both Dr. H. H. Avery and Ex-Onion King R. A. Snyder were forgetful and afraid of incriminating themselves. It is said, however, that neither Reuben Kempf of Ann Arbor nor H. S. Holmes of Chelsea have been asked the value of those diamonds including the noble onion which the ex-king still wears.

Dr. Avery was next sworn. His testimony was of the "I don't know" type. The only thing he did know was that he lived in Chelsea, is a dentist, and knows Saloonist Parker and where his place of "business" is located.

Question: "Have you ever been in the room over the saloon?"

Dr. Avery: "I refuse to answer."

Pressed for an answer he said he had.

Question: "Were you ever in the room when there was gambling going on?"

Dr. Avery: "I refuse to answer, as it might incriminate me."

Ex-Onion King R. A. Snyder testified that he was a gentleman of leisure, i.e., that he has no particular business at present. That he knows Saloonist John B. Parker and where his saloon is located. He then testified further that he had been in the saloon, and step by step he was led to admit that he had been in the room over the saloon, which is reached by the single door from the saloon. Then, after making so many admissions, the ex-onion magnate became afraid and refused to say whether he had been in the room when gambling was going on, for fear of INCRIMINATING himself.

H. D. Witherell was sworn. He said he was a lawyer by profession, knew Parker and where his PLACE OF BUSINESS IS CONDUCTED.

Question: "Have you ever been in a room over his saloon where poker games are conducted?"

Lawyer Witherell: "I refuse to answer the question on the ground that it might have a tendency to accuse me of a misdemeanor."

This closed the examination of Saloonist Parker and his friends of the peanut brigade, who had been as busy as a small boy at a circus, climbed over the pile of shucks and adjourned to the street corner to wait until court convened to try Emmet's case.

Meanwhile Saloonist Parker was bound over to the circuit court, March term, on a thousand dollar bond furnished by H. S. Holmes and Chas. Fish.

Louis Emmet, like Saloonist Parker, is a well-groomed, prosperous looking individual. Like Parker, he wears diamonds and, like him, seemed unabashed by the fact that he was a lawbreaker on trial for a notorious crime. Emmet was defended by Lawyers Witherell and Turn-Bull, the former of whom was himself a witness in the preceding case, having been seen in the gambling room over Saloonist Parker's by other witnesses.

At 4 o'clock the examination of Louis Emmet, on the charge of conducting a saloon without a license, was heard. When court convened, Attorney Turn-Bull asked that the case be dismissed on the ground that the statute under which the defendant was arrested has been declared unconstitutional on the ground that the surety on a bond remains a surety until the end of the year and can't withdraw.

Emmet was discharged on this case, but has already been bound over to the circuit court on the charge of maintaining a gambling house.

LINAL WARD.

Has Lived in Lima Since 1835 on the Same Farm Which Was Located by His Father.

Linal Ward, of Lima, was born May 25, 1819, in the State of New York, and died at his home, Thursday, February 21, 1907, aged 87 years, 8 months and 26 days. The deceased came to Michigan in 1835 with his parents, and has spent his entire life on the farm in Lima, which his father located on in 1835.

Mr. Ward was united in marriage with Miss Mary Peck in 1845, and two children were born to them. Mrs. Ward died in 1857. In April, 1861, Mr. Ward married Martha Barch. The deceased is survived by the widow and one son, Merritt Ward, of Webster.

The funeral was held from his late home, Sunday afternoon, Rev. Thomas Holmes, D. D., of Chelsea, officiating. Interment in Lima Center cemetery.

The Farmers' Institute.

The two days meeting of the Washtenaw Farmers' Institute Society held in the Chelsea opera house Thursday and Friday of last week, was very interesting and the different subjects by the state and local speakers were ably handled and called forth many hearty applause.

The attendance at the different sessions was not as large as had been anticipated it would be by the local committee in charge, but those who attended were well repaid for their time and trouble.

The state speakers who had charge, report that so far this year all of the one-day institutes have had a larger attendance than the two-day institutes and that the small attendance here was about the same as they have had at all of the two-day or county round-up institutes as they are commonly called.

The association will hold their meeting next year in Ann Arbor. Arthur Lyons, of Ann Arbor, was elected president of the society for the coming year and Mrs. B. D. Kelly, of Ypsilanti, was re-elected secretary.

Workingmen's Canons.

The Workingmen's party of the village of Chelsea will meet in caucus at the township hall, March 4, at 7 o'clock, p. m. standard time, for the purpose of placing in nomination, candidates for the various village offices for the ensuing year.

By order of the Committee. Dated, February 27, 1907.

A FINE RECEPTION

Held at the Home of Hon. Frank P. Glazier last Friday Evening—Introducing Harold P. Glazier and Wife.

A very pleasant event occurred at the elegant and hospitable home of Hon. and Mrs. Frank P. Glazier, last Friday evening, when over four hundred guests gathered in response to the invitations of the host and hostess to meet their son Harold Percy and his bride. That the young couple were signally honored may be judged by the number who called to meet them. The gathering, undoubtedly, was the largest one of its kind that has ever taken place in Chelsea. From eight until 10:30 o'clock there was a continuous line of arriving and departing guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Glazier were assisted by Messrs. C. M. Davis, F. H. Sweetland, G. P. Glazier, M. G. Hill, Alice K. Stimson, and Miss Mary Stimson, of Lansing. H. I. Stimson acting as usher.

Refreshments were served in the dining room under the direction of Misses Vera and Edna Glazier, assisted by several of their young lady friends. The punch bowl was presided over by the Misses Bessie Allen and Minola Kalmbach.

There were guests present from Detroit, Lansing and Ann Arbor.

The evening was not only one of brilliancy but very enjoyable to all who were present, and the expression of friendship for Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Glazier, who will reside in Chelsea, must have been very gratifying to the newly married couple.

Governor Hughes.

An unbiased canvass of the field for the next Republican presidential nomination would almost certainly name Taft and Hughes as having the best chance, conceding, of course, that Roosevelt continues resolute in his purpose not to consider a third term. The Washington's Birthday address in Ann Arbor presented the first opportunity for the people of the Middle West to study Gov. Hughes, at first hand, as a presidential possibility.

The vast body of the American populace is looking intently, deliberately, and with the keenest scrutiny, for a man fitted to continue the square deal administration of Roosevelt. The insurance investigation in New York has already convinced us that Hughes has many of the qualifications for such a service. His cleverness and skill at uncovering graft are only equalled by the dexterity of our corporation lawyers at covering it up. He displayed, too, a genius for mastering in a remarkably short time and making effective use of the dry details of the insurance business for many years; almost important qualification for the executive office, when we consider that a mere acquaintance with the ordinary routine of public service on the part of responsible heads, will do more than any other one thing to rid the public service of corruption.

There were a number of developments in the New York State campaign to convince us that his interest, his personal ideals, and all his ambitions are on the side of purity in politics and government. If one felt uncertain then about his qualification for higher office, it was not with reference to his moral quality or his mental capacity, but rather with reference to his physical resources, his constitutional strength, and his ability to withstand with resolution the immense pressure which is brought upon a president.

It was with a distinct feeling of surprise, then, that we found him strongest where we expected to see him weakest. His voice is rather strident but always strong. His few gestures are forceful rather than graceful. The whole bearing of the man gives an impression of powerful physique, not so much in brute strength as in permanence and stability. As he moves and speaks you are conscious of a reserve of vitality which is untouched and would remain untouched except in the greatest crisis. His high flat cheeks, which in his pictures suggest thin lungs and sluggish circulation, in his real presence are flushed with good red blood; while his low forehead has a knot of hard muscle above the brows which is more characteristic of the Englishman and native German than the American.

If one were to sum up personal impression in a single word it would be "resolution." You came away convinced of his determination to do absolutely what he believes it proper to do and nothing less. You cannot conceive of his being corrupted by money or position, any more than Roosevelt or Lincoln. You cannot conceive of his being bulldozed, or frightened, or cajoled or threatened from what he understands to be his simple duty.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores ruddy, sound health.

The New Wall Papers

ARE HERE.

We are prepared to show you the brightest, cleanest, newest stock of Wall Paper ever shown in Chelsea. We have selected the best designs and colorings from the leading manufacturers of this country. Our stock comes from such firms as Robt. Graves & Co., Becker, Smith & Page, The Gledhill Wall Paper Co., S. A. Maxwell & Co., and other equally well-known makers.

The Designs and Colorings

This year are more beautiful than ever before. There is nothing that will go so far toward refurbishing and beautifying the home (for the money expended) as artistic and harmonious wall hangings.

Perhaps the Home Looks Dingy and smoky; try as you will, you cannot make things look bright and cheery with the broom and dust cloth.

The Remedy is New Wall Paper.

Come in and let us show you what we have; how to treat the hanging of the different kinds and styles; ask to see our books of helpful hints about the decoration of the home.

Prices the Lowest at the Bank Drug Store.

L. T. FREEMAN.

THE LARGEST LINE

OF

SEWING MACHINES

Ever Shown in Chelsea.

Standard, White, Bartlett, Norwood,

And many others from $4 to $40.

New Furniture arriving every day. A few Bargains in Wood and Coal Heaters, and a large line of Ranges to select from. We have some snaps in Crockery and Bazaar Goods. Builders' Hardware a specialty. Lamb Wire Fence, the best along the Pike always on hand.

HOLMES & WALKER,

We Treat You Right.

The Latest Designs in Granite and Marble

I can furnish the latest designs in Monumental Work at reasonable prices. Besides the American Granites I can furnish any foreign granites, German, Scotch, French, etc.

S. A. MAPES.

Try our Job Department for your Printing.

RUBBERS. WARM AND COMFORTABLE FOR MEN.

All sizes and kinds. At prices that will make you smile. Come in and take a look at them.

Did you ever try a pound of our famous

OLD TAVERN COFFEE?

The best coffee in Michigan for the price.

John Farrell, Pure Food Store.

LIFE.
with Kid
S. DISPENSATORY
describes the Principal Ingredients Contained in Peru-na.
Are we claiming too much for Peru-na
when we claim it to be an effective remedy for chronic catarrh? Have we sufficient proof that Peru-na is in reality
a catarrh remedy? Let us see what the United States Dispensatory has to say of the principal ingredients of Peru-na.
Take, for instance, the ingredient peru-na canadensis, or golden seal.
The United States Dispensatory says of this herb, "that it is largely employed in the treatment of depraved secretions, chronic rheumatism, catarrhus vesicae, chronic cystitis,
catarrhus uterini, chronic dysmenstruam, and in diseases of the mucous membranes of the pelvic organs."
It is also recommended for the treatment of various forms of diseases peculiar to women.
Another ingredient of Peru-na, corydalis formosa, is classified in the United States Dispensatory as a tonic. So also is the cathartic classed as a stomachic and as a tonic for the mucous membranes.
Cedron seeds is another ingredient of Peru-na, an excellent drug that has been very largely overlooked by the medical profession for the past fifty years. The seeds are to be found in very few drug stores. The United States Dispensatory says of the action of cedron that it is used as a bitter purgative and in the treatment of dysentery, and in intermittent diseases as a substitute for quinine.
Oil of copaiba, another ingredient of Peru-na, is classified by the United States Dispensatory as a mild stimulant and astringent. It acts on the stomach and intestinal tract. It acts as a stimulant on the genito-urinary membranes, and in chronic cystitis, chronic dysmenstruam and diarrhea, and some chronic diseases of the liver and kidneys.
Send to us for a free book of testimonials of what the people think of Peruna as a catarrh remedy. The best evidence is the testimony of those who have tried it.
TRUE SPIRIT OF COURTESY.
Impulse Prompted by Owner's Nobility of Heart.
Courtesy is a quality of the heart and suggests a forgetfulness of self,
a refinement and delicacy of temperament that prompts the charming act of impulse.
The gentle spirit of courtesy betrays itself in the manner of addressing a servant or a weary assistant behind the counter as well as friends and acquaintances. A lack of courtesy often results from a mistaken idea as to one's own importance. The thought is born in the heart; but a false idea of independence presents action. It merely is an act of courtesy and a mark of nobility of mind voluntarily to resign one's right in favor of another.
It is the same mistaken idea that confuses frankness with rudeness. It is a virtue not to resort to the many petty deceptions that mar our social system. While we turn with disgust from the woman who bids her friend
an affectionate farewell one moment and breathes a sigh of relief at her departure the next, we can but admit that a truly courteous heart will remain from speaking an unpleasant word without imperiling the person's well-being.
Stimulate the Blood.
Brandreth's Pills are the great blood purifier. They are a laxative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, kidneys and skin, thus cleansing
the system by the natural outlet of the body. They stimulate the blood to enable nature to throw off all worldly humors and cure all troubles arising from an impure state of the blood. One or two taken every night will prove an invaluable remedy.
Each pill contains one grain of solid extract of sarsaparilla, which, with other valuable vegetable products,
make it a blood purifier unexcelled.
Brandreth's Pills have been in use for over a century, and are for sale everywhere, plain or sugar-coated.
Feminine Amenities.
Isn't that the poetess over there in the corner who came to see us after dinner the other night?" asked the girl, and we all over the place, telling us her tale of woe; wept so that I went out and got some things for her dinner and cooked them for her and you brought out a bottle of your very best wine and gave it to her!"
"Yes," returned the woman, "she doesn't seem to see us now, does she?"
The next time she comes to us with her tale of woe," affirmed the girl severely. "She won't see us, if we take a glimpse of her first."
Oats—Heads 2 Foot Long.
The John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., are bringing out a new oats this year with heads 2 foot long! That's a wonder. Their catalog tells:
"The greatest cereal hay food America ever saw! Catalog tells!"
FREE
Our mammoth 148-page Seed and Tool Catalog is mailed free to all intending buyers, or send 1c in stamps and receive free samples of new Two Foot Long Oats and other cereals and big catalog free.
John A. Salzer Seed Co., Box W, La Crosse, Wis.
One of the times to get busy is when you are discouraged and think there is no trying any more.

SEA STAND
A BILLIARD
By HARRIS DEEMS
(Copyright, 1906, by Joseph B. Bowles.)
Mr. James Hardon was a mild
looking young man, with light sandy
hair carefully parted down the center
of his head. That he looked milder
and younger than he really was,
may or may not have been his misfortune—it certainly was not his misfortune.
He had arrived two days previously at the little town of Coleman, to recuperate after a fatiguing winter
season.
Quite what his occupation was very few people knew. He occasionally backed horses—to lose; knew a few
card tricks with which he amused
strangers; and a good many more
which he neither showed to them nor amused them with. He was a fairly good pigeon shot; and an exceptionally clever billiard player.
Coleman had been recommended to him by his bosom friend, Samuel Dug-
ger, who was a native of the place.
On this particular afternoon he was
gazing mildly at the "Freemason's Hotel" debating whether he should enter or not. After a few minutes
cogitation he sauntered in, and made
for the billiard room.
Calling for a scotch and soda, he lit
a cigarette, and stood watching a pale
faced, lanky individual awkwardly
knocking the balls about the table.
"Do you play?" queried that gentleman, catching Mr. Hardon's interested look.
"You can hardly call it playing,"
he replied, hesitatingly. Seeing he made a fairly comfortable living with his billiards, this was perhaps a fact. "Besides, I'm awfully out of practice."
"So'm I," confessed the young man; "I was just knocking the balls
about to see if I remembered the
game."
"Well, I don't mind trying my hand," murmured Mr. Hardon.
"Right!" cried the young man,
briskly. "What shall it be? Fifty
up?"
"Fifty up? Oh, that means we've got to make 50 points doesn't it?"
"Yes," said the young man, chalk-
ing the tip of his cue industriously;
"the man who makes 50 first wins."
"I see! Which ball do I have?"
"I've almost forgotten."
About 20 minutes play, when the
game stood 10 to 12, the young man
carelessly suggested having a little something up on it.
"Well, I'm not a gambler," stated
Mr. Hardon, "but I don't mind half a dollar."
"Go ahead, then, it's your play."
"Playing ping-pong?" inquired a gentleman who had entered whilst
the game was in progress, after the
two innocents had sent their balls
on the floor half a dozen times.
At the end of an hour's play Mr.
Hardon—raced out a winner by 50
to 46; and it is doubtful if he would have won then had not the pale-faced
young man sent his last two balls on
the ground.
"Let's have another game," suggested the loser, paying over his 50
cents.
"Don't forget they close at 12,"
offensively remarked the gentleman
who had been watching the game.
"I don't mind," answered Mr. Har-
don, ignoring this individual. "Same
stakes?"
"Let's have a decent bit up on it
this time, seeing we're about level.
What do you say to ten dollars?"
"Go ahead, then," said Mr. Hardon.
"See here," exclaimed the spectator by his greasy appearance
seemed to be a butcher, addressing
Mr. Hardon, "you're both pretty bad players, but I rather fancy the other
chap is a bit better than you."
"You do, do you?" answered Mr.
Hardon, blandly.
"Yes! And in spite of your winning the last game I'm ready to back
him."
"Let me see," reflected Mr. Hardon, "I won the game on a strange
table."
"Then what'll you back him for?"
he asked, suddenly.
"Same as the stakes. Ten."
"Done with you," said Mr. Hardon,
picking up his cue.
The pale young man and his backer
exchanged knowing glances.
"Go it," cried the former as his
opponent bent over the table.
And Mr. Hardon did "go it" to the extent of making a beautiful little
break of 22.
"Here, what do you call this?"
blustered the greasy gentleman.
"Billiards," said Mr. Hardon, mildly. "What did you think it was?"
"Ping-pong!"
"Shut up, Barker," said the young
man, irritably, "you put me out."
Gritting his teeth he surveyed the
table darkly. The balls were too badly placed for him to make more
than ten.
Muttering viciously, he gave place
to Mr. Hardon and watched that gentleman while he handled the balls
as if they were alive.
Playing with rare skill, he put together an admirable 18.
The landlord entered the room at this moment and stood watching the
game.
"Knows how to play," he observed
to the butcher as Mr. Hardon made
the winning stroke.
"Knows a little too much for his
health," was the irritable reply.
"Knows a little too much for Tom,
at any rate," said the landlord, glanc-
ing at the scoring board.
Mr. Barker made no reply; he was thinking deeply. In fact so deeply
that it required several nudges from
Mr. Hardon to bring to his mind
the fact that he owed him ten dollars.
For awhile he stood talking billiards with the landlord, whilst Mr.
Barker and the lanky young man discussed affairs in a savage under-
tone.
"Say," said the lanky youth, suddenly addressing Mr. Hardon, "because you whacked me, don't think
you can play, you know."
"Great Scott, no!" replied Mr.
Hardon, scornfully.
"Because," continued the young
man, controlling himself with an effort, "we've got much better players
here."
"I don't doubt it," said Mr. Hardon, cordially.
Pushing his agitated companion
into a chair, Mr. Barker came forward.
"What'd you say to backing yourself for $500 with one of our own local men?" he inquired.
"Delighted," was the reply.
"Well, then, I'll bet you an even
five hundred that we produce a local
man the day after to-morrow to smash you."
"Done! He must be a bonafide yokel—I beg pardon, I mean local—however."
Being reassured on this point, Mr.
Hardon left the room with the firm
conviction that, as a holiday resort,
Coleman wanted some beating.
At the appointed hour Mr. Hardon
entered the crowded billiard room of the "Freemason's Hotel." There was silence as he walked over to the corner where his friend, the butcher and
the lanky young man, were. "Two
to one on the city cuss," cried a voice.
"This is your man," said the butcher, waving his hand towards a gentleman sitting near.
Though in his opponent Mr. Har-
don saw his bosom friend Mr. Samuel Dugger, he made no sign of recognition.
"Is this gentleman a native of the
place?" he inquired.
A chorus of triumphant voices
quickly vouched for this.
As soon as it was seen that Mr.
Hardon was resolved to play the
match out, a tired-looking stranger
announced it as his conviction that he would win. Immediately he was surrounded by a throng of excited betting men, who expressed their disbelief in this statement at five to four against.
While the tired looking stranger—
waking up slightly—was busy making
entries in his notebook, Mr. Hardon,
standing by his opponent's side, was
seized with the spirit of prophecy.
"I win!" he muttered, apparently
to himself.
"Halves," sighed Mr. Dugger into his half empty glass.
The ensuing game is remembered
by the sporting inhabitants of Coleman to this day.
From the first stroke it was a neck
and neck race; and when the score
standing at 96 all, Mr. Dugger in a moment of great excitement missed
his stroke, even his backers murmured nothing but words of sympathy.
Mr. Hardon, with a white face,
chalked his cue carefully, as, however, with a tricky ball he cannoned
and went off the white, a muffled
groan went round the room.
"My game, I think," he said, with
a smile.
On leaving the hotel he met Mr.
Dugger outside.
"Hello," was that gentleman's greeting, "thought it was you when they wired me."
"What did they offer you?"
"A hundred for a win, twenty for a lose. I brought Johnnie down to make a book in case it was you."
"Three hundred and twenty-four,"
said Johnnie, coming up at that moment.
"Add on your five hundred—" calculated Mr. Dugger.
"And the twenty," put in Mr. Har-
don. "Not bad, eh?"

SEA STAND
A BILLIARD
By HARRIS DEEMS
(Copyright, 1906, by Joseph B. Bowles.)
Mr. James Hardon was a mild
looking young man, with light sandy
hair carefully parted down the center
of his head. That he looked milder
and younger than he really was,
may or may not have been his misfortune—it certainly was not his misfortune.
He had arrived two days previously at the little town of Coleman, to recuperate after a fatiguing winter
season.
Quite what his occupation was very
few people knew. He occasionally
backed horses—to lose; knew a few
card tricks with which he amused
strangers; and a good many more
which he neither showed to them nor amused them with. He was a fairly good pigeon shot; and an exceptionally clever billiard player.
Coleman had been recommended to
him by his bosom friend, Samuel Dug-
ger, who was a native of the place.
On this particular afternoon he was
gazing mildly at the "Freemason's Hotel" debating whether he should
enter or not. After a few minutes
cogitation he sauntered in, and made
for the billiard room.
Calling for a scotch and soda, he lit
a cigarette, and stood watching a pale
faced, lanky individual awkwardly
knocking the balls about the table.
"Do you play?" queried that gentle-
man, catching Mr. Hardon's interested look.
"You can hardly call it playing,"
he replied, hesitatingly. Seeing he
made a fairly comfortable living with
his billiards, this was perhaps a fact. "Besides, I'm awfully out of
practice."
"So'm I," confessed the young
man; "I was just knocking the balls
about to see if I remembered the
game."
"Well, I don't mind trying my hand," murmured Mr. Hardon.
"Right!" cried the young man,
briskly. "What shall it be? Fifty
up?"
"Fifty up? Oh, that means we've got to make 50 points doesn't it?"
"Yes," said the young man, chalk-
ing the tip of his cue industriously;
"the man who makes 50 first wins."
"I see! Which ball do I have?"
"I've almost forgotten."
About 20 minutes play, when the
game stood 10 to 12, the young man
carelessly suggested having a little
something up on it.
"Well, I'm not a gambler," stated
Mr. Hardon, "but I don't mind half a dollar."
"Go ahead, then, it's your play."
"Playing ping-pong?" inquired a
gentleman who had entered whilst
the game was in progress, after the
two innocents had sent their balls
on the floor half a dozen times.
At the end of an hour's play Mr.
Hardon—raced out a winner by 50
to 46; and it is doubtful if he would
have won then had not the pale-faced
young man sent his last two balls on
the ground.
"Let's have another game," suggested the loser, paying over his 50
cents.
"Don't forget they close at 12,"
offensively remarked the gentleman
who had been watching the game.
"I don't mind," answered Mr. Har-
don, ignoring this individual. "Same
stakes?"
"Let's have a decent bit up on it
this time, seeing we're about level.
What do you say to ten dollars?"
"Go ahead, then," said Mr. Hardon.
"See here," exclaimed the specta-
tor by his greasy appearance
seemed to be a butcher, addressing
Mr. Hardon, "you're both pretty bad
players, but I rather fancy the other
chap is a bit better than you."
"You do, do you?" answered Mr.
Hardon, blandly.
"Yes! And in spite of your winning the last game I'm ready to back
him."
"Let me see," reflected Mr. Har-
don, "I won the game on a strange
table."
"Then what'll you back him for?"
he asked, suddenly.
"Same as the stakes. Ten."
"Done with you," said Mr. Hardon,
picking up his cue.
The pale young man and his backer
exchanged knowing glances.
"Go it," cried the former as his
opponent bent over the table.
And Mr. Hardon did "go it" to the extent of making a beautiful little
break of 22.
"Here, what do you call this?"
blustered the greasy gentleman.
"Billiards," said Mr. Hardon, mild-
ly. "What did you think it was?"
"Ping-pong!"
"Shut up, Barker," said the young
man, irritably, "you put me out."
Gritting his teeth he surveyed the
table darkly. The balls were too badly placed for him to make more
than ten.
Muttering viciously, he gave place
to Mr. Hardon and watched that gentleman while he handled the balls
as if they were alive.
Playing with rare skill, he put together an admirable 18.
The landlord entered the room at
this moment and stood watching the
game.
"Knows how to play," he observed
to the butcher as Mr. Hardon made
the winning stroke.
"Knows a little too much for his
health," was the irritable reply.
"Knows a little too much for Tom,
at any rate," said the landlord, glanc-
ing at the scoring board.
Mr. Barker made no reply; he was thinking deeply. In fact so deeply
that it required several nudges from
Mr. Hardon to bring to his mind
the fact that he owed him ten dollars.
For awhile he stood talking bil-
liards with the landlord, whilst Mr.
Barker and the lanky young man discussed affairs in a savage under-
tone.
"Say," said the lanky youth, suddenly addressing Mr. Hardon, "because you whacked me, don't think
you can play, you know."
"Great Scott, no!" replied Mr.
Hardon, scornfully.
"Because," continued the young
man, controlling himself with an effort, "we've got much better players
here."
"I don't doubt it," said Mr. Hardon,
cordially.
Pushing his agitated companion
into a chair, Mr. Barker came forward.
"What'd you say to backing yourself for $500 with one of our own local men?" he inquired.
"Delighted," was the reply.
"Well, then, I'll bet you an even
five hundred that we produce a local
man the day after to-morrow to
smash you."
"Done! He must be a bonafide yokel—I beg pardon, I mean local—however."
Being reassured on this point, Mr.
Hardon left the room with the firm
conviction that, as a holiday resort,
Coleman wanted some beating.
At the appointed hour Mr. Hardon
entered the crowded billiard room of
the "Freemason's Hotel." There was silence as he walked over to the corner where his friend, the butcher and
the lanky young man, were. "Two
to one on the city cuss," cried a
voice.
"This is your man," said the butcher, waving his hand towards a gentleman sitting near.
Though in his opponent Mr. Har-
don saw his bosom friend Mr. Samuel Dugger, he made no sign of recognition.
"Is this gentleman a native of the
place?" he inquired.
A chorus of triumphant voices
quickly vouched for this.
As soon as it was seen that Mr.
Hardon was resolved to play the
match out, a tired-looking stranger
announced it as his conviction that
he would win. Immediately he was surrounded by a throng of excited bet-
ting men, who expressed their dis-
belief in this statement at five to
four against.
While the tired looking stranger—
waking up slightly—was busy making
entries in his notebook, Mr. Hardon,
standing by his opponent's side, was
seized with the spirit of prophecy.
"I win!" he muttered, apparently
to himself.
"Halves," sighed Mr. Dugger into
his half empty glass.
The ensuing game is remembered
by the sporting inhabitants of Cole-
man to this day.
From the first stroke it was a neck
and neck race; and when the score
standing at 96 all, Mr. Dugger in a moment of great excitement missed
his stroke, even his backers mur-
mured nothing but words of sympathy.
Mr. Hardon, with a white face,
chalked his cue carefully, as, how-
ever, with a tricky ball he cannoned
and went off the white, a muffled
groan went round the room.
"My game, I think," he said, with
a smile.
On leaving the hotel he met Mr.
Dugger outside.
"Hello," was that gentleman's greeting, "thought it was you when they
wired me."
"What did they offer you?"
"A hundred for a win, twenty for a
lose. I brought Johnnie down to
make a book in case it was you."
"Three hundred and twenty-four,"
said Johnnie, coming up at that moment.
"Add on your five hundred—" calculated Mr. Dugger.
"And the twenty," put in Mr. Har-
don. "Not bad, eh?"

SEA STAND
A BILLIARD
By HARRIS DEEMS
(Copyright, 1906, by Joseph B. Bowles.)
Mr. James Hardon was a mild
looking young man, with light sandy
hair carefully parted down the center
of his head. That he looked milder
and younger than he really was,
may or may not have been his misfortune—it certainly was not his misfortune.
He had arrived two days previously at the little town of Coleman, to recuperate after a fatiguing winter
season.
Quite what his occupation was very
few people knew. He occasionally
backed horses—to lose; knew a few
card tricks with which he amused
strangers; and a good many more
which he neither showed to them nor amused them with. He was a fairly good pigeon shot; and an exceptionally clever billiard player.
Coleman had been recommended to
him by his bosom friend, Samuel Dug-
ger, who was a native of the place.
On this particular afternoon he was
gazing mildly at the "Freemason's Hotel" debating whether he should
enter or not. After a few minutes
cogitation he sauntered in, and made
for the billiard room.
Calling for a scotch and soda, he lit
a cigarette, and stood watching a pale
faced, lanky individual awkwardly
knocking the balls about the table.
"Do you play?" queried that gentle-
man, catching Mr. Hardon's interested look.
"You can hardly call it playing,"
he replied, hesitatingly. Seeing he
made a fairly comfortable living with
his billiards, this was perhaps a fact. "Besides, I'm awfully out of
practice."
"So'm I," confessed the young
man; "I was just knocking the balls
about to see if I remembered the
game."
"Well, I don't mind trying my hand," murmured Mr. Hardon.
"Right!" cried the young man,
briskly. "What shall it be? Fifty
up?"
"Fifty up? Oh, that means we've got to make 50 points doesn't it?"
"Yes," said the young man, chalk-
ing the tip of his cue industriously;
"the man who makes 50 first wins."
"I see! Which ball do I have?"
"I've almost forgotten."
About 20 minutes play, when the
game stood 10 to 12, the young man
carelessly suggested having a little
something up on it.
"Well, I'm not a gambler," stated
Mr. Hardon, "but I don't mind half a dollar."
"Go ahead, then, it's your play."
"Playing ping-pong?" inquired a
gentleman who had entered whilst
the game was in progress, after the
two innocents had sent their balls
on the floor half a dozen times.
At the end of an hour's play Mr.
Hardon—raced out a winner by 50
to 46; and it is doubtful if he would
have won then had not the pale-faced
young man sent his last two balls on
the ground.
"Let's have another game," suggested the loser, paying over his 50
cents.
"Don't forget they close at 12,"
offensively remarked the gentleman
who had been watching the game.
"I don't mind," answered Mr. Har-
don, ignoring this individual. "Same
stakes?"
"Let's have a decent bit up on it
this time, seeing we're about level.
What do you say to ten dollars?"
"Go ahead, then," said Mr. Hardon.
"See here," exclaimed the specta-
tor by his greasy appearance
seemed to be a butcher, addressing
Mr. Hardon, "you're both pretty bad
players, but I rather fancy the other
chap is a bit better than you."
"You do, do you?" answered Mr.
Hardon, blandly.
"Yes! And in spite of your winning the last game I'm ready to back
him."
"Let me see," reflected Mr. Har-
don, "I won the game on a strange
table."
"Then what'll you back him for?"
he asked, suddenly.
"Same as the stakes. Ten."
"Done with you," said Mr. Hardon,
picking up his cue.
The pale young man and his backer
exchanged knowing glances.
"Go it," cried the former as his
opponent bent over the table.
And Mr. Hardon did "go it" to the extent of making a beautiful little
break of 22.
"Here, what do you call this?"
blustered the greasy gentleman.
"Billiards," said Mr. Hardon, mild-
ly. "What did you think it was?"
"Ping-pong!"
"Shut up, Barker," said the young
man, irritably, "you put me out."
Gritting his teeth he surveyed the
table darkly. The balls were too badly placed for him to make more
than ten.
Muttering viciously, he gave place
to Mr. Hardon and watched that gentleman while he handled the balls
as if they were alive.
Playing with rare skill, he put together an admirable 18.
The landlord entered the room at
this moment and stood watching the
game.
"Knows how to play," he observed
to the butcher as Mr. Hardon made
the winning stroke.
"Knows a little too much for his
health," was the irritable reply.
"Knows a little too much for Tom,
at any rate," said the landlord, glanc-
ing at the scoring board.
Mr. Barker made no reply; he was thinking deeply. In fact so deeply
that it required several nudges from
Mr. Hardon to bring to his mind
the fact that he owed him ten dollars.
For awhile he stood talking bil-
liards with the landlord, whilst Mr.
Barker and the lanky young man discussed affairs in a savage under-
tone.
"Say," said the lanky youth, suddenly addressing Mr. Hardon, "because you whacked me, don't think
you can play, you know."
"Great Scott, no!" replied Mr.
Hardon, scornfully.
"Because," continued the young
man, controlling himself with an effort, "we've got much better players
here."
"I don't doubt it," said Mr. Hardon,
cordially.
Pushing his agitated companion
into a chair, Mr. Barker came forward.
"What'd you say to backing yourself for $500 with one of our own local men?" he inquired.
"Delighted," was the reply.
"Well, then, I'll bet you an even
five hundred that we produce a local
man the day after to-morrow to
smash you."
"Done! He must be a bonafide yokel—I beg pardon, I mean local—however."
Being reassured on this point, Mr.
Hardon left the room with the firm
conviction that, as a holiday resort,
Coleman wanted some beating.
At the appointed hour Mr. Hardon
entered the crowded billiard room of
the "Freemason's Hotel." There was silence as he walked over to the corner where his friend, the butcher and
the lanky young man, were. "Two
to one on the city cuss," cried a
voice.
"This is your man," said the butcher, waving his hand towards a gentleman sitting near.
Though in his opponent Mr. Har-
don saw his bosom friend Mr. Samuel Dugger, he made no sign of recognition.
"Is this gentleman a native of the
place?" he inquired.
A chorus of triumphant voices
quickly vouched for this.
As soon as it was seen that Mr.
Hardon was resolved to play the
match out, a tired-looking stranger
announced it as his conviction that he would win. Immediately he was surrounded by a throng of excited bet-
ting men, who expressed their dis-
belief in this statement at five to
four against.
While the tired looking stranger—
waking up slightly—was busy making
entries in his notebook, Mr. Hardon,
standing by his opponent's side, was
seized with the spirit of prophecy.
"I win!" he muttered, apparently
to himself.
"Halves," sighed Mr. Dugger into
his half empty glass.
The ensuing game is remembered
by the sporting inhabitants of Cole-
man to this day.
From the first stroke it was a neck
and neck race; and when the score
standing at 96 all, Mr. Dugger in a moment of great excitement missed
his stroke, even his backers mur-
mured nothing but words of sympathy.
Mr. Hardon, with a white face,
chalked his cue carefully, as, how-
ever, with a tricky ball he cannoned
and went off the white, a muffled
groan went round the room.
"My game, I think," he said, with
a smile.
On leaving the hotel he met Mr.
Dugger outside.
"Hello," was that gentleman's greeting, "thought it was you when they
wired me."
"What did they offer you?"
"A hundred for a win, twenty for a
lose. I brought Johnnie down to make a book in case it was you."
"Three hundred and twenty-four,"
said Johnnie, coming up at that moment.
"Add on your five hundred—" calculated Mr. Dugger.
"And the twenty," put in Mr. Har-
don. "Not bad, eh?"

SEA STAND
A BILLIARD
By HARRIS DEEMS
(Copyright, 1906, by Joseph B. Bowles.)
Mr. James Hardon was a mild
looking young man, with light sandy
hair carefully parted down the center
of his head. That he looked milder
and younger than he really was,
may or may not have been his misfortune—it certainly was not his misfortune.
He had arrived two days previously at the little town of Coleman, to recuperate after a fatiguing winter
season.
Quite what his occupation was very
few people knew. He occasionally
backed horses—to lose; knew a few
card tricks with which he amused
strangers; and a good many more
which he neither showed to them nor amused them with. He was a fairly good pigeon shot; and an exceptionally clever billiard player.
Coleman had been recommended to
him by his bosom friend, Samuel Dug-
ger, who was a native of the place.
On this particular afternoon he was
gazing mildly at the "Freemason's Hotel" debating whether he should enter or not. After a few minutes
cogitation he sauntered in, and made
for the billiard room.
Calling for a scotch and soda, he lit
a cigarette, and stood watching a pale
faced, lanky individual awkwardly
knocking the balls about the table.
"Do you play?" queried that gentleman, catching Mr. Hardon's interested look.
"You can hardly call it playing,"
he replied, hesitatingly. Seeing he made a fairly comfortable living with
his billiards, this was perhaps a fact. "Besides, I'm awfully out of
practice."
"So'm I," confessed the young
man; "I was just knocking the balls
about to see if I remembered the
game."
"Well, I don't mind trying my hand," murmured Mr. Hardon.
"Right!" cried the young man,
briskly. "What shall it be? Fifty
up?"
"Fifty up? Oh, that means we've got to make 50 points doesn't it?"
"Yes," said the young man, chalk-
ing the tip of his cue industriously;
"the man who makes 50 first wins."
"I see! Which ball do I have?"
"I've almost forgotten."
About 20 minutes play, when the
game stood 10 to 12, the young man
carelessly suggested having a little
something up on it.
"Well, I'm not a gambler," stated
Mr. Hardon, "but I don't mind half a dollar."
"Go ahead, then, it's your play."
"Playing ping-pong?" inquired a
gentleman who had entered whilst
the game was in progress, after the
two innocents had sent their balls
on the floor half a dozen times.
At the end of an hour's play Mr.
Hardon—raced out a winner by 50
to 46; and it is doubtful if he would
have won then had not the pale-faced
young man sent his last two balls on
the ground.
"Let's have another game," suggested the loser, paying over his 50
cents.
"Don't forget they close at 12,"
offensively remarked the gentleman
who had been watching the game.
"I don't mind," answered Mr. Har-
don, ignoring this individual. "Same
stakes?"
"Let's have a decent bit up on it
this time, seeing we're about level.
What do you say to ten dollars?"
"Go ahead, then," said Mr. Hardon.
"See here," exclaimed the specta-
tor by his greasy appearance
seemed to be a butcher, addressing
Mr. Hardon, "you're both pretty bad
players, but I rather fancy the other
chap is a bit better than you."
"You do, do you?" answered Mr.
Hardon, blandly.
"Yes! And in spite of your winning the last game I'm ready to back
him."
"Let me see," reflected Mr. Har-
don, "I won the game on a strange
table."
"Then what'll you back him for?"
he asked, suddenly.
"Same as the stakes. Ten."
"Done with you," said Mr. Hardon,
picking up his cue.
The pale young man and his backer
exchanged knowing glances.
"Go it," cried the former as his
opponent bent over the table.
And Mr. Hardon did "go it" to the extent of making a beautiful little
break of 22.
"Here, what do you call this?"
blustered the greasy gentleman.
"Billiards," said Mr. Hardon, mild-
ly. "What did you think it was?"
"Ping-pong!"
"Shut up, Barker," said the young
man, irritably, "you put me out."
Gritting his teeth he surveyed the
table darkly. The balls were too badly placed for him to make more
than ten.
Muttering viciously, he gave place
to Mr. Hardon and watched that gentleman while he handled the balls
as if they were alive.
Playing with rare skill, he put together an admirable 18.
The landlord entered the room at
this moment and stood watching the
game.
"Knows how to play," he observed
to the butcher as Mr. Hardon made
the winning stroke.
"Knows a little too much for his
health," was the irritable reply.
"Knows a little too much for Tom,
at any rate," said the landlord, glanc-
ing at the scoring board.
Mr. Barker made no reply; he was thinking deeply. In fact so deeply
that it required several nudges from
Mr. Hardon to bring to his mind
the fact that he owed him ten dollars.
For awhile he stood talking bil-
liards with the landlord, whilst Mr.
Barker and the lanky young man discussed affairs in a savage under-
tone.
"Say," said the lanky youth, suddenly addressing Mr. Hardon, "because you whacked me, don't think
you can play, you know."
"Great Scott, no!" replied Mr.
Hardon, scornfully.
"Because," continued the young
man, controlling himself with an effort, "we've got much better players
here."
"I don't doubt it," said Mr. Hardon,
cordially.
Pushing his agitated companion
into a chair, Mr. Barker came forward.
"What'd you say to backing yourself for $500 with one of our own local men?" he inquired.
"Delighted," was the reply.
"Well, then, I'll bet you an even
five hundred that we produce a local
man the day after to-morrow to
smash you."
"Done! He must be a bonafide yokel—I beg pardon, I mean local—however."
Being reassured on this point, Mr.
Hardon left the room with the firm
conviction that, as a holiday resort,
Coleman wanted some beating.
At the appointed hour Mr. Hardon
entered the crowded billiard room of
the "Freemason's Hotel." There was silence as he walked over to the corner where his friend, the butcher and
the lanky young man, were. "Two
to one on the city cuss," cried a
voice.
"This is your man," said the butcher, waving his hand towards a gentleman sitting near.
Though in his opponent Mr. Har-
don saw his bosom friend Mr. Samuel Dugger, he made no sign of recognition.
"Is this gentleman a native of the
place?" he inquired.
A chorus of triumphant voices
quickly vouched for this.
As soon as it was seen that Mr.
Hardon was resolved to play the
match out, a tired-looking stranger
announced it as his conviction that he would win. Immediately he was surrounded by a throng of excited bet-
ting men, who expressed their dis-
belief in this statement at five to
four against.
While the tired looking stranger—
waking up slightly—was busy making
entries in his notebook, Mr. Hardon,
standing by his opponent's side, was
seized with the spirit of prophecy.
"I win!" he muttered, apparently
to himself.
"Halves," sighed Mr. Dugger into
his half empty glass.
The ensuing game is remembered
by the sporting inhabitants of Cole-
man to this day.
From the first stroke it was a neck
and neck race; and when the score
standing at 96 all, Mr. Dugger in a moment of great excitement missed
his stroke, even his backers mur-
mured nothing but words of sympathy.
Mr. Hardon, with a white face,
chalked his cue carefully, as, how-
ever, with a tricky ball he cannoned
and went off the white, a muffled
groan went round the room.
"My game, I think," he said, with
a smile.
On leaving the hotel he met Mr.
Dugger outside.
"Hello," was that gentleman's greeting, "thought it was you when they
wired me."
"What did they offer you?"
"A hundred for a win, twenty for a
lose. I brought Johnnie down to make a book in case it was you."
"Three hundred and twenty-four,"
said Johnnie, coming up at that moment.
"Add on your five hundred—" calculated Mr. Dugger.
"And the twenty," put in Mr. Har-
don. "Not bad, eh?"

SEA STAND
A BILLIARD
By HARRIS DEEMS
(Copyright, 1906, by Joseph B. Bowles.)
Mr. James Hardon was a mild
looking young man, with light sandy
hair carefully parted down the center
of his head. That he looked milder
and younger than he really was,
may or may not have been his misfortune—it certainly was not his misfortune.
He had arrived two days previously at the little town of Coleman, to recuperate after a fatiguing winter
season.
Quite what his occupation was very
few people knew. He occasionally
backed horses—to lose; knew a few
card tricks with which he amused
strangers; and a good many more
which he neither showed to them nor amused them with. He was a fairly good pigeon shot; and an exceptionally clever billiard player.
Coleman had been recommended to
him by his bosom friend, Samuel Dug-
ger, who was a native of the place.
On this particular afternoon he was
gazing mildly at the "Freemason's Hotel" debating whether he should enter or not. After a few minutes
cogitation he sauntered in, and made
for the billiard room.
Calling for a scotch and soda, he lit
a cigarette, and stood watching a pale
faced, lanky individual awkwardly
knocking the balls about the table.
"

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly
ROYAL BAKING POWDER

A. G. WALL,

DENTIST.
Office, Gorman building,
CHELSEA, MICH.

S. G. RUSH

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Formerly resident physician U. of M.
Hospital.
Office in Hatch block. Residence on South street.

A. McCOLGAN,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office over Adam Eppel's market.
Night calls at Mrs. J. C. Taylor's, Park street. Phone 114.
CHELSEA, MICHIGAN.

A. L. STEGGER,

DENTIST.
Office—Hatch-Durand Block,
CHELSEA, MICHIGAN.

H. W. SCHMIDT,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office hours: 10 to 12 forenoon; 2 to afternoon;
7 to 8 evening.
Night and Day calls answered promptly.
Chelsea Telephone No. 30. 2 rings for office,
3 rings for residence.
CHELSEA, MICH.

A. T. H. OF THE

Dr. H. F. Avery
You will find only up-to-date methods used, accompanied by the much-needed experience
that comes with practice.
Prices as reasonable as first-class work can be done for.
Office, over Rattray's tailor shop.

JAMES S. GORMAN,

LAW OFFICE.
East Middle street, Chelsea, Mich.

TURNBULL & WITHERELL,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
B. B. Turnbull H. D. Witherell.
CHELSEA, MICH.

STIVERS & KALMBACH

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW
General Law practice in all courts. Notary Public in the office. Phone 63.
Office in Kempf Bank Block.
CHELSEA, MICH.

KALMBACH & WATSON,

Real Estate, Insurance
and Loans.
"Something doing all the time."
Phone No. 63.

PARKER & BECKWITH,

Real Estate Dealers.
Money to Loan. Life and Fire Insurance
Office over Kempf Bank, Chelsea.

F. STAFFAN & SON,

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
CHELSEA, MICHIGAN.
Phones 15 or 78.

S. A. MAPES,

FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND EMBALMER.
FINE FURNISHINGS.
Calls answered promptly night or day.
Chelsea Telephone No. 6.
CHELSEA, MICHIGAN.

J. S. HATHAWAY,

Cleaning, Pressing and Repairing
of Gentlemen's Clothing, also Ladies' Jackets, Woolen Dress Skirts, Shirt
Waists and White Dress Skirts a specialty. All work guaranteed. Phone orders promptly attended to. Corner of East Middle and East streets. Phone 47.

F. D. MERITHEW,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
Bell Phone 62, Manchester, Mich.
Dates made at this office.

W. S. HAMILTON,

Veterinary Surgeon.
Treats all diseases of domesticated animals.
Special attention given to lameness and horse dentistry. Office and residence Park street, across from M. E. church, Chelsea.

OLIVE LODGE, No. 156, F. & A. M.

Regular meetings for 1907 are as follows: Jan. 29, Feb. 26, Mar. 26, April 23,
May 21, June 25, July 32, Aug. 20,
Sept. 17, Oct. 15, Nov. 19; annual meeting and election of officers, Dec. 17. St.
John's Day, June 24—Dec. 27. Visiting Brothers welcome.
G. E. Jackson, W. M.
C. W. Maroney, Sec.

E. W. DANIELS,

GENERAL AUCTIONEER.
Satisfaction Guaranteed. For information call at The Standard-Herald office, or address Gregory, Mich., r. f. d. 2.
Phone connections. Auction bills and tin cup furnished free.

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many
a Sufferer.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed and swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby and sometimes displacing them. This is the true cause of many bearing down-pains, lameness, backache, dizziness, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headache, dizzy spells, fan
quor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.
When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that cures sick kidneys.
You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well.

Mrs. S. Amos, of 309 N. Shawassee street, Owosso, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are not a new remedy to me, for I used them two or three years ago, when from some cause, such as a cold or the grippe, my kidneys troubled me. I do not know what I would have done without them, as my trouble was steadily growing worse in spite of all the medicine I took. The kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. I could not rest comfortably at night and always arose tired and worn out morning. My general health was poor and this trouble was a great drain on me. I had taken so much medicine that I had little confidence in any, but I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I soon noticed an improvement in my condition and sea-dily grew better. I cannot speak too highly of this valuable preparation and am glad to recommend it at all times."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York,
sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Registration Notice.

Notice is hereby given, that the board of registration of the village of Chelsea, Mich., will meet for the purpose of completing the list of qualified voters of said village, and of registering the names of all persons who shall be possessed of the necessary qualifications of electors, and who may apply for that purpose, on Saturday, the 9th day of March, A. D.
1907, at the place designated below: in the council room of the town hall, and that said board of registration will be in session on the day and the place above mentioned, from 9 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, for the purpose above specified.
By order of the board of registration of the village of Chelsea.
W. H. HESSELSCHWERDT,
Village Clerk.

Dated at Chelsea, Mich., February 25,
A. D. 1907.

Card of Thanks.
The children of the late Mrs. Maryette Snow desire to express their sincere thanks to their neighbors and friends for kind services rendered, and flowers, during our very sad bereavement.

A Horse Trade.

"Hello!" says I.
"Hello!" says he.
I never see the man afore.
"Swap!" says I.
"Dunno," says he.
"Mebbe, mebbe I ain't shore."
"Th' gray?" says I.
"Th' gray?" says he.
"Swap!" says we, an' both unhitched.
"Fine horse," says I.
"Of course," says he.
An' in a minute we had switched.
"Git up!" says I.
"Git up!" says he.
An' both them horses stood stock still.
"Balk!" says I.
"Yep!" says he.
"Mine, too!" s' I, laughin', fit to kill.
"Say!" says I.
"Hey?" says he.
"Guess that's horse apiece," says we.
"Good day," says I.
"Good day," says he.
Best joke, I b'gosh, I ever see!

Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic county convention
held in the court house at Ann Arbor last Thursday afternoon was not very well attended.

The Democratic county convention assembled at 1:30 in the afternoon with a dearth of candidates for office. County Chairman Ross Granger called Edward Boach, of Lima, to the chair and Ennis
R. Twist of Superior was made secretary.
A short recess was then taken and when the convention was called to order the temporary officers were named as permanent.

H. J. Abbott of Ann Arbor and John
Lutz of Saline were made tellers.
On a call of the roll of wards and townships for nominations, M. J. Cavanaugh presented the name of Arthur M. Smith of Ann Arbor, a graduate of the University and editor of the Michi-ganian, as a candidate for school commissioner. This was seconded by several of the townships and the tellers were instructed to cast the ballot of the convention for Mr. Smith.

D. A. Hammond nominated ex-County Treasurer George J. Mann for county auditor.

M. J. Cavanaugh was elected delegate at large to the state convention. The district delegates elected were:
First District—J. W. Markey, H. W.
Douglas, J. D. Ryan, T. D. Kearney,
George Gerbach, J. W. Dwyer, A. M.
Smith.

Second District—Fred Hasley, John
P. Kirk, George Cole, Christian Henning, James Kelly and Elmer McCullough.

Home-Made Catarrh Cure.

Any one can mix right at home the best remedy of its kind known. The name "Cyclone" is given to the following prescription on it, it is supposed, because of its promptness in driving from the blood and system every vestige of catarrhal poison, relieving this foul and dread disease, no matter where located. To prepare the mixture: Get from any good pharmacy one half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon and three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This is a harmless, inexpensive mixture, which has a peculiar action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, assisting them to filter and strain from the blood and system all catarrhal poisons, which, if not eradicated, are absorbed by the mucous membrane, and an open sore or catarrh is the result.
Prepare some and try it, as it is the prescription of an eminent catarrh specialist of national reputation. 210

Slot machines have been put out of Tecumseh by order of the authorities of that place.

Geo. Hinkley, of Pinckney, is held for trial in the circuit court on a charge of selling liquor to Fred Moran, a habitual drunkard.

Roland Fletcher has brought suit
in the circuit court for $300 damages for the loss of six cattle killed and several injured on the tracks of the Wabash road.—Ypsilanti.

Dates for the annual encampment
of the Michigan G. A. R. at Bay City have been changed to June 11 and 12, to permit Commander-in-Chief H. P. Brown, of Zanesville, O. to attend.

The farmers in the vicinity of Tecumseh who have raised sugar beets for a few years past have decided to quit raising beets unless the sugar manufacturers will enter into contracts to pay $5 per ton f. o. b. at the shipping point.

Congressman Townsend has recommended the appointment of G.
W. Freese as postmaster at Clinton,
Lenawee county, vice H. R. Lindsley.
Mr. Lindsley has just completed one term in the office and did not desire to serve another four years.

Representative Hanlon will soon introduce a bill to put Ingham county officials on a salary. The bill will provide for a $3,000 salary for sheriff, $2,000, each for clerk, register of deeds and treasurer, with $800 for deputies.—Stockbridge Sun.

At a meeting February 18, of the farmers' telephone lines coming into Munith, it was decided to move the switchboard, and G. F. Burgess was hired to attend to it in the future, for the same price as has formerly
been paid, $1 per telephone per year.

The old foundry corner has been decided upon as the place for the new St. Paul church and the committee in charge of raising funds to erect the church are busy. Their aim is to put up a fine church valued at least $9,000.—Saline Observer.

Charles F. Ballard, who for years made his home with Grove Saunders in Pittsfield, died of paralysis at Reed's Lake sanitarium, Grand Rapids, February 7. He was a veteran of the Twentieth Michigan
Infantry. He leaves one son, Grov Ballard of Detroit.

From the experiment station of the state Agricultural college we have received a bulletin describing a score or so of insect pests new or unusual in Michigan. The Bulletin (No. 244) will be sent free to persons requesting same of the secretary of the Agricultural college, Lansing.

Insurance Commissioner Barry
says that the losses by lightning have become a very serious matter for the farmers' mutual fire insurance companies of the state. In one county nineteen out of twenty-three losses last year were caused by lightning. Many of the losses were live stock, killed in proximity to wire fences, which are strong conductors for electricity.

The board of directors of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance
Co. met Friday afternoon of last week. Three losses were adjusted, all of which were the results of chimneys burning out as follows:
Albert B. Draper, Ypsilanti, $10.46;
John P. Sellers, Ypsilanti, $4; Timothy Thompson, Whitaker, house $600, household furniture $300.

Hunting for Trouble.

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Allegheny, Sierra county. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed by the Bank Drug Store. 25c.

The Standard Herald want ads bring
results. Try them.

An Ideal Laxative.

Physics and Cathartics which purge, unload
the bowels, and give temporary relief, but irritate,
weaken the digestive and eliminative organs.
Laxative Iron-ox Tablets are as different
from all other laxatives as the difference
between the bowels and nerves, giving them strength
and vigor to do the work nature intended, thus effecting a permanent cure by perfectly safe and natural means. The best laxative for children.
Chocolate coated, easy to take, never grips
or nauseates. 10c, 50c and $1.00 at all drug stores.

Most people know that if they have
been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat
on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy,
brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and
well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.
ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

I KNOW, BUT I'VE BEEN OVERWORKED. Now in Jail.

The poor, Judge
Leland and Agent Childs made their semi-annual inspection of the county jail last Saturday. They found twenty-one prisoners confined in three rooms. Of these five were awaiting trial and sixteen were serving sentences. The bedding and cells were found in good condition, but the floor in the halls in bad shape.

During the past six months the total number of prisoners confined was 129, of which three were women. The charges against these prisoners were as follows:
Drunk, 53; vagrancy, 14; larceny, 12;
assault and battery, 9; violation of city ordinance, 9; insane, 8; burglary, 6; indecent language, 4; disorderly, 3; and one each for the following offenses:
Drunkard and tippler, adultery, basteardy, embezzlement, forgery, keeping house of ill-fame, prostitute, indecent exposure, seduction and suspicion.

One-third of the prisoners, seven in number, were sent from Ypsilanti. The others were from different parts of the county.

This is the smallest number of prisoners for any six months for some years.

EVAN ESSERY,
Republican Nominee for Commissioner of Schools.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one read-disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical profession. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength or building up the constitution and asisting nature in doing its work. The proprietary have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by all druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given, that an election will be held in the village of Chelsea, County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, on Monday, the eleventh day of March, A. D. 1907, for the purpose of electing the following officers:
One President.
Three Trustees for two years.
One Assessor.
One Treasurer.
One Clerk.

The polls of the election in the said village of Chelsea, Michigan, will be held at the Town Hall (main floor).
The polls will be open at seven o'clock in the forenoon of said eleventh day of March, A. D. 1907, or as soon thereafter as may be, and will be closed at five o'clock in the afternoon of that day.

W. H. HESSELSCHWERDT,
Village Clerk.

Dated at Chelsea, Mich., February 25,
A. D. 1907.

Doan's Regulents cure constipation,
tone the stomach, stimulate the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passages of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

The Standard Herald want ads bring
results. Try them.

An Ideal Laxative.

Physics and Cathartics which purge, unload
the bowels, and give temporary relief, but irritate,
weaken the digestive and eliminative organs.
Laxative Iron-ox Tablets are as different
from all other laxatives as the difference
between the bowels and nerves, giving them strength
and vigor to do the work nature intended, thus
effecting a permanent cure by perfectly safe and
natural means. The best laxative for children.
Chocolate coated, easy to take, never grips
or nauseates. 10c, 50c and $1.00 at all drug stores.

Most people know that if they have
been sick they need Scott's Emul-
sion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be
sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat
on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy,
brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and pre-
vents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and
well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.
ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes
Mrs. Eva Unapher, of Covington, Stark county, Ind. This king of coughs and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by the Bank Drug Store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Torturing eczema spreads its burning area every day. Doan's Ointment quickly stops its spreading instantly, relieves the itching cures it permanently.

WILL NOT BE CRIPPLED

TREATMENT SUCCESSFUL

The Maddening Disease, Rheumatism, Easily Cured With URIC-O.

It might interest Rheumatic sufferers of this country to learn the wonderful work that Uric-O is doing towards the relief and cure of this dreaded disease. Letters of praise are received daily from men and women who have used the remedy with the greatest success. The manufacturers of this wonderful Specific have never solicited a testimonial or a word of praise from people who have used the remedy. Yet, letters like the one given below are being received from both old and young.

Mr. Reuben Whipple, grocery clerk, of Glens Falls, N. Y., says: "I was laid up with severe form of rheumatism, and was confined to my room for nine weeks. A sample bottle of Uric-O, and one regular bottle has worked a wonderful change in me. It has entirely cured my Rheumatism, and I am now able to go about my work again.
I recommended the remedy to Mr. John Harris, of East Lake George, who was unable to walk. He had taken every possible treatment, had spent hundreds of dollars, and had found no relief. He is taking Uric-O, and is improving rapidly, and able to be out around I will continue to recommend Uric-O, as it is certainly a merited remedy.

Uric-O is sold by Druggists generally at $1.00 per bottle, or it will be sent by the SMITH DRUG COMPANY, of SYRACUSE, N. Y., upon receipt of price. Liberal size samples and circulars will be mailed free to all who apply for same.

Uric-O is sold and recommended in Chelsea by L. T. FREEMAN.

Laxative
Iron-ox
Tablets

Cure Biliousness

The most common causes of biliousness is some perversion of the functions of the liver, or the retention of bile in the bile duct.

YELLOW SALLOW SKIN IS AN INDICATION OF BILIOUSNESS.

Laxative Iron-ox Tablets are the best cleanser I have ever used. They have cleared up my yellow skin as no other remedy has, when I cannot eat, and feel heavy. (Care) L. G. GELBER, Soldier's Home, Wash. D. C.

Laxative Iron-ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, and stimulate the secretions of the liver. If the bowels and liver are active and working harmoniously, waste matter and poisons which cause biliousness, stomach trouble, headache, backache, colds and rheumatism cannot accumulate in the system.

WRITE FOR FREE SAMPLE
THE IRON-OX REMEDY CO., DETROIT, MICH.

Tone and Strengthen
the bowels

For sale by L. T. FREEMAN.

Homeseekers
Excursions

AT VERY LOW RATES

For the Round Trip

Michigan Central

"The Niagara Falls Route."

To Various Points in the South, Southwest, Southeast, West and Northwest.

TICKETS ON SALE.

March 5 and 19, and April 2 and 16

COMPLETE INFORMATION will be furnished by Local Ticket Agent.

O. W. RUGGLES,
General Passenger Agent.

WANTED ELM AND BEECH LOGS

6 ft. 3 in. or 12 ft. 6 in. long. Sound heart, 14 in. and up in diameter, No. 1 in quality.
DOWITT LUMBER CO., DETROIT, MICH.
Mar. 17

KILL THE COUGH
AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR CONSUMPTION
AND CURE THE LUNGS
Guaranteed for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK

Probate Order.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss.: At a session of the Probate Court for said County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office, in the City of Ann Arbor, on the 25th day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven.
Present, Emory E. Leland, Judge of Probate.
In the matter of the estate of Frank Leland, deceased.
-Jan. S. Gorman, administrator of said estate, having filed in this court his final account, and praying that the same may be heard and allowed.
It is ordered, that the 2nd day of March, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be appointed for hearing said account.
And it is further ordered, that a copy of this order be published three successive weeks previous to said time of hearing, in the Chelsea Standard-Herald, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Washtenaw.
EMORY E. LE LAND,
Judge of Probate.
(A true copy)
H. WIRT NEWKIRK, Register.

Turnbull & Witherell, Attorneys.
Commissioners' Notice.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss.: The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court for said County of Washtenaw, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of John McKune, late of said county, deceased, hereby give notice that four months from date are allowed, by order of said Probate Court, for creditors to present their claims against the estate of said deceased, and that they will meet at Turnbull & Witherell, Attorneys, in the Village of Chelsea, in said county, on the 5th day of April, and on the 2nd day of June, next, at 10 o'clock a. m., or on any day

The Chelsea Standard-Herald.

G. C. STIMSON, Pub.

CHelsea, MICHIGAN

Bacon.

Do you remember what Charles Lamb says about roast pig? How he falls into an ecstasy of laudation, as if the lower case were too mean for such a delicacy, and breaking away from the cheap encomiums of the vulgar tongue to hail it in anoruous Latin as principles obnoxious. There is some truth in his compliments, no doubt; but they are wasteful, excessive, imprudent. For if all this praise is to be lavished on plain, fresh, immature, roast pig, what adjectives shall we find for the riper, richer, more subtle and sustaining viand, broiled bacon? asks Henry Van Dyke, in Scribner's. On roast pig a man cannot write; often he cannot sleep, if he have partaken of it. Immoderately, but bacon "brings to its sweetness no satiety." It strengthens the arm while it satisfies the palate. Crisp, juicy, savory; delicately salt as the breeze that blows from the sea; faintly pungent as the blue smoke of incense wafted from a clean wood fire; aromatic, appetizing, nourishing, a stimulant to the hunger which it appeases, 'tis the matured bloom and consummation of the mild little pig, spared by foresight for a nobler fate than juvenile roasting, and brought by art and man's device to a perfection surpassing nature. All the problems of woodland cookery are best solved by the baconian method. And when we say of one escaping great disaster that he has "saved his bacon," we say that the physical basis and the quintessential comfort of his life are untouched and secure.

New Plan to Save Child Labor.
A proposition to take all children under 14 years of age from factories and other places of employment and send them to school has been made by N. O. Nelson, a millionaire manufacturer, to the women's clubs of St. Louis. Mr. Nelson is to pay the children half the amount they would receive for their work, and the clubs the other half. The clubs have yet to give their decision and, pending it, Mr. Nelson has undertaken to do the work himself, says Reader Magazine. He has investigated for several weeks past every application to the truant officer for permits for children under age to work in the factories, and has, at the present writing, found seven worthy cases. Each week these children call at Nelson's office and receive the money they would have been paid for working—an average of three dollars a week. Then the children have been returned to their schools. In less than one-third of the cases investigated by Mr. Nelson did he find the people to be actually in need of the children's services.

Trouble Ahead.
The trustees of the public library at Malden, Mass., announce that they will not put in circulation a novel which a decent woman may not read to a decent man without blushing. "As this is a standard of excellence which cannot be applied a priori, it may be necessary to appoint a committee to exercise the novel censorship. The difficulty of finding a decent man will be equalled only by that of submitting a decent woman to such an ordeal," says the New York Post. The latter might, after a time, grow hardened and maintain a deathly pallor while reading aloud from dubious works. It would not always be easy to distinguish a blush of modesty from what novelists call "a flush of vexation." The man might even blush while the woman remained pale, and, lastly, the blushing might be caused not by the book, but by the presence of the man.

Index to Prosperity.
The earnings of the great steel corporation afford an infallible index to the prosperity of the country. The figures for the calendar year 1906 are impressive, the total being over $156,619,000, against $119,850,000 in 1905, $73,176,000 in 1904, and $109,271,000 in 1903. The showing for last year was a result of the phenomenal activity in building, railroad construction and improvement and steadily increasing demand for iron and steel in every form. And, continues the Troy Times, the business done by concerns outside the so-called "trust" attained still larger proportions. The new year begins with mills overcrowded with orders, those of the "trust" yet unfilled amounting to 8,489,718 tons, the largest ever known, and the prospects are favorable to another record breaker.

M the Elkhart man who, in a fit of jealousy, threw scalding coffee in his pretty wife's face, disfiguring her for life, were to be tried before a jury of women he would doubtless be sentenced to be boiled in oil. If he had merely killed her he might have some hope.

In Kansas City a man was fined for taking his wife across his knee and spanking her. Evidently she did not consider that she was in her second childhood.

MICHIGAN EVENTS NOTED

WRECK ON THE CENTRAL CAUSES FIVE AND POSSIBLY SIX DEATHS.

ORDERS OR SEMAPHORE

Express Was Making Up Time Lost When It Crashed Into An Ice Train.

Scene of Wreck and Death.
Michigan Central train No. 31, known as the "American Express," making up time crashed into a light engine on the dead-end Shanghai curve, two miles west of Ypsilanti, at 3:39 o'clock Thursday afternoon, killing five men, fatally injuring one, and scattering the wreckage for a quarter-mile with scraps of the engine and cars.

Friday morning General Supt. Nutt began a rigid investigation into the cause of the wreck. Two causes seemed to have contributed, the failure of the block semaphore to work and indefinite orders.

The light engine was handling ice cars at Shanghai and had received orders to run in on a siding to clear the main line for the big express train at 3:45.

The express train had orders for a clear right of way without mentioning the ice train, and was making up lost time, running at nearly 70 miles an hour. Believing that he had six minutes leeway, Engineer Roe, of the light engine, pulled out on the main line just as the big engine came whirling around the curve dragging its load of express and mail cars. Engineer Scallen knowing nothing of the ice train.

The engines met at the switch, the express engine slicing cornerwise at the light engine.

The semaphore east of the switch must have failed to work or else Engineer Scallen failed to see it, as the advent of the ice engine on the block should have set it against the express.

The express train was made up of a big Pacific engine, a mail car, five express cars and a car for the train crew. It ordinarily leaves Detroit for Chicago at 1:05 p. m., but Thursday a press of business made it necessary to run two sections and the section which was wrecked left the M. C. depot in Detroit at 2:57, nearly two hours late.

A LEGAL ODDITY.

Common Drunkenness Brings a New Form of Sentence.

One year at diligent and industrious service on a farm was the sentence imposed by Judge Adams, of Kalamazoo, upon James Hawley, charged with common drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

The sentence is a most remarkable one because of its oddity, and as far as known it is the only sentence of the kind ever imposed upon a prisoner.

If at the end of the year Hawley has obeyed every rule imposed by the court, he will be at liberty to do as he pleases, enjoying the same rights as any one who has served a sentence for an offense.

His rules were imposed by Judge Adams upon which Hawley must act accordingly.

His behavior must be good and he must do nothing to molest or cause trouble to his neighbors.

He must drink no intoxicants.

He must not visit a barroom, saloon or gambling house, or associate with any persons of bad character.

He must apply all of his earnings to his support and those dependent upon him and must at all times be diligent and industrious.

The White Elephant.

Negotiations for the sale of Zion City, the White Elephant of the Dowdites, may be called off because of the publicity which has attended the negotiations. It was Wilbur Voliva's desire, according to D. L. McKay, private secretary to Mother Elinor, to get rid of the city without publicity and Thursday morning when he learned that the negotiations had been made public he sent a tart communication to Windsor and hinted that further negotiations would not be entertained.

It was the plan, Mr. McKay said, to make the city the headquarters of the Flying Rollers as it was the headquarters of the Dowdites, if the deal went through. The transfer was not to affect the religious standing of the two sects, being chiefly a commercial transaction.

Wants His Daughter.

Merrill Beecher Mills, the Detroit millionaire, who is suing his wife in Asheville, N. C., for a divorce, is alleged to have offered her $100,000 if she would surrender to him their 6-year-old child, Cynthia.

"I would rather see Cynthia dead than for him to have her,"

In her counter suit for divorce, she demands $200,000 alimony and custody of the child. Gillian Stickleather, named as co-defendant, is being sued by Mills for $100,000 on a charge of alienation of Mrs. Mills' affections. He has been subpoenaed three times, but refused to appear, alleging that he signed the affidavit after being made drunk by one of Mills' detectives.

The first maple sugar of the season made from sap gathered during the recent warm spell, has been brought to St. Joseph by Joseph Owens.

Thos. Dougherty and Hayden McCrae, ice harvesters, are both suffering from injuries received while helping lift the Ann Arbor ice house in Mt. Pleasant. A horse fell on Dougherty and several cakes of ice slid back on McCrae.

Out of 15 criminal cases noted on the circuit court calendar for Allegan county, 11 are for violation of the liquor law, four being for selling to minors. Of the eleven persons charged with violation of the liquor law, eight have pleaded guilty and will appear later for their sentence. Three of the number are druggists.

IT'S FUN

Mr. Perry Writes Up First Term.
Rep. J. M. Perry, of Tustin, took the house in a paper, which he owns, and the house is boiling over with wrath at the audacious first term. His letter was read Monday evening to an indignation meeting of 30 representatives.

One member has expressed the opinion that Mr. Perry should be charged with contempt.

The letter gives an account of his experience as a legislator. He says he came to the capitol, and after climbing two flights of stairs he found the second termers had come up in an elevator.

The second termers, Mr. Perry aims at particularly. He went by mistake through the main entrance, but later entered by the cloak room, where a colored gentleman helped him off with his coat, brushed him and prepared him. Since then, Mr. Perry says, the colored gentleman has been regularly appointed, and Mr. Perry now takes off his own coat, and (he says) the colored gentleman smokes and reads a yellow-backed novel, and has a term messant.

Mr. Perry says he has drawn pay six times, though he has done only 12 hours' work. For the legislature's 12 hours' work the people will pay $50,000, he estimates.

He says his bill as made out for him for his expenses to the Alger funeral was in excess of his expenditures and he wanted it corrected, but he was told all the bills were uniform. One item of $125 for a meal on the train especially surprised him, as he, not knowing the state would pay, had eaten 15 cents' worth at a lunch counter.

Bills presented by second termers, Mr. Perry thinks, are passed under suspension of the rules. First termers' bills go to committee. First termers, he humorously says, may not introduce the three favorite motions of second termers, to suspend the rules, to dispense with reading a bill, to adjourn. He even declares, to the great indignation of Speaker Whelan's friends, that the speaker once recognized the motion to adjourn of a member who was not in the house at all on that day.

Mr. Perry thinks the people would be very indignant if they knew the alleged state of affairs.

Many members consider the Perry outbreak a consequence except as a humorous incident—others are more serious, seeing that the immense popular Speaker Whelan is criticized. Mr. Perry is a banker in Tustin, and highly respected.

Mr. Perry is much astonished at the rumormongers who say, "Why, it was all a big joke on me," said the banker-legislator. "Attacking the house or showing contempt of it was far from my thoughts. Some folks in our town joked me as to whether I was doing my work, and I just wrote something to the editor of the paper, making a little fun out of the whole situation, and, really, I was joking myself more than anyone else. The house must not take it seriously, it was all a joke."

STATE NEWS BRIEFS.

The timely arrival of neighbors saved Judd S. Simpson, of Lansing, from an untimely death in the flames of his burning home. The family were away at the time.

As Claude Blood, aged 22 years, of Cassopolis, stepped from in front of an eastbound freight train on the Grand Trunk tracks he was run down and killed by a westbound passenger train.

Clarence Lang, a prominent young man of Wahjamega, is dead from an illness considered trifling. He had tonsillitis and was improving when attacked with a coughing spell and expired in a few moments.

It is very probable that there will be no county fair in Sebewaing this year, and for that matter the county fair fever is rapidly dying out in the Thumb. Home-coming parties are said to be much more popular.

Two short-change artists came to grief in Battle Creek when William Kelly and Edward Williams were caught in the act in a grocery store and looked up. They have been operating in Michigan some time.

A "Boosters' club" has been organized at Harbor Beach to influence the Michigan Central railroad company to extend its line so as to have connections with Caro. The sugar beet industry is backing the "boosters."

Lieut. George M. Hunt, Company H, Third regiment, M. N. G., is dead at Ann Arbor from abscess of the brain, due to malarial fever contracted while in service in Cuba during the Spanish-American war. A widow and two children survive.

The sheep shearing season is on and from now until the next thirty days thousands of the bleating and restless animals will be shed of their woolly coats. Great herds of sheep are shipped to Vernon from the west annually and are fed through the winter and sold for spring mutton to the eastward markets. A late invention is a gasoline motor shear and with this a shearer can clip 100 sheep a day.

Lee-Wee, the celestial laundryman, who held four queens and got bumped by a Durand gambler who put up Lem's hand and drew four aces himself, to Lem's exceeding pain when he called after some lively betting, has disappeared. The Chinaman has a mortal fear of the law, and supposed he was not to be arrested. The gamblers are not sorry he went, as he would have been a witness against them, and it is probable that tall stories which were told him had something to do with his slipping away.

When Oscar Phelps, of Lansing, returned from work he found his little two-and-a-half-year-old baby asleep in its bed and a note from his wife saying she did not love him enough to live with him, and she had gone. The police have been asked to locate her.

The mysterious and still unthwarted murder of Lloyd Dwyne, formerly of Windsor, Ont., telegraph operator at Galien, Mich., is recalled by the marriage in Laporte, Ind., of Wm. H. Smith and Cora F. Swank, of Berrien county. Both were arrested and kept in jail for some time on suspicion, and the developments resulted in Swank at Vital statistics for December, 1906, just sent here in the Michigan Bulletin for that purpose, show that for the whole upper peninsula there were 614 births, as against 299 deaths. One more tally for the anti-vice sect.

Grim prophecy was fulfilled in Muskegon when William Teck was sentenced to 15 months at Ionia for stealing from Nathan H. Webb four years ago. Webb said at the time, "I'll land you behind prison bars for that," which he did, though he died two years ago with him while receiving his sentence, then fainted.

The Court Case.
"I don't need a chemist's report to prove to me that Albert Courter died from poison," said Dr. L. E. Bracy, who attended him. "I am already positive from the condition of the organs that is the case. Also, I am confident that, while a large dose might have killed him, he did not have morphine in small quantities into his system."

It is said Mrs. Courter, of Sheridan, who is charged with her husband's murder, was familiar with the use of opiates. Since a surgical operation was performed upon her three years ago she is said to have used cocaine and morphine extensively.

As many as eighteen headache pills a day are said to have been taken by her when she did not have morphine or cocaine. Arsenic is also believed to have formed a part of her opiate diet.

It is reported that relatives have said Mrs. Courter has acted strangely of late, indicating insanity.

Shot at the Brakeman.
Ejected from a Grand Trunk freight train, John Cole fired four times at the brakeman. None of the shots took effect.

Cole and William Maul boarded the train and were discovered near the home for Feeble Minded, one and one-half miles west. After they were thrown off, Cole fired at the brakeman.

When the train arrived at Elba, the first station west, the brakeman telephoned Sheriff Conley, who started in his buggy. Deputy Sheriff Elliott was sent up the track. Conley ran across the fields and captured the men. Both denied riding and also said they did not fire any shots.

Conley pinned Cole's arms behind him and threw him to the ground. He found the revolver and then Cole confessed, it is said. The men were put off a train two weeks ago and Cole used his revolver in a spirit of revenge. The brakeman will return Monday and make complaint against the men.

The McMillan Funeral.
With a simplicity more impressive than pomp and ceremony, all that was mortal of William C. McMillan, of Detroit, was laid to rest Saturday afternoon.

No words of eulogy were necessary to remind those gathered beside the bier of the achievements and high character of the deceased.

The presence of such a distinguished body of mourners was a more convincing and sincere testimonial than could have been voiced by the most eloquent of men.

ON MICHIGAN

NEW SCHEME TO PROVIDE WORK FOR CONVICTS IS NOW CONSIDERED.

TO FIGHT TRUST GOODS.

Breaking Stone Not Feasible, But Cordage Is in the Opinion of Some Students of the Problem.

Work for Convicts.

It is proposed to use the powers of the state of Michigan to fight such of the trusts as monopolize certain lines of trade and charge the people of the state exorbitant prices for their wares. Members of the legislature who have the scheme in mind do not express it that way, however. They say it is necessary to provide work for the convicts in the penal institutions, and they believe the convicts should manufacture goods now sold in the state only by big trusts.

In the reorganization of the prison system of the state, which has been made necessary by the recent interpretation of the constitution by the supreme court, some legislators favor abolishing the contract system and manufacturing and selling on the state's account. There is no reason, it is declared, why the prisons of the state should not be self-supporting, and now is the time to provide for turning them into manufacturing. The plan of selling the labor of the prisoners was inaugurated years ago, because people in those days objected to the state entering business, the socialistic features of such a scheme being more unpopular then than now.

Aside from the binding twine plant, it is suggested that a general cordage manufacturing plant might be established. Rope is manufactured by a trust. Another industry proposed is that of making grain bags. The sacks are made by one of the big trusts, and it is said that one western state now has a grain bag plant, which makes the sum annually into the state treasury and sells its product to the farmers at prices away below those of the trust.

It is proposed to inaugurate a hunt for trust-manufactured goods, which the state may fight by means of its state prisons. In adopting this plan the claim is made that the labor interests of the state would not be in opposition.

The present situation is said to be serious. There is danger that all work may be taken away from the convicts. Generally, there is objection to the plan to use the men in the penal institutions to break stone, and the members say it is impractical in Michigan.

The Sudden Death of Dr. L. W. Bliss.
The sudden death of Dr. L. W. Bliss, brother of the late Gov. A. T. Bliss, from heart failure at San Antonio, Tex., is announced. Dr. Bliss was one of the oldest and most prominent physicians of Saginaw. He had been in poor health for several years, and went south several weeks ago, accompanied by Dr. J. W. Bliss and the widow of the late governor. They traveled some time in Louisiana, and reached San Antonio this week. He became rapidly worse and died in the hospital yesterday.

MICHIGAN BREVITIES.

A scheme to build a township high school at Alamo is under way. If it carries the pupils from every district will be taken to school in carryalls.

Wm. Simpkins, who escaped from Bay City jail about three months ago by the aid of tools furnished by his sweetheart, has been recaptured at Escanaba.

Bay City commission men have organized a $30,000 company to erect a new market. This was done because the council proposed erecting the market 10 blocks from where it was wanted.

Dr. George Sweetman, a former dentist of Muskegon, was found dead in his office in Chicago. He had been sandbagged and robbed on the street, and crawled to his room, where he died.

The ways and means committee of the house has reported in favor of cutting the appropriation for premiums for the state fair at Detroit to $10,000 a year. The senate passed the bill at $15,000.

Mrs. Lena Loosthok, aged 43 years, mother of six children, died at Centennial Heights, because she was given lysol, a deadly poison, in place of medicine which had been prescribed for her.

R. Holden, ex-cashier of the Standard bank, has purchased several "forties" of state land near Bentley and is now lumbering the same, cutting bolts, posts, logs, etc., from the land.

W. J. Barnard, of Paw Paw, has been ordered by the supreme court to show cause why he should not be expelled from the legal bar. He is charged with deceiving the court in various ways.

Philip Brushardt, aged 102 years, of Burlington, whose father reached 104 years, attributes his extreme age to cheerfulness and an ability to indulge in plenty of good hearty laughs. He is a gardener.

Cement City is in the throes of a grip and pneumonia epidemic and Dr. Wm. Hyndman says that he has been called to every home in the village but seven. A double funeral was held last week for Charles Allen and his mother, Mrs. Burns.

Warden Russell's report for March shows that there are 310 convicts confined there, 10 more than last year; 29 are lifers. There has not been an escape in two years.

The pictorial presentation of a stabbing scene on the bill boards of Battle Creek was more than the officials could stand, and the Post theater people were ordered to cover the pictures with blank paper.

Frank R. Roys, of Grand Rapids, a bootlegger, was killed by a Pere Marquette train while on his way home to dinner. His wife and two children waited for him some time before they learned of his death.

Foolish Dietetic Fads.

"If men grimly eat to live, not live long," says Dr. Nominate Stedman, in a column.
The desperate serious was pleased with the present state of affairs at the capitol. He felt that the action of the senate Tuesday afternoon in promptly confirming the appointments he sent in, was fair notice that the halcyon had been buried and everyone is ready to take a turn at the pine of peace.

"Now for the 2-cent passenger fare bill and the binder twine plant," said the governor. "I will be glad to see bills to carry those plans into effect, taken up and made into laws." He has sent to the senate the appointment of Dr. Dayton Parker, of Detroit, as member of the state board of corrections and charities. W. A. Dooley, well known Detroit druggist, becomes a member of the state board of pharmacy.

The following other appointments were made: James V. Barry, commissioner of insurance; Mary C. Spencer, state librarian; Temple Emery, Bay City, inspector of salt; John D. Schulte, Tecumseh, board of control, state public school; William A. Rosenkrantz, Corunna, board of trustees in industrial school board; D. B. K. Van Raalte, Holland, board of managers Soldiers' home; Louis Kanitz, Muskegon, board of managers Soldiers' home; A. R. Wheeler, St. Louis, state board of health; Delbert H. Power, Suttons Bay, board of fish commissioners; Francis H. Rankin, of Flint, board of trustees Michigan School for Deaf; Victor C. Vaughan, Ann Arbor, state board of health.

The entire military staff is reappointed except that Joseph E. Watson, of Bronson, succeeds Frank B. Leland as colonel in the governor's personal staff.

Remarkable Case.
Although kept alive by the enticement of actor-folk until he reached Battle Creek for an operation at the Sanitarium, Seth M. Velsey, millionaire broker, of Logansport, Ind., is dead. He underwent an operation for gall stones and instantly rallied. But he could not avoid the inevitable, and death came six days later.

Mr. Velsey's case was remarkable. He started for an operation, though assured he would not live until he reached the city. On his train was the "Bankers and Brokers" company, a musical comedy organization. Velsey, struck by the address of the title, being himself a broker, asked them to sing for him. They gave the show, minus costumes and scenery, and the death came six days later.

Dr. Bliss is Dead.
The sudden death of Dr. L. W. Bliss, brother of the late Gov. A. T. Bliss, from heart failure at San Antonio, Tex., is announced. Dr. Bliss was one of the oldest and most prominent physicians of Saginaw. He had been in poor health for several years, and went south several weeks ago, accompanied by Dr. J. W. Bliss and the widow of the late governor. They traveled some time in Louisiana, and reached San Antonio this week. He became rapidly worse and died in the hospital yesterday.

MICHIGAN BREVITIES.

A scheme to build a township high school at Alamo is under way. If it carries the pupils from every district will be taken to school in carryalls.

Wm. Simpkins, who escaped from Bay City jail about three months ago by the aid of tools furnished by his sweetheart, has been recaptured at Escanaba.

Bay City commission men have organized a $30,000 company to erect a new market. This was done because the council proposed erecting the market 10 blocks from where it was wanted.

Dr. George Sweetman, a former dentist of Muskegon, was found dead in his office in Chicago. He had been sandbagged and robbed on the street, and crawled to his room, where he died.

The ways and means committee of the house has reported in favor of cutting the appropriation for premiums for the state fair at Detroit to $10,000 a year. The senate passed the bill at $15,000.

Mrs. Lena Loosthok, aged 43 years, mother of six children, died at Centennial Heights, because she was given lysol, a deadly poison, in place of medicine which had been prescribed for her.

R. Holden, ex-cashier of the Standard bank, has purchased several "forties" of state land near Bentley and is now lumbering the same, cutting bolts, posts, logs, etc., from the land.

W. J. Barnard, of Paw Paw, has been ordered by the supreme court to show cause why he should not be expelled from the legal bar. He is charged with deceiving the court in various ways.

Philip Brushardt, aged 102 years, of Burlington, whose father reached 104 years, attributes his extreme age to cheerfulness and an ability to indulge in plenty of good hearty laughs. He is a gardener.

Cement City is in the throes of a grip and pneumonia epidemic and Dr. Wm. Hyndman says that he has been called to every home in the village but seven. A double funeral was held last week for Charles Allen and his mother, Mrs. Burns.

Warden Russell's report for March shows that there are 310 convicts confined there, 10 more than last year; 29 are lifers. There has not been an escape in two years.

The pictorial presentation of a stabbing scene on the bill boards of Battle Creek was more than the officials could stand, and the Post theater people were ordered to cover the pictures with blank paper.

Frank R. Roys, of Grand Rapids, a bootlegger, was killed by a Pere Marquette train while on his way home to dinner. His wife and two children waited for him some time before they learned of his death.

BLACKENING THE WHITE NAME

JEROME IS MERCILESS IN HIS CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MRS. THAW.

SHE WOEFULLY TOLD ALL

Demand for White's Letters to Mrs. Thaw Refused by the Thaw Attorneys.

Searching Pitilessly.

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw underwent another searching cross-examination at the hands of District Attorney Jerome Tuesday. The young wife kept her eyes, fencing with her interrogator, dawning in indignation and stamping her foot by turns at some of the questions asked her. The district attorney failed to trip her up in any important details, although he jumped from one part of her story to another.

Mrs. Thaw swore that Edna Goodrich, the actress, introduced her to Stanford White. Her voice trembled at times, but she bore the test with much fortitude and there was no indication of a breakdown at any point of her testimony.

Mr. Jerome indicated by his questions that he does not intend to spare her in any way, but will turn over every leaf in her past life. It was apparent that he would keep the young woman on the stand possibly for several days to come.

Mr. Jerome questioned Mrs. Thaw as to her manner of posing for artists, insisting upon definite answers. She denied in a positive manner that she had ever posed in any but the most proper manner.

Mr. Jerome asked her about her relations with James A. Garland, whom she knew before she met Stanford White. A question as to whether she was named as co-respondent in Garland's divorce suit was withdrawn.

Jerome was assisted materially in his cross-examination of the witness by statements made to him by her mother, Mrs. Holman, who is in Pittsburgh, and her brother.

District Attorney Jerome continued to lash Evelyn Nesbit Thaw under a pitiless cross examination Thursday. No secret of the woman's past was too intimate for the district attorney to make her lay it bare. He made her admit with tears that her associations with White continued for several months after she claimed to have been drugged.

Mrs. Thaw declared that in every instance she had been plied with wine. As the district attorney bared her story Mrs. Thaw wept bitterly. Thaw sat with his face buried in his hands. Two newspaper women, used to the varying scenes of life, left the court room. Jerome wanted every detail. Mrs. Thaw tearfully told all.

Toward the close of the morning session there came a new and great surprise when Mr. Delmas, of Thaw's counsel, stated that threats by the district attorney to indict Mrs. Thaw had been overheard in court. Jerome had been made aware of that. That was as far as he would go.

Jerome says Mrs. Thaw's cross-examination cannot be finished in less than a day and a half.

Mr. Jerome called Attorney Hart-ridge to the stand and demanded certain letters written by Stanford White. Hartridge refused to answer Jerome's questions, standing on his professional privilege as counsel to Mr. and Mrs. Thaw both.

THE ORDEAL.

</

The Chelsea Standard-Herald

An independent local newspaper published every Thursday afternoon from its office in the Standard building, Chelsea, Michigan.

BY G. C. STIMSON.

Terms:—$1.00 per year; six months, fifty cents; three months, twenty-five cents. Advertising rates reasonable and made known on application.

Entered as second-class matter, January 11, 1906, at the postoffice at Chelsea, Michigan, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

State Ticket.

For Justice of the Supreme Court—WILLIAM L. CARPENTER, Of Wayne.
AARON V. MCALVAY, Of Manistee.
 For Regent of the University—JUNIOUS E. BEAL, Of Washtenaw.
FRANK B. LELAND, Of Wayne.
 For Member of Board of Education—W. A. COTTON, Of Delta.

County Ticket.

For County Auditor—GEORGE H. FISCHER, Of Ann Arbor.
 For Commissioner of Schools—EVAN ESSERY, Of Manchester.

Rank Will Case.

On February 8, 1907, a petition was filed by W. P. Schenk, as executor, in the probate court, through his attorneys, Stivers & Kalmbach, in which the court was asked to construe the will of the late Ludwig Rank, of Sylvan, for the purpose of enabling him to determine what to do about paying the legacies provided for in the will.

Mr. Rank, on February 8, 1899, made a contract with his son, Michael Rank, in which he leased his homestead for eight years, and on December 21, 1900, he made a will, in which he willed to his daughters and grandchildren the sum of six thousand dollars, which sum of money was to be paid by George Rank within one year after the death of Mrs. Ludwig Rank. George Rank was to have the farm, subject to the $6,000 legacies. On June 23, 1903, Mrs. Rank died, which was three years and eight months before the lease of the farm expired. The daughters asked the executor to pay them interest on the legacies since the death of the mother. The executor holding that George Rank should have one year from the time he came in possession of the farm before he should pay the legacies, and Judge Leland held with Mr. Schenk. This case will probably be taken to the higher court.

Seventh Anniversary.

The seventh anniversary program and supper of the dedication of the new Methodist church was given Tuesday evening and enjoyed by all who attended. The ladies will clear about $50.

The program was an excellent one. Miss Steinbach rendered a selection on the pipe organ, which was followed by prayer by Rev. Seth Reed. Dorothy Glazier and Lena Rodell sang a duet which was encored. They came back with two white Teddy Bears and sang "My Sweetheart Teddy Bear."

Supt. Gallup was the first speaker, and handled in an interesting manner the subject, "The Church and the Public Schools." Miss Ora Nickerson, of Mt. Clemens, sang a solo.

Rev. J. L. Nickerson was the next speaker and spoke of the "Old Church and the New, the Work and Mission of God's Kingdom."

Rev. Eugene Allen, of Ypsilanti, with all the Allen's fire and vigor, delivered an address on "The Double Handed Faith."

A solo by Miss Hazel Speer was greatly appreciated. Dr. Dave, the presiding elder, followed with appropriate remarks.

Examine Ancient Claim.

A relic of the Pingree administration in the form of an ancient claim of M. J. Cavanaugh, an Ann Arbor lawyer, was examined by the board of state auditors Wednesday. The claim was for $611.10.

When Gov. Pingree sought the removal of Warden Chamberlain, of Jackson prison, in 1900, so that he might appoint the late William Judson, of Ann Arbor, in his place, he employed Attorney Cavanaugh to conduct the investigation of Chamberlain.

As the employment of the lawyer was not authorized by the attorney-general that official refused to approve the claim, and the auditors to whom it was presented declined to allow it.

Recently the claimant secured the indorsement of the claim by former Atty-Gen. Orin. Atty-Gen. Bird says that if the services were rendered in good faith for the state the board has power to allow the claim. Final action on the claim has been deferred.

A Valuable Lesson.

"Six years ago I learned a valuable lesson," writes John Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. "I then began taking Dr. King's New Life Pills, and the longer I take them the better I find them." They please everybody. Guaranteed at the Bank Drug Store, 25c.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Lee Foster spent Monday in Morenci.

E. E. Shaver and wife spent Monday in Detroit.

Miss Tressa Winters is visiting Detroit friends.

J. J. Rafferty left Monday for Cleveland on a business trip.

Capt. E. L. Negus was a Lansing visitor Wednesday.

D. H. Warster and wife were in Detroit the first of the week.

Miss Cora Bowen, of Ypsilanti, was a guest of Chelsea friends Tuesday.

Miss Emma Mast, of Jackson, spent Sunday with her mother at this place.

E. L. Schumacher and wife, of Ann Arbor, were guests of Chelsea relatives Tuesday.

Mrs. Myron Stilwell, of Jackson, was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hamilton.

Miss Beatrice Bacon, of Lapeer, spent several days of the past week with her parents here.

Mrs. R. Scouten and C. Currier spent Saturday and Sunday with Grass Lake friends.

Miss Mabel Bacon, of Coldwater, visited her parents here several days of the past week.

Mrs. Lee Palmer, of Detroit, visited with relatives here the latter part of the past week.

Miss Faith Cole of Adrian, was the guest of friends in Chelsea last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Kress, of Ann Arbor, spent several days of the past week with friends here.

Dr. W. L. Whitaker, of Durand, was a guest at the home of Russell Wheelock and family, of Lima, Tuesday.

Edward Brighton and Edward Uphaus, of Manchester, were guests at the home of Jacob Hummel, Sunday.

Miss Mary Burkhardt and Wm. Stierle, of Salline, were guests at the home of Philip Seitz and family last week.

Robert Scouten and wife, who have been guests at the home of C. Currier returned home the first of the week.

Prof. Fred R. Gorton, of Ypsilanti, was Saturday a guest at the home of his father, Henry Gorton, of this place.

Miss Josephine Bacon, of Olivet, spent several days of the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bacon.

Miss Elizabeth Considine of Detroit, was the guest of her brother, Rev. W. P. Considine at St. Mary's rectory last Saturday and Sunday.

Last week Friday and Saturday Mrs. Nellie Culp and Mrs. Sarah Fought, of Lake Odessa, were the guests of Mrs. George Irwin, Mrs. Mary Winans and Ed. Ward and wife, of Sylvan.

CORRESPONDENCE.

WATERLOO.

Orson Beeman and wife are visiting friends near Howell.

A number of people in this vicinity are suffering with the grip.

John Hubbard is suffering with a lame back caused from a fall.

Lynn Gorton, Elizabeth Moeckel and George Rowe spent Tuesday in Jackson.

Victor and Laura Moeckel attended the theater at Jackson Tuesday evening.

Watch the paper for the date of the young people's entertainment given in March.

SOUTHWEST MANCHESTER.

Mrs. Noggle is quite ill again.

Mrs. Byron Hunt is on the sick list.

Miss Lilly Austin is staying at the home of Ed. Pierce in Sharon.

It was decided Sunday to have Easter exercises at the Iron Creek church.

Miss Anna Coleman was not able to teach school last week on account of sickness.

The Cappa Gamma will meet at the home of Henry Ierman Friday evening, the topic will be schools.

Olive, Richard, Albert and Nellie Sutton and Genevieve Stebbins were guests at the home of Frank Stantz Sunday.

Miss Davis, a teacher of expression in Hillsdale college, gave an interesting program at Iron Creek church Wednesday evening as a benefit for the young people's society.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in our recent sad affliction:

Mrs. John Witty.
 Mrs. Wm. Lewick.
 Mrs. Clara Hart.
 Mrs. Hannah Smock.

There's nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures it in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.

NORTH SHAW.

Mrs. Dan Butler is in Chelsea.

Miss Lizzie Heeselschwerdt, guest of Chelsea relatives.

Prof. Fred Irwin, of Detroit, spent the first of this week with his parents.

Mrs. C. Gage and Miss Lizzie Heeselschwerdt visited Mrs. H. Main last Thursday.

Miss Gertrude Fisk, of Trenton, visited at the home of J. R. Lemm a few days last week.

Mrs. Ashley Holden, Mrs. Wm. Alber and son were guests at the home of Mrs. H. Harvey one day last week.

SOUTHWEST SYLVAN.

John Weber is on the sick list.

Little Bertille Weber spent Saturday with Genevieve Weber.

Miss Margaret Kress, of Ann Arbor, is visiting friends here.

John Walz and wife joined the Cavanaugh Lake Grange Saturday.

Martin Merkel purchased three horses of Grass Lake parties last Saturday.

James Struthers is having his sheep shorn this week. The first of the season.

Mrs. J. P. Heim spent the first of week with her sister, Mrs. Fleming, of Henrietta.

George Gage and family spent Sunday with the Misses Josephine and Dorrit Hoppe.

NORTH LAKE.

Byron Hopkins is sawing wood in this vicinity.

Miss Mary Dearing has returned to her work in Detroit.

The subscription papers are out to raise money to repair the church here.

Mrs. Smock, of Ann Arbor, attended the funeral of her father held here Tuesday.

The mid-week evening prayer meeting was held at the home of E. W. Daniels with a fair attendance.

F. Hinkley, P. E. Noah and others who attended the institute at Chelsea say it was as good as the one held here recently.

Sam Schultz is having a large lot of lumber sawed out of the logs which were uprooted by the big storm last summer.

The fish warden was here last week advising fishermen not to catch any bass. Why, the pickerel have done that long since.

The storm and sickness prevented some from attending the wedding of Mr. Dor Quail and Miss Elsa Hinkley in Webster Wednesday evening.

The box social held at the home of George Webb and family last Friday evening was well attended and a very enjoyable affair. The net proceeds were $19.

John Witty a resident here for the past few years died at his home Sunday morning about six o'clock. The interment was held Tuesday at Isoco, his former home. He leaves a wife and several children. Rev. Gorton, of Dexter, officiated.

FRANCISCO.

There is an odor of orange blossoms in the air.

Fred Notten and wife have moved into their new home.

Mrs. R. Hoppe, of Crooked Lake, is visiting Detroit friends.

Mrs. Nancy Conklin visited at the home of James Rowe, Wednesday.

Carrie Schroeder is the guest of Henry Musbach and wife this week.

Mrs. Caroline Notten, who has been seriously ill is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Margaret Schriener, who has been quite ill is reported some better.

Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Lenz are spending two weeks with friends in Ohio.

J. I. Sepi and wife, of Detroit, were guests of Fred L. Riggs and wife over Sunday.

Lewis Heeselschwerdt, of Sharon, was a guest at the home of John Killmer last week.

Mrs. Henry Notten and daughter were guests of Mrs. Emmet Dancer, of Chelsea, last week.

Mrs. Henry Musbach spent several days of last week with friends in Detroit and Ypsilanti.

The Ladies' Aid of the German M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Kalmbach Wednesday, March 6.

Fred L. Riggs and wife were pleasantly surprised Tuesday by 27 of their neighbors. Phonographic music and cards helped pass the time. A good time was reported by all present.

Rising from the Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, William A. Fortwell, of Lucania, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at the Bank Drug Store. Price only 50c.

OFFICIAL.
 Chelsea, Mich., February 19, 1907.
 Board met in regular session.
 Meeting called to order by W. J. Knapp, president pro tem.
 Roll called by clerk.
 Present—Trustees W. J. Knapp and J. W. Schenk.
 Absent—F. P. Glazier, president, and Trustees Burkhardt, Knapp, Schenk and Sweetland.
 J. D. Colton and L. P. Vogel.
 Moved and supported that this meeting stand adjourned until 4 p. m., February 20, 1907.
 Carried.
 W. H. Heeselschwerdt, Clerk.

Chelsea, Mich., February 20, 1907.
 Pursuant to regular adjourned meeting of February 19, 1907, Board met in regular session.

Meeting called to order by the president.

Roll called by the clerk.

Present—F. P. Glazier, president, and Trustees Burkhardt, Knapp, Schenk and Sweetland.

Absent—J. D. Colton and L. P. Vogel.

Minutes of the meeting of January 29, 1907, including Ordinance No. 36, was read for the third time.

Moved by Knapp, seconded by Burkhardt, that the minutes stand approved as read by the clerk.

Yeas—Burkhardt, Knapp, Schenk and Sweetland.

Nays—None.

Carried.

The following bills were then presented and read by the clerk:

Ihling Bros. & Everard, order book, $11.50

Henry R. Worthington, cross-head, 2.89

A. E. Winans, express, 13.05

American Oil Co., barrel of oil, 22.50

Duncan Electric Mfg. Co., meter, 17.20

Columbia Incandescent Lamp Co., 200 lamps, 48.75

Chelsea Standard-Herald, printing, 52.00

J. A. Roe & Co., valves and nipples, 6.77

John Kelly, draying, 1.15

James Dunn, draying, 1.85

C. G. Kaercher, making scraper, 6.38

Quaker City Rubber Co., packing, 2.10

E. McCarty, labor, 2.10

J. Embury, labor, 4 meters, 51.12

Diamond Motor Co., 4 meters, 59.94

Bauer Gas Fixture Works, 6.22

Wm. Bacon-Holmes Co., 1.50

A. G. Faust, snow plow, 5.00

E. Bahmiller, labor, 12.50

John Embury, labor, unloading coal, 15

Michigan State Telephone Co., 137.20

Collins, Lahn & Dalziel, 3 cars of coal, 44.01

R. C. Teal, supplies and fixtures, 99.02

R. Williamson Co., fixtures, 636.98

M. C. R. R. Co., freight on coal, etc., 405.47

Ohio & Michigan Coal Co., 9 cars of coal, 438.89

F. L. Davidson, balance on cement walks, 438.89

Moved by Knapp, seconded by Schenk, that the bills be allowed as read by the clerk and orders drawn on the treasurer for their amounts.

Yeas—Burkhardt, Knapp, Schenk and Sweetland.

Nays—None.

Carried.

The following registration and election board, also election commissioners, were appointed by the president:

Registration Board—W. H. Heeselschwerdt, F. H. Sweetland and W. J. Knapp.

Board of Election Inspectors—W. J. Knapp, O. C. Burkhardt, J. W. Schenk, F. H. Sweetland and W. H. Heeselschwerdt.

Board of Election Commissioners—A. W. Wilkinson, J. S. Gorman and John Kalmbach.

Moved by Knapp, seconded by Burkhardt, that the appointments made by the president are hereby confirmed.

Yeas—Burkhardt, Knapp, Schenk and Sweetland.

Nays—None.

Carried.

Moved and supported that the clerk be instructed to post the proper notices of the coming annual election.

Carried.

On motion, Board adjourned.

W. H. Heeselschwerdt, Clerk.

One of His Reverses.

"Ham on rye!" bitterly reflected Goodman Goung, as he hungrily tackled the free lunch. "There was a time when I could afford unlimited ham on rye!"

A Doctor's Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is not a simple cough syrup. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. It cures hard cases, severe and desperate cases, chronic cases of asthma, pleurisy, bronchitis, consumption. Ask your doctor about this.

"I have used a great deal of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and hard colds on the chest. It has always done me great good. It is certainly a most wonderful cough medicine."—MICHAEL J. FREDERICK, Bedford, N. J.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of SASSAPARILLA, PILLS, HAIR VIGOR.

You will hasten recovery by taking one of Ayer's Pills at bedtime.

Foolish Dietetic Fads.

"If men grimly eat to live, not live long," says Dr. J. H. Stedman, in a desperate serious present general state.

FOR WOMEN

THERE IS

ONE kind of a SHOE in which most feet feel at home, right away. There is something about the shape of them that lets every part of the foot settle right down in the spot where it belongs. They're handsome too. The right sort is stamped on the sole "Pingree-made"

They are for sale here and here only.

The "GLORIA" for Women

Made in all leathers, button and lace, welt or turn sole, always $3.50

The "COMPOSITE" for Women

Made in fine Vici Kid, Button or lace, welt or turn sole, always $3.00

The "GOVERNOR" for Men

Made in all leathers, button or lace, all the new shapes, always $4.00

H. S. HOLMES MERCANTILE COMPANY

WANT COLUMN

RENTS, REAL ESTATE, FOUND LOST WANTED, ETC.

FOR RENT—The Mrs. O. J. Tripp house of nine rooms on west Middle street. Has been repaired and remodeled and is a very desirable place. Price $11 per month. Inquire of Kalmbach & Watson. 4tf

FOR SALE 'HEAP—Good second-hand road cart. A. G. Faust. 4tf

LOST—Last Saturday evening near the residence of Michael Mohrlock on Taylor street a ladies' fur muff. Finder will please leave at The Standard-Herald office.

FEED GRINDING—I am prepared to grind feed every day. I also have for sale No. 1 cider and vinegar, and ground feed. Chas. Meinhold, Jerusalem Mills, phone 144-25.

FARM FOR SALE OR RENT—Known as the Cooper farm, four miles north of Chelsea. Inquire of Mrs. G. Wall, Dexter. 3tf

FOR SALE—One lot on Middle street; 3 lots in D. B. Taylor's addition, $800 each; J. Geo. Kalmbach place house and 2 acres land; 1 lot on corner of Lincoln and Cong. streets; John Conlin farm, Lyndon; 9 lots in Mrs. R. B. Gates' addition to Chelsea. Inquire of Turnbull & Withersell.

LARGE ENGLISH YORKSHIRES for sale at the South Jackson Stock Farm. The prize herd of Michigan. All stock the get of Jackson Bay, the grand champion boar of Michigan. Gallup & Townley, proprietors, Jackson, Chittens' phone w 144, or E. E. Gallup, Chelsea. 36tf KALMBACH & WATSON have a good big lot of village and farm properties. See them if you want to buy—See them if you want to sell.

FOR SALE—One span of black 3 year old colts, 1 brown horse weight 1,300 pounds,

Feb. 28, 1907

STEPHEN

MAJOR OZONE'S FRESH AIR CRUSADE

THE CHET

Mrs. D. M.

AN YOU FELLERS GIVE A PAUL - PAUL TO GO HOME AT 11 O'CLOCK, BECAUSE YOUR WIVES MIGHT KICK! JUST COME WITH ME AN' I'LL GIVE YOU ALL A LESSON IN TALKIN' TO A WIFE! - I'M BOSS UP AT MY HOUSE!

GEES! MY KEY'S GONE! - I'LL HAVE TO RING THE BELL!

IS THAT YOU, BILL JONES? ... WHAT D'VE MEAN COMING HOME AT 11 O'CLOCK - SHAME ON YOU!!!!

YES, DEAR - LET HIM IN - LOST MY KEY!

SURE! HIS WIFE CAN'T BOSS HIM! OH, NO!

HAW - HAW! LOOK-A - JONES!

THERE, BILL JONES! THAT'LL TEACH YOU NOT TO STAY OUT LATE AGAIN! ... AND YOU CAN JUST FINISH THE NIGHT OUT OF DOORS, TOO! - LOAFER, BRUTE I'LL - SHOW - YOU!!!!

DINK

"Take the candle, — run upstairs,
And get the scissors, please;"
Says Mama Prim to 'Pinkie,
Who rises from her knees

And ceases play to hasten
The simple task to do;
Knowing not the scare she'll get Before the task be through?

Upstairs, an opened window
Allows a breeze to play.
Pinkie's candle gets blown out.
Imagine her dismay!

Matters worse! A great white thing,
As big as Papa, 'most, —
Over in the corner looms!
Does Pinkie see a ghost?

Candle lighted,-- scissors found,
To corner Pinkie posts.
"Old mean sheet!" she cries aloud,
"Girls don't believe in ghosts!"

THE LA

TEACH CHILDREN

All children should be taught to do, some work regularly, some taught to do it out whimpering. When to wait up to keep their toys tidy and in their place. It is a good play with one when that is tired before a fresh one instead of a little tidied, and put away when the little one is playing, there is can be quickly changed. When a child is taught him to put his toys neatly away, he is fitted to them. He will be of great use to the world, and grow older, and strengthen his mind.

WHAT MY LAISSEZ-FAIRE NOW

SOME CHIC COSTUMES

HAT OF NUT BROWN FELT WITH BROWN FEATHERS AND LONG VEIL OF BROWN CHIFFON.

ROBE OF DRAP "VIOLET" WITH BOLERO AND ENTREDEUX OF PANNE "VIOLET" EMBROIDERED AND INCRUSTATED WITH PASSEMENTERIE.

AT THE LAST MEETING AT AUTUILL. ROBE OF SMOKE GREY VELVET WITH VEST OF GREY CLOTH EMBROIDERED

HAT OF THE NEW "HELMET" SHAPE IN WHITE FELT WITH PALEST GREEN VELVET CROWN AND GREEN FEATHERS.

ODDS AND ENDS

To Clean Furniture.

Mix together one pint raw linseed oil, one pint sharp vinegar and one-half pint spirits of wine. Dip a soft cloth into the mixture and rub over the furniture, and then wipe thoroughly with a clean, soft cloth. Always shake the mixture before using. Nothing is better.

Management of Brooms.

If brooms are dipped in boiling soda once a week, they become very tough, will not shed a carpet, last much longer than those not so treated, and always sweep like a new broom.

Should grease be spilled upon the floor of the kitchen, cover it at once with cold water. This hardens the grease and prevents it from soaking in. It can then be easily scraped up.

The Buttons on Your Back.

The two buttons that are invariably on the back of a man's dress coat are the survival of these squares that were originally used to hold up the sword belt of olden days.

To Preserve Flowers.

Dip fresh-cut flowers, free from moisture, in melted paraffine, withdrawing them quickly. The paraffine should only be hot enough to become liquid, and the flowers should be dipped one at a time, held by the stalks and moved about a little to prevent air-bubbles. Such flowers remain perfect a long time.

Whitewash for Outside.

Black the lime in boiling water, and to three gallons ordinary whitewash add one pint of molasses and one pint of salt. Stir the mixture frequently while putting it on. Two thin coats is sufficient. For fences, trees or out-buildings this is an excellent whitewash.

Egg Stains on Spoons.

To remove the stains on spoons caused by using them for boiled eggs, take a little common salt, moist between the thumb and finger, and rub the stain, which will soon disappear.

For Scars.

If a scar is red rubbing it with hot olive oil will lessen the color, but not remove it. If you write me full particulars, what caused the scar, I will be better able to help you. By sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope the reply will reach you more quickly.

Cut up a neck of lamb, and put it in casseroles with sliced carrot, turnip and onion; add water to cover, a tablespoonful of chopped capers, and about a tablespoonful of rice. Cook very gently for two hours.

Dr. Vaucaire's Remedy for the Bust.

1. Cold extract of galega (goatsrue), 10 grs.; 2. lacto phosphate of lime, 10 grs.; 3. tincture of fennel, 10 grs.; simple syrup, 10 grs.

The dose is two spoonfuls with water before each meal. Dr. Vaucaire also advises the drinking of malt extract during meals.

THE LAW OF THE TRADING STAMP

One-quarter of the states of the country adopted last year some new legislation or amended some former legislation in reference to trading stamps. But the states have approached the trading stamp problem by different methods.

New York regulates the issuance and redemption of trading stamps by providing that the value of the stamp in lawful money shall be printed on the face of each and that they shall be redeemable in merchandise or money on demand. Maryland prohibits the sale or issuance of trading stamps except for a stated value in money, such value to be printed on the face of each. Louisiana authorizes the use of trading stamps under the license given to trading stamp companies, the value of such license ranging from $5,000 to $10,000 a year, according to the gross receipts. Massachusetts imposes a tax of 3 per cent on the gross receipts of articles sold for which trading stamps are given.

California prohibits the giving of trading stamps or coupons entirely. Colorado makes it a misdemeanor either to give or accept a trading stamp if "representing an uncertain bonus for the purchase of goods."

Washington prohibits trading stamps entirely.

Nebraska follows the New York law and fixes a fine and penalty for its violation of from $100 to $1,000 for each offense.

New Hampshire prohibits the establishment of trading stamp companies.

New Jersey follows the New York law and provides a penalty for the distributor of trading stamps who violates it.

Connecticut requires the person giving trading stamps to redeem them. They cannot be made redeemable by a third party.

CLEANING OILCLOTH.

The careful housewife avoids the use of either soap or ammonia in the water with which her oilcloth is cleaned. She knows that their use will injure the material and render the colors dull and lifeless. She also avoids a brush unless she owns a very soft one, and relies upon clear, clean water and soft flannel cloths for her cleaning work.

Some housekeepers think that oilcloth keeps its freshness and gives far better service if treated to a coat of varnish when first put down.

HOW TO TELL FORTUNES WITH CARDS.

The kings are married men of your acquaintance, Jacks are single men and Queens ladies.

Diamonds—1, a letter; 2, two days, weeks, months or years; 3, a present; 4, marriage; 5, a good friend; 6, new friend; 7, legal papers; 8, jealousy; 9, a ring; 10, money.

Hearts—1, bundle; 2, a kiss; 3, sickness of 3 or 5 days; 4, dine out; 5, offer of marriage; 6, conversation; 7, pleasant surprise; 8, little trouble; 9, your wish; 10, a good time.

Clubs—1, your house; 2, new shoes or clothes; 3, a newborn child; 4, unpleasant journey; 5, intrigue or deceit; 6, going on steam cars; 7, unpleasant surprise; 8, drink (generally intoxicants); 9, change of residence; 10, you are going to the city or some thickly settled place.

Spades—1 (straight), going out for a drive (when upside down), a funeral; 2, you will see a coffin; 3, a lie; 4, sickness; 5, visitor; 6, across the water; 7, unpleasant news; 8, tears; 9, disappointment; 10, night time.

Diamonds and hearts are good cards so when your wish card (9 of hearts) is surrounded by them, you will get your wish. If surrounded by spades, you won't get your wish, but if by clubs, it's doubtful.

The one whose fortune is to be told must shuffle the cards—first making a wish (secretly)—then let some one cut the cards twice (faced down). Now you have 3 piles. The fortune teller now turns up the face side of each pile, telling what the top card on each means—for instance, if on the first pile there is the ace or one of diamonds, on the second 5 of hearts, and on the third 6 of spades, it will be read thus: "You will receive a letter containing an offer of marriage from across the water."

Now proceed to read the first pile, placing face up, one after the other on the table. Then read second pile and lastly the third.

Some go through this 3 times, others only once. Now have same person pick out 21 cards (after shuffling them and placing them face down on table). Then fortune teller places the 21 cards in seven piles (one at a time) as follows: 1st pile, 10 cards; 2d to 4th to your thoughts; 5th what you expect; 6th what you don't expect; 7th what's sure to come true. Hoping this is plain, if not ask questions.

Aunt Mame.

IN CASE OF FIRE.

If the room you are in is full of smoke, crawl along the floor, with head low as possible to reach a window. If escape through a window is possible do not open the door. If there is water in the room, wet a towel or other cloth and stuff in the mouth and draw your breath through it; not through the nose. Above all manage to keep cool if you can; there is generally a way to escape if you are not too excited to think of it. If traveling, always make a survey of your sleeping room and its surroundings; you will then, in case of fire, know how to escape by the nearest way.

FANCY HAT PINS IN FAVOR

Such is the craze for novel and elaborate hat pins that milady now buys a hat to tone with her pins; that is, unless her purse is unusually well filled and she may satisfy her taste in hat pins to go with each hat.

Jewelers have had many orders recently to set odd old stones—family heirlooms, perhaps, into hat pins. Some of the most expensive pins have been made from large uncut rubies, chunks of opal or jade, hammered bits of gold and specimens of inlaid tortoise shell.

A favorite hat pin in Scotland is the thistle, the flower of the country.

CARE OF PATENT LEATHER SHOES.

Don't forget, in addition to warming a pair of patents before wearing, that they should be gently kneaded with the finger tips to make sure the leather is soft and pliable and will not crack when put on the feet.

Patent leather shoes when put on the feet and used only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

Polish patent leather boots when on the feet and use only a good quality of paste or friction polish. Put on a thin layer of the blackening that may be quickly rubbed to a luster with a textile brush and a soft cotton flannel rag.

fashioned of gold and amethyst or gold and topaz. Another odd hat pin of that country is made from a number of Scotch pebbles inlaid in old silver. A conspicuous detail of the British pin is the strength and firmness of the pin itself; it is a veritable stiletto.

One ingenious woman who has returned from a trip through various parts of Canada, has had two souvenirs which were given her during her travels, set on hat pins. One was a small gold dog and the other was a pin with the Canadian arms in gold enamel. They are not as pretty as some of the pins in the shop windows or the jeweler's show cases, but they are odd and interesting, and it is one method of disposing, usefully, of the souvenir.

Some of the imitation stones or amber or coral tops are so heavily set as to be almost top-heavy, but worn with the right hat they add a very effective touch to the trimming.

A large cameo pin was made over into a hat pin and used in a hat of gray soft felt trimmed with slate-colored ostrich feathers and velvet ribbon in two tones of gray. The cameo in its delicate pink tints was the only color on the chapeau and the effect was dainty and quaint, yet entirely up-to-date.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

When gloves of accessory color are worn it is considered in good taste to have the tops of the shoes correspond with them, also the buttons.

HOW TO WEAR SILKS EVERYDAY

Women of fashion have an abiding faith in the usefulness and prettiness of silks, especially the plain taffetas and the checks and plaids in the soft surahs, rajahs, etc. The newest spring designs are just what one needs for both the formal and informal purposes of dress, but the informal designs are in the majority in accordance with the law of demand and supply. Quite a stunning frock in twine-colored taffetas, by Paquin, has a triple skirt stitched with folds of golden brown silk and laid in stitched tucks about the waist line. There is a bodice of tucked gauze, almost concealed beneath a drapery of lace at the front, and over this is an independent bolero of silk outlined with bias folds of silk corresponding with those upon the skirt.

Soft silks of the description mentioned above are to be the forte of spring for the construction of smart frocks. These will be checked and embroidered, some of the latter being especially suited to elaborate costumes for casino wear. Fine black and white checks trimmed with plain white silk are admirable, being affected by women in second mourning to a great extent. Touched with a bit of color about the neck and sleeves they are quite as much in demand by women free from the obligation of donning habiliments of woe. Many of the black and white checks are reminiscent of the mouselines seen in this combination in some of the chiffon velvets which figured so prominently among the luxuries of winter.

Silks in plain color come in more delicious tints than ever, the most sought shades being tapestry blue, flamingo pink, ophelia mauve and the yellows from cowslip to honey. With these are used the daintiest of embroidered guimpes and delicate laces of all kinds, Irish lace being a prime favorite. It is closely rivalled by the fllets, cluny and the Varvish mesh laces with darned design.

HOW TO CARVE

A LEG OF MUTTON—A leg of mutton should be sliced thickly, but not pressed heavily upon with the knife, as the gravy runs out very quickly. It should be cut first in the middle in even slices toward the knuckle and, as this part is not so nice to eat, cut.

RABBITS—Rabbits, if roasted and served whole, are arranged in a sort of kneeling position and pressed down into a bed of mashed potatoes, or a deep bed of cream. When carving, divide the rabbit into two equal parts, cutting crosswise at the last rib, then cut off the leg, then the shoulder, then divide the lower half, then the upper half, making eight pieces.

ROLLED RIBS OF BEEF—Rolled ribs of beef, like a round of beef, require a very sharp knife. There are no bones or joints, and the art of carving is consisted in cutting neat thin slices the full thickness of the roast.

PINEAPPLE FOAM—A dainty dessert as well as a delicious one. Beat the whites of three eggs very light, whip one pint of cream, add to the whites, stir in three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and last stir in lightly a can of shredded pineapple. Chill and serve in glass cups.

PRESERVED FIGS AND CREAM CHEESE—Take a package of fresh cream cheese and stir in enough thick cream to soften it; pile it in the center of a plate and surround it with preserved whole figs and their juice. The preserved figs are carried by almost any fancy grocery and it is well to get the smallest ones on the market for this purpose.

CREAM CUCUMBER SAUCE—Lay two cucumbers of fair size on the ice until chilled through. Pare, then, and mince with a keen knife. Drain in a colander without pressing. Turn into a bowl and add a tablespoonful of lemon juice and a tablespoonful of onion juice. Have ready in another chilled dish a cupful of whipped cream into which has been beaten a pinch of soda. Mix this lightly with a silver fork into the cucumbers. Serve immediately.

FRICASSEE OF SHRIMP—A quart of tomatoes, a quart of water, onions to suit the taste, stewed together until the tomatoes can be passed through a sieve. After straining stew with seasoning and a tablespoonful of butter creamed with a little flour for fifteen minutes. Add two cans of shrimps that have been washed carefully; heat thoroughly and serve with a couple of spoonfuls of rice on each plate. The shrimps should be kept whole.

FISH CHOWDER—Fry out dry in the dinner pot some thin slices of pork; put in a layer of potatoes sliced in the same way; repeat in the same order until all is in the pot, putting some pepper and salt on each layer of onions; split some hard biscuits, dip in water, and put them round the sides and over the top; put in water enough to come into sight. Stew until the potatoes are done, and add half a pint of milk or a teaspoon of sweet cream before taking up.

GERMAN FASHION OF ROASTING DUCK—Pick and clean and singe a duck. Rub well with salt. Make a dressing of bread crumbs, apple sauce, and Sautana raisins. Fill the duck after mixing the dressing. Roast in the oven to a good brown color. Taste often. Make a sauce of chopped livers, pour over the duck and serve hot.

Table Flowers.

For a simple luncheon there is nothing prettier than scarlet blossoms arranged in a glass bowl, with sprays of fern to form a contrast to the brilliant red.

TO GET A CONTRAST IN BLUES

For the sharpness of its contrast nothing exceeds an afternoon frock of dark blue glovelcloth with pipings of light blue moire.

The skirt is laid in groups of side plaits, the outer plait of each group being piped with the light silk. In addition, about midway of the plait a stitched strap is buttoned across them, as if to hold them in place, and this, too, is moire edged. The jacket is extremely simple, being cut perfectly round and untrimmed save for a piped collar of dark blue velvet and two large buttons of the same material and trimmed in the same way.

placed on either side of the front. There is a vest of palest blue cloth adjusted by means of small blue silk buttons.

THE NEW AUTO BAG.

The automobile bag, the latest thing in handbags, now popular, is a cross between a dressing case, and a shopping bag. Cold cream, lip salve, face powder, soap leaves, tiny comb and brush, mirror, small hat brush, pins, hairpins, etc., are packed into the smallest possible compass, leaving room for kerchief and gloves.

AMMA'S GIRL

CHELSEA STANDARD-HERALD, THURSDAY
THE CHELSEA

LITTLE AH SID, THE CHINESE KID

THE CENTRAL MEAT MARKET

YOU CAN ALWAYS GET THE BEST OF

EVERY KIND OF MEAT

BOTH FRESH AND SALT.

Telephone us your order and we will deliver it free of charge

ADAM EPPLER.

A FEW MORE

$1.50 Ladies' Moca Gloves.....88c
25c and 50c Ladies' Underwear at 19c and 38c
25c and 50c Misses' Underwear at 19c and 38c
25c and 50c Men's Underwear at 19c and 38c
25c and 50c Men's Caps.....at 13c and 25c
Children's Underwear.....One-half off

AT J. S. CUMMINGS'
THE BUSY CORNER.

Mid-winter Bargains

February is usually a dull business month but we propose to make it an unusually lively one if low prices will help to make it so. We offer bargains in Our Furniture Stock.

Steel Ranges and Heating Stoves

at Special Prices, Tin and Granite Iron Ware, A new stock of Washing Machines at the right price. Buggies and Cutters at prices to close. A new harness stock just put on sale.

W. J. KNAPP

TO ANYONE WHO IS IN NEED OF A Bob Sleigh or Cutter

there will never be a better time than just now. The constant increase in the cost of raw material will make goods higher all the time. All those I have on hand will be sold at old prices while they last. Buy now and save the advance. A large lot to select from. Special attention given to ordered jobs, whether it be

Sleigh Cutter
Wagon
Surrey
Top Buggy

Runabout or anything in the vehicle
line

I carry in stock the famous Goodyear rubber tires. Have one of the best machines to apply them made in the world and will guarantee you as good a job as can be found in the country. Every job I build is guaranteed for a period of time to give the consumers a chance to find out that I mean to do right and give value received. My shop is equipped now so that I can build or repair any part of a vehicle. All done under one roof, whether it is Wood Work, Blacksmith Work, Trimming or Painting. I solicit your inspection and will gladly assist you. Yours for good goods, first class work and honest prices.

A. G. FAIST.

Latest Winter Showing OF Foreign and Domestic Woolens

All Woolens of exceptional quality and style, all in suitable quantity to judge style and weave. No Sample Book or Cards.

300 Different Styles

Of Suits, Trousers, Fancy Vesting, Top Coats and Overcoats. Our assortment of odd trousers ranging from $4.00 to $6.00 is the largest ever shown in any city compared to ours. We are also showing a fine line of Woolens suitable for Ladies' Tailor Made-to-Order Skirts.

For the next 30 days we shall endeavor to make such prices as to warrant steady employment for our large staff of workers, and to make our clothing manufacturing business the largest in this section of the country.

Yours for Good Clothing and Home Industry.

RAFTREY, The Tailor.

Chelsea Standard

for the past week

Ed. Vogel is continuing his illness.

Ed. Wenk, moved his household goods to Ann Arbor, Tuesday.

Dr. W. S. Hamilton is confined to the house with sciatic rheumatism.

The science class of the Chelsea public schools spent Wednesday in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Wm. Campbell has been confined to her home for the past three weeks by illness.

Another wolf is reported to have been seen by hunters in the big marsh the first of this week.

Mrs. J. B. Beissel, of North Main street, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. M. Boyd, of Sylvan, attended the funeral of the late Lewis Becker, in Leslie, Monday.

Next Sunday evening at the Methodist church Rev. Dr. Dawe will preach. A class of children will be received.

A number of men are at work setting up the engine and dynamo in the new power house of the Glazier Stove Co.

C. Spingale and wife were called to Cleveland, Sunday, by the death of their nephew, Mr. Costello. The funeral was held Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Heselshwerdt underwent a surgical operation at her home Monday. Dr. Darling of Ann Arbor was in attendance.

L. T. Freeman, of the firm of Freeman & Burkhardt left yesterday for Northern Michigan where he will purchase horses for this market.

Rev. J. I. Nickerson and family, of Mt. Clemens, spent the first of the week at the home of Nelson Jones and family and other Chelsea friends.

J. A. Maroney purchased of James Taylor a building lot on McKinley street, Tuesday, and will build on the property the coming season.

The Lady Maccabees will give a pedro party in their hall, Tuesday evening, March 5. An admission of ten cents will be charged. The public is invited.

Lafayette Grange will meet at the home of J. N. Dancer and wife on Friday evening, March 1, for the purpose of initiation. All members are requested to be present.

The prairie wolf that was shot by Walter Spaulding in Sharon has been mounted and is on exhibition in the south show window of W. P. Schenk & Company's Store.

The fire department was called to the residence of James and Charles Van-Orden about 6:30 o'clock Friday morning. A portion of the roof of the house was slightly burned.

Misses Bessie and Nellie Walsh of Lyndon went to Grand Rapids Sunday to attend the funeral of Arthur Callan, the fireman who was killed in the wreck at Ypsilanti last week.

The superintendent and teachers of the public school paid their annual visit to the public schools in other towns last Wednesday. The schools of Jackson, Mason, Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti were visited.

The Bay View Reading Circle and the Ladies' Research club were entertained at the home of Hon. and Mrs. Frank P. Glazier Monday evening. About sixty ladies were present and the program was furnished by both clubs.

The ninth annual meeting of the Teachers' School Officers' and Patrons' Association will be held in the high school hall, Ann Arbor, Saturday, March 2. A good program has been arranged for both forenoon and afternoon sessions.

Thomas McCormick, who was arrested Tuesday evening of last week on the charge of assault upon Wm. Corwin was taken before Justice Wood Saturday morning. He was fined $10.00 and costs, amounting in all to $18.00. A collection was taken up by his friends and the fine paid.

Last Monday evening forty of the friends of Julius Niehaus gave him a surprise party at the home of his parents, Fred Niehaus and wife, of Lima. The occasion being the 20th anniversary of his birth. He was presented with a handsome chair. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. F. K. McElowney has been engaged by the Glazier Stove Co. to take charge of their department of factory records having had considerable experience with this class of work in the factory of the Penberthy Injector Co., of Detroit. Mr. McElowney expects to move his family to Chelsea early in the summer.

There will be a regular review of the K. O. T. M. M., Friday evening of this week.

Rev. Thomas Holmes, D. D., was in Northville, Wednesday, where he attended the funeral of a relative.

The Ladies' Research Club will entertain their husbands and friends in Maccabee hall next Monday evening.

Mrs. Agnes Runciman has awarded a contract for a fine monument which she will have erected in Mt. Hope cemetery, Waterloo.

Evan Essery, of Manchester, republican nominee for the office of county school commissioner, was a Chelsea visitor last Friday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's church will meet with Mrs. Charles Steinbach, on west Middle street, Friday afternoon of this week.

The National Protective Legion No. 312 will hold a special meeting March 5 for the purpose of nominating officers for the ensuing year. Every member is requested to be present.

Lewis Becker, of Leslie, a former resident of Sylvan, died at his home in that place, Saturday, February 23, 1907. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. L. Tichnor, of Chelsea. Funeral last Monday.

The Standard-Herald in announcing the death of Miss Anna Walsh of Detroit, was in error. The deceased was for fourteen years the housekeeper for Rev. Fr. Considine, who conducted the funeral services in the Holy Trinity Church, instead of Rev. Fr. Savage, as announced, and the deceased was not a relative of John Walsh of Lyndon.

The Christian Science Society will meet in the G. A. R. hall at the usual hour next Sunday, March 3, 1907. Subject: "Man." Golden text: "Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God." Hebrews, 7: 3. Responsive reading: Hebrews, 7: 14-24.

The Reverend Mother Camilla, Superior of St. Joseph's Academy, Adrian, made an official visit to St. Mary's school last Tuesday and Wednesday and was highly gratified at the prosperous condition of the school. Mother Camilla was the guest of the local Superior, Sister De Pazzi and the other Sisters at St. Mary's convent while in Chelsea.

The Rev. Jos. Ryerson will spend a few days next week at Ewing college, Ill., where he will deliver three addresses to the students of that institution. The Rev. Dr. Reed will preach in the morning at the Methodist church. In the evening the congregation will unite with the Baptist people in evangelistic service at the latter's church.

The annual financial report of the church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart and St. Mary's school was read last Sunday to a large congregation and showed a most gratifying condition of affairs. The pastor heartily congratulates his good people on the splendid showing they have made. The debt on the school is not large and with a people full of good will, will be easily handled.

A broken axle caused the derailment of a freight car of an eastbound train on the M. C. railroad at 12:02 Wednesday morning. The car left the rails near the Main street crossing and stopped just in front of the window used by the telegraph operator, with the trucks resting against the building. No damage was done to the building. A crew was brought from Jackson and the car was placed on the track.

The service at the Congregational church next Sunday evening will be of a musical nature. The history and influence of the following well-known hymns will be discussed: "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light," "Awake My Soul to Joyful Lays," "Blest be the Tie that Binds," "Just as I Am," "Stand Up for Jesus." The communion service will be observed and new members received at the morning service. The pastor's sermon will be from the theme, "Living Epistles of Christ." The offering will be for the benefit of Olivet College.

The Chelsea Markets.

Chelsea buyers offer today, the following prices:

Wheat, red or white.....	71
Rye.....	65
Oats.....	38
Beans.....	1 10
Steers, heavy.....	4 00 to 4 50
Steers, light.....	2 00 to 3 50
Stockers.....	2 50 to 3 00
Cows, good.....	2 00 to 3 00
Cows, common.....	1 50 to 2 00
Veals.....	4 00
Veals, heavy.....	6 50
Hogs.....	3 50 to 4 50
Sheep, wethers.....	2 00 to 3 00
Sheep, ewes.....	09
Chickens, spring.....	09
Fowls.....	18 to 21
Butter.....	22
Eggs.....	22
Potatoes.....	40

Standard-Herald liners bring results.

NEW DRESS GOODS

The New Spring Styles Are Now On Sale. . . .

The latest in Black, Colored and Novelty Suitings is shown here, and at prices guaranteed the lowest.

Voile, Panama, Mohair, Batiste and Lansdown Suitings in Black and colors. Novelty Suitings that are swell.

A large assortment at	$.25
A large assortment at39
A large assortment at50
A large assortment at65
A large assortment at85
A large assortment at	1.00
A large assortment at	1.25
A large assortment at	1.50

Our dry goods department is larger than ever before. More new goods than you would expect to see in Chelsea.

Complete assortment of Ladies' three-quarter and elbow length Gloves.

Silk, black and white, at	75c and $1.00
Kid, black and white, at	$2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

W. P. SCHENK & COMPANY

Skyscrapers in Egypt. American skyscrapers, from nine to ten stories high, are to be erected near the pyramids of Ghizeh, in Egypt. Permission for the erection of homes and hotels in the great plain extending from Eskebich to the Nile, and covered with ancient sphinxes and structures, has been granted by the Egyptian government. Several associations have been formed for the building of large hotels in this district.

JEWELRY.

We have a complete assortment of Watches, Clocks, Rings, Chains, Charms and Society Emblems.

We also have a fine line of

Gold Bowed Spectacles and Eye Glasses

We do all kinds of repairing.

A. E. WINANS,

THE JEWELER.

Sheet Music and Periodicals.

Try our liner ads.

It Is Not Necessary to Pay a High Price For Tailoring.

Trade Here We Treat You Right. Webster The Tailor.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

OF THE Chelsea Savings Bank,

At Chelsea, Michigan, at the close of business, Jan. 26, 1907, as called for by the Commissioner of the Banking Department.

RESOURCES.
Loans and discounts.....	$ 356,052 97
Bonds, mortgages and securities.....	596,107 47
Overdrafts.....	257 69
Banking house.....	50,000 00
Furniture and fixtures.....	9,030 09
Other real estate.....	4,800 00
U. S. bonds.....	2,000 00
Due from banks.....	169,235 37
In reserve cities.....	5,707 83
Exchange for clearing house.....	21,469 00
U. S. and National bank currency.....	15,600 00
Gold coin.....	1,884 25
Silver coin.....	325 55
Nickels and cents.....	216,222 00
Total.....	$1,282,470 22
LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid in.....	$100,000 00
Surplus fund.....	90,000 00
Undivided profits, net.....	12,684 80
Dividends unpaid.....	135 00
Commercial deposits.....	425,471 85
Certificates of deposit.....	41,371 85
Cashier's check.....	757 01
Savings deposits.....	415,462 07
Savings certificates.....	146,587 64
Total.....	$1,282,470 22

State of Michigan, County of Washtenaw, ss.

I, Theo. E. Wood, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

THEO. E. WOOD, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of Jan. 1907.

My commission expires January 18, 1908.

PAUL G. SCHAELE, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:

FRANK P. GLAZIER, Wm. J. Knapp, W. P. Schenk, Theo. E. Wood, Adam Eppler, Frank P. Glazier.

DIRECTORS.

W. J. Knapp, John W. Schenk, W. P. Schenk, H. I. Stimson, Theo. E. Wood, Adam Eppler, Frank P. Glazier.

Subscribe for The Standard-Herald.

Chelsea Green House

Carnations. Roses. Lettuce. Parsely. Potted Plants. ELVIRA CLARK, Chelsea. Phone 103-2-1, 1-s.

THE STARTING POINT TO SUCCESS

in many a man's business career has been the opening of a Bank Account

START RIGHT—START NOW

We will look after your financial interests with the utmost care and accuracy, and you will find a Bank Account and a Check Book a wonderful convenience.

START WITH US NOW.

The Kempf Commercial

& Savings Bank

offers its unexcelled service.

H. S. HOLMES, Pres.

C. H. KEMPF, Vice Pres.

GEO. A. BRIGGS, Cashier.

JOHN L. FLETCHER, Asst. Cashier.

ATHENÆUM

JACKSON, MICH.

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 6

CHAS. H. FALES'

NEWEST

DEVIL'S AUCTION

Prices—25, 50, 75c, $1.00.

COMING

MARCH 13

Mary Mannering

MARCH 14

THE CLANSMAN

MARCH 15

The Girl of the Golden West

MARCH 21

THE SQUAWMAN