FORTY-FOUR FEET HIGH

THIRTY-ONE MILES LONG

Amount of Paper Required for One Job of Printing for the Glazier Stove Company Just Completed.

In February the Standard-Herald job department started on a job of 100,000 booklets of twelve pages, descriptive of the line of B & B Oil Cook Stoves manufactured by the Glazier Stove Company, which has just been completed.

The pamphlets have all been put together with wire staples, of which it has required 200,000 to do the work.

The size of the sheets of paper were 7x13 inches, and, if they were all placed in one pile, would make a stack forty-four feet high. Should the quantity of paper be placed lengthwise, sheet for sheet, it would cover a strip of thirty-one miles.

This particular piece of pamphlet work is but a small portion of the printing which is being constantly delivered to the Glazier Stove Company from our job printing department.

There is hardly a State in the Union that has not had the names of several firms, who are handling the B & B line of stoves, printed on the circulars.

The B & B line of stoves has become world-renowned, and the famous trademark of the Glazier Stove Company is fast becoming well known in many quarters of the globe.

THE BROOKDALE FARM.

A Rural Drama for the Benefit of St. Mary's Parochial School—At Opera House Next Monday Evening.

"The Brookdale Farm," a four-act rural drama, will be presented by local talent in the Chelsea opera house next Monday evening, May 27, for the benefit of St. Mary's parochial school. The following is the cast of characters:

Squire Brooks, owner of the Brookdale Farm and the Old Quarry... Ralph Thatcher
Roy Harte, a young farmer... Joseph Eisele
Gilbert Dawson, Mrs. Brooks' nephew... Roland B. Waltrous
Ephraim Green, a farm hand... A. B. Skinner
Samuel Hunter, sheriff of Spring county... John Haven
Dick Willard, a tramp... G. Gorman
Ben Holly, proprietor of Placer Hotel... Howard Brooks
Mrs. Brooks, the Squire's wife... Amelia Hummel
Marion Brooks, their daughter... Nello Savage
Nan Cummings, an adopted daughter... Genevieve Hummel
A number of others will take part as miners, citizens and villagers. The price of admission will be 15 cents for children, 25 cents for adults, and 10 cents extra for reserved seats. Tickets now on sale at the Bank drug store.

Mrs. George A. Runciman.

Emily J. Hamp was born in Jackson, July 14, 1854, and died at her home in Chelsea, Sunday, May 19, 1907.

The deceased was united in marriage with George A. Runciman in 1880, and was the mother of two children. Mr. and Mrs. Runciman moved from their farm in Lyndon to Chelsea about a year ago. The deceased was a member and one of the officers of Olive Chapter, O. E. S., which body attended the funeral yesterday. The deceased is survived by her husband, one son, Charles, who resides on the farm in Lyndon, and one daughter, Edna, who resides at the family home, her aged father and a number of relatives. The funeral was held from the Congregational church, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and was attended by a large following of friends. The Rev. M. Lee Grant officiated. Interment at Waterloo.

W. H. HESELSCHWERDT, Clerk.

In the Northwest.

The following is an extract from a letter written by Dr. A. McColligan, who is at present located at Medicine Hat, Alberta:

"It is nearly two months since I left Chelsea for this country. I went as far as Edmonton and have returned to Medicine Hat, so I have seen a large tract of country.

"Edmonton, with 11,000 inhabitants, will be a great city some day. At present it is booming. Real estate prices are higher than in Jackson or Lansing, with no street cars in sight; hotel accommodations, two or three dollars per day, or eleven to eighteen dollars per week, with meals and rooms no better than at the Chelsea House.

"Wetaskiwin is a town of about 3,500 inhabitants, and has a good farming country around it.

"The Dayland branch of the G. P. & R. runs east from here. I went out on it to Hardisty, which certainly is a new town, only ten months old. They were holding fifty-foot lots on the main street at $1,000 each, which gives you an idea of western real estate prices.

"Calgary is a beautiful city at the junction of the Bow and Elbow rivers. It is surrounded by hills, from the top of which on a clear morning one can get a fine view of the Rockies.

"Medicine Hat, 180 miles southeast of Calgary, is situated in the valley of the South Saskatchewan. It is a pretty town of 5,000 and will, in the near future, be a good manufacturing center, as natural gas can be supplied for manufacturing purposes at 5 cents per 1,000 feet.

"This is a good country for all kinds of mechanics, especially those in connection with building. Carpenters get from forty to 50 cents an hour and plenty of work to do.

"I am selling real estate here, as I cannot practice till I get my examination in August. A. S. McCOLLIGAN."

DECORATION DAY SERVICES

IN OPERA HOUSE NEXT THURSDAY.

Rev. Jos. E. Ryerson Delivers the Address—The Maccabees and Chelsea Schools to Assist in the Exercise.

The members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will hold their annual Decoration day services in the town hall, Thursday, May 30th, commencing at 1:30 p. m.

The following program has been arranged by the committee who have charge of the exercises:

Music—Chelsea Cornet Band.
Reading of Orders.
Prayer.

Recitation—Carlton Runciman.
Music—Chelsea Schools.
Reading Lincoln's Address—E. E. Gallup.

Recitation—Helen McGuinness.
Music—Chelsea Schools.
Address—Rev. J. E. Ryerson.

Music—Chelsea Schools.
Benediction.

The parade will then form in front of the town hall and march to Oak Grove cemetery in the following order:

Marshal.
Band.
R. P. Carpenter Post.
K. O. T. M. M.
W. R. Corps.
L. O. T. M. M.
School Children.
Flowers.
Carriages.

Flowers will be thankfully received at the G. A. R. Post room, May 30th, at 9 o'clock in the morning. A committee will be there to attend to them.

School Affairs.
Report cards will be out again next week.

Only four weeks more of school. Commencement, June 20th.

Whooping cough is playing havoc with the attendance record this month in the first and second grades.

The high school will give a patriotic song service Friday morning. The local G. A. R. Post will be represented by several delegates. The public is cordially invited to be present. Service will last about thirty minutes.

SCHOOL LEGISLATION.
House Bill No. 499, introduced by Rep. Bunting, provides that the primary school fund shall be apportioned according to the number of teachers employed. This will bring from $1,500 to $1,700 more into the treasury of our district annually. We certainly should favor the passage of this bill, as this money can be used for teachers' wages only, and it will help to solve the problem of increasing the present low salaries. The present status of the bill is favorable to its passage.

Senate Bill No. 94, introduced by Senator Smith, providing for a minimum rate of salaries for teachers, is lost. This bill would, if passed, compel us to pay $50.00 more to each of three of our grade teachers and two of our high school teachers. The other teachers would not be affected.

Other bills will be explained in future issues of school notes.

Notice.
The board of review of the village of Chelsea will meet in the council room of said village on Monday and Tuesday, May 27 and 28, 1907, for the purpose of reviewing and correcting the assessment roll of said village for the year 1907. They will be in session from 8 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 5 p. m. of each of said days.

Dated Chelsea, Mich., May 20, 1907.
JACOB HUMMEL, Assessor.

Notice.
The board of review will meet in the clerk's room of the town hall on Monday and Tuesday, May 27 and 28, 1907, for the purpose of reviewing the assessment roll of the township of Sylvan for the year 1907, and for the purpose of hearing and adjusting all complaints entered against said assessment. They will be in session from 8 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 to 5 p. m. of each of said days.

Dated Chelsea, Mich., May 20, 1907.
JACOB HUMMEL, Supervisor.

The rural mail service—the free delivery system outside of cities and towns—will cost $35,000,000 in the next fiscal year—the twelve months beginning with July. This sum is much greater than the cost of the rural free delivery ever was in any equal period. The increase is due in part to the extension of privileges which have not yet been granted to millions of American living on farms. The free delivery will cover a large area and accommodate more people. In part the increased cost is caused by a general advance in the pay of rural mail carriers.

For the past twenty-five years the post that has given the best satisfaction fully meeting every requirement, is the celebrated Bradley & Vrooman Post. F. E. Storms & Co. exclusive agents.

Ground has been broken for the sisters' residence who have charge of St. Mary's parochial school.

M. J. Howe has taken a contract to build a cottage at Cavanaugh Lake for W. W. Wadhams of Ann Arbor.

Roy Evans has taken the contract for lathing the Old People's home. He started the work this morning.

Chelsea has several miles of excellent cement sidewalks. There are yet a few board walks that need looking after.

M. J. Paul, of Dexter township, has let the contract for a new residence, which he will have built on his farm.

The High School Athletic Association will give a social entertainment in the opera house next Wednesday evening.

Dr. E. F. Chase has rented the C. J. Depew residence on west Middle street and expects to take possession in the near future.

Tommy McNamara purchased of Michael Wackenhut one day the past week the fine trotting horse known as "Chelsea Boy."

Luick Bros., of Ann Arbor, Wednesday, delivered to the H. S. Holmes Mercantile Co. a very handsome quarter-sawn oak hat case.

Henry Frey, of Francisco, has just completed the reforesting of 12 acres of land north of that place. He has planted nearly 15,000 young trees, mostly locust.

Married, in Ann Arbor, Saturday, May 18, 1907, Rev. A. W. Staker officiating, Miss Lila F. Monroe, of North Adams, and Mr. Charles Curtiss, of Lima.

About 150 people gathered at the Schieferstein farm in Dexter township last Thursday to assist in raising a new barn to replace the one blown down last January.

The ban of marriage of Miss Barbara Meyers and Mr. Timothy Maloney were published in the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart last Sunday for the first time.

M. Boyd will assume the management of his hotel property in Chelsea next Saturday. The present tenant, A. B. Moe, took charge about the first of last November.

One of Sylvan's prosperous farmers informs The Standard-Herald that he sold his clip of wool from about 350 sheep for over $800. It pays to be a shepherd, according to his views.

The trustees of the M. E. society at Francisco have sold the church building to Henry Frey of that place. The Methodists have not held services in the church for a number of years past.

Chelsea has an ordinance which forbids expectation upon the sidewalks. Perhaps some of the residents and visitors in the city are not aware that such an ordinance is in force, but it is and should be obeyed.

The northeast corner of the electric station was quite badly wrecked last Friday evening. The employees of the electric line ran a carload of brick in on the sidetrack, which jumped the rails and ran into the building.

The fishing season is on and many nice strings are being brought home these days. Frank Leach claims the championship as a frog catcher. He had 15 one day last week that were the largest ever seen in Chelsea.

Memorial service will be held at the Baptist church, Sunday, May 26th, at 10 o'clock a. m. Flag presentation. All ex-soldiers are invited to join with the G. A. R., which will meet at the Post room at 9:30 a. m., to attend service.

Chelsea is not the only place in the state that has outgrown its present school buildings. The Rochester Era of last week announced a special election to raise money for an extensive addition to the school building in that village.

The south plate glass window in the rooms occupied by Roy Dillon as a barber shop of the Eppler building was broken by someone Monday night. It was evidently an accident, as everything in the shop was found to be in proper order.

Judge Leland last Saturday appointed Mrs. Rachel Wilsey, of Dexter township, administratrix of the estate of the late Wm. H. Wilsey. The appraisers and commissioners are H. J. Hininger and Geo. W. Coe, and they will meet at Kalmbach's law office, July 19 and September 19, to allow claims against the estate.

L. Tichenor, the well-known builder of the Chelsea pleasure row-boat works, has under way eight boats, five of which are ready for purchasers, and the other three will be completed in a short time. The boats that Mr. Tichenor has just completed surpass any that he has built in past years both in finish and workmanship.

The Lady Maccabees of Chelsea, Tuesday, entertained the Lady Maccabees of Dexter. Over fifty members of the Dexter Hive were present and a dinner was served to about one hundred in the hall occupied by the local hive. After the dinner the members of Chelsea Hive presented the Kit-Kat-Klub for the benefit of their visitors.

Dr. S. G. Bush is at Harper hospital this week attending special post-graduate clinic work, among the lectures which he will attend is one by Dr. A. Jacobi, of New York, on "Clinic Pediatrics" and another by Dr. P. M. Hickey on "Laboratory Building and X-Ray in Fractures." The program contains many subjects that will be very interesting to all physicians who attend the lectures.

The relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Howlett, of Lyndon, gave them a pleasant surprise on Saturday, May 18, when they came with well filled baskets to remind them that it was their wedding anniversary. M. F. Vocum, of Jackson, in behalf of the company presented them with a handsome dining table. A very pleasant day was spent when all departed for their homes, wishing them many more such days.

The supreme court at Lansing, Monday, granted a new trial in the case of Mrs. Nettie Merriman vs. James F. Miller, who formerly run one of the hotels in Grass Lake. The case was tried in the Jackson circuit court and the jury rendered a verdict against Miller, the saloonkeeper, for $800 and the court held that the verdict was wholly inadequate.

Last Friday was the last day of school in Jerusalem, and the scholars of the district, under the guidance of the instructor for the last nine months, Prof. D. C. Marion, spent the day in Chelsea, viewing the town and visiting the new buildings that are in the course of construction for the Glazier Stove Co. and the Old People's Home. They visited the photograph studio of E. E. Shaver and had a picture taken of the group. For a bachelor the Prof. looked quite parental as he guided his late school about the streets.

WHY SO WEAK?
Kidney Troubles May Be Sapping Your Life Away—Michigan People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and various disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Michigan testimony to prove it.
James Fountain, machinist, of 621
Park street, Kalamazoo, Mich., says: "I had enjoyed good health up to three years ago, when I began to suffer from my kidneys. My back ached a great deal and grew so weak that I was unable to lift even the slightest weight. At times there would be sharp, piercing pains through my loins and kidneys, which would always be more severe if I attempted to stoop or straighten after stooping. My work, as machinist, caused me to bend over a great deal, and consequently I was very much handicapped. I consulted physicians, but received very little relief from their medicines.
I was feeling a friend of my sufferings,
and he advised me to procure Doan's Kidney Pills, and I obtained a box. The relief I felt from the first was very great. I continued using them, and my back was soon as strong as ever; in fact, I was well in every way. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Character Formation.
My character today is, for the most part, simply the resultant of all the thoughts I have ever had, of all the feelings I have ever cherished, and of all the deeds I have ever performed. It is the entirety of my previous years packed and crystallized into the present moment.—Parkhurst.

Defined Law's Status.
A lawyer once, after clummily responding to the toast of the law at a dinner of an art society, said that he did not see how the law could be considered one of the arts, at which point Jerrold interjected the word "Black!"
which came out like a shot from a gun.

The Universal Solvent.
A "burglar proof" safe was robbed
by a boy in New Jersey, the other day. He opened the safe with a hairpin. This leads to the suspicion that he is a woman in disguise. A woman can do anything with that instrument.

"I suffered habitually from constipation. Doan's Regulax relieved and strengthened the bowels, so that they have been regular ever since."—A. E.
Davis, grocer, Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Open Air Sleeping.

It is not too much to say that the delicate, highly strung, easily knocked out individual the advantages of sleeping in the open air are enormous.
Pallid cheeks take on a ruddy hue,
colds are unknown, nerves are forgotten, and irritability becomes a phase of the past. A little but a little perseverance are the only necessities,
and the result is assured.—Country Life.

Happiest Children.

The happiest children are those who have happy mothers. The young life which grows up in the shadow of a discontented, repining and gloomy mother is like a plant unwatered by kindly dews. It is apt to be dwarfed and stunted. Even when things are crooked and temptations to be harsh come, let the mother, for her sons' and daughters' sake, try to be happy.

The Centaurs.

The fable that the Centaurs were half man and half horse, like many other old myths, had its origin in reality. It grew out of the horseback riding habit of the Thessalians. People who had never seen a horse before took the horse and the man for one being. That is what the American Indians thought when they first saw the Spaniards on horseback.

Left Him Pleasant Thoughts.

Doctor—Now, don't worry, whatever you do. A man with heart disease can't afford to worry. Avoid all company of any kind, drink nothing whatsoever, and on no account omit meat and vegetables. By the bye, I won't be able to call again till Wednesday, as I have to attend the funerals of
three patients."

A Lottery Winner's Celebration.

A Rome correspondent tells of an all-night banquet (eight p. m. to eight
a. m.) given to 100 guests by a Swiss commercial traveler, who has won the Italian lottery prize of $40,000. They put away 278 bottles of champagne between them, which is at the rate of two bottles and three-quarters per man.

Disappointed.

"I don't like this party line telephone half as well as I thought I was going to," said Mrs. Snewper. "Every time I hear it ring, and I am down
the receiver to listen to what's going on,
I hear somebody say: 'Get off the line, there, you! Quit bugging in!' I declare, it's only an aggravation!"

Hen Lays Empty Shells.

William Meadows, of Bedford, Md., has a white Wyandotte hen that lays empty egg shells. The shells are large, well shaped and resemble an ordinary egg, but they contain neither yolk nor white matter. One shell is laid each day by the hen.

To Tell Points of Compass.

The points of the compass can be told from trees, by the following simple observations: The side of a tree on which most of the moss is found is the north. If the tree be exposed to the sun, its heaviest and longest limbs will be on the south side.

Man Libelously Caricatured.

No man cares to be libelously car-icatured, and a masculine woman declares Marie Corelli, writing on "Man's War Against Woman," is nothing more than a libelous caricature of an effeminate man.

Furniture Mover's Advice.

A lady, who is a furniture mover, carrying on business at Manwell, has on her vans the following appeal to the public: "Don't worry—get married—and keep on moving."—London Evening Standard.

Chance to Sell Corn Shellers.

still winnow their corn by beating it
with sticks and throwing it in the air.
A simple corn sheller would doubtless sell well if properly introduced.

Think Stolen Things Lucky.

The Danks consider that for one fisherman to steal another's landing
net is equivalent to stealing his luck.
The belief that stolen money is lucky money prevails almost all over Europe.

British Racial Efficacy.

After you have complained that the Englishman grabs the earth, you remember that he holds it, and after watching his portentous swallow you remember his wonderful power of digestion. If he takes more than his share of the world, he has the talent to keep more than his share. The talent may not be an ethical merit, but it is a proof of racial efficacy.—Sidney (Australia) Book Fellow.

Owns Perfect Diamond.

In the possession of Mrs. E. A.
Montgomery, San Francisco whose husband sold the famous Bullfrog mine to Charles M. Schwab for $5,000,000, is the only flawless, genuine coffee-
brown diamond known in the world.
It weighs three and one-quarter carats and has no fixed value. Offers for it ranging from $15,000 to $50,000 have been made and refused.

New Idea of Gentleman.

A new definition of a gentleman was given at the Lymington (England)
county court recently, when the registrar asked: "What is the defendant?"
"He's a gentleman," replied the plaintiff. "How do you define a gentleman?" the registrar asked. "Well, he came here and took a big house, and went away without paying his creditors," was the reply.

Cause for Indignation.

The little fellow Arvid is the son of our coachman and is so unwelcome a caller around Jennie's kitchen that the other day she slammed the door in his face. A few minutes afterwards the tiny Swede was heard telling the incident to a neighbor, indignantly exclaiming: "Why, she shut the door
right in my looks!"—Chicago Tribune.

India's Great Problem.

To make India absolutely safe from famine, at least 35 per cent of the land should be brought under irrigation.
This per cent would amount to an area of 74,000,000 acres. Of course, this presents a great and difficult problem, but what has been done gives ample guaranty that the problem will be solved.

The Best Age.

Every age is the best age. Every land is holy land. Every epoch is great and divine. Either God is living and working to-day, or there is no God.
Either the interests of His kingdom are as dear to His heart as they were ages ago, or God is a dream and a delusion.—Dr. M. D. Shutter.

Hints for Wives.

There are two ways of looking at a husband. One is to make up your mind that he has no faults and to consider him a piece of perfection.
The others is to recognize his faults
and to make up your mind to love him
in spite of them.—Heath.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement.
We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicine and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at the Bank Drug Store. 50c.

Cat Skins Worn as Fur.

According to a Philadelphia paper
the securing of cat skins is something of an industry in that city. The skins are sent to France, where they are dried and returned to this country as popular fur. Good cat skin looks very much like squirrel and is used in a similar way, being especially popular for hats and hat trimmings.

Life a Maze of Endless Complication.

From the cradle to the grave, in his needs as in his pleasures, in his conception of the world and of himself,
the man of modern times struggles
through a maze of endless complication. Nothing is simple any longer;
neither thought nor action; not pleasure, not even dying.—Charles Wagner.

My Best Friend.

Alexander Benton, who lives on rural route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr.
King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed at the Bank Drug Store

MICHIGAN
EVENTS NOTEDPOSTOFFICE ROBBERS MAKE
SCRAP OF MIDLAND'S SAFE.

STOLE OVER A THOUSAND

No One Was Disturbed by the Dynamite Explosion, So the Thieves Got Away With Swag.

Watchman Heard Nothing.

The safe in the postoffice was demolished by robbers, who secured $1,100 in money and stamps, Thursday night. The deed was done so quietly, notwithstanding the amount of damage that no one had an inkling of the robbery until Lynn, son of Postmaster Northway, went to the office in the morning.

Mr. Northway says he found the front door unfastened and a large hole in the window. The interior of the postoffice was strewn with debris, the furnishings being badly wrecked and the door of the safe blown across the room. The clock had stopped at 1:42. The nightwatchman says that he was on his beat, but that he neither heard nor saw anything suspicious. Several residents say that they heard a muffled explosion, but it was not loud enough to disturb them. The booty the robbers carried away consisted of $900 in stamps and $100 in cash.

The postoffice safe at Mattawan, 12 miles west of Grand Rapids, on the Michigan Central, was dynamited Thursday night and $150 worth of stamps and $250 in cash was taken. Officers are after the robbers.

Paranoia Is Queer.

Dr. Arthur L. Noble, superintendent of the Kalamazoo asylum for the insane, proved a powerful aid to the insanity defense in the Lewis murder trial in Jackson, Lewis, he testified, was suffering from paranoia ingrained on alcoholism, when he murdered Capt. Holzapfel.

The doctor further testified that while, in his opinion, Lewis knew right from wrong, when he did the shooting, could realize the consequences of the act, and its probable effect upon himself, his paranoiac alcoholic condition made it probable that he did not have sufficient will power to resist a wrong impression.

State Analysis.

Secretary Shumway, of the state board of health, is already making preparations for establishing a state bacteriological laboratory, fully expecting that the bill passed by both houses of the legislature will be signed by the governor and give him authority to make the outfit.

It is proposed to furnish free analyses to public officials of the state, and that the laboratory will be of great benefit to the health department in ascertaining sources of contagion. Five thousand dollars is to be appropriated for the first year and $3,500 for each subsequent year for the maintenance of the laboratory.

Needs Correction.

A. Eamon Brown, aged 12, adopted son of a Saginaw family, is in jail charged with starting three fires within an hour. The first was at Cobb's cooper shop, another in a stable in the rear of the Valley hotel in Lyon street, and another in a Niagara street storehouse. The latter blaze was kindled at the top of a stairway and threatened to be a bad fire. The boy says he likes to see the fire horses run. He will be sent to Lansing.

Direct Nominations.

The Dickinson direct nominations bill failed to pass in the senate, the vote being 15 to 16. The failure was due to the unsuccessful efforts of the "convention senators" to hitch on a 10 per cent plurality amendment for governor and lieutenant governor.

The bill was reconsidered and re-referred and now stands where it did before the day's debate.

If the bill finally fails of passage the administration is said to have plans under consideration—a referendum, or a special session of the legislature next spring when the rebellious senators are up for renomination.

Naval Reserves New Ship.

Michigan Naval Reserves may secure the steel cruiser Austria, captured during the war with Spain, to replace the good ship Yantic. The Yantic is not seaworthy at present and to put her so will cost $10,000. The Austria is a steel boat built in 1889 and rebuilt two years ago. She is 189 feet long and has a speed of 14 knots. She is equipped with all modern appliances and her engines are in good shape. The boilers are her weakest part, but after an official inspection it was decided that they could stand two years of continuous steaming.

The Saginaw police are trying to stop the "stall saloon" evil in the city. An inspection of a dozen stall saloons at night revealed over 100 girls in revelry. In one place a young woman was found stretched full length on a table, dead drunk, surrounded by tipsy friends.

Frank Pierce, of Vernon, was picked up unconscious when he struck his head against a bridge abutment while running backwards after a ball.

Margaret Groves-Smith, better known as "Ma" Smith, of Saginaw, has been found guilty of sending girls to lives of shame in Detroit. Her conviction will tend to check the "white slave" trade from Saginaw.

While playing along the banks of Clinton river Millie, 5-year-old daughter of Ami Adams, of Pontiac, picked up a bottle partially filled with carbolic acid and drank the poison. She was unconscious for two hours, but the doctor says she will live.

Short of Hay.

The hay supply of Negaunee and Ishpeming, which has been short for some weeks past, is now practically exhausted, and as a result many horses and cows are getting short rations. With the exception of an occasional few carloads, which are quickly snapped up at $22 a ton, little hay has been received since the first of the year, prior to which time the home crop had been exhausted. The price of the forage is now 100 per cent greater than last fall. In some instances the increased cost of feeding stock led to the slaughtering of cattle. The wholesale price of flour has advanced a dollar a barrel.

Spends a Million.

Taking the present dramatic season now drawing to a close, as a criterion, the people of Detroit will have poured through the little windows of the box offices in the local play houses a stream of gold and greenbacks that might be conservatively estimated at from $750,000 to $1,000,000. When the fact is considered that several of the Detroit theaters are low-priced houses, and that with a single exception they all close their doors for the warm weather season, the full import of the figures may be appreciated. The theater is but one of Detroit's sources of popular amusement, and there are only six of the larger houses.

Miss Gleason's Sad Plight.

Bernice Gleason, aged 18 years, daughter of Charles Gleason, prominent citizen of Kalamazoo, collapsed on the streets in Chicago Friday night. It was not until noon Saturday that the police in that city were able to identify her. She came from a city where she made buggles. Mrs. Gleason says that her daughter went to visit an uncle and she believes that the relative missed the train and the girl became confused and faint. The young lady was a student in the Kalamazoo college. She recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Popular Lam Bing.

Lam Bing, Chinese lad, who came to America four years ago, is now doing excellent work in the seventh grade and hopes to enter the Barthle Creek high school next fall. Lam is 16 years old and attended school in China, but he says his studies in China have been but little benefit in this country. Bing lives with his cousin—every Chinaman—and after school works in the laundry. Lam tried to learn baseball, but has given it up. He is a favorite with the girls and is a model of politeness.

Jennie Flood's Freedom.

Mrs. Jennie Flood, who is serving a life sentence for the murder of John London in 1893, may be pardoned. Attorney C. E. Watkins, of Grand Rapids, will present affidavits in favor of the woman to the pardon board. London's head was blown off while he was eating his dinner at his farm house and Mrs. Flood was suspected of doing the deed to get his insurance. Now some of the jurors who convicted her make affidavit to the effect that they were not thoroughly convinced of her guilt and favor her pardon.

Bandit Took the Rig.

While Mrs. Nelson Crosby and three girls were on their way to Billings, in Gladwin county, to visit her parents, it became very dark and a man stepped up to her, stopping her horse and demanding her money or her life. She told him she had no money, but he could take her horse and rig, which he did. She recognized his voice as one of the young men of the neighborhood and swore out a warrant for him, but no officer could be found to serve it, and the young man is still at large with the rig.

A May Snow Storm.

People who are complaining that the recent snowstorm in May is unprecedented in southern Michigan, have forgotten Memorial day 1889, when snow fell nearly all day, and many celebrations were called off as a result of the cold. The mercury hovered about the freezing point, and snow fell to such a depth that it banked up on the windward sides of the houses.

AROUND THE STATE.

When Vanderbilt's electric light plant was started citizens paraded and the band gave a concert.

Mrs. Grace Whitney Hoff, of Paris, formerly of Detroit, has sent $200 to the building fund of the Bay City Y. W. C. A.

Nine arrests were made in Hillsdale by State Deputy Botting, of Saint Ste. Marie, for illegal spearing. All pleaded guilty and paid fines of $12 and costs each.

Frank A. Osborne, for four years a member of the legislature from Kalamazoo county, desires to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for auditor general.

This story comes from Ludington: A traveling man picked an unidentifiable dog valued at $500 from crushed stone, which was being used for paving. Some careless laborer must have lost his shirt stud.

Braving flames and smoke, John Erickson, of Haff, fought his way into his burning home and rescued his wife, baby and a Miss Majo. All were quite badly burned.

Nathaniel Laird, of Bay City, was notified some weeks ago that he was one of the heirs of an estate in New York. He has just received word that his share is $50,000.

The remains of Mrs. Adelaide Warren-Snow, the actress, died in Grand Rapids from the effects of morphine, were buried in Flint, the services being conducted by Rev. C. E. Allen. Mortimer Snow, the husband, is filling a theatrical engagement in the south.

Sunday baseball has been revived in Chesaning, and as usual there is a row on between the pro and anti crowd. Two years ago a jury refused to convict Sunday ball players, and many business men gave financial and moral support to the team. There is evidence that the old fight will be reopened this summer.

From the State Capital

Information and Gossip Furnished by Special Correspondent at Lansing.

Lansing.—Representative Knight a few days ago introduced in the house a joint resolution empowering the board of state auditors to investigate and adjust the differences between the state and the Wisconsin & Michigan Railroad company in regard to the taxes assessed against that company. The resolution went to the house committee on railroads, which decided to report it favorably. It was at this stage of proceedings when its existence was discovered by a representative of the attorney general's office and the resolution is now said to be in the possession of a member of the railroads committee. A suit is now pending in the Ingham circuit court between the railway company and the state, an injunction having been issued restraining the state from the collection of the disputed tax. It is said that to give the board of auditors power to review the case and adjust the tax would amount to giving appellate jurisdiction over the state tax commission, whose findings have heretofore been final. It is important that the question at issue in the court proceeding shall be judicially determined, and attorney General Bird will oppose the passage of the resolution. The Wisconsin & Michigan Railroad company claims that its assessment by the state tax commission was excessive, and amounts to the confiscation of its property.

Ohio Men Seek Pointers.

J. W. Doty, clerk, and Capt. Ira I. Morrison, assistant clerk of the Ohio assembly, have been spending a week here studying the detail of getting out the daily legislative journal, a feature that the Ohio assembly will inaugurate next session. There are several features of the Ohio body which the Michigan legislature might do well to adopt. First is the absence of local bills. In addition there is no committee of the whole, all measures being considered by the body proper. This saves an immense amount of time, obviates the necessity of considering bills twice and forces members to be in their seats to look after matters in which they are interested. The daily roll call is dispensed with in the Ohio legislature. It being considered that a quorum is present until a point of order is raised.

New Surety Bond Bill.

Senator Linsley, of Three Rivers, introduced a bill intended as a substitute for the Runtling bill permitting municipalities to accept surety bonds from liquor dealers. The Linsley bill omits the striking provision of the Runtling bill, requiring that the surety company shall be a Michigan concern with an incorporation capital of at least $500,000. The Linsley bill allows surety bonds to be accepted only in communities where the saloons average less than one to every 1,000 inhabitants. Petitions from a majority of the voting population (calculated on the last vote for city clerk, etc.) against the acceptance of surety company bonds, shall prevent their acceptance by the municipal authorities.

No Capitol Addition This Year.

Representative Montgomery, who represents the capitol city in the house, is convinced that the fates are against him. He has worked hard for an appropriation of $400,000 for an addition to the capitol building. The bill passed the senate and success was almost in his grasp, only to be thwarted by a freight wreck on the Pere Marquette railroad, which kept Speaker Whelan from presiding and sent Representative Sam Kelley to the chair. When the bill came over from the senate Representative Kelley referred it to the committee on state affairs, assuming that it was of state interest and properly belonged there. The measure, it is thought, will be reported unfavorably.

Galbraith Bill Passes.

The house committee of the whole passed the Galbraith railroad fare bill. The principal amendment to the present law is that prices of tickets and rates of fare may be fixed at the multiple of five nearest the exact amount of fare provided by law. That is, if the regular fare is 22 cents the charge shall be 20 cents; if it is 23 cents the charge shall be 25 cents. By this arrangement the man whose fare is 22 cents gets a reduction which the man whose fare is 23 cents pays for. The bill also provides that the company may collect ten cents for fares paid on the train, the sum to be refunded on presentation of the receipt. The house committee of the whole passed this bill without opposition.

Want More Timber Lands.

The mining interests of the upper peninsula are anxious to fix their status as holding companies of lands. Senator Moriarty introduced a bill with that end in view. Under the general mining law each company is limited to 50,000 acres of land and the object of the bill is to wipe out this limit. The necessity for this is urged upon the grounds that mining companies use an enormous amount of timber and must have a large acreage ahead.

Would Close Lakes Five Years.

Senator Bland, of Detroit, introduced a bill which closes the Great Lakes to commercial fishing for five years. "Foreign fishermen are depleting the fish so fast that pretty soon there will be none at all," said Mr. Bland.

Admitted to the Bar.

Julian A. Palmer, of Hillsdale, has been admitted to practice law on the recommendation of the chief justice of Kansas.

First Requisition on Hawaii.

The first requisition on the territorial governor of Hawaii ever issued in Michigan was made out for the extradition of W. Duncan Clarke, who is wanted in Hastings for forgery. Sheriff Victor B. Furness will make the journey to Hawaii for Clarke.

Would License Maternity Hospitals.

Senator Bland has introduced a bill modeled on the Iowa statute requiring the licensing and strict regulation of maternity hospitals.

Roosevelt Day Plans.

At a conference between President Snyder, of the Michigan Agricultural college, and the members of the legislative reception committee an outline of the arrangements for Roosevelt day was made as follows:

The president and his party will arrive in Lansing from Detroit, over the Lake Shore, at 9:50 a. m., Friday, May 31. The carriages will leave the depot as follows:

1. President Roosevelt, Gov. Warner, Congressman Samuel W. Smith, Secretary Loebe.

2 and 3. President Snyder, Mayor Winans, the mayor of East Lansing, other members of the president's party.

4 and 5. The legislative committee, Senators Smith and Hurrows.

Entering the capitol, the party will proceed to the governor's office, where they will await invitation to the joint session of the legislature, which will have been called to order in the hall of representatives under Lieut. Gov. Kelley. The president will be escorted to the hall and to the rostrum, and introduced by Gov. Warner. He will then make his address, and then will follow an informal reception to the governor, the supreme court, the legislature, the state officials. At 11:30 the whole party will leave for the college, and will arrive there at noon. Mr. Roosevelt will lunch with President Snyder at his home. The people will congregate in an immense tent on the campus, and there, after the luncheon, the speeches will begin. The president will leave Lansing at four o'clock.

Constitutional Convention Plans.

The differences between the senate and house ideas of the formation and procedure of the constitutional convention are causing lively discussion. The legislators taking a deeper interest. Quite a number of the lawmakers are showing an ambition to be constitution builders also, and are planning to be elected delegates to the convention. The senate will stand for the dignity and importance of the convention, and will insist on the selection of delegates being regarded as a state election; on the state board of canvassers and all the methods of state elections and election of delegates by congressional districts. The house will stand for popular representation. The main principle of the house bill is a convention of 100 members, apportioned according to representative districts. This is the plan which brought together the distinguished convention of 1867. The objection to the congressional district plan is that big centers of population would elect all the delegates.

House Down to Work.

Under the resolution passed last week the house May 14 began holding two sessions daily. The general order now contains nearly 60 bills, and some were disposed of at one session, all being agreed upon. The more important was Senator Ely's measure establishing the New England system of cash highway taxes, an amendment, however, being added prohibiting any township official from taking contracts for doing highway work.

Indorse Juvenile Court.

The Detroit delegation indorsed the proposed juvenile court for Detroit. One of the circuit judges will be appointed to act until the spring of 1909, when a judge is to be elected. The salary is fixed at $3,500, that of the chief probationary officer $1,200 and the three assistants $1,000. The bill provides that clerk is to be appointed by the common council instead of by the judge, but this will probably be changed.

May Get New Training Ship.

Col. J. N. Cox, assistant adjutant general, has returned from Washington, where he conferred with the secretary of the navy regarding a ship to replace the Michigan training ship, the Yantic. It is understood that the prospects are good for securing a modern vessel.

Would Close Lakes Five Years.

Senator Bland, of Detroit, introduced a bill which closes the Great Lakes to commercial fishing for five years. "Foreign fishermen are depleting the fish so fast that pretty soon there will be none at all," said Mr. Bland.

Admitted to the Bar.

Julian A. Palmer, of Hillsdale, has been admitted to practice law on the recommendation of the chief justice of Kansas.

First Requisition on Hawaii.

The first requisition on the territorial governor of Hawaii ever issued in Michigan was made out for the extradition of W. Duncan Clarke, who is wanted in Hastings for forgery. Sheriff Victor B. Furness will make the journey to Hawaii for Clarke.

Would License Maternity Hospitals.

Senator Bland has introduced a bill modeled on the Iowa statute requiring the licensing and strict regulation of maternity hospitals.

How a Kid Raises Hob With Navy's Wireless Messages—Matters of Note and Comment.

Alfonso of Asturias.

With even more pomp and ceremony than attended his first presentation to the officials on the day of his birth, May 10, Alfonso, prince of the Asturias, was baptized Saturday in the private chapel of the royal palace, Madrid, in the presence of the royal family, the state and court officials, the representatives of the foreign powers and a host of grantees, heads of the various Spanish orders and other important personages.

The pope was represented by Cardinal Rinaldi, nuncio; King Edward, by Prince Arthur of Connaught; Emperor William, by Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern; Emperor Francis Joseph, by Archduke Eugene of Austria, and King Carlos of Portugal, by the Duke of Oporto. The officials and invited guests began gathering at the palace long before noon, and as that hour approached the reception halls were filled to their utmost capacity, while outside gathered large and enthusiastic crowds of people.

The greatest watchfulness has been observed over the baby prince since the hour of his birth, special guards having been stationed day and night outside of his bedchamber, for Spanish custom does not permit any possibility of a changing being foisted on the nation.

Mrs. Eddy's Fortune.

Two affidavits filed by the defense in the suit of the Rev. Mary Baker Eddy, by her next friend, vs. Calvin A. Frye and others, for the first time disclose to the world an idea of the wealth of the founder and leader of the Christian Science, which will easily reach $1,000,000. Fred N. Ladd, Mrs. Eddy's private secretary, who avers that on March 6 he turned over to the trustees under the deed of trust, executed that day, bonds of the par value of $78,770, and notes and bank books for $58,614.84. The real estate holdings are not given. Hawley N. Chase, an expert accountant of Boston, certifies Mr. Ladd's figures.

Kid Having Fun.

The fact that there is no law reposing authority in government officers to protect official wireless stations during the exchange of wireless messages is giving a great deal of trouble to the station at the Washington navy yard. A youth living in that vicinity, the son of a policeman, has set up a station of his own and takes delight in intercepting messages during official exchanges. He has represented himself to be at a distant naval station or at sea on warships equipped with wireless apparatus. The local police authorities were appealed to, but said they had not the power to interfere with the youth's experiments.

Ruef Pleads Guilty.

Abraham Ruef, San Francisco's notorious political boss, nervous and pallid, in Judge Dwyer's court, pleaded guilty to the crime of extortion, for which he was to be tried by the jury already selected. Pleading guilty he made an impressive address to the judge, stating that he had commenced his career in politics with high ideals for himself and for the city, but that conditions had broken him down, and now desired only an opportunity to make reparation and restore his character before the world.

As he concluded he fell back into his chair, almost fainting, and the tears coursed down his cheeks. His health, he said, could not endure the strain of the trial which he was facing and the torture was beyond the endurance of those who were nearest and dearest to him.

Confederate Headstones.

The war department will award within a few days the contract for the 20,000 white marble headstones, to mark the graves of confederate soldiers and sailors who died in federal prisons and military hospitals in the north during the civil war, and who were buried near the place of their confinement. This will be the first step toward action by the government to mark these graves.

Col. Wm. Elliott, an officer of the confederate army, and formerly representative from South Carolina, has been appointed commissioner to take charge of the work.

Down the Mississippi.

President Roosevelt intends, if possible, to make a three or four days' trip next fall down the Mississippi river, from some point in middle Illinois or Iowa to Memphis. It will, if at all, be made in company with the members of the inland waterways commission, of which Rep. Burton, of Ohio, is chairman, and who, like the president, will be the guests of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway association.

The proposition to bond Plymouth for $12,000 for paving purposes was defeated.

Charles Oliver, of Allegheny, Pa., who is a student at Yale, has been found guilty of the theft of a barber's razor, and was fined $7 and costs. A right to vote in Massachusetts, and Oliver fought the case vigorously. He will appeal.

Gen. Lee Christmas and former President Bonilla, of Honduras, will meet in Mobile in a few days. They will go to Belize, British Honduras, where they will establish headquarters preparatory to making a determined effort to regain the presidency of Honduras for Bonilla.

Tribe Extirminated.

The Herero outbreak in German Africa has ended with the practical extermination of the tribesmen. The trouble was started by the ill treatment the natives received at the hands of the German military. They were rebelling and with their old-fashioned guns and their clumsy spears inflicted defeat after defeat upon the German troops. The war cost Germany many millions of dollars and several thousands of lives. Nearly 100,000 men had to be sent out to put down the uprising, and a demand had to be made to the rich stag for more money to carry on military operations. The money was refused, whereupon the Kaiser in a rage dissolved the house.

Meantime the Hereros had exhausted their ammunition and finding it impossible to get fresh supplies, had given up the unequal fight and withdrawn from German possessions. There were about 15,000 of them left, and they determined to move northward and seek a new settlement in the Lake Ngami region. Food was scarce and they met with many hardships on the way, and when they reached their destination there were only 4,000 of them left. All the others had perished on the way.

Stifle Competition.

A portion of the recommendations of Attorney Frank H. Kellogg and Charles Severance, to the interstate commerce commission concerning the Harriman railroad investigation, has been published.

The report reviews the testimony and holds that railroad competition has been suppressed in an area equal to one-third of the United States, that the contracts between the Union Pacific and Rock Island for the control of the Alton railway as well as the control of the Illinois Central and the San Pedro road are all in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

It recommends that the attorney general institute proceedings to annul these agreements.

It also recommends that there should be new and effective laws to prevent inflation of securities and declares that the profits of the great railroads of the far west are being used to buy stock and control systems in the east, instead of building more roads for the development of the west, as they should be.

Now He Resigns.

Rev. John L. Clark, whose action in marrying William E. Corey, the divorced head of the Steel trust, to Mabelle Gilman, the actress, has been criticised by many churches and others, and denounced roundly by Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, moderator in Rev. Clark's church, has resigned.

Rev. Boynton characterized the wedding as "a miserable, unholy and disgustingly bestial proceeding."

If the home means anything," said

Dr. Boynton, "if we are to carry away decent, we can't have our clergy standing up in the middle of the night to sanction such promiscuity as the Corey-Gilman affair."

"I noticed in our newspaper a statement that Congregational ministers do not object to marrying divorced persons. We have a church law that no minister shall marry divorced persons, and the Corey wedding was a flagrant violation of that law. The man who performed the ceremony does not properly appreciate what he has done. That is the most charitable thing to say. A man did the same thing down in Connecticut and died of a broken heart."

"Well," said Dr. Clark, when shown this statement, "I would not care to dispute Dr. Boynton. I have only been in the Congregational church since April, 1906, and I am not an authority upon the church's law."

Severely Rebuked.

In stating that "Congregational ministers do not mind marrying divorced persons," Rev. John L. Clark, who represented the union of William E. Corey and Mabelle Gilman, has brought down on his head a severe rebuke from the Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, moderator of the council which received him into the bosom of the Congregational church, and former pastor of the First Congregational church of Detroit.

BRIEFS.

Ralph Atkins, a Harris youth who was arrested on a charge preferred by Miss Nora Carl, of Harris, escaped from the officer and got stuck in the mud in a swamp where he was easily captured. He was taken back to face his accuser.

"I'm a regular human dynamo. You need me with an electric light wire, and I will furnish power for this city's lighting plant. I'm a wonder. This is the illusion under which Axel Olson, of Marquette, has been laboring, and caused him to be sent to the asylum."

Mrs. Nellie Lewis, the woman who climbed the fire escape and stabbed her lover, Martin Post, so that he died a few days later from his injuries, will be held to the circuit court in Grand Rapids for trial for murder in the first degree. Her aged mother continually sits near her in her cell.

A Christmas card sent by Mrs. Martha E. Van Auken, of Grand Rapids, to Mrs. Marion E. Bos, of Milwaukee, has led the police there to believe that she is a sister referred to in a letter found in Mrs. Bos' room, near her father's remains. The letter started, "Dear Sister Martha: Your prayers are about to be answered." Mrs. Van Auken had written, begging her sister to do better.

The charge of desertion has stood against City Recorder R. P. Misner, of Muskegon, since the close of the civil war, but has been removed through the efforts of Congressman McLaughlin. Just before the end of the war Misner was taken ill, and while he was in the hospital his regiment was mustered out. He failed to report, and he went directly home from the hospital.

Mrs. Martha Hulbert, formerly a Detroit cook, believes she has solved the perpetual motion puzzle. With plans and working model she will leave for Washington shortly to submit her model to the patent department.

The doctor is in attendance on W. E. Stevenson frequently nowadays. He is very poorly.

A load of furniture from Chelsea went to the Morrison family after their loss by the big fire.

F. A. Burkhardt sold two young beefs to a Gregory buyer last Wednesday, price $50 each. Good for yearlings.

The flowing well put in last August by R. W. Webb, of Merricourt, has struck—a bad loss to a 1,500 acre farm.

Messrs. Hyde and Sweeney, of Merricourt, have traded their store for 460 acres of land and will in the near future visit Michigan.

The Pomona Grange was held here last week Tuesday, and, after dinner, was opened in the fifth degree, afterwards went back to the fourth degree, and the afternoon was too short to carry out the large and well arranged program. The Scio grange was represented by Mr. Wing and Mr. Arnold, the Webster grange by Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Ball, also members from many other granges. Miss Buell, of Ann Arbor, gave an interesting talk, also Mr. English, of Sylvan. Altogether it was a time long to be remembered by all present.

SOUTHWEST MANCHESTER.

Corn is being planted here now.

Milton Sacket went to Clinton, Sunday.

Miss Gladys Matteson was home from Clark's Lake, Sunday.

Julius Matteson took a lot of fat cattle to Brooklyn Saturday.

Claud Preston, of Napoleon, spent Sunday in this neighborhood.

Ruth Herman and Anna Coleman were Jackson visitors Saturday.

Miss Matilda Huber visited at the home of Wm. Pease in Manchester, Sunday.

Chas. Schumacher's horse became frightened Sunday and ran, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Schumacher out and demolishing the buggy. Mr. Schumacher became mixed up with barbed wire and was badly hurt.

Mrs. Leon Bostedor, who left here a few weeks ago to care for her husband, who is in Montana, is now a widow, he having died last week.

Mrs. Bostedor has the sympathy of her many friends here in her sad affliction.

FRANCISCO.

James Rowe is seriously ill.

Mrs. Fred Notten is sick with the mumps.

John Killmer and wife spent Sunday in Sharon.

Mrs. Herman Dancer and daughter were guests of her parents, Sunday.

Milton Heselschwerdt, of Battle Creek, called on friends here Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Schroeder has been visiting friends in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Miss Helen Miller, of Chelsea, was the guest of Katie Riemenschneider, Friday and Saturday.

Fred Kalmbach and daughter, who have been confined to the house about two weeks, are able to be out again.

John Schmuckenberg and daughter, Emma, and Mrs. H. Schmuckenberg were the guests of friends here Sunday.

Misses Myrtle Schweinfurth and Viva Taylor, of Jackson, spent a few days of the past week at the home of P. Schweinfurth.

Forced to Draw the Line.

An English female addicted to writing sets down the painful avowment that she never had the pleasure of meeting an American lady or gentleman. Too bad, but American ladies and gentlemen have to draw the line somewhere.

After a hearing the Wayne, N. J., board of education requires George Fletcher to apologize to his teacher for speaking impudently to her because she laughed when his cat was hit with a stone thrown by another boy.

Immense Seam of Coal.

A clipping from an English newspaper, furnished by Consul E. B. Walker, of Burslem, says that a seam of coal 24 feet thick has been reached at a depth of 580 yards in South Staffordshire.

Honest Man's Excuse.

"Yes," said the honest dealer, heading up the barrel of apples he had just packed, "there's always room at the top. That's why I generally put the biggest ones in the top row."

Good Battery.

A Philadelphia girl who was married the other day admits she was attracted by the young man's baseball pitching. Good combination. He was the pitcher, she the catcher.

Creditable.

It is a credit to America's scientific spirit that money can be found to finance a polar expedition instead of being invested in a trust nearer home.

Had His Fears.

One day while riding on one of the suburban cars, two boys of about ten years of age were overheard discussing what they were going to do when they became men. One of them was not decided, but the other one remarked emphatically: "I always did want to be a boat builder, but I will bet a nickel that I will end up in the ministry yet."—Chicago Tribune.

Small Mexican Church.

At Penon, Mexico, a suburb of Mexico City, may be seen what is perhaps the smallest church in the world. It nestles under the shadow of a small volcano. The church is about ten feet high and 12 feet wide. Whenever a couple is married at the little altar of the church there is barely room for the groom and bride to turn around at the same time.

Marie Corelli on "Baby Talk."

When a man is born he at once displays that fractious and fickle disposition which is so often significant of his future development—and woman has to carry him up and down in her arms, talking nonsense to him, or, as it is called, "baby language." She knows she has to begin that way, because he would not understand sense.

Progress in New Zealand.

A number of great engineering projects are under way in New Zealand looking to the utilization of some of the many water powers of that country. The most notable of these is the harnessing of the famous Huka falls at a cost of $8,000,000, which will supply the Auckland district with 76,000 horse power.

Vulgarized Fashions.

It seems almost hopeless now for a fashion of any kind to be really exclusive, fashions do not drift downwards gradually nowadays, but arrive simultaneously for rich and poor alike—vulgarized and crude, it is true, but the type will be found to be the same.—London Tatler.

Keeps Dust from Glass Vases.

Handsome glass vases may be kept free from the accumulation of dust at the bottom by inserting a wad of tissue paper the color of the vase when it is not in use. By taking this means of keeping them clean the beauty of the glass is retained.

Taming Fishes.

Can fish be tamed? It seems impossible. But there exists a man—a Swiss doctor named Fastenrath—who says he has done so, and photographs have been taken which prove beyond all dispute that he is right.—The Strand Magazine.

The Human Brain.

The human brain has not steadily increased since palaeolithic times, and as Prof. Lankester tells us, by way of concrete illustration, the brain of Isaac Newton was not much larger than that of an Australian black.—London Outlook.

Glass Has Long Been Known.

The history of glass is more than 3,000 years old. Egypt made it, so did Greece, and the Romans in their turn used it, an important adjunct to the luxurious mode of living.

Medicines Made Tasteless.

Medicines are made almost absolutely tasteless, according to a new German process, by causing them, in liquid form, to be absorbed by natural agar-agar, then granulating or pulverizing and drying.

Boy Lost.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who didn't like to put on his Sunday clothes.—Aitchison Globe.

A Narrow Escape.

C. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at the Bank Drug Store.

Notice.

On Wednesday, May 29, there will be a bee at the Maple grove cemetery, of Sylvan Center, for the purpose of cleaning the cemetery and fixing the graves. By order of committee, Samuel P. Guthrie, secretary.

We Trust Doctors

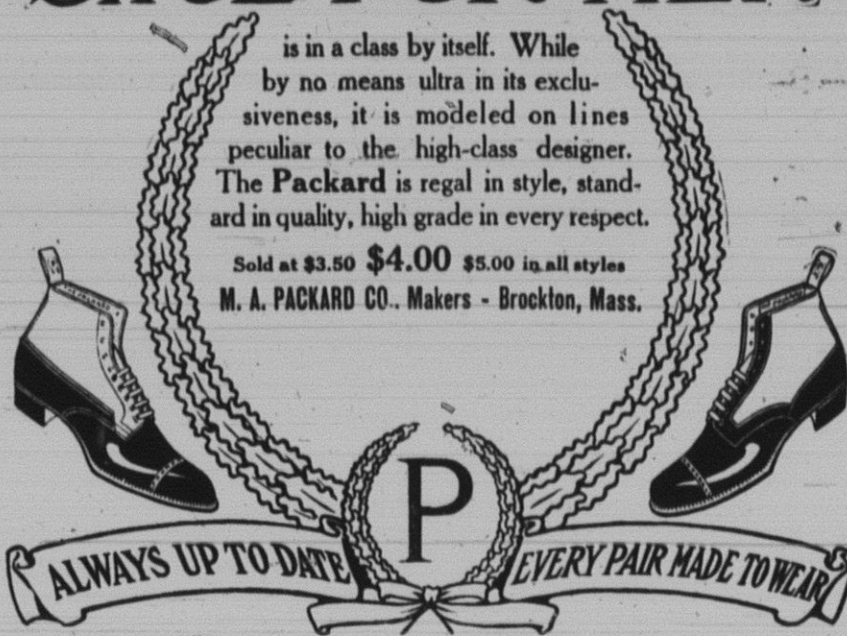

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

You must look well after the condition of your liver and bowels. Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetable. The dose is only one pill at bedtime.

Defined Status of Water.

At one time the bailiff in charge of an English jury was sworn to keep them "without meat, drink or fire." Justice Maule once gave the classic reply to the bailiff who inquired whether he might grant a jurymen's request for a glass of water: "Well, it is not meat, and I should not call it drink. Yes, you may."

B & B STEEL RANGES

UNEXCELLED IN QUALITY. HANDSOME IN APPEARANCE.

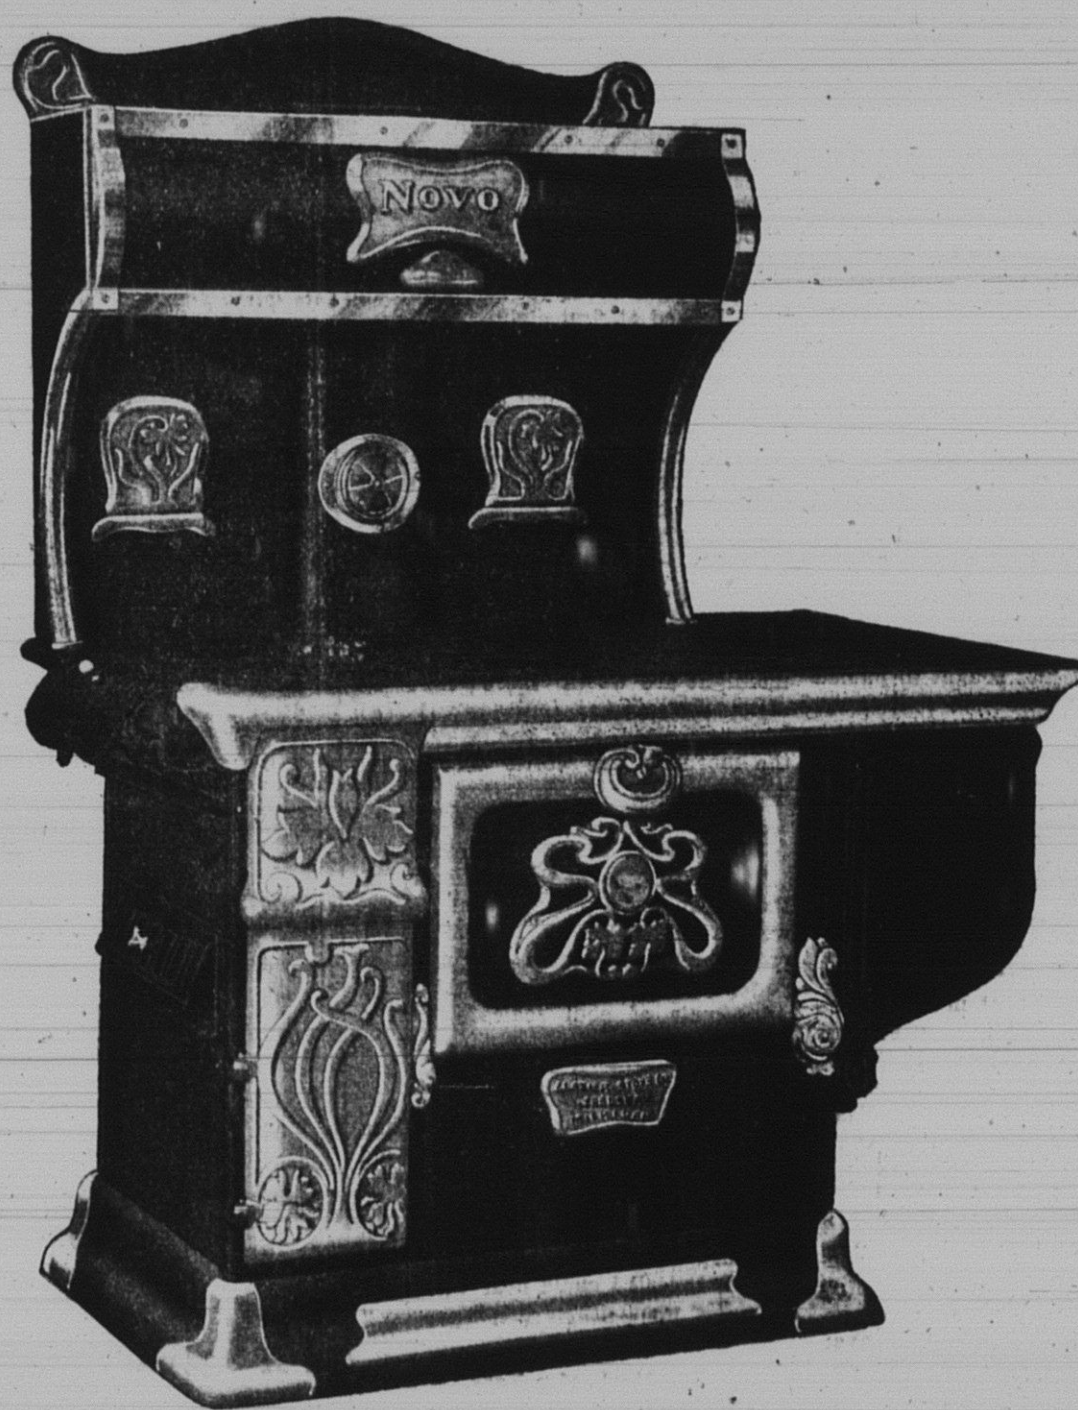

Originality and Striking Beauty

Understand, please, that our Novo Steel Range is not the old-fashioned, ordinary kind; it is brand new in more ways than one. First of all, the design is different. Our pattern stands out among all other ranges, distinctive in appearance and strikingly handsome. By means of heavy steel top and bottom mouldings, with corner pieces in harmony, we secure an effect of graceful form and a substantial beauty of line and curve which can only be compared in furniture with a heavy, plain, mahogany cabinet. The ornamental designs on fire box doors, oven doors, etc., are just as original and characteristic; something absolutely new in steel range design and bound to please a lady's taste for beauty.

Scientific Heat Insulation

The B & B excels all other steel ranges in the care used to save ALL THE HEAT for baking. The flue which carries the heat around the oven is lined on the outside with a thick wall of Asbestos. This keeps the heat IN THE FLUE and AROUND THE OVEN instead of allowing it to escape into the room. Other range makers use Asbestos simply where it will be in plain sight and ordinarily noticed. We use it there and also in the out of the way corners where it is just as important.

You will find our prices most favorable in comparison with other leading patterns of corresponding weight and quality.

Decoration that is Really Decorative

The decorative effect is secured through the use of a conventional floral design displayed in simple panels. This feature of the design has been handled moderately and the result is so successful that there is no suggestion of fussiness nor confusion to the eye. As to the design itself, it may be compared to the conventional figures which are so much employed by the skilled craftsman in copper, brass and silver. Designers in wall decorations and fabrics are working along exactly similar lines, so that it is not overstating the case to say that our designers have made use of the most characteristic as well as the most attractive developmenis of practical household art in many years.

Doors and Drafts Air Tight

All fitting points on doors and drafts are carefully ground by experienced stove mounters until an absolutely tight joint is secured. This guarantees many things for the purchaser of the stove—a strong draft THROUGH THE FIRE instead of OVER IT, when you want a hot fire; complete economy of fuel when you check the fire for the night and wish to shut out all air.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS.

Minnie & Tubbs,
Hardware and Plumbing.

Eaton Rapids, Michigan, April 12th, 1907.

Mr. F. P. Glazier,
Chelsea, Mich.

Dear Sir:

Dr. and Mrs. Bradley were in our store today and saw your new Novo Steel Range on the floor and immediately fell in love with it, Mrs. Bradley insisting that the Doctor order one before leaving the store. Ship us 1 only—No. 8-18 square, with high closest but no reservoir, fitted with a water front. I write this letter to you personally because you are acquainted with the Doctor and know he is quite particular and thought perhaps you would see that he gets one of your best stoves.

We are very much pleased with the looks of your new range and expect to work up a good trade on it here.

Yours very truly,

Minnie & Tubbs,
Per H. C. Minnie.

A. Munson & Son,
Stoves and House Furnishing Goods.

Medina, Ohio, April 24th, 1907.

Glazier Stove Co.

Dear Sirs:

Allow us to congratulate you on your product, as the No. 9-20 "Novo Range," is the finest we have ever seen for the money.

How long would it be before you could ship us another 9-20 Novo, in case we should want it, as there is only one objection to our having a sample Novo on our floor—it renders the stock we have on hand unattractive and unsalable—because your range takes the shine off of anything we have on hand for the same price.

Respectfully yours,

A. Munson & Son.

BREVITIES

Decoration Day there will be matinee races at the Driving park in Milan.

Michigan spends $3.82 per week per student, Wisconsin $6.85, Illinois $7.59, Harvard $10.37.

The G. A. R. of Milan have prepared a well arranged program for their memorial services on Decoration day.

Stockbridge parties have been awarded the contract for painting the United Brethren church at Waterloo.

The Moss school near Munith has been closed for a few days on account of a case of diphtheria in the school district.

The hotel at Gregory has been closed and the town at present is without a place for the accommodation of the traveling public.

Stockbridge has a saloon. It is run in connection with the hotel. For a number of years past the town has been on the prohibition list.

For the first time in the history of the Cement City school commencement exercises will be held on June 11. The class consists of five "sweet" girl graduates.

Rev. Fr. Comerford, of Pinckney, who spent the past few months in Rome arrived in New York May 14, and will again take charge of his parish work in the near future.

Beginning with 1909 the medical department of the University will require six years work for graduation, two years in the literary department and four in the medical school.

Evan Essery, of Manchester, who was recently elected county school commissioner, has purchased a residence in Ann Arbor and will make that city his future home after July 1.

It is reported that the hotel in Pinckney is about to be closed up. The landlord did not secure a saloon license and it is claimed that the house will not pay without a bar in connection with the hotel.

G. J. Baetcke set out 10,000 young locust trees on his farm in Genoa one day last week. He set out 8,000 of the same kind a few years ago and in a few years more they will become valuable timber.—Brighton Argus.

The Business Men's Association of Tecumseh, have secured a $10,000 novelty works for that city and the machinery for the new factory is being placed in position. The factory will start up in about 30 days.

The electors of Hartland township, Livingston county, last spring voted to pay a bounty of 25 cents each for crows and a number of the young boys of the township are making three dollars per day by shooting the birds at 25 cents per head.

Stockbridge common council has passed an ordinance limiting the speed of automobiles through the corporation limits to 10 miles per hour and forbidding the owners leaving their machines standing on the street longer than 30 minutes at one time.

On petition of one of the stockholders of the Ann Arbor Argus Publishing Co. last Thursday, Judge Kinney, in the circuit court, appointed Fred H. Belser receiver. The company's plant is worth $6,000, and their indebtedness is about $5,000. The plant will for the present be run by the old management but sold as soon as a purchaser can be found.

The jury in the case of Isaac Lewis, charged with the murder of Police Captain Holzapfel, of the Jackson police force was unable to agree, standing seven for acquittal on the question of the prisoner's sanity at the time of the shooting. The jury was out nine hours and took 17 ballots. Lewis was remanded to jail until the September term of court. He was jubilant.

Always an Inventor.
Sir William Crookes, who invented the theoscope and discovered thallium, is interested in the entire realm of invention. His interest in photography goes back 50 years. Scientific literature has been enriched by some eight hand books and manuals from his pen. He has edited in the last 20 years six different scientific journals.

Marriage the Only Excitement.
The average English girl of the upper classes starts life hopelessly slack and indifferent. In her more or less sheltered, easy life she has no particular interests, no opinions, no temptations. The only excitement of her life is her marriage, and even that she takes very timidly.—Ladies' Field.

New York's Humanitarianism.
New York city has more asylums, homes, hospitals and organizations for the relief of human suffering than any other city in the world.

Feel languid, weak, run-down? Head-ache? Stomach "off"?—Just a plain case of lazy liver. Burdock Blood Bitters tones liver and stomach, promotes digestion, purifies the blood.

Origin of "Friday Facc."
Friday, as a fast day, is responsible for the derisive nickname, "Friday face," formerly in common use and applied to sour-visaged persons. The earliest mention of the word occurs in an old comedy entitled "Wily Beguiled," of 1606. "What a Friday faced slave it is. I think in my conscience his face never keeps holiday." And yet "holiday" was originally "holy day," Good Friday being the paramount holy day in the Christian year.

Not Such a Fool After All.
A well-known surgeon was somewhat quick-tempered if he found a student exceptionally dull, and on one occasion when he had been more than usually irritated by a student's density asked him how many times he thought a fool could hear a name mentioned without remembering it. "I don't know," replied the student; "how many times could you yourself?"

Coal Supply of India.
India will eventually control the oriental coal markets. At present Japan is her only competitor, but Japan's coal area is only 6,000 square miles, with an annual output of 10,000,000 tons. India's present output is not so much, but her possibilities as a coal producer are far greater than Japan's, even including the Pashan mines in Manchuria.

She Didn't Understand.
A small boy who applied for admission to a New York public school, when asked as to his father's business, proudly responded: "He's a book-maker." That afternoon the teacher asked him to carry home a note which said: "Dear Mr. Blank:—Would you please tell me the cost of reprinting a set of Appleton's Cyclopaedia?"

Oldest Ships in Service.
Denmark claims some interesting specimens of marine architecture in the five oldest vessels in the world. The Albertine was built in 1794, the Constance in 1793, the De Wende Brode in 1786, the Emile Hauser in 1786 and the Marie in 1776. All are still in regular service, some even trading to Iceland.

The Strategy of War.
Major's Wife (to her husband)—Could you not find some fault with Capt. Lehmann during the drill to-morrow morning, so that he will get into a bad humor? Then he will refuse to let his wife buy the Paris hat that she wants.—Translated for Transatlantic Tales from Megendorfer Blatter.

Only Road to Success.
If you want to succeed in the world you must make your own opportunities as you go on. You cannot count greater folly than to sit by the roadside until some one comes along and invites you to ride with him to wealth or influence.—John B. Gough.

Watch Jewels Not Costly.
A jeweler, no matter how dishonest, would not steal the jewels in a watch, for they are valueless; they cost only ten cents apiece. In antique watches the jewels were often costly. In modern watches they are never worth more than $15 a gross.

Believe in Peculiar Remedy.
In Transylvania the remedy prescribed for swelling of the glands of the neck is to steal a piece of bacon and bind a slice of it over the swelling. This is a sovereign remedy for warts in Schleswig and Styria.

No Recreation Allowed.
Policeman (to tramp)—I have been watching you loitering by this stream for the last two hours. Either you intend to fish or to drown yourself, and both are strictly forbidden.—Fliegende Blaetter.

Black Snow.
Investigation of "black" snow, which fell in Carinthia, writes a Vienna correspondent, showed that it was full of tiny black six-legged insects ("snow fleas"), well known in the Alpine districts.

Second Half of His Task.

Reason for His Exploitation.
"Why," asked a man to-day, "do you exploit Sam Brouse so much as a fisherman?" He gives us fish.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.

A Suggestion That Came too Late.
Lady.—To-day I am 30 years old. Oh, why didn't my parents postpone their wedding for ten years!—Fliegende Blaetter.

He Attracts Little Notice.
A man who never makes enemies is a good deal like a post hole after the dirt has been shoveled back into it.

That Knife Habit.
The present year sees the tercentenary of the introduction of forks into France and England from Italy. Think of it; 300 years old! And most of our brethren of today continue to be sword swallowers.

THE RICKSHAW AND DANDY.

Primitive Modes of Travel in Hill Country of India.

In the mountain districts of India the principal vehicles of passenger conveyance are the rickshaw and the "dandy," with which Rudyard Kipling has made us familiar. United States Consul Gen. Michael, of Calcutta, writes thus about these vehicles: "The rickshaw is pushed and pulled through the streets and on the roads leading out into the country by four coolies, and the 'dandy' is carried on the shoulders of four and some times six coolies. Saddle ponies are also used to some extent but most of the inhabitants and quite all visitors use the 'rickshaw and dandy.' The latter is constructed on the plan of a sleigh box, but longer. A pole is attached fore and aft, which is long enough to give a springy motion when the coolies are walking and trotting. A cross-piece rests on the shoulders of the coolies and is shifted now and then from one shoulder to the other for rest. By the command of the coolie in charge this shift is made simultaneously. As a rule, both the rickshaws and the 'dandies' are heavier than they need to be, and they are generally lacking in finish. Yet these vehicles cost as much as light and strong ones we finished should cost. The writer would like to place alongside of the rickshaws and 'dandies' in use in India some samples manufactured in the United States after designs made by an American designer. The samples would attract orders."

HIS DUTY AS HE SAW IT.

Had Been Told to Carry Out the Provisions, and He Wanted Them.

The widow of a village grocer was industriously placing the large, racy-cheeked apples on the top of the diminutive shivered ones in the barrel when Farmer Giles entered the establishment, according to the Rochester Herald. "I want that tub o' butter," he said, "and those hams, and that lot o' sugar, and—" The shopkeeper rubbed her hands together with delight. "Yes, sir," she beamed, "delighted to serve you, I'm sure. And what else may I supply you with?" "Well," went on Mr. Giles, "there's all them bottles of tomato sauce, and them boxes o' biscuits an'—an' all that other stuff." He concluded, vaguely, sweeping his hand around the shop. "Good gracious!" exclaimed the widow, now rather alarmed, "whatever do you want with all them goods?" "I dunno, I'm sure," was the farmer's puzzled reply, but I'm the executor of your late husband's will, an' the lawyer's just told me it's my duty to carry out the provisions. So come on, I've got three carts waitin' outside!"

The Infant Terrible.

A mother had just sought to punish her youthful son—and the son, to escape, had crawled under a bed—when a woman friend called at the apartment. "What a lovely place you have here!" the caller remarked. "So pretty—and so bright and clean. You must give more personal attention to things than I do." At this moment the small boy crawled out, scenting safety. "Say, mamma, was his greeting, "I don't get under any more beds in this house. Look at me. I guess when you sweep you never sweep under there. The dirt's an inch thick." The caller looked off into space and the mother exclaimed, enthusiastically: "Oh, let me show you my new hat, my dear!"

In Darkest Asia.

Mr. E. L. Harris, United States consul at Smyrna, makes an interesting report on conditions in Asia Minor, and in regard to electricity, says: "The city of Smyrna, with nearly 400,000 population, has no electric railway, electric light or telephone. There are cities all over Asia Minor varying in size from 20,000 to 50,000 inhabitants where there are opportunities of getting concessions for electric light and traction. It is strange for American electrical concerns to turn their backs on this field, with the excuse that nothing under a $1,000,000 concession would attract them."

Not a Reading Community.

The town of Charleroi, Pa., has a Carnegie library in which there are several thousand volumes and the town is roundly taxed to support the institution. Last year, according to a report by the librarian just made public, there was one solitary patron of the library. The librarian expressed the opinion that the people of the town were so much interested in roller skating, baseball games, bridge whist and poker that they had no time for books.

Company Breeds Appetite.

"I think the reason you can eat so little and live," said the woman who eats to the woman who doesn't, "is because you are by yourself so much. Now, I am different. I work in a room with a lot of people. They absorb my vitality to such an extent that I am hungry all the time. Regularly I eat breakfast, lunch and dinner and sometimes when I go to the theater I have a supper afterward. Yes, I suppose it is a good deal cheaper to be by yourself."

Cheapest accident insurance—Dr. Thomas Electric Oil Stops the pain and heals the wound. All druggists sell it.

A Dog Worth Knowing.

Two years ago a boy 14 years old named Edward Sweeney, living at Opelika, Ala., was followed home by a small dog. The animal was bob-tailed and squint-eyed and by no means good looking, and the boy was laughed at for having him around. Within a week, however, the dog brought home a five-dollar bill in his mouth. The next week he brought a silver dollar. Then he brought a pocket knife, and followed that with a dollar bill. There has hardly been a week in these two years that the dog has not found something. He makes it his business to hunt the streets and highways, and often travels a distance of 30 miles. Up to the present date he has found and brought home $38 in cash, besides many useful things.

Women of Yezo.

The women of the Island of Yezo, whence it is supposed came the original inhabitants of Japan, have a very peculiar custom of making up their faces to look as though they have mustaches. These women are called Ainu, and upon the upper lip of each Ainu belle is tattooed something that resembles a long, flowing mustache. To possess an artistically tattooed ornament of this kind marks a woman as especially attractive and her chances of making a good matrimonial alliance are very small if she is not thus adorned. As a matter of fact, the men of the island choose their spouses more for the beauty of this tattooed design than the grace of form or charm of feature.

The Pet Animal Stage.

"Why don't you get you a cat?" asked her woman friend. "You wouldn't be half so lonely if you had some little live animal like that always around." "I haven't come to the animal stage yet, thank heaven," she replied. "When men and women lose all hope of human love they go to the animal kingdom, the men to the dogs, some literally, and the women to the cats; and they are right, perhaps, since faithfulness is to be found mainly among the animals; but as I say, I haven't quite arrived at that stage of the game yet."

Her First Impressions.

"The first impression is the one you should always go by," the little grass widow advised. "I know by experience. I have never yet had a husband that I liked at first sight. He always had to win me. Then, after I had been married awhile, I invariably went back to my first impression of dislike that kept on getting worse and worse till I had to leave him. I shall never marry again," she finished, "unless I fall head over heels in love with him the first minute I meet him."

Best Sleep of All.

"I see that an eminent physician declares that two hours of sleep before midnight are worth more than six after that hour." "Nonsense! Two hours of sleep after you're called in the morning are worth more than anything else."

Matters Little, Anyway.

"Conceding," said the professor, "although it isn't proved, that a soul weighs half an ounce, as tested by a pair of material scales, how much do you suppose your body would weigh on a pair of soul scales? Half a grain?"

'Twas Ever Thus.

"I thought you called up information for the number," said he. "Why did you quit and ring off?" "Information had either dropped dead suddenly or gone off to dinner with a friend," she replied. "I waited and waited and waited, and all I could hear was some blooming phonograph playing away."

Too Much of a Task.

A London professor has been counting the germs that were picked up by a woman who dragged her skirt through the street. He found 16,500,000 of them. We are authorized, however, to say that he did not take the trouble to name them all.

His Excuse.

"Yesh," m' dear," began Luschman, "I'm rather late to-night, but you—see I—" "Come now," said his wife, "be honest, for once. Why didn't you tell the truth?" "Well, m' dear, I'm 'fraid you wouldn't b'lieve me. Truth's stranger'n fiction, y' know."

Would "Exchange" Scandal.

The following advertisement appears in a fashionable English newspaper: "Lonely lady wishes to exchange scandal with another; replies required only from those in the best 'society,' etc."

On the Right Track.

The petition of the unmarried women of a Massachusetts town for a tax on bachelors shows that they have some idea of the tax question. It wouldn't be possible to add any more taxes to the married man's bunch.

NOT ALL A COMPLIMENT.

Wife's Pride in Husband's Success Had a Tinge of Regret.

The doctor and his wife had lived together four years. She was a widow when he met her. He was a physician of note. Their life together was a happy one and no quibbling had entered the home to set a bad example for their hopeful. But the wife had a reputation as a wit. Her witticisms and little sarcastic remarks were known far and wide. Her friends had all heard of them. They had all felt the sting of them. The physician had been working with a hard case. He had spent day and night at the home of his patient and had won the fight for life. And he was accordingly well satisfied with himself. On his arrival home one evening he turned to his wife, saying: "You see, wife dear? I have pulled my patient through. He is now well on the road to recovery." "Yes, hubby, dear," returned the wife. "But you are such a perfect master of your profession. You are so successful. Ah, I wish that I had met you five years sooner than I did. Then my poor, dear Billy would never have died."

Free to Rheumatism Sufferers

A Full-sized 75c Bottle of Uric-O, the Only Absolute Cure for Rheumatism Ever Discovered

Write For It Today

We want every man or woman who suffers from rheumatism and has lost all faith in remedies to write us today for an absolutely free trial of the famous Smith Prescription, Uric-O, for rheumatism. Uric-O will cure it and cure it to stay cured. No faith is required while taking this superb remedy. You take it according to directions, and you will be cured in spite of yourself and any doubts you may have as to its efficacy. We don't ask you to buy Uric-O on faith. We'll buy a large 75c bottle for you and make you a present of it, if you will agree to take it according to directions.

We could not afford to do this if we didn't have all the confidence in the world in Uric-O, and know that after you are cured you would have no hesitancy about recommending the remedy to all your friends and acquaintances who are suffering from rheumatism. This is the method that has made Uric-O famous wherever introduced. The cure of several so-called Rheumatic Incurables in a community means a steady sale of Uric-O in that vicinity. Uric-O is good for rheumatism and rheumatism only. It acts upon the blood by driving the uric and poisonous rheumatic acid from the system. This is the only way rheumatism can ever be cured and it is the Uric-O way. Most druggists sell Uric-O, but if you want to test it, cut out this notice and mail it today with your name and address and the name of your druggist to The Smith Drug Co., Syracuse, N. Y., and they will send you a full-sized 75c bottle free.

MAJOR OZONE'S FRESH AIR CRUSADE

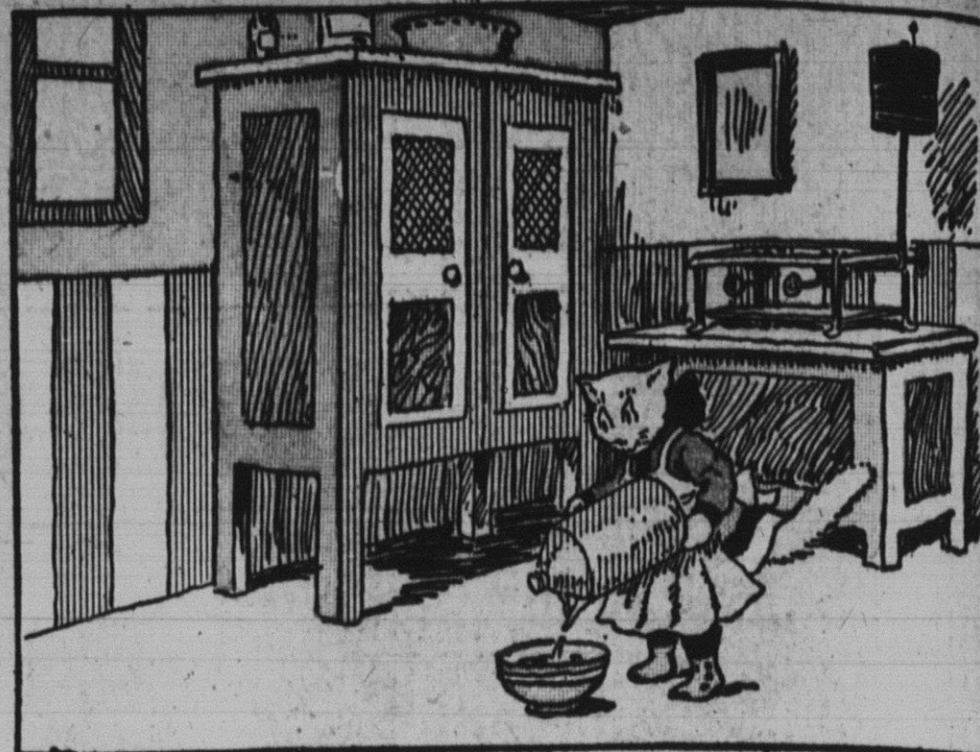

PINKIE PRIM

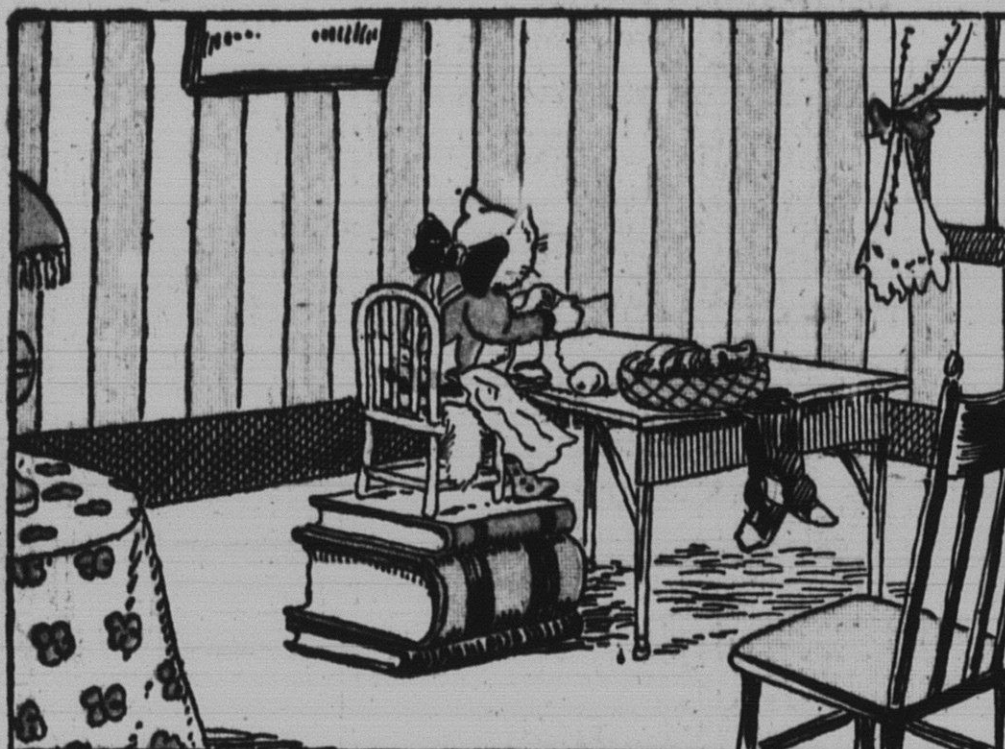

"I wish you'd throw these socks away;—
This last year's hat, — those ties!"
Big Brother unto Pinkie said;
Who gasped in great surprise.

"What's the matter?" Pinkie thought.
"They all look good to me!
They ought to stand for fixing up
I've got a mind to see"

In one big bunch she gathered all,
Then got some gasoline;
And pretty soon, — why, bless your heart! —
The ties were good and clean.

Her darning basket, with its egg
And thread and needles, soon Got very, very busy. And
The socks were done by noon.

Hung out upon the line to sun,
Our Pinkie viewed with pride
Her morning's work; then hurried in
To one more task inside.

Big Brother's hatband dirty was.
She cleaned and turned it well.
That night a dollar, crisp and new,
In Pinkie's apron fell.

INTERESTING FOR WOMEN

FLORAL HAIR WREATHS BECOMING TO YOUNG LADIES

BEAUTIFUL HAIR ORNAMENTS

Look Best for Young Ladies.

Take a young face to stand out from the crowd. One of the hair ornaments that are fashionable, and among these occasionally there is one that cannot be the least bit of color above the hair. Others look better when the hair is not broken by other ornament. Perhaps, for a person who has difficulty in adding them becomingly, it is better to do the hair according to the season.

Feathery things are fashionable, especially with young married women. One attractive design in white silver shows two little vaukyre of net, almost entirely covered with gleaming silver paliettes, white paradise plume standing up over the wings.

A single outstanding ostrich tip is also only with a high coiffure. Ostrich tips, one upstanding the other curling downward in upper half, usually are more becoming than the single one. The upward curling feather softens harsh angle of the hair.

Some of the prettiest ostrich feathers this year are tipped with gold and silver at the feathery ends. Black and gold, white and gold and delicate colors are liked, and knots of velvet, either in choux or bow form, hold tips, either single or in bunches.

Next to the jeweled and feather ornaments a single large rose or bunch of smaller flowers is preferred. In fact, these have a way of nestling to the hair so that they can be worn becomingly when one cannot stand the feather.

Wreaths and coronets of leaves are apt to be becoming. One pretty wreath which easily can be made is carried out in pointed leaves and shaped in the Napoleonic fashion, with the points meeting in the center. It is more effective in gold and silver leaves or in the simple powdered foliage, or in those shot with gold and silver. One pretty way to fix them is to have at the back a large flat bow of velvet ribbon resting flatly on the hair just below the coils.

Have Systematized Home Work

Inexperienced young housewife who for the first time tries to manage a home, doing much, if not all, of the work herself, will find a host of difficulties cleared away as she will systematize her daily work.

The system is only regularity. Doing in order all of the things are necessary, so that before realizing it everything is done. There is leisure to read, sew or do much less time is consumed in the work, far less nervous and one's temper is saved.

Begin with, if a woman does begin a maid, she should so arrange her work that by noon certainly, if not before, it is all done, the rest of the day she has to do.

Of course breakfast is the first, and next should be clearing up. Many housekeepers bring her from the table into the kitchen as soon as the meal is over, but I believe in this, because there is ready confusion in the kitchen, more dishes simply add to it.

After the breakfast table is set, return to the kitchen. Begin by washing the pots and kettles that have been used, and then whatever cups, spoons and the like. There are, of course, as many as cleared. Wipe up the sink, that there may be no place for the dining-room and then bring out the dishes. Do this one at a time or even at once, but have a tin tray (the lightest) large enough for almost all of the dishes, fill from the table and bring them in one trip. Take them from the dishes and place it near the sink, as clean.

Wash the glass first in water and then the soap has been taken off three or four at once, and if the water is hot enough they will almost dry themselves. They may be lifted from the pan with a mop handle. Turn them upside down to drain and then with a fresh towel wipe them. Put each on the tray as it is dry, so that it may be returned to the dining-room in one trip. After the glasses, wash the tea or coffee cups, proceeding as with the glasses. Then, there being no grease yet in the water, put in all the small silver. Let that stay in and over it put the plates a few at a time. After several of these are washed it is well to turn out the water and put in fresh, letting it run on the soap to form a suds. Finish washing the plates, then wash the silver, and lastly, do the vegetable dishes or platters.

I prefer getting out dinner things that may not be necessary to return to the kitchen until lunch time. To go back constantly to the same kind of work is not only monotonous, but tiring.

FOR THE LAYETTE.

One of the most useful articles for the layette is the flannel blanket for baby's bath. The bath blanket is not only an apron for the protection of the mother's gown, but also a soft warm wrap to enfold the delicate little body of the infant as it is taken from the tub. These blankets are usually made of a good, heavy weight wool flannel, and two yards of material is required. Double the goods, which gives two lengths of one yard each. Make a tuck an inch deep where the flannel is folded over and run through it inch-wide wash ribbon of any preferred color, having it sufficiently long to tie around the waist when in use. The edges of this blanket apron may have a binding of wash ribbon corresponding in color to the waist ribbon, or they may be simply buttonholed with wash silk.

Beautifully carved tortoise-shell combs, quite large and high, are the universal ornament of the moment.

The low coiffure seems to have completely fallen into disfavor. Hair is not now so closely waved, but is more loosely and naturally dressed.

The face veil is used principally for the tailored hat. It is noticeable for its absence on the picture hat unless as a trimming of the hat or in the guise of a chiffon scarf tied under the chin.

Bretelles of lace, ribbon and galon are quite a feature of the newest frocks. Sashes also are to be worn, especially in the graceful empire fashion, with the knot between the shoulder blades and wide, long ends of the soft ribbon sweeping down the skirt.

With the exception of cherries and one or two models with gooseberries, there is little fruit found on hats at present. There is, however, an unprecedented demand for flowers and wreaths of variegated flowers—heliotrope, forget-me-nots, roses and verbena—are to be used on shaded hats. Sometimes this wreath is carried right across the top of the hat down over the brim on the sides and around the coiffure at the back. The effect is very picturesque and the same idea is carried out with ribbon and velvet streamers.

The range of colors produced for the millinery of the spring and summer is unusually extended and the choice is diversified. The browns, in maroon, kola and the golden tone, are all popular, as are the grays in smoke and in nickel tones; the stronger of the houblon or hop-green, mustard, lemon and sulphur yellow, apricot, old red and old rose. There is likewise to be observed in collections a general line of reds in raspberry and geranium tints, rose pink, marine, saxe and ciel blues, strong greens, mauve and certain of the neutral tints. Black remains in request in hats and models in white were not wholly absent from display in the recent openings.

Even very tall women are affecting striped ballates, quite contrary to all rule, but as dressmakers are advocating the sylphlike figure as the modish one, one can readily conceive why the vogue for frocks of striped materials is so strongly advocated by smart dressmakers. For those to whom striped materials are an impossibility there are shown charming new designs in checked and plaided effects. It would seem as though there could be nothing new in a plaid, but shops are showing those old favorites, ponges and rajah silks, in tan, gray, and, in fact, all of the fashionably tinted colors, barred with hairline blocks of contrasting color. That these silks are modish goes without saying. Smart folks are affecting them in the new gray, green, and wood brown casts.

TO CLEAN LEATHER.

Carefully dust the leather; then wash with warm water, being particular to remove all soiled spots and dirt.

Wipe dry and wipe over with a black cloth dipped into the beaten white of an egg, mixed with its bulk of warm water.

Flaxseed water is always good for cleaning leather upholstered furniture.

Pour half a cupful of boiling water over two tablespoonfuls of flaxseed and bring to the boiling point. Strain, and when cool apply with a cloth to the leather.

THE LATEST FROM FASHIONDOM

Many Novel Ideas in Style Now

Preserving Oil Cloth.

Lined oil well rubbed into oilcloth will make it last twice as long. Wipe it off well and let dry thoroughly before using.

Laying Carpets.

A carpet should never be laid on a damp floor for the later at once becomes a breeding place for moths.

Heat Marks On Varnish.

Marks made by hot dishes on polished wood should be rubbed with paraffin. This will remove the white mark and the wood may then be polished with beeswax and turpentine or furniture cream as usual.

Veil Around Hat.

Never leave a veil tied round a hat, for it soon becomes stretched, limp and soiled. Unpin it when the hat is removed. Shake it, take it at the two ends and roll it round and round, then place away in a box or piece of tissue paper.

To Clean Paintings.

To clean an oil painting that is covered with dirt and fly specks wipe all the dust from the painting with a soft cloth. Put a little linseed oil in a saucer, and dipping a finger in the oil, rub the painting gently. It will require time and patience, but the effect will repay you. Artists say that in cleaning a painting nothing but the fingers dipped in oil or in water should be used.

The Ice Chest.

To keep an ice chest in good condition wash thoroughly once a week with cold or lukewarm water in which washing soda has been dissolved. If by chance anything is split in the ice chest it should be wiped off at once. Milk and butter very quickly absorb odor and if in the ice chest with other foods should be kept closely covered.

Washing Lace.

Lace may be easily washed and made white again if put to soak in a basin of warm water in which soap powder has been worked into a lather. Two or three of these warm lathers in twenty-four hours will be found to cleanse very dirty lace without rubbing.

For Kettles.

The inside of kettles should either be dried whenever the contents have been emptied, or they should be hung up or stood upside down in a dry place. A few drops of water, if allowed to collect at the bottom of a kettle, soon cause spots or rust, and these in time generate into holes.

A PRETTY KITCHEN

A housewife who had experienced great difficulty in training an otherwise capable servant in small habits of neatness, finally solved the problem in a sort of bribery that would appeal to any woman's innate love of pretty things.

Meals were always well cooked and served punctually, and never did a maid scrub floors more assiduously than this one, but just the same, her kitchen always looked as if housecleaning were under way.

Her mistress first attacked a particularly untidy corner, where on a small, unpainted bench which she seldom used, the maid had piled boxes holding wrapping paper, bags, string, dust rags and the other flotsam and jetsam of kitchen life. The useless bench was consigned to the cellar, and in its place was set an expensive low rocking chair. On the back of the door leading into the hall and inside the large closet door were hung shoe bags, each having six roomy pockets, and made from denim stamped in Delft blue figures. In these pockets the maid deposited all sorts of trifles she had left lying around, from dust rags and a handy old whisk broom to a now tidy string ball.

Her mistress was not surprised when the maid asked for some of the denim to make a cushion for her 98-cent rocking chair. Next she wanted some Delft figured oil cloth for two shelves over her gas stove. Today that kitchen is a model of Dutch colors and cleanliness. Whenever a new cooking utensil is desired it is chosen in blue and white enamel. All the cupboard shelves are now covered with oil cloth.

"I consider it money well invested, for now Maggie is so jealous of her domain that even the water bugs which gathered because of corners

she never dug out have disappeared. I might have lectured for weeks and never secured such results as followed the institution of a comfortable rocking chair and a pair of denim bags. We make our parlors, in which we sit a few hours each evening, as pretty as the parlor of a fortune teller, but we relegate to the kitchen, where many of us must spend the greater part of a housekeeping day, every dilapidated or shabby article we possess. No wonder most of us just hate the housework."

TRAIN THE GIRL.

To be self-reliant.
To handle money and keep accounts.
To value independence without losing loveliness.
To take care of herself without losing faith in her fellows.
To understand social conventions and use them for her own protection.
Never to let friendship infringe upon self-respect.
Never to sign papers without knowing what they are about.
Not to cling with her eyes shut.
Always to stand erect and look things squarely in the face.

HOW TO WASH

COLORED CLOTHES.

Never boil or scald them nor ever let them freeze, or the colors will be injured. Iron them the moment they are dry enough and do not let them lie damp over night. Never sprinkle them or smooth them with a hot iron. Delicate colors, especially pink or green, will frequently withstand the washing nicely, but will change as soon as a hot iron is put over them.
